SEXTON, Leonidas, a Representative from Indiana; born in Rushville, Rush County, Ind., May 19, 1827; attended the public schools of his native county and was graduated from Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa., in 1847; studied law in Rushville; and in 1848 and 1849 attended the Cincinnati Law School; was admitted to the Indiana bar in 1850, and commenced the practice of his profession in Rushville, Ind.; member of the State house of representatives in 1856; elected Lieutenant Governor of Indiana and served from January, 1873, to January, 1877; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1879); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1878 to the Forty-sixth Congress; died in Parsons, Labette County, Kans., July 4, 1880; interment in East Hill Cemetery, Rushville, Ind.

SEYBERT, Adam, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., May 16, 1773; attended the common schools; completed the medical course in the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1798 and continued studies in Europe, where he attended schools in Edinburgh, Göttingen, and Paris; returned to Philadelphia and devoted himself to chemistry and mineralogy; elected a member of the American Philosophical Society in 1797; elected as a Democrat to the Eleventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Benjamin Say; reelected to the Twelfth and Thirteenth Congresses, and served from October 10, 1809, to March 3, 1815; elected to the Fifteenth Congress (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1819); visited Europe 1819-1821 and again in 1824 and settled in Paris, France, where he died May 2, 1825.

SEYMOUR, David Lowrey, a Representative from New York; born in Wethersfield, Conn., December 2, 1808; pursued preparatory studies; was graduated from Yale College in 1826; tutor at Yale College 1828-1830; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1829, and commenced the practice of his profession in Troy, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1836; district attorney of Rensselaer County from October 14, 1839, to October 14, 1842; master in chancery in 1839; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1848-March 3, 1849); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1844 to the Twenty-ninth Congress; elected to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1852 to the Thirty-third Congress; resumed the practice of his profession; unsuccessful candidate in 1858 to the Thirty-sixth Congress; member of the constitutional convention of New York in 1867; died in Lanesboro, Berkshire County, Mass., on October 11, 1867; interment in Mount Ida Cemetery, Troy, N. Y.

SEYMOUR, Edward Woodruff (son of Origen Storrs Seymour), a Representative from Connecticut; born in Litchfield, Conn., August 30, 1832; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Yale College in 1853; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1856, and practiced in Litchfield and Bridgeport, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives in 1859, 1860, 1870, and 1871; served in the State senate in 1876; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1887); resumed the practice of his profession; appointed a judge of the Supreme Court of Connecticut in 1889; died in Litchfield, Conn., October 10, 1892; interment in the East Cemetery.

SEYMOUR, Henry William, a Representative from Michigan; born in Brockport, Monroe County, N. Y., July 21, 1834; attended the public schools, the Brockport Collegiate Institute, and the Canandaigua Academy, and was graduated from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., in 1855; studied law in Albany, N. Y., taking lectures at the Albany Law School, and was admitted to the bar in May, 1856, but never practiced; engaged in mercantile pursuits in Brockport; moved to Michigan in 1872 and settled in Sault Ste. Marie, where he engaged in the manufacture of reapers and subsequently in the manufacture of lumber and in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives 1880-1882; member of the State senate 1882-1884 and 1886-1888; elected as a Republican to the Fiftieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Seth C. Moffatt, and served from February 14, 1888, to March 3, 1889; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1888; retired from active business pursuits; died while on a visit in Washington, D. C., April 7, 1900; interment in Lakeview Cemetery, Brockport, N. Y.

SEYMOUR, Horatio (uncle of Origen Storrs Seymour), a Senator from Vermont; born in Litchfield, Conn., May 31, 1778; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Yale College in 1797; taught school in Cheshire, Conn.; pursued legal studies in the Litchfield Law School, was admitted to the bar in 1800, and commenced the practice of his profession in Middlebury, Vt.; postmaster of Middlebury 1800-1809; member of the State executive council 1809-1814; State's attorney for Addison County 1810-1813 and 1815-1819; elected as a Clay Democrat to the United States Senate in 1821; reelected in 1827, and served from March 4, 1821, to March 3, 1833; was not a candidate for reelection; unsuccessful Whig candidate for Governor of Vermont in 1836; judge of the probate court 1847-1856; died in Middlebury, Addison County, Vt., November 21, 1857; interment in the West Cemetery.

SEYMOUR, Origen Storrs (father of Edward Woodruff Seymour and nephew of Horatio Seymour), a Representative from Connecticut; born in Litchfield, Conn., February 9, 1904; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Yale College in 1824; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1826, and commenced practice in Litchfield, Conn.; served as county clerk 1836-1844; member of the State house of representatives in 1842, 1849, and 1850, and served as speaker in 1850; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-second and Thirty-third Congresses (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1855); judge of the Superior Court of Connecticut 1855-1863; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for governor in 1864 and 1865; judge of the State supreme court in 1870, chief justice in 1873, and served until retired by age limitation in 1874; chairman of the commission to settle the boundary dispute between Connecticut and New York in 1876; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1880; died in Litchfield, Litchfield County, Conn., August 12, 1881; interment in the East Cemetery.

SEYMOUR, Thomas Hart, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Hartford, Conn., September 29, 1807; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Middletown Military Academy, Connecticut, in 1829; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1833, and commenced practice in Hartford, Conn.; editor of the Jeffersonian in 1837 and 1838; judge of probate 1836-1838; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1845); declined a renomination in 1844; served in the Mexican War; commissioned major in the Connecticut Infantry March 10, 1846, and in the Ninth United States Infantry April 9, 1847; lieutenant colonel of the Twelfth Infantry August 12, 1847; brevetted colonel September 13, 1847, "for gallant and meritorious conduct in the Battle of Chapultepec, Mexico"; honorably mustered out July 25, 1848; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Connecticut in 1849; Governor of Connecticut 1850-1853; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Pierce and King in 1852; minister to Russia 1853-1858; again an unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1863; died in Hartford, Conn., September 3, 1868; interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

SEYMOUR, William, a Representative from New York; born in Connecticut about 1760; moved to Windsor, Broome County, N. Y., about 1798; attended the public schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1806, and commenced practice in Binghamton, N. Y.; returned to Windsor in 1807; justice of the peace 1812-1828; in 1833, upon his appointment as first judge of the court of common pleas of Broome County, he returned to Binghamton, where he was elected as one of the first trustees of the village in 1834; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1835-March 3, 1837); again served as first judge of the court of common pleas in Broome County until 1847; resumed the practice of his profession in Binghamton, where he died December 28, 1848; interment in Binghamton Cemetery.

SHACKELFORD, John Williams, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Richlands, Onslow County, N. C., November 16, 1844; attended the common schools and Richlands (N. C.) Academy; during the Civil War entered the Confederate Army at the age of seventeen and served throughout the war, attaining the rank of lieutenant; member of the State house of representatives 1872-1878; served in the State senate 1878-1880; was elected to preside over the convention that nominated him for Congress in 1880; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-seventh Congress, and served from March 4, 1881, until his death in Washington, D. C., January 18, 1883; interment in the Wallace Graveyard, Richlands, N. C.

SHACKLEFORD, Dorsey William, a Representative from Missouri; born near Sweet Springs, Saine County, Mo., on August 27, 1853; attended the public schools; taught school 1877-1879; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1878, and commenced practice in Boonville, Mo.; prosecuting attorney of Cooper County, Mo., 1882-1886 and 1890-1892; judge of the fourteenth judicial circuit of Missouri from June 1, 1892, until his resignation on September 9, 1899, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Richard P. Bland; reelected to the Fifty-seventh and to the eight succeeding Congresses, and served from August 20, 1900, to March 3, 1919; unsuccessful candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Jefferson City, Mo.

SHAFER, Jacob K., a Delegate from the Territory of Idaho; born near Broadway, Rockingham County, Va., December 26, 1823; was graduated from the law school of L. P. Thompson in Staunton, Va., in 1846, and from Washington College, Lexington, Va., in 1843; moved to Stockton, Calif., in 1849; was admitted to the bar and practiced; district attorney of the fifth judicial district of California in 1850; mayor of Stockton in 1852; judge of the San Joaquin County court 1853-1862; moved in 1862 to what later became Idaho Territory; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); unsuccessful candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law; moved to Eureka, Nev., where he died November 22, 1876; interment in the Masonic Cemetery.

SHAFROTH, John Franklin, a Representative and a Senator from Colorado; born in Fayette, Mo., June 9, 1854; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1875; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1876, and commenced practice in Fayette, Mo.; moved to Denver, Colo., in October, 1879, and continued practice; city attorney 1887-1891; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress; reelected as a Silver Republican and Democrat to the Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth, and Fifty-seventh Congresses; presented credentials as a Democratic Member elect to the Fifty-eighth Congress, and served from March 4, 1895, until his resignation on February 15, 1904, when he declared his conviction that Robert W. Bonyngne, contestant, was duly elected; Governor of Colorado 1908-1912; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1913, to March 3, 1919; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; chairman of the War Minerals Relief Commission from 1919 to 1921; died in Denver, Colo., February 20, 1922; interment in Fairmount Cemetery.

SHALLENBERGER, Ashton Cokayne, a Representative from Nebraska; born in Toulon, Stark County, Ill., December 23, 1862; attended the common schools and the University of Illinois at Urbana; moved to Nebraska in 1881 and settled in Polk County; moved in 1887 to Alma, Harlan County, Nebr.; engaged in banking and also in stock raising; temporary chairman of the Democratic State conventions in 1897 and 1919; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1901-March 3, 1903); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; Governor of Nebraska 1908-1911; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for election in 1912 to the United States Senate; elected to the Sixty-fourth and Sixty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1919); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; resumed his former business activities and also engaged in agricultural pursuits; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco in 1920; elected to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SHALLENBERGER, William Shadrack, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Mount Pleasant, Westmoreland County, Pa., November 24, 1839; attended the public schools and Mount Pleasant Academy, and was graduated from Lewisburg University (now Bucknell University), Lewisburg, Pa., in 1862; engaged in mercantile pursuits; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army in 1862 in the One hundred and fortieth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, and soon afterwards was appointed adjutant of the regiment; wounded in the Battles of Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, and the Wilderness; mustered out of the service in October, 1864 and again engaged in mercantile pursuits in Rochester, Pa.; chairman of the Beaver County Republican committee in 1872 and 1874; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1883); appointed by President McKinley Second Assistant Postmaster General and served from 1897 to 1907; retired from active business life; died in Washington, D. C., April 15, 1914; interment in Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va.

SHANKLIN, George Sea, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Jessamine County, Ky., December 23, 1807; attended a private school at Nicholasville, Ky.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Nicholasville; member of the State house of representatives in 1838 and 1844; appointed Commonwealth attorney in 1854; again a member of the State house of representatives, and served from 1861 to 1865; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of McClellan and Pendleton in 1864; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1867); retired to his farm in Jessamine County, where he died April 1, 1883; interment in Lexington Cemetery, Lexington, Ky.

SHANKS, John Peter Cleaver, a Representative from Indiana; born in Martinsburg, Va. (now West Virginia), June 17, 1826; pursued an academic course; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1848, and commenced practice in Portland, Ind., in 1849; prosecuting attorney of Jay County in 1850 and 1851; member of the State house of representatives in 1855; during the Civil War served in the Union Army; colonel and aide-de-camp to General Frémont from September 20 to November 19, 1861; colonel and aide-de-camp from March 31, 1862, to October 9, 1863; colonel of the Seventh Indiana Cavalry October 9, 1863; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers December 8, 1864, and major general of Volunteers March 13, 1865, "for faithful and meritorious services during the war"; mustered out September 19, 1865; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1862 to the Thirty-eighth Congress; elected to the Fortieth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed the practice of his profession; was again a member of the State house of representatives in 1879; died in Portland, Jay County, Ind., January 23, 1901; interment in Green Park Cemetery.

SHANNON, Richard Cutts, a Representative from New York; born in New London, Conn., February 12, 1839; was graduated from the grammar and high schools at Biddeford, Me., and from Waterville College (now Colby College), Maine; during the Civil War enlisted in Company H, Fifth Regiment Maine Volunteer Infantry, June 24, 1861; appointed first lieutenant October 10, 1861; aide-de-camp to General Slocum March 15, 1862; captain and assistant adjutant general of Volunteers October 2, 1862; brevetted major of Volunteers March 13, 1865, "for faithful and meritorious services during the war," and lieutenant colonel of Volunteers "for gallant and meritorious services in the Battle of Chancellorsville, Virginia"; honorably discharged February 10, 1866; appointed secretary of the United States legation at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, in 1871, and served until March, 1875, when he resigned; took charge of the Botanical Garden Railroad Co. in 1876, an American enterprise in Brazil, of which he subsequently became the vice president and general manager and finally president; returned to the United States in 1883 and was graduated from the law department of Columbia College, New York City, in 1885; was admitted to the New York bar in 1886, and commenced practice in New York City; appointed envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Nicaragua, Salvador, and Costa Rica in 1891, and served until April, 1893; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1899); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1898; resumed the practice of his profession in New York City; retired in 1903 and moved to Brockport, Monroe County, N. Y., where he died on October 5, 1920; interment in Lake View Cemetery.

SHANNON, Thomas (brother of Wilson Shannon), a Representative from Ohio; born in Washington County, Pa., November 15, 1786; attended the public schools; moved to Ohio with his parents, who settled in Belmont County in 1800; engaged in agricultural pursuits; moved to Barnesville, Belmont County, Ohio, in 1812, and engaged in mercantile pursuits; during the War of 1812 served as captain of Belmont County Company in Colonel Delong's regiment; member of the Ohio House of Representatives 1819-1822, 1824, and 1825; elected as a Democrat to the Nineteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of David Jennings, and served from December 4, 1826, to March 3, 1827; was not a candidate for renomination in 1827; returned to Barnesville, Ohio, and became a leaf-tobacco merchant; served in the State senate 1829 and 1837-1841; died in Barnesville, Belmont County, Ohio, March 16, 1848; interment in Green Mount Cemetery.

SHANNON, Thomas Rowles, a Representative from California; born in Westmoreland County, Pa., on September 21, 1827; attended the public schools; moved to Illinois in 1844 and to California in 1849; engaged in mercantile pursuits; member of the State assembly in 1850, 1860, and 1862; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1865); was not a candidate for renomination in 1864; appointed surveyor at the port of San Francisco August 11, 1865, and served four years; again a member of the State assembly in 1871 and 1872, and served as speaker the first year; appointed by President Grant collector of customs at San Francisco, Calif., and served from July 1, 1872, to August 10, 1880; resumed mercantile pursuits; died in San Francisco, San Francisco County, Calif., on February 21, 1897; interment in the Masonic Cemetery.

SHANNON, Wilson (brother of Thomas Shannon), a Representative from Ohio; born at Mount Olivet, Belmont County, Ohio, February 24, 1802; attended Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, 1820-1822, and Transylvania College, Lexington, Ky., in 1823; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1830, and began practice in St. Clairsville, Ohio; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1832 to the Twenty-third Congress; prosecuting attorney for Belmont County 1833-1835; State prosecuting attorney in 1835; Governor of Ohio 1838-1840; unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1840; again Governor of Ohio 1842-1844; unsuccessful candidate for the United States Senate in 1842; United States minister to Mexico in 1844 and 1845; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); was not a candidate for renomination in 1854; Governor of Kansas Territory in 1855 and 1856; engaged in the practice of law in Lawrence, Kans., where he died August 31, 1877; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

SHARON, William, a Senator from Nevada; born in Smithfield, Jefferson County, Ohio, January 9, 1821; attended Athens College; moved to St. Louis, Mo.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; engaged in mercantile pursuits in Carrollton, Greene County, Ill.; moved to California in 1849 and engaged in business in Sacramento; moved to San Francisco in 1850 and was a dealer in real estate; moved to Virginia City, Storey County, Nev., in 1864 as manager of the branch of the Bank of California and became largely interested in silver mining; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1875, to March 3, 1881; resided in San Francisco, Calif., until his death on November 13, 1885; interment in Laurel Hill Cemetery.

SHARP, Solomon P., a Representative from Kentucky; born in Abingdon, Washington County, Va., in 1780; moved with his parents to Kentucky; pursued preparatory studies; engaged in agricultural pursuits; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1809, and began practice in Russellville, Ky.; member of the State house of representatives 1809-1811, 1817, and 1818; entered the War of 1812 as captain of a company which he organized and was later made a colonel of militia; elected as a Democrat to the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Congresses (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1817); again a member of the State house of representatives in 1817 and 1818; resumed the practice of law; moved to Frankfort, Ky., in 1820; attorney general of Kentucky 1820-1824; served in the State house of representatives in 1825; assassinated in Frankfort, Ky., November 7, 1825; interment in the State Cemetery.

SHARP, William Graves, a Representative from Ohio; born in Mount Gilead, Morrow County, Ohio, March 14, 1859; moved with his parents to Elyria, Ohio; was graduated from the public schools and from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1881; was admitted to the bar and practiced; elected prosecuting attorney of Lorain County; engaged in the manufacturing business; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Stevenson in 1892; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for election in 1900 to the Fifty-seventh Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1904; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-first, Sixty-second, and Sixty-third Congresses, and served from March 4, 1909, to July 23, 1914, when he resigned; ambassador to France 1914-1919; returned to Elyria, Lorain County, Ohio, where he resided until his death, November 17, 1922; interment in Ridgeland Cemetery.

SHARPE, Peter, a Representative from New York; born in that State; completed preparatory studies; member of the Columbia County Medical Society in 1807; represented New York County as a member of the State assembly 1814-1821, and served as speaker in 1820 and 1821; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1821; credentials of his election to the Seventeenth Congress were presented, but he did not qualify, and on December 12, 1821, Cadwallader D. Colden successfully contested his election; elected to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1825); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1824 to the Nineteenth Congress.

SHARPE, William, a Delegate from North Carolina; born near Rock Church, Cecil County, Md., December 13, 1742; pursued classical studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Mecklenburg County, N. C., in 1768; also engaged in surveying; moved to Rowan (now Iredell) County; member of the Provincial Congress in 1775; aide to General Rutherford in the Indian campaign in 1776 and was one of four commissioners appointed by Governor Caswell to form a treaty with the Indians in 1777; delegate to the convention in Halifax in 1778 and helped to frame the first constitution of the State; Member of the Continental Congress 1779-1782; member of the State house of representatives in 1781 and 1782; died near Statesville, Iredell County, N. C., July 1, 1818; interment in Snow Creek Graveyard.

SHARTEL, Cassius McLean, a Representative from Missouri; born in Crawford County, Pa., April 27, 1860; moved with his parents to Knox County, Mo., and resided there until 1873; moved with his parents to Chautauqua County, Kans.; attended the common schools and Kansas State Agricultural College at Manhattan; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1881, and commenced practice in Sedan, Kans.; moved to Nevada, Mo., in 1887 and then to Neosho, Newton County, Mo., the same year and continued the practice of law; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1900; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1905-March 3, 1907); was not a candidate for renomination in 1906; interested in farm loans; president of the Missouri constitutional convention in 1922 and 1923; is a resident of Neosho, Mo.

SHATTUC, William Bunn, a Representative from Ohio; born in North Hector, Schuyler County, N. Y., June 11, 1841; moved to Ohio in 1852 with his parents, who settled near Sandusky; attended the public schools; during the Civil War enlisted in Company I, Second Regiment Ohio Volunteer Cavalry, August 13, 1861, as second lieutenant; mustered out February 21, 1863, as first lieutenant; assistant and afterwards general passenger agent of the Ohio & Mississippi Railway Co. 1865-1894; member of the State senate in 1895; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth, and Fifty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1903); was not a candidate for renomination in 1902; died in Madisonville, near Cincinnati, Ohio, July 13, 1911; interment in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati, Hamilton County, Ohio.

SHAW, Aaron, a Representative from Illinois; born near Goshen, Orange County, N. Y., December 19, 1811; attended Montgomery Academy, New York; studied law in Goshen, N. Y., was admitted to the bar in 1833, and commenced practice in Lawrenceville, Ill.; delegate to the first Internal Improvement Convention of Illinois; elected State's attorney by the Legislature of Illinois in 1842; member of the State house of representatives in 1850; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1859); was not a candidate for renomination in 1858; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1890; circuit judge of the fourth judicial district of Illinois 1863-1869; elected to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); was not a candidate for renomination in 1884; resumed the practice of law; died in Olney, Richland County, Ill., January 7, 1887; interment in Haven Hill Cemetery.

SHAW, Albert Duane, a Representative from New York; born in Lyme, Jefferson County, N. Y., December 21, 1841; attended Belleville and Union Academies and St. Lawrence University, Canton, N. Y.; enlisted as a private in Company A, Thirty-fifth Regiment New York Volunteers, in June, 1861, and served out the term of enlistment; appointed a special agent of the War Department in 1863, stationed at provost marshal's headquarters in Watertown, N. Y., and served until the close of the war; member of the State assembly in 1866; appointed colonel of the Thirty-sixth Regiment, New York National Guard, in 1867, and resigned to accept the position of United States consul at Toronto, Canada, in 1868; promoted to United States consul at Manchester, England, in 1878; elected department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of New York in 1896; unanimously elected commander in chief at the national encampment in 1899; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles A. Chickering; reelected to the Fifty-seventh Congress, and served from November 6, 1900, until his death in Washington, D. C., on February 10, 1901, before the close of the Fifty-sixth Congress; interment in Brookside Cemetery, Watertown, Jefferson County, N. Y.

SHAW, Frank Thomas, a Representative from Maryland; born in Woodsboro, Frederick County, Md., October 7, 1841; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the medical department of the University of Maryland at Baltimore in 1864; engaged in the practice of medicine in Uniontown, Carroll County, Md., until November, 1873; elected clerk of the circuit court for Carroll County in 1873; reelected in 1879 and served until 1885, when he resigned; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1889); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1888; member of the State house of delegates in 1890; State tax commissioner 1890-1894; appointed by President Cleveland collector of customs for the port of Baltimore, and served from May 5, 1894, to May 24, 1898; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Wilson and Marshall in 1912; adviser to the clerk of the circuit court 1915-1921; retired, and resided in Westminster, Carroll County, Md., until his death, February 24, 1923; interment in Westminster Cemetery.

SHAW, George Bullen, a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Alma, Allegany County, N. Y., on March 12, 1854; moved to Eau Claire, Wis., in 1856 with his father; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the International Business College, Chicago, Ill., in 1871; engaged in the lumber manufacturing business; member of the Common Council of Eau Claire 1876-1887; mayor of Eau Claire in 1888 and 1889; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1884; supreme chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of the World from July, 1890, to August, 1892; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-third Congress, and served from March 4, 1893, until his death in Eau Claire, Eau Claire County, Wis., August 27, 1894; interment in Lake View Cemetery.

SHAW, Guy Loren, a Representative from Illinois; born on farm near Summer Hill, Pike County, Ill., May 16, 1881; attended the public schools and the College of Agriculture of the University of Illinois at Urbana; engaged in agricultural pursuits and the development of overflow lands along the Illinois River; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1920; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1923); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1922 to the Sixty-eighth Congress; engaged in the real-estate business in Beardstown, Cass County, Ill.; moved to Normal, Ill., and continued his former business pursuits; is a resident of Normal, McLean County, Ill.

SHAW, Henry (son of Samuel Shaw), a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Castleton, Vt., in 1788; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Lanesboro, Mass., in 1810; elected as a Federalist to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1821); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1820; member of the State house of representatives 1824-1830 and 1833; served in the State senate in 1835; presidential elector on the National-Republican ticket of Clay and Sergeant in 1832; moved to New York City in 1848; member of the New York State Assembly in 1853; moved to Newbury, Vt., in 1854; died in Peekskill, Westchester County, N. Y., October 17, 1857; interment in the Lower Cemetery, Lanesboro, Mass.

SHAW, Henry Marchmore, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Newport, R. I., November 20, 1819; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1838 and began practice in Indiantown, Camden County, N. C.; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Thirty-fourth Congress; elected to the Thirty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1859); unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Thirty-sixth Congress; served as a colonel in the Confederate Army during the Civil War and was killed near New Bern, N. C., November 1, 1864; interment in the cemetery at Shawboro, Currituck County, N. C.

SHAW, John Gilbert, a Representative from North Carolina; born near Fayetteville, Cumberland County, N. C., January 18, 1850; attended the common schools; engaged in the naval-stores business; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1888, and commenced practice in Fayetteville; member of the State house of representatives in 1888; prosecuting attorney for Cumberland County 1890-1894; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Stevenson in 1892; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1896 to the Forty-fifth Congress; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Fayetteville, N. C.

SHAW, Samuel (father of Henry Shaw), a Representative from Vermont; born in Dighton, Mass., in December, 1768; received a limited schooling; moved to Putney, Vt.; studied medicine, and commenced practice in Castleton, Vt., in 1799; imprisoned for a bitter denunciation of President Adams, but liberated by the people; member of the State house of representatives in 1799; elected as a Democrat to the Tenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James Witherell; reelected to the Eleventh and Twelfth Congresses, and served from September 6, 1808, to March 3, 1813; served in the United States Army as hospital surgeon from April 6, 1813, to June 15, 1815, when he was honorably discharged; reinstated on September 13, 1815; post surgeon April 18, 1818; resigned on December 31, 1818; died in Clarendon, Rutland County, Vt., July 9, 1834.

SHAW, Tristram, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Hampton, Rockingham County, N. H., May 23, 1796; completed preparatory studies; held several local offices in Exeter, N. H.; elected to the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1843); died in Exeter, Rockingham County, N. H., March 14, 1843; interment in Bride Hill Cemetery, Hampton, N. H.

SHEAFE, James, a Representative and a Senator from New Hampshire; born in Portsmouth, N. H., November 18, 1755; completed preparatory studies, and was graduated from Harvard College in 1774; engaged in mercantile pursuits; member of the State house of representatives 1788-1790; member of the State senate in 1791, 1793, and 1799; member of the executive council in 1799; elected as a Federalist to the Sixth Congress (March 4, 1799-March 3, 1801); elected to the United States Senate and served from March 4, 1801, until his resignation on June 14, 1802; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of New Hampshire in 1816; died in Portsmouth, Rockingham County, N. H., December 5, 1829; interment in St. John's Church Cemetery.

SHEAKLEY, James, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Shenkleyville, Mercer County, Pa., April 24, 1829; attended the common schools and Meadville (Pa.) Academy; learned the trade of cabinetmaker; moved to California in 1851 and engaged in the mining of gold; returned to Pennsylvania and settled in Greenville in 1855 and engaged in mercantile pursuits, and in 1864 in the production and shipment of petroleum; school director of Greenville, Pa., 1864-1868; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; appointed United States commissioner of schools of Alaska by President Cleveland in July, 1887, and served five years; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in the United States District Court of Alaska in 1888; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1892 which nominated Cleveland and Stevenson; Governor of Alaska 1893-1897; again returned to Greenville, Pa., in 1898; mayor of Greenville 1900-1913; elected justice of the peace in 1914 and served until his death in Greenville, Pa., on December 10, 1917; interment in Shenango Valley Cemetery.

SHEATS, Charles Christopher, a Representative from Alabama; born in Walker County, Ala., April 10, 1830; attended the common schools; elected a member of the secession convention in 1860, but refused to sign the ordinance of secession; member of the State house of representatives in 1861 and expelled for his adherence to the Union in 1862; was imprisoned on a charge of treason by the Confederate authorities, but could not obtain a trial, and was not released until after the close of the Civil War; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth Congress; member of the constitutional convention in 1865; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1867, and commenced practice in Decatur; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Grant and Colfax in 1868 and of Grant and Wilson in 1872; appointed by President Grant consul at Elsinore, Denmark, May 31, 1869, and served until elected to Congress; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; died in Decatur, Morgan County, Ala., May 27, 1904; interment in McKendree Cemetery, near Decatur.

SHEFFER, Daniel, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in York, Pa., May 24, 1783; attended the common schools and Harvard University; studied medicine in Philadelphia and commenced practice at York Springs, Adams County, Pa.; associate judge of Adams County, Pa., 1813-1837; Democratic presidential elector on the Jackson ticket in 1824; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1839); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1838 to the Twenty-sixth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession; was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1848 which nominated Cass and Butler; died at York Springs, Pa., February 16, 1880; interment in the Old Lutheran Cemetery.

SHEFFEY, Daniel, a Representative from Virginia; born in Frederick, Frederick County, Md., in 1770; pursued classical studies; apprenticed as a shoemaker in his father's shop; moved to Wytheville, Va., in 1781 and worked at his trade; at the same time studied law, was admitted to the bar July 1, 1802, and commenced the practice of his profession in Wytheville; moved to Abbeville and later to Staunton, where he continued the practice of law; member of the State house of delegates 1800-1804; served in the State senate 1804-1808; elected as a Federalist to the Eleventh and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1809-March 3, 1817); again a member of the State house of delegates in 1822 and 1823; died in Staunton, Augusta County, Va., December 3, 1880.

SHEFFIELD, William Paine, a Representative and a Senator from Rhode Island; born in New Shoreham, Block Island, Newport County, R. I., August 30, 1820; completed preparatory studies; attended Kingston Academy, Rhode Island, and was graduated from the law department of Harvard University in 1843; was admitted to the bar in 1844 and commenced practice in Newport, R. I.; delegate to the State constitutional conventions in 1841 and 1842; member of the State house of representatives 1842-1845; moved to Tiverton, R. I.; again elected to the State house of representatives, and served from 1849 to 1853; returned to Newport, R. I.; again a member of the State house of representatives 1857-1861; elected as a Republican candidate to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); resumed the practice of law; appointed in 1871 one of the commissioners to revise the State laws; again served in the State house of representatives 1875-1884; appointed as a Republican to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Henry B. Anthony, and served from November 10, 1884, to January 20, 1885; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Newport, R. I., June 2, 1907; interment in the Island Cemetery.

SHEFFIELD, William Paine (son of the preceding), a Representative from Rhode Island; born in Newport, R. I., June 1, 1837; attended Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., 1850-1873, and was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1877; studied law at the University of Paris and the law department of Harvard University; was admitted to the bar in 1880, and commenced practice in Newport, R. I.; commissioner on abolishing the Narragansett Tribe of Indians in 1880; appointed colonel on the staff of Gov. George Peabody Wetmore; member of the State house of representatives 1885-1887, 1889, 1890, 1894-1896, and 1899-1901; member of the commission to revise the constitution of the State in 1897; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-first Congress (March 4, 1909-March 3, 1911); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1910 to the Sixty-second Congress and in 1912 for election to the Sixty-third Congress; member of the Republican National Committee in 1913; member of the committee to revise the constitution of the State of Rhode Island in 1918; died in Exeter, Washington County, R. I., October 10, 1919; interment in the Island Cemetery, Newport, R. I.

SHELDEN, Carlos Douglas, a Representative from Michigan; born in Walworth, Walworth County, Wis., June 10, 1840; moved with his parents to Houghton County, Mich., in 1847; attended the Union School, Ypsilanti, Mich., and returned to his home in the fall of 1861; served throughout the Civil War as captain in the Twenty-third Regiment Michigan Volunteer Infantry; at the end of his service returned to Houghton and engaged in mining and the real-estate business; member of the State house of representatives in 1892; served in the State senate in 1894; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth, and Fifty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1903); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1902; died in Houghton, Houghton County, Mich., June 24, 1904; interment in Forest Hill Cemetery.

SHELDON, Lionel Allen, a Representative from Louisiana; born in Worcester, Otsego County, N. Y., August 30, 1828; moved with his parents to Lagrange, Ohio; attended the district school and Oberlin College, Ohio, 1848-1850 and was graduated from the Fowler Law School, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., in 1853; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Elyria, Lorain County, Ohio; probate judge of Lorain County, Ohio, in 1856 and 1857; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1856; commissioned brigadier general of the militia by Governor Chase; served in the Union Army during the Civil War; appointed lieutenant colonel of the Forty-second Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry November 27, 1861, and promoted to the rank of colonel March 14, 1862; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers March 13, 1865, "for faithful and meritorious services"; honorably mustered out December 2, 1864; settled in New Orleans, La., and practiced law 1864-1879; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first, Forty-second, and Forty-third Congresses (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Hayes and Wheeler in 1876; returned to Ohio in 1879; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1880; Governor of the Territory of New Mexico 1881-1885; one of the receivers of the Texas and Pacific Railway 1885-1887; moved to Los Angeles, Calif., in 1888, and engaged in the practice of law; delegate to the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in 1896; moved to Pasadena, Calif., and died in that city January 17, 1917; remains were cremated at Mount View Cemetery and the ashes placed in the vault of C. F. Lamb & Salisbury Co.

SHELDON, Porter, a Representative from New York; born in Victor, Ontario County, N. Y., on September 29, 1831; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1854 at Batavia, N. Y., and commenced practice in Randolph, Cattaraugus County, N. Y.; moved to Rockford, Ill., in 1857 and continued the practice of law; member of the Illinois constitutional convention in 1861; returned to Jamestown, N. Y., in 1863 and continued the practice of law; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1870; resumed the practice of his profession; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Tilden and Hendricks in 1876; died in Jamestown, Chautauqua County, N. Y., August 15, 1908; interment in Lakeview Cemetery.

SHELL, George Washington, a Representative from South Carolina; born near Laurens, Laurens County, S. C., November 13, 1831; attended the common schools and Laurens Academy; engaged in agricultural pursuits; entered the Confederate Army as a private in April, 1861, and served throughout the Civil War, attaining the rank of captain; resumed agricultural pursuits; member of the State Democratic executive committee in 1886 and 1887; chosen president of the State Farmers' Association in 1888; clerk of court of Laurens County 1888-1896; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1895); was not a candidate for renomination in 1894; retired to his plantation near Laurens, Laurens County, S. C., and died there December 15, 1899; interment in Chestnut Ridge Cemetery.

SHELLABARGER, Samuel, a Representative from Ohio; born near Enon, Clark County, Ohio, on December 10, 1817; attended the county schools, and was graduated from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in 1841; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Springfield, Ohio, in 1846; member of the State house of representatives in 1852 and 1858; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1862 to the Thirty-eighth Congress; elected to the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congresses (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1869); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1868; minister to Portugal from April 21 to December 31, 1869; again elected to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1873); was not a candidate for renomination in 1872; member of the United States Civil Service Commission in 1874 and 1875; continued the practice of law until his death in Washington, D. C., August 7, 1896; interment in Ferncliff Cemetery, Springfield, Clark County, Ohio.

SHELLEY, Charles Miller, a Representative from Alabama; born in Sullivan County, Tenn., December 28, 1833; moved with his father to Selma, Ala., in 1836; received a limited schooling; became an architect and builder; during the Civil War entered the Confederate Army in February, 1861, as lieutenant and was stationed first at Fort Morgan and afterwards attached to the Fifth Alabama Regiment; was commissioned brigadier general and served under Gen. Joseph E. Johnston and General Hood; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1881); presented credentials as a Member elect to the Forty-seventh Congress, but the election was contested by James Q. Smith, and the seat declared vacant July 20, 1882; subsequently elected to fill the vacancy thus caused, and served from November 7, 1882, to March 3, 1883; presented credentials as a Member elect to the Forty-eighth Congress, and served from March 4, 1883, to January 9, 1885, when he was succeeded by George H. Craig, who contested the election; returned to Birmingham, Jefferson County, Ala., and engaged in promoting the industrial interests of that region until his death in that city January 20, 1907; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery, Talladega, Talladega County, Ala.

SHELTON, Samuel Azariah, a Representative from Missouri; born near Waterloo, Lauderdale County, Ala., September 3, 1858; moved with his widowed mother to Webster County, Mo., in 1869; attended the common schools, Mountain Dale Academy, and the Seymour and Marshfield High Schools; taught school; clerk of the circuit court of Webster County 1895-1899; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1901, and commenced practice in Marshfield, Webster County, Mo.; postmaster of Marshfield 1906-1910; prosecuting attorney of Webster County 1914-1916; chairman of the Republican county committee for four terms; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1923); declined to be a candidate for reelection; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Marshfield, Mo.

SHEPARD, Charles Biddle, a Representative from North Carolina; born in New Bern, Craven County, N. C., December 5, 1807; attended private schools of his native city, and was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1827; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1828, and commenced practice in New Bern, N. C.; elected to the State house of representatives to fill out the unexpired term of Charles Spaight, and served in 1831 and 1832; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1841); resumed the practice of his profession; died in New Bern, N. C., October 31, 1843; interment in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

SHEPARD, William, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Westfield, Mass., on December 1, 1737; attended the common schools; engaged in agricultural pursuits; served in the French and Indian wars for six years; one of the committees of correspondence for Westfield in 1774; lieutenant colonel of Minutemen in April, 1775; entered the Continental Army in May, 1775, as lieutenant colonel; commissioned colonel of the Fourth Massachusetts Regiment October 6, 1776, and served throughout the Revolutionary War; member of the State house of representatives in 1785 and 1786; selectman for Westfield, Mass., 1784-1787; chosen major general of the Fourth Division Massachusetts Militia in 1786 and was complimented by the General Court of Massachusetts for his gallantry while holding that position for the successful defense of the Springfield Arsenal during Shays's Rebellion in 1786; presidential elector for the first and second elections under the Constitution in 1788 and 1792 and voted for Washington and Adams; member of the governor's council of Massachusetts 1792-1796; appointed in 1796 to treat with the Penobscot Indians and in 1797 with the Six Nations; was elected to the Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Congresses (March 4, 1797-March 3, 1803); resumed his agricultural pursuits; died in Westfield, Mass., November 16, 1817; interment in the Mechanic Street Cemetery.

SHEPARD, William Biddle, a Representative from North Carolina; born in New Bern, N. C., May 14, 1799; completed preparatory studies; attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1818; was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Camden County, later removing to Elizabeth City, Pasquotank County, N. C.; also engaged in banking; elected as a National-Republican to the Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, and Twenty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1829-March 3, 1837); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1836; member of the State senate 1838-1840 and 1848-1850; a member of the board of trustees of the University of North Carolina 1838-1852; died in Elizabeth City, N. C., June 20, 1852; interment in St. Paul's Churchyard, Edenton, Chowan County, N. C.

SHEPLER, Matthias, a Representative from Ohio; born in Westmoreland County, Pa., November 11, 1790; received a limited schooling; served in the War of 1812; moved to Ohio in April, 1818, and settled in Bethlehem Township, Stark County; engaged in agricultural pursuits; justice of the peace for thirty years; county commissioner for two terms; member of the State house of representatives in 1829; served in the State senate in 1832; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1839); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1838; moved to Navarre, Stark County, Ohio, in 1860, where he died on April 7, 1863; interment in Shepler Church Cemetery, near Navarre, Ohio.

SHEPLEY, Ether, a Senator from Maine; born in Groton, Mass., November 2, 1789; attended Groton Academy, and was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1811; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1814, and began practice in Saco, Me. (until 1820 a district of Massachusetts); member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives in 1819; delegate to the Maine constitutional convention in 1820; United States attorney for the district of Maine 1821-1833; member of the Maine Senate 1833-1836; moved to Portland, Me.; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1833, to March 3, 1836, when he resigned; justice of the Supreme Court of Maine 1836-1848 and chief justice 1848-1855; appointed sole commissioner to revise the public laws of Maine April 1, 1856; was not a candidate for renomination in 1854; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Portland, Cumberland County, Me., January 15, 1877; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

SHEPPARD, John Levi (father of Morris Sheppard), a Representative from Texas; born in Bluffton, Chambers County, Ala., on April 13, 1852; moved with his mother to Morris County, Tex.; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Dalingerfield, Morris County, Tex., in 1879; district attorney of the fifth judicial district of Texas 1882-1888; district judge of the same district 1888-1896; temporary chairman of the Democratic State convention in 1892; appointed delegate to the Bimetallic Convention in Chicago in 1893; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1896; served as the Texas member of the presidential notification committee which met in New York City in August, 1896; retired from the bench in the winter of 1896-97; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh Congresses, and served from March 4, 1899, until his death in Texarkana, Bowie County, Tex., October 11, 1902; interment in Rose Hill Cemetery.

SHEPPARD, Morris (son of John Levi Sheppard), a Representative and a Senator from Texas; born in Wheatville, Morris County, Tex., on May 28, 1875; attended the common schools of Dalingerfield, Pittsburg, Cumby, Austin, and Linden; was graduated from the academic department of the University of Texas at Austin in 1895, from the law department of the same university in 1897, and from the law department of Yale University in 1898; sovereign banker, or national treasurer, of the Woodmen of the World since 1899; elected first president of the Texas Fraternal Congress in Dallas in 1901; was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Pittsburg, Camp County, Tex., in 1898; moved to Texarkana in 1899 and continued the practice of his profession; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father, John L. Sheppard; reelected to the Fifty-eighth and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from November 15, 1902, to February 3, 1913, when he resigned; elected to the United States Senate on January 29, 1913, to fill the vacancy in the term ending March 3, 1913, caused by the resignation of Joseph W. Bailey, and on the same day was also elected for the term commencing March 4, 1913; did not qualify until February 3, 1913, the date of his resignation from the House; reelected in 1918, and again in 1924 for the term ending March 3, 1931.

SHEPPERD, Augustine Henry, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Rockford, Surry County, N. C., February 24, 1792; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Surry County, N. C.; member of the State house of representatives 1822-1826; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Jackson and Calhoun in 1824; elected to the Twentieth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1839); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1838 to the Twenty-sixth Congress; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Clay and Frelinghuysen in 1844; again elected to the Thirtieth and Thirty-first Congresses (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1851); declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1850; resumed the practice of his profession; died at "Good Spring," Salem (now Winston-Salem), Forsyth County, N. C., July 11, 1864; interment in Salem Cemetery.

SHERBURN, John Samuel, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Portsmouth, N. H., in 1757; was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1776 and from the law department of Harvard University; was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Portsmouth, N. H., in 1776; served in the Revolutionary Army and lost a leg at the Battle of Butts Hill, Rhode Island, August 20, 1778; attained the rank of brigade major of staff; elected to the Third and Fourth Congresses (March 4, 1793–March 3, 1797); United States district attorney for New Hampshire 1801–1804; appointed judge of the United States District Court for the District of New Hampshire and served from May, 1804, until his death in Portsmouth, Rockingham County, N. H., August 2, 1830.

SHEREDINE, Upton, a Representative from Maryland; born near Baltimore, Baltimore County, Md., in 1740; moved to a farm near Liberty, Frederick County, Md., in 1754; pursued academic studies; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1776; member of the State house of delegates in 1777; served in the State senate 1778–1781; judge of the county court of appeals in 1777; member of the special court which tried, convicted, and sentenced Tories July 25, 1781; judge of the orphans' court of Frederick County in 1777 and served many years; associate judge of the fifth judicial district in 1791; elected as a Democrat to the Second Congress (March 4, 1791–March 3, 1793); appointed in 1798 commissioner of the fourth division of Maryland for the valuation of land and houses and the enumeration of slaves; died on his estate, "Midhill," near Liberty, Frederick County, Md., January 14, 1800; interment in a private cemetery on his estate.

SHERIDAN, George Augustus, a Representative from Louisiana; born in Millbury, Mass., February 22, 1840; moved with his parents to Chicago, Ill., in 1858; completed preparatory studies; engaged in the publishing business; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army and served as captain of Company D, Eighty-eighth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry, until October 28, 1864, when he resigned; moved to New Orleans, La., in 1866; served as brigadier general of militia on Governor Warmouth's staff; sheriff of Carroll Parish, La., in 1867; elected as a Liberal to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873–March 3, 1875); appointed recorder of deeds for the District of Columbia May 17, 1878, and served until May 17, 1881, when he resigned; died in the National Soldiers' Home, Virginia, October 7, 1896; interment in Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va.

SHERLEY, J. Swagar, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Louisville, Jefferson County, Ky., November 28, 1871; attended the public schools; was graduated from the Louisville Male High School in 1889 and from the law department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1891; was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in Louisville, Ky.; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth and to the seven succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1903–March 3, 1919); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1918 to the Sixty-sixth Congress; director of the division of finance of the United States Railroad Administration from April, 1919, to September, 1920, when he resigned; resumed the practice of law, and resides in Washington, D. C.

SHERMAN, James Schoolcraft, a Representative from New York and a Vice President of the United States; born in Utica, N. Y., October 24, 1855; attended the public schools; pursued an academic and collegiate course, and was graduated from Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., in 1878; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1880, and commenced practice in Utica, N. Y.; president of the Utica Trust & Deposit Co. and of the New Hartford Canning Co.; mayor of Utica in 1884; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Minneapolis in 1892; chairman of the New York State Republican conventions in 1895 and 1900; elected as a Republican to the Fifteenth and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1887–March 3, 1891); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1890 to the Fifty-second Congress; elected to the Fifty-third and to the seven succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1893–March 3, 1909); was not a candidate for reelection, having been nominated as the Republican candidate for Vice President; elected Vice President of the United States in 1908, and served from March 4, 1909, until his death; renominated for Vice President in June, 1912; died in Utica, Oneida County, N. Y., October 30, 1912; interment in Forest Hill Cemetery.

SHERMAN, John, a Representative and a Senator from Ohio; born in Lancaster, Fairfield County, Ohio, May 10, 1823; attended the common schools and Homer Academy, Lancaster, Ohio, 1835–1837; junior rodman of an engineer corps in 1839; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1844, and began practice in Mansfield, Ohio; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Philadelphia in 1848 and at Baltimore in 1852, serving as secretary of the former convention; moved to Cleveland, Ohio, in 1853; president of the first Ohio Republican State convention in 1855; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, Thirty-sixth, and Thirty-seventh Congresses, and served from March 4, 1855, to March 21, 1861, when he resigned; elected in 1861 as a Republican to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Salmon P. Chase; reelected in 1866 and 1872, and served from March 21, 1861, until his resignation on March 8, 1877; appointed Secretary of the Treasury in the Cabinet of President Hayes on March 8, 1877, and served until March 3, 1881; elected to the United States Senate in the place of James A. Garfield, who had been elected President of the United States; reelected in 1886 and 1892, and served from March 4, 1881, until his resignation on March 4, 1897; appointed Secretary of State in the Cabinet of President McKinley and served from March 5, 1897, until his resignation on April 25, 1898; retired to private life; died in Washington, D. C., October 22, 1900; interment in Mansfield Cemetery, Mansfield, Richland County, Ohio.

SHERMAN, Judson W., a Representative from New York; born in that State; completed preparatory studies; held several local offices in Angelica, where he resided; clerk of Allegany County 1831–1837; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1857–March 3, 1859).

SHERMAN, Lawrence Yates, a Senator from Illinois; born near Piqua, Miami County, Ohio, November 8, 1858; moved with his parents to Illinois in 1859; attended the common schools, Lee's Academy in Coles County, and McKendree College, Lebanon, Ill.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1882, and commenced practice in Macomb, Ill.; city attorney 1885–1887; judge in McDonough County 1886–1890; member of the State house of representatives 1897–1905 and served as speaker 1899–1903; lieutenant governor and ex officio president of the State senate 1905–1909; president of the State board of administration of public charities 1909–1913; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1912 and 1920 and at Cleveland in 1924; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the unseating of William Lorimer; reelected in 1914, and served from March 26, 1913, to March 3, 1921; voluntarily retired from public life and resumed the practice of law in Springfield, Ill.; moved to Daytona Beach, Fla., and engaged in the investment business; is a resident of Daytona Beach, Fla.

SHERMAN, Roger, a Delegate, a Representative, and a Senator from Connecticut; born in Newton, Mass., April 19, 1721; moved with his parents to Stoughton (now Canton),

Mass., in 1723; attended the public schools; learned the shoemaker's trade; moved to New Milford, Conn., in 1748; surveyor of New Haven County in 1745; studied law, was admitted to the bar in February, 1754, and practiced; member of the Connecticut Assembly 1755, 1756, 1758-1761, and 1764-1766; justice of the peace for Litchfield County 1755-1761, and of the quorum 1759-1761; moved to New Haven, Conn., in June, 1761; justice of the peace and quorum for New Haven County in 1765 and 1766; served in the State senate 1766-1765; judge of the superior court 1766, 1767, and 1773-1788; member of the council of safety 1777-1779; Member of the Continental Congress 1774-1781, 1788, and 1784; a signer of the Declaration of Independence and a member of the committee which drafted it; member of the committee to prepare the Articles of Confederation; the only Member of the Continental Congress who signed all four of the great State papers—the Declaration of 1774, the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of Confederation, and the Federal Constitution; mayor of New Haven from 1784 until his death; delegate to the Federal Constitutional Convention at Philadelphia in 1787; elected to the First Congress (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1791); elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William S. Johnson, and served from June 13, 1791, until his death in New Haven, Conn., July 23, 1793; interment in the Grove Street Cemetery.

SHERMAN, Socrates Norton, a Representative from New York; born in Barre, Washington County, Vt., July 22, 1801; attended the graded schools and high school; studied medicine and was graduated from Mount Castleton Medical College in 1824; moved to Ogdensburg, St. Lawrence County, N. Y., in 1825 and engaged in the practice of medicine; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1862; during the Civil War was mustered into the service as major and surgeon of the Thirty-fourth Regiment New York Volunteer Infantry, and was mustered out October 7, 1865, as brevet lieutenant colonel, United States Volunteers; resumed the practice of medicine at Ogdensburg, N. Y., where he died February 1, 1873; interment in Ogdensburg Cemetery.

SHERRILL, Elakim, a Representative from New York; born in Greenville, Ulster County, N. Y., February 16, 1813; attended the public schools; tanner and farmer; held several local offices; major in the State militia; elected as a Whig to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1849); member of the State senate in 1854; during the Civil War organized the One hundred and twenty-sixth New York Volunteer Regiment and became its colonel; was wounded at Harpers Ferry, W. Va., on September 15, 1862, but remained in the service; commanded the Third Brigade, Third Division, Second Army Corps, after Colonel Willard's death on July 2, 1863, at the Battle of Gettysburg, until he was mortally wounded on July 3, 1863, and died the next day; interment in the Washington Street Cemetery, Geneva, Ontario County, N. Y.

SHERROD, William Crawford, a Representative from Alabama; born in Courtland, Lawrence County, Ala., August 17, 1835; attended the common schools, a preparatory school at Edgefield, N. C., and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1851 and 1852; returned to Courtland and engaged in planting; member of the State house of representatives in 1859 and 1860; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Charleston, S. C., in 1860; during the Civil War served as a colonel under Gen. N. B. Forrest in the Confederate Army; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); was not a candidate for re-nomination in 1870; again engaged in planting; member of the State senate in 1875; moved to Wichita Falls, Wichita County, Tex., in 1898 and engaged in farming and ranching, and died there March 24, 1919; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

SHERWIN, John Crocker, a Representative from Illinois; born in Gouverneur, St. Lawrence County, N. Y., February 8, 1838; was educated in the common schools, Gouverneur Wesleyan Seminary in New York, and Lombard College, Galesburg, Ill., studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; county clerk of Kane County, Ill.; served as city attorney of Aurora, Ill., enlisted in the Union Army during the Civil War in the Eighty-ninth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry and served until the close of the war; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1883); was not a candidate for renomination in 1882; resumed the practice of his profession; died at Benton Harbor, Berrien County, Mich., on January 1, 1904; interment in Spring Lake Cemetery, Aurora, Ill.

SHERWOOD, Henry, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Bridgeport, Conn., October 9, 1813; moved with his parents to Catharine, Chemung County, N. Y., in 1817; attended the common schools; during the Texas war for independence served in the Texas Army under Sam Houston in 1836 and 1837; moved to Tioga County and settled in Wellsboro, Pa., in 1840; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1847, and practiced his profession in Wellsboro; elected Burgess of Wellsboro; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1873); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1872 to the Forty-third Congress; president of the Wellsboro & Lawrenceville Railroad and of the Pennsylvania division of the Pine Creek road; died in Wellsboro, Tioga County, Pa., on November 10, 1896; interment in the Wellsboro Cemetery.

SHERWOOD, Isaac R., a Representative from Ohio; born in Stanford, Dutchess County, N. Y., August 13, 1835; attended the common schools, the Hudson River Institute, Claverack, N. Y., Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, and the Ohio Law College, Poland, Ohio; editor of the Williams County Gazette, Bryan, Ohio, in 1857; elected probate judge of Williams County in October, 1860; resigned at the beginning of the Civil War and enlisted April 22, 1861, as a private in the Fourteenth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry; commissioned first lieutenant and adjutant of the One hundred and eleventh Ohio Volunteer Infantry September 6, 1862; major February 13, 1863; lieutenant colonel February 12, 1864; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers February 27, 1865; honorably mustered out June 27, 1865; settled in Toledo, Ohio, and was editor of the Toledo Daily Commercial; political editorial writer on the Cleveland Leader; secretary of state of Ohio in 1868 and 1870; organized and established the Bureau of Statistics of the State of Ohio in 1869; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; proprietor and editor of the Toledo Journal 1875-1884; elected probate judge of Lucas County in 1878 and 1881; editor of the Canton News-Democrat 1885-1895; author of several books; elected as a Democrat to the Sixtieth, Sixty-first, Sixty-second, Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, and Sixty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1907-March 3, 1921); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1920 to the Sixty-seventh Congress; again elected to the Sixty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1925); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1924 to the Sixty-ninth Congress; retired from public life and returned to Toledo, Ohio, where he died October 15, 1925; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

SHERWOOD, Samuel, a Representative from New York; born in Kingsbury, Washington County, N. Y., April 24, 1779; completed preparatory studies; began the study of law at the age of fifteen in Kingston, Ulster County, and in 1798 moved to Delhi, Delaware County, N. Y., where he continued his legal studies; was admitted to the bar in 1800 and practiced in Delhi, N. Y.; elected as a Federalist to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1815); was not a candidate for renomination to the Fourteenth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in Delhi and in New York City, where he moved in 1830; retired from active practice in 1858; died in New York City October 31, 1862; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, Delhi, N. Y.

SHERWOOD, Samuel Burr, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Northfield Society (now Weston) November 26, 1767; was graduated from Yale College in 1786; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and began practice in that part of Fairfield which is now Westport, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives 1809-1815; served in the State senate in 1816; elected as a Federalist to the Fifteenth Congress (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1819); resumed the practice of his profession until 1831, when he retired from professional life; died in Westport, Fairfield County, Conn., April 27, 1833; interment in Green's Farms Cemetery; reinterment in Evergreen Cemetery in 1835.

SHIEL, George Knox, a Representative from Oregon; born in Ireland in 1825; emigrated to the United States and settled in New Orleans, La.; moved to Ohio; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; moved to Oregon in 1854 and practiced law in Salem; successfully contested as a Democrat the election of Andrew J. Thayer to the Thirty-seventh Congress, and served from July 30, 1861, to March 3, 1863; was not a candidate for renomination in 1862; was barred from practicing law, as he would not take the oath of allegiance, and lived in retirement until he was accidentally killed in Salem, Marion County, Oreg., December 12, 1893; interment in the Odd Fellows Cemetery.

SHIELDS, Benjamin Glover, a Representative from Alabama; born in Abbeville, S. C., in 1808; moved with his father to Clarke County, Ala.; resided in Demopolis, Marengo County, Ala.; completed preparatory studies; member of the State house of representatives in 1834; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); commissioned in 1845 by President Polk United States chargé d'affaires to Venezuela, where he remained until January 7, 1850; moved to Texas and engaged in planting.

SHIELDS, Ebenezer J., a Representative from Tennessee; born in Georgia; moved to Tennessee and settled in Pulaski; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from the University of Nashville, Tennessee, in 1827; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced the practice of his profession in Pulaski, Tenn.; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1835-March 3, 1839); died in Memphis, Tenn., May 20, 1846.

SHIELDS, James, a Representative from Ohio; born in Benbridge, County Down, Ireland, April 13, 1762; received a good common-school education; entered the University of Glasgow, Scotland, in 1782 and was graduated in 1786; attended medical college for two years; emigrated to the United States in July, 1791, and settled in Frederick County, Va., where he taught school; moved to Butler County, Ohio, in 1801; returned to Virginia and became a citizen of the United States in 1804; returned to Ohio in 1807; member of the State house of representatives 1806-1827; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Jackson and Calhoun in 1828; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twenty-first Congress (March 4, 1829-March 3, 1831); was killed through the accidental overturning of a stagecoach near Venice, Butler County, Ohio, August 13, 1831; interment in Venice Cemetery, Venice, Ohio.

SHIELDS, James (nephew of the preceding), a Senator from Illinois, Minnesota, and Missouri, born in Altmore, County Tyrone, Ireland, May 10, 1810; attended a hedge school, private schools, and pursued classical studies; emigrated to the United States in 1823; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1832, and commenced practice in Kaskaskia, Randolph County, Ill.; member of the State house of representatives in 1836; auditor of the State in 1839; judge of the Supreme Court of Illinois in 1843; Commissioner of the General Land Office 1845-1847; during the Mexican War was commissioned brigadier general of Volunteers July 1, 1846; brevetted major general April 18, 1847, "for gallant and meritorious conduct at the Battle of Cerro Gordo, Mexico"; honorably discharged July 24, 1848; appointed Governor of Oregon Territory by President Polk; resigned in 1849; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate from Illinois for the term commencing March 4, 1849; upon his appearance to take his seat on March 5, 1849, a resolution was presented raising the question of his eligibility; took his seat on March 6, 1849, but on March 15, 1849, the Senate declared his election void on the ground that he had not been a citizen of the United States the number of years required by the Constitution; again elected for the same term, and served from October 27, 1849, to March 3, 1855; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; moved to Minnesota in 1855; upon the admission of Minnesota as a State into the Union was elected to the United States Senate, and served from May 11, 1858, to March 3, 1859; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; moved to California; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as brigadier general of Volunteers from August 19, 1861, to March 28, 1863, when he resigned and returned to California; moved to Carrollton, Mo., and resumed the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives in 1874 and 1879; appointed adjutant general of Missouri in 1877; served as railroad commissioner; elected to the United States Senate from Missouri on January 22, 1879, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lewis V. Boggs, and served from January 27, 1879, to March 3, 1879; declined to be a candidate for renomination; died in Ottumwa, Wapello County, Iowa, June 1, 1879; interment in St. Mary's Cemetery, Carrollton, Carroll County, Mo.

SHIELDS, John Knight, a Senator from Tennessee; born at "Clinchdale," near Bean's Station, Grainger County, Tenn., August 15, 1858; was educated by private tutors; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1879, and practiced in Grainger and adjoining counties until 1893; chancellor of the twelfth chancery division in 1893 and 1894; resumed the practice of law in Morristown, Hamblen County, Tenn., 1894-1902; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1896 which nominated Bryan and Sewall and at St. Louis in 1904 which nominated Parker and Davis; elected associate justice of the Supreme Court of Tennessee and served from 1902 to 1910; reelected in 1910 and appointed chief justice, which office he held until 1918, when he resigned, having been nominated as a candidate for Senator; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1918; reelected in 1918, and served from March 4, 1913, to March 3, 1925; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1924; resumed the practice of law in Knoxville, Tenn., residing on his farm "Clinchdale."

SHINN, William Norton, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Burlington County, N. J., October 24, 1782; attended the public schools; engaged in agricultural pursuits; sheriff of Burlington County 1825-1828; member of the State general assembly in 1828; served in the State council 1829-1831; chairman of the Democratic State central committee in 1832; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1837); resumed agricultural pursuits; president of the Burlington Agricultural Association in 1853 and 1854; elected a director of the Camden & Amboy Railroad Co.; died in Mount Holly, Burlington County, N. J., on August 18, 1871; interment in Mount Holly Cemetery.

SHIPHERD, Zebulon Rudd, a Representative from New York; born in Granville, Washington County, N. Y., November 15, 1768; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced the practice of his profession in Granville, N. Y.; was elected as a Federalist to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1815); resumed the practice of his profession in Granville; trustee of Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vt., 1819-1841; moved to Moriah, Essex County, about 1830, where he died November 1, 1841; interment in the Moriah Corners Cemetery.

SHIPPEN, William, a Delegate from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., October 1, 1712; pursued preparatory studies; studied medicine and practiced his profession in Philadelphia; was one of the founders of the Public Academy and a trustee in 1749; was one of the twenty-four founders of the College of Philadelphia, which afterwards became the University of Pennsylvania, and a trustee 1749-1779; one of the founders of the College of New Jersey (now Princeton University) and a trustee from 1765 to 1796; was a member of the American Philosophical Society, of which he was vice president in 1768 and many years after; Member of the Continental Congress 1778-1780; resumed the practice of medicine in Philadelphia; died in Germantown, Pa., November 4, 1801; interment in the First Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pa.

SHIPSTEAD, Henrik, a Senator from Minnesota; born in Burbank, Kandiyohi County, Minn., January 8, 1881; attended the public schools at New London, Minn., and the State normal school at St. Cloud, Minn.; was graduated from the dental department of the Northwestern University, Chicago, Ill., in 1903 and practiced dentistry in Glenwood, Minn., 1904-1920; served as a member of the charter commission of Glenwood in 1911 and 1912; mayor of Glenwood 1911-1913; member of the State house of representatives in 1917; moved to Minneapolis in 1920 and resumed the practice of dentistry; elected on the Farmer-Labor ticket to the United States Senate for the term commencing March 4, 1923, and ending March 3, 1929.

SHIRAS, George, 8d, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Allegheny, Pa., January 1, 1859; attended the public schools, and Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass.; was graduated from Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., in 1881 and from the law department of Yale College in 1883; was admitted to the Connecticut and Pennsylvania bars in 1883 and commenced the practice of his profession in Pittsburgh, Pa.; member of the State house of representatives in 1889 and 1890; unsuccessful candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in 1890; elected as an Independent Republican with Democratic indorsement to the Fifty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1905); was not a candidate for renomination in 1904 to the Fifty-ninth Congress; engaged in literary pursuits, and is a resident of Washington, D. C.

SHIVELY, Benjamin Franklin, a Representative and a Senator from Indiana; born near Osceola, St. Joseph County, Ind., March 20, 1857; attended the common schools and the Northern Indiana Normal School at Valparaiso, Ind.; taught school 1874-1880; engaged in journalism 1880-1884; secretary of the National Anti-Monopoly Association in 1883; president of the board of Indiana University in 1884; elected as a National Anti-Monopolist to the Forty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William H. Calkins, and served from December 1, 1884, to March 3, 1885; was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1886; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice in South Bend, Ind.; elected as a Democrat to the Fiftyeth, Fifty-first, and Fifty-second Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1893); was not a candidate for renomination in 1892; resumed the practice of law in South Bend, Ind.; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor of Indiana in 1896; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1906 to the Sixtieth Congress; elected to the United States Senate in 1909; reelected in 1914, and served from March 4, 1909, until his death in Washington, D. C., March 14, 1916; interment in the Brookville Cemetery, Brookville, Pa.

SHOBER, Francis Edwin (father of Francis Emanuel Shober), a Representative from North Carolina; born in Salem (now Winston-Salem), N. C., March 12, 1831; attended the common schools and the Moravian School, Bethlehem, Pa.; was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1851; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1853, and commenced practice in Salisbury, N. C., in 1854; member of the State house of commons in 1862 and 1864; served in the State senate in 1865; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-first and Forty-second Congresses (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1873); was not a candidate for a renomination in 1872; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1875; county judge of Rowan County in 1877 and 1878; appointed Chief Clerk of the United States Senate in the Forty-fifth Congress; upon the death of Secretary John C. Burch in the Forty-seventh Congress was appointed Acting Secretary of the Senate, and served from October 24, 1881, to March 3, 1883; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1880 and at Chicago in 1884; again a member of the State senate in 1887; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Salisbury, Rowan County, N. C., May 29, 1896; interment in Oakdale Cemetery.

SHOBER, Francis Emanuel (son of Francis Edwin Shober), a Representative from New York; born in Salisbury, N. C., October 24, 1880; studied under private tutors; was graduated from St. Stephen's College, Annandale, N. Y., in 1889; engaged in ministerial and educational work in Dutchess County, N. Y.; reporter on the News-Press of Poughkeepsie; pastor of St. John's Episcopal Church at Barrytown, N. Y., 1880-1891; editor of the Rockaway Journal at Far Rockaway, N. Y.; member of the editorial staff of the New York World; was elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1905); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1904; was deputy tax appraiser of the State of New York in 1907 and 1908; resumed newspaper work; editor of the New York American until his death in New York City October 7, 1919; interment in Worcester Cemetery, Danbury, Fairfield County, Conn.

SHOEMAKER, Lazarus Denison, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Kingston, Luzerne County, Pa., November 5, 1819; attended Nazareth Hall, Nazareth, Pa., and Kenyon College, Gambler, Ohio; was graduated from Yale College in 1840; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1842, and commenced practice in Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; member of the State senate 1860-1870; elected as a Republican to the Forty-second and Forty-third Congresses (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed the practice of his profession; also engaged in banking; died in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., September 9, 1893; interment in Forty Fort Cemetery, Forty Fort, Luzerne County, Pa.

SHONK, George Washington, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Plymouth, Luzerne County, Pa., April 26, 1850; attended the public schools and Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa.; was graduated from Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., in 1873; studied law, was admitted to the bar of Luzerne County, Pa., September 29, 1876, and commenced practice in Wilkes-Barre; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1893); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1892; resumed the practice of his profession; also interested in coal mining in Pennsylvania; died in Washington, D. C., while en route to Richmond, Va., on a business trip, August 14, 1900; interment in Shawnee Cemetery, Plymouth, Pa.

SHORTER, Eli Sims, a Representative from Alabama; born in Monticello, Jasper County, Ga., March 15, 1823; attended the common schools, and was graduated in law from Yale College in 1844; was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Eufaula, Ala., in 1844; also engaged in agricultural pursuits; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1859); resumed the practice of law in Eufaula, Ala.; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army as colonel of the Eighteenth Regiment Alabama Volunteer Infantry; died in Eufaula, Ala., April 29, 1879; interment in Fairview Cemetery.

SHORTRIDGE, Samuel Morgan, a Senator from California; born in Mount Pleasant, Henry County, Iowa, August 3, 1861; moved to California with his parents, who settled in San Jose in 1875; attended the public schools and the Hastings College of Law at San Francisco, Calif.; was admitted to the bar in 1884 and commenced the practice of his profession at San Francisco, Calif.; presidential elector on the Republican tickets in 1888, 1900, and again in 1908; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1920 for the term commencing March 4, 1921, and ending March 3, 1927. Reelected in 1926 for the term ending March 3, 1933.

SHOUP, George Laird, a Senator from Idaho; born in Kittingham, Armstrong County, Pa., June 15, 1836; attended the public schools of Freeport and Slate Lick; moved with his father to Illinois in June, 1852; engaged in agricultural pursuits and stock raising near Galesburg, Ill., until 1858; moved to Colorado in 1859; engaged in mining and mercantile pursuits until 1861; during the Civil War enlisted in Captain Backus's independent company of scouts in September, 1861, and soon thereafter was commissioned a second lieutenant; was ordered to Fort Union, N. Mex., in 1862; kept on scouting duty on the Canadian, Pecos, and Red Rivers until 1863; during this time was promoted to first lieutenant; ordered to the Arkansas River; had been assigned in 1862 to the Second Regiment Colorado Volunteer Infantry, but retained on duty in the Cavalry service; assigned to the First Regiment Colorado Volunteer Cavalry in May, 1863; member of the convention to prepare a constitution for the proposed State of Colorado in 1864; returned to active duty in the Army; commissioned colonel of the Third Regiment Colorado Volunteer Cavalry in September, 1864, and mustered out in Denver; engaged in mercantile pursuits in Virginia City, Mont., in 1866 and later in Salmon City, Idaho; county treasurer in 1868; county commissioner in 1868 and 1869; was superintendent of schools of Lemhi County in 1871; member of the Territorial house of representatives in 1874; was a member of the Territorial council in 1878; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1880; member of the Republican National Committee 1880-1884 and 1888-1892; United States commissioner for Idaho at the World's Cotton Centennial Exposition in New Orleans, La., in 1884 and 1885; Governor of Idaho Territory in 1889 and 1890; upon the admission of Idaho as a State into the Union was elected its first governor October 1, 1890, but resigned in December of that year, having been elected Senator; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1890; reelected in 1895, and served from December 18, 1890, to March 3, 1901; was the caucus nominee of his party, who were in the minority, for reelection; died in Boise, Idaho, December 21, 1904; interment in the Masonic Cemetery.

SHOUSE, Jouett, a Representative from Kansas; born in Midway, Woodford County, Ky., December 10, 1879; moved with his parents to Mexico, Mo., in 1892; attended the public schools and the University of Missouri at Columbia; moved to Lexington, Ky., in 1898 and engaged in newspaper work until 1911; moved to Kinsley, Kans., in 1911 and engaged in agricultural pursuits and livestock raising; vice president and treasurer of the Mexican lines of the Kansas, Mexico & Orient Railroad; director of the Kinsley Bank; member of the State senate 1913-1915; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fourth and Sixty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1919); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; Assistant Secretary of the Treasury from March 5, 1919, to November 15, 1920; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco in 1920 and at New York City in 1924; engaged in the practice of law in Kansas City, Mo., and resides in Kinsley, Kans.

SHOWALTER, Joseph Baltzell, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Smithfield, Fayette County, Pa., on February 11, 1851; attended the public schools and Georges Creek Academy at Smithfield; taught school for six years; studied medicine at Long Island College Hospital, Brooklyn, N. Y.; was graduated from the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Baltimore, Md., in 1884; practiced medicine for a number of years in Chicora, Pa.; engaged in the production of petroleum and natural gas; member of the State house of representatives in 1886; served in the State senate in 1888; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James J. Davidson; reelected to the Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh Congresses, and served from April 20, 1897, to March 3, 1903; was not a candidate for reelection; resumed his former business pursuits and is also engaged in the development of land in southern Florida; is a resident of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Washington, D. C.

SHOWER, Jacob, a Representative from Maryland; born in Manchester, Baltimore County, Md., February 22, 1803; was a drummer boy in the War of 1812; attended private schools at Emmitsburg, Md., and was graduated from the medical department of the University of Maryland at Baltimore in 1825; commenced the practice of his profession in Carroll County, Md.; charter member of the first Andrew Jackson Club in the State in 1824; Democratic member of the State house of delegates 1834-1840; clerk of the circuit court of Carroll County 1842-1850; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1851; elected as an Independent to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); resumed medical practice; died in Manchester, Md., May 25, 1879.

SHREVE, Milton William, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Chapmanville, Venango County, Pa., May 3, 1856; attended the Edinboro State Normal School and Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa.; was graduated from Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa., in 1884; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Erie County, and commenced practice in Erie, Pa.; district attorney of Erie County 1899-1902; member of the State house of representatives 1907-1912, and in the session of 1911 succeeded to the speakership; appointed a member of Perry's Victory Centennial Commission; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Erie; member of the appeals draft board during the World War; again elected to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SHUFORD, Alonzo Craig, a Representative from North Carolina; born near Newton, Catawba County, N. C., March 1, 1858; attended the common schools and Newton College; engaged in agricultural pursuits; joined the Alliance in 1889; made county lecturer and later district lecturer; delegate to the labor conference at St. Louis, Mo., in February, 1892; also a delegate to the Populist convention at Omaha, Nebr., in July, 1892; elected vice president of the State Alliance in 1894; elected as a Populist to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1899); resumed agricultural pursuits, and resides near Newton, N. C.

SHULL, Joseph Horace, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born at Martins Creek, Northampton County, Pa., August 17, 1848; attended the public schools and Blair Hall, Blairstown, N. J.; took a special course in Lafayette College, Easton, Pa.; was graduated from the University of New York and in 1873 from the Bellevue Hospital Medical College, both in New York City; taught in the public schools of Pennsylvania for four years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1879, and commenced practice in Stroudsburg, Monroe County, Pa.; editor of the Monroe Democrat 1881-1886; member of the State senate 1886-1891; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1905); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1904; resumed the practice of law and medicine; was a contract surgeon during the World War; is a resident of Stroudsburg, Pa.

SHULTZ, Emanuel, a Representative from Ohio; born in Stouchsburg, Berks County, Pa., July 25, 1819; attended the public schools; apprenticed to the trade of a shoemaker; moved to Miamisburg, Montgomery County, Ohio, in 1838; engaged in mercantile pursuits, banking, and the manufacture of paper; member of the State constitutional convention in 1873; member of the State house of representatives 1875-1877; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1883); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1882; again engaged in paper making; appointed postmaster of Miamisburg and served from August 2, 1889, to January 17, 1894; died in Miamisburg, Ohio, November 5, 1912; interment in Hill Grove Cemetery.

SIBLEY, Henry Hastings (son of Solomon Sibley), a Delegate from the Territories of Wisconsin and Minnesota; born in Detroit, Mich., February 20, 1811; attended the Detroit Academy and studied under private tutors; studied law; moved to Sault Ste. Marie in 1828, and engaged in mercantile pursuits until 1829, when he moved to Mackinac and entered the service of the American Fur Co.; justice of the peace in 1831; moved to the mouth of the Minnesota River in 1834 and engaged in fur trading; in 1835 he built the first stone house at Mendota, now in the State of Minnesota, which house is at present in charge of the Daughters of the American Revolution; elected a Delegate from the Territory of Wisconsin to the Thirtieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the disqualification of John H. Tweedy, and served from October 30, 1848, to March 3, 1849; upon the formation of the Territory of Minnesota was elected a Delegate to the Thirty-first and Thirty-second Congresses, and served from July 7, 1849, to March 3, 1853; declined to be a candidate for renomination; member of the Territorial Legislature of Minnesota in 1855; member of the constitutional convention of Minnesota in 1857, and served as president; Governor of Minnesota 1858-1860; regent of the State university 1860-1869 and president of the board of regents 1876-1891; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as brigadier general of Volunteers from September 23, 1862, to March 4, 1863, and from March 20, 1863, to November 29, 1865, when he was brevetted major general of Volunteers "for efficient and meritorious services"; honorably mustered out April 30, 1866; moved to St. Paul, Minn.; interested in banking, railroads, and other public corporations; president of the St. Paul Gas Co. in 1868; president of the Minnesota Historical Society 1879-1891; unsuccessful candidate for election to the Forty-seventh Congress; appointed by President Arthur in 1883 as president of the commission to settle damage claims of the Ojibway Indians resulting from the construction of national reservoirs; died in St. Paul, Minn., February 18, 1891; interment in Oakland Cemetery.

SIBLEY, Jonas, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Sutton, Mass., on March 7, 1702; completed preparatory studies; town moderator 1802-1827; selectman 1801-1808, and again in 1819; town treasurer of Sutton 1806-1816; member of the State house of representatives 1806-1822 and 1827-1829; member of the State senate in 1820; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Monroe and Tompkins in 1820; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1820; elected as a Democrat to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1825); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Sutton, Worcester County, Mass., February 5, 1834; interment in Center Cemetery.

SIBLEY, Joseph Crocker, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Friendship, Allegany County, N. Y., February 18, 1850; moved with his parents in 1859 to Boston, N. Y.; attended the county schools and the local academies at Springville and Friendship; taught school and studied medicine; engaged in the oil-refining business in Franklin, Pa., and also interested in manufacturing and agricultural pursuits; mayor of Franklin, Pa., in 1879; nominated by the Democrats, People's Party, and Prohibitionists in the twenty-sixth district, though he was a resident of the twenty-seventh, as their candidate for the Fifty-third Congress; was elected to the Fifty-third Congress (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1895); unsuccessful candidate of the Democratic and Populist Parties for reelection in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress and for election in 1896 to the Fifty-fifth Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1901); elected as a Republican to the Fifty-seventh, Fifty-eighth, and Fifty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1901-March 3, 1907); declined renomination in 1906; was nominated for Congress in 1910, but declined to make the campaign on account of the condition of his health; chairman of the Republican State convention in 1902; resumed his former manufacturing and agricultural pursuits; died at his home, "River Ridge Farm," near Franklin, Pa., May 19, 1923; interment in Franklin Cemetery.

SIBLEY, Mark Hopkins, a Representative from New York; born in Great Barrington, Mass., in 1796; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Canandaigua, N. Y., in 1814; member of the State assembly in 1834 and 1835; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1839); member of the State senate in 1841; judge of Ontario County 1847-1851; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Canandaigua, Ontario County, N. Y., September 8, 1852; interment in the West Avenue Cemetery.

SIBLEY, Solomon (father of Henry Hastings Sibley), a Delegate from the Territory of Michigan; born in Sutton, Mass., October 7, 1789; completed preparatory studies, and was graduated from the College of Rhode Island at Providence in 1794; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1795, and commenced practice in Marietta, Ohio; moved to Detroit, Mich., in 1797 and continued the practice of law; was a member of the Territorial Legislature of the Northwest Territory in 1799; mayor of Detroit, Mich., in 1806; president of the board of trustees of Detroit in 1815; auditor of Michigan Territory 1814-1817; United States attorney, Michigan Territory, by appointment of President Madison 1815-1823; elected to the Sixteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William W. Woodbridge; reelected to the Seventeenth Congress, and served from November 20, 1820, to March 3, 1823; was not a candidate for reelection in 1822; judge of the Supreme Court of Michigan Territory 1824-1837; resumed the practice of law; died in Detroit, Mich., April 4, 1846; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

SICKLES, Daniel Edgar, a Representative from New York; born in New York City October 20, 1825; attended the New York University; apprenticed as a printer; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1846, and commenced practice in New York City; member of the State assembly in 1847; major of the Twelfth Regiment New York National Guard in 1852; corporation attorney in 1853; secretary of legation at London by appointment of President Franklin Pierce 1853-1855; member of the State senate in 1856 and 1857; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1861); was not a candidate for renomination in 1860; served in the Civil War; colonel of the Seventeenth Regiment New York Volunteer Infantry June 20, 1861; brigadier general of Volunteers September 3, 1861; major general of Volunteers November 20, 1862; colonel of the Forty-second United States Infantry July 28, 1866; honorably mustered out January 1, 1868; retired with rank of major general April 14, 1869; brevetted brigadier general March 2, 1867, "for gallant and meritorious services in the Battle of Fredericksburg, Va."; major general March 2, 1867, "for gallant and meritorious services in the Battle of Gettysburg, Pa."; awarded medal of honor October 30, 1867, "for most distinguished gallantry in action at Gettysburg, Pa., July 2, 1863, both before and after the loss of a leg, while serving as major general of Volunteers commanding the Third Army Corps"; intrusted with a special mission to the South American Republics in 1865; declined the positions of minister to Holland and to Mexico; envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Spain by appointment of President Grant 1869-1875; chairman of the New York State Civil Service Commission in 1888 and 1889; sheriff of New York City in 1890; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third Congress (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1895); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; retired from public life, and resided in New York City until his death, which occurred May 3, 1914; interment in Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va.

SICKLES, Nicholas, a Representative from New York; born in Kinderhook, Ulster County, N. Y., on September 11, 1801; attended private schools and the Kinderhook Academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1823, and commenced practice in Kingston, N. Y.; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fourth Congress (December 7, 1835-March 3, 1837); prosecuting attorney of Ulster County, N. Y., in 1836 and 1837; served as surrogate of Ulster County from January 1, 1844, until his death in Kingston, Ulster County, N. Y., May 18, 1845; interment in the Houghtaling Burying Ground.

SIEGEL, Isaac, a Representative from New York; born in New York City on April 12, 1880; attended the public schools and pursued a supplementary course of study in New York City; was graduated from the New York University Law School in 1901; was admitted to the bar May 26, 1902, and commenced practice in New York City; was appointed special deputy attorney general for the prosecution of election frauds in 1909 and 1910; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, and Sixty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1923); was not a candidate for renomination in 1922; during the World War was a member of the overseas commission which visited France and Italy during July and August, 1918; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1920 and at Kansas City in 1924; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of New York City.

SILL, Thomas Hale, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Windsor, Conn., October 11, 1783; completed preparatory studies, and was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1804; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1809, and commenced practice in Lebanon, Ohio; moved to Erie, Pa., in 1813 and resumed the practice of law; member of the staff of General Wallace, and also a member of the Minutemen of the State militia; deputy United States marshal 1816-1818; deputy attorney general in 1819; member of the State house of representatives in 1823; elected as a National-Republican to the Nineteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Patrick Farrelly, and served from March 14, 1826, to March 3, 1827; elected to the Twenty-first Congress (March 4, 1829-March 3, 1831); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1830; president of the United States branch bank at Erie, Pa., in 1837; member of the State constitutional convention in 1837 and 1838; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Taylor and Fillmore in 1848; postmaster of Erie, Pa., 1847-1853; served as a director of the Erie Academy for more than thirty years; engaged in the practice of his profession until his death in Erie, Pa., February 7, 1856; interment in Erie Cemetery.

SILSBEE, Nathaniel, a Representative and a Senator from Massachusetts; born in Salem, Mass., on January 14, 1773; attended private schools; was a shipmaster; engaged in mercantile pursuits in 1812; held several local offices; elected as a Democrat to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1821); was not a candidate for renomination; elected to the State house of representatives in 1821; member of the State senate 1823-1825, and served as president; presidential elector in 1824 and voted for John Quincy Adams; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James Lloyd; reelected in 1829, and served from May 31, 1829, to March 3, 1835; declined to be a candidate for reelection; delegate to the Whig State convention in 1832 and served as president; presidential elector in 1830 and voted for Daniel Webster; resumed mercantile pursuits in Salem, Mass., where he died July 14, 1880; interment in Harmony Grove Cemetery.

SILVESTER, Peter (grandfather of Peter Henry Silvester), a Representative from New York; born at Shelter Island, Long Island, N. Y., in 1734; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1763, and practiced in Albany, N. Y.; member of the Albany Common Council in 1772; member of the committee of safety in 1774; served in the First and Second Provincial Congresses in 1775 and 1776; moved to Kinderhook, N. Y., and practiced law; appointed judge of the court of common pleas of Columbia County in 1780; regent of the University of the State of New York 1787-1806; elected to the First and Second Congresses (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1798); served in the State assembly in 1788; member of the State senate 1796-1800; again served in the State assembly 1803-1806; retired from public life; died in Kinderhook, Columbia County, N. Y., October 15, 1808; interment in the Old Van Schaack Cemetery, over which the Reformed Dutch Church was built in 1814.

SILVESTER, Peter Henry (grandson of Peter Silvester), a Representative from New York; born in Kinderhook, Columbia County, N. Y., February 17, 1807; attended the Kinderhook Academy, and was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1827; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1830, and practiced his profession in Coxsackie, N. Y.; elected as a Whig to the Thirtieth and Thirty-first Congresses (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1851); retired from public affairs and spent the remaining years of his life on one of his farms in the village of Coxsackie, Greene County, N. Y., until his death on November 29, 1882; interment in Kinderhook Cemetery, Kinderhook, Columbia County, N. Y.

SIMKINS, Eldred, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Edgefield, S. C., August 30, 1779; attended a private academy at Willington, Abbeville District, S. C., and was graduated from South Carolina College (now the University of South Carolina) at Columbia; was a student at the Litchfield (Conn.) Law School for three years; was admitted to the bar in 1805 and commenced practice in Edgefield, S. C., in 1806; member of the State house of representatives; served in the State senate 1810-1812; lieutenant governor of the State 1812-1814; elected as a Democrat to the Fifteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John C. Calhoun; reelected to the Sixteenth Congress, and served from January 24, 1818, to March 3, 1821; declined to be a candidate for renomination; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1824; resumed the practice of his profession and also engaged in planting; died in Edgefield, Edgefield County, S. C., November 17, 1831; interment in Cedar Fields, the family burial ground, near Edgefield, S. C.

SIMMONS, Furnifold McLendel, a Representative and a Senator from North Carolina; born on the plantation of his father near Polkville, Jones County, N. C., January 20, 1854; attended a private school and Wake Forest (N. C.) College; was graduated from Trinity College (now Duke University), Durham, N. C., in 1873; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1875; moved to New Bern, Jones County, N. C., in 1876, and commenced the practice of law; elected as a Democrat to the Fiftieth Congress (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1889); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1888 to the Fifty-first Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in New Bern; in the campaigns of 1892, 1898, 1900, 1902, 1904, and 1906 was chairman of the Democratic State executive committee of North Carolina; appointed by President Cleveland collector of internal revenue for the fourth district of North Carolina in 1898 and served until 1897; member of the Democratic National Committee in 1924; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1901 for the term commencing March 4, 1901; reelected in 1907, 1913, 1918, and again in 1924 for the term ending March 3, 1931.

SIMMONS, George Abel, a Representative from New York; born in Lyme, N. H., September 8, 1791; attended the district school; was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1816; moved to Lansingburg, Rensselaer County, N. Y., and was principal of the local academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1825, and commenced practice in Keeseville, Essex County, N. Y.; member of the State assembly 1840-1842; member of the State constitutional convention in 1840; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1857); was not a candidate for reelection in 1856; resumed the practice of his profession in Keeseville, N. Y., and died there October 27, 1857; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

SIMMONS, James Fowler, a Senator from Rhode Island; born in Little Compton, R. I., September 10, 1795; pursued classical studies; moved to Johnson, R. I., in 1827; engaged in the manufacture of yarns and agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives 1828-1841; elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1841, to March 3, 1847; returned to Johnson, R. I., and resumed his former pursuits; again elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1857, to August 15, 1862, when he resigned; died in Johnson, R. I., July 10, 1864; interment in the North End Cemetery, Providence, R. I.

SIMMONS, James Samuel (nephew of Milton George Urner), a Representative from New York; born near Liberty, Frederick County, Md., November 25, 1801; attended the public schools and the local academy at Liberty; was graduated from Frederick College; moved to Roanoke, Va., in 1830 and engaged in the real-estate business; moved to Niagara Falls, N. Y., in 1864 and continued his business activities; chairman of the Republican city committee in 1907 and 1908; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-first and Sixty-second Congresses (March 4, 1909-March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1912 to the Sixty-third Congress; resumed the real-estate business in Niagara Falls, N. Y.; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1912; moved to Passagrille, Fla., in 1927, where he now resides.

SIMMONS, Robert Glenmore, a Representative from Nebraska; born in Scotts Bluff County, Nebr., on December 25, 1891; attended the public schools and Hastings (Nebr.) College, and was graduated from the law department of the University of Nebraska at Lincoln in 1915; was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in Gering, Nebr.; elected prosecuting attorney of Scotts Bluff County in 1916; resigned in 1917 and enlisted in the Army during the World War; qualified as a balloon observer and licensed spherical balloon pilot and was commissioned in the Air Service in 1918; commander of the American Legion, department of Nebraska, in 1921; president of the University of Nebraska Alumni Association in 1922; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SIMMS, William Emmet, a Representative from Kentucky; born near Cynthia, Harrison County, Ky., January 2, 1822; attended the public schools and was graduated from the law department of Transylvania University at Lexington, Ky.; was admitted to the bar in 1846, and commenced practice in Paris, Bourbon County, Ky.; served as captain throughout the Mexican War; member of the State house of representatives 1840-1851; was elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1861); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1860 to the Thirty-seventh Congress; served as colonel in the Confederate Army during the Civil War; member of the First and Second Confederate Congresses and of President Davis's Cabinet; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died on his estate, "Mount Airy," near Paris, Bourbon County, Ky., June 25, 1898; interment in Paris Cemetery.

SIMON, Joseph, a Senator from Oregon; born in Bechtelheim, Germany, February 7, 1851; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Portland, Oreg., in 1857; attended the public schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1872, and commenced practice in Portland, Oreg.; member of the city council 1877-1880; secretary of the Republican State central committee in 1878, and served as chairman in 1880, 1884, and in 1886; member of the State senate 1880-1898, and served as president in 1889, 1891, 1895, and 1897 and at the special session of 1898; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Minneapolis in 1892 and at Philadelphia in 1900; member of the National Republican Committee 1892-1896; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate October 8, 1898, to fill the vacancy in the term commencing March 4, 1897, and served until March 3, 1903; was not a candidate for reelection; mayor of Portland, Oreg., 1909-1911; resumed the practice of law, and resides in Portland, Oreg.

SIMONDS, William Edgar, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Collinsville, town of Canton, Hartford County, Conn., November 24, 1842; attended the public schools and Collinsville High School, and was graduated from the Connecticut State Normal School at New Britain in 1860; taught school; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in Company A, Twenty-fifth Regiment Connecticut Volunteer Infantry, August 18, 1862; promoted to sergeant major before muster into the United States service; promoted to second lieutenant of Company I of his regiment at the Battle of Irish Bend, Louisiana, April 24, 1863; discharged from service by reason of expiration of term August 26, 1863; was graduated from Yale Law School in 1865; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice in Hartford, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives in 1883 and 1885, and served as speaker in the latter year; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1891); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1890 to the Fifty-second Congress; United States Commissioner of Patents 1891-1893; the decoration of chevalier of the Legion of Honor was conferred upon him by the Republic of France in 1893; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Hartford, Conn., March 14, 1903; interment in Canton Center Cemetery, Canton, Conn.

SIMONS, Samuel, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Bridgeport, Conn., in 1792; pursued an academic course; held several local offices; taught school; studied medicine and commenced practice in Bridgeport, Fairfield County, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives in 1830; director of the Housatonic Railroad; trustee of the Bridgeport Savings Bank; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1845); resumed the practice of medicine in Bridgeport, Conn., where he died January 13, 1847; interment in Mountain Grove Cemetery.

SIMONTON, Charles Bryson, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Tipton County, Tenn., September 8, 1838; was graduated from Erskine College, Due West, S. C., in August, 1859; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in Company

C, Ninth Tennessee Infantry, Confederate Army, in 1861; subsequently elected second lieutenant and then captain; severely wounded in the Battle of Perryville October 8, 1862, and disabled from any further active duty during the war; elected clerk of the circuit court of Tipton County in March, 1870; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1873, and commenced practice in Covington, Tenn.; member of the State house of representatives in 1877 and 1878; editor of the Tipton Record in Covington, Tipton County, Tenn.; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1883); chairman of the Democratic State convention in 1886; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Stevenson in 1892; president of the Covington city school board 1892-1903; United States district attorney for the district of Tennessee 1895-1898; died in Covington, Tenn., June 10, 1911; interment in Munford Cemetery.

SIMONTON, William, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in West Hanover Township, near Harrisburg, Pa., February 12, 1788; received his early education from his mother and later attended a private school; was graduated from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1810 and practiced his profession while residing on his farm near Hummelstown, Dauphin County, Pa.; elected auditor of Dauphin County in 1823 and served three years; one of the original supporters of the free-school system established by the act of 1834; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1843); died in South Hanover, Pa., May 17, 1848; interment in the Old Hanover Cemetery, north of Shellsville, Pa.

SIMPKINS, John, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in New Bedford, Bristol County, Mass., June 27, 1862; attended the public schools of Yarmouth and St. Mark's School, Southboro, Mass.; was graduated from Harvard University in 1885; served in the State senate in 1890 and 1891; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Harrison and Reid in 1892; president of the Republican Club of Massachusetts in 1892 and 1893; member of the Republican State committee 1892-1894; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1895, until his death in Washington, D. C., March 27, 1898; interment in Woodside Cemetery, Yarmouth, Barnstable County, Mass.

SIMPSON, Jeremiah (Jerry), a Representative from Kansas; born on Prince Edward Island, Canada, March 31, 1842; moved with his parents to Oneida County, N. Y., in 1848; attended the public schools; followed the sea from 1856 to 1879; served in the Civil War in Company A, Twelfth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry; moved to Barber County, Kans., in 1878 and settled near Medicine Lodge; engaged in farming and stock raising; unsuccessful candidate for election to the Kansas House of Representatives on the independent ticket from Barber County on two occasions; elected as a Populist to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1895); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; elected to the Fifty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1899); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1898 to the Fifty-sixth Congress; resumed his former pursuits; died in Wichita, Kans., October 23, 1905; interment in Maple Grove Cemetery.

SIMPSON, Richard Franklin, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Laurens, S. C., March 24, 1798; was graduated from South Carolina College (now the University of South Carolina) at Columbia in 1816; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1819, and began practice in Pendleton,

S. C.; held several local offices; served as major during the Seminole War in 1836; member of the State senate 1835-1841; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, and Thirtieth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1849); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1848; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the secession convention in 1860 and signed the ordinance of secession; died in Pendleton, Anderson County, S. C., October 28, 1882; interment in the family cemetery near that city.

SIMS, Alexander Dromgoole, a Representative from South Carolina; born near Randalls Ordinary, Brunswick County, Va., June 12, 1803; attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y.; assumed charge of the Darlington (S. C.) Academy in 1820; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1829, and commenced practice in Darlington, S. C.; member of the State house of representatives 1840-1844; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth Congresses and served from March 4, 1845, until his death; had been reelected in 1848 to the Thirty-first Congress; died in Kingstree, Williamsburg County, S. C., November 22, 1848; interment in the First Baptist Cemetery, Darlington, Darlington County, S. C.

SIMS, Leonard H., a Representative from Missouri; born in North Carolina; received a limited schooling; moved to Springfield, Greene County, Mo.; held several local offices; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1847).

SIMS, Thetus Willrette, a Representative from Tennessee; born near Waynesboro, Wayne County, Tenn., April 25, 1852; attended a private school at Martins Mills; moved with his parents to Savannah, Hardin County, Tenn., in 1862; attended Savannah College, Savannah, Tenn., and was graduated from the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in June, 1876; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Linden, Perry County, Tenn.; county superintendent of public instruction for Perry County, Tenn., 1882-1884; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Stevenson in 1892; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth and to the eleven succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1921); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1920 to the Sixty-seventh Congress; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Lexington, Henderson County, Tenn.

SINCLAIR, James Herbert, a Representative from North Dakota; born near St. Marys, Ontario, Canada, October 9, 1871; moved with his parents to Cooperstown, Griggs County, N. Dak., in 1883; attended the public schools and was graduated from the Mayville (N. Dak.) State Normal School; was superintendent of schools of Cooperstown, N. Dak., 1896-1898; register of deeds of Griggs County 1899-1905; organized and became cashier of the First National Bank of Binford 1905-1908; moved to Kenmare, Ward County, in March, 1908; engaged in agricultural pursuits and the real-estate business; member of the State house of representatives 1915-1919; elected as a Republican, with the support of the Nonpartisan League, to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SINGISER, Theodore Frelinghuysen, a Delegate from the Territory of Idaho; born in Churchtown, Cumberland County, Pa., March 15, 1845; attended the common schools; learned the art of printing; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army as a private in Company E, Sixth Regiment Pennsylvania Reserves, June 6, 1861; participated in the campaigns and battles of the Army of the Potomac up to and including Antietam; honorably discharged in February, 1863; reentered the Army in June, 1863, as captain of Company A, Twentieth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Cavalry, and was in active service with his command until the spring of 1865, when honorably discharged; assistant assessor of Internal revenue in 1866 and 1867; engaged in mercantile and editorial pursuits; studied law and was admitted to the bar in Washington, D. C., in 1878; employed in the United States Treasury from June 1, 1875, to May 31, 1879; appointed receiver of public moneys at Oxford, Idaho, in February, 1879; engaged in mining in Idaho and Utah; secretary of the Territory of Idaho in 1880; Acting Governor of Idaho during the winter of 1881-82; elected as a Republican to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress; receiver of public moneys at Mitchell, Dak. (now South Dakota), 1885-1889; again engaged in mining, with residence at Salt Lake City, Utah, until his death; died at the Mercy Hospital in Chicago, Ill., January 23, 1907; interment in Chestnut Hill Cemetery, Mechanicsburg, Cumberland County, Pa.

SINGLETON, James Washington, a Representative from Illinois; born in Paxton, Frederick County, Va., November 23, 1811; attended the Winchester (Va.) Academy; moved to Mount Sterling, Brown County, Ill., in 1834; studied medicine and practiced; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1838, and commenced practice in Mount Sterling; engaged in agricultural pursuits; elected brigadier general of the Illinois Militia in 1844 and took a conspicuous part in the so-called Mormon War; delegate to the State constitutional conventions in 1847 and 1861; member of the State house of representatives 1850-1854; moved to Quincy, Adams County, Ill., in 1854; was again a member of the State house of representatives in 1861; appointed by Governor Yates in 1862 a member of the commission to confer with the British and Canadian authorities on the subject of establishing continuous water communication between the United States and Canada; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1868 to the Forty-first Congress; president of and constructed the Quincy & Toledo Railroad; also president of and constructed the Quincy, Alton & St. Louis Railroad; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1883); returned to his farm "Boscobel," near Quincy, Ill., and engaged in the raising of fine stock; moved to Baltimore, Md., about 1891, and died there April 4, 1892; interment in Mount Hebron Cemetery, Winchester, Frederick County, Va.

SINGLETON, Otho Robards, a Representative from Mississippi; born near Nicholasville, Jessamine County, Ky., October 14, 1814; attended the common schools; was graduated from St. Joseph's College, Bardonia, Ky., and from the law department of the University of Lexington; was admitted to the bar in 1838 and commenced practice in Canton, Madison County, Miss.; member of the State house of representatives in 1840 and 1847; served in the State senate 1848-1854; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Pierce and King in 1852; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; elected to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1857, until January 12, 1861, when he withdrew; Representative from Mississippi in the Confederate Congress 1861-1865; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1887); was not a candidate for renomination in 1886; died in Washington, D. C., January 11, 1889; interment in the Canton Cemetery, Canton, Madison County, Miss.

SINGLETON, Thomas Day, a Representative from South Carolina; born near Kingstree, S. C.; attended the common schools; held several local offices; elected as a Nullifier to the Twenty-third Congress, and served from March 3, 1833, until his death, without having qualified, in Raleigh, N. C., November 25, 1833, while en route to Washington, D. C.; interment in the Congressional Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

SINNICKSON, Clement Hall (grandnephew of Thomas Sinnickson), a Representative from New Jersey; born in Salem, Salem County, N. J., September 16, 1834; attended private schools and the Polytechnic Institute at Troy, N. Y.; was graduated from Union College, New York, in 1855; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1858, and commenced practice in Salem, N. J.; during the Civil War served as captain in the Union Army; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); resumed the practice of law in Salem; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1880; appointed judge of the court of common pleas in 1896 and reappointed in 1901 and 1906; died in Salem, N. J., July 24, 1919; interment in St. John's Episcopal Cemetery.

SINNICKSON, Thomas (granduncle of Clement Hall Sinnickson), a Representative from New Jersey; born near Salem, Salem County, N. J., December 21, 1744; completed preparatory studies; engaged in mercantile pursuits; served as captain in the Revolutionary Army; held several local offices; member of the State general assembly in 1777, 1782, 1784, 1785, 1787, and 1788; elected to the First Congress (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1791); elected to the Fifth Congress (March 4, 1797-March 3, 1799); presidential elector on the Federalist ticket and voted for Adams and Pinckney; died in Salem, N. J., May 15, 1817; interment in St. John's Episcopal Cemetery.

SINNICKSON, Thomas (nephew of the preceding), a Representative from New Jersey; born in Salem, N. J., December 13, 1786; completed preparatory studies; engaged in mercantile pursuits; judge of the Court of Errors and Appeals of New Jersey; member of the State general assembly; judge of the court of common pleas for twenty years; elected to the Twentieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hedge Thompson, and served from December 1, 1828, to March 3, 1829; died in Salem, Salem County, N. J., February 17, 1873; interment in St. John's Episcopal Cemetery.

SINNOTT, Nicholas John, a Representative from Oregon; born in The Dalles, Wasco County, Oreg., December 6, 1870; attended the public schools and the Wasco Independent Academy at The Dalles; was graduated from the University of Notre Dame, Indiana, in 1892; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1895, and commenced practice at The Dalles, Oreg.; member of the State senate in 1909 and 1911; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-third and to the seven succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1913, until May 31, 1928, when he resigned; appointed by President Coolidge on April 18, 1928, a judge of the United States Court of Claims, at Washington, D. C., in which capacity he is now serving.

SIPE, William Allen, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Harrisonville, Fulton County, Pa., July 1, 1844; attended the public schools and the Cassville Academy, Cassville, Huntingdon County, Pa.; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army in 1862 and served in Company K, One hundred and forty-ninth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry; was discharged for disability the same year; studied law, was admitted to the bar in August, 1865, and practiced in Huntingdon, Pa.; moved to Indianapolis, Ind., in January, 1867, and to Pittsburgh, Pa., in December, 1868, and continued the practice of law; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Alexander K. Craig; reelected to the Fifty-third Congress, and served from December 5, 1892, to March 3, 1895; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Pittsburgh, Pa., until he retired in 1921; is a resident of San Diego, Calif.

SISSON, Thomas Upton, a Representative from Mississippi; born near McCool, Attala County, Miss., September 22, 1869; moved with his father to Choctaw County, Miss.; attended the common schools and the French Camp Academy, Mississippi; was graduated from the Southwestern Presbyterian University, Clarkesville, Tenn., in 1889; principal of the Carthage High School in 1889 and 1890 and of the graded schools of Kosciusko, Attala County, Miss., 1890-1892; studied law in the University of Mississippi at Oxford and was graduated from the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn.; was admitted to the bar at Memphis, Tenn., in 1894 and commenced practice in Winona, Montgomery County, Miss.; member of the State senate in 1896; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Bryan and Stevenson in 1900; district attorney of the fifth judicial district 1903-1907; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-first and to the six succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1909-March 3, 1923); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1922 to the Sixty-eighth Congress; died in Washington, D. C., September 26, 1923; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery, Winona, Miss.

SITES, Frank Crawford, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Shippensburg, Cumberland County, Pa., December 24, 1804; moved with his parents to Harrisburg, Pa., in 1875; attended the public schools; learned the trade of watchmaker and jeweler; director on the Harrisburg school board 1903-1912; appointed postmaster of Harrisburg June 3, 1913, and served until his successor was appointed June 20, 1922; secretary-treasurer of the National Association of Postmasters 1913-1922; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1925); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1924 to the Sixty-ninth Congress; engaged as bond salesman, and is a resident of Harrisburg, Pa.

SITGREAVES, Charles, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Easton, Pa., April 22, 1803; moved with his parents to New Jersey in 1806; pursued classical studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Easton in 1824, and commenced practice in Phillipsburg, Warren County, N. J.; member of the State general assembly 1831-1833; major commandant in the State militia 1828-1838; member of the town council in 1834 and 1835; served in the State senate 1851-1854; president of the Belvidere & Delaware Railroad Co.; mayor of Phillipsburg, N. J., in 1861 and 1862; president of the National Bank of Phillipsburg 1850-1878; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congresses (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1869); was not a candidate for renomination in 1868; engaged in banking and railroading; died in Phillipsburg, N. J., March 17, 1878; interment in the Seventh Street Cemetery, Easton, Pa.

SITGREAVES, John, a Delegate from North Carolina; born in England in 1757; attended Eton College; emigrated to the United States and settled in New Bern, N. C.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in New Bern, N. C.; during the Revolutionary War attained the rank of lieutenant; was later aide to General Caswell; commissioner in charge of confiscated property; clerk of the State senate in 1778 and 1779; Member of the Continental Congress in 1784 and 1785; member of the State house of commons 1784 and 1786-1789; served as speaker in 1787 and 1788; United States district judge for North Carolina from 1789 until his death in Halifax, N. C., March 4, 1802; interment in the City Cemetery, Raleigh, N. C.

SITGREAVES, Samuel, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., March 16, 1784; pursued classical studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Philadelphia, Pa., September 3, 1788, and began practice in Easton, Pa., in 1788; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1790; elected as a Federalist to the Fourth and Fifth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1795, until his resignation in 1798; one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1798 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against William Blount, a Senator from Tennessee; appointed United States commissioner to Great Britain under the Jay treaty, regarding British claims, August 11, 1798; Burgess of Easton 1804-1807; treasurer of Northampton County 1816-1819; resumed the practice of law; president of the Easton Bank 1815-1827; died in Easton, Northampton County, Pa., April 4, 1827; interment in the Easton Cemetery.

SKELTON, Charles, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Buckingham Township, Bucks County, Pa., April 10, 1806; moved to Trenton, N. J., about 1829; attended the country schools and the Trenton Academy; engaged in mercantile pursuits; moved to Philadelphia, Pa., in 1835; was graduated from the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia in 1838 and commenced the practice of his profession in that city; returned to Trenton, N. J., in 1841; superintendent of the public schools of Trenton in 1848; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-second and Thirty-third Congresses (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1855); member of the common council 1873-1875; died in Trenton, N. J., May 20, 1879; interment in the City Cemetery, Hamilton Square, Mercer County, N. J.

SKILES, William Woodburn, a Representative from Ohio; born in Stoughton, Cumberland County, Pa., December 11, 1849; moved with his parents to Richland County, Ohio, in 1854; attended the district schools; taught school for several years; was graduated from Baldwin University, Berea, Ohio, in 1876; studied law, was admitted to the bar July 24, 1878, and commenced the practice of his profession in Shelby, Ohio; interested as a stockholder and director in various manufacturing enterprises; president of the Citizens Bank from 1893 until his death; president and member of the city school board 1885-1904; member of the Republican State central committee 1900-1904; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-seventh and Fifty-eighth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1901, until his death in Shelby, Richland County, Ohio, January 9, 1904; interment in Oakland Cemetery.

SKINNER, Charles Rufus, a Representative from New York; born in Union Square, Oswego County, N. Y., August 4, 1844; attended the common schools and Clinton Liberal Institute; was graduated from the Mexico Academy, New York, in 1866; taught in the common schools and also in the two last-named institutions; editor of the Watertown Daily Times 1870-1874; member of the Board of Education of Watertown, N. Y., 1875-1884; member of the State assembly 1877-1881; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Warner Miller; reelected to the Forty-eighth Congress, and served from November 8, 1881, to March 3, 1885; was not a candidate for renomination in 1884; member of the Board of Visitors to the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1884; editor of the Watertown Daily Republican from July 1, 1885, to January 1, 1886; city editor of the Watertown Daily Times from January to July, 1886; deputy State superintendent of public instruction 1886-1892; supervisor of teachers' training classes and teachers' institutes in the State department of public instruction 1892-1895; State superintendent of public instruction 1895-1904, and while superintendent put into execution the State law requiring the United States flag to fly over every public school of the State when in session; elected president of the National Education Association in 1897; assistant appraiser of merchandise for the port of New York 1906-1911; librarian of the State assembly in 1913 and 1914 and served as legislative librarian 1915-1925 with residence in Albany, N. Y.; retired from public activities in 1926; died while on a visit to his son in Pelham Manor, N. Y., June 30, 1928; remains were cremated and the ashes interred in Brookside Cemetery, Watertown, N. Y.

SKINNER, Harry (brother of Thomas Gregory Skinner), a Representative from North Carolina; born near Hertford, Perquimans County, N. C., May 25, 1855; attended Hertford Academy and was graduated from the law department of the University of Kentucky at Lexington; was admitted to the bar in 1876 and commenced practice in Greenville, Pitt County, N. C.; member of the town council in 1878; chairman of the Democratic executive committee of the first congressional district 1880-1890; chairman of the Democratic executive committee of Pitt County 1880-1892; member of the State house of representatives in 1891 and 1892; chairman of the Populist executive committee of Pitt County 1892-1896; member of the State central committee 1892-1896; trustee of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill 1890-1896; elected as a Populist to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1899); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1898 to the Fifty-sixth Congress; United States district attorney for the eastern district of North Carolina 1902-1910; resumed the practice of his profession; president of the North Carolina Bar Association in 1915 and 1916; vice president and member of the general council of the American Bar Association; is a resident of Greenville, N. C.

SKINNER, Richard, a Representative from Vermont; born in Litchfield, Conn., May 30, 1778; completed preparatory studies and was graduated from the Litchfield Law School; was admitted to the bar in 1800 and commenced practice in Manchester, Vt.; State's attorney for Bennington County 1801-1813 and 1819; judge of probate for Manchester district 1806-1813; elected as a Democrat to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1815); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1814 to the Fourteenth Congress; resumed the practice of law; assistant judge of the State supreme court in 1815 and 1816; declined the office of chief justice in 1817; member of the State house of representatives in 1815 and 1818 and served as speaker in the latter year; Governor of Vermont 1820-1823; chief justice of the Supreme Court of Vermont 1823-1828; retired from public life; interested in public education and served as president of the northeastern branch of the American Educational Society; trustee of Middlebury College; died in Manchester, Bennington County, Vt., May 23, 1833; interment in Dellwood Cemetery.

SKINNER, Thomas Gregory (brother of Harry Skinner), a Representative from North Carolina; born near Hertford, Perquimans County, N. C., January 22, 1842; attended private schools, Friends Academy, Belvidere, N. C., Horners Military School, Oxford, N. C., and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; entered the Confederate Army in May, 1861, and served with the First Regiment North Carolina Volunteers until the close of the Civil War, attaining the rank of lieutenant; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1868, and commenced practice in Hertford, N. C.; delegate to several Democratic State conventions between 1870 and 1902; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress on November 20, 1883, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Walter F. Pool; reelected to the Forty-ninth Congress, and served from November 20, 1883, to March 3, 1887; again elected to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1891); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1890; resumed the practice of his profession in Hertford, N. C.; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1892 which nominated Cleveland and Stevenson and at St. Louis in 1904 which nominated Parker and Davis; member of the State senate in 1899 and 1900; died in Baltimore, Md., December 22, 1907; interment in Holy Trinity Churchyard, Hertford, N. C.

SKINNER, Thomson Joseph, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Colchester, Conn., May 24, 1762; completed preparatory studies; moved to Massachusetts; member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives in 1781, 1785, 1789, 1800, and 1801; served in the State senate 1789-1788, 1790-1797, 1802, and 1803; delegate to the State convention which ratified the Constitution of the United States February 6, 1788; judge of the court of common pleas 1788-1807; presidential elector in 1792 and voted for Washington and Adams; State treasurer in 1806 and 1807; elected as a Democrat to the Fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Theodore Sedgwick; reelected to the Fifth Congress, and served from January 27, 1797, to March 3, 1799; elected to the Eighth Congress, and served from March 4, 1803, to August 10, 1804, when he resigned; died in Boston, Mass., January 20, 1809.

SLADE, Charles, a Representative from Illinois; born in England; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Alexandria, Va.; attended the public schools; moved to Carlyle, St. Clair County, Ill.; engaged in mercantile pursuits; held several local offices; member of the State house of representatives in 1820 and 1826; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-third Congress, and served from March 4, 1833, until his death near Vincennes, Ind., July 26, 1834.

SLADE, William, a Representative from Vermont; born in Cornwall, Vt., May 9, 1786; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Middlebury (Vt.) College in 1807; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1810, and commenced practice in Middlebury; engaged in editorial work; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Madison and Gerry in 1812; established and was the editor of the Columbian Patriot 1814-1816; secretary of state of Vermont 1815-1822; judge of the Addison County court; clerk in the Department of State, Washington, D. C., 1823-1829; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-second Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rollin C. Mallary; reelected to the Twenty-third and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from November 1, 1831, to March 3, 1843; reporter of decisions of the State supreme court in 1843 and 1844; Governor of Vermont 1844-1846; corresponding secretary of the Board of National Popular Education 1846-1859; died in Middlebury, Addison County, Vt., on January 18, 1859; interment in West Cemetery.

SLATER, James Harvey, a Representative and a Senator from Oregon; born near Springfield, Sangamon County, Ill., December 28, 1826; attended the common schools; moved to California in 1849; settled in Corvallis, Oreg., in 1850; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1854; clerk of the district court of the Territory of Oregon for Benton County 1858-1859; member of the Territorial assembly in 1857 and 1858; member of the State house of representatives in 1859; published the Oregon Weekly Union at Corvallis 1859-1861; district attorney for the fifth judicial district of Oregon in 1868; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Seymour and Blair in 1868; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1873); elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1879, to March 3, 1885; resumed the practice of his profession in La Grande, Oreg.; member of the State railroad commission 1889-1891; died in La Grande, Union County, Oreg., January 28, 1899; interment in the Masonic Cemetery.

SLAYDEN, James Luther, a Representative from Texas; born in Mayfield, Graves County, Ky., June 1, 1853; upon the death of his father in 1869 moved with his mother to New Orleans, La.; attended the common schools and Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va.; moved to San Antonio, Tex., in 1876; became a cotton merchant and ranchman; member of the State house of representatives in 1892; declined to be a candidate for renomination; engaged in agricultural pursuits and mining; appointed one of the eight envoys to the centennial celebration of the Mexican Republic in September, 1910; appointed by Andrew Carnegie one of the original trustees of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace October, 1910; president of the American Peace Society for several years; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth and to the ten succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1910); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1918; engaged in directing an orchard in Virginia, a ranch in Texas, and mining in Mexico; died in San Antonio, Tex., February 24, 1924; interment in Mission Park Cemetery.

SLAYMAKER, Amos, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in London Lands, Lancaster County, Pa., March 11, 1755; received a limited schooling; engaged in agricultural pursuits; built and operated a hotel on the Lancaster and Philadelphia pike and was one of the promoters and proprietors of the stage line operated over that road; during the Revolutionary War served as an ensign in the company of Captain John Slaymaker; member of an association formed for the suppression of Tory activities in Lancaster County; justice of the peace of Sallsbury Township; county commissioner 1806-1810; served in the State senate 1810 and 1811; elected to the Thirteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James Whitehill, and served from October 11, 1814, to March 3, 1815; died in Sallsbury, Lancaster County, Pa., June 12, 1837.

SLEMONS, William Ferguson, a Representative from Arkansas; born near Dresden, Weakley County, Tenn., March 15, 1830; attended Bethel College; moved to Arkansas in 1852; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1855, and practiced in Monticello, Drew County; member of the Arkansas State convention in 1861; entered the Confederate Army in July, 1861, and served as colonel in Price's cavalry throughout the Civil War; resumed the practice of law; elected district attorney in 1866 and legislated out of office in 1868; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth, Forty-fifth, and Forty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1881); was not a candidate for renomination in 1880; resumed the practice of his profession in Monticello, Ark.; county and probate judge of Drew County 1903-1907; justice of the peace 1908-1918; died in Monticello, Ark., December 10, 1918; interment in Union Ridge Cemetery, near Monticello, Ark.

SLEMP, Campbell (father of Campbell Bascom Slempp), a Representative from Virginia; born near Turkey Cove, Lee County, Va., December 2, 1839; attended a private school and Emory and Henry College, Emory, Va.; interested in agricultural pursuits and also engaged in the real-estate business; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army as captain and lieutenant colonel of the Twenty-first Virginia Battalion and colonel of the Sixty-fourth Regiment, composed of Infantry and Cavalry; member of the house of delegates 1879-1882; unsuccessful Republican candidate for lieutenant governor in 1889; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Harrison and Morton in 1888 and of Harrison and Reid in 1892; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, and Sixtieth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1903, until his death in Big Stone Gap, Wise County, Va., October 13, 1907; interment in the family cemetery in Lee County, Va.

SLEMP, Campbell Bascom (son of Campbell Slempp), a Representative from Virginia; born at Turkey Cove, Lee County, Va., September 4, 1870; attended the public schools; served as a page in the House of Representatives of Virginia in 1881 and 1882; was graduated from the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va., in 1891; studied law in the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, was admitted to the bar in 1901, and commenced practice at Big Stone Gap, Wise County, Va.; commandant of cadets in the Marion Military Institute for one year; professor of mathematics in the Virginia Military Institute for several years, resigning in 1901 to enter professional and business life at Big Stone Gap, Va.; was chairman of the Republican State committee from 1905 to 1918, when he was elected a member of the Republican National Committee; was elected as a Republican to the Sixtieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father, Campbell Slempp; was reelected to the Sixty-first and to the six succeeding Congresses, and served from December 17, 1907, to March 3, 1923; declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1922; was appointed Secretary to the President (Calvin Coolidge) on September 4, 1923, and served until March 4, 1925, when he resigned; resumed the practice of his profession, and is residing in Washington, D. C.

SLIDELL, John, a Representative and a Senator from Louisiana; born in New York City in 1793; was graduated from Columbia College (now Columbia University), New York City, in 1810; studied law, was admitted to the bar in New York City, and practiced in New Orleans 1819-1835; member of the State house of representatives; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1828 to the Twenty-first Congress; United States district attorney 1829-1833; elected as a State Rights Democrat to the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1843, until his resignation November 30, 1845; appointed minister to Mexico in 1845, but that Government refused to accept him; offered the mission to Central America, but declined; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Pierre Soule; reelected, and served from December 5, 1853, to February 4, 1861, when he withdrew; while on a mission from the Confederate States to England and France was taken from the British mail steamer Trent, sailing from Habana to England, November 8, 1861, and confined in Fort Warren, Boston Harbor; released, and sailed for England January 1, 1862; died in Cowes, Isle of Wight, England, July 26, 1871.

SLINGERLAND, John L., a Representative from New York; born in Jerusalem, Albany County, N. Y., on March 1, 1804; attended the public schools; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State assembly in 1843 and 1844; elected as a Republican to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1849); was not a candidate for renomination in 1848; resumed agricultural pursuits; again a member of the State assembly in 1860 and 1861; died in Slingerland, N. Y., October 26, 1861; interment in the Slingerland family mausoleum.

SLOAN, Andrew, a Representative from Georgia; born in McDonough, Henry County, Ga., June 10, 1845; attended the common schools, Marshall College, Griffin, Ga., and Bethany College, West Virginia; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1866, and practiced; solicitor of Henry County in 1866; moved to Savannah, Ga.; deputy collector of customs in 1867; resigned and resumed the practice of law; assistant United States district attorney in 1869; later appointed district attorney and served until 1872, when he resigned, acting at the same time as local counsel for the United States in regard to the cotton claims and also under the mixed commission on British and American claims; successfully contested as a Republican the election of Morgan Rawls to the Forty-third Congress, and served from March 24, 1874, to March 3, 1875; moved to New Mexico in 1881 and settled in Silver City, where he died September 22, 1883; interment in the City Cemetery.

SLOAN, Andrew Scott (brother of Ithamar Conkey Sloan), a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Morrisville, Madison County, N. Y., June 12, 1820; attended the public schools and the Morrisville Academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1842, and commenced practice in Morrisville, N. Y.; clerk of Madison County court 1847-1849; moved to Wisconsin in 1854 and settled at Beaver Dam, Dodge County, where he continued the practice of law; member of the State assembly in 1857; mayor of Beaver Dam in 1857, 1858, and again in 1879; appointed judge of the circuit court for the third district in 1859; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); was not a candidate for renomination in 1862; resumed the practice of law; unsuccessful candidate of the Union Party for election in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth Congress; clerk of the United States District Court for Wisconsin 1864-1866; judge of Dodge County court 1868-1874; attorney general of Wisconsin 1874-1878; judge of the circuit court for the thirteenth judicial district from January, 1882, until his death; died at Beaver Dam, Wis., on April 8, 1895; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

SLOAN, Charles Henry, a Representative from Nebraska; born in Monticello, Jones County, Iowa, May 2, 1863; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the Iowa State Agricultural College at Ames in 1884; moved to Fairmont, Nebr., the same year; superintendent of the city schools 1884-1887; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1887, and commenced practice in Fairmont; moved to Geneva, Fillmore County, in 1891 and continued the practice of law; director of the Geneva State Bank; chairman of the Republican State convention in 1903; prosecuting attorney of Fillmore County 1890-1894; member of the State senate 1894-1896; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second, Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, and Sixty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1919); was not a candidate for renomination in 1918; resumed the practice of his profession and also engaged in banking and agricultural pursuits, and is a resident of Geneva, Nebr.

SLOAN, Ithamar Conkey (brother of Andrew Scott Sloan), a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Morrisville, Madison County, N. Y., May 9, 1822; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Oneida County, N. Y., in 1848, and commenced practice; moved to Janesville, Wis., in 1854 and resumed the practice of his profession; district attorney of Rock County, Wis., 1856-1862; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1867); moved to Madison, Wis., in 1875; dean of the law department of the University of Wisconsin; special counsel for the State of Wisconsin 1874-1879 in the Granger law cases; died in Janesville, Rock County, Wis., December 24, 1898; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

SLOAN, James, a Representative from New Jersey; born in that State; held several local offices; elected to the Eighth, Ninth, and Tenth Congresses (March 4, 1803-March 3, 1809); was not a candidate for renomination; died in Gloucester County, N. J., in November, 1811.

SLOANE, John, a Representative from Ohio; born in York, Pa., in 1779; moved to Ohio in early youth; completed preparatory studies; member of the State house of representatives 1808-1809 and in 1807; colonel of militia in the War of 1812; United States receiver of public moneys at Canton, Ohio, 1808-1816 and at Wooster 1816-1819; elected as a Whig to the Sixteenth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1819-March 3, 1829); appointed clerk of the court of common pleas of Wayne County in 1831 and served several years; secretary of state of Ohio 1841-1844; Treasurer of the United States from November 27, 1850, to April 6, 1853; retired from political life and active business pursuits; died in Wooster, Ohio, May 15, 1856; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

SLOANE, Jonathan, a Representative from Ohio; born in Pelham, Mass., in November, 1785; completed preparatory studies, and was graduated from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., in 1812; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1816, and commenced practice in Ravenna, Ohio; was also general agent of the Tappan family for the sale of lands; prosecuting attorney of Portage County in 1819; member of the State house of representatives 1820-1822; served in the State senate in 1826 and 1827; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1837); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1836; retired from business activities on account of ill health; died in Ravenna, Portage County, Ohio, April 25, 1854; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

SLOCUM, Henry Warner, a Representative from New York; born in Delphi, Onondaga County, N. Y., September 24, 1827; was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point and commissioned second lieutenant, First Artillery, July 1, 1852; served in the Seminole War and was promoted to first lieutenant March 3, 1855; resigned his commission October 31, 1856; settled in Syracuse, N. Y.; studied law while in the Army, was admitted to the bar in 1858, and practiced in Syracuse, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1859; during the Civil War entered the Union Army as colonel of the Twenty-eighth New York Volunteers in May, 1861; wounded at the first Battle of Bull Run; promoted to brigadier general of Volunteers August 9, 1861; major general of Volunteers July 4, 1862; resigned his commission September 28, 1865, and settled in Brooklyn, N. Y., where he continued the practice of law; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for secretary of state of New York; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Seymour and Blair in 1868; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-first and Forty-second Congresses (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1873); was not a candidate for renomination in 1872; resumed the practice of law; was appointed president of the department of city works in 1876; elected a Representative at large from New York to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1885); died in Brooklyn, N. Y., April 14, 1894; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

SLOCUMB, Jesse, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Spring Bank, Dobbs (now Wayne) County, N. C., in 1780; completed preparatory studies; engaged in agricultural pursuits; held several local offices; member of the court of pleas and quarter sessions of his county; register of deeds 1802-1808; elected as a Federalist to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1817, until his death in Washington, D. C., December 20, 1820; interment in the Congressional Cemetery.

SLOSS, Joseph Humphrey, a Representative from Alabama; born in Somerville, Ala., October 12, 1826; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in St. Louis, Mo.; moved to Edwardsville, Ill., in 1849; member of the Illinois State House of Representatives in 1858 and 1859; returned to Alabama; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army; mayor of Tusculumbia, Ala.; elected as a Conservative Democrat to the Forty-second and Forty-third Congresses (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; appointed United States marshal for the northern district of Alabama February 10, 1877, and served until September 6, 1882; clerk of the Federal court at Huntsville, Ala.; engaged in agricultural pursuits near Huntsville; moved to Memphis, Tenn., where he died January 27, 1911; interment in Maple Hill Cemetery, Huntsville, Ala.

SMALL, John Humphrey, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Washington, Beaufort County, N. C., August 29, 1858; attended private schools and Trinity College (now Duke University), Durham, N. C.; taught school 1876-1880; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1881, and commenced practice in Washington, N. C.; elected reading clerk of the State senate in 1881; superintendent of public instruction of Beaufort County, N. C., in 1881; solicitor of the inferior court of Beaufort County 1882-1885; editor of the Washington Gazette 1888-1890; attorney of the Board of Commissioners of Beaufort County 1888-1896; member of the city council 1887-1890; mayor of Washington, N. C., in 1889 and 1890; delegate to all Democratic State conventions from 1889 to 1920; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Bryan and Sewall in 1896; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth and to the ten succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1921); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1920; retired from public life and resumed the practice of his profession; is a resident of Washington, D. C.

SMALL, William Bradbury, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Limington, Me., May 17, 1817; moved with his parents to Ossipee, N. H.; attended the public schools and Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1846, and commenced practice in Newmarket, N. H.; solicitor of Rockingham County, N. H.; member of the State house of representatives in 1865; served in the State senate in 1870; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed the practice of law and also engaged in banking; died in Newmarket, N. H., April 7, 1878; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

SMALLS, Robert, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Beaufort, S. C., April 5, 1839; was of the Negro race; moved to Charleston, S. C., in 1851; appointed pilot in the United States Navy and served in that capacity on the monitor Keokuk in the attack on Fort Sumter; also served as pilot in the quartermaster's department; promoted to the rank of captain for gallant and meritorious conduct December 1, 1863; placed in command of the Planter and served until that vessel was placed out of commission in 1866; member of the State constitutional convention in 1868; served in the State house of representatives in 1868; member of the State senate 1870-1872; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1872 and at Cincinnati in 1876; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1878 to the Forty-sixth Congress; successfully contested the election of George D. Tillman to the Forty-seventh Congress, and served from July 19, 1882, to March 3, 1883; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1882 to the Forty-seventh Congress; elected to the Forty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Edmund W. M. Mackey; reelected to the Forty-ninth Congress, and served from March 18, 1884, to March 3, 1887; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1886 to the Fiftieth Congress; collector of the port of Beaufort, S. C., 1897-1913; died in Beaufort, S. C., February 22, 1915; interment in the Tabernacle Baptist Church Cemetery.

SMART, Ephraim Knight, a Representative from Maine; born in Prospect (now Searsport), Me., September 3, 1813; attended the common schools; completed preparatory studies under private tutors and attended Maine Wesleyan Seminary at Readfield; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1838, and commenced practice in Camden, Knox County, Me.; appointed postmaster of Camden in 1838; member of the State senate in 1841 and 1842; appointed aide-de-camp with the rank of Lieutenant colonel on the staff of Governor Fairfield in 1842; moved to Missouri in 1843 and continued the practice of his profession; returned to Camden, Me., the following year and resumed the practice of law; again appointed postmaster of Camden in 1845; elected as a Democrat to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1849); elected to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); collector of customs at Belfast 1853-1858; established the Maine Free Press in 1854, and served as editor for three years; member of the State house of representatives in 1858; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Maine in 1860; again served in the State senate in 1862; moved to Biddeford, York County, Me., in 1869 and established the Maine Democrat; died in Camden, Me., September 29, 1872; interment in the Mountain Street Cemetery.

SMART, James Stevenson, a Representative from New York; born in Baltimore, Md., June 14, 1842; moved with his parents to Coila, Washington County, N. Y., in 1849; attended Cambridge (N. Y.) Academy and Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., and was graduated from Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa., in 1863; during the Civil War entered the Union Army in January, 1864, as first lieutenant in Sixteenth Regiment New York Heavy Artillery; served in the Army of the James until the second expedition to Fort Fisher; promoted to a captaincy, and was honorably discharged in August, 1865; engaged in newspaper work at Cambridge, N. Y., in 1865 and published the Washington County Post; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; appointed collector of internal revenue for the northern district of New York and served from March 31, 1883, until November 9, 1885; member of the Republican State central committee for many years; died in Cambridge, Washington County, N. Y., September 17, 1903; interment in Woodland Cemetery.

SMELT, Dennis, a Representative from Georgia; born near Savannah, Ga., about 1750; received a limited schooling; participated in the Revolutionary War; elected to the Ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joseph Bryan; reelected to the Tenth and Eleventh Congresses, and served from September 1, 1806, to March 3, 1811; was not a candidate for reelection to the Twelfth Congress.

SMILIE, John, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Ireland in 1741; emigrated to the United States and settled in Pennsylvania in 1760; attended the common schools; served in the Revolutionary War; moved to Fayette, Pa., in 1780; was a member of the State house of representatives 1784-1786; member of the State constitutional convention in 1790; served in the State senate from 1790 to 1793, when he resigned; elected as a Democrat to the Third Congress (March 4, 1793-March 3, 1795); Democratic presidential elector in 1796; elected to the Sixth and to the six succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1799, until his death; had been reelected to the Thirteenth Congress, but died in Washington, D. C., December 30, 1812, before the close of the Twelfth Congress; interment in the Congressional Cemetery.

SMITH, Abraham Herr, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Millersville, Manor Township, in Lancaster County, Pa., March 7, 1815; attended Professor Beck's Academy at Lititz, Lancaster County, Pa.; was graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., in 1840; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1842, and commenced practice in Lancaster, Lancaster County, Pa.; member of the State house of representatives in 1843 and 1844; served in the State senate in 1845; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1884; resumed the practice of law; died in Lancaster, Pa., February 16, 1894; interment in Woodward Hill Cemetery.

SMITH, Addison Taylor, a Representative from Idaho; born near Cambridge, Guernsey County, Ohio, September 5, 1862; attended the public schools of Cambridge, Ohio; was graduated from the Cambridge High School in 1882, from the Iron City Commercial College, Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1883, from the law department of George Washington University, Washington, D. C., in 1895, and from the National Law School, Washington, D. C., in 1896; was admitted to the District of Columbia bar in 1899 and to the Idaho bar in 1905; was secretary to Senator George Laird Shoup 1891-1901 and to Senator Weldon B. Heyburn 1903-1912; was secretary of the Republican State central committee 1904-1911; was register of the United States land office at Boise, Idaho, in 1907 and 1908; member of the Republican National Congressional Committee 1917-1927; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-third and to the six succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1927.) Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SMITH, Albert, a Representative from Maine; born in Hanover, Mass., January 3, 1793; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1813; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Portland, Me., in 1817; member of the State house of representatives in 1820; was United States marshal for the district of Maine 1830-1838; was elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1841); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1840 to the Twenty-seventh Congress; retired from public life; died in Boston, Mass., on May 29, 1867; interment in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Middlesex County, Mass.

SMITH, Albert, a Representative from New York; born in Cooperstown, Otsego County, N. Y., June 22, 1805; completed preparatory studies; moved to Batavia, Genesee County, N. Y.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; held several local offices; member of the State assembly in 1840; elected as a Republican to the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1847); moved to Milwaukee, Wis., in 1849 and resumed the practice of law; justice of the peace 1851-1859; judge of the Milwaukee County court 1859-1870; died in Milwaukee, Wis., August 27, 1870; interment in Forest Home Cemetery.

SMITH, Arthur, a Representative from Virginia; born at "Windsor Castle," near Smithfield, Isle of Wight County, Va., November 15, 1785; attended an academy at Smithfield, Va., and was graduated from William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1808, and commenced practice in Smithfield, Va.; also engaged in agricultural pursuits; served as colonel in the War of 1812; member of the State house of delegates 1818-1820; elected to the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Congresses (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1825); was not a candidate for renomination in 1824; resumed the practice of law and agricultural pursuits; again a member of the house of delegates 1836-1841; died in Smithfield, Va., March 30, 1853; interment in the family burying ground on Windsor Castle estate, near Smithfield, Va.

SMITH, Ballard, a Representative from Virginia; born in that State; served as lieutenant in the Army during the Revolutionary War; member of the State house of delegates 1810-1813; elected to the Fourteenth, Fifteenth, and Sixteenth Congresses (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1821); again a member of the State house of delegates 1824-1828, 1836, and 1837.

SMITH, Bernard, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Morristown, N. J., on July 5, 1770; completed preparatory studies; collector of customs in 1809 and 1810; postmaster of New Brunswick 1810-1819; elected to the Sixteenth Congress (March 4, 1819-March 3, 1821); was not a candidate for renomination in 1820; appointed register of the land office at Little Rock, Ark., in 1821, and settled in that State; secretary to the Governor of Arkansas 1825-1828; appointed by Governor Izard as subagent of the Quapaw Indians in 1825, and served until his death in Little Rock, Ark., July 16, 1835; interment in Mount Holly Cemetery.

SMITH, Caleb Blood, a Representative from Indiana; born in Boston, Mass., April 16, 1808; moved with his parents to Ohio in 1814; attended Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, 1825-26; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1828, and commenced practice in Connersville, Fayette County, Ind.; founded and edited the Indiana Sentinel in 1832; member of the State house of representatives 1833-1837, 1840, and 1841, and served as speaker in 1836; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Harrison and Tyler in 1840; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, and Thirtieth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1849); appointed by President Zachary Taylor at the close of his term a member of the board to investigate claims of American citizens against Mexico; moved to Cincinnati, Ohio, and practiced his profession; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Frémont and Dayton in 1856; member of the peace convention of 1861 held in Washington, D. C., in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; appointed Secretary of the Interior in the Cabinet of President Lincoln and served from March 5, 1861, to January 1, 1863, when he resigned to become judge of the United States District Court for the District of Indiana, in which capacity he was serving at the time of his death; died in Indianapolis, Marion County, Ind., January 7, 1864; interment in the City Cemetery, Connersville, Ind.

SMITH, Charles Bennett, a Representative from New York; born in Sardinia, Erie County, N. Y., September 14, 1870; attended the district schools, and was graduated from Arcade Academy in 1886; engaged in agricultural pursuits, subsequently became a railroad telegraph operator, and later pursued newspaper work in Buffalo; reporter on the Buffalo Courier 1890-1898; became managing editor of the Buffalo Times in 1894, which position he resigned to take editorial charge of the Buffalo Evening Enquirer and the Buffalo Morning Courier; subsequently relinquished the editorship of the Enquirer, but continued as chief editor of the Courier from 1897 to 1910; in the meantime was appointed a member of the Buffalo Board of School Examiners and served two years as its chairman; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second, Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, and Sixty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1919); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1918 to the Sixty-sixth Congress; engaged in commercial and industrial pursuits, and is a resident of Buffalo, N. Y.

SMITH, Charles Brooks, a Representative from West Virginia; born in Elizabeth, Va. (now West Virginia), February 24, 1844; attended a private school at Parkersburg; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army, served as captain of the First West Virginia Cavalry, and was mustered out in 1865; recorder of Wood County in 1875; councilman of Parkersburg, W. Va., in 1876; mayor of Parkersburg 1878-1880; sheriff and treasurer of Wood County 1880-1884; delegate at large to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1888 which nominated Harrison and Morton; successfully contested as a Republican the election of James Monroe Jackson to the Fifty-first Congress, and served from February 3, 1890, to March 3, 1891; died in Parkersburg, Wood County, W. Va., December 7, 1899; interment in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

SMITH, Daniel, a Senator from Tennessee; born in Stafford County, Va., October 28, 1748; attended William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va.; became a surveyor; moved to Augusta County, Va.; deputy surveyor of Augusta County in 1773; justice of the peace in 1776; major of the Washington Militia; high sheriff of Augusta County in 1780; commissioned colonel in the Second Battalion and fought in several battles of the Revolution; moved to Sumner County, Tenn., at the close of the war; appointed by President Washington secretary of the Territory South of the River Ohio January 7, 1790; member of the State constitutional convention of 1796; made the first map of Tennessee; general of State militia; appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Andrew Jackson, and served from October 6, 1798, to March 3, 1799; Democratic presidential elector in 1800, and voted for Jefferson and Burr; elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1805, to March 31, 1809, when he resigned; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died at his home, "Rock Castle," near Hendersonville, Sumner County, Tenn., June 8, 1818; interment in the family burial ground near his home.

SMITH, David Highbaugh, a Representative from Kentucky; born near Hammonville, Hart County, Ky., December 19, 1854; attended the public schools and the colleges at Horse Cave, Leitchfield, and Hartford, Ky.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1876, and commenced practice in Hodgenville, Larue County, Ky.; superintendent of common schools for Larue County in 1878; county attorney for Larue County 1878-1881; member of the State house of representatives 1881-1883; served in the State senate 1886-1893, and as president pro tempore 1891-1893; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1907); was not a candidate for renomination in 1906; one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1905 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against Charles Swayne, judge of the United States District Court for the Northern District of Florida; resumed the practice of law; president of the Farmers' National Bank of Hodgenville, Ky.; died in Hodgenville, Ky., December 17, 1928; interment in Red Hill Cemetery.

SMITH, Delazon, a Senator from Oregon; born in New Berlin, Chenango County, N. Y., October 5, 1816; was graduated from Oberlin College, Ohio, in 1837; studied law and was admitted to the bar; in 1838 established the New York Watchman in Rochester, N. Y., of which he was editor for two years; published and edited the True Jeffersonian and the Western Herald in Rochester in 1840, and in 1841 founded the Western Empire in Dayton, Ohio; special United States commissioner to Quito, Ecuador, 1842-1845; moved to the Territory of Iowa in 1848 and entered the ministry; moved to the Territory of Oregon in 1852; edited the Oregon Democrat; member of the Territorial house of representatives 1854-1856; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1857; upon the admission of Oregon as a State into the Union was elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from February 14 to March 3, 1859; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; unsuccessful candidate for Democratic presidential election in 1890; died in Portland, Ore., November 19, 1900; interment in the City Cemetery, Albany, Linn County, Ore.

SMITH, Dietrich Conrad, a Representative from Illinois; born in Ost Friesland, Hanover, Germany, April 4, 1840; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Pekin, Tazewell County, Ill., after 1849; attended the public schools of Pekin, Ill., and Quincy College, Quincy, Ill.; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as lieutenant in Company I, Eighth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry; left the service as captain of Company C, One hundred and thirty-ninth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry; lay delegate to the Methodist General Conference in 1872; organizer of the German College at Mount Pleasant in 1874; member of board of trustees of that institution for many years; member of the State house of representatives 1876-1878; engaged in banking and manufacturing and also in the construction and management of railroads in Illinois; sent as a delegate to the Ecumenical Conference of the Methodist Church held in London, England about 1880; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1888); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1882 to the Forty-eighth Congress; again engaged in banking; retired from public life; died in Pekin, Ill., April 18, 1914; interment in Lakeside Cemetery.

SMITH, Edward Henry, a Representative from New York; born in Smithtown, Long Island, Suffolk County, N. Y., May 5, 1809; attended private schools; engaged in agricultural pursuits; served as assessor of the peace in the township of Smithtown 1833-1843, assessor 1840-1843, and supervisor 1856-1860; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); was not a candidate for renomination in 1862; resumed farming in Suffolk County, N. Y.; died in Smithtown, N. Y., August 7, 1885; interment in St. James's Protestant Episcopal Cemetery, St. James, Long Island, N. Y.

SMITH, Ellison DuRant, a Senator from South Carolina; born in Lynchburg, Sumter (now Lee) County, S. C., August 1, 1866; attended the private and public schools of Lynchburg, Stewart's School, Charleston, S. C., and the University of South Carolina at Columbia; was graduated from Wofford College, Spartanburg, S. C., in 1889; member of the State house of representatives 1896-1900; engaged in mercantile and agricultural pursuits; one of the principal figures in the organization of the Southern Cotton Association at New Orleans in January, 1905; field agent and general organizer in the cotton protective movement 1905-1908, his territory covering the entire South; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1908 for the term commencing March 4, 1909; reelected in 1914, and again in 1920 for the term ending March 3, 1927. Reelected in 1926 for the term ending March 3, 1933.

SMITH, Francis Ormand Jonathan, a Representative from Maine; born in Brentwood, N. H., November 23, 1806; attended Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Portland, Me., in 1828; division advocate of the fifth division of the circuit court-martial in Maine 1829-1834; served in the State house of representatives in 1831; member of the State senate in 1833 and served as its president; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, and Twenty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1839); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1838 to the Twenty-sixth Congress; assisted Professor Morse in perfecting and introducing the electric telegraph; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1863 and 1864; died in Deering (now Woolford), Me., October 14, 1876; interment on his estate, "Forest Home"; reinterment in Evergreen Cemetery, Portland, Me.

SMITH, Frank Leslie, a Representative and a Senator from Illinois; born in Dwight, Livingston County, Ill., November 24, 1867; attended the public schools of his native city; taught school; engaged in banking and agricultural pursuits; member of the Republican State central committee 1902-1923, and served as chairman in 1918, 1920, and 1924; internal-revenue collector 1905-1909; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1904, 1908, and 1920 and that at Cleveland in 1924; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1919); was not a candidate for renomination in 1920; engaged in agricultural pursuits, the insurance business, and banking; chairman of the State public utilities commission in 1921; appointed chairman of the State commerce commission in 1921, and reappointed in 1925; presented credentials as a Senator designate to the United States Senate under appointment of December 16, 1926, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William B. McKinley in the term ending March 3, 1927, but was not permitted to qualify. Elected to the United States Senate in 1926 for the term beginning March 4, 1927.

SMITH, Frank Owens, a Representative from Maryland; born in Smithville, Calvert County, Md., on August 27, 1859; attended the private and public schools of the county, North Mount Institute, West Virginia, and Bethel Military Academy, Virginia; served in the United States Revenue Service at Baltimore, Md., during the first Cleveland administration; resigned in 1889; organized the Calumet Canning Co. in 1889 and engaged in a general merchandise business in 1890; engaged in manufacturing flour, feed, etc., 1898-1910; appointed State tobacco inspector by Governor Warfield in 1904; reappointed in 1906; unsuccessful candidate for election to the State senate in 1911; chief engrossing clerk of the State senate in 1911; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1914; retired from all former enterprises and engaged in fruit growing in Dunkirk, Calvert County, Md., until his death on January 29, 1924; interment in Mount Zion Cemetery, Lothian, Anne Arundel County, Md.

SMITH, George, a Representative from Pennsylvania; was elected to the Eleventh and Twelfth Congresses (March 4, 1809–March 3, 1818).

SMITH, George Joseph, a Representative from New York; born in Kingston, Ulster County, N. Y., November 7, 1809; attended the public schools; engaged in banking and the manufacturing business in New York City and Kingston; chairman of the Republican county committee in 1898; treasurer of the Republican State committee in 1899; delegate to numerous Republican State conventions and to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1909; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1903–March 3, 1905); declined to be a candidate for reelection; engaged in the real-estate and wholesale grocery business in New York City; died in Atlantic City, N. J., December 24, 1913; interment in Wiltwyck Cemetery, Kingston, N. Y.

SMITH, George Luke, a Representative from Louisiana; born in Hillsborough County, N. H., December 11, 1840; completed preparatory studies and later attended college; during the Civil War served in the Union Army; moved to Louisiana and engaged in mercantile pursuits in Shreveport; held several local offices; member of the State house of representatives 1870–1872; proprietor of the Shreveport Southwestern Telegram; president of the Shreveport Savings Bank & Trust Co.; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Samuel Peters, and served from November 24, 1873, to March 3, 1875; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; appointed collector of the port of New Orleans by President Hayes, and served from May 4, 1878, to February 20, 1879; died in New Orleans July 9, 1884.

SMITH, George Ross, a Representative from Minnesota; born in St. Cloud, Stearns County, Minn., on May 28, 1864; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis in 1893; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1893, and commenced practice in Minneapolis; member of the State house of representatives in 1903; judge of the probate court of Hennepin County, Minn., 1907–1913; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1913–March 3, 1917); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1916 to the Sixty-fifth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession, and is a resident of Minneapolis, Hennepin County, Minn.

SMITH, George Washington, a Representative from Illinois; born in Putnam County, Ohio, August 18, 1846; moved with his father to Wayne County, Ill., in 1850; learned the blacksmith trade; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the literary department of McKendree College, Lebanon, Ill., in 1868; studied law in Fairfield, Ill.; was graduated from the law department of the Indiana University at Bloomington in 1870; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Murphysboro, Jackson County, Ill.; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Garfield and Arthur in 1880; master in chancery 1880–1888; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first and to the nine succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1889, until his death in Murphysboro, Ill., November 30, 1907, before the convening of the Sixtieth Congress; interment in the City Cemetery.

SMITH, Gerrit, a Representative from New York; born in Utica, N. Y., on March 6, 1797; moved to Peterboro in 1806; attended academy in Clinton, N. Y.; was graduated from Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., in 1818; studied law; engaged in the management of a large estate which he inherited; delegate to the State conventions in 1824 and 1828; was admitted to the bar in 1838 and commenced practice in Peterboro, N. Y.; elected as an Ultra-Abolitionist to the Thirty-third Congress, and served from March 4, 1853, until August 7, 1854, when he resigned; resumed the practice of his profession, and was a publicist and philanthropist; he revived the Anti-Dramshop Party, but was a delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1872 and supported Grant; died in New York City December 28, 1874; interment in Peterboro Cemetery, Peterboro, Madison County, N. Y.

SMITH, Green Clay (son of John Speed Smith), a Representative from Kentucky; born in Richmond, Madison County, Ky., on July 4, 1826; pursued academic studies; served in the Mexican War; commissioned second lieutenant in the First Regiment Kentucky Volunteer Infantry June 9, 1846; honorably mustered out June 8, 1847; was graduated from Transylvania University, Lexington, Ky., in 1849; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1852, and commenced practice in Covington, Ky.; was school commissioner 1853–1857; member of the State house of representatives 1861–1863; during the Civil War was commissioned colonel of the Fourth Regiment Kentucky Volunteer Cavalry April 4, 1862; brigadier general of Volunteers July 2, 1862; resigned December 1, 1863; brevetted major general of Volunteers March 13, 1865, "for meritorious services during the Civil War"; elected as a Union candidate to the Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1863, until his resignation in 1868, having been appointed Governor of Montana Territory; appointed by President Johnson Governor of Montana Territory, and served from July 13, 1866, until April 9, 1869, when he resigned; moved to Washington, D. C., where he was ordained to the Baptist ministry; became an evangelist; was the candidate of the National Prohibition Party in 1876 for President of the United States; pastor of the Metropolitan Baptist Church in Washington, D. C., from 1890 until his death, June 29, 1895; interment in Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va.

SMITH, Henry, a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Baltimore, Md., July 22, 1838; moved with his parents to Massillon, Stark County, Ohio, and later, in 1844, to Milwaukee, Wis.; attended the public schools; became a millwright; member of the Common Council of Milwaukee 1868–1872; served in the State assembly in 1878; again a member of the common council 1880–1882 and 1884–1887; city comptroller 1882–1884; elected as the People's Party candidate to the Fiftieth Congress (March 4, 1887–March 3, 1889); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1888 to the Fifty-first Congress; elected member of the Board of Aldermen of Milwaukee, Wis., in 1898, and served until his death; was an architect and builder; died in Milwaukee, Wis., September 10, 1916; remains were cremated and the ashes interred in Union Cemetery.

SMITH, Henry Cassote, a Representative from Michigan; born in Canandaigua, Ontario County, N. Y., on June 2, 1856; moved with his father to a farm near Palmyra, Lenawee County, Mich., in 1857; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Adrian College, Michigan, in 1878; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar September 25, 1880, and commenced practice in Adrian, Lenawee County, Mich.; city attorney of Adrian; delegate to the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in 1896; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1899–March 3, 1903); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1902; resumed the practice of law in Adrian, Mich., and died there December 7, 1911; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

SMITH, Heseekiah Bradley, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Bridgewater, Windsor County, Vt., July 24, 1816; attended the common schools; learned the trade of cabinetmaker; settled in Lowell, Mass., about 1840 and engaged in the manufacture of wood-working machinery; invented a machine for which he was awarded a gold medal by the Massachusetts Mechanical Association; subsequently took out more than forty patents for original inventions; moved to Smithville, Burlington County, N. J., in 1865 and continued the manufacture of wood-working machinery; also manufactured the Star bicycle; made the first steam-driven vehicle operated in New Jersey; elected as a Democrat and Greenbacker to the Forty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1881); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1880 to the Forty-seventh Congress; resumed his former business activities; member of the State senate 1883-1885; died in Smithville, N. J., November 3, 1887; interment in the Pine Street Cemetery, Mount Holly, Burlington County, N. J.

SMITH, Hiram Ypsilanti, a Representative from Iowa; born in Piqua, Miami County, Ohio, March 22, 1843; moved with his parents to Rock Island, Ill., in 1850, and to Des Moines, Iowa, in 1854; attended the public schools; in 1861 enlisted in the State militia for service against the Indians; appointed a clerk in the Post Office Department, Washington, D. C., and served from January, 1862, to February, 1864; transferred to Treasury Department, from which he resigned in August, 1865; was graduated from the Albany (N. Y.) Law School in 1866; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Des Moines, Iowa; district attorney of the fifth judicial district of Iowa 1875-1879; member of the State senate 1882-1884; elected as a Republican to the Forty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John A. Kasson, and served from December 2, 1884, to March 3, 1885; was not a candidate for the Forty-ninth Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in Des Moines, Iowa, November 4, 1894; interment in Woodland Cemetery.

SMITH, Hoke, a Senator from Georgia; born in Newton, Catawba County, N. C., September 2, 1855; educated principally by his father, Dr. H. H. Smith, who was a professor in the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1873, and commenced practice in Atlanta, Ga.; appointed Secretary of the Interior in the Cabinet of President Cleveland and served from March 4, 1893, to September 1, 1896; resumed the practice of law in Atlanta, Ga.; Governor of Georgia from July, 1907, to July, 1909, and again from July 1, 1911, until his resignation on November 15, 1911, having previously been elected Senator; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate on July 12, 1911, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Alexander S. Clay, but did not assume these duties until later, preferring to continue as governor; reelected to the Senate in 1914, and served from November 16, 1911, to March 3, 1921; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1920; resumed the practice of his profession in Washington, D. C., and Atlanta, Ga.

SMITH, Horace Boardman, a Representative from New York; born in Whittingham, Windham County, Vt., August 18, 1826; pursued classical studies, and was graduated from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., in 1847; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1850, and began practice in Elmira, N. Y.; held several local offices; judge of Chemung County in 1859 and 1860; elected as a Republican to the Forty-second and Forty-third Congresses (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed the practice of law in Elmira, Chemung County, N. Y., until 1883; justice of the Supreme Court of New York State 1883-1888; retired to his home at Elmira, where he died on December 26, 1888; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

SMITH, Isaac, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Trenton, N. J., in 1740; was graduated from Princeton College in 1755; teacher in that institution 1755-1759; studied medicine and commenced practice in Trenton, N. J.; colonel in the Hunterdon County Militia in 1776 and 1777; elected as a Federalist to the Fourth Congress (March 4, 1795-March 3, 1797); appointed by President Washington a commissioner to treat with the Seneca Indians in 1797; associate justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey 1777-1804; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Jefferson and Burr in 1800; first president of the Trenton Banking Co. 1805-1807; died in Trenton, Mercer County, N. J., August 29, 1807; interment in the First Presbyterian Churchyard.

SMITH, Isaac, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Chester County, Pa., January 4, 1761; attended the common schools; engaged in agricultural pursuits near Level Corners, Lycoming County, Pa.; member of the State house of representatives 1806-1808; elected as a Democrat to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1815); resumed agricultural pursuits and also engaged in the occupation of millwright; died on his farm at Level Corners, near Jersey Shore, Lycoming County, Pa., April 4, 1834; interment in the Pine Creek Presbyterian Churchyard; reinterment in Jersey Shore Cemetery, Jersey Shore, Lycoming County, Pa.

SMITH, Israel, a Representative and a Senator from Vermont; born in Suffield, Conn., April 4, 1759; was graduated from Yale College in 1781; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Rupert, Vt.; member of the State house of representatives from Rupert 1785 and 1789-1791; moved to Rutland, Vt.; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1791; upon the admission of Vermont as a State into the Union was elected as a Democrat to the Second Congress; reelected to the Third and Fourth Congresses, and served from October 17, 1791, to March 3, 1797; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; member of the State house of representatives in 1797; appointed chief justice of the State supreme court in 1797; elected to the Seventh Congress (March 4, 1801-March 3, 1803); did not seek renomination, having become a candidate for Senator; elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1803, until his resignation on October 1, 1807; Governor of Vermont in 1807 and 1808; Democratic presidential elector in 1808; died in Rutland, Vt., December 2, 1810; interment in the West Street Cemetery.

SMITH, James, a Delegate from Pennsylvania; born in Ireland in 1713; emigrated to the United States with his father in 1727 and settled in Pennsylvania; pursued classical studies; attended the Philadelphia Academy (now the University of Pennsylvania); worked as a surveyor in Cumberland County; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1745, and began practice in Shippensburg, Pa.; moved to York, Pa., and engaged in the manufacture of iron; delegate to the provisional conference in Philadelphia; delegate to the State convention in January, 1775; organized the Pennsylvania Militia and the two regiments of the Flying Camp in Perth Amboy, N. J., in 1776; Member of the Continental Congress 1776-1778; a signer of the Declaration of Independence; member of the State house of representatives in 1780; brigadier general of State militia; State councillor; resumed the practice of his profession in York, York County, Pa., and died there on July 11, 1806; interment in the First Presbyterian Churchyard.

SMITH, James, jr., a Senator from New Jersey; born in Newark, N. J., June 12, 1851; attended private schools and St. Mary's College, Wilmington, Del.; engaged in the dry-goods and importing business, later becoming a manufacturer of leather in Newark, N. J.; member of the Board of Aldermen of Newark 1883-1887; declined the nomination for mayor of Newark in 1884; president of the first board of works of Newark; chairman of the New Jersey delegations to the Democratic National Conventions at Chicago in 1884, 1892, and 1896; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1893, to March 3, 1899; resumed the manufacture of leather, and engaged in banking and newspaper publishing; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1911; died in Newark, N. J., April 1, 1927; interment in Holy Sepulcher Cemetery.

SMITH, James Strudwick, a Representative from North Carolina; born near Hillsboro, Orange County, N. C., October 15, 1790; attended a private school near Hillsboro and Hillsboro Academy; was graduated from Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, Pa., in 1818, and practiced medicine near Hillsboro and later near Chapel Hill, Orange County; elected as a Democrat to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1821); unsuccessful candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of medicine; member of the State house of commons in 1821 and 1822; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1835; died near Chapel Hill, N. C., in August, 1859; interment in a private cemetery on his farm.

SMITH, Jedediah Kilburn, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Amherst, N. H., November 7, 1770; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice at Amherst in 1800; member of the State house of representatives in 1803; member of the State senate 1804-1806 and 1809; elected to the Tenth Congress (March 4, 1807-March 3, 1809); unsuccessful candidate for the United States Senate in 1810; counselor 1810-1815; postmaster at Amherst from May 19, 1819, until his successor was appointed on March 15, 1826; associate justice of the court of common pleas 1816-1821, and of the court of sessions 1821-1823; chief justice of the court of sessions 1823-1825; died in Amherst, Hillsborough County, N. H., December 17, 1828.

SMITH, Jeremiah (brother of Samuel Smith, of New Hampshire), a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Peterboro, N. H., November 29, 1759; received instruction from a private tutor; attended Harvard College in 1777; during the Revolutionary War served under General Stark in the Battle of Bennington; returned to Harvard College and completed the sophomore year; entered Queen's (now Rutgers) College, New Jersey, from which he was graduated in 1780; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1786, and commenced practice in Peterboro, N. H.; member of the State house of representatives 1788-1791; member of the constitutional convention in 1791 and 1792; elected as a Federalist to the Second and to the three succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1791, until his resignation July 26, 1797; moved to Exeter, N. H.; United States district attorney for New Hampshire from 1797 to 1800; judge of probate of Rockingham County 1800-1802; appointed under authority of the act of February 13, 1801, by President Adams judge of the United States circuit court February 20, 1801, and served until March 8, 1802, when the court was abolished by the act of that date; chief justice of the Superior Court of Judicature of New Hampshire 1802-1809; presidential elector on the Federalist ticket of Pinckney and King in 1808; Governor of New Hampshire 1809 and 1810; chief justice of the Supreme Judicial Court of New Hampshire 1813-1816; resumed the practice of law, from which he retired in 1820; pursued literary studies; president of the bank and treasurer of Phillips Exeter Academy; moved to Dover, and died there September 21, 1842; interment in Pine Hill Cemetery.

SMITH, John, a Senator from Ohio; born in Hamilton County, Ohio, in 1735; prepared for the ministry, and was pastor of the First Baptist Church in Columbia, Lorain County, Ohio, in 1790; member of the Territorial legislature 1790-1803; upon the admission of Ohio as a State into the Union was elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from April 1, 1803, to April 25, 1808, when he resigned at the request of the Ohio Legislature on account of charges, which resulted in the attempt to expel him from the Senate, of having been connected with the conspiracy of Burr and Blennerhassett, when sent by President Jefferson on a special mission to Louisiana and Florida in 1804 to judge the attitude of Spanish officers there toward the United States; the motion to expel him from the Senate failed by one vote; died in Cincinnati, Hamilton County, Ohio, June 10, 1816.

SMITH, John, a Representative from Virginia; born in Westmoreland County, Va.; moved to Frederick County; member of the State house of delegates 1777-1779 and 1786 and 1787; served in the State senate 1791-1794; elected to the Seventh and to the six succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1801-March 3, 1815); died in Rockville, Md., in March, 1838.

SMITH, John, a Representative and a Senator from New York; born in Mastic, Long Island, N. Y., February 12, 1752; completed preparatory studies; member of the State assembly 1784-1790; delegate to the convention which adopted the Federal Constitution in 1788; elected as a Democrat to the Sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Jonathan N. Havens; reelected to the Seventh and Eighth Congresses, and served from February 6, 1800, until his resignation, effective February 23, 1804; elected on February 4, 1804, to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of De Witt Clinton; reelected, and served from February 23, 1804, to March 3, 1818; United States marshal for the district of New York from July 29, 1813, to June 19, 1815; major general of the New York Militia at the time of his death in Mastic, Long Island, N. Y., August 12, 1816; interment in the family cemetery on Smiths Point, N. Y.

SMITH, John (father of Worthington Curtis Smith), a Representative from Vermont; born in Barre, Mass., August 12, 1789; attended the common schools; moved to St. Albans, Vt.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1810, and commenced practice in St. Albans, Vt.; State's attorney for Franklin County 1820-1832; member of the State house of representatives 1827-1837, and served as speaker from 1831 to 1833; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1841); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1840 to the Twenty-seventh Congress; engaged in the construction of railroads; died in St. Albans, Vt., November 28, 1858; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

SMITH, John Ambler, a Representative from Virginia; born at Village View, near Dinwiddie Court House, Dinwiddie County, Va., September 23, 1847; attended the rural school and was educated at David Turner's high school at Richmond; was graduated from the law department of the Richmond (Va.) College, now the University of Virginia; was admitted to the bar in 1867 and commenced the practice of law in Richmond, Va.; appointed commissioner in chancery of the courts of Richmond in 1868; served as the Commonwealth attorney of Charles City and New Kent Counties; member of the State senate in 1869; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed the practice of law in Washington, D. C.; member of the immigration commission to London; died in Washington, D. C., on January 6, 1892; interment in Glenwood Cemetery.

SMITH, John Armstrong, a Representative from Ohio; born in Hillsboro, Ohio, September 23, 1814; pursued classical studies, and was graduated from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in 1834; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1835, and commenced practice in Hillsboro, Ohio; served in the State house of representatives in 1841; member of the State constitutional convention of Ohio in 1850; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first and Forty-second Congresses (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1873); resumed the practice of law; member of the State constitutional convention of 1873; died in Hillsboro, Ohio, March 7, 1892; interment in Hillsboro Cemetery.

SMITH, John Cotton, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Sharon, Conn., on February 12, 1765; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Yale College in 1783; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and began practice in Sharon, Conn., in 1787; member of the State house of representatives in 1793, 1796, and 1800, and served as speaker in 1800; elected as a Federalist to the Sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Jonathan Brace; reelected to the Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth Congresses, and served from November 17, 1800, until his resignation in August, 1806; judge of the Supreme Court of Connecticut in 1809; lieutenant governor in 1810; governor 1813-1818; unsuccessful candidate for governor on the Federalist ticket in 1817; president of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions; president of the Connecticut Bible Society; retired to his estate near Sharon, Litchfield County, Conn., where he died December 7, 1845; interment in Hillside Cemetery.

SMITH, John Hyatt, a Representative from New York; born in Saratoga, N. Y., April 10, 1824; taught by his father; employed for a time as a clerk in Detroit, Mich., and later as a bank clerk in Albany, N. Y., and while in the latter position studied theology; after ordination his first pastorate was in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., in 1848; officiated in Cleveland, Ohio, for three years, in Buffalo, N. Y., 1855-1860, and in Philadelphia, Pa., 1860-1868; during the Civil War served in Virginia with the United States Christian Commission in 1862; chaplain of the Forty-seventh Regiment National Guard of New York in 1869; continued his ministerial duties in Brooklyn, N. Y., 1869-1880; elected as an Independent Republican and Democratic candidate to the Forty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1883); appointed by President Arthur a commissioner to inspect the Pacific Railroad, after which he resumed a pastorate in Brooklyn, N. Y., where he died December 7, 1886; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

SMITH, John M. C., a Representative from Michigan; born in Belfast, Ireland, February 6, 1853; emigrated to the United States with his parents in 1855, who settled near Plymouth, Ohio; attended the public schools; moved to Charlotte, Mich., in 1867; engaged in agricultural pursuits and also worked as a mason; was graduated from the academic department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1879 and from the law department in 1880; was admitted to the bar in 1882 and commenced practice in Detroit; prosecuting attorney of Eaton County 1885-1888; president of the First National Bank of Charlotte in 1898; also engaged in manufacturing and agricultural pursuits; member of the board of aldermen in 1903; member of the State constitutional convention in 1908; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1921); voluntarily retired and was not a candidate for renomination; elected to the Sixty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William H. Frankhouser; reelected to the Sixty-eighth Congress, and served from June 28, 1921, until his death in Charlotte, Mich., March 30, 1923; interment in Maple Hill Cemetery.

SMITH, John Quincy, a Representative from Ohio; born near Waynesville, Warren County, Ohio, on November 5, 1824; attended the common schools and Miami University, Oxford, Ohio; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State senate in 1860 and 1861; served in the State house of representatives in 1862 and 1863; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1872 and 1873; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; United States Commissioner of Indian Affairs 1875-1877; appointed United States consul general to Montreal, Canada, and served from 1878 until he resigned in 1882; died in Oakland, Clinton County, Ohio, December 30, 1901; interment in Miami Cemetery, Waynesville, Ohio.

SMITH, John Speed (father of Green Clay Smith), a Representative from Kentucky; born near Nicholasville, Jessamine County, Ky., July 1, 1792; attended a private school in Mercer County; served in the Indian campaign of 1811 as a private; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1812, and commenced practice in Richmond, Ky.; during the War of 1812 enlisted as a private, and subsequently promoted to major; aide-de-camp to General Harrison with the rank of colonel; member of the State house of representatives in 1819; elected as a Democrat to the Seventeenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of George Robertson, and served from August 6, 1821, to March 3, 1823; was not a candidate for renomination in 1822; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1827, 1830, 1839, 1841, and 1845, and served as speaker in 1827; United States district attorney for Kentucky 1828-1832; member of the State senate 1846-1850; died in Richmond, Ky., June 6, 1854; interment in Richmond Cemetery.

SMITH, John T., a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa.; attended the common schools of his native city; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1845).

SMITH, John Walter, a Representative and a Senator from Maryland; born at Snow Hill, Md., February 5, 1845; attended private schools and Union Academy; engaged in the lumber business in Maryland, Virginia, and North Carolina; president of the First National Bank of Snow Hill and director in many business and financial institutions; elected a member of the State senate in 1889, 1893, and 1897, and served as president of the senate during the session of 1894; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth Congress, and served from March 4, 1899, until his resignation on January 12, 1900; Governor of Maryland 1900-1904; delegate at large to the Democratic National Convention at Kansas City in 1900 and at St. Louis in 1904; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William Pinkney Whyte; reelected in 1909 and 1914, and served from March 25, 1908, to March 3, 1921; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1920; retired to private life and died in Baltimore, Md., April 19, 1925; interment in the Presbyterian Cemetery, Snow Hill, Md.

SMITH, Jonathan Bayard, a Delegate from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., on February 21, 1742; received a thorough English education, and was graduated from Princeton College in 1760; secretary of the Philadelphia Committee of Safety 1775-1777; Member of the Continental Congress in 1777 and 1778; prothonotary of the court of common pleas in 1777 and 1778; appointed justice of the court of common pleas in 1778; one of the founders in 1779 and a member of the board of trustees of the University of the State of Pennsylvania and after its consolidation with the College of Philadelphia in 1791 under the name of the University of Pennsylvania was a trustee until his death; also a trustee of Princeton College from 1779 until 1808; served on the Board of Aldermen of Philadelphia 1792-1794; auditor general of Pennsylvania in 1794; died in Philadelphia, Pa., June 16, 1812; interment in the graveyard of the Second Presbyterian Church.

SMITH, Joseph Showalter, a Representative from Oregon; born in Connelleville, Fayette County, Pa., on June 20, 1824; attended the common schools; crossed the Plains, arriving in Oregon City in the spring of 1844; engaged in splitting rails and other manual labor; moved to Salem, Oreg., and taught school; studied law and was admitted to the bar; moved to Olympia, Wash., in 1853; was elected to the Territorial house of representatives in 1856, and served as speaker; was appointed United States attorney for Washington Territory by President Buchanan March 12, 1857; returned to Salem, Oreg., in 1858 and practiced law for twelve years; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); moved to Portland, Oreg., in 1870 and resumed the practice of his profession; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor of Oregon in 1882; died in Portland, Oreg., July 13, 1884; interment in Riverview Cemetery.

SMITH, Josiah, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Pembroke, Mass., February 26, 1738; was graduated from Harvard College in 1774; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; member of the State house of representatives in 1789 and 1790; served in the State senate 1792-1794 and in 1797; State treasurer in 1797; elected to the Seventh Congress (March 4, 1801-March 3, 1803); was not a candidate for renomination in 1802; died in Pembroke, Plymouth County, Mass., April 4, 1803; interment in Pembroke Cemetery.

SMITH, Madison Roswell, a Representative from Missouri; born on a farm near Glenallen, Bollinger County, Mo., July 9, 1850; attended the public schools and Central College in Fayette, Mo.; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1874; taught school; began the practice of law at Marble Hill, Bollinger County, Mo., in 1877; prosecuting attorney of Bollinger County 1878-1882; served in the State senate 1884-1888; declined to be a candidate for reelection; served as editor of reports for the St. Louis court of appeals for four years and resigned; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1890 and at Baltimore in 1912; elected as a Democrat to the Sixtieth Congress (March 4, 1907-March 3, 1909); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1908 to the Sixty-first Congress; organizer and secretary of the Federal Trust Co., St. Louis, 1909-1912; minister to Haiti from 1912 until his resignation in 1914; continued the practice of his profession in Farmington, St. Francois County, Mo., where he died June 18, 1919; interment in the Masonic Cemetery.

SMITH, Marcus Aurelius, a Delegate and a Senator from Arizona; born near Cynthia, Harrison County, Ky., January 24, 1851; attended the common schools; taught school in Bourbon County, Ky.; was graduated from Transylvania University, Lexington, Ky., in 1872 and from the law department of the University of Kentucky at Lexington; was admitted to the bar and practiced; prosecuting attorney for the city of Lexington; moved to San Francisco, and practiced law 1879-1881; moved to Tombstone, Ariz., in 1881 and continued the practice of law; prosecuting attorney for the Tombstone district in 1882; elected as a Democrat to the Fifteenth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1895); elected to the Fifty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1899); elected to the Fifty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1901-March 3, 1903); elected to the Fifty-ninth and Sixtieth Congresses (March 4, 1905-March 3, 1909); was not a candidate for election to the Fifty-fourth, Fifty-sixth, and Fifty-eighth Congresses; upon the admission of Arizona as a State into the Union was elected to the United States Senate for the term ending March 3, 1915; reelected in 1914, and served from March 27, 1912, to March 3, 1921; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1920; appointed by President Wilson March 3, 1921, a member of the International Joint Commission created to prevent disputes regarding the use of the boundary waters between the United States and Canada and served until his death in Washington, D. C., April 7, 1924; interment in Battle Grove Cemetery, Cynthia, Ky.

SMITH, Melancthon, a Delegate from New York; born in Jamaica, Long Island, N. Y., May 7, 1744; was educated by his parents; as a youth clerked in a store at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; engaged in business in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; delegate to the first Provincial Congress in New York, May 22, 1775; served in the Continental Line Regiment which was organized June 30, 1775; organized and became captain of the Dutchess County Minutemen; secret service commissioner and sheriff of Dutchess County, N. Y., in 1777 and 1778; moved to New York City in 1785 and engaged in mercantile pursuits; Member of the Continental Congress 1785-1788; member of the State convention that met at Poughkeepsie and ratified the Federal Constitution July 20, 1788; served in the State assembly 1791; died in New York City July 20, 1798; interment in Jamaica Cemetery, Jamaica, Queens County, N. Y.

SMITH, Meriwether, a Delegate from Virginia; born in Bathurst, Essex County, Va., in 1790; completed preparatory studies; was a signer of the articles of the Westmoreland association in 1766, which was pledged to use no articles of British importation; member of the house of burgesses in 1770; delegate to the Revolutionary conventions of 1775 and 1778; member of the State house of delegates 1776-1778; Member of the Continental Congress 1778-1782; again a member of the State house of delegates in 1781, 1782, 1785, and 1788; delegate to the State convention which adopted the Federal Constitution June 26, 1788; died in Merigold, Essex County, Va., January 25, 1790.

SMITH, Nathan (brother of Nathaniel Smith and uncle of Truman Smith), a Senator from Connecticut; born in Woodbury, Conn., January 8, 1770; received a thorough English education; attended Litchfield Law School; was admitted to the bar in 1792 and commenced the practice of his profession in New Haven, Conn.; prosecuting attorney for New Haven County 1817-1835; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1818; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Connecticut in 1825; appointed United States attorney for district of Connecticut February 8, 1829; member of the State house of representatives 1833-1835; elected as a Whig to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1833, until his death in Washington, D. C., December 6, 1835; interment in the Grove Street Cemetery, New Haven, Conn.

SMITH, Nathaniel (brother of Nathan Smith and uncle of Truman Smith), a Representative from Connecticut; born in Woodbury, Conn., January 6, 1762; attended the common schools; engaged in agricultural pursuits and was also a cattle dealer; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1787, and commenced the practice of his profession in Woodbury, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives 1789-1795; elected as a Federalist to the Fourth and Fifth Congresses (March 4, 1795-March 3, 1799); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1798; served in the State senate 1800-1805; judge of the Supreme Court of Connecticut 1806-1819; delegate to the Hartford Convention of 1814; died in Woodbury, Litchfield County, Conn., March 9, 1822; interment in the Episcopal Church Cemetery.

SMITH, O'Brien, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Ireland about 1756; came to South Carolina just after the close of the Revolutionary War, taking the oath of allegiance to the Government of the United States July 31, 1784; member of the State assembly in 1790; served in the State senate in 1808; elected to the Ninth Congress (March 4, 1805-March 3, 1807); died April 27, 1811; interment in the burial ground of the colonial chapel of ease of St. Bartholomew's parish, Colleton County, S. C., now in ruins and called "the Burnt Church," near Jacksonboro, S. C.

SMITH, Oliver Hampton, a Representative and a Senator from Indiana; born on Smiths Island, near Trenton, N. J., October 28, 1794; attended the common schools; moved to Indiana in 1817, and settled in Rising Sun; moved to Lawrenceburg, Ind., in 1818; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1820, and commenced practice in Connerville, Ind.; member of the State house of representatives 1822-1824; prosecuting attorney for the third judicial district 1824 and 1825; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twentieth Congress (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1829); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1828 to the Twenty-first Congress; elected as a Whig to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1837, to March 3, 1843; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; moved to Indianapolis, Ind., and resumed the practice of law; declined to be a candidate for Governor of Indiana in 1845; engaged in the railroad business in Indianapolis; died in Indianapolis, Ind., March 10, 1859; interment in Crown Hill Cemetery.

SMITH, Perry, a Senator from Connecticut; born in Woodbury, Conn., May 12, 1783; completed preparatory studies; studied law at the Litchfield Law School, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in New Milford, Conn., in 1807; member of the State house of representatives 1822, 1823, 1835, and 1836; judge of probate court 1833-1835; appointed postmaster of New Milford May 9, 1829, and served until March 24, 1837, when he resigned to become Senator; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1837, to March 3, 1843; died in New Milford, Litchfield County, Conn., June 8, 1852; interment in Center Cemetery.

SMITH, Richard, a Delegate from New Jersey; born in Burlington, N. J., March 22, 1735; educated under private teachers and in Friends' schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1762, and practiced in Philadelphia, Pa., and later in Burlington, N. J.; commissioned county clerk of Burlington on December 7, 1762; Member of the Continental Congress from July 28, 1774, to June 12, 1776, when he resigned; was one of the signers of the petition to the King, being the last effort of the Colonies to avert an armed conflict; member of the State council in 1776; elected treasurer of New Jersey and served from 1776 to February 15, 1777, when he resigned; moved to Laurens, N. Y., in 1790 and thence to Philadelphia in 1790; died near Natchez Miss., September 17, 1803; interment in Natchez Cemetery.

SMITH, Robert, a Representative from Illinois; born in Peterboro, N. H., June 12, 1802; attended the public schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; moved to Illinois and settled in Alton in 1832; member of the State house of representatives 1836-1840; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, and Thirtieth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1849); elected to the Thirty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1859); served as paymaster during the Civil War; interested in water-power development and railroad enterprises; died in Alton, Ill., December 21, 1887.

SMITH, Robert Barnwell, a Representative and a Senator from South Carolina. (See REERT, Robert Barnwell.)

SMITH, Samuel, a Representative and a Senator from Maryland; born in Carlisle, Pa., July 27, 1752; moved with his father to Baltimore, Md., in 1759; attended the public schools and was graduated from Princeton College; engaged in mercantile pursuits; served in the Revolutionary War as captain, major, and lieutenant colonel, and for his masterly defense of Fort Mifflin Congress gave him a vote of thanks and a sword; engaged in the shipping business; member of the State house of delegates 1790-1792; at the time of the threatened war with France in 1794 was appointed brigadier general of militia, and commanded Maryland's quota during the Whisky Rebellion; during the War of 1812 served as major general of militia in the defense of Baltimore; elected as a Democrat to the Third and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1793-March 3, 1803); did not seek renomination in 1802, having become a candidate for Senator; elected to the United States Senate in 1802; appointed and subsequently elected for the ensuing term, and served from March 4, 1803, to March 3, 1815; elected President pro tempore of the Senate December 2, 1805, March 18, 1806, March 2, 1807, April 16, 1808; elected to the Fourteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Nicholas R. Moore; reelected to the Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth Congresses, and served from January 31, 1816, to December 17, 1822, when he resigned, having been elected Senator; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William Pinkney; reelected in 1826, and served from December 17, 1822, to March 3, 1833; mayor of Baltimore, Md., in 1837; retired from public life; died in Baltimore April 22, 1839; interment in the Old Westminster Burying Ground.

SMITH, Samuel, a Representative from Pennsylvania; associate judge of Erie County, Pa., from 1803 to 1805, when he resigned; elected to the Ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John B. C. Lucas; reelected to the Tenth and Eleventh Congresses, and served from November 7, 1805, to March 3, 1811; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1810 to the Twelfth Congress.

Smith, Samuel (brother of Jeremiah Smith), a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Peterboro, N. H., November 11, 1765; attended Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H., and Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass.; engaged in mercantile pursuits; served as moderator in town meeting 1794-1811; elected as a Federalist to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1815); was not a candidate for renomination in 1814; resumed his former business pursuits, and in 1828 engaged in the manufacture of paper and cotton goods; died in Peterboro, N. H., April 25, 1842; interment in the Village Cemetery.

SMITH, Samuel A., a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Harrow, Nockamixon Township, Bucks County, Pa., in 1795; attended the common schools; commissioned justice of the peace for the Rockhill-Milford district before he was twenty-one years of age; register of wills for Bucks County 1824-1829; was brigade inspector of militia for the Bucks and Montgomery County district; resigned in 1832; elected as an Independent Democrat to the Twenty-first Congress to fill in part the vacancies caused by the resignations of George Wolf and Samuel D. Ingham; reelected to the Twenty-second Congress, and served from October 13, 1829, to March 3, 1833; member of the State senate 1841-1843; was appointed associate judge of the courts of Bucks County by Governor Porter in 1844, and served until 1849; engaged in mercantile pursuits in Doylestown, Pa., and later in Point Pleasant, Pa.; member and presiding officer of many Democratic county conventions; died in Point Pleasant, Bucks County, Pa., May 15, 1861; interment in the Presbyterian Churchyard, Doylestown, Pa.

SMITH, Samuel Axley, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Monroe County, Tenn., June 26, 1822; received a limited education; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1845, and commenced practice in Cleveland, Tenn.; district attorney general 1845-1850; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1848; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth, and Thirty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1859); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1858 to the Thirty-sixth Congress; appointed by President Buchanan Commissioner of the General Land Office, and served from January 18 to February 12, 1860, when he resigned; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army in 1861; died at Ladd Springs, Polk County, Tenn., November 25, 1883; interment in Amos Ladd's burial ground.

SMITH, Samuel William, a Representative from Michigan; born in Independence Township, Oakland County, Mich., on August 23, 1852; attended the common schools in Clarkston and Detroit; engaged in teaching school for several years; was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1878; was admitted to the bar in 1879 and commenced practice at Pontiac; prosecuting attorney of Oakland County 1880-1884; elected to the State senate in 1884; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth and to the eight succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1915); was not a candidate for reelection to the Sixty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of law, and resides in Pontiac, Mich.

SMITH, Sylvester Clark, a Representative from California; born near Mount Pleasant, Henry County, Iowa, August 26, 1838; attended the district schools and Howe's Academy at Mount Pleasant; taught school in Winfield, Iowa; moved to California in 1879 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; taught school in Colusa and Kern Counties in 1883; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1885, and commenced practice in Bakersfield, Calif.; employed to edit the Kern County Echo; resumed the practice of law; member of the State senate 1894-1902; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1902 to the Fifty-eighth Congress; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, Sixty-first, and Sixty-second Congresses, and served from March 4, 1905, until his death in Los Angeles, Calif., January 26, 1913; interment in Union Cemetery.

SMITH, Thomas, a Delegate from Pennsylvania; born near Cruden, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, in 1745; pursued preparatory studies; attended the University of Edinburgh, Scotland; emigrated to the United States and settled in Bedford, Pa., February 9, 1769; deputy surveyor in 1769; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced the practice of his profession in 1772; deputy register of wills and prothonotary in 1773; justice of the peace in 1774; member of the committee of correspondence in 1775; served in the Revolutionary Army as a deputy colonel of militia; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1776; member of the State house of representatives 1776-1780; Member of the Continental Congress 1780-1782; judge of the court of common pleas in 1791; judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania 1794-1809; died in Philadelphia, Pa., March 31, 1809; interment in Christ Churchyard.

SMITH, Thomas, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Pennsylvania; resided in Tinicum Township, Delaware County, Pa.; member of the State house of representatives in 1806 and 1807; elected as a Federalist to the Fourteenth Congress (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1817); moved to Darby Township (later Darby Borough) in 1815; justice of the peace at the time of his death in Darby, Delaware County, Pa., on January 29, 1846; interment in St. James's (Old Swedes) Cemetery, Paschall (now a part of Philadelphia), Pa.

SMITH, Thomas, a Representative from Indiana; born in Fayette County, Pa., May 1, 1799; moved to Rising Sun, Ind., in 1818; learned the trade of tanner; moved to Versailles, Ind., in 1821 and established a tannery; became a colonel in the militia; member of the State house of representatives in 1829, 1830, and 1833-1836; served in the State senate 1836-1839; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1841); unsuccessful candidate for election in 1840 to the Twenty-seventh Congress; elected to the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1847); was not a candidate for renomination in 1846; retired to private life; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1850; died in Versailles, Ripley County, Ind., April 12, 1876; interment in Cliff Hill Cemetery.

SMITH, Thomas Alexander, a Representative from Maryland; born near Greenwood, Sussex County, Del., September 3, 1850; moved with his parents to Ridgely, Md., in 1856; attended the public schools and Denton (Md.) Academy; taught school in Delaware, Maryland, and Michigan; returned to Ridgely, Md., where he was postmaster from August 4, 1885, to November 25, 1889; engaged in the mercantile business; appointed agent of the Philadelphia, Wilmington & Baltimore Railroad; member of the board of school commissioners for Caroline County 1889-1893; member of the State senate in 1894 and 1896; unsuccessful candidate for comptroller of the State treasury in 1897; was chief of the Maryland Bureau of Statistics and Information 1900-1904; first vice president of the National Association of Labor Statisticians in 1903 and 1904; member of the board of State aid and charities in 1904 and 1905; one of the founders of the Bank of Ridgely and served as its first president; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1905-March 3, 1907); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1906 to the Sixtieth Congress; was a delegate to the Farmers' National Congress of the United States held at Madison, Wis., in 1908 and at Lincoln, Nebr., in 1910; land commissioner of Maryland 1908-1912; appointed internal-revenue agent for the district of Maryland in 1915, and served until January 1, 1920; retired from public life, and is a resident of Ridgely, Caroline County, Md.

SMITH, Thomas Francis, a Representative from New York; born in New York City July 24, 1865; attended the common schools, St. Francis Xavier College, and Manhattan College; attended the New York Law School 1890-1901; official stenographer in the building department in 1892 and in the eighth district municipal court in 1894; reporter on the New York World and the New York Tribune; clerk of the city court from 1898 to April 12, 1917; was admitted to the bar in 1911 and commenced practice in New York City; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1915 and to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1916 which nominated Woodrow Wilson for a second term; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Michael F. Conry; reelected to the Sixty-sixth Congress, and served from April 12, 1917, to March 3, 1921; was not a candidate for renomination in 1920; public administrator of New York from April 1, 1921, until his death in a taxicab accident in New York City April 11, 1923; interment in Calvary Cemetery, Long Island City, N. Y.

SMITH, Truman (nephew of Nathan Smith and Nathaniel Smith), a Representative and a Senator from Connecticut; born in Roxbury, Conn., November 27, 1791; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Yale College in 1815; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1818, and commenced practice in Litchfield, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives in 1831, 1832, and 1834; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1839–March 3, 1843); declined renomination in 1842; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Clay and Frelinghuysen in 1844; elected to the Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth Congresses (March 4, 1845–March 3, 1849); delegate to the Whig National Convention at Philadelphia in 1848 which nominated General Taylor for President and was chairman of the Whig National Committee during the campaign; declined the Secretaryship of the Interior in the Cabinet of President Taylor; elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1849, until his resignation May 24, 1854; resumed the practice of his profession in New York City in 1854, with residence in Stamford, Conn.; appointed by President Lincoln judge of the court of arbitration in New York under the treaty of 1862 with Great Britain for the suppression of the slave trade, and served from 1862 to 1870; retired from active business life in 1872; died in Stamford, Fairfield County, Conn., May 3, 1884; interment in Woodland Cemetery.

SMITH, Walter Inglewood, a Representative from Iowa; born in Council Bluffs, Pottawattamie County, Iowa, July 10, 1862; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1882, and commenced practice in Council Bluffs, Iowa; judge of the fifteenth judicial district of Iowa 1890–1900; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Smith McPherson and on the same day was elected to the Fifty-seventh Congress; reelected to the Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, Sixty-first, and Sixty-second Congresses, and served from December 3, 1900, to March 15, 1911, when he resigned to accept an appointment on the bench; appointed by President Taft United States circuit judge for the eighth judicial circuit and served from March 16, 1911, until his death in Council Bluffs, Iowa, on January 27, 1922; interment in Fairview Cemetery.

SMITH, William, a Delegate and a Representative from Maryland; born in Donegal Township, Lancaster County, Pa., April 12, 1728; moved to Baltimore, Md., May 1, 1761; appointed a member of the committee of correspondence in 1774; member of the committee of observation in 1775; one of a committee appointed by Congress to constitute a naval board in 1777; Member of the Continental Congress in 1777 and 1778; one of a committee to concert measures for the defense of Baltimore and to address and receive Gen. George Washington in 1781; engaged in mercantile pursuits; elected as a Federalist to the First Congress (March 4, 1789–March 3, 1791); First Auditor of the United States Treasury July 10 to November 27, 1791; presidential elector in 1796; member of the State senate in 1801; died in Baltimore, Md., March 27, 1814; interment in the Old Westminster Graveyard.

SMITH, William, a Representative and a Senator from South Carolina; born in North Carolina in 1762; attended Alexander's Academy, Bullocks Creek, York District, S. C.; was graduated from Mount Slon Collegiate Institute, Winnsboro, S. C., in 1780; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1784; settled in Pinckneyville, S. C., and later in Yorkville (now York), S. C.; elected as a Democrat to the Fifth Congress (March 4, 1797–March 3, 1799); held several local offices; member of the State senate from 1802 to 1808, and served as president of that body in 1806; judge of the South Carolina Circuit Court 1808–1813; elected December 4, 1816, as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Taylor; on the same day was elected for the term commencing March 4, 1817, and served from December 4, 1816, to March 3, 1823; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; member of the State house of representatives 1824–1826; again elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John Gaillard, and served from November 29, 1826, to March 3, 1831; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; received the seven electoral votes of Georgia for Vice President of the United States in 1829; moved to Louisiana in 1831 and to Huntsville, Ala., in 1835; member of the State house of representatives 1835–1839; declined the appointment of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States tendered by President Jackson in 1838; died in Huntsville, Madison County, Ala., June 26, 1840.

SMITH, William, a Representative from Virginia; born in Chesterfield, Va.; completed preparatory studies; member of the State house of delegates in 1782; elected to the Seventeenth, Eighteenth, and Nineteenth Congresses (March 4, 1821–March 3, 1827).

SMITH, William, a Representative from Virginia; born in Marengo, King George County, Va., September 6, 1797; attended private schools of Virginia and Plainfield Academy, Connecticut; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Culpeper, Culpeper County, Va., in 1818; established a line of United States mail and passenger post coaches through Virginia, the Carolinas, and Georgia in 1831; member of the State senate from 1836 to 1841, when he resigned; successfully contested as a Democrat the election of Linn Banks to the Twenty-seventh Congress, and served from March 4, 1841, to March 3, 1843; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1842 to the Twenty-eighth Congress; moved to Fauquier County; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Polk and Dallas in 1844; Governor of Virginia 1846–1849, and unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate during that period; moved to California in April, 1849; president of the first Democratic State convention in 1850; returned to Virginia in December, 1852; elected to the Thirty-third and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1853–March 3, 1861); during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army as colonel of the Forty-ninth Regiment Virginia Infantry, and subsequently was promoted to brigadier general and major general; served in the Confederate Congress in 1862; again Governor of Virginia in 1864; returned to his estate "Monterosa," near Warrenton, Va., in June, 1865; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of delegates 1877–1879; died in Warrenton, Fauquier County, Va., May 18, 1887; interment in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Va.

SMITH, William Alden, a Representative and a Senator from Michigan; born in Dowagiac, Cass County, Mich., May 12, 1859; attended the common schools; moved with his parents to Grand Rapids in 1872; appointed a page in the Michigan House of Representatives in 1875; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Grand Rapids in 1883; general counsel of the Chicago & Western Railway and the Detroit, Lansing & Northern Railroad; assistant secretary of the Michigan State Senate in 1883; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and to the six succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1895, until his resignation, effective February 9, 1907, having been elected Senator; was elected to the United States Senate January 15, 1907, for the term beginning March 4, 1907; subsequently elected on February 6, 1907, to fill the vacancy in the term ending March 3, 1907, caused by the death of Russell A. Alger; reelected in 1913, and served from February 9, 1907, to March 3, 1919; became owner and publisher of the Grand Rapids Herald; chairman of the board of directors of a transit company operating a line of steamboats from Chicago to various Lake Michigan ports; engaged in the newspaper business, and resides in Grand Rapids, Mich.

SMITH, William Alexander, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Warren County, N. C., on January 9, 1828; attended the common schools; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State constitutional convention in 1865; member of the State senate in 1870; president of the North Carolina Railroad in 1888 and of the Yadkin River Railroad; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); died in Richmond, Va., May 16, 1888; interment in Hollywood Cemetery.

SMITH, William Ephraim, a Representative from Georgia; born in Augusta, Richmond County, Ga., March 14, 1829; pursued an academic course; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1846, under a special act of the legislature, and practiced in Albany, Ga.; also a planter; ordinary of Dougherty County, Ga., in 1853; solicitor general of the southwest circuit 1858-1890; during the Civil War enlisted in the Confederate Army as a first lieutenant in the Fourth Georgia Volunteer Infantry; elected captain in April, 1862; elected to the House of Representatives of the Second Confederate Congress in 1863; declined the office of circuit judge of Georgia in 1874; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth, Forty-fifth, and Forty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1881); was not a candidate for renomination in 1880; resumed the practice of law; president of the Democratic State convention in 1886; served in the State senate 1886-1888; died in Albany, Dougherty County, Ga., March 11, 1890; interment in Oakview Cemetery.

SMITH, William Jay, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Birmingham, England, September 24, 1823; emigrated to the United States and settled in Orange County, N. Y.; attended the common schools; learned the printing trade; moved to Tennessee in 1846; during the Mexican War in 1847 served in a regiment from that State; moved to Hardeman County, Tenn., and engaged in horticulture; during the Civil War served in the Union Army 1861-1865, and was brevetted brigadier general; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1865; member of the State house of representatives in 1866 and 1867; served in the State senate in 1884 and 1885; surveyor of the port of Memphis, Tenn., 1871-1883; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; engaged in the real-estate business and in banking; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati in 1876; died in Memphis, Tenn., November 29, 1913; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

SMITH, William Loughton, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Charleston, S. C., in 1768; attended preparatory schools in England 1770-1774; studied law in the Middle Temple at London, England, in 1774; pursued higher studies in Geneva 1774-1778; returned to Charleston, S. C., in 1783; was admitted to the bar in 1784 and commenced practice in Charleston; engaged in agricultural pursuits on his estate near Charleston; member of the privy council in 1784; member of the State house of representatives 1784-1788; warden of the city of Charleston in 1789; elected as a Federalist to the First and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1789, until July 10, 1797, when he resigned; appointed United States minister to Portugal and Spain on July 10, 1797, and served until September 9, 1801, when he took leave of absence; commissioned minister to the Ottoman Porte on February 11, 1799, but did not reach that court; returned to Charleston; unsuccessful Federalist candidate for election in 1804, 1806, and 1808 to the Ninth, Tenth, and Eleventh Congresses; lieutenant in the State militia in 1808; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1808; president of the Santee Canal Co.; vice president of the Charleston Library Society and of the St. Cecilia Society; engaged in literary pursuits; died in Charleston, S. C., December 10, 1812; interment in the churchyard of St. Philip's Church.

SMITH, William Nathan Harrell, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Murfreesboro, N. C., September 24, 1812; attended the common schools in Murfreesboro, N. C., Kingston, R. I., and Colchester and East Lyme, Conn.; was graduated from Yale College in 1834 and from Yale Law School in 1836; was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Murfreesboro, N. C., in 1839; held several local offices; was a member of the State house of commons in 1840, 1858, 1865, and 1866; served in the State senate in 1848; solicitor of the first judicial district of North Carolina for eight years; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1861); unsuccessful candidate for Speaker, lacking one vote of election; served in the Confederate Congress 1862-1865; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York City in 1868; chief justice of the Supreme Court of North Carolina 1878-1880; died in Raleigh, N. C., November 14, 1889; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

SMITH, William Orlando, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Reynoldsville, Jefferson County, Pa., June 13, 1859; attended the public schools; learned the printing trade; publisher of the Reynoldsville Herald; worked in the Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C., six years; one of a company of ten printers to establish the Washington Craftsman, for a while the organ of the International Typographical Union, and was its first associate editor; returned to Punxsutawney, Pa., in 1884 and successively edited the Punxsutawney Tribune and the Punxsutawney Spirit; member of the State house of representatives 1889-1898; editor of the Bradford (Pa.) Daily Era in 1891; in January, 1892, purchased a half interest in the Punxsutawney Spirit; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1907); was not a candidate for renomination in 1906; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Taft and Sherman in 1906 and of Taft and Butler in 1912; was chairman of the local exemption board for Jefferson County during the World War; resumed newspaper interests, and is a resident of Punxsutawney, Jefferson County, Pa.

SMITH, William Robert, a Representative from Texas; born near Tyler, Smith County, Tex., August 18, 1863; attended the country schools, and was graduated from Sam Houston Normal Institute, Huntsville, Tex., in 1888; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1885, and practiced in Tyler until February, 1888; moved to Colorado, Mitchell County, Tex., and continued the practice of law; judge of the thirty-second judicial district of Texas 1897-1903; was elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth and to the six succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1917); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1916; moved to El Paso, Tex., in October, 1916, and practiced his profession; appointed United States district judge for the western district of Texas and served from April 12, 1917, until his death in El Paso, Tex., August 16, 1924; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

SMITH, William Russell, a Representative from Alabama; born in Russellville, Ky., March 27, 1815; moved at an early age to Huntsville, Ala.; pursued classical studies and attended the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Greensboro, Ala., in 1835; served as captain of Alabama State troops in the campaign against the Creek Indians in 1836; moved to Tuscaloosa, Ala., where he continued the practice of law and also engaged in newspaper work; founded and edited the Mirror; mayor of Tuscaloosa in 1839; author of several books and plays; member of the State house of representatives 1841-1843; elected brigadier general of militia in 1845; judge of the seventh judicial circuit in 1850 and 1851; elected as a Union Whig to the Thirty-second and Thirty-third Congresses and as the candidate of the American Party to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1857); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1856 to the Thirty-fifth Congress; member of the State constitutional convention in 1861 and opposed and voted against secession; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army as colonel of the Twenty-sixth Alabama Regiment; Representative in the First and Second Confederate Congresses; president of the University of Alabama 1869-1871; resumed the practice of his profession and engaged in historical and literary pursuits; died in Washington, D. C., February 26, 1896; interment in Tuscaloosa, Ala.; reinterment in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

SMITH, William Stephens, a Representative from New York; born on Long Island, N. Y., November 8, 1755; was graduated from the College of New Jersey (now Princeton University) in 1774; studied law for a short time; served in the Revolutionary Army as aide-de-camp to General Sullivan in 1776; was on the staff of General Lafayette in 1780 and 1781, and then transferred to the staff of General Washington; fought in twenty-two engagements in the Revolution; secretary of the legation at London in 1784; returned to America in 1788; appointed by President Washington United States marshal for the district of New York in 1789, and later supervisor of revenue; one of the originators of the Society of the Cincinnati, and served as its president 1795-1797; appointed by President John Adams surveyor of the port of New York in 1800; moved to Lebanon, N. Y., in 1807; elected as a Federalist to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1815); credentials of his election to the Fourteenth Congress were presented, but he did not qualify, and on December 13, 1815, Westel Willoughby, jr., successfully contested his election; died in Smith Valley, town of Lebanon, Madison County, N. Y., June 10, 1816; interment in the Lines Hill Cemetery, between Smyrna and Sherburne, N. Y.

SMITH, Worthington Curtis (son of John Smith, of Vermont), a Representative from Vermont; born in St. Albans, Franklin County, Vt., April 23, 1823; pursued classical studies, and was graduated from the University of Vermont at Burlington in 1843; studied law, but did not practice; engaged in the iron trade; during the Civil War assisted in raising the First Regiment Vermont Volunteer Infantry; member of the State house of representatives in 1863; served in the State senate in 1864 and 1865, and was elected president pro tempore of that body in 1865; elected as a Republican to the Fortieth, Forty-first, and Forty-second Congresses (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1873); president of St. Albans Foundry Co.; died in St. Albans, Vt., January 2, 1894; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

SMITHERS, Nathaniel Barratt, a Representative from Delaware; born in Dover, Del., October 8, 1818; was graduated from Lafayette College, Pennsylvania, in 1836; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Dover, Del., in 1840; secretary of state of Delaware January 20 to November 23, 1863; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William Temple, and served from December 7, 1863, to March 3, 1865; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Dover; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864; died in Dover, Kent County, Del., January 16, 1896; interment in the Old Methodist Cemetery.

SMITHWICK, John Harris, a Representative from Florida; born near Orange, Cherokee County, Ga., July 17, 1872; attended the public schools; was graduated from Reinhardt Normal College, Waleska, Ga., in 1895 and from the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1897; was admitted to the bar in 1898, and commenced the practice of his profession in Moultrie, Ga.; moved to Pensacola, Fla., in 1906 and continued the practice of his profession; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1927); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1926; engaged in the real-estate business in Fort Myers, Lee County, Fla., and in Washington, D. C.; is a resident of Pensacola, Fla.

SMOOT, Reed, a Senator from Utah; born in Salt Lake City, Utah, January 10, 1862; moved with his parents to Provo, Utah County, Utah, in 1874; attended the common schools and the University of Utah at Salt Lake City; was graduated from the Brigham Young Academy (now Brigham Young University) at Provo in 1880; engaged in banking and in the manufacture of woolen goods; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1908, 1912, 1916, and 1920 and at Cleveland in 1924; appointed by President Harding a member of the World War Foreign Debt Commission in 1922; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1903 for the term commencing March 4, 1903; reelected in 1909, 1914, and again in 1920 for the term ending March 3, 1927. Reelected in 1926 for the term ending March 3, 1933.

SMYSER, Martin Luther, a Representative from Ohio; born in Plaine Township, Wayne County, Ohio, April 3, 1851; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, in 1870; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1872 and practiced in Wooster; elected prosecuting attorney of Wayne County in 1872 and served one term; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1884 and 1888; elected to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1891); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1890 to the Fifty-second Congress; resumed the practice of law in Wooster; elected to the Fifty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1905-March 3, 1907); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1906 to the Sixtieth Congress; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Wooster, Ohio.

SMYTH, Alexander, a Representative from Virginia; born on the Island of Rathlin, Ireland, in 1765; emigrated to the United States and settled in Botetourt County, Va., in 1775; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Abingdon, Va.; moved to Wythe County, Va.; member of the State house of delegates in 1792, 1796, 1801, 1802, and 1804-1808; served in the State senate in 1808 and 1809; served in the United States Army as colonel of a regiment of riflemen from July 8, 1808, to July 6, 1812, and as an inspector general with the rank of brigadier general from July 6, 1812, to March 3, 1813; resumed the practice of his profession; again a member of the State house of delegates in 1816, 1817, 1826, and 1827; was elected to the Fifteenth, Sixteenth, Seventeenth, and Eighteenth Congresses (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1825); elected to the Twentieth and Twenty-first Congresses, and served from March 4, 1827, until his death in Washington, D. C., April 17, 1830; interment in the Congressional Cemetery.

SMYTH, George Washington, a Representative from Texas; born in North Carolina May 16, 1808; moved with his parents to Alabama, and later to Murfreesboro, Tenn.; attended the common schools and the college at Murfreesboro; moved to Texas, then a part of the Republic of Mexico, in 1828, and settled in the municipality of Bevell, Zavallas Colony (now Jasper County); appointed by the Mexican Government surveyor and later made commissioner of titles; delegate to the General Consultation of Texas at San Felipe de Austin in 1835; member of the Texas State convention and a signer of the declaration of independence of Texas in 1836; also a signer of the constitution of the Republic of Texas; appointed by President Lamar, of Texas, commissioner in charge of the boundary line between the Republic of Texas and the United States; engaged in agricultural pursuits; deputy in the Congress of the Republic of Texas in 1845, and assisted in framing the constitution of the State of Texas; elected commissioner of the general land office of the State in 1848; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); declined a renomination to the Thirty-fourth Congress; served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War; member of the State constitutional convention in 1866; died in Austin, Tex., February 21, 1866, while attending a session of the convention; interment in the State Cemetery.

SMYTH, William, a Representative from Iowa; born in Eden, County Tyrone, Ireland, January 3, 1824; attended the rural schools; completed preparatory studies; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Pennsylvania in 1838; moved to Iowa in 1844; attended the University of Iowa at Iowa City; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1847, and commenced practice in Marion, Iowa; prosecuting attorney of Linn County 1848-1853; was appointed judge of the district court for the fourth judicial district of Iowa in 1853 and served until his resignation in 1857; resumed the practice of law; in 1858 served as chairman of the commission to codify and revise the State laws; during the Civil War served in the Union Army for two years as colonel of the Thirty-first Regiment Iowa Volunteer Infantry; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress, and served from March 4, 1869, until his death; renominated in 1870 and was a candidate for reelection at the time of his death; died in Marion, Iowa, September 30, 1870; interment in Oak Shade Cemetery.

SNAPP, Henry (father of Howard Malcom Snapp), a Representative from Illinois; born in Livonia, Livingston County, N. Y., June 30, 1822; moved with his parents to Rochester, N. Y., in 1825; attended the common schools of that city; moved to Homer, Will County, Ill., in 1833, where he completed his common-school education; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1848, and commenced practice in Joliet, Will County, Ill.; member of the State senate from 1869 to 1871; elected as a Republican to the Forty-second Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Burton C. Cook, and served from December 4, 1871, to March 3, 1873; declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1872; resumed the practice of his profession in Joliet, Ill., where he died November 20, 1895; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

SNAPP, Howard Malcom (son of Henry Snapp), a Representative from Illinois; born in Joliet, Will County, Ill., September 27, 1856; attended the public schools and the Chicago University; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1878, and commenced practice in Joliet, Ill.; delegate to the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in 1896 and at Chicago in 1906; master in chancery from 1884 to 1903; was elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1911); was not a candidate for renomination in 1910; resumed the practice of his profession, and is a resident of Joliet, Ill.

SNEED, William Henry, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Davidson County, Tenn., August 27, 1812; completed preparatory studies; moved with his father's family to Rutherford County, Tenn.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1834, and commenced practice in Murfreesboro, Tenn.; member of the State senate 1848-1845; moved to Knoxville, Tenn., in 1845 and resumed the practice of law; elected as the candidate of the American Party to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1856 and also for nomination as circuit judge; resumed the practice of law; died in Knoxville, Tenn., September 18, 1860; interment in the Old Gray Cemetery.

SNELL, Bertrand Hollis, a Representative from New York; born in Colton, St. Lawrence County, N. Y., December 9, 1870; attended the public schools; was graduated from the State normal school at Potsdam, N. Y., in 1889 and from Amherst (Mass.) College in 1894; began his business career as a book-keeper and afterwards became secretary and manager of the Raquette River Paper Co. in Potsdam; connected with various other business enterprises; trustee of several organizations; vice president of the Northern New York Development League; member of the Republican State committee; was elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Edwin A. Merritt, jr.; reelected to the Sixty-fifth and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from November 2, 1915, to March 3, 1927; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1916 and 1920, and at Cleveland in 1924; president board of trustees Clarkson College, Potsdam, N. Y.; member board of trustees Potsdam State Normal School. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SNIDER, Samuel Prather, a Representative from Minnesota; born in Mount Gilead, Morrow County, Ohio, October 9, 1845; attended the public schools, the local high school at Mount Gilead, Ohio, and Oberlin College, Ohio; during the Civil War enlisted as a private soldier in the Sixty-fifth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry; served in Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, and Mississippi, and as captain in west Tennessee in the Thirteenth United States Colored Infantry; after the war engaged in commercial pursuits in New York; moved to Minnesota in 1876 and settled in Minneapolis; organized and built the Midland Railway in southern Minnesota; engaged in agricultural pursuits and the mining of iron ere; member of the State house of representatives 1884-1888; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1891); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1890 to the Fifty-second Congress; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Minneapolis in 1892; retired from active business pursuits, and resides in Minneapolis, Minn.

SNODGRASS, Charles Edward, a Representative from Tennessee; born near Sparta, White County, Tenn., December 23, 1866; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Crossville, Tenn., in 1888; never held or sought any elective office until his election to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1903); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1902; judge of the fifth judicial circuit of Tennessee; appointed judge of the court of appeals upon the reorganization of that court in 1925, and resides in Crossville, Cumberland County, Tenn.

SNODGRASS, Henry Clay, a Representative from Tennessee; born in White County, Tenn., March 29, 1848; attended Sparta Academy; studied law at Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Sparta; during the Civil War served as a private in the Confederate Army; attorney general of the fifth judicial circuit; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1895); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1896 which nominated Bryan and Sewall; resumed the practice of his profession, and resides in Sparta, White County, Tenn.

SNODGRASS, John Fryall, a Representative from Virginia; born in Berkeley County, Va. (now West Virginia), March 2, 1804; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1843, and commenced practice in Parkersburg, Va.; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1850 and 1851; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress, and served from March 4, 1853, until his death in Parkersburg, Va. (now West Virginia), June 5, 1854.

SNOOK, John Stout, a Representative from Ohio; born near Antwerp, Paulding County, Ohio, December 18, 1862; was graduated from the Antwerp graded schools in 1880; attended the Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio; was graduated from the law school of Cincinnati College in May, 1887; was admitted to the bar the same year and began practice in Antwerp, Ohio; moved to Paulding, Ohio, in 1890 and continued the practice of his profession; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-seventh and Fifty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1901-March 3, 1905); was not a candidate for renomination in 1904; resumed the practice of law in Paulding, Ohio; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1912 which nominated Wilson and Marshall; judge of the court of common pleas 1913-1915; elected to the Sixty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1917-March 3, 1919); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1918 to the Sixty-sixth Congress; again engaged in the practice of his profession, and is a resident of Paulding, Paulding County, Ohio.

SNOVER, Horace Greeley, a Representative from Michigan; born in Romeo, Macomb County, Mich., September 21, 1847; attended the public schools and Dickenson Institute at Romeo; was graduated from the academic department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1869 and from the law department in 1871; was admitted to the bar in the latter year and practiced in Wichita, Kans., in 1871 and 1872; moved to Romeo, Mich., in 1873 and to Port Austin, Huron County, Mich., in 1874 and continued the practice of law; also engaged in banking; principal of the public schools of Port Austin for two years; probate judge of Huron County from January 1, 1881, to January 1, 1885; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1899); was not a candidate for renomination in 1898; after leaving Congress retired from active business pursuits and moved to Port Huron, Mich.; died in Port Huron July 21, 1924; interment in Lakeside Cemetery.

SNOW, Herman Wilber, a Representative from Illinois; born in Michigan City, La Porte County, Ind., July 8, 1880; moved with his parents to Madisonville, Ky.; attended the public schools; moved to Sheldon, Iroquois County, Ill.; taught school several years; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in the One hundred and thirty-ninth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry; served in Illinois, Missouri, and Kentucky and rose to the rank of captain; after expiration of his first enlistment reenlisted in the One hundred and fifty-first Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry and was promoted to the rank of Lieutenant colonel; provost marshal general of Georgia on Major General Steedman's staff; with his regiment when Brigadier General Wofford surrendered 10,400 Confederate troops to Steedman at Kingston, Ga.; at the expiration of his service taught in the Chicago High School for three years; returned to Sheldon and engaged in banking; member of the State house of representatives 1872-1874; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1893); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress; Sergeant at Arms of the National House of Representatives during the Fifty-third Congress; moved to Kankakee, Kankakee County, Ill., and resumed banking; died in Kankakee, Ill., August 25, 1914; interment in Mound Grove Cemetery.

SNOW, William W., a Representative from New York; born in Heath, Franklin County, Mass., on April 27, 1812; attended the public schools; moved to Oneonta, N. Y., in 1831; merchant and also engaged extensively in agricultural pursuits; inspector of common schools; supervisor of Oneonta; member of the State assembly in 1844; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); again a member of the State assembly in 1870; again supervisor of the town of Oneonta in 1875; member of the village board of trustees; died in Oneonta, Otsego County, N. Y., September 2, 1886; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

SNYDER, Adam Wilson, a Representative from Illinois; born in Connelleville, Fayette County, Pa., October 6, 1799; attended the common schools; moved to Cahokia, Ill., in 1817; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1820, and commenced practice in Cahokia; appointed prosecuting attorney for the first judicial district in 1822; resigned in 1823; engaged in agricultural pursuits 1824-1832; member of the State senate in 1830; reelected in 1832; served as a captain throughout the Black Hawk War; moved to Belleville, Ill., in 1833; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1834 to the Twenty-fourth Congress; elected as a Van Buren Democrat to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1839); was not a candidate for renomination in 1838; elected to the State senate in 1840, and resigned in 1841; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Van Buren and Johnson in 1840; nominated as the candidate for Governor of Illinois, but died before the election; died in Belleville, St. Clair County, Ill., May 14, 1842; interment in Harrison Cemetery; reinterment in Green Mount Cemetery, near Belleville, Ill.

SNYDER, Charles Phillip, a Representative from West Virginia; born in Charleston, Kanawha County, Va. (now West Virginia), June 9, 1847; pursued an academic course; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; prosecuting attorney of Kanawha County, W. Va., 1876-1884; was elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John E. Kenna; reelected to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses, and served from May 15, 1883, to March 3, 1889; judge of the criminal court of Kanawha County 1890-1896; United States consul to Ciudad Porfirio Diaz, Mexico, 1897-1901; retired from all activities; died in Vineland, Cumberland County, N. J., August 21, 1915; interment in Spring Hill Cemetery, Charleston, W. Va.

SNYDER, Homer Peter, a Representative from New York; born in Amsterdam, Amsterdam County, N. Y., December 6, 1863; attended the common schools; was employed in various capacities in knitting mills; engaged in the manufacture of knitting machinery and later of bicycles and other wheeled vehicles; director and vice president of the Little Falls National Bank; served one term as school commissioner in 1895 and two terms as fire and police commissioner of Little Falls in 1910 and 1911; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1912 to the Sixty-third Congress; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1925); was not a candidate for reelection in 1924; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1916 and 1920; resumed his former manufacturing pursuits, and is a resident of Little Falls, N. Y.

SNYDER, John, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Sellingsrove, Snyder County, Pa., January 29, 1793; attended the rural schools; served in the War of 1812 as captain of Sellingsrove Rifle Volunteers, Pennsylvania Militia; connected with the Snyder Spring Oil Co. and paper mills; elected to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Twenty-eighth Congress; resumed his former business pursuits; died in Sellingsrove, Snyder County, Pa., on August 15, 1850; interment in the New Lutheran Cemetery.

SNYDER, Oliver P., a Representative from Arkansas; born in Missouri on November 13, 1833; completed preparatory studies; moved to Arkansas in 1853; engaged in scientific and literary pursuits and at the same time studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in Pine Bluff; member of the State house of representatives in 1864 and 1865; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1867; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Grant and Colfax in 1868; served in the State senate 1868-1871; member of the committee to revise and rearrange the statutes of Arkansas in 1868; elected as a Republican to the Forty-second and Forty-third Congresses (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed the practice of his profession; elected treasurer of Jefferson County in 1882 and served until his death in Pine Bluff, Jefferson County, Ark., November 22, 1882; interment in Bellewood Cemetery.

SOLLERS, Augustus Rhodes, a Representative from Maryland; born near Prince Frederick, Calvert County, Md., May 1, 1814; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1836, and commenced practice in Prince Frederick; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); resumed the practice of law; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1851; elected to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Buchanan and Breckinridge in 1856; resumed the practice of law at Prince Frederick, and died near there November 23, 1862; interment in St. Paul's Churchyard, near Prince Frederick, Calvert County, Md.

SOMERS, Andrew Lawrence, a Representative from New York; born in Brooklyn, N. Y., March 21, 1885; attended St. Teresa's Academy in Brooklyn, Brooklyn College Preparatory School, Manhattan College, and New York University in New York City; engaged in dry color and chemical business; during the World War enlisted on July 18, 1917, as a hospital apprentice, second class, United States Naval Reserve Force; subsequently served as ensign in the Naval Reserve Flying Corps and was then appointed a naval aviator on September 17, 1918; proceeded to foreign service on September 30, 1918, and served until March 4, 1919, when honorably discharged; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927). Relected to the Seventieth Congress.

SOMERS, Peter J., a Representative from Wisconsin; born at Menominee Falls, Waukesha County, Wis., April 12, 1850; attended the common schools, the Whitewater Normal School, and the Waukesha Academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1874, and commenced practice in Milwaukee, Wis.; attorney of the city of Milwaukee 1882-1884; elected to the common council in 1890, and upon its organization became its president; a member of the board of trustees of the public library; mayor of Milwaukee 1890-1893; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John L. Mitchell, and served from August 27, 1893, to March 3, 1895; was not a candidate for renomination in 1894; resumed the practice of law in Milwaukee; moved to Reno, Nev., in 1905 and continued the practice of law; chairman of the State Democratic central committee from 1907 to 1909; appointed district judge of Esmeralda County in 1908, and elected in 1910 for the term ending January 1, 1914; again engaged in the practice of law; died in Los Angeles, Calif., February 15, 1924; interment in Calvary Cemetery.

SOMES, Daniel Eton, a Representative from Maine; born in Meredith (now Laconia), N. H., May 20, 1815; received an academic education; moved to Biddeford, Me., in 1846; established the Eastern Journal, now the Union and Journal; engaged in the manufacture of loom harnesses, reed twine, and varnishes; mayor of Biddeford 1855-1857; president of the City Bank of Biddeford 1856-1858; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1861); member of the peace convention of 1861 held in Washington, D. C., in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; engaged in the practice of patent law in Washington, D. C., until his death in that city on February 18, 1888; interment in Rock Creek Cemetery.

SORG, Paul John, a Representative from Ohio; born in Wheeling, Va. (now West Virginia), on September 23, 1840; attended the common schools; moved with his parents to Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1852; was apprenticed to the molder's trade; attended night school in Cincinnati; engaged in the tobacco manufacturing industry in 1864; served in the Union Army during the Civil War; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of George W. Houk; reelected to the Fifty-fourth Congress, and served from May 21, 1894, to March 3, 1897; was not a candidate for renomination in 1896; toured Europe in 1897, and spent some time at Carlsbad, Germany, where his health was much improved; returned to Middletown, Ohio, and resumed his former business activities; died in Middletown, Butler County, Ohio, May 28, 1902; interment in Woodside Cemetery.

SOSNOWSKI, John Bartholomew, a Representative from Michigan; born in Detroit, Mich., December 8, 1883; attended the parochial and Army schools; during the Spanish-American War enlisted as a private in the Seventh Regiment United States Cavalry and served in Cuba and the Philippine Islands; after the close of the war continued in the service and was on detached duty at the United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y.; was honorably discharged on December 23, 1906; returned to Detroit, Mich., and engaged in the real-estate and brokerage business; captain and adjutant in the Thirty-first Regiment Infantry, National Guard of Michigan, from 1909 to 1916, with service on the Mexican border in 1916; member and chairman of the board of water commissioners of the city of Detroit 1917-1923; Federal appeal agent at Detroit of the United States selective service during the World War; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in the Republican primary election in 1926; resumed the real-estate and brokerage business in Detroit, Mich.

SOULE, Nathan, a Representative from New York; born in that State; resided at Fort Plain; completed preparatory studies; elected to the Twenty-second Congress (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1833); member of the State assembly in 1837.

SOULÉ, Pierre, a Senator from Louisiana; born in Castillon, near Bordeaux, France, on August 28, 1801; attended the Jesuit College at Toulouse and later an academy in Bordeaux until fifteen years of age; worked as a shepherd boy in the Pyrenees for a year; taught school; went to Paris, France, and engaged in journalism; imprisoned for publishing revolutionary articles in 1825, but escaped to England; went to Haiti in 1826, and thence to the United States, settling first in Baltimore, Md.; he later went to New Orleans, then to Tennessee, and finally settled in Kentucky, where he worked as a gardener and learned English; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in New Orleans, La.; member of the State senate in 1845; elected as a State Rights Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Alexander Barrow, and served from January 21 to March 3, 1847; again elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 3, 1849, to April 11, 1853, when he resigned; minister to Spain from 1853 until his resignation in 1855; author of the Ostend Manifesto in 1854, outlining the attitude the United States should take in regard to Cuba; resumed the practice of law in New Orleans, La.; was opposed to secession, but abided by the action of his State; when New Orleans was captured he was arrested and imprisoned in Fort Lafayette for several months; later served on the staff of General Beauregard during the defense of Charleston, and was made brigadier general for special service; moved to Habana, Cuba, but subsequently returned to New Orleans, La., and died there March 26, 1870; interment in St. Louis Cemetery No. 2.

SOUTHALL, Robert Goode, a Representative from Virginia; born at Amelia Court House, Amelia County, Va., December 28, 1852; attended the Washington Academy and High School of Amelia County; deputy clerk of Nottaway County in 1873 and 1874; was graduated from the law department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1876; was admitted to the bar in 1877 and commenced practice at Amelia Court House; was prosecuting attorney for Amelia County, Va., 1884-1902; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1888 and at Chicago in 1896; member of the State house of delegates 1899-1904; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1908-March 3, 1907); resumed the practice of law in Amelia County, Va.; judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit Court of Virginia from January, 1912, until his death in Baltimore, Md., May 25, 1924; interment in Amelia Cemetery, Amelia Court House, Va.

SOUTHARD, Henry (father of Isaac Southard and Samuel Lewis Southard), a Representative from New Jersey; born in Hempstead, Long Island, N. Y., October 7, 1747; moved with his parents to Basking Ridge, N. J., in 1755; attended the common schools and worked on a farm; served as a private and later as wagon master during the Revolutionary War; engaged in agricultural pursuits; justice of the peace 1787-1792; member of the State general assembly 1797-1799 and in 1811; elected as a Democrat to the Seventh and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1801-March 3, 1811); elected to the Fourteenth, Fifteenth, and Sixteenth Congresses (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1821); retired from public life and resumed farming; died in Basking Ridge, Somerset County, N. J., May 22, 1842; interment in the Basking Ridge Cemetery.

SOUTHARD, Isaac (son of Henry Southard and brother of Samuel Lewis Southard), a Representative from New Jersey; born in Basking Ridge, Somerset County, N. J., August 30, 1783; completed preparatory studies; county clerk of Somerset County, N. J., 1820-1824; elected as a Clay Democrat to the Twenty-second Congress (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1833); colonel in the New Jersey State Militia; State treasurer of New Jersey 1837-1843; died in Somerville, N. J., September 18, 1850; interment in the Old Cemetery.

SOUTHARD, James Harding, a Representative from Ohio; born near Toledo, Washington Township, Lucas County, Ohio, January 20, 1851; attended the public schools and was graduated from Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., in 1874; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1877, and commenced practice in Toledo, Ohio; appointed assistant prosecuting attorney of Lucas County in 1882; twice elected prosecuting attorney of the county, and served in that office six years; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1907); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1906 to the Sixtieth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Toledo, Ohio, and died there February 20, 1919; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

SOUTHARD, Milton Isaiah, a Representative from Ohio; born in Hanover, Licking County, Ohio, October 20, 1836; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from the Denison University, Granville, Ohio; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1863, and commenced the practice of his profession in Toledo, Ohio; prosecuting attorney for Muskingum County, Ohio from 1867 to 1871; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third, Forty-fourth, and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1879); moved to New York City and practiced law; died in Zanesville, Muskingum County, Ohio, May 4, 1905; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

SOUTHARD, Samuel Lewis (son of Henry Southard and brother of Isaac Southard), a Senator from New Jersey; born in Basking Ridge, Somerset County, N. J., on June 8, 1787; attended the village school; was graduated from the College of New Jersey (now Princeton College) in 1804; engaged as tutor in a private family near Fredericksburg, Va., in 1805; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in Virginia in 1809; returned to New Jersey and commenced practice in Flemington in 1811; appointed law reporter of the supreme court by the State legislature in 1814; member of the State general assembly from October 14 to October 31, 1815, when he resigned, having been appointed to the State supreme court bench; associate justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey 1815-1820; moved to Trenton, N. J.; recorder of Trenton in 1818; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Monroe and Tompkins in 1820; appointed and subsequently elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James J. Wilson, and served from January 26, 1821, to March 3, 1823, when he resigned, having been tendered a Cabinet portfolio by President Monroe; it is a remarkable circumstance that Senator Southard and his father, Representative Henry Southard, should both be Members of the Sixteenth Congress, and more especially for both to be members of the joint committee of the two Houses which reported the famous Missouri compromise measure; Secretary of the Navy from September 6, 1823, to March 3, 1829; Secretary of War ad interim in 1824; Secretary of the Treasury ad interim from March 7 to July 1, 1825; attorney general of New Jersey 1829-1833; elected Governor of New Jersey October 26, 1832, and served until February 23, 1833, when he resigned to become Senator; elected as a Whig to the United States Senate in 1833; re-elected in 1839, and served from March 4, 1833, until his death; was President pro tempore of the Senate from March 4, 1841, to May 31, 1842, when he resigned from this office; died in Fredericksburg, Va., June 26, 1842; interment in the Congressional Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

SOUTHGATE, William Wright, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Newport, Campbell County, Ky., November 27, 1800; educated in private schools and by private tutors; was graduated from Transylvania College, Lexington, Ky.; moved to Covington, Kenton County, Ky.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1821, and commenced practice in Lexington, Ky.; prosecuting attorney 1825-1827; member of the State house of representatives in 1827, 1832, and 1836; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1839); resumed the practice of law; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Harrison and Tyler in 1840 and of Clay and Frelinghuysen in 1844; died in Covington, Ky., December 26, 1849; interment in Linden Grove Cemetery.

SOUTHWICK, George Newell, a Representative from New York; born in Albany, N. Y., on March 7, 1803; attended private and public schools; was graduated from the Albany High School in 1819 and from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., in 1824; attended the Albany Law School; early in 1825 entered the service of the Albany Morning Express in both an editorial and a reportorial capacity; official reporter of the legislature for the Associated Press 1836-1838; in the last-mentioned year became managing editor of the Morning Express and early in 1839 of the Albany Evening Journal; chairman of the Republican State convention in 1893; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1899); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1898 to the Fifty-sixth Congress; elected to the Fifty-seventh and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1901-March 3, 1911); was not a candidate for renomination in 1910; died in Albany, Albany County, N. Y., October 17, 1912; interment in Albany Rural Cemetery.

SOWDEN, William Henry, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Liskeard, England, June 6, 1840; emigrated to the United States in 1846 with his father, who settled in Philadelphia; later went to live with friends in Allentown, Pa.; attended the public schools and Allentown Academy; served in the Civil War as corporal in Company D, One hundred and twenty-eighth Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, and served from August 13, 1862, to May 10, 1863; was wounded in the Battle of Antietam; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1864, and after graduation from Harvard Law School in 1865 commenced practice in Allentown, Pa.; served as solicitor of Lehigh County in 1868; district attorney in 1872-1874; unsuccessful candidate for lieutenant governor in 1874; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1884; city solicitor of Allentown in 1886; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1889); was not a candidate for reelection in 1888; resumed the practice of law; city solicitor of Allentown 1900-1902; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Kansas City, Mo., in 1900; unsuccessful Republican candidate to the Fifty-ninth Congress in 1904; elected solicitor of Lehigh County in 1906; died in Allentown, Lehigh County, Pa., March 3, 1907; interment in Union Cemetery.

SPAIGHT, Richard Dobbs (grandfather of Richard Spaight Donnell); a Delegate and a Representative from North Carolina; born in New Bern, N. C., on March 25, 1758; received his early schooling in Ireland and attended the University of Glasgow in Scotland; returned home in 1778 and joined the Continental Army as aide-de-camp to General Caswell; member of the State house of commons 1781-1783; Member of the Continental Congress 1782-1785; delegate to the Federal Constitutional Convention at Philadelphia in 1787 and to the State constitutional convention in 1788; Governor of North Carolina in 1792-1795; elected as a Democrat to the Fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Nathan Bryan; was reelected to the Sixth Congress, and served from December 10, 1798, to March 3, 1801; member of the State senate in 1801 and 1802; was wounded in a duel with John Stanley, his successor in Congress, from the effects of which he died on September 6, 1802, in New Bern, N. C.; interment in the family sepulcher at "Olermont," near New Bern, Craven County, N. C.

SPAIGHT, Richard Dobbs, jr. (son of the preceding), a Representative from North Carolina; born in New Bern, N. C., in 1796; attended the New Bern Academy, and was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1815; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1818, and commenced practice in New Bern; member of the State house of commons 1819-1822; elected as a Democrat to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1825); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1824 to the Nineteenth Congress; member of the State senate in 1825 and 1826; Governor of North Carolina 1835-1837; delegate to the Democratic State convention in 1835; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in New Bern, Craven County, N. C., May 2, 1850; interment in the family sepulcher at "Olermont," near New Bern, N. C.

SPALDING, Burleigh Folsom, a Representative from North Dakota; born in Craftsbury, Orleans County, Vt., December 3, 1853; attended the Lyndon Literary Institute, Lyndon, Vt., and was graduated from Norwich University, Northfield, Vt., in 1877; studied law in Montpelier, Vt., was admitted to the bar in March, 1880, and commenced the practice of his profession in Fargo, Dak. (now North Dakota); superintendent of public instruction of Cass County, Dak., from 1882 to 1884; member of the commission to relocate the capital of the Territory of Dakota and build the capitol in 1883; member of the North Dakota constitutional convention in 1889; member of the joint commission provided by the enabling act to divide the property and archives of the Territory of Dakota between the States of North Dakota and South Dakota; chairman of the Republican State central committee of North Dakota 1892-1894 and of the Cass County Republican committee in 1886-1888; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1901); tendered renomination in 1900 but declined to accept; elected to the Fifty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1905); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1904; was appointed associate justice of the Supreme Court of North Dakota in 1907; elected in 1908 and served until 1915; chief justice of the State supreme court 1911-1915; resumed the practice of law in Fargo, N. Dak., in 1915; delegate to nearly all Republican Territorial and State conventions since 1888; delegate at large and chairman of the delegation to the Republican National Convention at Cleveland in 1924; engaged in the practice of his profession in Fargo, Cass County, N. Dak., and is a resident of that city.

SPALDING, George, a Representative from Michigan; born in Blairgowrie, Perthshire, Scotland, on November 12, 1836; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Buffalo, N. Y., in 1843; attended the public schools; accompanied his parents to Monroe, Monroe County, Mich.; taught school in 1860 and 1861; during the Civil War entered the United States Army June 20, 1861, as a private in Company A, Fourth Regiment Michigan Volunteer Infantry, and was subsequently promoted to sergeant; first Lieutenant August 5, 1861; captain January 13, 1862; Lieutenant colonel of the Eighteenth Michigan Infantry July 18, 1862; colonel Twelfth Tennessee Cavalry February 24, 1864; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers March 21, 1865, "for valuable services during the campaign in Tennessee"; mustered out of the service October 24, 1865; appointed postmaster of Monroe, Mich., July 27, 1866, and served until December 15, 1870; special agent of the Treasury Department 1871-1875; mayor of Monroe, Mich., in 1876; president of the board of education; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1878; was a member of the board of control of the State Industrial Home for Girls 1885-1897; was elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1899); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1898; again appointed postmaster of Monroe, Mich., on February 20, 1899, and served until February 13, 1907; resumed the practice of law and also engaged in agricultural pursuits; president of the First National Bank of Monroe, Mich., until his death there September 13, 1915; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

SPALDING, Rufus Paine, a Representative from Ohio; born in West Tisbury, Mass., May 3, 1798; was graduated from Yale College in 1817; studied law and was admitted to the bar; moved to Little Rock, Ark., in 1820 and began practice; moved to Warren, Ohio, in 1821 and practiced his profession until 1835, when he moved to Ravenna, Ohio, and continued the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives 1839-1842, and served one term as speaker; associate judge of the Supreme Court of Ohio 1849-1852; resumed the practice of law in Cleveland, Ohio; elected as a War Democrat to the Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, and Fortieth Congresses (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1869); was not a candidate for renomination in 1868; again engaged in the practice of his profession; died in Cleveland, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, August 29, 1886; interment in Lake View Cemetery.

SPALDING, Thomas, a Representative from Georgia; born in Frederica, St. Simons Island, Glynn County, Ga., March 26, 1774; attended the common schools of Georgia and Florida and a private school in Massachusetts; studied law, and was admitted to the bar about 1790, but did not practice; engaged extensively in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives in 1794; member of the State constitutional convention in 1798; moved to McIntosh County, Ga., in 1803; served in the State senate; successfully contested the election of Cowles Mead to the Ninth Congress, and served from December 24, 1805, until his resignation in 1806; trustee of the McIntosh County Academy in 1807; one of the founders of the Bank of Darien and of the branch in Milledgeville, Ga., and president for many years; engaged in the planting of sea-island cotton, residing on Sapelo Island, Ga.; introduced the culture of cane and the process of making sugar into Georgia; experimented in silk culture and vineyards with imported vines; commissioner on the part of the State of Georgia to determine the boundary line between Georgia and the Territory of Florida in 1826; commissioner from the Federal Government to Bermuda to negotiate relative to property taken or destroyed in the South by the British in the War of 1812; president of the convention at Milledgeville, Ga., in 1850 which resolved that the State of Georgia would resist any act of Congress abolishing slavery and died, while en route home, at the residence of his son, near Darien, Ga., January 5, 1851; interment in St. Andrew's Cemetery.

SPANGLER, David, a Representative from Ohio; born in Sharpsburg, Washington County, Md., on December 2, 1796; moved with his parents to Zanesville, Ohio, in 1802; attended the public schools; worked at the blacksmith's trade; engaged in mercantile pursuits; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1824, and commenced practice in Zanesville; unsuccessful candidate for election to the State house of representatives in 1830; moved to Coshocton, Ohio, in 1832 and continued the practice of law; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1837); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1836 and for the nomination for Governor of Ohio in 1844; died in Coshocton, Coshocton County, Ohio, October 18, 1856; interment in Oak Ridge Cemetery; reinterment in South Lawn Cemetery.

SPANGLER, Jacob, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in York, Pa., on November 28, 1767; attended the York County Academy; engaged in surveying; served as a trumpeter in Captain McClellan's light horse company of York in 1799; county commissioner in 1800; postmaster of York 1795-1812; deputy surveyor of York County 1790-1815; again county commissioner in 1814; elected as a Federalist to the Fifteenth Congress, and served from March 4, 1817, until his resignation on April 20, 1818; surveyor general of Pennsylvania 1818-1821; commander of the State militia, with title of general; chief escort of General Lafayette from York to Harrisburg on his visit to the United States in 1825; clerk of York County court until 1830; again surveyor general of Pennsylvania from 1830 to 1836; died in York, York County, Pa., June 17, 1848; interment in Prospect Hill Cemetery.

SPARKMAN, Stephen Milantchon, a Representative from Florida; born in Hernando County, Fla., on July 29, 1849; attended the common schools; taught school for three years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1872, and practiced; State's attorney for the sixth judicial circuit 1878-1887; declined the position of circuit judge for the sixth judicial circuit in 1888 and also the appointment of associate justice of the supreme court of the State in 1891; member of the State and congressional committees from 1890 to 1892, when he was elected chairman; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1892; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fourth and to the ten succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1917); resumed the practice of law in Tampa, Fla.; president of the board of port commissioners until 1920, when the position was abolished; is a resident of Tampa, Fla.

SPARKS, William Andrew Jackson, a Representative from Illinois; born near New Albany, Ind., November 19, 1828; moved with his parents to Illinois in 1836; attended the public schools; taught school, and was graduated from McKendree College, Lebanon, Ill., in 1850; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1851, and commenced practice in Carlyle, Ill.; United States land receiver for the Edwardsville (Ill.) land office 1853-1856; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Buchanan and Breckinridge in 1856; member of the State house of representatives in 1856 and 1857; served in the State senate in 1863 and 1864; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York City in 1888; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1883); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1882; resumed the practice of law; appointed by President Cleveland Commissioner of the United States General Land Office and served from March 26, 1885, to March 26, 1888; again engaged in the practice of his profession at Carlyle and Springfield, Ill.; died in St. Louis, Mo., May 7, 1904; interment in St. Mary's Catholic Cemetery, Carlyle, Clinton County, Ill.

SPAULDING, Elbridge Gerry, a Representative from New York; born in Summer Hill, Cayuga County, N. Y., February 24, 1809; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1830, and commenced practice in Batavia, Genesee County, N. Y.; moved to Buffalo, N. Y., in 1834; mayor of Buffalo in 1847; member of the State assembly in 1848; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-first Congress (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1851); was not a candidate for renomination in 1850; treasurer of the State of New York in 1854 and 1855; elected as a Union candidate to the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1863); was not a candidate for renomination in 1862; organized the Farmers & Mechanics' National Bank in Buffalo in 1864; died in Buffalo, N. Y., May 6, 1897; interment in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

SPAULDING, Oliver Lyman, a Representative from Michigan; born in Jaffrey, Cheshire County, N. H., August 2, 1833; completed preparatory studies, and was graduated from Oberlin College, Ohio, in 1855; moved to Michigan and taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1858, and commenced practice in St. Johns, Mich.; regent of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor 1858-1864; during the Civil War served in the Union Army; commissioned a captain in the Twenty-third Regiment Michigan Volunteers August 1, 1862; major February 13, 1863; lieutenant colonel April 6, 1863; colonel April 16, 1864; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers June 25, 1865, "for faithful and meritorious services during the war"; honorably mustered out June 28, 1865; resumed the practice of law in St. Johns, Mich.; secretary of state of Michigan 1866-1870; member of the Republican State committee 1871-1878; declined the position of United States district judge of the Territory of Utah in 1871; special agent of the United States Treasury Department 1875-1881; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1883); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1882 to the Forty-eighth Congress; chairman of the commission sent to the Sandwich Islands to investigate alleged violations of the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty in 1883; again a special agent of the United States Treasury in 1885, 1889, and 1890; Assistant Secretary of the Treasury 1890-1893 and 1897-1903; president of the first International American Customs Congress, held in New York City in January, 1903; again a special agent of the United States Treasury 1903-1909; customs agent 1909-1916; died in Washington, D. C., July 30, 1922; interment in Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va.

SPEAKS, John Charles, a Representative from Ohio; born in Canal Winchester, Franklin County, Ohio, February 11, 1859; attended the public schools; engaged in milling and the lumber business; fish, game, and conservation officer of Ohio 1907-1918; member of the National Guard of Ohio for more than forty years, advancing from private to brigadier general; during the Spanish-American War served as major of the Fourth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry, participating in the Porto Rican campaign; commanded the Second Brigade of the Ohio National Guard on the Mexican border in 1916; during the World War commanded the Seventy-third Brigade, Thirty-seventh Division, from the call of troops until March 1, 1918; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SPEARING, James Zacharie, a Representative from Louisiana; born in Alto, Cherokee County, Tex., April 23, 1864; moved with his parents to New Orleans, La., in 1866; attended the public schools; left school and went to work in 1877; was graduated from the law department of Tulane University, New Orleans, La., in 1886; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in New Orleans; member of the Orleans Parish school board 1908-1912; member of the State board of education 1912-1916; again a member of the Orleans Parish school board 1916-1920, serving as president of that body in 1919 and 1920; alternate delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1912; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of H. Garland Dupré; reelected to the Sixty-ninth Congress, and served from April 22, 1924, to March 3, 1927. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SPEED, Thomas, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Charlotte County, Va., October 25, 1768; taught by his father; moved with his parents to Kentucky in 1782; employed in the office of the clerk of the general court; engaged in mercantile pursuits at Danville and Bardstown in 1790; also engaged in agricultural pursuits; clerk of the Bullitt and Nelson circuit courts; served as major of Volunteers in the War of 1812; elected to the Fifteenth Congress (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1819); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; resumed agricultural pursuits; contributed articles to the National Intelligencer, Washington, D. C.; member of the State house of representatives in 1821, 1822, and again in 1840; was a member of the Whig Party when it was organized; died on his farm, near Bardstown, Nelson County, Ky., February 20, 1842; interment on his farm, "Cottage Grove," near Bardstown, Ky.

SPEER, Emory, a Representative from Georgia; born in Culloden, Monroe County, Ga., September 3, 1848; pursued classical studies, and was graduated from the University of Georgia at Athens in 1869; entered the Confederate Army at the age of sixteen as a volunteer in the Fifth Kentucky Regiment, Lewis brigade, and remained with that command throughout the Civil War; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1869, and commenced practice in Athens, Ga.; solicitor general of Georgia 1873-1876; unsuccessful candidate for election to the Forty-fifth Congress to fill the unexpired term of Benjamin H. Hill; elected as an Independent Democrat to the Forty-sixth and as an Independent to the Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1883); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1882; United States attorney for the northern district of Georgia 1883-1885; district judge of the southern Federal judicial district of Georgia 1885-1918; dean of Mercer University Law School 1893-1918; died in Macon, Ga., December 18, 1918; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

SPEER, Peter Moore, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Oil City, Venango County, Pa., on December 29, 1832; attended the country schools, Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., and the Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa.; was graduated from Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pa., in 1887; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1889, and commenced practice in Oil City, Venango County, Pa.; was district attorney of Venango County 1891-1893; was city solicitor of Oil City 1895-1906; member of the State house of representatives in 1897 and 1898; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second Congress (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; resumed the practice of law in Oil City, Pa., and in New York City, where he moved in 1918; assistant general counsel for the Standard Oil Co.; general counsel and member of the board of directors of the same company since 1922; is a resident of New York City.

SPEER, Robert Milton, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Cassville, Huntingdon County, Pa., September 8, 1838; attended Cassville Academy; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1859, and commenced practice in Huntingdon, Pa.; elected assistant clerk of the State house of representatives in 1863; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-second and Forty-third Congresses (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1872 and at Cincinnati in 1880; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1880 to the Forty-seventh Congress; resumed the practice of his profession, and in 1876 became one of the proprietors of the Huntingdon Monitor; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Thurman in 1888; died in New York City January 17, 1890; interment in Riverview Cemetery, Huntingdon, Huntingdon County, Pa.

SPEER, Thomas Jefferson, a Representative from Georgia; born in Monroe County, Ga., on August 31, 1837; attended the common schools; engaged in mercantile pursuits and held several offices under the Confederacy; delegate to the State constitutional convention 1867-68; member of the State senate 1868-1870; elected as a Republican to the Forty-second Congress, and served from March 4, 1871, until his death in Barnesville, Lamar County, Ga., August 18, 1872.

SPEIGHT, Jesse, a Representative from North Carolina and a Senator from Mississippi; born in Greene County, N. C., September 22, 1795; attended the country schools; member of the State house of commons in 1820 and served as speaker; member of the State senate 1823-1827; elected from North Carolina to the Twenty-first and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1829-March 3, 1837); was not a candidate for renomination; moved to Plymouth, Miss.; member of the State senate 1841-1844 and served as president; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate from Mississippi, and served from March 4, 1845, until his death in Columbus, Miss., May 1, 1847; interment in Friendship Cemetery.

SPENCE, John Selby (uncle of Thomas Ara Spence), a Representative and a Senator from Maryland; born near Snow Hill, Worcester County, Md., February 29, 1788; attended the common schools; was graduated from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1809 and practiced in Worcester County, Md.; was a member of the State house of delegates; served in the State senate; elected as a Democrat to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1825); elected to the Twenty-second Congress (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1833); elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Robert H.

Goldsborough; reelected in 1837, and served from December 31, 1836, until his death near Berlin, Worcester County, Md., October 24, 1840; interment in the Episcopal Churchyard.

SPENCE, Thomas Ara (nephew of John Selby Spence), a Representative from Maryland; born near Accomac Court House, Accomac County, Va., on February 20, 1810; pursued academic studies and attended a local academy; was graduated from Yale College in 1829; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice at Snow Hill, Md.; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1845); was not a candidate for renomination; later affiliated with the Republican Party; owned large iron-ore properties in Worcester County; judge for Worcester County and the twelfth judicial circuit 1857-1867; practiced his profession in Salisbury, Wicomico County, Md.; assistant attorney general for the Post Office Department 1872-1877; died in Washington, D. C., November 10, 1877; interment in Makamie Memorial Church Cemetery, Snow Hill, Worcester County, Md.

SPENCER, Ambrose (father of John Canfield Spencer), a Representative from New York; born in Salisbury, Litchfield County, Conn., on December 13, 1765; attended Yale College, and was graduated from Harvard University in 1783; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Hudson, Columbia County, N. Y.; city clerk 1786-1793; member of the State assembly 1793-1795; served in the State senate 1795-1804; assistant attorney general in 1796; attorney general of New York 1802-1804; presidential elector in 1808; justice of the State supreme court 1804-1810 and chief justice 1819-1823; resumed the practice of law in Albany, N. Y.; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-first Congress (March 4, 1829-March 3, 1831); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1830 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against James H. Peck, United States judge for the district of Missouri; mayor of Albany 1824-1826; moved to Lyons, N. Y., in 1839 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; president of the Whig National Convention at Baltimore in 1844; died in Lyons, N. Y., March 13, 1848; interment in Lyons Rural Cemetery.

SPENCER, Elijah, a Representative from New York; born in Columbia County, N. Y., in 1775; received a limited education; moved to Jerusalem (now Benton), N. Y., in 1791 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; supervisor of the town of Benton 1810-1819; member of the State assembly in 1819; elected as a Democrat to the Seventeenth Congress (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1823); again supervisor of Benton 1826-1828; member of the State constitutional convention in 1846; resumed agricultural pursuits; died in Benton, N. Y., December 15, 1852; interment in Lake View Cemetery, Penn Yan, N. Y.

SPENCER, George Eliphaz, a Senator from Alabama; born in Champion, Jefferson County, N. Y., on November 1, 1836; pursued classical studies; attended Montreal College, Canada; moved to Iowa; secretary of the State senate in 1850; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1857, and practiced; during the Civil War entered the Union Army as a captain, and when he resigned from the service, July 4, 1865, was brevetted brigadier general for gallantry on the field; resumed the practice of law in Decatur, Ala.; appointed register in bankruptcy for the fourth district of Alabama in May, 1867; upon the readmission of Alabama to representation was elected as a Republican to the United States Senate; reelected in 1872, and served from July 13, 1868, to March 3, 1879; retired to his ranch in Nevada; died in Washington, D. C., February 19, 1893; interment in Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va.

SPENCER, James Bradley, a Representative from New York; born in Salisbury, Conn., on April 28, 1781; received a limited education; moved to Franklin County, N. Y., and settled in Fort Covington; raised a company for the War of 1812, and served as captain in the Twenty-ninth United States Infantry; appointed a local magistrate in 1814; surrogate of Franklin County 1826-1837; appointed loan commissioner in 1829; member of the State assembly in 1831 and 1832; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Jackson and Van Buren in 1832; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1839); died in Fort Covington, Franklin County, N. Y., March 26, 1848; interment probably in the Old Cemetery near Fort Covington.

SPENCER, James Grafton, a Representative from Mississippi; born near Port Gibson, Claiborne County, Miss., September 13, 1844; attended private schools and Oakland College in 1861; during the Civil War enlisted in the Confederate Army as a private in Cowan's battery of Light Artillery; served until the close of the Civil War in the Army of Mississippi and Tennessee; returned to his home and engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives 1892-1894; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); engaged in the real-estate and insurance business; died in Port Gibson, Miss., February 22, 1926; interment in Wintergreen Cemetery.

SPENCER, John Canfield (son of Ambrose Spencer), a Representative from New York; born in Hudson, N. Y., January 8, 1788; was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1806; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1809, and commenced practice in Canandaigua, N. Y.; served in the War of 1812; Judge Advocate General in 1813; postmaster of Canandaigua, N. Y.; assistant attorney general for western New York in 1815; elected as a Democrat to the Fifteenth Congress (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1819); was not a candidate for renomination in 1818; member of the State assembly in 1820 and 1821, and served one year as speaker; served in the State senate 1824-1828; special attorney general to prosecute the abductors of Morgan; again a member of the State assembly in 1831 and 1832; secretary of state of New York in 1839; appointed Secretary of War by President Tyler October 12, 1841, and served until March 3, 1843; Secretary of the Treasury March 3, 1843, to May 2, 1844, when he resigned; died in Albany, N. Y., May 18, 1855; interment in Albany Rural Cemetery.

SPENCER, Joseph, a Delegate from Connecticut; born in East Haddam, Conn., October 3, 1714; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; held several local offices; Judge of probate in 1753; served in the French war in 1758; member of the Connecticut Council in 1776; brigadier general in the Continental Army; commissioned major general August 9, 1776, and resigned June 14, 1778, because Congress had ordered an investigation of his military conduct in 1777; Member of the Continental Congress in 1778 and 1779; again a member of the Connecticut Council in 1780 and was annually reelected until his death in East Haddam, Conn., on January 13, 1789; interment in Millington Green Cemetery; reinterment in Nathan Hale Park in 1904.

SPENCER, Richard, a Representative from Maryland; born at "Spencer Hall," Talbot County, Md., October 29, 1796; attended the common schools; studied law in Baltimore and was admitted to the Talbot County bar in 1819; moved to his farm, "Solitude," near St. Michaels, Md., in 1822 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of delegates 1823-1825; engaged in literary pursuits and in 1828 he contributed to the establishment of the Eastern Shore Whig and controlled that paper until 1884; was elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-first Congress (March 4, 1829-March 3, 1831); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1830 to the Twenty-second Congress; again a member of the State house of delegates in 1833 and 1834 and unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1835; moved to Georgia in 1837 and engaged in cotton planting; moved to Alabama in 1852 and settled at "Cottage Hill," near Mobile, where he died on September 8, 1868; interment probably on his estate, "Cottage Hill."

SPENCER, Selden Palmer, a Senator from Missouri; born in Erie, Pa., September 16, 1862; attended the public schools of his native city and the Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven, Conn.; was graduated from Yale College in 1884 and from the Washington University Law School, St. Louis, Mo., in 1886; was admitted to the bar in the latter year and commenced practice in St. Louis; professor of medical jurisprudence in the Missouri Medical College at St. Louis in 1886; member of the State house of representatives in 1895 and 1896; judge of the circuit court of St. Louis 1897-1908; captain in the Missouri Home Guard and chairman of the draft board in 1917 and 1918; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William J. Stone; reelected in 1920, and served from November 6, 1918, until his death; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1920 and at Cleveland in 1924; died at Walter Reed Hospital, Washington, D. C., May 16, 1925; interment in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis, Mo.

SPENCER, William Brainerd, a Representative from Louisiana; born on "Home Plantation," in Catahoula County, La., February 5, 1835; received his early schooling under private tutors; was graduated from Centenary College, Jackson, La., in 1855 and from the law department of the University of Louisiana at New Orleans in 1857; was admitted to the bar in 1857 and commenced practice in Harrisonburg, La.; served in the Confederate Army, with the rank of captain, until 1863, when he was captured; remained a prisoner of war at Johnsons Island, Ohio, until the close of the Civil War; resumed the practice of law in Vidalia, La., in 1860; successfully contested as a Democrat the election of Frank Morey to the Forty-fourth Congress, and served from June 8, 1876, to January 8, 1877, when he resigned to accept a judicial appointment; appointed associate justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana January 9, 1877, which position he held until his resignation on April 3, 1880; again resumed the practice of law in New Orleans, La.; died in Jalapa, Mexico, February 12, 1882; interment in Magnolia Cemetery, Baton Rouge, La.

SPERRY, Lewis, a Representative from Connecticut; born at East Windsor Hill, town of South Windsor, Conn., January 23, 1848; attended the district school and Monson Academy, Monson, Mass.; was graduated from Amherst College, Amherst, Mass., in 1873; studied law, was admitted to the bar in March, 1875, and commenced practice in Hartford, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives in 1876; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1895); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Hartford, Conn.; died at East Windsor Hill, town of South Windsor, Hartford County, Conn., June 22, 1922; interment in South Windsor Cemetery.

SPERRY, Nehemiah Day, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Woodbridge, New Haven County, Conn., July 10, 1827; attended the common schools and a private school in

New Haven; engaged in agricultural pursuits and worked in a mill; taught school for several years; became a member of a building and contracting firm; member of the common council in 1853; alderman of the city in 1854; secretary of state of Connecticut in 1855 and 1856; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1856, at Baltimore in 1864, and at Chicago in 1868; chairman of the recruiting committee of New Haven during the Civil War; appointed on July 16, 1861, by President Lincoln postmaster of New Haven; reappointed and served until removed by President Cleveland on January 20, 1896; member of the executive committee and secretary both of the national and executive committees; chairman of the Republican State committee for a series of years; again postmaster at New Haven and served from January 9, 1890, until March 15, 1894; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and to the seven succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1911); was not a candidate for renomination in 1910; retired from active pursuits; died in New Haven, Conn., November 18, 1911; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

SPIGHT, Thomas, a Representative from Mississippi; born near Ripley, Tiptah County, Miss., October 25, 1841; attended the common schools, Ripley Academy, Purdy (Tenn.) College, and the La Grange (Tenn.) Synodical College; during the Civil War enlisted in the Confederate Army as a private in 1861; promoted to the rank of lieutenant the same year; in 1862 became captain of Company B, Thirty-fourth Regiment Mississippi Volunteer Infantry, and served until the close of the war; taught school and also engaged in agricultural pursuits; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1875, and commenced practice in Ripley, Tiptah County, Miss.; member of the State house of representatives 1874-1880; established the Southern Sentinel in 1879, retiring from the newspaper business five years later; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Hancock and English in 1880; prosecuting attorney of the third judicial district 1884-1892; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William V. Sullivan; reelected to the Fifty-sixth and to the five succeeding Congresses, and served from July 5, 1898, to March 3, 1911; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1910; resumed the practice of his profession and also engaged in religious work until his death in Ripley, Miss., January 6, 1924; interment in Ripley Cemetery.

SPINK, Cyrus, a Representative from Ohio; born in Berkshire County, Mass., March 24, 1793; moved to Stark County, Ohio, in 1815; taught school for several years in Kendall, Stark County, Ohio; appointed deputy surveyor of Wayne County in October, 1815, and served until December, 1816; county surveyor from 1816 to 1821, serving also for a time as district surveyor; county auditor in 1820 and 1821; member of the State house of representatives in 1821 and 1822; employed in the register's office at Wooster 1822-1824; appointed register by President Monroe in 1824; reappointed by President Adams in 1828 and served until 1832; engaged in mercantile pursuits in Wooster; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Clay and Frelinghuysen in 1844; member of the State board of equalization in 1848; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Baltimore in 1852; appointed by Governor Chase one of the directors of the Ohio Penitentiary in 1853; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth Congress, and served from March 4, 1859, until his death in Wooster, Wayne County, Ohio, May 31, 1859; interment in Wooster Cemetery.

SPINK, Solomon Lewis, a Delegate from the Territory of Dakota; born in Whitehall, Washington County, N. Y., March 26, 1831; completed preparatory studies and was graduated from Castleton Seminary, Vermont; taught school several years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1856, and commenced practice in Burlington, Iowa; moved to Paris, Ill., in 1860 and became the editor and publisher of the Prairie Beacon; member of the State house of representatives in 1864; moved to Yankton, Dak., in 1865, having been appointed by President Lincoln, the day before his assassination, as secretary of the Territory of North Dakota, in which position he served until 1869; was elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1870 to the Forty-second Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in Yankton, S. Dak.; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; died in Yankton, Yankton County, S. Dak., September 22, 1881; interment in the City Cemetery.

SPINNER, Francis Elias, a Representative from New York; born in Mohawk, German Flats, Herkimer County, N. Y., January 21, 1802; was educated by his father; served an apprenticeship at both harness making and candy making; engaged in mercantile pursuits in 1824; entered the State militia and was subsequently promoted to the rank of major general; appointed deputy sheriff in 1829; sheriff of Herkimer County 1834-1837; appointed one of the commissioners for the construction of the State lunatic asylum at Utica in 1838; engaged in banking as cashier and later president of the Mohawk Bank; State inspector of turnpikes; commissioner and supervisor of schools; appointed auditor and deputy naval officer in charge of the port of New York in 1845 and served four years; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fourth Congress and as a Republican to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1861); was not a candidate for renomination in 1860; was appointed by President Lincoln Treasurer of the United States and served from March 16, 1861, until his resignation on July 1, 1875; suggested and successfully urged the employment of women in the Treasury Department; withdrew from public life and spent his winters in Florida; died in Jacksonville, Fla., December 31, 1890; interment in the Mohawk Cemetery, Mohawk, N. Y.

SPINOLA, Francis Barretto, a Representative from New York; born at Stony Brook, Long Island, N. Y., March 19, 1821; attended Quaker Hill Academy in Dutchess County; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1844, and commenced the practice of his profession in Brooklyn, N. Y.; elected alderman of the second ward in Brooklyn in 1846 and 1847; reelected in 1849 and served for four years; member of the State assembly in 1855; served in the State senate 1858-1861; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Charleston in 1860; harbor commissioner; during the Civil War was appointed brigadier general of Volunteers October 2, 1862, "for meritorious conduct in recruiting and organizing a brigade of four regiments and accompanying them to the field"; honorably discharged from the service August, 1865, after having been twice wounded; alternate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1864; engaged in the insurance business and banking; elected as a Democrat to the Fiftieth, Fifty-first, and Fifty-second Congresses, and served from March 4, 1867, until his death in Washington, D. C., April 14, 1891; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

SPOONER, Henry Joshua, a Representative from Rhode Island; born in Providence, R. I., August 6, 1839; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1860; studied law; during the Civil War entered the Union Army in 1862 as second lieutenant in the Fourth Regiment Rhode Island Volunteer Infantry; served in the Armies of the Potomac and the James, mostly in the Ninth Army Corps; shortly after the Battle of Antietam was promoted to first lieutenant and adjutant of the same regiment; mustered out of the service in 1865; was admitted to the bar in 1865 and commenced practice in Providence, R. I.; commander of the department of Rhode Island, Grand Army of the Republic, in 1877; member of the State house of representatives 1875-1881, and served as speaker 1879-1881; was elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Nelson W. Aldrich; reelected to the Forty-eighth and to the three succeeding Congresses, and served from December 5, 1881, to March 3, 1891; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1890 to the Fifty-second Congress; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1902; resumed the practice of his profession in Providence, R. I., and died in that city February 9, 1918; interment in Swan Point Cemetery.

SPOONER, John Coit, a Senator from Wisconsin; born in Lawrenceburg, Dearborn County, Ind., January 6, 1843; moved to Wisconsin with his parents, who settled in Madison June 1, 1850; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the University of Wisconsin at Madison in 1864; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in Company D, Fortieth Regiment, and subsequently was captain of Company A, Fiftieth Regiment Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry; brevetted major at the close of the war; private and military secretary of Gov. Lucius Fairchild, of Wisconsin; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1867, and served as assistant attorney general of the State until 1870; moved to Hudson, Wis., and practiced law from 1870 to 1884; member of the State assembly in 1872; member of the board of regents of Wisconsin University; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1885, to March 3, 1891; was the caucus nominee of his party, who were in the minority, for reelection; chairman of the Wisconsin delegation to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1888 and at St. Louis in 1896; unsuccessful Republican candidate for Governor of Wisconsin in 1892; moved from Hudson to Madison in 1893; again elected to the United States Senate in 1897; reelected in 1903, and served from March 4, 1897, until his resignation, effective April 30, 1907; engaged in the practice of law in New York City; declined the position of Secretary of the Interior in the Cabinet of President McKinley in 1898; declined the appointment as a member of the United States and British Joint High Commission tendered by President McKinley in 1898; declined the portfolio of Attorney General of the United States in the Cabinet of President McKinley in 1901; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1904; declined the position of Secretary of State in the Cabinet of President Taft; died in New York City June 11, 1919; interment in Forest Hill Cemetery, Madison, Wis.

SPRAGUE, Charles Franklin (grandson of Peleg Sprague), a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Boston, Mass., June 10, 1857; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Harvard University in 1879; studied law at the Harvard Law School and the Boston University and was admitted to the bar in Boston; member of the Common Council of Boston in 1889 and 1890; member of the State house of representatives in 1891 and 1892; chairman of the board of park commissioners of the city of Boston in 1893 and 1894; served in the State senate in 1895 and 1896; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1901); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1900; died in Providence, R. I., January 30, 1902; interment in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Watertown, Mass.

SPRAGUE, Peleg, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Rochester, Mass., December 10, 1756; clerked in a store in Littleton, Mass.; attended Harvard College, and was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1788; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1785, and commenced practice in Winchendon, Mass.; moved to Keene, N. H., in 1787; selectman 1789-1791; county solicitor for Cheshire County in 1794; member of the State house of representatives in 1797; elected to the Fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Jeremiah Smith, and served from December 15, 1797, to March 3, 1799; declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1798; died in Keene, N. H., April 20, 1800; interment in the Washington Street Cemetery.

SPRAGUE, Peleg (grandfather of Charles Franklin Sprague), a Representative and a Senator from Maine; born in Duxbury, Mass., April 27, 1793; was graduated from Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass., in 1812; studied law at the Litchfield Law School, was admitted to the bar in 1815, and commenced practice in Augusta, Me.; moved to Hallowell, Kennebec County, Me., in 1817 and continued the practice of law; member of the Maine House of Representatives in 1821 and 1822; was one of the corporate members of the Maine Historical Society, founded in 1822; was elected to the Nineteenth, Twentieth, and Twenty-first Congresses, and served from March 4, 1825, until his resignation, effective March 3, 1829, at the close of the Twentieth Congress, having been elected Senator; elected as a National-Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1829, to January 1, 1835, when he resigned; resumed the practice of law in Boston, Mass., in 1840; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Harrison and Tyler in 1840; United States district judge of Massachusetts 1841-1865; died in Boston, Mass., October 13, 1880; interment in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Mass.

SPRAGUE, William, a Representative from Michigan; born in Providence, R. I., February 23, 1809; attended the public schools; moved to Michigan and settled in Kalamazoo; studied theology and was ordained as a minister; presiding elder of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Kalamazoo district, 1844-1848; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-first Congress (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1851); retired to his farm near Oshtemo, Kalamazoo County, Mich.; died in Kalamazoo, Mich., September 19, 1868; interment in Mountain Home Cemetery.

SPRAGUE, William, a Representative and a Senator from Rhode Island; born in Cranston, R. I., November 8, 1799; pursued classical studies; engaged in mercantile pursuits; member of the State house of representatives and served as speaker 1832-1835; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1835-March 3, 1837); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1836; Governor of Rhode Island in 1838 and 1839; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Nathan F. Dixon, and served from February 18, 1842, to January 17, 1844, when he resigned; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Taylor and Fillmore in 1848; engaged in the manufacture of cotton and paint; died in Providence, R. I., October 19, 1856; interment in Swan Point Cemetery.

SPRAGUE, William (nephew of the preceding), a Senator from Rhode Island; born in Cranston, R. I., September 12, 1830; completed preparatory studies; attended the common schools and Irving Institute, Tarrytown, N. Y.; engaged in the calico-printing business and the manufacture of locomotives; elected Governor of Rhode Island on the Unionist ticket and served from 1860 to 1863; was colonel Marine Artillery Rhode Island Militia in 1860; tendered a commission as brigadier general in 1861, but declined to accept; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate; reelected, and served from March 4, 1863, to March 3, 1875; was not a candidate for renomination; trustee of Brown University in 1866; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Rhode Island in 1868; engaged in agricultural pursuits at his county seat, near Narragansett Pier, R. I.; died in Paris, France, September 11, 1915; interment in Swan Point Cemetery, Providence, R. I.

SPRAGUE, William Peter, a Representative from Ohio; born near Malta, Morgan County, Ohio, May 21, 1827; attended the country schools; engaged in mercantile pursuits when quite young and continued in active business until 1864; member of the State senate 1860-1863; moved to McConnelsville, Ohio, in 1866, and engaged in banking; elected as a Republican to the Forty-second and Forty-third Congresses (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed the banking business at Malta, Ohio; died in McConnelsville, Morgan County, Ohio, March 3, 1899; interment in Riverview Cemetery.

SPRIGG, James Cresap (brother of Michael Cresap Sprigg), a Representative from Kentucky; born in Frostburg, Md., in 1802; completed preparatory studies; moved to Shelbyville, Shelby County, Ky.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; held several local offices; member of the State house of representatives 1830-1834 and 1837-1840; elected to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); unsuccessful candidate as an Independent for reelection in 1842 to the Twenty-eighth Congress; resumed the practice of law; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1852, and served until his death in Shelbyville, Ky., October 3, 1852; interment in Grove Hill Cemetery.

SPRIGG, Michael Cresap (brother of James Cresap Sprigg), a Representative from Maryland; born in Frostburg, Md., July 1, 1791; completed preparatory studies; held a number of local offices; member of the State house of delegates in 1821, 1823, 1837, 1840, and 1844; president of the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal Co. in 1841 and 1842; presidential elector on the Monroe ticket in 1820; elected as a Democrat to the Twentieth and Twenty-first Congresses (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1831); died in Cumberland, Allegany County, Md., December 18, 1845; interment in Rose Hill Cemetery.

SPRIGG, Richard, jr. (nephew of Thomas Sprigg), a Representative from Maryland; born in Prince Georges County, Md.; member of the State house of delegates in 1762 and 1793; elected to the Fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Gabriel Duval; reelected to the Fifth Congress, and served from May 5, 1796, to March 3, 1799; elected to the Seventh Congress, and served from March 4, 1801, until his resignation February 11, 1802; appointed associate judge of the Maryland Court of Appeals on January 27, 1806.

SPRIGG, Thomas (uncle of Richard Sprigg, jr.), a Representative from Maryland; born in Prince Georges County, Md., in 1747; served during the Revolutionary War as ensign in the Maryland Battalion of the Flying Camp from September to December, 1776; was appointed the first register of wills of Washington County, Md., in 1777, and served until September 29, 1780, when he resigned; appointed lieutenant of Washington County by the Governor and Council of Maryland on December 21, 1779; elected to the Third and Fourth Congresses (March 4, 1793-March 3, 1797); died in Washington County, Md., December 13, 1809.

* SPRIGGS, John Thomas, a Representative from New York; born in Peterborough, Northamptonshire, England, April 5, 1825; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Whitesboro, Oneida County, N. Y., in 1836; attended Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., and was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1848; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1848, and commenced practice in Whitesboro, N. Y.; prosecuting attorney of Oneida County in 1853; county treasurer in 1854; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1860; mayor of Utica 1868-1880; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1872 which nominated Greeley and Brown and at Cincinnati in 1880 which nominated Hancock and English; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1887); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1886 to the Fiftieth Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in Utica, N. Y., December 23, 1888; interment in Whitesboro Cemetery, Whitesboro, N. Y.

SPRINGER, William McKendree, a Representative from Illinois; born near New Lebanon, Sullivan County, Ind., May 30, 1830; moved to Jacksonville, Ill., with his parents in 1848; attended the public schools in New Lebanon and Jacksonville and the Illinois College at Jacksonville; was graduated from the University of Indiana at Bloomington in 1859; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1859, and practiced in Lincoln and Springfield, Ill.; secretary of the State constitutional convention in 1862; traveled in Europe 1868-1871; member of the State house of representatives in 1871 and 1872; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and to the nine succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1895); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Washington, D. C., in 1895; United States judge for the northern district of Indian Territory and chief justice of the United States Court of Appeals of Indian Territory by appointment of President Cleveland 1895-1900; again engaged in the practice of his profession in Washington, D. C., where he died December 4, 1903; interment in Rock Creek Cemetery; reinterment in Oak Ridge Cemetery, Springfield, Ill., in 1904.

SPROUL, Elliott Wilford, a Representative from Illinois; born in New Brunswick, Canada, December 28, 1856; attended the public schools; moved to Boston, Mass., in 1879 and to Chicago, Ill., in 1880; was naturalized in 1886; engaged in the building contracting business; member of the Chicago City Council 1890-1899; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1920; member of the board of directors of the Chicago Public Library 1919-1921; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SPROUL, William Henry, a Representative from Kansas; born near Livingston, Overton County, Tenn., October 14, 1867; attended the public schools and Alpine Academy in Overton County, Tenn.; moved to Kansas in 1883; worked on a farm and in the mines; attended high school and the Kansas Normal College; taught school 1888-1892; was graduated from the Kansas State University Law School in 1894; was admitted to the bar in 1894 and commenced practice in Sedan, Kans.; prosecuting attorney of Chautauqua County 1897-1901; mayor of Sedan 1921-1923; also engaged in agricultural pursuits, stock raising, and is interested in the oil and gas business; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SPRUANCE, Presley, a Senator from Delaware; born in Kent County, Del., September 11, 1785; pursued preparatory studies; engaged in manufacturing and mercantile pursuits in Smyrna, Del.; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1831; member of the State senate in 1828, 1840, and 1846, and served as its president; elected as a Whig to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1847, to March 3, 1853; was not a candidate for renomination in 1852; resumed his business pursuits; died in Smyrna, Del., February 13, 1863; interment in the Presbyterian Cemetery.

SQUIRE, Watson Carvoso, a Senator from Washington; born in Cape Vincent, Jefferson County, N. Y., May 18, 1838; attended the public schools at Hannibal, Oswego County, N. Y., Falley Seminary, Fulton, N. Y., and Fairfield Seminary, Herkimer County, N. Y.; was graduated from the Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., in 1859; principal of the Moravia (N. Y.) Institute; during the Civil War enlisted in Company F, Nineteenth Regiment New York Volunteer Infantry, in 1861 for three months' service; promoted to the rank of first lieutenant; after five months' service was mustered out; was graduated from the Cleveland Law School in 1862, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in Cleveland, Ohio; raised a company of sharpshooters, of which he was commissioned captain; participated in the Battles of Chickamauga, Chattanooga, Nashville, and Resaca, and other engagements; made judge advocate of the district of Tennessee, with headquarters in Nashville; discharged with the rank of captain of the Seventh Independent Company, Ohio Sharpshooters, July 28, 1865; brevetted as major, lieutenant colonel, and colonel, each rank to date from July 28, 1866, in recognition of services rendered during the war; subsequently employed with the Remington Arms Co.; purchased large holdings in the Territory of Washington in 1876 and moved to Seattle in 1879; Governor of the Territory of Washington 1884-1887; upon the admission of Washington as a State into the Union in 1889 was elected as a Republican to the United States Senate; reelected in 1891, and served from November 20, 1889, to March 3, 1897; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1897; retired from the practice of his profession and devoted his time to extensive properties in Seattle; organized the Union Trust Co. (now Squire Investment Co.), of which he was president; died in Seattle, Wash., June 7, 1926; interment in Washelli Cemetery.

STACK, Edmund John, a Representative from Illinois; born in Chicago, Ill., January 31, 1874; attended the public, grammar, and high schools of Chicago; was graduated from the law department of Lake Forest (Ill.) University in 1895, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced the practice of his profession in Chicago, Ill.; appointed assistant corporation counsel of Chicago and later chief trial attorney; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1906 to the Sixtieth Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second Congress (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1912; resumed the practice of his profession in Chicago, Ill.

STACKHOUSE, Eli Thomas, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Little Rock, Marion County, S. C., March 27, 1824; attended the common schools; worked on his father's farm; taught school for several years; later engaged in agricultural pursuits; enlisted in the Confederate Army January 9, 1861, and served throughout the Civil War, attaining the rank of colonel of the Eighth Regiment South Carolina Volunteers; wounded in the Battles of Antietam, Gettysburg, and Chickamauga; member of the State house of representatives 1862-1868; member of the first board of trustees of Clemson Agricultural and Mechanical College of South Carolina in 1887; first president of the South Carolina State Farmers' Alliance in 1888; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress, and served from March 4, 1891, until his death in Washington, D. C., June 14, 1892; interment in Little Rock Cemetery, Little Rock, S. C.

STAFFORD, William Henry, a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Milwaukee, Wis.; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Harvard University in 1894 and from the Harvard Law School in 1898; was admitted to the bar in 1894 and commenced the practice of law in Milwaukee, Wis.; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, and Sixty-first Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1911); resumed the practice of his profession in Milwaukee, Wis.; elected to the Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, and Sixty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1919); elected to the Sixty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1923); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1922 to the Sixty-eighth Congress; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Milwaukee, Wis.

STAHL, James Alonzo, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in West Manchester Township, York County, Pa., January 11, 1829; attended the common schools and York Academy; learned the printing trade, and later became a merchant tailor; organized the Ellsworth Zouaves in 1861 and in August of that year he, with his company of forty recruits, enlisted as Company A in the Eighty-seventh Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers for service in the Civil War; promoted to major January 1, 1863, and to lieutenant colonel May 9, 1863; honorably discharged at the expiration of his term of service October 13, 1864; deputy collector of internal revenue at York, Pa., from May 3, 1869, to July 3, 1885; engaged in agricultural pursuits; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); was not a candidate for renomination in 1896; resumed agricultural pursuits; died on his estate near York, Pa., December 21, 1912; interment in Prospect Hill Cemetery, York, Pa.

STAHLNECKER, William Griggs, a Representative from New York; born in Auburn, Cayuga County, N. Y., June 20, 1849; moved with his parents to Brooklyn and later to New York City; pursued an academic course, and attended the University of New York at New York City; studied law and was admitted to practice; engaged in mercantile pursuits; member of the New York Produce Exchange; moved to Yonkers in 1880; mayor of Yonkers, N. Y., 1884-1886; delegate to the Democratic State convention at Saratoga in June, 1884; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1884 which nominated Grover Cleveland, of New York, for President and Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, for Vice President; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1893); retired from public life on account of illness; engaged in the practice of law; died in Yonkers, N. Y., March 26, 1902; interment in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Tarrytown, N. Y.

STALKER, Gale Hamilton, a Representative from New York; born at Long Eddy, Sullivan County, N. Y., November 7, 1869; attended the public and high schools, the Scranton (Pa.) Business College, and the night schools of New York City; moved to Elmira, Chemung County, N. Y., and engaged in the lumber business and in banking; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

STALLINGS, Jesse Francis, a Representative from Alabama; born near Manningsham, Butler County, Ala., April 4, 1856; completed preparatory studies, and was graduated from the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa in 1877; studied law at that university, was admitted to the bar in April, 1880, and commenced practice in Greenville, Ala.; elected by the Legislature of Alabama solicitor for the second judicial circuit in November, 1886, and served until his resignation in September, 1892; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1888 which nominated Grover Cleveland, of New York, for President; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third, Fifty-fourth, Fifty-fifth, and Fifty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1901); was not a candidate for renomination in 1900; resumed the practice of his profession in Birmingham, Ala.; president of the Lincoln Reserve Life Insurance Co. 1912-1928; died in Birmingham, Ala., March 18, 1928; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

STALLWORTH, James Adams, a Representative from Alabama; born in Evergreen, Conecuh County, Ala., April 7, 1823; attended Old Field Piney Woods Schools; engaged as a planter; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1848, and commenced practice in Evergreen, Ala.; member of the State house of representatives 1845-1848; solicitor for the second judicial circuit of Alabama in 1850 and 1855; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1854 to the Thirty-fourth Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1857, to January 21, 1861, when he withdrew; died near Evergreen, Conecuh County, Ala., August 31, 1861; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

STANARD, Edwin Obed, a Representative from Missouri; born in Newport, Sullivan County, N. H., January 5, 1832; moved with his parents to the Territory of Iowa in 1836; completed preparatory studies; moved to St. Louis, Mo., in 1853; taught school in Illinois in 1854 and 1855; was graduated from St. Louis (Mo.) Commercial College in 1855; engaged in the commission business in 1856 and later in the milling business at St. Louis; Lieutenant Governor of Missouri 1869-1871; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; engaged in the manufacture of flour; died in St. Louis, Mo., March 12, 1914; interment in Bellefontaine Cemetery.

STANBERRY, William, a Representative from Ohio; born in Essex County, N. J., August 10, 1788; received an academic education; studied law in New York City and was admitted to the bar; moved to Ohio in 1809, settled in Newark, Licking County, and practiced law; member of the State senate in 1824 and 1825; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twentieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William Wilson; reelected to the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Congresses, and served from October 9, 1827, to March 3, 1833; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1832; resumed the practice of law; died in Newark, Ohio, January 23, 1873; interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

STANDIFER, James, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Sequatchie Valley, near Dunlap, Tenn.; attended the common schools and was graduated from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville; elected as a Whig to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1825); elected to the Twenty-first and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1829, until his death near Kingston, Tenn., while on his way to Washington, D. C., August 20, 1837; interment in the Baptist Cemetery, Kingston, Tenn.

STANDIFORD, Elisha David, a Representative from Kentucky; born near Louisville, Jefferson County, Ky., December 28, 1831; attended the common schools and St. Mary's College, near Lebanon, Ky.; was graduated from the Kentucky School of Medicine and commenced practice in Louisville; abandoned the practice of medicine and engaged in agricultural pursuits and other enterprises; member of the State senate in 1868 and 1871; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); declined a renomination in 1874; president of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad Co. 1875-1879; engaged in banking and agricultural pursuits; died in Louisville, Ky., July 26, 1887; interment in Cave Hill Cemetery.

STANFIELD, Robert Nelson, a Senator from Oregon; born in Umatilla, Umatilla County, Oreg., July 9, 1877; attended the public schools and the State normal school at Weston, Oreg.; engaged in the livestock industry and also interested in banking; member of the State house of representatives 1913-1917, and served as speaker in 1917; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1920, and served from March 4, 1921, to March 3, 1927; unsuccessful candidate for reelection on the Independent ticket in 1926; resumed his former business pursuits, and is a resident of Portland, Oreg.

STANFORD, Leland, a Senator from California; born in Watervliet, N. Y., March 9, 1824; pursued an academic course; studied law and was admitted to practice in 1848; moved to Port Washington, Wis., the same year and engaged in the practice of law; moved to California in 1852 and opened a general store at Michigan Bluff; in 1855 moved to Sacramento to engage in mercantile pursuits on a large scale; one of the "big four" who built the Central Pacific Railroad, and its president in 1863; founder of Leland Stanford Junior University; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1860; Governor of California 1861-1863; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1885; reelected in 1891, and served from March 4, 1885, until his death in Palo Alto, Santa Clara County, Calif., June 21, 1893; interment in a mausoleum in the grounds of Stanford University.

STANFORD, Richard (grandfather of William Robert Webb), a Representative from North Carolina; born near Vienna, Md., March 2, 1787; completed preparatory studies; moved to Hawfields, N. C., about 1798 and established an academy; elected as a Democrat to the Fifth and to the nine succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1797, until his death in Georgetown, D. C., April 9, 1816; interment in the Congressional Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

STANLEY, Augustus Owsley, a Representative and a Senator from Kentucky; born in Shelbyville, Ky., May 21, 1867; attended the State college at Lexington, Ky., and was graduated from Centre College, Danville, Ky., in 1889; professor of belles-lettres at Christian College and principal of Mackville Academy 1891-1893; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1894, and commenced practice in Flemingsburg, Ky.; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Bryan and Stevenson in 1900; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; Governor of Kentucky from December 7, 1915, to May 18, 1919, when he resigned, having been elected Senator; elected to the United States Senate in 1918 for the term commencing March 4, 1919, but, preferring to continue as governor, did not qualify until May 19, 1919, and served until March 3, 1925; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; resumed the practice of law in Louisville, Ky., and Washington, D. C.; is a resident of Henderson, Ky.

STANLY, Edward (son of John Stanly), a Representative from North Carolina; born in New Bern, N. C., July 18, 1810; attended New Bern Academy, and was graduated from the American Literary, Scientific, and Military Academy, Norwich University, in 1829; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1832, and commenced practice in Washington, Beaufort County, N. C.; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1843); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1842 to the Twenty-eighth Congress; member of the State house of representatives 1844-1846, 1848, and 1849; served as speaker in 1846; attorney general of North Carolina in 1847; elected to the Thirty-first and Thirty-second Congresses (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1853); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1852 to the Thirty-third Congress; moved to California in 1853 and practiced law in San Francisco; unsuccessful Republican candidate for Governor of California in 1857; during the Civil War was appointed military governor of eastern North Carolina May 26, 1862, with rank of brigadier general, and served until March 2, 1863, when he resigned; returned to California and resumed the practice of law; died in San Francisco, Calif., July 12, 1872; interment in Mountain View Cemetery, Oakland, Calif.

STANLY, John (father of Edward Stanly), a Representative from North Carolina; born in New Bern, N. C., April 9, 1774; received his early education from private tutors; attended Princeton University; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1799, and practiced; clerk and master in equity; member of the State house of commons in 1798 and 1799; elected to the Seventh Congress (March 4, 1801-March 3, 1803); elected to the Eleventh Congress (March 4, 1809-March 3, 1811); resumed the practice of his chosen profession; again a member of the State house of commons 1812-1815, 1818, 1819, 1823-1825, and 1826; died in New Bern, N. C., August 2, 1834; interment in the Episcopal Cemetery.

STANTON, Benjamin, a Representative from Ohio; born in Mount Pleasant, Jefferson County, Ohio, June 4, 1809; pursued academic studies; learned the tailor's trade; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1834, and commenced practice in Bellefontaine, Ohio; member of the State senate in 1841 and 1843; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1850; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); elected to the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1861); Lieutenant Governor of Ohio in 1862; moved to Martinsburg, W. Va., in 1865, and practiced law; moved to Wheeling, W. Va., in 1867 and continued the practice of law; died in Wheeling, W. Va., June 2, 1872; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

STANTON, Frederick Perry, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Alexandria, Va., December 22, 1814; pursued classical studies, and was graduated from Columbian College (now George Washington University), Washington, D. C., in 1838; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Memphis, Tenn.; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1855); Governor of Kansas Territory 1858-1861; moved to Virginia, and subsequently settled in Florida; died in Stanton, Fla., June 4, 1894; interment in South Lake Weir Cemetery, South Lake Weir, Fla.

STANTON, Joseph, Jr., a Senator and a Representative from Rhode Island; born in Charlestown, R. I., July 19, 1739; served in the expedition against Canada in 1759; member of the State house of representatives 1768-1774; served as colonel in the Revolutionary Army; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1790; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from June 7, 1790, to March 8, 1793; again a member of the State house of representatives 1794-1800; elected as a Democrat to the Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth Congresses (March 4, 1801-March 3, 1807); died in Charlestown, R. I., in 1807; interment in the family cemetery.

STANTON, Richard Henry, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Alexandria, Va., September 9, 1812; completed preparatory studies; attended Alexandria Academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and began practice in Maysville, Ky., in 1835; editor of the Maysville Monitor 1835-1842; postmaster of Maysville; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-first, Thirty-second, and Thirty-third Congresses (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1855 to the Thirty-fourth Congress; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Buchanan and Breckinridge in 1856; State's attorney 1858-1861; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York City in 1868; district judge 1868-1874; resumed the practice of law; retired from active practice of his profession in 1885 and lived in retirement in Maysville, Ky., where he died March 20, 1891; interment in Maysville Cemetery.

STANTON, William Henry, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in New York City July 28, 1843; moved with his parents to Carbondale, Pa., and subsequently to Archbald, Pa.; attended the public schools in Archbald and St. John's College, near Montrose, Pa.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Scranton, Pa., in 1868, and commenced practice in that city; prosecuting attorney of the mayor's court of Scranton 1872-1874; served in the State Senate in 1875 and 1876; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Winthrop W. Ketchum, and served from November 7, 1876, to March 3, 1877; was not a candidate for reelection to the Forty-fifth Congress; elected Judge of the Luzerne County court of common pleas in 1877; served with Judges Harding and Handley at the organization of the courts of the newly created county of Lackawanna October 24, 1878; resigned in 1879; resumed the practice of law in Scranton, Pa., and died there March 28, 1900; interment in the West Side Catholic Cemetery.

STARIN, John Henry (grandson of Thomas Sammons), a Representative from New York; born in Sammonsville, Fulton County (then a part of Montgomery County), N. Y., August 27, 1825; pursued an academic course in Esperance, N. Y.; began the study of medicine in 1842; established and conducted a drug and medicine business in Fultonville 1845-1858; postmaster of Fultonville, N. Y., 1848-1852; founder and president of the Starin City, River & Harbor Transportation Co.; director of the North River Bank, New York City, and the Mohawk River National Bank; also interested in agriculture and stock raising; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1881); president of the Fultonville National Bank 1883-1909; engaged in railroad; member of the New York City Rapid Transit Commission; died in New York City March 21, 1909; interment in the Starin mausoleum, Fultonville Cemetery, Fultonville, N. Y.

STARK, Benjamin, a Senator from Oregon; born in New Orleans, La., June 26, 1820; pursued classical studies, and was graduated from Union School, New London, Conn., and Hebron Academy; engaged in mercantile pursuits in New York City 1835-1843, and also studied law; moved to San Francisco, Calif., and engaged in mercantile pursuits in 1849 and 1850, moving to Portland, Oreg., the latter year; was admitted to the bar in 1850 and commenced practice in Portland, Oreg.; member of the Territorial house of representatives in 1852; served in the Oregon Indian war in 1853 with the rank of colonel; member of the State house of representatives in 1860; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Edward D. Baker, and served from October 29, 1861, to September 12, 1862, when a successor was elected; was not a candidate for election; resumed the practice of law; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1864; moved to New London, Conn.; delegate from Connecticut to the Democratic National Convention at New York City in 1868; member of the Board of Aldermen of New London, Conn., in 1873 and 1874; member of the State house of representatives in 1874; member of the Connecticut State Prison Commission; died in New London, Conn., October 10, 1898; interment in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

STARK, William Ledyard, a Representative from Nebraska; born in Mystic, New London County, Conn., July 29, 1853; was graduated from the Mystic Valley Institute, Mystic, Conn., in 1872; moved to Wyoming, Stark County, Ill.; taught school and clerked in a store; attended the Union College of Law, Chicago, Ill.; was admitted to the bar by the Supreme Court of Illinois in January, 1878; moved to Aurora, Nebr., in February, 1878; was superintendent of the city schools; deputy district attorney; judge of the Hamilton County court; declined further nomination; served as a major and judge advocate general of the Nebraska National Guard; unsuccessful Populist candidate for election in 1895 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth, and Fifty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1903); unsuccessful Fusionist candidate for reelection; retired, and resided in Aurora, Nebr.; died at Tarpon Springs, Fla., November 11, 1922; interment in the City Cemetery, Aurora, Nebr.

STARKWEATHER, David Austin, a Representative from Ohio; born in Preston, Conn., January 21, 1802; received an academic education; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1825, and commenced practice in Mansfield, Ohio; moved to Canton, Ohio, in 1827 and continued the practice of law; judge of one of the higher courts in Stark County, Ohio; member of the State house of representatives 1833-1835; served in the State senate 1836-1838; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1841); resumed the practice of law in Cleveland, Ohio; elected to the Twenty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1847); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1846 to the Thirtieth Congress; presidential elector on the Cass and Butler ticket in 1848; chairman of the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1862; United States minister to Chile 1864-1867; discontinued active pursuits and lived in retirement until his death in Cleveland, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, July 12, 1876; interment in Lake View Cemetery.

STARKWEATHER, George Anson, a Representative from New York; born in Preston, Conn., May 19, 1794; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1819; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in Cooperstown, N. Y.; elected as a Democrat to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1849); resumed the practice of law in Milwaukee, Wis., 1853-1868; died in Cooperstown, N. Y., October 15, 1879; interment in Lakewood Cemetery.

STARKWEATHER, Henry Howard, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Preston, Conn., April 29, 1826; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Norwich, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives in 1856; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1860 and in 1868; postmaster of Norwich, Conn., 1861-1865; elected as a Republican to the Fortieth and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1867, until his death in Washington, D. C., January 28, 1878; interment in Yantic Cemetery, Norwich, Conn.

STARR, John Farson, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Philadelphia, Pa., March 25, 1818; completed preparatory studies; moved to Camden, N. J., in 1844; one of the founders of the Camden Iron Works; engaged in mercantile pursuits; president of the First National Bank of Camden for over thirty years and up to the time of his death; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1867); was not a candidate for renomination in 1868; died in Atlantic City, N. J., August 9, 1904; interment in Harleigh Cemetery, Camden, N. J.

STEAGALL, Henry Bascom, a Representative from Alabama; born in Clopton, Dale County, Ala., May 19, 1873; attended the common schools and the Southeast Alabama Agricultural School at Abbeville; was graduated from the law department of the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa in 1893; was admitted to the bar in 1893 and practiced; county solicitor 1902-1908; member of the State house of representatives in 1906 and 1907; member of the State Democratic executive committee 1906-1910; State district prosecuting attorney 1907-1914; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1912; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

STEARNS, Asahel, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Lunenburg, Mass., June 17, 1774; was graduated from Harvard University in 1797; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Chelmsford, Mass.; member of the State senate in 1813; moved to Charlestown, Mass., in 1815; elected as a Federalist to the Fourteenth Congress (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1817); member of the State house of representatives in 1817; professor of law at Harvard University from 1817 to 1829; again a member of the State senate in 1830 and 1831; died in Cambridge, Mass., February 5, 1839; interment in Mount Auburn Cemetery.

STEARNS, Ozora Pierson, a Senator from Minnesota; born in De Kalb, St. Lawrence County, N. Y., January 15, 1831; moved with his parents to Ohio in 1833, who settled in Lake County; attended Oberlin (Ohio) College, and was graduated from the University of Michigan in 1858 and from the law department of that university in 1860; was admitted to the bar in the latter year and commenced practice in Rochester, Minn.; elected prosecuting attorney of Olmstead County in 1861; mayor of Rochester 1866-1868; served in the Union Army during the Civil War as a lieutenant in the Ninth Regiment Minnesota Volunteer Infantry, and as colonel of the Thirty-ninth Regiment, United States Colored Troops; was mustered out in December, 1865; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate on January 18, 1871, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Daniel S. Norton, and served from January 23 to March 3, 1871; was not a candidate for reelection; moved to Duluth, Minn., in 1872 and practiced law; judge of the eleventh judicial district of Minnesota 1874-1895; regent of the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis 1890-1895; died in Pacific Beach, Calif., June 2, 1896; remains were cremated in Los Angeles and the ashes interred in Forest Hill Cemetery, Duluth, St. Louis County, Minn.

STEBBINS, Henry George, a Representative from New York; born in Ridgefield, Conn., September 15, 1811; attended private schools; moved to New York; engaged in banking; colonel of the Twelfth Regiment; president of the Dramatic Fund Association; president of the Academy of Music; elected as a War Democrat to the Thirty-eighth Congress, and served from March 4, 1863, until his resignation on October 24, 1864; engaged as a stock broker; president of the New York Stock Exchange; appointed president of the Central Park Commission; chairman of the Committee of Seventy; died in New York City December 9, 1881; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

STECK, Daniel Frederic, a Senator from Iowa; born in Ottumwa, Wapello County, Iowa, December 16, 1881; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the law department of the University of Iowa at Iowa City in 1906; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Ottumwa; during the World War reported for service on July 15, 1917, as captain of Company C, One hundred and ninth Field Signal Battalion, Thirty-fourth Division, and served in France with his command from October 12, 1918, to April 27, 1919; was honorably discharged at Camp Dodge, Iowa, on May 31, 1919; resumed the practice of law in Ottumwa; successfully contested as a Democrat the election of Smith W. Brookhart to the United States Senate, and took his seat April 12, 1923, for the term ending March 3, 1931.

STEDMAN, Charles Manly, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Pittsboro, Chatham County, N. C., January 26, 1841; moved with his parents to Fayetteville, N. C., in 1853; attended the Pittsboro Academy and the Donaldson Academy at Fayetteville; was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1861; during the Civil War served as a private in the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry Company, First North Carolina Regiment, and later as major in the Forty-fourth North Carolina Regiment; served with Lee's army during the entire war and was wounded three times; returned to Chatham County and taught school one year; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1895, and commenced practice in Wilmington, N. C., in 1897; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1880 which nominated Winfield S. Hancock, of Pennsylvania, for President and William H. English, of Indiana, for Vice President; Lieutenant Governor of North Carolina 1884-1888; moved to Greensboro, N. C., in 1898; president of the North Carolina Bar Association in 1900 and 1901; director of the North Carolina Railroad in 1900 and 1910, during which time he served as president; trustee of the University of North Carolina 1890-1915; director of the Gulfport Battle Ground Co. 1898-1917; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second and to the seven succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1927). Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

STEDMAN, William, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Cambridge, Mass., January 21, 1765; was graduated from Harvard University in 1784; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1787, and practiced in Lancaster, Charlestown, and Worcester; appointed justice of the peace in 1790; town clerk of Lancaster 1795-1800; member of the State house of representatives in 1802; executive chancellor of Lancaster 1803-1807; elected as a Federalist to the Eighth, Ninth, Tenth, and Eleventh Congresses, and served from March 4, 1806, until his resignation July 16, 1810; clerk of Worcester County courts 1810-1816; late in life moved to Newburyport, Essex County, Mass., and died there August 31, 1831; interment in the Old Hill Burying Ground.

STEELE, George Washington, a Representative from Indiana; born near Connorsville, Fayette County, Ind., December 13, 1839; attended the common schools and the Ohio Wesleyan University at Delaware; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Hartford City, Ind.; during the Civil War enlisted in the Eighth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry, but could not be mustered into this regiment on account of excess in numbers; mustered into the Twelfth Indiana Regiment on May 2, 1861, and served in this regiment and the One hundred and first Indiana until the close of the war—the first year in the Army of the Potomac and the remaining three years in the Army of the Cumberland and with Sherman in his march to the sea; mustered out as lieutenant colonel in July, 1865; commissioned and served in the Fourteenth Regiment United States Infantry from February 23, 1866, to February 1, 1876; resigned and engaged in agricultural pursuits and pork packing until 1882; declined an appointment as director of the Union Pacific Railroad; first Governor of Oklahoma Territory in 1890 and 1891; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1889); member of the Board of Managers of the National Military Home from April 21, 1890, to December 10, 1904; elected to the Fifty-fourth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1903); governor of the National Military Home in Marion, Ind., from December 11, 1904, to May 31, 1915, when he resigned; died in Marion, Grant County, Ind., July 12, 1922; interment in the Odd Fellows Cemetery.

STEELE, Henry Joseph, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Easton, Northampton County, Pa., on May 10, 1800; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the Stevens College of Business in 1875; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1881, and commenced practice in Easton, Pa.; member of the board of education in 1888; city solicitor 1889-1896; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1891; president of the Pennsylvania Bar Association in 1914; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, and Sixty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1921); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1920; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Easton, Pa.

STEELE, John, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Salisbury, N. C., on November 1, 1764; attended Clio's Nursery, near Statesville, N. C., and the English School, Salisbury, N. C.; engaged in agricultural pursuits; assessor in 1784; town commissioner in 1787; member of the State house of commons 1787, 1788, 1794, 1795, 1806, and 1811-1813; was delegate to the Hillsborough convention in 1788; special commissioner from North Carolina to treat with the Cherokee and Chickasaw Indians from 1788 to 1790; elected as a Federalist to the First and Second Congresses (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1793); appointed Comptroller of the Treasury July 1, 1796; reappointed by President John Adams and by President Jefferson, and served until December 15, 1802, when he resigned; member of the board of commissioners to determine the boundary line between North Carolina and Georgia 1805-1814; again elected to the State house of commons, and died the same day in Salisbury, N. C., August 14, 1815; interment in the family burying ground; reinterment in Chestnut Hill Cemetery.

STEELE, John Benedict, a Representative from New York; born in Delhi, N. Y., March 28, 1814; attended Delaware Academy at Delhi and was graduated in law from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass.; was admitted to the bar of Otsego County in 1839 and commenced practice in Cooperstown, N. Y.; district attorney of Otsego County 1841-1847; moved to Kingston in 1847; elected special judge of Ulster County in 1850; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1861–March 3, 1865); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1864; was again a candidate for the nomination in 1866, but died on the eve of the primary; was accidentally killed in Rondout, near Kingston, N. Y., September 24, 1866; interment in Wiltwyck Cemetery, Kingston, N. Y.

STEELE, John Nevett, a Representative from Maryland; born in Weston, Dorchester County, Md., February 22, 1796; resided on an estate called "Indian Town," near Vienna, Md.; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1819, and commenced practice in Dorchester County, Md.; member of the State house of delegates 1822–1824, 1829, and 1830; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Littleton P. Dennis; reelected to the Twenty-fourth Congress, and served from May 29, 1834, to March 3, 1837; unsuccessful Whig candidate for Governor of Maryland in 1838; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Cambridge, Md., August 13, 1853; interment in Christ Protestant Episcopal Church Cemetery.

STEELE, Thomas Jefferson, a Representative from Iowa; born near Rushville, Rush County, Ind., March 19, 1853; attended the public schools and Axline Seminary, Fairfax, Iowa; taught school in central and western Iowa; studied law at Sheldon, Iowa; engaged in the hardware business and banking in Wayne, Nebr.; county clerk of Wayne County, Nebr., 1884–1886; moved to Sioux City, Iowa, in 1897 and engaged as livestock commission merchant; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1915–March 3, 1917); unsuccessfully contested the election of George C. Scott to the Sixty-fifth Congress; resumed business as commission merchant; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1918 to the Sixty-sixth Congress; died in Sioux City, Iowa, March 20, 1920; interment in Graceland Park Cemetery.

STEELE, Walter Leak, a Representative from North Carolina; born at Steeles Mills (now Littles Mills), near Rockingham, Richmond County, N. C., April 18, 1823; attended the common schools, Randolph-Macon College, Lynchburg, Va., and Wake Forest (N. C.) College; was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1844; member of the State house of commons in 1846, 1848, 1850, and 1854; trustee of the University of North Carolina from 1852 until his death; served in the State senate in 1852 and 1858; delegate to the Democratic National Conventions at Charleston and Baltimore in 1860; secretary of the State convention in 1861 which passed the ordinance of secession; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1865, and commenced practice in Rockingham, N. C.; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Tilden and Hendricks in 1876; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1877–March 3, 1881); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1880; engaged in cotton manufacturing and banking; died in Baltimore, Md., where he had undergone a surgical operation, on October 16, 1891; interment in the Leak Cemetery, near Rockingham, Richmond County, N. C.

STEELE, William Gaston, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Somerville, Somerset County, N. J., December 17, 1820; attended the public schools and Somerville Academy; engaged in banking; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1861–March 3, 1865); engaged in the brokerage business; died in Somerville, Somerset County, N. J., April 22, 1892; interment in the City Cemetery at Somerville.

STEELE, William Randolph, a Delegate from the Territory of Wyoming; born in New York City July 24, 1842; received an academic education; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; served in the Second Army Corps during the Civil War from 1861 to 1865; discharged with the rank of captain and brevet lieutenant colonel; moved to the Territory of Wyoming in 1869 and engaged in the practice of law in Cheyenne; elected a member of the Territorial legislative council in 1871 and served until March 4, 1873, when he resigned, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third and Forty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1873–March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; moved to Deadwood, S. Dak., and resumed the practice of law; mayor of Deadwood 1894–1896; died in Deadwood November 30, 1901; interment in Mount Moriah Cemetery.

STEENERSON, Halvor, a Representative from Minnesota; born at Pleasant Springs, near Madison, Dane County, Wis., June 30, 1852; moved with his parents to Sheldon, Houston County, Minn., in 1853; attended the county schools and the high school in Rushford, Minn.; studied law at the Union College of Law in Chicago, was admitted to the bar in 1878, and commenced practice in Lanesboro, Minn.; moved to Crookston, Polk County, Minn., in 1880; prosecuting attorney of Polk County 1881–1883; city attorney of Crookston; member of the State senate 1883–1887; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1884 and 1888; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth and to the nine succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1903–March 3, 1923); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1922 to the Sixty-eighth Congress; vice president of the American group of the Interparliamentary Union; resumed the practice of law in Crookston, Minn., and died there November 22, 1926; interment in Oakdale Cemetery.

STEENROD, Lewis, a Representative from Virginia; born near Wheeling, Ohio County, Va. (now West Virginia), May 27, 1810; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1835, and commenced practice in Wheeling; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, and Twenty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1839–March 3, 1845); served in the State senate from 1853 to 1856; resumed the practice of his profession; died near Wheeling, Ohio County, W. Va., October 3, 1862; interment in Stone Church Cemetery, Elm Grove, W. Va.

STENGER, William Shearer, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Fort London, Franklin County, Pa., February 13, 1840; attended the public schools; was graduated from Franklin and Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa., in 1858; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1860, and commenced practice in Chambersburg, Pa.; executive director of the Philadelphia Record; district attorney of Franklin County 1862–1871; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875–March 3, 1879); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1878 to the Forty-sixth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession; secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania 1883–1887; died in Philadelphia, Pa., March 29, 1918; interment in the Falling Spring Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

STENGLE, Charles Irwin, a Representative from New York; born in Savageville, Accomac County, Va., December 5, 1869; attended the public schools; was graduated from Goldey College, Wilmington, Del., in 1890; chaplain of the Delaware House of Representatives in 1898; engaged in newspaper work in Norfolk and Fredericksburg, Va., and in New York City 1910-1917; secretary of the municipal civil service commission of New York City from January 1, 1918, to January 1, 1923, when he resigned; lecturer in favor of pensions for disabled Federal civil employees; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1925); was not a candidate for renomination in 1924 to the Sixty-ninth Congress; appointed by President Coolidge in 1925 lieutenant colonel, Specialist Reserves, attached to The Adjutant General's Office; editor of the National Farm News; is a resident of Washington, D. C.

STEPHENS, Abraham P., a Representative from New York; born near New City, Rockland County, N. Y., February 18, 1796; justice of the peace; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); died in Nyack, Rockland County, N. Y., November 25, 1859; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

STEPHENS, Ambrose Everett Burnside, a Representative from Ohio; born in Crosby Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, June 3, 1862; attended the public schools and Chickering's Institute of Cincinnati; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1902, and commenced practice in Cincinnati; captain in the Ohio National Guard 1901-1903 and colonel in 1910 and 1911; clerk of the Hamilton County courts 1911-1917; commander in chief of the Sons of Veterans in 1915 and 1916; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1919, until his death; had been reelected to the Seventieth Congress; died in North Bend, Ohio, February 12, 1927; interment in Maple Grove Cemetery, Cleves, Hamilton County, Ohio.

STEPHENS, Alexander Hamilton, a Representative from Georgia; born near Crawfordville, Taliaferro County, Ga., February 11, 1812; attended private and "old field" schools; was graduated from the University of Georgia at Athens in 1832; taught school eighteen months; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in Crawfordville in 1834; member of the State house of representatives 1836-1841; served in the State senate in 1842; elected to the Twenty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mark A. Cooper; reelected to the Twenty-ninth and to the six succeeding Congresses, and served from October 2, 1843, to March 3, 1859; was not a candidate for renomination in 1858; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Douglas and Johnson in 1860; he gave his support for the Presidency at different times to Harrison, Clay, Taylor, Pierce, and Buchanan, his conduct being governed by the principles for which they stood; member of the secession convention of Georgia in 1861 which elected him to the Confederate Congress, and was chosen Vice President under the provisional government by that Congress; elected Vice President of the Confederacy; one of the commissioners on the part of the Confederacy at the Hampton Roads conference in February, 1865; after the Civil War he was imprisoned in Fort Warren, Boston Harbor, for five months until October, 1865; elected to the United States Senate in 1866 by the first legislature convened under the new constitution, but did not present his credentials, as the State had not been readmitted to representation; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Ambrose R. Wright; reelected to the Forty-fourth, Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, and Forty-seventh Congresses, and served from December 1, 1873, until his resignation November 4, 1882; elected Governor of Georgia in 1882 and served until his death in Atlanta, Ga., March 4, 1883; interment in a vault in Oakland Cemetery; reinterment in the yard of his estate, "Liberty Hall," near Crawfordville, Ga.

STEPHENS, Dan Voorhees, a Representative from Nebraska; born in Bloomington, Monroe County, Ind., on November 4, 1868; attended the common schools and Valparaiso College, Indiana; settled in Fremont, Dodge County, Nebr., in 1887; studied law; taught school; county superintendent of schools in Dodge County 1890-1894; author of two books on education; engaged in manufacturing, publishing, and banking; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1904, at Denver in 1908, at San Francisco in 1920, and at New York City in 1924; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James P. Latta; elected to the Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, and Sixty-fifth Congresses, and served from November 7, 1911, to March 3, 1919; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1918 to the Sixty-sixth Congress; again engaged in banking; member of the State Board of Education of Nebraska, and resides in Fremont, Nebr.

STEPHENS, Hubert Durrett, a Representative and a Senator from Mississippi; born in New Albany, Union County, Miss., July 2, 1875; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the law department of the University of Mississippi at Oxford in 1896; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in New Albany; district attorney for the second district of Mississippi, and served from 1907 until April, 1910, when he resigned; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1921); was not a candidate for reelection in 1920 to the Sixty-seventh Congress; resumed the practice of law in New Albany; elected to the United States Senate in 1922 for the term commencing March 4, 1923, and ending March 3, 1929.

STEPHENS, John Hall, a Representative from Texas; born in Shelby County, Tex., November 22, 1847; attended the common schools in Mansfield, Tarrant County, Tex.; was graduated from Mansfield College and from the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1872; was admitted to the bar in 1873 and practiced in Montague, Montague County, and Vernon, Wilbarger County, Tex.; member of the State senate 1886-1888; resumed the practice of law in Vernon, Tex.; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth and to the nine succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1917); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1916; moved to Monrovia, Los Angeles County, Calif., in 1917, and died there November 18, 1924; interment in East View Cemetery, Vernon, Tex.

STEPHENS, Philander, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Montrose, Susquehanna County, Pa., in 1788; received a limited education; engaged in agricultural and mercantile pursuits; coroner in 1815; county commissioner in 1818; sheriff in 1821; member of the State house of representatives in 1824 and 1825; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Congresses (March 4, 1829-March 3, 1833); was not a candidate for renomination in 1832; resumed agricultural and mercantile pursuits; died probably in Springville, Susquehanna County, Pa., July 8, 1842; interment in the Stephens Burying Ground, Dimock Township, Susquehanna County, Pa.

STEPHENS, William Dennison, a Representative from California; born in Eaton, Preble County, Ohio, December 26, 1859; attended the public schools and was graduated from the Eaton High School; taught country school; studied law; engaged in the construction and operation of railroads in Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, and Louisiana 1880-1887; moved to Los Angeles, Calif., in 1887; engaged in the wholesale and retail grocery business 1888-1909; was a member of the board of education in 1906; major and commissary of the First Brigade California National Guard 1904-1914; president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce in 1907; mayor of Los Angeles in 1909; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second, Sixty-third, and Sixty-fourth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1911, to July 22, 1918, when he resigned, having been elected Lieutenant Governor of California; served as lieutenant governor from January 2 to March 15, 1917, when he became governor; Governor of California 1917-1923; was admitted to the bar in 1920; resides in Los Angeles, Calif.

STEPHENSON, Benjamin, a Delegate from Illinois Territory; born in Kentucky; moved to Illinois Territory in 1809 and settled in Randolph County; appointed the first sheriff of Randolph County by Governor Edwards on June 28, 1809; moved to Edwardsville, Madison County, and engaged in general mercantile business; appointed adjutant general of the Territory in 1813; served as a colonel in two campaigns during the War of 1812; elected on September 3, 1814, as a Democrat to Congress for a term of two years (Thirteenth and Fourteenth Congresses); was not a candidate for re-nomination in 1816; served as receiver of public moneys in the land office at Edwardsville from April 29, 1816, until his death; delegate to the convention in 1818 which formed the first State constitution; president of the Bank of Edwardsville in 1819; died in Edwardsville, Ill., October 10, 1822.

STEPHENSON, Isaac (brother of Samuel Merritt Stephenson), a Representative and a Senator from Wisconsin; born in Yorkton near Fredericton, in York County, New Brunswick, Canada, June 18, 1829; attended the common schools for a time and helped his father, who was a farmer and lumberman; moved to Bangor, Me., when fourteen years of age, and thence to Milwaukee, Wis., in 1845, where he again attended school; engaged in lumber pursuits in Escanaba, Mich.; moved to Marinette in 1858 and enlarged his business activities, which comprised every phase of lumbering; held various local offices; member of the Wisconsin State Assembly in 1866 and 1868; founder and president of the Stephenson Banking Co. in 1878; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1880 which nominated Garfield and Arthur and at Minneapolis in 1892 which nominated Harrison and Reld; elected as a Republican to the Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1889); was not a candidate for renomination in 1888; resumed the lumber business in Marinette, Wis.; elected in 1907 as a Republican to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John C. Spooner; reelected in 1909, and served from May 17, 1907, to March 3, 1915; died in Marinette, Marinette County, Wis., on March 15, 1918; interment in Forest Home Cemetery.

STEPHENSON, James, a Representative from Virginia; born in Gettysburg, Pa., March 20, 1764; moved to Martinsburg, Va. (now West Virginia); volunteer rifleman under General St. Clair in his Indian expedition in 1791; brigade inspector; member of the State house of delegates 1800-1803; elected as a Federalist to the Eighth Congress (March 4, 1803-March 3, 1805); again a member of the State house of delegates in 1806 and 1807; elected to the Eleventh Congress (March 4, 1809-March 3, 1811); elected to the Seventeenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Thomas Van Swearingen; reelected to the Eighteenth Congress, and served from October 28, 1822, to March 3, 1825; died in Martinsburg, Va. (now West Virginia), August 7, 1833.

STEPHENSON, Samuel Merritt (brother of Isaac Stephenson), a Representative from Michigan; born in Hartland, in Carleton County, New Brunswick, Canada, December 23, 1831; moved with his parents to Malne, and later, in 1840, to Delta County, Mich., and engaged in lumbering; moved to Menominee, Menominee County, Mich., in 1854; largely interested in real estate, lumbering, general merchandising, and agricultural pursuits; was chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Menominee County for several years; member of the State house of representatives in 1877 and 1878; served in the State senate in 1870, 1880, 1885, and 1886; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Garfield and Arthur in 1880; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1884 and 1888; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first, Fifty-second, Fifty-third, and Fifty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1897); resumed the lumber business; died in Menominee, Mich., July 31, 1907; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

STERETT, Samuel, a Representative from Maryland; born in Carlisle, Pa., in 1758; moved with his parents to Baltimore, Md., in 1761; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia; held several local offices; member of the independent company (military) of Baltimore merchants in 1777; appointed private secretary to the President of Congress in November, 1782; member of the State senate in 1789; elected as an Anti-Federalist to the Second Congress (March 4, 1791-March 3, 1793); secretary of the Maryland Society for Promoting the Abolition of Slavery in 1791; member of the Baltimore committee of safety in 1812; captain of an independent company at the Battle of North Point September 12, 1814; wounded at the Battle of Bladensburg; grand marshal at Baltimore at the laying of the foundation stone of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad July 4, 1828; died in Baltimore, Md., July 12, 1833; interment in the burying ground of Westminster Church.

STERIGERE, John Beaton, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Upper Dublin Township, near Ambler, Montgomery County, Pa., July 31, 1793; worked on a farm and attended school; taught at Puffs Church School; appointed justice of the peace in 1818; member of the State house of representatives 1821-1824; studied law, and was admitted to the bar November 17, 1829, and commenced practice in Norristown, Pa.; elected as a Democrat to the Twentieth and Twenty-first Congresses (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1831); delegate to the State convention to revise the constitution in 1838; member of the State senate 1839 and 1843-1846; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1862; retired from public life and edited the Register; appointed by the State assembly chairman of a commission to improve the town of Norristown; died in Norristown, Montgomery County, Pa., October 13, 1852; interment in Upper Dublin Lutheran Church Cemetery, Ambler, Pa.

STERLING, Ansel (brother of Micah Sterling), a Representative from Connecticut; born in Lyme, New London County, Conn., February 3, 1782; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1805, and commenced practice in Sallsbury, Conn.; moved to Sharon, Litchfield County, in 1808 and continued the practice of his profession; member of the State house of representatives 1815, 1818-1821, 1825, 1826, 1829, and 1835-1837, and served as clerk of the house in the sessions of 1815 and 1818-1820; elected to the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Congresses (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1825); resumed legal practice; chief justice of the court of common pleas of Litchfield County 1838-1840; died in Sharon, Conn., November 6, 1893; interment in Sharon Burying Ground.

STERLING, Bruce Foster, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Masontown, Fayette County, Pa., September 28, 1870; attended the public schools of Masontown and the California State Normal School, California, Pa.; was graduated from the University of West Virginia at Morgantown in 1895; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1896, and commenced practice in Uniontown, Pa.; member of the State house of representatives in 1906; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1912, at San Francisco in 1920, and at New York in 1924; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1917–March 3, 1919); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1918 to the Sixty-sixth Congress; resumed the practice of law, and resides in Uniontown, Pa.

STERLING, John Allen (brother of Thomas Sterling), a Representative from Illinois; born near Le Roy, McLean County, Ill., February 1, 1857; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington in 1881; superintendent of the public schools of Lexington, Ill., 1881–1883; studied law, was admitted to the bar in December, 1884, and commenced practice in Bloomington, Ill.; State's attorney of McLean County 1892–1896; member of the Republican State central committee 1896–1898; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1903–March 8, 1913); one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1912 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against Robert W. Archbald, judge of the United States Commerce Court; unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Sixty-third Congress; elected to the Sixty-fourth and Sixty-fifth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1915, until his death near Pontiac, Ill., as the result of an automobile accident, October 17, 1918; interment in Park Hill Cemetery, Bloomington, Ill.

STERLING, Micah (brother of Ansel Sterling), a Representative from New York; born in Lyme, Conn., November 5, 1784; was graduated from Yale College in 1804; studied law in the Litchfield (Conn.) Law School, was admitted to the bar in 1809, and commenced practice in Adams, Jefferson County, N. Y.; moved to Watertown, N. Y., in 1809 and continued the practice of law; held several local offices; treasurer of the village of Watertown in 1816; director in the Jefferson County Bank; elected as a Federalist to the Seventeenth Congress (March 4, 1821–March 3, 1823); resumed the practice of law; member of the State senate 1830–1839; died in Watertown, N. Y., April 11, 1844; interment in Brookside Cemetery.

STERLING, Thomas (brother of John Allen Sterling), a Senator from South Dakota; born near Amanda, Fairfield County, Ohio, February 21, 1851; moved with his parents to McLean County, Ill., in 1854; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington in 1875; superintendent of schools of Bement, Ill., 1875–1877; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1878, and commenced practice in Springfield, Ill.; city prosecuting attorney in 1880 and 1881; moved to the Territory of Dakota in 1882; district attorney of Spink County, Dak., 1886–1888; member of the State constitutional convention in 1889; member of the State senate in 1890; dean of the college of law at the University of South Dakota at Vermillion 1901–1911; elected in 1913 as a Republican to the United States Senate; reelected in 1918, and served from March 4, 1918, to March 3, 1925; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1924; engaged in the practice of law in Washington, D. C.; appointed by President Coolidge in 1925 held secretary of the Commission for the Celebration of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Birth of George Washington; is a resident of Washington, D. C.

STETSON, Charles, a Representative from Maine; born in New Ipswich, Hillsborough County, N. H., November 2, 1801; moved with his parents to Hampden, Penobscot County, Me., in 1802; attended Hampden Academy, and was graduated from Yale College in 1823; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Hampden in 1826; admitted to the bar of the United States Supreme Court in 1828; held various local offices; moved to Bangor, Me., in 1833; judge of the Bangor municipal court 1834–1839; member of the Common Council of Bangor in 1843 and 1844; member of the State executive council 1845–1848; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-first Congress (March 4, 1849–March 3, 1851); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1850; resumed the practice of law; affiliated with the Republican Party in 1860; died in Bangor, Me., March 27, 1883; interment in Mount Hope Cemetery.

STETSON, Lemuel, a Representative from New York; born in Champlain, Clinton County, N. Y., March 13, 1804; attended the public schools and Plattsburg Academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1824, and commenced practice in Keeseville, Essex County, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1835, 1836, and 1842; district attorney of Clinton County 1838–1843; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843–March 3, 1845); member of the State constitutional convention in 1846; again a member of the State assembly in 1846; moved to Plattsburg, N. Y., in 1847; judge of Clinton County 1847–1851; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1860; resumed the practice of law; died in Plattsburg, N. Y., May 17, 1868; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

STEVENS, Aaron Fletcher, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Londonderry, Rockingham County, N. H., August 9, 1819; attended the Pinkerton Academy, Derry, N. H., and Crosby's Nashua Literary Institute, Nashua, N. H.; at the age of sixteen he was apprenticed to the trade of machinist and worked as a journeyman for several years; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Nashua, Hillsborough County, N. H.; member of the State house of representatives in 1845; held several local offices; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as major of the First Regiment New Hampshire Volunteer Infantry, as colonel of the Thirtieth New Hampshire Volunteer Infantry, and was brevetted brigadier general; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Baltimore in 1852; president of the Common Council of Nashua in 1853 and 1854; solicitor of Hillsborough County 1856–1861; city solicitor of Nashua in 1859, 1860, 1865, 1872, and 1875–1877; elected as a Republican to the Fortieth and Forty-first Congresses (March 4, 1867–March 3, 1871); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1870 to the Forty-second Congress; again a member of the State house of representatives 1876–1884; resumed the practice of law; died in Nashua, N. H., May 10, 1887; interment in Nashua Cemetery.

STEVENS, Bradford Newcomb, a Representative from Illinois; born in Boscawen, Merrimack County, N. H., January 3, 1813; attended schools in New Hampshire and at Montreal, Canada, and was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1835; taught school six years in Hopkinsville, Ky., and New York City; moved to Bureau County, Ill., in 1846; engaged in mercantile and agricultural pursuits; county surveyor; mayor of Tiskilwa, Ill.; elected as an Independent Democrat to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871–March 3, 1873); resumed mercantile and agricultural pursuits; died in Tiskilwa, Bureau County, Ill., November 10, 1885; interment in Mount Bloom Cemetery.

STEVENS, Charles Abbot (brother of Moses Tyler Stevens and cousin of Isaac Ingalls Stevens), a Representative from Massachusetts; born in North Andover (then a part of Andover), Essex County, Mass., August 9, 1810; attended Franklin Academy at North Andover; manufacturer of flannels and broadcloths at Ware, Hampshire County, Mass., in 1841; member of the State house of representatives in 1853 and of the governor's council 1867-1870; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; subsequently elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Alvah Crocker, and served from January 27 to March 3, 1875; resumed the manufacturing business; died in New York City April 7, 1892; interment in Aspen Grove Cemetery, Ware, Mass.

STEVENS, Frederick Clement, a Representative from Minnesota; born in Boston, Mass., January 1, 1861; moved with his parents to Searsport, Me.; attended the common schools of Rockland; was graduated from Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., in 1881 and from the law department of the University of Iowa at Iowa City in 1884; was admitted to the bar in 1884 and commenced practice in St. Paul, Minn.; member of the State house of representatives 1888-1891; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth and to the eight succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; engaged in the practice of law until his death in St. Paul, Minn., July 1, 1923; interment in Oakland Cemetery.

STEVENS, Hestor Lockhart, a Representative from Michigan; born in Lima, Livingston County, N. Y., October 1, 1808; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Rochester, N. Y.; major general of militia of western New York; moved to Pontiac, Mich.; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); resumed the practice of law in Washington, D. C.; died in Georgetown, D. C., May 7, 1894; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

STEVENS, Hiram Sanford, a Delegate from the Territory of Arizona; born in Weston, Windsor County, Vt., March 20, 1832; received a limited education; moved to that part of New Mexico which is now Tucson, Ariz., in 1856; engaged in supplying forage for the Army; served as a private in Company I, First United States Dragoons, detailed to keep peace in New Mexico; served in the Civil War 1861-1865; member of the Arizona Territorial House of Representatives 1868; served in the Territorial senate 1871-1873; assessor and supervisor of Pima County; served as mayor of Tucson; treasurer of Tucson in 1871; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1878; engaged in mercantile pursuits and the cattle business; died in Tucson, Ariz., March 22, 1893; interment in the Old Tucson Cemetery; reinterment in Evergreen Cemetery.

STEVENS, Isaac Ingalls (cousin of Charles Abbot Stevens and Moses Tyler Stevens), a Delegate from the Territory of Washington; born in North Andover (then a part of Andover), Essex County, Mass., March 25, 1818; attended Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., and was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point at the head of the class in 1839; entered the Corps of Engineers and served on the staff of General Scott in Mexico; assistant in charge of the Coast Survey Office in Washington, D. C.; organized and commanded the northern Pacific exploration party which explored and surveyed the route for a railway from St. Paul to Puget Sound in 1853; resigned his commission as major in the Corps of Engineers to become governor; Governor of the Territory of Washington from 1853 to 1857; was a candidate for the Democratic nomination to Congress in 1855, but withdrew; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1861); was not a candidate for renomination in 1860; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Charleston in April, 1860, and at Baltimore in June, 1860; during the Civil War entered the Union Army as a colonel of the Seventy-ninth New York Highlanders; appointed brigadier general and later major general in command of a division; killed at the Battle of Chantilly, Virginia, September 1, 1862; interment in Island Cemetery, Newport, R. I.

STEVENS, James, a Representative from Connecticut; born in that part of Stamford, Putnam Street, which is now the town of New Canaan, Fairfield County, Conn., July 4, 1768; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Stamford, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives 1804, 1805, 1808-1810, 1814, 1815, 1817, and 1818; judge of probate, Stamford district, in 1819; elected as a Democrat to the Sixteenth Congress (March 4, 1819-March 3, 1821); justice of the peace at Stamford 1819-1826; postmaster of Stamford, Conn., from May 17, 1822, to October 5, 1829; judge of Fairfield County court in 1823; resumed the practice of law in Stamford, Conn., and died there April 4, 1835; interment in St. John's and St. Andrew's Episcopal Cemetery.

STEVENS, John, a Delegate from New Jersey; born in Perth Amboy, N. J., in 1715; merchant and shipowner; engaged in trading with the West Indies and Madelra; large landowner and mine owner in Hunterdon, Union, and Somerset Counties; member of the general colonial assembly in 1751; during the French and Indian war was active in raising troops and money for Crown Point in 1755; helped build blockhouses at Drake's Port, Normenach, and Phillipsburg; member of the defense committee to protect New York and New Jersey against Indian depredations; commissioner to the Indians in 1758; paymaster of Colonel Schuyler's regiment, the "Old Blues," 1756-1760; as a resident of New York City in 1765 was one of a committee of four who prevented the issue of stamps under the stamp act; was commissioner to define the boundary line between New York and New Jersey in 1774; vice president of the Council of New Jersey 1770-1782; president of the Council of East Jersey Proprietors in 1783; Member of the Continental Congress in 1783 and 1784; presided over the State constitutional convention December 18, 1787; died in Hoboken, Hudson County, N. J., May 10, 1792; interment in the Frame Meeting House Cemetery, Bethlehem Township, Hunterdon County, N. J.

STEVENS, Moses Tyler (brother of Charles Abbot Stevens and cousin of Isaac Ingalls Stevens), a Representative from Massachusetts; born in North Andover (then a part of Andover), Essex County, Mass., October 10, 1825; attended Franklin Academy at North Andover; was graduated from Phillips Academy, Andover, in 1842; attended Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1842 and 1843; engaged in the manufacture of woolen goods in North Andover; also engaged in banking and served as president of the Andover National Bank; member of the State house of representatives in 1861; served in the State senate in 1868; president of the Andover National Bank; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1895); was not a candidate for renomination in 1894; resumed his interests in the manufacturing business; died in North Andover, Mass., March 25, 1907; interment in Ridgewood Cemetery.

STEVENS, Raymond Bartlett, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Binghamton, Broome County, N. Y., June 18, 1874; moved with his parents to Lisbon, Grafton County, N. H., in 1876; attended the public schools, Boston Latin School, Harvard University, and Harvard Law School; was admitted to the bar in 1899 and commenced practice in Lisbon, N. H.; member of the State house of representatives in 1909, 1911, 1913, and 1923; member of the State constitutional convention in 1912; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913–March 3, 1915); was not a candidate for renomination in 1914, having become a candidate for Senator; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1914; special counsel of the Federal Trade Commission 1915–1917; vice chairman of the United States Shipping Board 1917–1920; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco in 1920 and at New York in 1924; appointed adviser in foreign affairs to the King of Siam in January, 1926, for a term of three years, in which capacity he is now serving; resides in Bangkok, Siam.

STEVENS, Robert Smith, a representative from New York; born in Attica, Wyoming County, N. Y., March 27, 1824; prepared for college under a tutor; pursued an academic course; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1846; moved to Kansas, and engaged in the practice of law; subsequently became extensively interested in real estate, the development of coal lands, and also in the management and building of railroads; member of the State house of representatives; retired from active business pursuits in 1890 and returned to New York; engaged in agricultural pursuits; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883–March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress; after the expiration of his term in Congress retired from public life on account of ill health; resumed agricultural pursuits; died in Attica, Wyoming County, N. Y., February 23, 1893; interment in Forest Hill Cemetery.

STEVENS, Thaddeus, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Danville, Caledonia County, Vt., April 4, 1792; attended Peucham Academy and the University of Vermont at Burlington; was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1814; moved to Pennsylvania in 1814; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1816 and commenced practice in Gettysburg; member of the State house of representatives 1833–1835, 1837, and 1841; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1838; appointed a canal commissioner in 1838; moved to Lancaster, Lancaster County, Pa., in 1842; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-first and Thirty-second Congresses (March 4, 1849–March 3, 1853); elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1859, until his death; chairman of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1868 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against Andrew Johnson, President of the United States; died in Washington, D. C., August 11, 1868; interment in Shreiner's Cemetery, Lancaster, Pa.

STEVENSON, Adlai Ewing, a Representative from Illinois and a Vice President of the United States; born in Christian County, Ky., October 23, 1835; moved with his parents to Bloomington, Ill., in 1852; attended the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington and Centre College, Danville, Ky.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1858, and commenced practice in Metamora, Woodford County, Ill.; master in chancery 1860–1864; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of McClellan and Pendleton in 1864; district attorney 1865–1868; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875–March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; elected to the Forty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1879–March 3, 1881); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1880 to the Forty-seventh Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Conventions at Chicago in 1884 and 1892; First Assistant Postmaster General 1885–1889; elected Vice President of the United States on the Democratic ticket headed by Grover Cleveland; was inaugurated March 4, 1893, and served until March 3, 1897; member of the commission to Europe to try to secure international bimetalism in 1897; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Vice President of the United States in 1900 and for Governor of Illinois in 1908; retired from public life and resided in Bloomington, Ill.; died in Chicago, Ill., June 14, 1914; interment in the Bloomington Cemetery, Bloomington, Ill.

STEVENSON, Andrew (father of John White Stevenson), a Representative from Virginia; born in Culpeper County, Va., January 21, 1784; pursued classical studies; attended William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Richmond, Va.; member of the State house of delegates 1809–1810 and 1818–1821 and served as speaker 1812–1815; unsuccessful candidate in 1814 and 1816 for election to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Seventeenth and to the six succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1821, until his resignation, on account of ill health, June 2, 1834; served as Speaker of the National House of Representatives 1827–1834; United States minister to Great Britain 1836–1841; engaged in agricultural pursuits at "Blenheim," Albemarle County, Va.; in 1845 was elected a member of the board of visitors of the University of Virginia, at Charlottesville, and elected rector of the university in 1856; died at his home, "Blenheim," January 25, 1857; interment in Enniscothy Cemetery, Albemarle County, Va.

STEVENSON, James S., a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in York County, Pa., in 1780; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; member of the State house of representatives in 1822 and 1823; president of the board of canal commissioners of the State, which position he held until the time of his death; elected to the Nineteenth and Twentieth Congresses (March 4, 1825–March 3, 1829); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1828 to the Twenty-first Congress; resumed manufacturing business in Pittsburgh, Pa., until his death in that city October 16, 1881; interment in the First Presbyterian Cemetery.

STEVENSON, Job Evans, a Representative from Ohio; born in Yellow Bud, Ross County, Ohio, February 10, 1832; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced the practice of his profession in Chillicothe, Ohio; also engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State senate 1863–1865; solicitor of Chillicothe 1859–1862; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth Congress; moved to Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1865; was elected as a Republican to the Forty-first and Forty-second Congresses (March 4, 1869–March 3, 1873); resumed the practice of law in Cincinnati, Ohio; large landowner; retired from the practice of his profession and resided in Lexington and Corinth, Ky.; died in Corinth, Ky., July 24, 1922; interment in Yellow Bud Cemetery, Yellow Bud, Ohio.

STEVENSON, John White (son of Andrew Stevenson), a Representative and a Senator from Kentucky; born in Richmond, Va., May 4, 1812; attended Hampden-Sidney Academy, Virginia, and was graduated from the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1832; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Vicksburg, Miss; moved to Covington, ton, Kenton County, Ky., in 1841; county attorney; member of the State house of representatives 1845-1849; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1849; one of three commissioners appointed to revise the civic and criminal code of the State in 1850 and 1851; delegate to the Democratic National Conventions at Baltimore in 1848 and 1852 and that at Cincinnati in 1856; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Pierce and King in 1852 and of Buchanan and Breckinridge in 1856; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1861); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1860 to the Thirty-seventh Congress; Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky in 1867; became governor September 13, 1867, upon the death of Gov. John L. Helm; subsequently elected governor in 1868, and served until 1871, when he resigned, having been elected a Senator; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1871, to March 3, 1877; was not a candidate for reelection; became a professor in the Cincinnati Law School; chairman of the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1880; president of the American Bar Association in 1884 and 1885; died in Covington, Ky., August 10, 1886; interment in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati, Ohio.

STEVENSON, William Francis, a Representative from South Carolina; born in what is now Loray, near Statesville, Iredell County, N. C., November 23, 1861; attended the public schools and was tutored by his father; worked on the farm every crop season until he entered college; teacher in the public schools in 1879 and 1880; was graduated from Davidson College, Davidson, N. C., in 1885; again engaged in teaching in Cheraw, S. C., 1885-1887, studying law at the same time; was admitted to the bar in 1887 and commenced practice in Chesterfield, S. C., the same year; moved to Cheraw in 1892 and continued the practice of law; member of the Democratic executive committee of Chesterfield County 1888-1914, and served as chairman 1896-1902; mayor of Cheraw in 1895 and 1896; member of the State house of representatives 1896-1902, and served as speaker 1900-1902; declined to be a candidate for reelection; interested in various business enterprises in Chesterfield County; district counsel for the Seaboard Air Line Railway 1900-1917; member of the Democratic State executive committee since 1901; general counsel for the State dispensary commission, directing the litigation through the Supreme Court of the United States in winding up the State dispensary, 1907-1911; again a member of the State house of representatives 1910-1914; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Representative elect David E. Finley; reelected to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1917, to March 3, 1927. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

STEWART, Lewis, a Representative from Illinois; born near Hollisterville, Wayne County, Pa., November 21, 1824; attended the common schools; moved with his parents in 1838 to Kendall County, Ill.; studied law, and was admitted to the bar about 1860, but never practiced; engaged in agricultural pursuits and became an extensive landowner; also engaged in the manufacture of harvesters, mowers, and binders at Plano and later at West Pullman; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor of Illinois in 1876; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1893); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress and for election in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; resumed his former manufacturing activities; also interested in agricultural pursuits; died in Plano, Kendall County, Ill., August 27, 1896; interment in Plano Cemetery.

STEWART, Alexander, a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Frederickton, York County, New Brunswick, Canada, September 12, 1829; attended the common schools of his native city; moved to Marathon County, Wis., in 1848, and settled where the city of Wausau is now located; engaged in the lumber business; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1884 which nominated Blaine and Logan; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth, Fifty-fifth, and Fifty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1901); was not a candidate for renomination in 1900; retired from active business pursuits and resided in Washington, D. C., until his death on May 24, 1912; interment in Pine Grove Cemetery, Wausau, Wis.

STEWART, Andrew, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Uniontown, Fayette County, Pa., on June 11, 1701; received a good schooling; taught school; was graduated from Washington College (now Washington and Jefferson University), Washington, Pa.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1815, and commenced practice in Uniontown; member of the State house of representatives 1815-1818; was appointed by President Monroe United States attorney for the western district of Pennsylvania and served from 1818 to 1820, when he resigned; elected as a Democrat to the Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, and Twentieth Congresses (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1829); one of the originators of the project to build the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal; elected to the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Congresses (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1835); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1834 to the Twenty-fourth Congress; was elected as a Whig to the Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, and Thirtieth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1849); declined to be a candidate for renomination; unsuccessful candidate for the nomination of Vice President in 1848; declined the appointment of Secretary of the Treasury in the Cabinet of President Taylor; affiliated with the Republican Party; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1870 to the Forty-second Congress; largely interested in building and real estate until his death in Uniontown, Fayette County, Pa., July 16, 1872; interment in Union Cemetery.

STEWART, Andrew (son of the preceding), a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Uniontown, Fayette County, Pa., April 6, 1880; attended Sewickley Academy, Sewickley, Pa., and Madison College, Uniontown, Pa.; studied medicine and attended Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, Pa.; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in the Eighty-fifth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry and was promoted to first lieutenant; regimental adjutant October 1, 1861; captain and assistant adjutant general, Second Brigade, Casey's division, September 1, 1862; brevetted major of Volunteers for gallant service at Plymouth, N. C., May 20, 1864, and lieutenant colonel of Volunteers October 25, 1865, for meritorious services during the war; honorably mustered out February 2, 1866; was captured at Plymouth, N. C., and confined in Libby, Macon, Charleston, Columbia, and other southern prisons for over a year; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati in 1876 which nominated Rutherford B. Hayes, of Ohio, for President and William A. Wheeler, of New York, for Vice President; presented credentials as a Republican Member elect to the Fifty-second Congress, and served from March 4, 1891, to February 26, 1892, when he was succeeded by Alexander K. Craig, who contested his election; unsuccessful candidate for election to the Fifty-second Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Alexander K. Craig; engaged in the manufacture of paper pulp and lumber; died in Stewarton, Fayette County, Pa., November 9, 1903; interment in Union Cemetery, Uniontown, Pa.

STEWART, Charles, a Delegate from New Jersey; born in Gortlee, County Donegal, Ireland, in 1729; emigrated to the United States in 1750; engaged in agricultural pursuits; was commissioned lieutenant colonel of militia in Hunterdon County, N. J., April 10, 1771; active in pre-Revolutionary movements; commissioned colonel of a battalion of Minutemen on February 15, 1770; appointed commissary general of issues by the Continental Congress on June 18, 1777; Member of the Continental Congress from November 1, 1784, to November 7, 1785; died in Flemington, N. J., June 24, 1800; interment in the Old Stone Church, Bethlehem Township, Hunterdon County, N. J.

STEWART, Charles, a Representative from Texas; born in Memphis, Tenn., May 30, 1836; moved to Texas in 1845 with his parents, who settled in Galveston; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1854, and commenced practice in Marlin, Falls County, Tex.; prosecuting attorney for the thirteenth judicial district 1856-1860; delegate to the secession convention in 1861; enlisted in the Confederate Army and served throughout the Civil War, first in the Tenth Regiment Texas Infantry and subsequently in Baylor's cavalry; moved to Houston in 1866 and resumed the practice of law; city attorney of Houston 1874-1876; member of the State senate 1878-1882; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1893); was not a candidate for renomination in 1892; resumed the practice of his profession in Houston, Tex.; died in the Santa Rosa Hospital, San Antonio, Tex., September 21, 1895; interment in Glenwood Cemetery, Houston, Tex.

STEWART, David, a Senator from Maryland; born in Baltimore, Md., September 13, 1800; completed preparatory studies; attended Princeton University, and was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1818; studied law, was admitted to the bar about 1821, and commenced practice in Baltimore, Md.; appointed as a Whig to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Reverdy Johnson, and served from December 6, 1849, to January 12, 1850, when a successor was elected; was not a candidate for election to fill the vacancy; resumed the practice of his profession in Baltimore, Md., and died there January 5, 1858; interment in the Stewart vault, "Old Westminster" Burying Ground.

STEWART, David Wallace, a Senator from Iowa; born in New Concord, Muskingum County, Ohio, January 22, 1887; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Geneva College, Beaver Falls, Pa., in 1911; high-school teacher and athletic coach 1911-1914; was graduated from the law department of the University of Chicago in 1917, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in Sioux City, Iowa; during the World War served overseas as first sergeant in Company K, Thirteenth Regiment United States Marine Corps, from July 12, 1918, to September 13, 1919, when he was honorably discharged; resumed the practice of law in Sioux City, Iowa; delegate to the Republican State conventions in 1922 and 1924; president of the Sioux City Chamber of Commerce in 1925; appointed and subsequently elected as a Republican to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Albert B. Cummins, and served from August 7, 1926, to March 3, 1927; was not a candidate for renomination in 1926; resumed the practice of his profession in Sioux City, Iowa.

STEWART, Jacob Henry, a Representative from Minnesota; born in Clermont, Columbia County, N. Y., January 15, 1829; moved with his parents to Peekskill, N. Y.; attended the common schools and was graduated from Phillips Academy, Peekskill; attended Yale College; studied medicine, and was graduated from the University Medical College of New York City in 1851; commenced the practice of medicine in Peekskill, N. Y.; moved to St. Paul, Minn., in 1855; medical officer of Ramsey County in 1856; member of the State senate in 1858 and 1859; during the Civil War served as a surgeon in the Union Army in 1861; captured at the first Battle of Bull Run; was paroled and allowed to care for the wounded at Sudley Church Hospital; surgeon general of the State of Minnesota 1857-1863; mayor of St. Paul 1864, 1868, and 1872-1874; postmaster of St. Paul 1865-1870; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1879); was not a candidate for renomination in 1878; surveyor general of Minnesota 1879-1882; resumed the practice of medicine in St. Paul, Minn., and died there August 25, 1884; interment in Oakland Cemetery.

STEWART, James, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Scotland November 11, 1775; received a liberal education; emigrated to the United States and settled near Stewartville, Richmond County, N. C.; engaged in mercantile and agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of commons in 1798 and 1799; served in the State senate 1802-1804 and 1813-1815; elected to the Fifteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Alexander McMillan, and served from January 5, 1818, to March 3, 1819; resumed mercantile and agricultural pursuits; died near Laurinburg, Richmond County, N. C., December 29, 1821; interment in the Old Stewartville Cemetery, near Laurinburg.

STEWART, James Augustus, a Representative from Maryland; born at "Tobacco Stick" (now Madison), Dorchester County, Md., on November 24, 1808; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1829, and commenced practice in Cambridge, Dorchester County, Md.; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1838 to the Twenty-sixth Congress; member of the State house of delegates 1843-1845; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1861); resumed the practice of his profession in Cambridge; member of the Court of Appeals of Maryland and chief justice of the circuit court from 1867 until his death in Cambridge, Md., April 8, 1870; interment in the Christ Protestant Episcopal Church Cemetery.

STEWART, James Fleming, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Paterson, N. J., June 15, 1851; attended the public and private schools of Paterson; was graduated from the law department of the University of New York at New York City in 1870, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in New York City; returned to Paterson, N. J., and continued the practice of law in 1875; recorder of the city of Paterson (the criminal magistrate of the city) 1890-1895; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth, Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth, and Fifty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1903); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1902; resumed the practice of law in Paterson, N. J., where he died on January 21, 1904; interment in Cedar Lawn Cemetery.

STEWART, John, a Representative from Pennsylvania; completed preparatory studies; member of the State house of representatives 1789-1790; elected as a Democrat to the Sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Thomas Hartley; reelected to the Seventh and Eighth Congresses, and served from January 15, 1801, to March 3, 1805; died in Elmwood, near York, Spring Garden Township, Pa., in 1820; interment on his estate near Elmwood.

STEWART, John, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Chatham, Conn., February 10, 1795; completed preparatory studies; became engaged in shipbuilding and the mercantile business in Middle Haddam; member of the State house of representatives in 1830; served in the State senate 1832-1837; judge of the county court of Middletown; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1845); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1844 to the Twenty-ninth Congress; resumed shipbuilding pursuits; again a member of the State senate in 1846; again served in the house of representatives in 1854; died in Chatham, Middlesex County, Conn., September 16, 1860; interment in Union Hill Cemetery at Middle Haddam, town of Chatham, Conn.

STEWART, John David, a Representative from Georgia; born near Fayetteville, Fayette County, Ga., August 2, 1833; attended the common schools and Marshall College, Griffin, Ga.; taught school two years in Griffin, Spalding County, Ga.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1853, and commenced practice in Griffin, Ga.; probate judge of Spalding County 1858-1860; lieutenant and captain in the Thirteenth Georgia Regiment during the Civil War; member of the State house of representatives 1865-1867; studied theology, and was ordained a minister of the Baptist Church in 1871; mayor of Griffin in 1875 and 1876; judge of the superior court from November 7, 1879, to January 1, 1888, when he resigned to become a candidate for Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1891); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1890; engaged in the practice of his profession until his death in Griffin, Ga., January 28, 1894; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

STEWART, John Knox, a Representative from New York; born in Perth, Fulton County, N. Y., October 20, 1853; moved with his parents to Amsterdam, Montgomery County, in 1860; attended the public schools and Amsterdam Academy; engaged in the manufacture of paper until 1885 when he engaged in the manufacture of textiles; was sewer commissioner of the city 1885-1890; a director of the Farmers' National Bank of Amsterdam and the Chuctanunda Gas Light Co.; vice president of the Amsterdam Board of Trade; member of the State assembly in 1889; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1903); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1902; resumed the manufacture of textiles and continued in that business until his death in Amsterdam, N. Y., June 27, 1919; interment in Greenhill Cemetery.

STEWART, John Wolcott, a Representative and a Senator from Vermont; born in Middlebury, Addison County, Vt., November 24, 1825; was graduated from Middlebury Academy in 1846; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1850, and commenced practice in Middlebury, Vt.; prosecuting attorney of Addison County 1852-1854; member of the State house of representatives 1856, 1865-1867, and 1876, and served as speaker 1865-1867 and 1876; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1860; served in the State senate in 1861 and 1862; Governor of Vermont 1870-1872; elected as a Republican to the Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1891); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1890; engaged in the banking business at Middlebury; appointed to the United States Senate March 24, 1908, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Redfield Proctor, and served from March 24, 1908, to October 21, 1908, when a successor was elected; retired from political life and active business pursuits and resided in Middlebury, Vt., until his death on October 23, 1915; interment in the West Cemetery.

STEWART, Thomas Elliott, a Representative from New York; born in New York City September 22, 1824; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1847, and commenced practice in New York City; member of the board of education in 1854; served in the State assembly in 1865 and 1866; member of the Republican State committee 1866-1868; elected as a Conservative Republican to the Fortieth Congress (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1869); was not a candidate for reelection in 1868 to the Forty-first Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in New York City; park commissioner of New York City 1874-1878; died in New York City on January 9, 1904; interment in Center Cemetery, New Milford, Litchfield County, Conn.

STEWART, William, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Mercer, Mercer County, Pa., on September 10, 1810; attended the public schools; was graduated from the Jefferson College at Canonsburg; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Mercer, Pa.; member of the State senate; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1861); resumed the practice of law; died in Mercer, Pa., on October 17, 1876; interment in Mercer Cemetery.

STEWART, William Morris, a Senator from Nevada; born in Galen, near Lyons, Wayne County, N. Y., August 9, 1827; moved with his parents to Mesopotamia Township, Trumbull County, Ohio; attended Lyons Union School and West Farmington Academy; teacher of mathematics in the former school; attended Yale College in 1849 and 1850; moved to San Francisco, Calif., in May, 1850, and engaged in mining in Nevada County; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1852, and commenced practice in Nevada City, Calif.; district attorney in 1852; was attorney general of California in 1854; moved to Virginia City, Nev., in 1860; engaged in early mining litigation and in the development of the Comstock lode; member of the Territorial council in 1861; member of the State constitutional convention in 1863; upon the admission of Nevada as a State into the Union was elected as a Republican to the United States Senate; reelected in 1869, and served from December 15, 1864, to March 3, 1875; resumed the practice of law in Nevada, California, and the Pacific coast generally; again elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1887; reelected in 1893 and 1899, and served from March 4, 1887, to March 3, 1905; declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1905; lived in retirement until his death in Washington, D. C., April 23, 1909; remains were cremated and the ashes deposited in Laurel Hill Cemetery, San Francisco, Calif.

STILES, John Dodson, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Town Hill, Luzerne County, Pa., January 15, 1822; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1844, and practiced in Allentown, Lehigh County; elected district attorney of Lehigh County in 1853 and served three years; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1856 which nominated Buchanan and Breckinridge, at Chicago in 1864 which nominated McClellan and Pendleton, and at New York City in 1868 which nominated Seymour and Blair; was also a delegate to the Union National Convention at Philadelphia in 1868; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Thomas B. Cooper; reelected to the Thirty-eighth Congress, and served from June 3, 1862, to March 3, 1865; again elected to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); was not a candidate for renomination in 1870; resumed the practice of law; died in Allentown, Pa., October 29, 1898; interment in Fairview Cemetery.

STILES, William Henry (grandson of Joseph Clay), a Representative from Georgia; born in Savannah, Ga., January 1, 1808; completed preparatory studies; studied law at Yale College, was admitted to the bar in 1831, and commenced practice in Savannah, Ga.; solicitor general for the eastern district of Georgia 1833-1836; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1845); appointed on April 19, 1845, by President Polk chargé d'affaires to Austria, and served until October, 1849; resumed the practice of law in Savannah; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1860; member of the State house of representatives and served as speaker in 1858; delegate from the State at large to the commercial congress held at Montgomery, Ala., in 1858; served as colonel in the Confederate Army during the Civil War; engaged in literary pursuits; died in Savannah, Ga., December 20, 1865; interment in Laurel Grove Cemetery.

STILLWELL, Thomas Neel, a Representative from Indiana; born in Stillwell, Ohio, on August 29, 1830; received a thorough English education; attended Oxford and College Hill Colleges; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1852, and began practice in Anderson, Ind.; member of the State house of representatives in 1850; served in the Union Army during the Civil War; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1867); was not a candidate for renomination in 1866; minister resident to Venezuela in 1867 and 1868; served as president of the First National Bank of Anderson, Ind., until his death; died in Anderson as the result of a gunshot wound January 14, 1874; interment in Maplewood Cemetery.

STINESS, Walter Russell, a Representative from Rhode Island; born in Smithfield, Providence County, R. I., March 13, 1854; attended the public schools, and was a student at Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1873 and 1874; served in the city council in 1875; was graduated from the Boston University Law School in 1877; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Providence, R. I.; member of the State house of representatives 1878-1881; clerk of the justice court of Providence 1879-1885; aide-de-camp on the staff of Gov. A. O. Bourn 1883-1885; State railroad commissioner 1888-1891; assistant judge advocate general of Rhode Island 1888-1898; judge advocate general 1898-1913; member of the State senate 1904-1909; chairman of the commission to revise the statutes of Rhode Island in 1909; United States attorney for the district of Rhode Island 1911-1914; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, and Sixty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1923); was not a candidate for renomination in 1922; lived in retirement in Warwick, R. I., until his death there on March 17, 1924; interment in Swan Point Cemetery, Providence, R. I.

STIVERS, Moses Dunning, a Representative from New York; born near Beemerville, Sussex County, N. J., December 30, 1828; attended common and private schools and the Mount Retirement Seminary in Wantage, Sussex County, N. J.; moved with his father to Ridgebury, N. Y., in 1845 and completed his education; taught school; engaged in mercantile pursuits in Ridgebury and later in Middletown, N. Y., 1855-1864; county clerk of Orange County 1864-1867 and resided in Goshen, N. Y.; returned to Middletown and became proprietor of the Orange County Press in 1868; also one of the proprietors and editors of the Middletown Daily Press; appointed by President Grant United States collector of internal revenue for the eleventh district of New York in 1869, and served until 1883; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1880; president of the New York State Press Association in 1887; trustee of the Middletown State Hospital for the Insane; engaged in banking; unsuccessful Republican candidate for election in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lewis Beach and to the Fiftieth Congress; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1891); was not a candidate for renomination in 1890; engaged in banking; died in Middletown, N. Y., February 2, 1895; interment in Hillside Cemetery.

STOBBS, George Russell, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Webster, Worcester County, Mass., February 7, 1877; attended the public schools of Webster and Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H.; was graduated from Harvard University in 1899 and from the law department of that institution in 1902; was admitted to the bar in the latter year and commenced practice at Worcester, Mass.; special justice for the central district court of Worcester 1909-1916; captain in the National Guard of Massachusetts 1917-1920; assistant district attorney for the middle district of Massachusetts 1917-1921; trustee of Worcester Public Library since 1922; commissioned major in the Judge Advocate General's Department Officers' Reserve Corps; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927); one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1926 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against George W. English, judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Illinois. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

STOCKBRIDGE, Francis Brown, a Senator from Michigan; born in Bath, Me., April 9, 1826; attended the common schools; clerk in a wholesale house in Boston 1843-1847; moved to Chicago, Ill., and opened a lumber yard; moved to Saugatuck, Allegan County, Mich., in 1851, and engaged in the operation of sawmills; also interested in mercantile pursuits; moved to Kalamazoo, Mich., in 1863 and engaged in extensive lumber business; member of the State house of representatives in 1869; member of the State senate in 1871; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1887; reelected in 1893, and served from March 4, 1887, until his death in Chicago, Ill., April 30, 1894; interment in Mountain Home Cemetery, Kalamazoo, Mich.

STOCKBRIDGE, Henry, jr., a Representative from Maryland; born in Baltimore, Md., September 18, 1856; attended public and private schools and Williston Academy, Easthampton, Mass.; was graduated from Amherst (Mass.) College in 1877 and from the law school of the University of Maryland at Baltimore in 1878; was admitted to the bar in the latter year and commenced practice in Baltimore; employed on the editorial staff of the Baltimore Herald and later with the Baltimore American; appointed an examiner in equity by the supreme bench of Baltimore in December, 1882; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1891); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1890; appointed United States commissioner of immigration for the port of Baltimore in 1891; resigned in 1893; elected judge of the supreme bench of Baltimore in November, 1896, and served in this capacity until 1911; regent of the University of Maryland 1907-1920; appointed judge of the Maryland Court of Appeals on April 13, 1911, and elected to the position in November, 1911, for a term of fifteen years; died in Baltimore, Md., March 22, 1924; interment in Loudon Park Cemetery.

STOCKDALE, Thomas Ringland, a Representative from Mississippi; born near West Union Church, Greene County, Pa., March 28, 1828; was graduated from Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa., in 1856; moved to Pike County, Miss., in 1857 and taught school; was graduated from the University of Mississippi at Oxford in 1859; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1859, and practiced in Woodville, Miss., 1859-1861; during the Civil War enlisted in the Confederate Army as a private in the Sixteenth Mississippi Infantry in 1861; promoted successively to the rank of Lieutenant, adjutant, and major of that regiment; elected major of Stockdale's battalion of Cavalry in 1863 and commanded the outposts of the Army at Fort Hudson until it was invested; commissioned lieutenant colonel of the Fourth Mississippi Cavalry in 1864; at the close of the war resumed the practice of law in Summit, Miss.; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York in 1868; was presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Greeley and Brown in 1872 and of Cleveland and Hendricks in 1884; elected as a Democrat to the Fifth, Fifty-first, Fifty-second, and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1895); unsuccessful candidate for renomination; appointed judge of the State supreme court December 1, 1890; died in Summit, Pike County, Miss., January 8, 1899; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

STOCKSLAGER, Strother Madison, a Representative from Indiana; born in Mauckport, Harrison County, Ind., May 7, 1842; attended the common schools, Corydon High School, and the Indiana University at Bloomington; taught school; served in the Union Army during the Civil War as second lieutenant and captain in the Thirtieth Indiana Cavalry; deputy county auditor of Harrison County 1866-1868; deputy county clerk of Harrison County 1868-1870; appointed by President Andrew Johnson as assessor of internal revenue in 1867, but was not confirmed by the Senate; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Corydon in 1871, and practiced in Indiana and Kentucky; editor of the Corydon Democrat; member of the State senate 1874-1878; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-seventh and Forty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1884; resumed the practice of law in Corydon; Assistant Commissioner of the General Land Office; appointed Commissioner of the General Land Office; resigned March 4, 1889, but remained in charge until June 20, 1889; continued the practice of law in Washington, D. C.; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for election to the Fifty-fourth Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1896 which nominated William J. Bryan for President; served as legal expert in the Department of Labor in 1918; resumed the practice of law in Washington, D. C., with residence at Corydon, Ind.

STOCKTON, John Potter (son of Robert Field Stockton), a Senator from New Jersey; born in Princeton, N. J., August 2, 1826; attended private schools, and was graduated from Princeton College in 1843; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1846, and practiced in Princeton and Trenton, N. J.; State reporter to the court of chancery 1852-1858; United States minister to Italy 1857-1861; presented credentials as a Democratic Senator elect to the United States Senate, and served from March 15, 1865, to March 27, 1866, when the Senate declared the seat vacant; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1869, to March 3, 1875; resumed the practice of his profession; attorney general of New Jersey 1877-1882; delegate to all the Democratic National Conventions from 1884 until his death; died in New York City January 22, 1900; interment in Princeton Cemetery, Princeton, N. J.

STOCKTON, Richard (grandfather of Richard Stockton Field), a Delegate from New Jersey; born at "Morven," near Princeton, Somerset County, N. J., October 1, 1730; attended Nottingham Academy in Cecil County, Md., and was graduated in the first class from Princeton College in 1748; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1754, and commenced practice in Princeton, N. J.; member of the Executive Council of New Jersey from November 2, 1768, to June 17, 1776; associate justice of the State supreme court from February 28, 1774, to June 17, 1776; elected a Member of the Continental Congress on June 22, 1776; reelected on November 30, 1776, but declined the latter election on December 2, 1776; a signer of the Declaration of Independence; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of New Jersey on August 31, 1776; elected chief justice of the State supreme court on August 31, 1776, but declined the office; while in Congress served as chairman of a committee to inspect the northern army at Ticonderoga; was taken prisoner by the Tories near Freehold, N. J., on November 30, 1776, and confined in the provost jail in New York City until December 29, 1776, when he was released; resumed the practice of law; died at "Morven," near Princeton, N. J., February 28, 1781; interment in Quaker Cemetery, Princeton, N. J.

STOCKTON, Richard (son of the preceding and father of Robert Field Stockton), a Senator and a Representative from New Jersey; born in Princeton, N. J., April 17, 1764; tutored privately; was graduated from Princeton College in 1779; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1784, and commenced practice in Princeton, N. J.; presidential elector on the Washington and Adams ticket in 1792; elected as a Federalist to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Frederick Frelinghuysen, and served from November 12, 1796, to March 3, 1799; declined to be a candidate for reelection; again presidential elector on the Federalist ticket in 1800 and voted for John Adams and Charles C. Pinckney; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of New Jersey in 1801; member of the State general assembly 1813-1815; elected to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1815); declined to be a candidate for renomination to the Fourteenth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession; died at "Morven," near Princeton, Mercer County, N. J., March 7, 1828; interment in Princeton Cemetery, Princeton, N. J.

STOCKTON, Robert Field (son of the preceding and father of John Potter Stockton), a Senator from New Jersey; born in Princeton, N. J., August 20, 1786; tutored privately; attended Princeton College; entered the United States Navy in 1811 and attained the rank of commodore; was sent to the Pacific coast in October, 1845, and, in cooperation with the land forces, captured the Mexican capital of California and organized a civil government; returned home and resigned his commission May 28, 1850; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1851, until his resignation on January 10, 1853; president of the Delaware & Raritan Canal 1853-1866; member of the peace convention of 1861 held in Washington, D. C., in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; retired from public life; died in Princeton, N. J., October 7, 1866; interment in Princeton Cemetery.

STODDARD, Ebenezer, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Union, Tolland County, Conn., on May 6, 1785; attended Woodstock Academy in 1802 and in 1803, and was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1807; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1810, and commenced practice in West Woodstock, Conn.; elected to the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Congresses (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1825); served in the State senate 1825-1827; Lieutenant Governor of Connecticut 1833 and 1835-1837; resumed the practice of his profession; died in West Woodstock, Conn., August 19, 1847; interment in Bungay Cemetery.

STODDERT, John Truman, a Representative from Maryland; born in Smith Point, Nanjemoy, Charles County, Md., October 1, 1790; studied under private teachers, and was graduated from Princeton College in 1810; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; served in the War of 1812; member of the State house of delegates in 1820; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twenty-third Congress (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1835); engaged in agricultural pursuits; died at the "Wilcomco House," West Hatton estate, in Charles County, Md., July 19, 1870; interment in the family burying ground on his estate.

STOKELY, Samuel, a Representative from Ohio; born in Washington, Pa., January 25, 1796; attended private schools; was graduated from Washington College (now Washington and Jefferson College), Washington, Pa., in 1813; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Steubenville, Ohio, in 1817; United States land receiver in 1827 and 1828; member of the State senate in 1837 and 1838; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); resumed the practice of law in Steubenville, Jefferson County, Ohio, where he died May 23, 1861; interment in Union Cemetery.

STOKES, James William, a Representative from South Carolina; born near Orangeburg, Orangeburg County, S. C., December 12, 1853; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., in 1876; taught school for twelve years; was graduated in medicine from Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn.; engaged in agricultural pursuits in 1889; president of the State Farmers' Alliance; member of the State senate in 1890; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1892; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Stevenson in 1892; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress; presented credentials as a Democratic Member elect to the Fifty-fourth Congress, and served from March 4, 1895, to June 1, 1896, when the seat was declared vacant; subsequently elected to fill the vacancy thus caused; reelected to the Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth, and Fifty-seventh Congresses, and served from November 3, 1896, until his death in Orangeburg, Orangeburg County, S. C., July 6, 1901; interment in Sunnyside Cemetery.

STOKES, Montfort, a Senator from North Carolina; born in Lunenburg County, Va., March 12, 1762; completed preparatory studies; at the age of fourteen entered the merchant service, and in 1776 enlisted in the Continental Navy under Commodore Stephen Decatur; was captured by the British the same year and confined for seven months on the British prison ship Jersey in New York Harbor; settled in North Carolina after the Revolutionary War and engaged in planting; assistant clerk of the State senate 1786-1790; clerk of the superior court of Rowan County, N. C., in 1790; elected United States Senator in 1804, but declined; trustee of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill 1805-1838; moved from Salisbury, N. C., about 1812 and settled in Wilkesboro, N. C.; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James Turner; reelected, and served from December 4, 1816, to March 3, 1823; member of the State senate 1826-1829; served in the State house of commons in 1829 and 1830; president of the Board of Visitors to the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1830; Governor of North Carolina from 1830 to 1832, when he resigned Democratic presidential elector in 1804, 1812, 1824, and 1828; appointed by President Jackson a member of the Board of Indian Commissioners in 1832, and took up his residence at Fort Gibson in what is now Oklahoma; was later appointed a commissioner to negotiate treaties with various tribes of Indians in the West and Southwest; appointed agent for the Cherokee Indians in 1837, serving in this capacity until September 8, 1842, when he was made subagent for the Senecas, Shawnees, and Quapaws; died at Fort Gibson November 4, 1842; interment in Fort Gibson Cemetery.

STOKES, William Brickly, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Chatham County, N. C., on September 9, 1814; attended the common schools; moved to Tennessee; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives 1849-1852; served in the State senate in 1855 and 1856; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1861); entered the Union Army May 15, 1862, during the Civil War, as major of Tennessee Volunteers; promoted to colonel and subsequently brevetted major general; honorably discharged March 10, 1865; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1867, and commenced practice in Alexandria, De Kalb County, Tenn.; upon the readmission of the State of Tennessee to representation was elected as a Republican to the Thirty-ninth, Fortieth, and Forty-first Congresses, and served from July 24, 1866, to March 3, 1871; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1870 to the Forty-second Congress; supervisor of internal revenue for Tennessee; resumed the practice of law; died in Alexandria, Tenn., March 4, 1897; interment in the East View Cemetery.

STOLL, Philip Henry, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Little Rock, Marion (now Dillon) County, S. C., November 5, 1874; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Wofford College, Spartanburg, S. C., in 1897; teacher in the public schools 1897-1901; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1901, and commenced practice in Kingstree, Williamsburg County, S. C.; member of the State house of representatives 1904-1906; solicitor of the third judicial circuit from 1908 to 1917, when he resigned; chairman of the Democratic county committee and member of the Democratic State committee 1908-1918; commissioned a major in the Judge Advocate General's Department of the United States Army in 1917; promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel in 1918 and served throughout the war; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. Willard Baggsdale; reelected to the Sixty-seventh Congress, and served from October 7, 1919, to March 3, 1923; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1922; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Kingstree, S. C.

STONE, Alfred Parish, a Representative from Ohio; born in Worthington, Mass., June 28, 1818; attended the common schools; moved to Columbus, Ohio, in 1832 and engaged in mercantile pursuits; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Heman A. Moore, and served from October 8, 1844, to March 3, 1845; was not a candidate for renomination; appointed State treasurer by Governor Chase in 1857 to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of W. H. Gibson; twice subsequently elected, and served in that capacity until 1862; appointed collector of internal revenue for the Columbus district of Ohio in 1862, and served until his death in Columbus, Ohio, August 2, 1865; interment in Green Lawn Cemetery.

STONE, Charles Warren, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Groton, Middlesex County, Mass., June 29, 1848; attended Lawrence Academy at Groton, and was graduated from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., in 1868; moved to Pennsylvania in 1868 and settled in Warren; superintendent of schools of Warren County in 1855; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1867, and commenced practice in Warren; trustee of Pennsylvania State College; member of the State house of representatives in 1870 and 1871; served in the State senate in 1877 and 1878; Lieutenant Governor of Pennsylvania 1879-1883; appointed secretary of the Commonwealth on January 18, 1887, and served until his resignation to accept nomination for Congress; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lewis F. Watson; reelected to the Fifty-second and to the three succeeding Congresses, and served from November 4, 1890, to March 3, 1899; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1898 to the Fifty-sixth Congress; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania in 1898; resumed the practice of law; died at his home near Warren, Pa., August 15, 1912; interment in Oakland Cemetery, Pleasant Township, Warren County, Pa.

STONE, Claudius Ulysses, a Representative from Illinois; born near Greenview, Menard County, Ill., on May 11, 1879; attended the public schools and later completed commercial and college courses; engaged in teaching, his experience as a teacher including rural, village, and high-school work and a short period as an instructor in a small college; during the Spanish-American War served as a corporal in Company K, Fourth Illinois Volunteer Infantry, for twelve months; elected superintendent of schools of Peoria County in 1902 and reelected in 1906; president of the Association of County Superintendents of Schools of the State in 1909; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1909, and commenced practice in Peoria, Ill.; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second, Sixty-third, and Sixty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1917); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1916 to the Sixty-fifth Congress; postmaster of Peoria 1917-1920; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York City in 1924 which nominated Davis and Bryan; resumed the practice of his profession, and is a resident of Peoria, Ill.

STONE, David, a Representative and a Senator from North Carolina; born at Hope, near Windsor, Bertie County, N. C., February 17, 1770; attended the Windsor Academy, and was graduated from Princeton College in 1788; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1790, and commenced practice in Halifax, N. C.; member of the State house of commons 1791-1794; judge of the Supreme Court of North Carolina 1794-1798; elected as a Democrat to the Sixth Congress (March 4, 1799-March 3, 1801); elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1801, until his resignation about February 17, 1807; Governor of North Carolina 1808-1810; again elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1813, until his resignation on December 24, 1814; resumed the practice of law; died on his plantation near Raleigh, Wake County, N. C., October 7, 1818; interment in the family burial ground on the banks of the Neuse River, near Raleigh, N. C.

STONE, Eben Francis, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Newburyport, Essex County, Mass., August 3, 1822; attended North Andover Academy, and was graduated from Harvard University in 1843 and from the Harvard Law School in 1846; was admitted to the bar in 1847 and commenced practice in Newburyport, Mass.; president of the common council in 1851; served in the State senate in 1857, 1858, and 1861; enlisted in the Union Army during the Civil War and commanded the Forty-eighth Regiment Massachusetts Volunteer Militia during its term of service; mayor of Newburyport in 1867; member of the State house of representatives in 1867, 1877, 1878, and 1880; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth, and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1887); was not a candidate for renomination in 1886; after his retirement from Congress resumed the practice of law in Newburyport, Mass., where he died January 22, 1895; interment in Oakhill Cemetery.

STONE, Frederick (grandson of Michael Jenifer Stone), a Representative from Maryland; born in Charles County, Md., February 7, 1820; was graduated from St. John's College, Annapolis, Md., in 1839; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1841, and commenced practice in Port Tobacco, Md.; appointed by the legislature as one of the commissioners to revise the rules of pleading and practice in the State courts in 1852; member of the State house of delegates in 1864 and 1865; elected as a Democrat to the Fortieth and Forty-first Congresses (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1871); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1870 to the Forty-second Congress; associate judge of the court of appeals 1881-1890; died near La Plata, Md., October 17, 1899; interment in Mount Rest Cemetery, La Plata, Md.

STONE, James W., a Representative from Kentucky; born in Taylorsville, Spencer County, Ky., in 1818; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; held several local offices; member of the State house of representatives in 1837 and 1839; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1848-March 3, 1849); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1844 to the Twenty-ninth Congress; elected to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1852 to the Thirty-third Congress; died in Taylorsville, Ky., October 18, 1854.

STONE, John Wesley, a Representative from Michigan; born in Wadsworth, Medina County, Ohio, July 18, 1838; attended the public schools and the Spencer (Ohio) Academy; moved to Allegan County, Mich., in 1856; elected county clerk of Allegan County in 1860; studied law, was admitted to the bar in January, 1862, and practiced; reelected county clerk in 1862; prosecuting attorney 1864-1870; president of Allegan village in 1872; circuit judge of the twentieth judicial circuit of Michigan from April, 1873, until his resignation on November 1, 1874; moved to Grand Rapids, Mich., and practiced law; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1881); was not a candidate for renomination in 1880; appointed by President Chester A. Arthur United States attorney for the western Michigan district in 1882; moved to Houghton, Mich., in 1887 and resumed the practice of law; elected circuit judge of the twenty-fifth Michigan circuit in April, 1890, and served until December 31, 1909; elected justice of the State supreme court in April, 1909, for the term ending December 31, 1917; reelected in 1916, and served until his death in Lansing, Mich., March 24, 1922; interment in Park Cemetery, Marquette, Mich.

STONE, Joseph Champlin, a Representative from Iowa; born in Westport, Essex County, N. Y., July 30, 1829; moved to Iowa Territory in 1844; attended the public schools; was graduated from the medical department of the St. Louis University, Missouri, in 1854 and practiced; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in the Union Army and was made adjutant of the First Iowa Cavalry; subsequently promoted to captain and assistant adjutant general of Volunteers in 1862 and served until the end of the war; resumed the practice of medicine in Burlington, Iowa; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1879); again engaged in the practice of his profession; died in Burlington, Iowa, December 8, 1902; interment in Aspen Grove Cemetery.

STONE, Michael Jenifer (brother of Thomas Stone and grandfather of Frederick Stone), a Representative from Maryland; born at "Equality," near Port Tobacco, Charles County, Md., in 1747; completed preparatory studies; member of the State house of delegates 1781-1783; member of the State convention that ratified the Federal Constitution in 1788; elected to the First Congress (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1791); appointed judge of the first judicial district of Maryland in 1791; died in Charles County, Md., in 1812; interment on his estate, "Equality," near Port Tobacco, Charles County, Md.

STONE, Thomas (brother of Michael Jenifer Stone), a Delegate from Maryland; born at Poynton Manor, Charles County, Md., in 1743; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1764, and commenced practice in Frederick, Md.; moved to Charles County, Md., in 1771; member of the State senate 1779-1783; Member of the Continental Congress in 1775, 1779, 1784, and 1785; died in Alexandria, Va., October 5, 1787; interment in the "Garden" Cemetery, Havre de Venture, Charles County, Md.

STONE, William, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Sevier County, Tenn. (then North Carolina), January 26, 1791; completed preparatory studies; held several local offices; was a captain in the Creek War and subsequently commissioned brigadier general for gallantry in the Battle of the Horseshoe; served with General Jackson in the Battle of New Orleans; was presented a cane by Congress for bravery in the Battle of Tippecanoe; unsuccessful Whig candidate for election in 1836 to the Twenty-fifth Congress; subsequently elected to the Twenty-fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James Standifer, and served from September 14, 1837, to March 3, 1839; unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Twenty-sixth Congress; died in Delphi (now Davis), Sequatchie County, Tenn., February 18, 1853; interment in the family burying ground at Delphi.

STONE, William Alexis, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Wellsboro, Delmar Township, Tioga County, Pa., April 18, 1846; attended the public schools and the State normal school at Mansfield, Tioga County, Pa.; served in the Civil War as second lieutenant of Company A, One hundred and eighty-seventh Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry; after the war was lieutenant colonel in the National Guard of the State; studied law in Wellsboro, Pa., was admitted to the bar in 1870, and practiced in Wellsboro and Pittsburgh, Pa.; district attorney of Tioga County from 1874 to 1876, when he resigned and moved to Pittsburgh, Pa.; United States attorney for the western district of Pennsylvania 1880-1886; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-second, Fifty-third, Fifty-fourth, and Fifty-fifth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1891, until his resignation on November 9, 1898; Governor of Pennsylvania from 1899 to 1903; resumed the practice of his profession in Pittsburgh, Pa.; probatory of the eastern district of Pennsylvania, and served from January 1, 1916, until his death in Philadelphia, Pa., March 1, 1920; interment in Wellsboro Cemetery, Wellsboro, Pa.

STONE, William Henry, a Representative from Missouri; born in Shawangunk, N. Y., November 7, 1828; attended the common schools; moved to St. Louis, Mo., in 1848 and engaged in the manufacture of iron; became president of the St. Louis Hot Pressed Nut & Bolt Co. upon its organization in 1867; served in the State house of representatives; member of the St. Louis Board of Water Commissioners from July 5, 1871, to November 15, 1873, when he resigned, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third and Forty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1877); was not a candidate for renomination in 1876; resumed business interests; died in Asbury Park, N. J., July 9, 1901; interment in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis, Mo.

STONE, William Joel, a Representative and a Senator from Missouri; born near Richmond, Madison County, Ky., May 7, 1848; attended the public schools of Richmond, Ky.; was graduated from the University of Missouri at Columbia in 1867; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1868, and commenced practice in Bedford, Ind.; moved to Columbia, Mo., where he was city attorney for a few months in 1870, and later in the same year moved to Nevada, Mo., and continued the practice of law; prosecuting attorney of Vernon County, Mo., in 1873 and 1874; was presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Tilden and Hendricks in 1876; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1891); was not a candidate for renomination in 1890; Governor of Missouri 1898-1897; moved to Jefferson City, Mo., in 1893; member of the Democratic National Committee 1896-1904, and its vice chairman 1900-1904; moved to St. Louis in 1897, and continued the practice of law; returned to Jefferson City in 1903; elected to the United States Senate, and took his seat March 4, 1903; reelected in 1909 and again in 1914, and served until his death; was chairman of the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations during the period of the Great War; died in Washington, D. C., on April 14, 1918; interment in Deepwood Cemetery, Nevada, Vernon County, Mo.

STONE, William Johnson, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Kuttawa, Lyon (then Caldwell) County, Ky., June 26, 1841; attended the common schools and Q. M. Tyler's Collegiate Institute in Cadiz, Trigg County; studied law; during the Civil War served as captain in the Confederate Army; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives in 1867, 1875, and 1883, and served as speaker in 1875; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1895); engaged in mercantile pursuits in Kuttawa, Lyon County; Confederate pension commissioner of Kentucky in 1912, and served until his death in Frankfort, Ky., March 12, 1923; interment in New Bethel Cemetery, Lyon County, Ky.

STORER, Bellamy, a Representative from Ohio; born in Portland, Me., March 26, 1796; attended private schools in his native city; entered Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., in 1809; studied law in Boston, was admitted to the bar in Portland in 1817, and commenced practice in Cincinnati, Ohio, the same year; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1835-March 3, 1837); declined to be a candidate for renomination; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Clay and Frelinghuysen in 1844; professor in Cincinnati Law School 1855-1874; judge of the superior court of Cincinnati from its organization in 1854 until 1872, when he resigned; resumed the practice of law, and died in Cincinnati, Ohio, June 1, 1875; interment in Spring Grove Cemetery.

STORER, Bellamy (son of the preceding and uncle of Nicholas Longworth), a Representative from Ohio; born in Cincinnati, Ohio, August 28, 1847; attended the common schools of that city and Dixwell's private Latin school, Boston, Mass.; was graduated from Harvard University in 1867 and from the law school of Cincinnati College in 1869; was admitted to the bar in 1869, and commenced practice in Cincinnati; assistant United States attorney for the southern district of Ohio in 1869 and 1870; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1895); was not a candidate for renomination in 1894; resumed the practice of law; Assistant Secretary of State of the United States in 1897; United States envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Belgium from May 4, 1897, to April 11, 1899; United States envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Spain from April 12, 1899, to September 26, 1902; ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to Austria-Hungary from September 26, 1902, to March 1906; resumed the practice of law; died in Paris, France, November 12, 1922; interment in Le Cimetière Neuf, Marvejols, France.

STORER, Clement, a Representative and a Senator from New Hampshire; born in Kennebunk, Me., September 20, 1780; completed preparatory studies; studied medicine in Portsmouth, N. H., and in Europe, and engaged in practice in Portsmouth, N. H.; captain of militia, and held successive commissions to that of major general; member of the State house of representatives 1810-1812, and served one year as speaker; elected to the Tenth Congress (March 4, 1807-March 3, 1809); elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Jeremiah Mason, and served from June 27, 1817, to March 3, 1819; high sheriff of Rockingham County 1818-1824; died in Portsmouth, N. H., November 21, 1830; interment in the North Cemetery.

STORM, Frederic, a Representative from New York; born in Alsace, France, on July 2, 1844; emigrated to the United States in 1846 with his parents, who settled in New York City; attended the public schools of New York City; engaged in the cigar manufacturing business; member of the State constitutional convention in 1894; elected to the State assembly in 1895; member of the Queens County Republican committee 1894-1900 and was three times its chairman; founder of the Flushing Hospital; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1901-March 3, 1903); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1902 to the Fifty-eighth Congress; after leaving Congress engaged in banking; founded the Bay-side National Bank in 1905, and was its president until his resignation in 1920; is a resident of Bayside, New York City.

STORM, John Brutzman, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Hamilton Township, Monroe County, Pa., September 10, 1838; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., in 1861; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1863, and commenced practice in Stroudsburg, Monroe County; county superintendent of public schools for seven years; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-second and Forty-third Congresses (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; elected to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1887); was not a candidate for renomination in 1886; resumed the practice of law; president judge of the forty-third judicial district of Pennsylvania; died in Stroudsburg, Monroe County, Pa., August 13, 1901; interment in Stroudsburg Cemetery.

STORRS, Henry Randolph (brother of William Lucius Storrs), a Representative from New York; born in Middletown, Conn., September 3, 1787; was graduated from Yale College in 1804; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1807, and commenced practice in Champion, Jefferson County, N. Y.; later practiced in Whitesboro and Utica, N. Y.; elected as a Federalist to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses (March 4, 1817-March 8, 1821); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1820; elected to the Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, and Twenty-first Congresses (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1831); one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1830 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against James H. Peck, United States judge for the district of Missouri; presiding judge of the court of common pleas of Oneida County 1825-1829; moved to New York City and resumed the practice of law; died in New Haven, Conn., July 29, 1837; interment in the Grove Street Cemetery.

STORRS, William Lucius (brother of Henry Randolph Storrs), a Representative from Connecticut; born in Middletown, Conn., March 25, 1796; was graduated from Yale College in 1814; studied law and was admitted to the bar in Whitesboro, N. Y., in 1817; returned to Connecticut the same year and commenced practice in Middletown; member of the State house of representatives 1827-1829 and again in 1834; served as speaker in 1834; elected to the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Congresses (March 4, 1829-March 3, 1833); was not a candidate for renomination in 1832; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-sixth Congress, and served from March 4, 1839, until his resignation in June, 1840; appointed associate judge of the Connecticut Supreme Court in 1840 and promoted to chief justice in 1850, and was serving in that capacity at his death; professor of law in the Wesleyan University at Middletown 1841-1846; professor of law at Yale College in 1846 and 1847; died in Hartford, Conn., June 25, 1861; interment in the Old North Cemetery.

STORY, Joseph, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Marblehead, Mass., September 18, 1779; attended Marblehead Academy, was graduated from Harvard University in 1798; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1801, and commenced practice in Salem; member of the State house of representatives 1805-1807; elected as a Democrat to the Tenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Jacob Crowninshield, and served from May 23, 1808, to March 3, 1809; was not a candidate for renomination in 1808; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1811 and its speaker; published commentaries on the Constitution and also other works; appointed by President Madison Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, and served from 1811 until his death; elected an overseer of Harvard University in 1818 and professor of law in the same institution in 1829, a position which he held until his death; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1820; declined the position of chief justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Court in 1831; died in Cambridge, Mass., September 10, 1845; interment in Mount Auburn Cemetery.

STOUGHTON, William Lewis, a Representative from Michigan; born in Bangor, N. Y., March 20, 1827; attended Kirkland, Painesville, and Madison Academies in Ohio; studied law in Ohio, Indiana, and Michigan 1849-1851; was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Sturgis, Mich., in 1851; prosecuting attorney 1855-1859; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1860 which nominated Lincoln and Hamlin; appointed by President Lincoln United States district attorney for the district of Michigan in March, 1861, and resigned in a few months to enter the Union Army during the Civil War; served as colonel and brigadier general and was promoted to the rank of major general by brevet; resigned in August, 1864, because of ill health, and resumed the practice of his profession in Sturgis, St. Joseph County, Mich., in 1865; member of the State constitutional convention in 1867; attorney general of Michigan in 1867 and 1868; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first and Forty-second Congresses (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1873); again engaged in the practice of his profession in May, 1874; died in Sturgis, Mich., on June 6, 1888; interment in Oak Lawn Cemetery.

STOUT, Byron Gray, a Representative from Michigan; born in Richmond, Ontario County, N. Y., January 12, 1829; moved with his parents to Michigan in 1831; attended the common schools; was graduated from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1851; studied law; superintendent and principal of Pontiac High School in 1853 and 1854; member of the State house of representatives in 1855 and 1857 and was speaker of the house in the latter year; member of the State senate in 1860 and served as president pro tempore; member of the Union Convention of Conservatives at Philadelphia in 1866; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York in 1868, at Cincinnati in 1880, and at St. Louis in 1888; engaged in private banking prior to 1869; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891–March 3, 1893); was not a candidate for reelection; president of the Oakland County Bank 1893–1896; died in Pontiac, Oakland County, Mich., June 19, 1896; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

STOUT, Lansing, a Representative from Oregon; born in Watertown, Jefferson County, N. Y., March 27, 1828; attended the public schools; studied law and was admitted to the bar; moved to Placer County, Calif., in 1852 and commenced the practice of law; member of the California Assembly in 1855; moved to Portland, Oreg., in 1857, and continued the practice of his profession; was judge of the Multnomah County court in 1858; was elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1859–March 3, 1861); was not a candidate for renomination in 1860; resumed the practice of his profession in Portland; instrumental in securing the daily overland mail between Portland and Sacramento and in the payment of the Oregon and Washington Territory Indian war debt; elected to the Oregon Senate in June, 1868, and served until his death in Portland, Multnomah County, Oreg., March 4, 1871; interment in Riverview Cemetery.

STOUT, Tom, a Representative from Montana; born in New London, Balls County, Mo., May 20, 1879; attended the common schools, the Warrensburg (Mo.) State Normal School and the University of Missouri at Columbia; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Missouri in 1902, but did not engage in practice; moved to Lewiston, Mont., in 1902; engaged in the newspaper business, and became editor and publisher of the Fergus County Democrat; member of the State Senate of Montana in 1910; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1913–March 3, 1917); was not a candidate for renomination in 1916; resumed the editorship of the Democrat News, and resides in Lewiston, Fergus County, Mont.

STOVER, John Hubler, a Representative from Missouri; born in Aaronsburg, Center County, Pa., April 24, 1833; completed preparatory studies at Bellefonte Academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1857, and commenced practice in Bellefonte, Pa.; held several local offices; district attorney of Center County 1860–1862; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army in 1861 as a private, and was successively chosen captain and major; commissioned colonel of the One hundred and eighty-fourth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry; after the war moved to Versailles, Morgan County, Mo., and resumed the practice of law; district attorney of Morgan County from 1866 to 1868; elected as a Republican to the Fortieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joseph W. McClurg, and served from December 7, 1868, to March 3, 1869; was not a candidate for renomination in 1868; resumed the practice of his profession; engaged in the real-estate business and also interested in mining pursuits at Versailles, Mo.; delegate to the Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia in 1876; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; died at Aurora Springs, Mo., October 27, 1889; interment in the City Cemetery, Versailles, Morgan County, Mo.

STOW, Silas, a Representative from New York; born in Middlefield, Middlesex County, Conn., on December 21, 1773; attended the common schools; studied law, but never practiced; moved to Lowville, Lewis County, N. Y., and engaged in agricultural pursuits; became land agent for Nicholas Low, and moved to Oneida County in 1797; appointed judge of Oneida County, January 28, 1801; returned to Lewis County; elected as a Federalist to the Twelfth Congress (March 4, 1811–March 3, 1813); sheriff of Lewis County in 1814 and 1815; judge of the same county 1815–1823; died in Lowville, N. Y., January 19, 1827; interment in the East State Street Burying Ground.

STOWELL, William Henry Harrison, a Representative from Virginia; born in Windsor, Vt., July 28, 1840; attended the public schools in Boston, Mass., and was graduated from the Boston Latin School in 1860; engaged in mercantile pursuits; moved to Virginia in 1865; collector of internal revenue for the fourth district in 1869; elected as a Republican to the Forty-second, Forty-third, and Forty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1871–March 3, 1877); was not a candidate for renomination in 1876; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati in 1876; moved to Appleton, Wis., in 1880 and engaged in paper manufacturing; moved to Duluth, Minn., in 1886 and engaged in paper and steel manufacturing; president of the Manufacturers Bank of West Duluth 1889–1895; resided for a while in St. Paul, Minn., and then in Washington, D. C.; correspondent in Paris, France, for various newspapers; author of several books on historical subjects; moved to Amherst, Mass., in 1914; died in Amherst, Mass., April 27, 1922; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City.

STOWER, John G., a Representative from New York; born in Madison, Madison County, N. Y.; completed preparatory studies; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twentieth Congress (March 4, 1827–March 3, 1829); member of the State senate in 1833 and 1834.

STRADER, Peter Wilson, a Representative from Ohio; born in Shawnee, Warren County, N. J., November 6, 1818; moved with his parents to Lebanon, Ohio, in 1819; attended the common schools; worked in a printing office for three years; moved to Cincinnati, Hamilton County, Ohio, in 1835; connected with the steamboat interests on the Ohio and Mississippi Rivers as a clerk and an engineer 1835–1848; general ticket agent of the Little Miami Railroad 1848–1867; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869–March 3, 1871); was not a candidate for renomination in 1870; resumed his former business interests; moved to Ashtabula, Ohio, in 1876, where he died February 25, 1881; interment in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati, Ohio.

STRAIT, Horace Burton, a Representative from Minnesota; born in Potter County, Pa., January 28, 1835; attended the common schools; moved with his parents to Indiana in 1846; settled near Jordan, Minn., in 1855 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; moved to Shakopee, Minn., in 1860 and conducted a general store; during the Civil War entered the Union Army in 1862 as captain in the Ninth Regiment Minnesota Volunteer Infantry; promoted to major of said regiment in 1864; served at the close of the war as inspector general on the staff of General McArthur; honorably discharged in 1865; trustee of the Minnesota Hospital for the Insane in 1806; mayor of Shakopee in 1870, 1871, and 1872; engaged in mercantile pursuits, manufacturing, and banking; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third, Forty-fourth, and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1879); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1878 to the Forty-sixth Congress; elected to the Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth, and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1887); withdrew from political life; resumed banking at Shakopee and also engaged in agricultural pursuits; died on a train at Juarez, Mexico, en route to the United States, February 25, 1894; interment in the Valley Cemetery, Shakopee, Minn.

STRAIT, Thomas Jefferson, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Chester District, S. C., December 25, 1846; attended the common schools of Mayesville, S. C., and Cooper Institute, Mississippi; during the Civil War entered the Confederate Army in 1862 and served throughout the war, first in Company A, Sixth Regiment of Infantry, and later as sergeant in Company H, Twenty-fourth Regiment, Gist's brigade; engaged in agricultural pursuits; taught school in Ebenezer, York County, S. C., in 1880; was graduated from the South Carolina Medical College at Charleston in 1885 and practiced medicine; member of the State senate 1890-1898; elected as an Alliance Democrat to the Fifty-third, Fifty-fourth, and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1899); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1898 to the Fifty-sixth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in Lancaster, Lancaster County, S. C., and died there on April 18, 1924; interment in Westside Cemetery.

STRANAHAN, James Samuel Thomas, a Representative from New York; born in Peterboro, Madison County, N. Y., April 25, 1808; attended the common schools and Cazenovia Seminary; founded the town of Florence, Oneida County, N. Y., in 1832; engaged in the lumber business; postmaster of Florence; member of the State assembly in 1838; moved to Newark, N. J., in 1840; engaged in building railroads; moved to Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1845; elected alderman of that city in 1848; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1856 to the Thirty-fifth Congress; appointed a member of the Metropolitan police commission on January 1, 1857; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Lincoln and Hamlin in 1860 and of Harrison and Morton in 1888; president of the board of trustees of Prospect Park, Brooklyn, N. Y.; director of the first Brooklyn Bridge and presided at the opening exercises of this bridge May 23, 1884; died at his summer home at Saratoga Springs, N. Y., September 3, 1898; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

STRANGE, Robert, a Senator from North Carolina; born in Manchester, Va., on September 20, 1796; attended private schools in Virginia, the New Oxford Academy, and Washington College (now Washington and Lee University), Lexington, Va.; was graduated from Hampden-Sidney College, Virginia; moved to Fayetteville, N. C., in 1815; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in Fayetteville; member of the State house of commons 1821-1823 and in 1826; judge of the Superior Court of North Carolina 1827-1830; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Willie P. Mangum, and served from December 5, 1836, to November 16, 1840, when he resigned; resumed the practice of law in Fayetteville, Cumberland County, N. C.; solicitor for the fifth judicial district of North Carolina; engaged in literary pursuits; died in Fayetteville, N. C., February 19, 1854; interment in the family burial ground at "Myrtle Hill," near Fayetteville, N. C.

STRATTON, Charles Creighton (uncle of Benjamin Franklin Howey), a Representative from New Jersey; born in Swedesboro, Gloucester County, N. J., March 6, 1790; attended the common schools; was graduated from Rutgers College, New Brunswick, N. J., in 1814; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State general assembly in 1821, 1823, and again in 1826; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1839); presented credentials as a Member elect to the Twenty-sixth Congress, but the House declined to seat him; reelected to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); was not a candidate for renomination in 1842; member of the State constitutional convention in 1844; Governor of New Jersey from January 21, 1845, to January 17, 1848; resumed his agricultural pursuits; owing to ill health resided in Europe in 1857 and 1858; died in Swedesboro, N. J., March 30, 1859; interment in the new Episcopal Cemetery.

STRATTON, John, a Representative from Virginia; born at "Old Castle," near Eastville, Northampton County, Va., August 19, 1769; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; member of the State house of delegates 1779-1792; elected to the Seventh Congress (March 4, 1801-March 3, 1803); died while on a visit to his sister in Norfolk, Va., May 10, 1804; interment in St. Paul's Church Cemetery.

STRATTON, John Leake Newbold, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Mount Holly, Burlington County, N. J., November 27, 1817; attended private schools at Mount Holly; prepared for college at Mendham; was graduated from Princeton College in 1836; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1839, and commenced practice in Mount Holly; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1863); was not a candidate for renomination in 1862; resumed the practice of law; delegate to the Union National Convention of Conservatives at Philadelphia in 1866; president of the Farmers' National Bank of Mount Holly in 1875; died in Mount Holly, N. J., May 17, 1890; interment in St. Andrews Cemetery.

STRATTON, Nathan Taylor, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Pilesgrove Township, Salem County, N. J., near Swedesboro, on March 17, 1813; attended the common schools; moved to Mullica Hill, N. J., in 1820 and clerked in a store; became a partner of his employer in 1835; conducted a business of his own 1840-1846; member of the State general assembly 1843-1844; justice of the peace 1844-1847; also engaged in the real-estate business and agricultural pursuits; held several local offices; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-second and Thirty-third Congresses (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1855); was not a candidate for renomination in 1854; again engaged in mercantile pursuits; elected a member of the Harrison Township committee in 1865; served as State tax commissioner; trustee of the State Reform School for Boys at Jamesburg, N. J., 1865-1887; elected delegate to the Union National Convention of Conservatives at Philadelphia in 1860; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1880 to the Forty-seventh Congress; died in Mullica Hill, N. J., March 9, 1887; interment in the Baptist Cemetery.

STRAUB, Christian M., a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Milton, Pa., in 1804; studied law and was admitted to the bar; prothonotary of Schuylkill County in 1845; sheriff of Schuylkill County in 1849; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); member of the State senate 1856-1858; died in Washington, D. C.; interment in Pottsville, Pa.

STRAUS, Isidor, a Representative from New York; born in Otterberg, Rhenish Bavaria, Germany, February 6, 1845; emigrated to the United States in 1854 with his mother and settled in Talbotton, Ga., where his father had previously provided a home; attended Collinsworth Institute and prepared to enter the West Point Military Academy, but was prevented by the breaking out of the Civil War; moved to New York City in 1865 and engaged in mercantile pursuits; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Ashbel P. Fitch, and served from January 30, 1894, to March 3, 1895; was not a candidate for reelection in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; resumed the mercantile business in New York City; member of the New York and New Jersey Bridge Commission; perished in the wreck of the steamship Titanic on April 15, 1912; the body was subsequently recovered and interred in the family vault in Beth-El Cemeteries, Fresh Pond Road, Brooklyn, N. Y.

STRAWBRIDGE, James Dale, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Liberty Township, Montour County, Pa., April 7, 1824; attended the common schools; was graduated from Princeton College in 1844 and from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1847; engaged in the practice of medicine at Danville, Pa.; during the Civil War entered the Army as a brigade surgeon of Volunteers and served throughout the war; prisoner in Libby Prison for three months; resumed the practice of medicine at Danville; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); again engaged in the practice of his profession; died in Danville, Pa., July 19, 1890; interment in Fairview Cemetery.

STREET, Randall S., a Representative from New York; born in Catskill, N. Y., in 1790; pursued classical studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and began practice in Poughkeepsie; district attorney for the second judicial district from February, 1810, to February, 1811, and March, 1813, to February, 1815; lieutenant colonel of militia in the War of 1812; elected as a Democrat to the Sixteenth Congress (March 4, 1819-March 3, 1821); moved to Monticello, N. Y., about 1825; continued the practice of law until his death in Monticello, N. Y., November 21, 1841; interment in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

STRICKLAND, Randolph, a Representative from Michigan; born in Dansville, N. Y., February 4, 1823; attended the common schools; moved to Michigan in 1844, and taught school in Ingham County; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1849, and commenced practice in De Witt, Clinton County, Mich.; moved to St. Johns, Clinton County, and continued the practice of law; elected prosecuting attorney for Clinton County in 1852, 1854, 1856, 1858, and 1862; member of the State senate in 1861 and 1862; provost marshal of the sixth congressional district 1863-1865; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1856 and at Chicago in 1868; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); unsuccessful candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law; died in Battle Creek, Mich., May 5, 1880; interment in De Witt Cemetery, De Witt, Mich.

STRINGER, Lawrence Beaumont, a Representative from Illinois; born near Atlantic City, N. J., February 24, 1866; moved with his parents to Lincoln, Ill., in 1876; attended the public schools; was graduated from Lincoln University (now Lincoln College) in 1887; became a reporter on a local paper; member of the State house of representatives 1890-1892; entered the Chicago College of Law (law department of Lake Forest University), and was graduated therefrom in 1896, taking a postgraduate course the following year; returned to Lincoln, Ill., in 1898 and commenced the practice of his profession; delegate to the Democratic State convention in 1900 and served as chairman; member of the State senate 1900-1904; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor of Illinois in 1904; appointed chief justice of the Illinois State Court of Claims in 1905, and served until 1913; unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator in 1908; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); did not seek renomination in 1914, having again become a candidate for Senator and was unsuccessful; resumed the practice of law; unsuccessful candidate for justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois in 1924; is now serving his third term as county judge of Logan County, and is a resident of Lincoln, Ill.

STRODE, Jesse Burr, a Representative from Nebraska; born in Farmers Township, Fulton County, Ill., February 18, 1845; attended the public and high schools and was graduated from Abingdon (Ill.) College; during the Civil War enlisted in Company G, Fiftieth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry, September 10, 1861, and served as sergeant until January, 1864; reenlisted and promoted to rank of second lieutenant, and was with his regiment during the Atlanta campaign, the march to the sea, through the Carolinas and Virginia, and the grand review in Washington, D. C.; mustered out of the Army in July, 1865; principal of the graded schools of Abingdon 1865-1873; was twice elected mayor and six times councilman of Abingdon; studied law; moved to Plattsmouth, Nebr., May 1, 1879; was admitted to the bar in November, 1879, and commenced practice in Plattsmouth; district attorney 1882-1888; moved to Lincoln in 1887 and practiced law; judge of the district court in 1892; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1899); was not a candidate for renomination in 1898; resumed the practice of law; prosecuting attorney for the third district of Nebraska; department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic in 1919 and 1920; died in Lincoln, Nebr., November 10, 1924; interment in Wyuka Cemetery.

STROHM, John, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Little Britain (now Fulton) Township, near Centerville, Lancaster County, Pa., October 18, 1798; attended the public schools; taught school for several years; moved to Providence, Pa.; member of the State house of representatives 1831-1833; served in the State senate 1834-1842, and was speaker in 1842; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth Congresses (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1849); surveyor and justice of the peace in Providence Township for several years; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Baltimore in 1852; delegate to the State convention in 1869; died in Lancaster, Pa., September 12, 1884; interment in the Mennonite Cemetery.

STRONG, Caleb, a Senator from Massachusetts; born in Northampton, Mass., January 9, 1745; studied under private tutors; was graduated from Harvard College in 1764; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in 1772; member of the committee of correspondence and safety in 1774 and 1775; member of the State house of representatives 1770-1778; served in the State senate 1780-1788; county attorney 1776-1800; member of the national convention in Philadelphia which framed the Constitution of the United States, but illness in his family compelled his absence before it was ended; member of the Massachusetts constitutional convention which ratified the Constitution of the United States; elected as a Federalist to the United States Senate; reelected in 1788, and served from March 4, 1789, to June 1, 1796, when he resigned; presidential elector on the Federalist ticket of Pinckney and King in 1808; Governor of Massachusetts 1800-1807 and 1812-1816; died in Northampton, Mass., November 7, 1819; interment in the Bridge Street Cemetery.

STRONG, James, a Representative from New York; born in Windham, Conn., in 1739; was graduated from the University of Vermont at Burlington in 1806; moved to Hudson, N. Y.; elected as a Federalist to the Sixteenth Congress (March 4, 1819-March 3, 1821); elected to the Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, and Twenty-first Congresses (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1831); died in Chester, Morris County, N. J., August 8, 1847.

STRONG, James George, a Representative from Kansas; born in Dwight, Livingston County, Ill., April 23, 1870; attended the public schools of Dwight, Ill., 1876-1879, the Episcopal Mission of Greenwood Agency, S. Dak., 1879-1880, the public schools at St. Marys, Kans., 1882-1887, and Baker University, Baldwin, Kans., 1887-1889; moved to Blue Rapids, Kans., in 1891; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1895, and commenced practice in Blue Rapids; city attorney 1896-1911; assistant attorney general of Marshall County in 1911 and 1912; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1912; member of the school board 1913-1916; prosecuting attorney of Marshall County in 1916 and 1917; organized and developed the Marshall County Power & Light Co. and the Blue Rapids Telephone Co.; interested in mercantile and agricultural pursuits; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1927). Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

STRONG, Jedediah, a Delegate from Connecticut; born in Litchfield, Conn., on November 7, 1738; was graduated from Yale College in 1761; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1764, and commenced the practice of his profession in Litchfield; member of the State house of representatives 1771-1801; town clerk 1773-1789; member of the committee on inspection in 1774 and 1775, and was made commissary of supplies in the Army in 1775; elected as a Delegate to the Continental Congress in 1779, but declined; clerk of the State house of representatives 1779-1788; associate judge of the Litchfield County court 1780-1791; Member of the Continental Congress 1782-1784; delegate to the Connecticut convention to ratify the Constitution of the United States in 1788; member of the governor's council, or upper house, in 1789 and 1790; died in Litchfield, Conn., August 21, 1802; interment in the West Burying Ground.

STRONG, Julius Levi, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Bolton, Tolland County, Conn., November 8, 1828; attended Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., and Union College, Schenectady, N. Y.; member of the State house of representatives in 1852; served in the State senate in 1853; studied law at the National Law School, Balston Spa, N. Y., was admitted to the bar in 1853, and commenced practice in Hartford, Conn.; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1855; prosecuting attorney in 1864 and 1865; president of the common council; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first and Forty-second Congresses, and served from March 4, 1869, until his death in Hartford, Conn., September 7, 1872; interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

STRONG, Luther Martin, a Representative from Ohio; born near Tiffin, Seneca County, Ohio, June 23, 1838; attended the common schools and Aaron Schuyler's Academy, Republic, Ohio; taught school; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in the Forty-ninth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry early in 1861; elected captain of Company G and afterward promoted to major and lieutenant colonel; senior officer of the regiment and in command thereof from about the time of the fall of Atlanta until after the Battle of Nashville, but could not be commissioned colonel because the regiment had become greatly reduced in numbers by service; resigned March 13, 1865; on account of wound; studied law, and was admitted to the bar by the Supreme Court of Ohio January 30, 1867; moved to Kenton and practiced his profession; member of the board of education; was elected to the State senate in 1879 and 1881; appointed judge of the court of common pleas by Governor Foster in 1888 to fill an unexpired term; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1896; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Kenton, Ohio, April 26, 1903; interment in Grove Cemetery.

STRONG, Nathan Leroy, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Summerville, Jefferson County, Pa., November 12, 1859; attended the public schools; was a telegraph operator and railroad agent 1877-1894; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1891, and commenced practice in 1893; district attorney of Jefferson County 1895-1900; engaged in the development of mineral lands in Jefferson and Armstrong Counties 1901-1916; promoted the building of the Pittsburgh & Shawmut Railroad; president of the Mohawk Mining Co.; engaged in banking; president of the Brookville Park Association; president of the Jefferson County Agricultural Association; president of the Lake Erie-Allegheny River Canal Association; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1917-March 3, 1927). Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

STRONG, Selah Brewster, a Representative from New York; born in Brookhaven, Suffolk County, N. Y., May 1, 1792; received a preliminary education and was graduated from Yale College in 1811; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1814, and began practice in New York City; during the War of 1812 was commissioned as ensign and quartermaster in the Tenth Regiment, Third Brigade, New York City and County Troops, and in 1815 was promoted to lieutenant and captain; master in chancery in 1817; moved to Brookhaven in 1820; district attorney for Suffolk County from 1821 to 1847, except nine months in 1830; appointed judge advocate of the First Division of the New York State Infantry in 1825; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1845); was not a candidate for renomination in 1844; resumed the practice of law; appointed March 27, 1840, circuit judge by Governor Wright and was confirmed but did not accept; judge of the supreme court for the second judicial district from June 7, 1847, to January 1, 1860; member of the State constitutional convention in 1867; died at his home, "St. George's Manor," Setauket, Long Island, N. Y., November 29, 1872; interment in a private lot on his estate.

STRONG, Solomon, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Amherst, Mass., March 2, 1780; was graduated from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., in 1798; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Northampton, Mass., in 1800, and practiced; member of the State senate in 1812 and 1813; judge of the circuit court of common pleas in 1818 and judge of the court of common pleas from 1821 until his resignation in 1842; elected as a Federalist to the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Congresses (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1819); was not a candidate for renomination in 1818; again a member of the State senate in 1843 and 1844; died in Leominster, Mass., September 18, 1860; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

STRONG, Stephen, a Representative from New York; born in Lebanon, Conn., October 11, 1791; moved to New York; attended Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1822, and practiced; district attorney of Tioga County 1838-1838 and 1844-1847; county judge of Tioga County 1838-1843; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1847); resumed the practice of law in Owego, N. Y.; again county judge of Tioga County 1855-1859; moved to Watertown, Jefferson County, N. Y., in 1861 and practiced; died in Watertown, N. Y., April 15, 1866.

STRONG, Theron Rudd (cousin of William Strong of Pennsylvania), a Representative from New York; born in Salisbury, Conn., November 7, 1802; attended the common schools; studied law at Litchfield Law School, was admitted to the bar in 1821, and commenced practice in Palmyra, Wayne County, N. Y.; master and examiner in chancery for several years; held several local offices; district attorney of Wayne County from 1835 to 1839; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1841); member of the State assembly in 1842; associate justice of the Supreme Court of New York 1851-1859, and judge of the court of appeals in 1859; moved to Rochester, N. Y., in 1860 and resumed the practice of his profession; returned to New York City in 1867, and continued the practice of law until his death in New York City May 14, 1873; interment in Mount Hope Cemetery, Rochester, N. Y.

STRONG, William, a Representative from Vermont; born in Lebanon, Conn., in 1763; moved with his parents to Hartford, Vt., in 1764; self-educated; engaged extensively in land surveying; member of the State house of representatives in 1798, 1799, 1801, and 1802; sheriff of Windsor County from 1802 to 1810; elected as a Democrat to the Twelfth and Thirteenth Congresses (March 4, 1811-March 3, 1815); again a member of the State house of representatives 1815-1818; judge of the supreme court of Windsor County 1819-1821; elected to the Sixteenth Congress (March 4, 1819-March 3, 1821); member of the council of censors in 1834; died in Hartford, Windsor County, Vt., January 28, 1840; interment in Quochee Cemetery.

STRONG, William (cousin of Theron Rudd Strong), a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Somers, Conn., May 6, 1808; attended the Munson Academy, Massachusetts, and was graduated from Yale College in 1828; taught school in New Haven, Conn.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1832, and commenced practice in Reading, Pa.; elected as a Democrat to the Thirtieth and Thirty-first Congresses (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1851); was not a candidate for renomination in 1850; associate justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania 1857-1868; resumed the practice of law in Philadelphia, Pa.; appointed Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States in 1870 and served until December, 1880, when he retired under the act of Congress; resumed the practice of law; died at Lake Minnewassa, N. Y., August 19, 1895; interment in the Charles Evans Cemetery, Reading, Pa.

STROTHER, George French (father of James French Strother), a Representative from Virginia; born in Stevensburg, Culpeper County, Va., in 1783; attended William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Culpeper; member of the State house of delegates 1806-1809; elected as a Democrat to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1817, until his resignation February 10, 1820; receiver of public moneys at St. Louis, Mo.; died in St. Louis November 28, 1840; interment in Christ Church Cemetery; reinterment in Bellefontaine Cemetery in 1860.

STROTHER, James French (son of George French Strother), a Representative from Virginia; born in Culpeper, Va., September 4, 1811; completed preparatory studies and attended St. Louis University, Missouri; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Washington, Rappahannock County, Va.; member of the State house of delegates 1840-1851, and served as speaker in 1851; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1850; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); resumed the practice of law in Culpeper, Va.; died near Culpeper, Va., September 20, 1890; interment in the Masonic Cemetery.

STROTHER, James French (grandson of the preceding), a Representative from West Virginia; born near Pearisburg, Giles County, Va., June 29, 1868; attended the public schools, the Pearisburg Academy, and the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College at Blacksburg; studied law at the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, was admitted to the bar in 1894, and commenced practice in Pearisburg; settled in Welch, W. Va., in 1895 and continued the practice of law until January 1, 1905, when he was appointed by Gov. Albert B. White judge of the criminal court of McDowell County; was thrice elected, and served until September 30, 1924, when he resigned, having been nominated for Congress; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

STROUSE, Myer, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Oberstrau, Bavaria, Germany, on December 16, 1825; emigrated to the United States in 1832 with his father, who settled in Pottsville, Schuylkill County, Pa.; attended private schools; edited the North American Farmer in Philadelphia 1848-1852; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1855, and commenced practice in Pottsville; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1867); was not a candidate for renomination in 1866; resumed the practice of law; was attorney and solicitor for the "Molly Maguires," a one-time secret organization in the mining regions of Pennsylvania, in 1876 and 1877; died in Pottsville, Pa., February 11, 1878; interment in the Odd Fellows Cemetery.

STROWD, William Franklin, a Representative from North Carolina; born near Chapel Hill, Orange County, N. C., on December 7, 1832; attended the country schools, the Bingham private school at Melvane, the local academy at High Hill, and Graham Institute; moved to Chatham County in 1861 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; during the Civil War served as a private in the Confederate Army; member of the State constitutional convention in 1875; unsuccessful Populist candidate for election in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress; elected as a Populist to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1899); was not a candidate for renomination in 1898; resumed agricultural pursuits in Chatham County; discontinued activities in 1908 and lived in retirement until his death at the residence of his son in Chapel Hill, N. C., December 12, 1911; interment in Chapel Hill Cemetery.

STRUBLE, Isaac S., a Representative from Iowa; born near Fredericksburg, Va., November 3, 1843; moved to Iowa with his parents, who settled in Johnson County; attended the common schools; during the Civil War enlisted at the age of seventeen and served three years as a private in Company F, Twenty-second Regiment Iowa Volunteer Infantry; attended the State University of Iowa; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1870, and commenced practice in Ogle County, Ill.; settled in Le Mars, Plymouth County, Iowa, in 1872; elected as a Republican to the Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, and

Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1883–March 3, 1891); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1890; resumed the practice of law; died in Le Mars, Iowa, February 17, 1913; interment in Le Mars Cemetery.

STRUDWICK, William Francis, a Representative from North Carolina; born at "Stag Park," near Wilmington, New Hanover County, N. C.; received a limited education; engaged in agricultural pursuits; delegate to the State convention in 1789; served in the State senate 1792–1797; held several local offices; elected as a Federalist to the Fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Absalom Tatom, and served from November 28, 1790, to March 3, 1797; member of the State house of representatives 1801–1803; resumed agricultural interests; died in North Carolina in 1812; interment in a private cemetery on his estate at "Hawfields," Orange County, N. C.

STUART, Alexander Hugh Holmes, a Representative from Virginia; born in Staunton, Va., April 2, 1807; attended Staunton Academy, William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va.; was graduated from the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1828; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1828, and commenced practice in Staunton; member of the State house of delegates 1836–1839; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841–March 3, 1843); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1842 to the Twenty-eighth Congress; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Clay and Frelinghuysen in 1844 and of Taylor and Fillmore in 1848; Secretary of the Interior 1850–1853; member of the State senate 1857–1861; member of the State secession convention in 1861; delegate to the National Convention of Conservatives at Philadelphia in 1860; presented credentials as a Member elect to the Thirty-ninth Congress in 1865, but was not admitted; chairman of the "Committee of Nine," which was instrumental in restoring Virginia to the Union in 1870; member of the State house of delegates from 1874 to 1877; rector of the University of Virginia from 1874 to 1882; president of the Virginia Historical Society; resumed the practice of law; died in Staunton, Va., February 13, 1901; interment in Thornrose Cemetery.

STUART, Andrew, a Representative from Ohio; born near Pittsburgh, Pa., August 3, 1823; moved to Pittsburgh with his mother in 1834; attended school three months; was self-instructed through reading newspapers; worked in a newspaper office; moved to Steubenville, Ohio, in 1850; was editor of the American Union 1850–1857; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853–March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; engaged in the shipping business on the Gulf of Mexico and transportation of mails and supplies from Leavenworth, Kans., to Santa Fe, N. Mex.; resided in Washington, D. C., from 1869 until his death, April 30, 1872; interment in Union Cemetery, Steubenville, Ohio.

STUART, Archibald, a Representative from Virginia; born in Lynchburg, Va., December 2, 1795; attended private schools and completed preparatory studies; served as an officer in the War of 1812; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in Lynchburg and Campbell County, Va.; member of the State house of delegates in 1830 and 1831; delegate to the State conventions of 1829, 1830, 1850, and 1851; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837–March 3, 1839); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1838 to the Twenty-sixth Congress; served in the State senate 1852–1854; died at his home, "Laurel Hill," Patrick County, Va., September 20, 1855; interment in the Stuart family cemetery at Laurel Hill, Patrick County, Va.

STUART, Charles Edward, a Representative and a Senator from Michigan; born near Waterloo, Columbia County, N. Y., November 25, 1810; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1832, and commenced practice in Waterloo; moved to Michigan in 1835, and settled in Kalamazoo; member of the State house of representatives in 1842; elected as a Democrat to the Thirtieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Edward Bradley, who never qualified, and served from December 6, 1847, to March 3, 1849; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1848 to the Thirty-first Congress; elected to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851–March 3, 1853); elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1853, to March 3, 1859; was not a candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Charleston, S. C., and at Baltimore, Md., in 1860 and to the National Convention of Conservatives at Philadelphia in 1866; during the Civil War raised and equipped the Thirtieth Regiment Michigan Volunteer Infantry, of which he was commissioned colonel, but resigned because of ill health; died in Kalamazoo, Mich., May 19, 1887; interment in Mountain Home Cemetery.

STUART, David, a Representative from Michigan; born in Brooklyn, N. Y., March 12, 1816; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Detroit, Mich.; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853–March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1854 to the Thirty-fourth Congress; moved to Chicago, Ill.; enlisted in the Union Army during the Civil War, and was commissioned lieutenant colonel of the Forty-second Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry July 22, 1861; colonel of the Fifty-fifth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry October 31, 1861; appointed brigadier general of Volunteers November 20, 1862, but the Senate declined to confirm the nomination March 11, 1863; resigned April 3, 1863; resumed the practice of law in Detroit, Mich., and died there September 12, 1868; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

STUART, John Todd, a Representative from Illinois; born near Lexington, Ky., November 10, 1807; was graduated from Centre College, Danville, Ky., in 1826; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1828, and commenced practice in Springfield, Sangamon County, Ill.; subsequently became a law partner of Abraham Lincoln; major in the Black Hawk War in 1832; member of the State house of representatives 1832–1836; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1836 to the Twenty-fifth Congress; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1839–March 3, 1843); was not a candidate for renomination in 1842; member of the State senate 1848–1852; was the unsuccessful Constitutional Union candidate for Governor of Illinois in 1860; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1863–March 3, 1865); resumed the practice of law; died in Springfield, Sangamon County, Ill., November 23, 1885; interment in Oak Ridge Cemetery.

STUART, Philip, a Representative from Maryland; born near Fredericksburg, Va., in 1760; completed his preparatory education; moved to Maryland; served in the Revolutionary Army as a lieutenant in the Third Continental Dragoons; wounded at Eutaw Springs September 8, 1781; transferred to Baylor's dragoons November 9, 1782; lieutenant Second Artillerists and Engineers, June 5, 1798; resigned November 15, 1800; served in the War of 1812; elected as a Federalist to the Twelfth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth, and Fifteenth Congresses (March 4, 1811–March 3, 1819); died in Washington, D. C., August 14, 1830; interment in Congressional Cemetery.

STUMP, Herman, a Representative from Maryland; born on Oakington farm, in Harford County, Md., August 8, 1837; pursued classical studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1856, and commenced practice in Bel Air, Md.; also interested in agricultural pursuits; elected to the State senate in 1878 and served as president of that body in 1880; chairman of the Democratic State convention in 1879; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-first and Fifty-second Congresses (March 4, 1889–March 3, 1893); was not a candidate for renomination; appointed Superintendent of Immigration by President Cleveland April 8, 1893, and served until July 16, 1897; resumed the practice of his profession at Bel Air, Md.; died at his home, "Waverly," near Bel Air, Md., January 9, 1917; interment in St. Mary's Cemetery, Emmorton, Md.

STURGEON, Daniel, a Senator from Pennsylvania; born in Mount Pleasant, York (now Adams) County, Pa., October 27, 1789; attended the common schools; moved to western Pennsylvania in 1804 with his parents, who settled near Pittsburgh; was graduated from Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa. (now Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pa.), and Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, Pa.; commenced the practice of medicine in Uniontown, Pa., in 1813; appointed county coroner; member of the State house of representatives 1818–1824; served in the State senate 1825–1830, and was president of that body from 1828 to 1830; auditor general of Pennsylvania 1830–1836; State treasurer in 1838 and 1839; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy in the term commencing March 4, 1839, caused by the failure of the legislature to elect; reelected, and served from January 14, 1840, to March 3, 1851; was not a candidate for reelection; appointed by President Franklin Pierce treasurer of the United States Mint in Philadelphia, Pa., and served from May 3, 1853, to June 13, 1858; engaged in banking; died in Uniontown, Fayette County, Pa., July 3, 1878; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.

STURGES, Jonathan (father of Lewis Burr Sturges), a Delegate and a Representative from Connecticut; born in Fairfield, Conn., August 23, 1740; was graduated from Yale College in 1759; was admitted to the bar in May, 1772, and commenced practice in Fairfield, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives 1772 and 1773–1784; justice of the peace in 1773; Member of the Continental Congress from 1774 to 1787; judge of the probate court for the district of Fairfield in 1775; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1786; elector on the Federalist ticket of Pinckney and King in 1804; (March 4, 1789–March 3, 1793); associate justice of the State supreme court 1793–1805; Federalist presidential elector in 1796 and voted for John Adams for President; presidential elector on the Federalist ticket of Pinckney and King in 1804; died in Fairfield, Fairfield County, Conn., October 4, 1819; interment in the Old Burying Ground.

STURGES, Lewis Burr (son of Jonathan Sturges), a Representative from Connecticut; born in Fairfield, Conn., March 15, 1763; was graduated from Yale College in 1782; engaged in mercantile pursuits in New Haven; returned to Fairfield, Conn., in 1786; clerk of the probate court for the district of Fairfield 1787–1791; member of the State house of representatives 1794–1808; elected as a Federalist to the Ninth Congress to fill in part the vacancies caused by the resignations of Calvin Goddard and Roger Griswold; reelected to the Tenth and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from September 16, 1805, to March 3, 1817; moved to Norwalk, Huron County, Ohio, and died there March 30, 1844; interment in St. Paul's Episcopal Churchyard.

STURGISS, George Cookman, a Representative from West Virginia; born in Poland, Mahoning County, Ohio, August 16, 1842; attended country schools; moved to Morgantown, Va. (now West Virginia), in 1859; attended the Monongalia Academy, Morgantown, W. Va., and taught in that school for a short time; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1863, and commenced practice at Morgantown; was paymaster's clerk under Maj. James V. Boughner, paymaster of United States Volunteers, in the Civil War; county superintendent of free schools 1865–1869; member of the House of Delegates of West Virginia 1870–1872; prosecuting attorney of the county 1872–1880; Republican nominee for governor of the State in 1880; appointed United States attorney for the district of West Virginia in 1889 by President Harrison and served four years; first president of the State Board of Trade and of the State Association for the Promotion of Good Roads; elected as a Republican to the Sixtieth and Sixty-first Congresses (March 4, 1907–March 3, 1911); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1910 to the Sixty-second Congress; trustee of the American University, Washington, D. C.; was instrumental in the construction of the Morgantown & Kingwood Railroad; judge of the circuit court 1912–1920; engaged in the practice of law at Morgantown, Monongalia County, W. Va., until his death on February 26, 1925; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.

STURTEVANT, John Cirby, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Spring Township, Crawford County, Pa., February 20, 1835; attended the common schools; engaged in teaching and farming for a number of years; officer in the State house of representatives at Harrisburg in 1861, 1862, and 1864; delegate to the Republican State convention in 1865, and reelected six times, the last in 1890; member of the State house of representatives in 1865 and in 1866; moved to Conneautville, Pa., in 1867; engaged in the hardware business until 1873, and in manufacturing and milling until 1888; also engaged in banking and served as cashier and president of the First National Bank of Conneautville; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Benjamin Harrison and Levi P. Morton in 1888; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1897–March 3, 1899); was not a candidate for renomination in 1898; resumed banking interests in Conneautville, Crawford County, Pa., and died there December 20, 1912; interment in the Conneautville Cemetery.

SULLIVAN, Christopher Daniel, a Representative from New York; born in New York City July 14, 1870; attended the public schools, St. James Parochial School, and St. Mary's Academy, both in New York City; engaged in the real-estate business in 1904; elected a member of the State senate in 1906; reelected in 1908, 1910, 1912, and 1914, and served until 1918, when he was elected to Congress; was elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, and Sixty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1917–March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SULLIVAN, George (son of John Sullivan), a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Durham, N. H., August 29, 1771; was graduated from Harvard University in 1790; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Exeter, Rockingham County, N. H., in 1798; member of the State house of representatives in 1805; attorney general of New Hampshire in 1806 and 1808; elected to the Twelfth Congress (March 4, 1811–March 3, 1813); again a member of the State house of representatives in 1813; served in the State senate in 1814 and 1815; again attorney general of the State 1816–1835; died in Exeter, N. H., April 14, 1838; interment in the Old Cemetery (Winter Street).

SULLIVAN, James (brother of John Sullivan), a Delegate from Massachusetts; born in Berwick, Me. (then a part of Massachusetts), April 22, 1744; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar about 1782, and commenced practice in Biddeford; King's attorney for York County; active in pre-Revolutionary movements; member of the Provincial Congress of Massachusetts in 1774 and 1775; member of the general court in 1775 and 1778; justice of the superior court 1776-1782; Member of the Continental Congress in 1782; member of the executive council in 1787; judge of probate for Suffolk County in 1788; State attorney general 1790-1807; Governor of Massachusetts in 1807 and 1808; died in Boston, Mass., December 10, 1808; interment in Central Boston Common Cemetery.

SULLIVAN, John (brother of James Sullivan and father of George Sullivan), a Delegate from New Hampshire; born in Somersworth, N. H., February 17, 1740; received a limited education; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Durham in 1760; took an active part in pre-Revolutionary movements; Member of the Continental Congress in 1774 and 1775; during the Revolution was appointed brigadier general, later promoted to major general, and from June, 1775, until early in 1780 was an active participant in many major engagements and received the thanks of Washington and the approbation of Congress; resigned on account of ill health; again a Member of the Continental Congress in 1780 and 1781; attorney general of New Hampshire 1782-1786; President of New Hampshire in 1786 and 1787; member of the convention that ratified the Federal Constitution; speaker of the State house of representatives; presidential elector in 1789; again chosen President of New Hampshire; appointed by President Washington judge of the United States District Court of New Hampshire in September, 1789, and held that office until his death in Durham, N. H., January 23, 1795; interment in the Sullivan family cemetery.

SULLIVAN, John Andrew, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Boston, Mass., May 10, 1868; attended the public and high schools; was graduated from the Boston University Law School in 1896, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in Boston, Mass.; member of the State senate 1900-1902; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1907); declined to be a candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law in Boston, Mass.; appointed a member of the Boston Finance Commission in July, 1907, and served until the commission expired; in June, 1908, became chairman of the permanent finance commission; resigned in 1914 to become corporation counsel of Boston; lecturer on municipal government in Harvard University in 1912 and 1913; lecturer at Boston University Law School 1920-1925; resumed the practice of law in Boston; died in Scituate, Mass., May 31, 1927; interment in Holy Cross Cemetery, Malden, Mass.

SULLIVAN, Timothy Daniel, a Representative from New York; born in New York City July 23, 1862; attended the public schools; engaged in the real-estate and theatrical business; elected to the State assembly in 1886, and served until 1894; member of the State senate 1894-1903; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1903, to July 27, 1906, when he resigned; served in the State senate in 1908 and 1910; elected to the Sixty-third Congress, and served from March 4, 1913, until accidentally killed by a locomotive near Pelham Parkway, New York City, August 31, 1913; interment in Calvary Cemetery, Long Island City, N. Y.

SULLIVAN, William Van Amberg, a Representative and a Senator from Mississippi; born near Winona, Montgomery County, Miss., December 18, 1857; attended the common schools near Sardis, in Punola County, and the University of Mississippi at Oxford; was graduated from Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., in 1875; was admitted to the bar in 1875 and commenced practice in Austin, Tunica County; moved to Oxford, Lafayette County, Miss., in 1877; member of the board of city aldermen; delegate to the Democratic National Conventions at Chicago in 1892 and 1896; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth Congress, and served from March 4, 1897, to May 31, 1898, when he resigned, having been appointed Senator; appointed and subsequently elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Edward C. Walthall, and served from May 31, 1898, to March 3, 1901; retired from active business and resided in Washington, D. C.; died in Oxford, Miss., March 21, 1918; interment in St. Peter's Cemetery.

SULLOWAY, Cyrus Adams, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Grafton, Grafton County, N. H., June 8, 1839; attended the common schools, Colby Academy, and Kimball Academy; studied law in Franklin, N. H., was admitted to the bar in 1863, and commenced practice in Manchester, N. H.; member of the State house of representatives 1872, 1878, and 1887-1893; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and to the eight succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1912 to the Sixty-third Congress; elected to the Sixty-fourth and Sixty-fifth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1915, until his death in Washington, D. C., March 11, 1917; interment in the City Cemetery, Franklin, N. H.

SULZER, Charles August (brother of William Sulzer), a Delegate from the Territory of Alaska; born in Roselle, Union County, N. J., February 24, 1879; attended the public schools, Pingry School, Elizabeth, N. J., Berkeley Academy, New York City, and the United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y.; during the Spanish-American War served with the Fourth Regiment New Jersey Volunteer Infantry; moved to Alaska in 1902 and engaged in mining; member of the Alaska Territorial Senate in 1914; presented credentials as a Democratic Delegate elect to the Sixty-fifth Congress, and served from March 4, 1917, to January 7, 1919, when he was succeeded by James Wickersham, who contested his election; presented credentials as a Delegate elect to the Sixty-sixth Congress, and served from March 4, 1919, until his death in Sulzer, Alaska, April 28, 1919, before the convening of the Congress; interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Elizabeth, N. J.

SULZER, William (brother of Charles August Sulzer), a Representative from New York; born in Elizabeth, N. J., March 18, 1863; attended the public schools and Columbia College, New York City; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1884; commenced practice in New York City; member of the State assembly 1889-1894; speaker in 1893; delegate to the Democratic National Conventions at Chicago in 1892 and 1896, at Kansas City in 1900, at St. Louis in 1904, at Denver in 1908, and at Baltimore in 1912; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fourth and to the eight succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1895, to December 31, 1912, when he resigned, having been elected Governor of New York for the term commencing January 1, 1913, and served until October 18, 1913, when he was removed from office; elected as an independent to the State assembly November 4, 1913; independent candidate for governor in 1914; declined the nomination for President in 1916 by the American Party; engaged in the practice of law, and resides in New York City.

SUMMERS, George William, a Representative from Virginia; born near Alexandria, Fairfax County, Va., March 4, 1804; attended school at Charleston, Va. (now West Virginia) and Washington College (now Washington and Lee University), Lexington, Va.; was graduated from the Ohio University at Athens in 1826; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1827, and commenced practice in Charleston, Va.; member of the State house of delegates 1830-1832 and 1834-1836; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1845); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1844 to the Twenty-ninth Congress; elected delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1850; unsuccessful Whig candidate for governor in 1851; judge of the eighteen judicial circuit of Virginia 1852-1858; member of the peace conference held at Washington, D. C., in 1861 in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; delegate to the secession convention at Richmond, Va., in 1861; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Charleston, W. Va., September 19, 1868; interment in Walnut Grove Cemetery, Putnam County, W. Va.

SUMMERS, John William, a Representative from Washington; born near Valeene, Orange County, Ind., April 29, 1870; attended the public schools; worked on a farm, clerked in a village store, and taught school in Indiana and Texas; was graduated from the Southern Indiana Normal College at Mitchell, Ind., in 1889 and from the Kentucky School of Medicine at Louisville in 1892; pursued postgraduate studies in the Louisville Medical College and in New York, London, Berlin, and the University of Vienna, Austria; practiced medicine in Mattoon, Ill.; moved to Walla Walla, Wash., in 1908 and continued the practice of medicine and engaged also in agricultural pursuits and fruit raising; member of the State house of representatives in 1917; member of the Washington National Guard in 1917 and 1918; now a lieutenant colonel in the medical section of the Reserve Corps; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SUMNER, Charles, a Senator from Massachusetts; born in Boston, Mass., January 6, 1811; attended the Boston Latin School; was graduated from Harvard University in 1830 and from the Harvard Law School in 1833; was admitted to the bar the following year and commenced the practice of law in Boston, Mass.; appointed reporter of the United States circuit court; lectured at the Harvard Law School 1835-1837; traveled extensively in Europe from December, 1837, until May, 1840; declined the Whig nomination in 1846 for election to the Thirtieth Congress; one of the founders of the Free-Soil Party in 1848; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1848 on the Free-Soil ticket to the Thirty-first Congress; elected to the United States Senate in 1851, after a prolonged contest, by a coalition of Democratic and Free-Soil Parties; reelected as a Republican in 1857, 1863, and 1869, and served from April 24, 1851, until his death; was assaulted by Representative Preston Brooks, of South Carolina, May 22, 1856, while in his seat in the Senate, and was absent on account of injuries received until December 5, 1859; died in Washington, D. C., March 11, 1874; interment in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Mass.

SUMNER, Charles Allen, a Representative from California; born in Great Barrington, Mass., on August 2, 1835; attended Trinity College, Hartford, Conn.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and engaged in patent practice; moved to California in 1856 and settled in San Francisco; editor of the Herald and Mirror in 1861; during the Civil War was appointed November 26, 1862, to be captain and assistant quartermaster of United States Volunteers, and served until his resignation on March 30, 1864; moved to Virginia City, Nev.; member of the State senate 1865-1868 and served as president pro tempore for one session; returned to San Francisco in 1868 and became editor of the Herald; was elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession; died in San Francisco, Calif., January 31, 1903; interment in the George H. Thomas Post plot at the Presidio.

SUMNER, Daniel Hadley, a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Malone, Franklin County, N. Y., September 15, 1837; moved to Michigan with his parents, who settled in Richland in 1843; attended the common schools and Prairie Seminary, Richland, Mich.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1868, and commenced practice in Kalamazoo, Mich.; moved to Oconomowoc, Wis., in 1868 and practiced law, also published the La Belle Mirror; moved to Waukesha, Wis., in 1870 and continued the practice of his profession; town superintendent of schools; member of the county board of supervisors; district attorney of Waukesha County in 1876 and 1877; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); was not a candidate for renomination in 1884; resumed the practice of law; died in Waukesha, Wis., May 29, 1903; interment in Prairie Home Cemetery.

SUMNERS, Hutton William, a Representative from Texas; born near Fayetteville, Lincoln County, Tenn., May 30, 1875; moved to Dallas County, Tex., in 1893; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1897, and commenced practice in Dallas, Tex.; elected prosecuting attorney of Dallas County in 1900 and served two terms; president of the District and County Attorneys' Association of Texas in 1906 and 1907; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third and to the six succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1927); one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1923 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against George W. English, judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Illinois. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SUMTER, Thomas (grandfather of Thomas De Lage Sumter), a Representative and a Senator from South Carolina; born in Hanover County, Va., August 14, 1732; attended the common schools and received a college education; engaged in surveying; moved to South Carolina about 1760; lieutenant colonel of the Sixth Continental Regiment in the Revolutionary Army, attaining the rank of brigadier general of militia in 1780; voted the thanks of Congress in January, 1781; member of the State senate in 1781; elected to the privy council in 1782; elected a Delegate to the Continental Congress in 1783, but declined to accept; delegate to the State convention which ratified the Constitution and which he opposed; elected to the First and Second Congresses (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1793); was not a candidate for renomination in 1792; elected to the Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Congresses, and served from March 4, 1797, to December 15, 1801, when he resigned; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate on December 3, 1801, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Charles Pinckney; reelected in 1805 and served from December 15, 1801, until his resignation in 1810; elected a delegate to the State Rights and Free Trade Convention at Charleston, S. C., in 1822, but on account of his advanced age did not serve; retired from public life; died on his plantation, "South Mount," near Statesburg (now Dalsell), S. C., June 1, 1838; interment in the private burial ground on the family estate.

SUMTER, Thomas De Lage (grandson of Thomas Sumter), a Representative from South Carolina; born in Germantown, Pa., November 14, 1809; attended the common schools at Edgehill, near Statesburg (now Dalzell), S. C.; was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., in 1835; entered the United States Army as first lieutenant the same year and served until 1841, attaining the rank of colonel; engaged in the war against the Seminole Indians; moved to Statesburg, S. C.; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1843); was not a candidate for renomination; engaged in teaching, surveying, and agricultural pursuits; connected as agent with the South Carolina Railroad Co.; died on his plantation, "South Mount," near Statesburg (now Dalzell), S. C., July 2, 1874; interment in the private burial ground on his estate.

SUTHERLAND, Daniel Alexander, a Delegate from the Territory of Alaska; born in Pleasant Bay on Cape Breton Island, Canada, April 17, 1809; moved with his parents to Essex, Mass., in 1876; attended the public schools; employed as grocer's clerk, and subsequently engaged in the fish business; moved to Circle City, Alaska, in 1898 and thence to Nome, Alaska, in 1900; engaged in mining and fishing; member of the Territorial senate 1912-1920, and served as president in 1915; during the World War enrolled in the United States Naval Reserve and served until honorably discharged on July 30, 1921; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1927). Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

SUTHERLAND, George, a Representative and a Senator from Utah; born in Buckinghamshire, England, March 25, 1862; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Springville, Utah County, Utah, in 1864; received a common-school and academic education; studied law at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor; was admitted to the bar in 1883, and commenced practice at Provo, Utah; member of the State senate 1896-1900; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1900 and at Chicago in 1904, 1908, and 1912; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1901-March 3, 1903); declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1902 to the Fifty-eighth Congress; elected to the United States Senate in 1904; reelected in 1910, and served from March 4, 1905, to March 3, 1917; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; president of the American Bar Association in 1916 and 1917; counsel for the United States in the Norway-United States arbitration at The Hague in 1922; appointed by President Harding on September 5, 1922, an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States; entered upon the duties of that office on October 2, 1922, and is now serving in that capacity; resides in Salt Lake City, Utah, and Washington, D. C.

SUTHERLAND, Howard, a Representative and a Senator from West Virginia; born near Kirkwood, St. Louis County, Mo., September 8, 1835; attended the public schools of the county and the city of St. Louis; was graduated from the literary department of Westminster College, Fulton, Mo., in 1889; edited a daily and weekly newspaper at Fulton; moved to Washington, D. C., in 1890; employed in the Census Office in 1890; studied law at the Columbian (now George Washington) University, Washington, D. C.; moved to Elkins, Randolph County, W. Va., in 1898; engaged in the coal and railroad business, and later in the coal and timberland business; member of the State senate 1908-1912; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1917); did not seek renomination in 1916, having become a candidate for Senator; elected to the United States Senate in 1916, and served from March 4, 1917, to March 3, 1923; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1922; resumed his former business activities in Elkins, W. Va.; delegate at large to the Republican National Convention at Cleveland in 1924; vice president of the West Virginia Board of Trade; chairman of the West Virginia Good Roads Commission; member of the board of trustees of Davis and Elkins Presbyterian College; appointed Allen Property Custodian by President Coolidge on December 24, 1925, in which capacity he is now serving, and is located in Washington, D. C.

SUTHERLAND, Jabez Gridley, a Representative from Michigan; born in Van Buren, Onondaga County, N. Y., October 6, 1825; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1848, and commenced practice in Saginaw, Mich.; prosecuting attorney of Saginaw County, Mich., in 1848 and 1849; delegate to the State constitutional conventions in 1850 and 1867; member of the State house of representatives in 1853; judge of the tenth circuit court of Michigan from 1863 to 1871, when he resigned to enter Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1873); was not a candidate for renomination in 1872; moved to Salt Lake City in 1873 and continued the practice of law; elected first president of the Salt Lake Bar Association in 1881; a member of the faculty of what is now the University of Utah in 1889; president of the Territorial Bar Association in 1894 and 1895; moved to California in 1897; died in Berkeley, Calif., November 20, 1902; interment in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Salt Lake City, Utah.

SUTHERLAND, Joel Barlow, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Gloucester County, N. J., February 26, 1762; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1812; served in the War of 1812 as assistant surgeon to the "Junior Artillerists of Philadelphia," transferred to the line, and was appointed in 1814 lieutenant colonel of rifles in the State militia; member of the State house of representatives 1813-1816; physician to Lafayette; founder of Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia; served in the State senate in 1816 and 1817; abandoned medicine for the practice of law; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twentieth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1837); unsuccessful Whig candidate for reelection in 1836 to the Twenty-fifth Congress and for election in 1838 to the Twenty-sixth Congress; associate judge of the court of common pleas of Philadelphia, Pa., in 1833 and 1834; retired to private life; died in Philadelphia, Pa., November 15, 1861; interment in the cemetery of the Old Pine Street Presbyterian Church.

SUTHERLAND, Josiah, a Representative from New York; born in the township of Stanford, near the village of Striasing, Dutchess County, N. Y., June 12, 1804; attended the district school, and was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1824; studied law in Waterford and Hudson, was admitted to the bar in 1828, and commenced practice in the village of Johnstown, Livingston Township, N. Y.; district attorney for Columbia County 1832-1843; moved to Hudson, N. Y., in 1838 and continued the practice of law; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); was not a candidate for renomination; moved to New York City in 1857 and continued the practice of law; associate justice of the Supreme Court of New York 1857-1871; member and presiding judge of the court of general sessions 1872-1878; resumed the practice of law in New York City, and died there on May 25, 1887; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

SUTHERLAND, Roderick Dhu, a Representative from Nebraska; born in Scotch Grove, Jones County, Iowa, April 27, 1862; attended the common schools and Amity College, College Springs, Iowa; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1888, and commenced practice in Nelson, Nuckolls County, Nebr.; prosecuting attorney of Nuckolls County 1890-1896; served as chairman of the Populist State convention in 1899; appointed by Governor Poynter a delegate to the trust conference held in Chicago in September, 1899; elected as a Populist to the Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1901); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1900 to the Fifty-seventh Congress; delegate to the Populist National Convention held in Sioux Falls, S. Dak., in May, 1900; also a delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Kansas City, Mo., in July, 1900, which nominated Bryan and Stevenson, and at Denver, Colo., in July, 1908, which nominated Bryan and Kern; resumed the practice of his profession in Nelson, Nebr.; died in Kansas City, Wyandotte County, Kans., October 18, 1915; interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Nelson, Nebr.

SWAN, John, a Delegate from North Carolina; born in Pasquotank County, N. C., in 1760; tutored under Rev. Charles Earl, an English minister missionary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, at Edenton, N. C.; attended William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., about 1780; appointed a Delegate to the Continental Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Baptista Ashe, and served from March 22 to November 1, 1788; engaged in agricultural pursuits; strongly urged the adoption by North Carolina of the proposed Constitution of the United States; died in 1793; interment on the grounds of his plantation, "The Elms," in Pasquotank County, N. C.

SWAN, Samuel, a Representative from New Jersey; born near Scotch Plains, Somerset County, N. J., in 1771; studied medicine, and practiced in Boundbrook, N. J., 1800-1806 and in Somerville, N. J., 1806-1809; commissioned as sheriff of Somerset County October 13, 1804, for two years; county clerk 1809-1820; elected to the Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, Twentieth, and Twenty-first Congresses (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1831); was not a candidate for renomination; affiliated with the Whig Party; resumed the practice of medicine; died at Boundbrook, Somerset County, N. J., August 24, 1844; interment in the De Groot vault in the Presbyterian Cemetery.

SWANK, Fletcher B., a Representative from Oklahoma; born near Bloomfield, Davis County, Iowa, April 24, 1875; moved with his parents to Beef Creek, Ind. T., in 1888; worked on farms and ranches until 1897; attended the academy in Noble, Okla., and the University of Oklahoma at Norman; superintendent of schools of Cleveland County, Okla., 1908-1907; private secretary to Congressman Scott Ferris in 1907 and 1908; attended the law department of Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., in 1907 and 1908, and was graduated from Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1909; was admitted to the bar in 1909 and commenced practice in Norman, Cleveland County, Okla.; judge of the county court of Cleveland County, Okla., 1911-1915; judge of the fourteenth judicial district of Oklahoma from 1915 to September, 1920, when he resigned; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SWANN, Edward, a Representative from New York, born near Madison, Madison County, Fla., March 16, 1862; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the law department of Columbia College (now University), New York City, in 1886; was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in New York City; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Amos J. Cummings, and served from November 4, 1902, to March 3, 1903; was not a candidate for renomination in 1902; resumed the practice of law in New York City; elected in November, 1907, judge of the court of general sessions, city of New York, and served from January 1, 1908, until his resignation in 1916; district attorney for New York County 1916-1922; is a resident of New York City.

SWANN, Thomas, a Representative from Maryland; born in Alexandria, Va., February 3, 1809; attended Columbian College (now George Washington University), Washington, D. C., and the University of Virginia at Charlottesville; studied law; was appointed by President Jackson secretary of the United States Neapolitan Commission; moved to Baltimore, Md., in 1834; director and president of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad 1847-1853; president of the Northwestern Virginia Railroad; mayor of Baltimore 1856-1860; elected by the Union Party Governor of Maryland and served from 1865 to 1869; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1866, but declined to leave the governor's chair; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-first and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1879); died on his estate, "Morven Park," near Leesburg, Va., July 24, 1883; interment in Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore, Md.

SWANSON, Claude Augustus, a Representative and a Senator from Virginia; born in Swansonville, Pittsylvania County, Va., on March 31, 1862; attended the public schools; taught school; attended the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College (now the Virginia Polytechnic Institute) at Blacksburg; was graduated from Randolph-Macon College, Ashland, Va., in 1885 and from the law department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1886; was admitted to the bar in 1886 and commenced practice in Chatham, Pittsylvania County, Va.; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third and to the six succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1893, until his resignation, effective January 30, 1906; Governor of Virginia 1906-1910; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate on August 1, 1910, to fill the vacancy in the term ending March 3, 1911, caused by the death of John W. Daniel; again appointed on February 28, 1911, and subsequently elected to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John W. Daniel, who had been reelected for the term commencing March 4, 1911; reelected in 1916, and again in 1922 for the term ending March 3, 1929.

SWANWICK, John, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in 1740; engaged in mercantile pursuits and was also interested in literature, having published a volume of poetry; elected as a Democrat to the Fourth and Fifth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1795, until his death in Philadelphia, Pa., August 1, 1798; interment in St. Peter's Churchyard.

SWART, Peter, a Representative from New York; born in Schoharie, N. Y., July 5, 1752; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Schoharie; judge of the court of common pleas of Schoharie County in 1795; member of the State assembly in 1798 and 1799; elected to the Tenth Congress (March 4, 1807-March 3, 1809); sheriff of Schoharie County in 1810 and 1813; served in the State senate 1817-1820; resumed the practice of his profession in Schoharie, N. Y., and died there on November 8, 1829; interment in the Old Stone Fort Cemetery.

SWARTZ, Joshua William, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Lower Swatara Township, Dauphin County, Pa., June 9, 1837; reared on his father's farm; attended the rural schools, and was graduated from the law department of Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., in 1862; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Harrisburg, Pa.; member of the State house of representatives 1915-1917; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927); declined to become a candidate for reelection in 1928; resumed the practice of his profession, and is a resident of Harrisburg, Pa.

SWASEY, John Philip, a Representative from Maine; born in Canton, Oxford County, Me., September 4, 1839; attended the Canton public schools, Dearborn Academy, Hebron Academy, Maine State Seminary, and Tufts College, Medford, Mass.; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army and was appointed first lieutenant of Company K, Seventeenth Regiment Maine Volunteer Infantry; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1863, and commenced practice in Canton, Me.; town clerk and treasurer of Canton 1866 and 1867; county attorney of Oxford County, Me., 1868-1870; assessor of internal revenue in 1869 and 1870; member of the State house of representatives in 1874; served in the State senate in 1875 and 1876; member of Governor Roble's council in 1883 and 1884; elected as a Republican to the Sixtieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Charles E. Littlefield; reelected to the Sixty-first Congress, and served from November 3, 1908, to March 3, 1911; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1910 to the Sixty-second Congress; resumed the practice of his profession at Canton, Me., where he died May 27, 1928; interment in Pine Grove Cemetery.

SWEARINGEN, Henry, a Representative from Ohio; born in the Panhandle of Virginia about 1792; moved to Ohio and settled near Steubenville; sheriff of Jefferson County, Ohio, 1824-1828 and 1830-1832; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Daniel Kilgore; reelected to the Twenty-sixth Congress, and served from December 3, 1838, to March 3, 1841; died on board ship while en route to his home from the State of California and was buried at sea.

SWEAT, Lorenzo De Medici, a Representative from Maine; born in Parsonsfield, Me., May 26, 1818; was graduated from Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., in 1837 and from the law department of Harvard University in 1840; was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in New Orleans, La., in 1841; returned to Maine and settled in Portland; held several local offices, including city solicitor, 1850-1860; member of the State senate in 1862; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1865); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth Congress and for election in 1866 to the Fortieth Congress; delegate to the Union National Convention at Philadelphia in 1868; while attending the Democratic National Convention at Philadelphia in 1872 was chosen a member of the national committee and served four years; honorary commissioner to the World's Expositions at Paris in 1867 and at Vienna in 1873; died in Portland, Me., July 26, 1898; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

SWEENEY, William Northcut, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Liberty, Casey County, Ky., on May 5, 1832; attended the common schools and Bethany (W. Va.) College; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1853, and commenced practice in Liberty, Ky.; moved to Owensboro, Davless County, in 1853; prosecuting attorney of Davless County 1854-1858; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Douglas and Johnson in 1860; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); was renominated in 1870, but declined to accept the nomination; resumed the practice of law in Owensboro, Ky., and died there April 21, 1895; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

SWEENEY, George, a Representative from Ohio; born near Gettysburg, Pa., February 22, 1796; pursued academic studies and was graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Gettysburg in 1820; moved to Bucyrus, Crawford County, Ohio, in 1830; was prosecuting attorney of Crawford County in 1838; elected to the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1843); was not a candidate for renomination in 1842; resumed the practice of his profession; moved to Geneseo, Henry County, Ill., in 1858, and continued the practice of law; returned to Bucyrus, Ohio, in 1856; was again elected prosecuting attorney of Crawford County; retired from the practice of his profession and engaged in literary and scientific pursuits; died in Bucyrus, Ohio, October 10, 1877; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

SWEET, Barton Erwin, a Representative from Iowa; born near Waverly, Bremer County, Iowa, on December 10, 1867; attended the common schools and the Iowa State Normal School at Cedar Falls; was graduated from Cornell College, Mount Vernon, Iowa, in 1893 and from the law department of the University of Iowa at Iowa City in 1895; was admitted to the bar in 1895 and commenced practice in Waverly, Bremer County, Iowa; city solicitor of Waverly 1896-1899; member of the State house of representatives 1900-1904; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1904; member of the Republican State central committee 1902-1906; delegate to all State conventions since 1908; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, and Sixty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1923); did not seek renomination in 1922, having become a candidate for Senator; unsuccessful candidate for United States Senator in the Republican primary election of 1922 and again in 1924; resumed the practice of law; is a resident of Waverly, Iowa.

SWEET, Edwin Forrest, a Representative from Michigan; born in Dansville, Livingston County, N. Y., November 21, 1847; attended the common schools; was graduated from the literary department of Yale College in 1871 and from the law department of Michigan University at Ann Arbor in 1874; was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in Grand Rapids, Mich., in 1876; member of the board of education 1899-1906; mayor of Grand Rapids 1904-1906; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second Congress (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1912 to the Sixty-third Congress; Assistant Secretary of Commerce from 1913 to 1921; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Michigan in 1916; member of the Board of Education of Grand Rapids from 1923 to 1926; member of the city commission; operates a grain and stock ranch in North Dakota, and resides in Grand Rapids, Mich.

SWEET, Thaddeus C., a Representative from New York; born in Phoenix, Oswego County, N. Y., November 16, 1872; attended the public schools; was graduated from Phoenix Academy and High School; entered business and for two years served as a traveling salesman; town clerk of Phoenix 1896-1899; in 1896 began the manufacture of paper and was president of the paper manufacturing company which bears his name; also engaged in banking; was a delegate to nearly all Republican National Conventions since 1908; elected to the New York State Assembly, and served from 1910 to 1920 and as speaker from 1914 to 1920; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Luther W. Mott; reelected to the Sixty-ninth and Seventieth Congresses, and served from November 6, 1923, until his death as the result of an airplane accident at Whitney Point, Broome County, N. Y., on May 1, 1923; interment in Rural Cemetery, Phoenix, Oswego County, N. Y.

SWEET, Willis, a Representative from Idaho; born at Alburg Springs, Vt., January 1, 1856; attended the common schools and the University of Nebraska at Lincoln; learned the printer's trade in Lincoln, Nebr.; moved to Moscow, Latah County, Idaho, in September, 1881; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1889, and commenced practice in Moscow; appointed United States attorney for Idaho in May, 1888; judge of the first judicial district of Idaho from November 19, 1889, to January 1, 1890; appointed associate justice of the Supreme Court of Idaho November 25, 1889; first president of the board of regents of the University of Idaho 1889-1893; upon the admission of Idaho as a State into the Union was elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first Congress; reelected to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses, and served from October 1, 1890, to March 3, 1895; was not a candidate for renomination in 1894; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1896; resumed the practice of his profession in Coeur d'Alene, Kootenai County, Idaho; attorney general for Porto Rico 1903-1905; editor of a newspaper in San Juan, P. R., from 1913 until his death there on July 9, 1925; interment in Santurce Cemetery.

SWEETSER, Charles, a Representative from Ohio; born in Dummerston, Vt., January 22, 1808; moved with his parents to Delaware, Ohio, in 1817; attended the public schools; engaged in mercantile pursuits; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1832, and commenced practice in Delaware, Delaware County, Ohio; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-first and Thirty-second Congresses (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1853); resumed the practice of law; died in Delaware, Ohio, April 14, 1864; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.

SWENKY, Joseph Henry, a Representative from Iowa; born in Warren County, Pa., October 2, 1845; attended the public schools of Pennsylvania and Iowa, and was graduated from the law department of the University of Iowa at Iowa City in 1880; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Osage, Mitchell County, Iowa; also engaged in banking and agricultural pursuits; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army and served as sergeant in Company K, Twenty-seventh Regiment Iowa Volunteer Infantry; colonel of the Sixth Regiment National Guard of Iowa for four years and brigadier and inspector general of the State; member of the State senate 1883-1891, and served as president pro tempore in 1886; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1891); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1890 to the Fifty-second Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in Osage, Iowa; died while on a visit in Norfolk, Va., November 11, 1918; interment in Osage Cemetery, Osage, Iowa.

SWIFT, Benjamin, a Representative and a Senator from Vermont; born in Amenia, N. Y., April 3, 1781; moved with his father to Bennington, Vt., in 1786; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1806, and commenced practice in Bennington; moved to Manchester and then to St. Albans in 1809; practiced law and also engaged in banking and agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives in 1813, 1825, and 1826; elected as a Federalist to the Twentieth and Twenty-first Congresses (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1831); was not a candidate for renomination in 1830; elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1833, to March 3, 1839; was not a candidate for renomination in 1839; resumed the practice of law and also engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in St. Albans, Franklin County, Vt., November 11, 1847; interment in the Old Cemetery, South Main Street.

SWIFT, Oscar William, a Representative from New York; born in Paines Hollow, Herkimer County, N. Y., April 11, 1869; moved to Michigan with his parents, who settled in Adrian in 1877; attended the public schools and the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor; was graduated from the New York Law School, New York City, in 1896; was admitted to the bar in 1897 and commenced practice in New York City; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth and Sixty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1919); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1918 to the Sixty-sixth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in New York City, and is a resident of Brooklyn, N. Y.

SWIFT, Zephaniah, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Wareham, Plymouth County, Mass., February 27, 1759; moved with his parents to Lebanon, New London County, Conn.; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Yale College in 1778; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Windham, Windham County, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives 1787-1793; clerk of the house for four sessions; served as speaker in 1792; elected as a Federalist to the Third and Fourth Congresses (March 4, 1793-March 3, 1797); resumed the practice of law at Windham; also engaged in literary pursuits; secretary of the French mission in 1800; judge of the supreme court in 1801 and chief justice 1806-1819; member of the New England Federalists Convention at Hartford in 1814; again a member of the State house of representatives 1820-1822; died in Warren, Trumbull County, Ohio, while on a visit to a son, September 27, 1823; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

SWINBURNE, John, a Representative from New York; born at Deer River, Lewis County, N. Y., on May 30, 1820; attended the public schools and academies of Denmark and Lowville, Lewis County, and the academy in Fairfield, Herkimer County; was graduated from the Albany Medical College in 1847 and commenced practice as a physician and surgeon; during the Civil War was appointed in 1861 chief medical officer on the staff of Gen. John F. Rathbone and placed in charge of the depot for recruits in Albany; appointed by Governor Morgan in May, 1862, auxiliary Volunteer surgeon at the front with the rank of medical superintendent of New York wounded troops and reappointed June 13 by Governor Seymour; appointed by the Surgeon General of the United States Army and assigned to duty at Savage Station by General McClellan; taken prisoner of war June 29, 1862; appointed by Governor Seymour in 1864 health officer of the port of New York and reappointed by Governor Fenton in 1866, holding the position six years; in charge of the American Ambulance Corps during the siege of Paris by the Prussians in 1870 and 1871; elected mayor of Albany in 1882 and counted out, but after fourteen months' litigation was awarded the office by the courts; elected as a Republican to the Forty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1887); resumed the practice of his profession; died in Albany, N. Y., March 28, 1889; interment in Albany Rural Cemetery.

SWINDALL, Charles, a Representative from Oklahoma; born at College Mound, near Terrell, Kaufman County, Tex., February 13, 1876; attended the public schools and Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn.; was graduated from the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1897, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in Woodward, Woodward County, Okla.; prosecuting attorney of Day (now Ellis) County 1898-1900; returned to Woodward in 1900 and continued the practice of law; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1916; during the World War took an active part in American Red Cross work; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dick T. Morgan, and served from November 2, 1920, to March 3, 1921; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1920; resumed the practice of law in Woodward, Okla.; appointed on April 26, 1924, Judge of the twentieth judicial district of Oklahoma, in which capacity he is now serving; is a resident of Woodward, Okla.

SWING, Philip David, a Representative from California; born in San Bernardino, in San Bernardino County, Calif., on November 30, 1884; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Leland Stanford Junior University, California, in 1905; first lieutenant California National Guard 1906-1908; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1907, and commenced practice in San Bernardino; city attorney Brawley, Calif., in 1908 and 1909; deputy district attorney of Imperial County 1908-1911; district attorney of the same county 1911-1915; chief counsel of the Imperial Irrigation District 1916-1919; judge of the superior court of Imperial County 1919-1921; was in service during the World War at Camp Taylor, Ky.; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

SWITZER, Robert Mauck, a Representative from Ohio; born near Gallipolis, Gallia County, Ohio, March 6, 1868; attended the district schools, Gallia Academy, and Rio Grande College; deputy sheriff of Gallia County 1888-1892; attended the law departments of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville and the Ohio State University at Columbus; was admitted to the bar in 1892 and commenced practice in Gallipolis, Ohio; prosecuting attorney of Gallia County 1893-1900; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1900 and at Chicago in 1920; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Taft and Sherman in 1908; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second, Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, and Sixty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1919); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1918; resumed the practice of law in Gallipolis, Ohio, where he now resides.

SWOPE, Jacob, a Representative from Virginia; born in Philadelphia, Pa.; attended the common schools; moved to Staunton, Va., in 1789 and engaged in the mercantile business; held several local offices; elected the first mayor of Staunton under the new charter of 1801; elected as a Federalist to the Eleventh Congress (March 4, 1808-March 3, 1811); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1810; member of the State constitutional convention in 1812; presidential elector on the Federalist ticket of King and Davis in 1812.

SWOPE, William Irvin (nephew of John Patton), a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pa., October 3, 1862; attended the public schools, Hill School, Pottstown, Pa., and Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass.; was graduated from the law department of Harvard University in 1886, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in Clearfield; county chairman and district attorney for Clearfield County from 1891 to 1907; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1910; deputy attorney general for Pennsylvania 1919-1923; was elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1926; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Clearfield, Pa.

SWOPE, John Augustus, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Gettysburg, Adams County, Pa., December 25, 1827; attended the common schools at Gettysburg, Pa., and Mount St. Mary's Academy, Emmitsburg, Md.; was graduated from Princeton College in 1847 and from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, but discontinued the practice of medicine after a few years and engaged in mercantile pursuits in Baltimore; returned to Gettysburg and became president of the Gettysburg National Bank in 1879; also engaged in manufacturing and agricultural pursuits; elected in 1884 as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William A. Duncan, and served from December 23, 1884, to March 3, 1885; subsequently elected in 1885 to the Forty-ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Duncan, who had been reelected, and served from November 3, 1885, to March 3, 1887; was not a candidate for renomination in 1886; moved to Washington, D. C., and engaged in banking until his death in the latter city on December 6, 1910; interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Gettysburg, Pa.

SWOPE, King, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Danville, Boyle County, Ky., on August 10, 1893; attended the common schools; was graduated from Centre College, Danville, Ky., in 1914 and from the law department of the University of Kentucky at Lexington in 1915; was admitted to the bar in 1915 and commenced practice in Lexington, Ky.; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Hughes and Fairbanks in 1916; enlisted and served during the World War as captain of Infantry; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Harvey Helm, and served from August 2, 1919, to March 3, 1921; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1920 to the Sixty-seventh Congress; appointed aide-de-camp with the rank of colonel on the staff of Gov. Edwin P. Morrow in 1919; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Lexington, Ky.

SWOPE, Samuel Franklin, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Bourbon County, Ky., March 1, 1809; attended the rural schools of Bourbon and Scott Counties and the Georgetown College, Georgetown, Ky.; studied law, was admitted to the bar on March 1, 1830, and commenced practice in Georgetown, Ky.; moved to Falmouth, Pendleton County, Ky., in 1832 and continued the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives 1837-1839 and in 1841; served in the State senate 1844-1848; elected by the American Party to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); was not a candidate for renomination in 1856; affiliated with the Republican Party in 1856; engaged in the practice of law at Falmouth, Ky., until his death in that city on April 19, 1865; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

SYKES, George, a Representative from New Jersey; born near Sykesville, Burlington County, N. J., September 20, 1802; educated by private teachers; became a surveyor and conveyancer; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1845); elected to the Twenty-ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Samuel G. Wright, and served from November 4, 1845, to March 8, 1847; resumed his former pursuits; member of the council of properties of West Jersey; member of the State assembly 1877-1879; died near Columbia, Mansfield Township, Burlington County, N. J., February 25, 1880; interment in Upper Springfield Cemetery, near Wrightstown, N. J.

SYKES, James, a Delegate from Delaware; born in 1725; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice; lieutenant in Capt. Caesar Rodney's company of Dover Militia in 1756; member of the council of safety in 1776; delegate to the State constitutional convention held at New Castle, Del., in 1776; member of the Continental Congress in 1777 and 1778; clerk of the peace 1777-1792; prothonotary of Kent County 1777-1793; served in the State council in 1780; member of the State legislature which ratified the Federal Constitution on December 7, 1787; again a delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1790; presidential elector in 1792 and voted for Washington and Adams; judge of the High Court of Errors and Appeals of Delaware; died in Dover, Del., April 4, 1792; interment in the burial ground of Christ Church.

SYMES, George Gifford, a Representative from Colorado; born in Ashtabula County, Ohio, April 28, 1840; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in Company B, Second Regiment Wisconsin Volunteers, April 12, 1861; wounded in the first Battle of Bull Run; adjutant of the Twenty-fifth Regiment Wisconsin Infantry; served in the Sioux Indian campaign of 1862 and in the Vicksburg campaign of 1863; was in the Atlanta campaign of 1864 and wounded in the Battle of Atlanta July 22, 1864; commissioned colonel of the Forty-fourth Regiment Wisconsin Volunteers in August, 1864; commanded the post at Paducah, Ky., during the summer of 1865; mustered out August 28, 1865; practiced law in Paducah, Ky.; associate justice of the Supreme Court of Montana Territory 1869-1871; resumed the practice of law in Helena, Mont.; moved to Denver, Colo., in 1874; elected as a Republican to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1889); engaged in the management of his estate and in the practice of law; died in Denver, Colo., November 3, 1893; interment in Fairmount Cemetery.

SYMME, John Cleves, a Delegate from New Jersey; born in Riverhead, Long Island, N. Y., July 21, 1742; completed preparatory studies; moved to New Jersey; chairman of the committee of safety of Sussex County in 1774; member of the State council in 1778; served in the Revolutionary Army; chief justice of the State supreme court 1777-1787; Member of the Continental Congress in 1785 and 1789; moved to the Northwest Territory and settled in North Bend, below Cincinnati; appointed one of the three judges of the Northwest Territory in 1788 and held the position until Ohio was admitted into the Union; died in Cincinnati, Ohio, February 26, 1814; interment in Congress Green Cemetery, North Bend, Ohio.

SYPPER, Jacob Hale, a Representative from Louisiana; born near Millerstown, Perry County, Pa., on June 22, 1837; received a liberal education, and was graduated from Alfred University, Alfred, N. Y., in 1859; taught school in Cleveland, Ohio; during the Civil War entered the Union Army as a private in Company A, First Ohio Light Artillery; promoted to first lieutenant of Company B on October 8, 1861; resigned February 3, 1864; later, on August 11, 1864, served as colonel of the Eleventh United States Colored Heavy Artillery; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers March 13, 1865, "for faithful and meritorious services during the war"; honorably mustered out October 2, 1865; after the war bought a plantation in northern Louisiana, but about two years later commenced the study of law; was admitted to the bar and practiced in New Orleans, La.; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1868; upon readmission of the State of Louisiana to representation was elected as a Republican to the Fortieth Congress, and served from July 18, 1868, to March 3, 1869; contested the election of Louis St. Martin to the Forty-first Congress, but the House decided that neither was entitled to the seat; was subsequently elected to the Forty-first Congress to fill the vacancy thus created; was reelected to the Forty-second Congress, and served from November 7, 1870, to March 3, 1873; presented credentials as a Member elect to the Forty-third Congress, and served from March 4, 1873, to March 3, 1875, when he was succeeded by Effingham Lawrence, who contested the election; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Washington, D. C.; died in Baltimore, Md., May 9, 1905; interment in Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va.

TABER, John, a Representative from New York; born in Auburn, Cayuga County, N. Y., May 5, 1880; attended the public schools; was graduated from Yale University in 1902 and from the New York Law School in 1904; was admitted to the bar November 15, 1904, and commenced practice in Auburn, N. Y.; supervisor of Cayuga County 1905-1907; special judge of the county court 1911-1919; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1920 and at Cleveland in 1924; chairman of the Cayuga County Republican committee 1920-1925; president of the Auburn Chamber of Commerce in 1922; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

TABER, Stephen (son of Thomas Taber, 2d), a Representative from New York; born in Dover, Dutchess County, N. Y., March 7, 1821; completed preparatory studies; moved to Queens County and engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State assembly in 1860 and 1861; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congresses (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1869); assisted in organizing the Long Island North Shore Transportation Co. in 1861 and served as its president for several years; director of the Long Island Railroad Co.; became the first president of the Roslyn Savings Bank in 1876 and served in this capacity for a number of years; died in New York City on April 23, 1886; interment in Roslyn Cemetery, Roslyn, Long Island, N. Y.

TABER, Thomas, 2d (father of Stephen Taber), a Representative from New York; born in Dover, Dutchess County, N. Y., May 10, 1785; attended the common schools; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State assembly in 1826; elected as a Democrat to the Twentieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas J. Oakley, and served from November 5, 1828, to March 3, 1829; died in Roslyn, Long Island, N. Y., March 21, 1862; interment in the Friends Cemetery, Westbury, Long Island, N. Y.

TABOR, Horace Austin Warner, a Senator from Colorado; born in Holland, Orleans County, Vt., November 26, 1830; attended the common schools and received instruction from a private tutor; moved to Quincy, Mass., and then to Augusta, Me., where he worked at the stonecutter's trade; moved to Kansas in 1855 and settled in Riley County; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the Topeka Legislature when it was dispersed by order of President Pierce; moved to Denver, Colo., in 1859 and in the following year to California Gulch (now Leadville); engaged in mining and mercantile pursuits; postmaster of Leadville from February 19 to December 18, 1878; city mayor in 1878 and 1879; treasurer of Lake County; Lieutenant Governor of Colorado in 1878-1884; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Henry M. Teller, and served from January 27 to March 3, 1885; was not a candidate for reelection; postmaster of Denver, Colo., from January 14, 1898, until his death in that city April 10, 1899; interment in Mount Calvary Cemetery.

TAFTE, John, a Representative from Nebraska; born in Indianapolis, Ind., on January 30, 1827; completed preparatory studies; studied law and was admitted to the bar in Indianapolis, Ind.; moved to Nebraska in 1856; member of the Territorial house of representatives in 1858 and 1859; member of the Territorial council in 1860 and 1861 and served as president; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army and served as major in the Second Regiment Nebraska Volunteer Cavalry; returned to Omaha, Nebr.; elected as a Republican to the Fortieth and two succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1873); resumed the practice of law; receiver of the public land office in North Platte, Nebr., where he died March 14, 1884; interment in Prospect Hill Cemetery, Omaha, Nebr.

TAFT, Charles Phelps, a Representative from Ohio; born in Cincinnati, Ohio, December 21, 1843; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., in 1860, from Yale College in 1864, and from Columbia College Law School of New York City in 1866; was admitted to the bar in 1866; went to Germany and was graduated from the University of Heidelberg in 1867; commenced practice in Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1869; member of the State house of representatives 1871-1873; editor of the Cincinnati Times-Star in 1879; member of the board of sinking-fund trustees of the city of Cincinnati for sixteen years, and for a number of years its president; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); was not a candidate for renomination in 1896; resumed newspaper business in Cincinnati, Ohio; presidential elector at large on the Republican ticket of Roosevelt and Fairbanks in 1904; president of the Electoral College in 1906; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1908 and in 1912 which nominated the presidential ticket of William H. Taft and James S. Sherman; director in various corporations, particularly public utilities; is a resident of Cincinnati, Ohio.

TAGGART, Joseph, a Representative from Kansas; born near Waukon, Allamakee County, Iowa, on June 15, 1867; attended the district school; moved to Salina, Kans., in 1885; was graduated from the Salina (Kans.) Normal University in 1890; taught school in Bavaria, Kans., 1892-1893; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1893, and commenced the practice of his profession in Kansas City, Kans.; prosecuting attorney of Wyandotte County 1907-1911; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Alexander C. Mitchell; reelected to the Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth Congresses, and served from November 7, 1911, to March 3, 1917; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1916 to the Sixty-fifth Congress; served as captain in the Quartermaster Corps of the United States Army during the World War; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Kansas City, Kans.

TAGGART, Samuel, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Londonderry, N. H., March 24, 1754; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1774; studied theology and was licensed to preach in 1776; was ordained to the Presbyterian ministry on February 19, 1777, and installed as pastor of a church in Colrain, Mass.; journeyed as a missionary through western New York; elected as a Federalist to the Eighth and to the six succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1803-March 3, 1817); was not a candidate for renomination in 1816; continued his service as pastor of the Colrain Presbyterian Church until October 28, 1818, when he resigned; died on his farm in Colrain, Franklin County, Mass., April 25, 1825; interment in Chandler Hill Cemetery.

TAGGART, Thomas, a Senator from Indiana; born in County Monaghan, Ireland, November 17, 1856; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Xenia, Greene County, Ohio, in 1861; attended the common schools; moved to Indianapolis, Ind., in 1877; auditor of Marion County 1886-1894; chairman of the Democratic State committee 1892-1894; district chairman for twelve years; mayor of Indianapolis 1895-1901; member of the Democratic National Committee 1900-1912, and served as chairman 1900-1908; delegate to all the Democratic National Conventions from 1900 to 1924; became president of the French Lick Hotel Co.; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Benjamin F. Shively, and served from March 20 to November 7, 1918; unsuccessful candidate for election to fill the vacancy; resumed his former business pursuits; elected chairman of the board of directors of the Fletcher National Bank, Indianapolis, Ind., in 1924, which position he is still holding; is a resident of French Lick, Ind.

TAGUE, Peter Francis, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Boston, Mass., June 4, 1871; attended the public schools and was graduated from Frothingham and English High Schools; became a manufacturing chemist; member of the Boston Common Council 1894-1896; member of the State house of representatives in 1897 and 1898 and again in 1913 and 1914; served in the State senate in 1899 and 1900; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fourth and Sixty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1919); successfully contested the election of John F. Fitzgerald to the Sixty-sixth Congress; reelected to the Sixty-seventh and Sixty-eighth Congresses, and served from October 23, 1919, to March 3, 1925; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1924; resumed the manufacture of chemicals and is a resident of Boston, Mass.

TAIT, Charles, a Senator from Georgia; born near the present town of Hanover, Hanover County, Va., February 1, 1768; moved to Wilkes County, Ga., in 1783 with his parents, who settled near Petersburg; completed preparatory studies; attended Wilkes Academy, Washington, Ga., in 1786 and 1787, and Cokesburg College, Abingdon, Md., in 1788; professor of French in Cokesburg College 1789-1794; studied law while teaching, and was admitted to the bar in Elbert County in 1795; rector and professor in Richmond Academy in Augusta 1795-1798; commenced the practice of law in Elbert County in 1798; presiding judge of the western circuit court of Georgia 1803-1809; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Milledge; was reelected in 1813, and served from November 27, 1809, to March 3, 1819; moved to Wilcox County, Ala., in 1819; appointed by President Monroe United States district judge for Alabama on May 10, 1820, and served until 1826, when he resigned; engaged as a planter near Claiborne, Ala.; declined a mission to Great Britain in 1828; died near Claiborne, Ala., October 7, 1835; interment in Dry Forks Cemetery on his country estate, Wilcox County, Ala.

TALBERT, William Jasper, a Representative from South Carolina; born near Edgefield, Edgefield County, S. C., October 6, 1846; attended the common schools, Due West Academy, Abbeville, S. C., and Erskine College, Due West, S. C.; served in the Confederate Army throughout the Civil War and was promoted from private to colonel for bravery; engaged in agricultural pursuits; was a member of the State house of representatives 1880-1884; served in the State senate 1884-1888; superintendent of the State penitentiary 1891-1893; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1892; mayor of Parksville 1895-1900; president of the Democratic State convention in 1899; held various positions in the Farmers' Alliance; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1903); was not a candidate for renomination in 1902; retired from public life; resumed agricultural pursuits; is a resident of Parksville, McCormick County, S. C.

TALBOT, Isham, a Senator from Kentucky; born near Talbot, Bedford County, Va., in 1773; moved with his father to Harrodsburg, Ky.; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Versailles, Ky.; moved to Frankfort, Ky., and continued the practice of law; member of the State senate 1812-1815; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Jesse Bledsoe, and served from January 3, 1815, to March 3, 1819; again elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William Logan, and served from October 19, 1820, to March 3, 1825; resumed the practice of law; died near Frankfort, Ky., September 25, 1837; interment in the State Cemetery, Frankfort, Ky.

TALBOT, Silas, a Representative from New York; born in Dighton, Bristol County, Mass., January 11, 1751; completed preparatory studies; went to sea on a coasting vessel; engaged in mercantile pursuits in Providence, R. I.; lieutenant and captain in the Revolutionary Army; promoted to the rank of major October 10, 1777, and to lieutenant colonel October 29, 1778; commissioned captain in the Continental Navy September 17, 1779; captured by the British in November, 1780, and imprisoned in England until 1781, when he was exchanged and sent to Cherbourg, France; returned to America and resided in Philadelphia, Pa.; moved to Albany, N. Y., and engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State assembly in 1792 and 1793; elected as a Federalist to the Third Congress (March 4, 1793-March 3, 1795); again commissioned by President Washington May 11, 1798, a captain in the United States Navy; resigned September 21, 1801; died in New York City June 30, 1813; interment in Trinity Churchyard.

TALBOTT, Albert Gallatin (uncle of William Clayton Anderson), a Representative from Kentucky; born near Paris, Bourbon County, Ky., April 4, 1808; moved with his parents to Clark County in 1813 and to Jessamine County in 1818; attended Forrest Hill Academy, Jessamine County, Ky.; studied law, but did not practice; engaged in agricultural pursuits; moved to Mercer County in 1838 and engaged in the real-estate business; moved to Danville, Boyle County, Ky., in 1846; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1849; member of the State house of representatives in 1850; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1859); resumed real-estate pursuits; served in the State senate 1869-1873; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1883; moved to Pennsylvania and settled near Chestnut Hill, and engaged in agricultural pursuits and stock raising; died in Philadelphia, Pa., September 9, 1887; interment in Bellevue Cemetery, Danville, Ky.

TALBOTT, Joshua Frederick Cockey, a Representative from Maryland; born near Lutherville, Baltimore County, Md., July 29, 1843; attended the public schools; began the study of law in 1862; joined the Confederate Army in 1864 and served as a private in the Second Maryland Cavalry throughout the remainder of the Civil War; was admitted to the bar in 1866 and began the practice of law in Towson, Baltimore County, Md.; prosecuting attorney for Baltimore County 1871-1876; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1876; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, and Forty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1885); was not a candidate for reelection in 1884; appointed insurance commissioner of Maryland in October, 1880, and resigned in January, 1893, having been elected to Congress; elected to the Fifty-third Congress (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1895); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Towson; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1900 to the Fifty-seventh Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1904 and at Denver in 1908; elected to the Fifty-eighth and to the seven succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1903, until his death in Lutherville, Md., October 5, 1918; interment in Sherwood Cemetery, Cockeysville, Baltimore County, Md.

TALCOTT, Charles Andrew, a Representative from New York; born in Oswego, Oswego County, N. Y., June 10, 1857; attended the public schools and Utica Free Academy; was graduated from Princeton University in 1879; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1881, and commenced practice in Utica, N. Y.; clerk of the city court 1881-1883; city counsel of Utica in 1886; member of the board of police and fire commissioners 1888-1892; trustee of the Utica Public Library 1893-1901; mayor of the city of Utica 1902-1906; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second and Sixty-third Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; engaged in the practice of law until his death in Utica, N. Y., February 27, 1920; interment in Forest Hill Cemetery.

TALIAFERRO, Benjamin, a Representative from Georgia; born in Virginia in 1750; completed preparatory studies; served in the Revolutionary War as a lieutenant in the rifle corps commanded by General Morgan; was promoted to captain; captured by the British at Charleston in 1780; after independence had been established he settled in Georgia in 1785; member of the State senate and its president; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1798; elected to the Sixth and Seventh Congresses, and served from March 4, 1799, until his resignation in 1802; judge of the superior court; trustee of the Georgia University; died in Wilkes County, Ga., September 3, 1821.

TALIAFERRO, James Piper, a Senator from Florida; born in Orange, Orange County, Va., September 30, 1847; attended the common schools and the William Dinwiddie School in Greenwood, Va.; during the Civil War enlisted in the Confederate Army in 1864 and served until the close of the war; resumed his studies in college; moved to Jacksonville, Fla.; engaged in the lumber business; president of the First National Bank of Tampa; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy in the term beginning March 4, 1899; appointed and subsequently reelected in 1903, and served from April 20, 1899, to March 3, 1911; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; resumed his former business pursuits in Jacksonville, Duval County, Fla.; retired from active business in 1920, and is a resident of Jacksonville.

TALIAFERRO, John, a Representative from Virginia; born on the estate, "Hays," near Fredericksburg, King George County, Va., in 1798; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Fredericksburg, Va.; elected as a Democrat to the Seventh Congress (March 4, 1801–March 3, 1803); presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Jefferson and Clinton in 1804; successfully contested the election of John P. Hungerford to the Twelfth Congress, and served from November 20, 1811, to March 3, 1813; unsuccessfully contested the election of John P. Hungerford to the Thirteenth Congress; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Monroe and Tompkins in 1820; elected to the Eighteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William L. Ball; reelected to the Nineteenth, Twentieth, and Twenty-first Congresses, and served from March 24, 1824, to March 3, 1831; again elected as a Whig, to the Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1835–March 3, 1843); librarian of the United States Treasury Department from 1850 until his death at his residence, "Hagley," near Fredericksburg, King George County, Va., August 12, 1852; interment on his farm, "Hagley."

TALLMADGE, Benjamin (father of Frederick Augustus Tallmadge), a Representative from Connecticut; born in Brookhaven, Long Island, N. Y., February 25, 1754; moved to Litchfield, Conn., in 1783; was graduated from Yale College in 1773; superintendent of Wethersfield High School 1773–1778; served throughout the whole period of the Revolutionary War; commissioned lieutenant in the Continental Line June 20, 1776; promoted to captain of dragoons December 15, 1776; major April 7, 1777, and colonel September 5, 1779; led the expedition which captured Fort George and destroyed the magazines of the British Army at Oyster Bay, Long Island, for which he received the public tribute of the Continental Congress; in charge of Maj. John André until his execution; was appointed postmaster at Litchfield, Conn., in 1792; first president of the Phoenix Branch Bank; treasurer and later president of the Society of the Cincinnati; elected as a Federalist to the Seventh and to the seven succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1801–March 3, 1817); declined to be a candidate for renomination, engaged in mercantile pursuits, and was an importer, also interested in banking; died in Litchfield, Conn., March 7, 1835; interment in the East Cemetery.

TALLMADGE, Frederick Augustus (son of Benjamin Tallmadge), a Representative from New York; born in Litchfield, Conn., August 20, 1792; completed preparatory studies, and was graduated from Yale College in 1811; studied law in the Litchfield Law School, was admitted to the bar in 1811, and commenced practice in New York City in 1813; served as captain in the War of 1812; member of the Board of Aldermen of New York City in 1834; served as common councilman in 1836; member of the State senate 1837–1840, and during the last session served as president pro tempore; recorder of the city of New York 1841–1846; elected as a Whig to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847–March 3, 1849); was not a candidate for renomination in 1848; again recorder of the city of New York 1848–1851; superintendent of the Metropolitan police 1857–1862; clerk of the New York Court of Appeals 1862–1865; resumed the practice of law in New York City; returned to Litchfield, Conn., in 1860, and died there on September 17, 1869; interment in the East Cemetery.

TALLMADGE, James, Jr., a Representative from New York; born in Stanfordville, Dutchess County, N. Y., January 20, 1778; was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1798; secretary to Governor Clinton 1798–1800; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1802, and practiced in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and in New York City; served in the War of 1812 and commanded a company of home guards in defense of New York; elected as a Democrat to the Fifteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Henry B. Lee, and served from June 6, 1817, to March 3, 1819; declined a renomination; delegate to the State constitutional conventions in 1821 and 1846; member of the State assembly in 1824; Lieutenant Governor of New York 1824–1826; president of New York University 1830–1846; died in New York City September 29, 1858; interment in Marble Cemetery.

TALLMADGE, Nathaniel Pitcher, a Senator from New York; born in Chatham, Columbia County, N. Y., February 8, 1795; was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1815; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1818, and commenced practice in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1828; served in the State senate 1830–1833; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1833; reelected in 1839, and served from March 4, 1833, to June 17, 1844, when he resigned, having been appointed by President Tyler Governor of Wisconsin Territory, with residence in Fond du Lac; served as Governor of Wisconsin Territory until his removal from office on May 13, 1845; devoted himself to writing religious tracts; died in Battle Creek, Mich., November 2, 1864; interment in Rienzi Cemetery, Fond du Lac, Wis.

TALLMAN, Peleg, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Tiverton, R. I., July 24, 1764; attended the public schools; served in the Revolutionary War on the privateer Trumbull, and lost an arm in an engagement in 1780; was captured, and imprisoned in England and Ireland 1781–1783; engaged in mercantile pursuits in Bath, Me. (until 1820 a district of Massachusetts); elected as a Democrat to the Twelfth Congress (March 4, 1811–March 3, 1813); declined to be a candidate for renomination; overseer of Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., 1802–1841; member of the Maine Senate in 1821 and 1822; died in Bath, Me., March 12, 1840; interment in Maple Grove Cemetery; reinterment in Forest Hills Cemetery, Roxbury, Mass.

TANNEHILL, Adamson, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Frederick County, Md., May 23, 1750; attended the public schools; served in the Revolutionary War as captain of riflemen; moved to Pennsylvania and engaged in agricultural pursuits near Pittsburgh; held several local offices; brigadier general of Pennsylvania Volunteers in the United States service from September 25 to December 31, 1812; elected as a Democrat to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1813–March 3, 1815); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1814 to the Fourteenth Congress; resumed farming; died near Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, Pa., December 23, 1820; interment in the churchyard of the First Presbyterian Church; reinterment in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1849.

TANNER, Adolphus Hitchcock, a Representative from New York; born in Granville, Washington County, N. Y., on May 23, 1833; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1854, and commenced practice in Whitehall, N. Y.; during the Civil War entered the Union Army in 1862 as a captain; was subsequently commissioned lieutenant colonel of the One hundred and twenty-third Regiment New York Volunteer Infantry, and served until the close of the war; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869–March 3, 1871); resumed the practice of law in Whitehall, Washington County, N. Y., and died there January 14, 1882; interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Salem, N. Y.

TAPPAN, Benjamin, a Senator from Ohio; born in Northampton, Mass., May 25, 1773; attended the public schools; became a printer and engraver; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Hartford, Conn., and commenced practice in Ravenna, Ohio, in 1799; member of the State senate in 1803; moved to Steubenville, Ohio, in 1809 and continued the practice of law; served in the War of 1812 as an aide to Gen. William Wadsworth; held several local offices; county judge and judge of the Fifth Ohio Circuit Court of Common Pleas in 1816; was presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Jackson and Van Buren in 1832; United States district judge of Ohio in 1833; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1839, to March 3, 1845; died in Steubenville, Jefferson County, Ohio, April 12, 1857; interment in Union Cemetery.

TAPPAN, Mason Weare, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Newport, Sullivan County, N. H., October 20, 1817; moved to Bradford, N. H., with his parents; attended private schools and the Hopkinton and Meriden Academies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1841, and commenced practice in Bradford, N. H.; served in the State house of representatives 1853-1855; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1861); was not a candidate for renomination in 1860; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as colonel of the First Regiment New Hampshire Volunteer Infantry; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1860 and 1861; resumed the practice of law; appointed attorney general of the State in 1876, which position he held until his death in Bradford, Merrimack County, N. H., October 25, 1886; interment in Pleasant Hill Cemetery.

TARBOX, John Kemble, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Methuen, near Lawrence, Mass., May 6, 1848; pursued classical studies; engaged in newspaper work; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1860, and practiced; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as first lieutenant in the Eighth Regiment Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry; member of the State house of representatives in 1868, 1870, and 1871; served in the State senate in 1872; mayor of Lawrence in 1873 and 1874; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; city solicitor of Lawrence, Mass., in 1882 and 1883; State insurance commissioner 1884-1887; died in Boston, Mass., May 28, 1887; interment in Bellevue Cemetery, Lawrence, Mass.

TARR, Christian, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Baltimore, Md.; moved to Westmoreland County, Pa., in 1794; received a limited schooling; engaged in the manufacture of pottery in Fayette County, Pa.; elected to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1821); member of the State house of representatives in 1822; superintendent of the national road which had been built by the United States Government from Cumberland, Md., to Wheeling, Va. (now West Virginia), 1827-1829; died in Washington Township, Fayette County, Pa., in 1833.

TARSNEY, John Charles, a Representative from Missouri; born in Medina, Lenawee County, Mich., November 7, 1848; attended the common schools; during the Civil War enlisted in the Fourth Regiment Michigan Volunteer Infantry in August, 1862; mustered out of the service in June, 1865; attended high school in Hudson, Mich.; was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1869, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in Hudson, Mich.; moved to Kansas City, Mo., in 1872; city attorney of Kansas City in 1874 and 1875; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-first, Fifty-second, and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1895); presented credentials as a Member elect to the Fifty-fourth Congress, and served from March 4, 1895, to February 27, 1896, when he was succeeded by Robert T. Van Horn, who contested his election; appointed by President Cleveland associate justice of the Supreme Court of Oklahoma Territory in 1896, and served until 1899; returned to Kansas City, Mo., in 1899 and resumed the practice of law; died in Kansas City, Mo., September 4, 1920; interment in Mount St. Mary's Cemetery.

TARSNEY, Timothy Edward, a Representative from Michigan; born in Ransom, Hillsdale County, Mich., February 4, 1849; attended the common and high schools; worked on the Government roads in Tennessee until the close of the Civil War, when he returned to Michigan and settled in Saginaw; was employed as an engineer in a sawmill; became a marine engineer in 1867; continued his studies at night and in the wintertime; was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1872; was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in East Saginaw, Mich.; elected justice of the peace in 1873, but resigned after one year's service; city attorney from 1875 to 1878, when he resigned; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1880 to the Forty-seventh Congress; delegate at large to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1884; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1889); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1888 to the Fifty-first Congress; moved to Detroit, Mich., in 1893 and resumed the practice of law; corporation counsel of Detroit 1900-1908; died in Detroit, Mich., June 8, 1909; interment in Calvary Cemetery, Saginaw, Mich.

TATE, Farish Carter, a Representative from Georgia; born in Jasper, Pickens County, Ga., November 20, 1856; attended the common schools and North Georgia Agricultural College in Dahlonega, Ga.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1880, and commenced practice at Jasper, Ga.; member of the General Assembly of Georgia 1882-1887; member of the Democratic State executive committee 1884-1887 and 1890-1892; delegate to the Democratic State convention in 1888; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1905); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1904 to the Fifty-ninth Congress; appointed United States district attorney for the northern district of Georgia by President Roosevelt; reappointed by President Taft, and served from 1905 to 1913; resumed the practice of law in Jasper, Ga., and died there February 7, 1922; interment in the Tate family cemetery.

TATE, Magnus, a Representative from Virginia; born in Berkeley County, Va. (now West Virginia), in 1790; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; engaged in agricultural pursuits; appointed justice of the Berkeley County court May 19, 1798; sheriff of Berkeley County in 1819 and 1820; member of the House of Delegates of Virginia in 1797, 1808, 1809, and 1810; elected as a Federalist to the Fourteenth Congress (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1817); died near Martinsburg, Va. (now West Virginia), March 30, 1823.

TATOM, Absalom, a Representative from North Carolina; born in that State in 1742; sergeant in the Greenville (N. C.) Militia in 1768; during the Revolutionary War was commissioned first lieutenant in the First North Carolina Continental Regiment September 1, 1775; promoted to the rank of captain

June 29, 1778 resigned from the Continental Army on September 19, 1778; enlisted as assistant quartermaster and keeper of the arsenal in the State service at Hillsborough, N. C., August 15, 1778; was contractor for Hillsborough in 1778; major of detachment of the North Carolina Light Horse February 12, 1779; was clerk of Randolph County court in 1779; elected to the State house of commons, but was unseated because he already held the office of county clerk; was district auditor for Hillsborough in 1781; one of three commissioners appointed by Congress to survey lands granted to Continental soldiers in the western territory (later Tennessee) in 1782; private secretary to Gov. Thomas Burke in 1782; State tobacco agent in 1782; elected surveyor of North Carolina by the Continental Congress in May, 1785; commissioner to sign State paper money December, 1785; delegate to the constitutional convention in 1788; elected as a Republican to the Fourth Congress, and served from March 4, 1795, to June 1, 1796, when he resigned; again served in the State house of commons 1797-1802; died in Raleigh, N. C., December 20, 1802; interment in the Old City Cemetery.

TATTNALL, Edward Fenwick, a Representative from Georgia; born in Savannah, Ga., in 1788; educated in England; held several local offices; solicitor general from November 10, 1816, to September, 1817, when he resigned; member of the State house of representatives in 1818 and 1819; elected to the Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, and Twentieth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1821, until his resignation in 1827 before the convening of the Twentieth Congress; first captain of the Savannah Volunteer Guards; died in Savannah, Chatham County, Ga., November 21, 1882; interment in Bonaventure Cemetery.

TATTNALL, Josiah, a Senator from Georgia; born at Bonaventure, near Savannah, Ga., in 1764; completed preparatory studies; went with his father to England at the outbreak of the Revolutionary War and attended Eaton College; ran away from England and enlisted under Gen. Anthony Wayne in 1782; colonel of a regiment of State troops in 1793 for protection against the Indians, and was promoted to brigadier general in 1801; member of the State house of representatives in 1795 and 1796; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James Jackson, and served from February 20, 1796, to March 3, 1799; Governor of Georgia in 1801 and 1802; resigned in November, 1802; died in Nassau, New Providence, British West Indies, June 6, 1803; interment in Bonaventure Cemetery, Savannah, Ga.

TAUL, Micah (grandfather of Taul Bradford), a Representative from Kentucky; born in Bladensburg, Md., May 14, 1785; moved to Kentucky with his parents in 1787; attended private school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1801, and commenced practice in Monticello, Ky.; clerk of Wayne County courts in 1801; served as a colonel of Wayne County Volunteers in the War of 1812; elected as a Democrat to the Fourteenth Congress (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1817); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1819; resumed the practice of law; moved to Winchester, Tenn., in 1826 and continued the practice of law; moved to Mardisville, Talladega County, Ala., in 1846 and engaged in agricultural pursuits until his death there on May 27, 1850; interment on his plantation at Mardisville.

TAULBEE, William Preston, a Representative from Kentucky; born near Mount Sterling, in Morgan County, Ky., on October 22, 1851; attended the common schools and was tutored by his father; was ordained for the ministry and admitted to the Kentucky conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South; elected clerk of the Magoffin County court in 1878 and reelected in 1882; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1881; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1889); was not a candidate for renomination; was shot by Charles E. Kincaid in the Capitol Building, Washington, D. C., February 28, 1890, and died from the effects of the wounds at Providence Hospital, in that city, March 11, 1890; interment in the family burying ground near Mount Sterling, Ky.

TAVENNER, Clyde Howard, a Representative from Illinois; born in Cordova, Rock Island County, Ill., February 4, 1882; attended the common schools; learned the printer's trade; engaged as editorial writer; went abroad in 1900, and wrote on the tariff systems of the several European countries visited; director of publicity for the Democratic National Congressional Committee in 1910 and 1912; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1917); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1916 to the Sixty-fifth Congress; visited Russia, Japan, and the Philippine Islands in 1919, and on his return wrote a series of articles on the question of Philippine independence; founded a monthly magazine, the Philippine Republic, in 1923, and also engaged in the publishing business; is a resident of Washington, D. C.

TAWNEY, James Albertus, a Representative from Minnesota; born in Mount Pleasant Township, near Gettysburg, Adams County, Pa., January 3, 1855; apprenticed with his father as a blacksmith; subsequently learned the trade of machinist; moved to Winona, Minn., August 1, 1877, where he was employed as a blacksmith and machinist until January 1, 1881; attended the law department of the University of Wisconsin at Madison, was admitted to the bar in 1882, and commenced practice in Winona, Winona County, Minn.; member of the State Senate of Minnesota in 1890; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-third and to the eight succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1911); unsuccessful candidate for renomination; appointed on March 11, 1911, a member of the International Joint Commission, created to prevent disputes regarding the use of boundary waters between the United States and Canada, and served until June 12, 1919; became chairman of the United States section of the commission September 17, 1911, and served until December 1, 1914; died at Excelsior Springs, Clay County, Mo., June 12, 1919; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, Winona, Minn.

TAYLER, Robert Walker, a Representative from Ohio; born in Youngstown, Mahoning County, Ohio, November 26, 1852; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Western Reserve College, Cleveland, Ohio, in 1872; taught in the high school in New Lisbon (now Lisbon), Ohio; superintendent of schools 1873-1875; editor of the Buckeye State, a newspaper, in New Lisbon, Ohio, from January, 1875, to November, 1876, studying law at the same time; was admitted to the bar in April, 1877, and commenced practice in East Liverpool, Columbiana County, Ohio; prosecuting attorney of Columbiana County 1880-1885; resumed the practice of law in Lisbon, Ohio; moved to New York in 1890; returned to Lisbon in 1892; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1903); declined to be a candidate in 1902 for renomination; resumed the practice of law in Youngstown, Ohio; appointed by President Roosevelt United States district judge for the northern district of Ohio February 2, 1905; moved to Cleveland, Ohio, and died there November 25, 1910; interment in Lisbon Cemetery, Lisbon, Ohio.

TAYLOR, Abner, a Representative from Illinois; born in Bangor, Penobscot County, Me., in 1829; moved with his parents to Champaign County, Ohio, in 1832, thence to Fort Dodge, Iowa, and subsequently to Chicago, Ill., in 1860; engaged in extensive contracting, building, and mercantile pursuits and was one of the contractors for building the Texas State capitol; member of the Illinois House of Representatives from 1884 to 1886; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1884 which nominated Blaine and Logan; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first and Fifty-second Congresses (March 4, 1889–March 3, 1893); was not a candidate for renomination in 1892; resumed the building and contracting business; died in Washington, D. C., April 13, 1903; interment in Rock Creek Cemetery.

TAYLOR, Alexander Wilson, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Indiana, Indiana County, Pa., March 22, 1815; pursued classical studies; attended the Indiana Academy and Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa., and was graduated from the law school at Carlisle, Pa.; was admitted to the bar in 1841 and commenced practice in Indiana, Pa.; clerk of the court of Indiana County 1845–1848; member of the State house of representatives in 1859 and 1860; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873–March 3, 1875); resumed the practice of law; died in Indiana, Pa., May 7, 1893; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

TAYLOR, Alfred Alexander (son of Nathaniel Green Taylor and brother of Robert Love Taylor), a Representative from Tennessee; born in Happy Valley, Carter County, Tenn., August 6, 1848; attended Duffield Academy, Elizabethton, Tenn., Buffalo Institute (now Milligan College), Tennessee; attended the schools of Edge Hill and the Pennington Seminary, New Jersey; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1874, and commenced practice in Jonesboro, Washington County, Tenn.; member of the State house of representatives in 1875 and 1876; candidate for presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Hayes and Wheeler in 1876 and on the Garfield and Arthur ticket in 1880; unsuccessful Republican candidate for governor in 1880; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1888; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first, Fifty-second, and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1889–March 3, 1895); declined to be a candidate in 1894 for renomination; engaged in the practice of law in Johnson City, Tenn.; is a lecturer and also interested in agricultural pursuits; candidate for presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Hughes and Fairbanks in 1916; Governor of Tennessee 1921–1923; again engaged in lecturing and in agricultural pursuits; is a resident of Milligan College, Carter County, Tenn.

TAYLOR, Arthur H., a Representative from Indiana; born at Caledonia Springs, Canada, February 29, 1832; moved with his parents to Yates County, N. Y., and from there to Indianapolis, Ind.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; prosecuting attorney for the eleventh judicial circuit of Indiana 1880–1884; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third Congress (March 4, 1893–March 3, 1895); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1894; resumed the practice of law in Indianapolis, Ind.

TAYLOR, Benjamin Irving, a Representative from New York; born in New York City December 21, 1877; attended the public schools; was graduated from high school, New Rochelle, N. Y., and from Columbia Law School at New York City in 1899; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Port Chester, Westchester County, N. Y.; supervisor of Harrison, Westchester County, 1905–1913; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913–March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Port Chester, N. Y.; again elected supervisor of Harrison, N. Y., in 1921, and is now serving in that capacity.

TAYLOR, Caleb Newbold, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Newportville, Bristol Township, Bucks County, Pa., July 27, 1813; completed preparatory studies; engaged in agricultural pursuits; delegate to the Whig State convention at Harrisburg in 1832; unsuccessful candidate for election to Congress in 1848, 1850, and again in 1852; presidential elector; delegate to numerous State conventions; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1860 which nominated Lincoln and Hamlin; elected as a Republican to the Fortieth Congress (March 4, 1867–March 3, 1869); successfully contested the election of John R. Reading to the Forty-first Congress, and served from April 13, 1870, to March 3, 1871; engaged in banking; president of the Farmers' National Bank of Bucks County, Bristol, Pa., from 1875 until his death at his home, "Sunbury Farm," near Newportville, Bristol Township, Pa., November 15, 1887; interment in the Friends Burying Ground, Bristol, Pa.

TAYLOR, Chester William (son of Samuel Mitchell Taylor), a Representative from Arkansas; born in Verona, Lee County, Miss., July 16, 1883; attended the public schools in Pine Bluff, Ark.; studied law at Georgetown University Law School, Washington, D. C.; deputy State auditor 1908–1910; deputy secretary of state in 1911; deputy State treasurer in 1911 and 1912; secretary to his father during his service in Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his father, Samuel M. Taylor, and served from October 31, 1921, to March 3, 1923; was not a candidate for renomination in 1922; is engaged in general insurance business at Pine Bluff, Ark.

TAYLOR, Edward Livingston, Jr., a Representative from Ohio; born in Columbus, Ohio, August 10, 1869; attended the public schools and was graduated from the Columbus High School; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1891, and commenced practice in Columbus; prosecuting attorney of Franklin County 1899–1904; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, Sixty-first, and Sixty-second Congresses (March 4, 1905–March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1912 to the Sixty-third Congress; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Columbus, Ohio.

TAYLOR, Edward Thomas, a Representative from Colorado; born in Metamora, Woodford County, Ill., June 19, 1858; attended the common schools of Illinois and Kansas, and was graduated from the high school at Leavenworth, Kans., in 1881; moved to Leadville, Colo.; principal of Leadville High School in 1881 and 1882; was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1884, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced the practice of law in Leadville, Lake County, Colo.; superintendent of schools of Lake County in 1884; deputy district attorney in 1885; moved to Glenwood Springs, Colo., in 1887; resumed the practice of his profession; district attorney of the ninth judicial district 1887–1889; member of the State senate 1890–1906, and served as president pro tempore for one term; city attorney 1890–1900; county attorney in 1901 and 1902; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-first and to the eight succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1900–March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

TAYLOR, Ezra Booth, a Representative from Ohio; born in Nelson, Portage County, Ohio, July 9, 1823; attended the common and select schools and academies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Portage County in 1845; elected prosecuting attorney in 1854; moved to Warren Trumbull County, Ohio, in 1861; during the Civil War enrolled as a private in Company A, One hundred and seventy-first Ohio Infantry, on April 27, 1864; was mustered into service on May 5, 1864, and was honorably discharged on August 20, 1864; elected judge of the court of common pleas for the ninth judicial district of Ohio and served from March, 1877, to September 5, 1880, when he resigned; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James A. Garfield; reelected to the Forty-seventh and to the five succeeding Congresses, and served from December 13, 1880, to March 3, 1893; declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1892; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Warren, Trumbull County, Ohio, January 29, 1912; interment in the Warren mausoleum at Oakwood Cemetery.

TAYLOR, George, a Representative from New York; born in Wheeling, Va. (now West Virginia), on October 19, 1820; completed preparatory studies; studied medicine and law; was admitted to the bar and practiced in Indiana; moved to Alabama in 1844, and thence to Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1848, where he continued the practice of law; held several local offices; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1859); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1858 to the Thirty-sixth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Washington, D. C., and died there January 18, 1894; interment in Rock Creek Cemetery.

TAYLOR, George, a Delegate from Pennsylvania; born in Ireland in 1718; pursued academic studies; emigrated to the United States in 1736 and settled at Warwick Furnace and later at Coventry Forge, Chester County, Pa.; engaged in the manufacture of iron; moved to Durham, Pa., in 1755; justice of the peace in 1757, 1761, and 1763; moved to Easton, Pa., in 1763; member of the provincial assembly 1764-1769; justice of the peace for Northampton County 1764-1772; appointed judge of the county court in 1770; again a member of the provincial assembly in 1775; colonel of Pennsylvania Militia in 1775; returned to Durham in 1775; Member of the Continental Congress in 1770 and 1777; member of the First Supreme Executive Council in 1777; signer of the Declaration of Independence; returned to Easton, Pa., in 1780, where he died February 23, 1781; interment in St. John's Lutheran Church Cemetery; reinterment in the Easton Cemetery.

TAYLOR, George Washington, a Representative from Alabama; born in Montgomery, Montgomery County, Ala., January 16, 1849; during the Civil War, while a schoolboy in Columbia, S. C., enlisted in the Confederate Army; served a few weeks with the South Carolina State troops on the coast near Savannah, Ga., and then enlisted in Company D, First Regiment South Carolina Cavalry; served as a courier in that regiment until the end of the war; was graduated from the University of South Carolina at Columbia in 1867; taught school for several years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Mobile, Ala., in 1871, and commenced practice in Butler, Choctaw County, Ala., in 1872; member of the State house of representatives in 1878 and 1879; State solicitor for the first judicial circuit of Alabama 1880-1892; declined a third term; moved to Demopolis, Ala., in 1883; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth and to the eight succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1915); was not a candidate for renomination in 1914; resumed the practice of law; chairman of the State Democratic convention in 1901; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco in 1920 which nominated the presidential ticket of Cox and Roosevelt; is a resident of Demopolis, Marengo County, Ala.

TAYLOR, Herbert Worthington, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Belleville, Essex County, N. J., February 19, 1899; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the law school of the University of New York, New York City, in 1891; was admitted to the New York bar the same year and to the New Jersey bar in 1897, and practiced in New York City and Newark, N. J.; member of the Common Council of Newark 1899-1903; member of the State assembly in 1904 and 1905; chairman of the Essex County Republican committee 1913-1917; county counsel of Essex County 1916-1921; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1923); unsuccessful candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law in Newark, N. J.; elected to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1926 to the Seventieth Congress; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Newark, N. J.

TAYLOR, Isaac Hamilton, a Representative from Ohio; born near New Harrisburg, Carroll County, Ohio, on April 18, 1840; attended the common schools and completed an academic course; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1867, and commenced practice in Carrollton, Ohio; clerk of court in Carroll County, Ohio, 1870-1877; elected as a Republican to the Forty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1887); was not a candidate for renomination in 1886; moved to Canton, Ohio, and resumed the practice of law; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Minneapolis in 1892 which nominated Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana, for a second term; judge of the court of common pleas from 1889 to 1901, when he resigned; engaged in the practice of his profession until 1922, when he discontinued active pursuits and is living in retirement at Canton, Ohio.

TAYLOR, J. Will, a Representative from Tennessee; born near Lead Mine Bend, Union County, Tenn., August 28, 1880; attended the public schools, Holbrook Normal College at Fountain City, and the American Temperance University at Harri-man; was graduated from the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1902; was admitted to the bar in the same year; moved to La Follette, Campbell County, Tenn., and commenced practice; was postmaster at La Follette 1904-1909; city mayor 1910-1913; insurance commissioner for the State of Tennessee in 1913 and 1914; chairman of the Republican State executive committee in 1917 and 1918; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

TAYLOR, James Alfred, a Representative from West Virginia; born near Ironton, Lawrence County, Ohio, September 25, 1878; attended the public schools; employed in a printing office in Ironton, Ohio; moved to Alderson, W. Va., and engaged in the newspaper business; moved from Greenbrier County to Fayette County in 1905; served as a noncommissioned officer in the West Virginia National Guard 1908-1911; member of the State house of representatives 1916-1918 and 1920-1922; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1926 to the Seventieth Congress; resumed the publishing business, and is a resident of Fayetteville, Fayette County, W. Va.

TAYLOR, John, a Senator from Virginia; born at Mill Farm, near Bowling Green, Caroline County, Va., May 17, 1754; educated by private tutors, and was graduated from William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., in 1770; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Caroline County in 1774; served in the Revolutionary War as major and colonel; member of the State house of delegates 1779-1785 and 1790-1800; lieutenant colonel in Gen. Alexander Spotswood's Legionary Corps, serving under General Lafayette; retired from the practice of law and engaged in agricultural pursuits; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Richard Henry Lee; reelected in 1793, and served from October 18, 1792, until his resignation on May 11, 1794; presidential elector in 1797 and voted for Adams and Jefferson; appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Stevens T. Mason, and served from June 4 to December 7, 1803, when a successor was elected; was not a candidate for election; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James Pleasants; reelected in 1823, and served from December 18, 1822, until his death in Caroline County, Va., August 20, 1824; interment on "Hazelwood" farm, near Port Royal, Caroline County, Va.

TAYLOR, John, a Representative and a Senator from South Carolina; born near Granby, S. C., on May 4, 1770; attended Mount Zion Institute, and was graduated from Princeton College in 1790; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1793, and commenced practice in Columbia, S. C.; also engaged in planting; member of the State house of representatives 1796-1802, 1804, and 1805; circuit court solicitor in 1805 and 1806; served as first intendant of Columbia in 1806 and 1807; elected as a Democrat to the Tenth and Eleventh Congresses, and served from March 4, 1807, until his resignation on December 30, 1810; elected to the United States Senate December 19, 1810, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas Sumter; reelected, and served from December 31, 1810, until his resignation in December, 1816; served in the State senate 1818-1823; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1820; Governor of South Carolina 1820-1828; trustee of South Carolina College (now the University of South Carolina) at Columbia and director of the theological seminary; died at Taylors Hill, Columbia, Richland County, S. C., February 23, 1832; interment in the family burial ground.

TAYLOR, John, a Representative from South Carolina; elected to the Fourteenth Congress (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1817); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1816 to the Fifteenth Congress and for election in 1820 to the Seventeenth Congress.

TAYLOR, John James, a Representative from New York; born in Loominster, Worcester County, Mass., April 27, 1808; attended the common schools, New Ipswich Academy, and Groton Academy; was graduated from Harvard University in 1829; engaged in teaching for a short time; moved to Troy, N. Y., in 1830; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1834, and commenced practice in Greene, Chenango County, N. Y.; moved to Owego, N. Y., in 1834 and continued the practice of law; appointed district attorney of Tioga County in 1838, and served until 1843, when he resigned; member of the village board of trustees in 1839, 1843, and 1848; first chief engineer of the fire department in 1844; member of the State constitutional convention in 1846; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1850 to the Thirty-second Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); resumed the practice of his profession; tendered the appointment of commissioner to settle the northwestern boundary of the United States by President Franklin Pierce, but declined the position; unsuccessful Democrat candidate for Lieutenant Governor of New York in 1856; president of the village of Owego in 1859; engaged in banking; elected vice president and later president of the Southern Central Railway Co., now the Auburn division of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Co.; died in Owego, Tioga County, N. Y., July 1, 1892; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

TAYLOR, John Lampkin, a Representative from Ohio; born in Stafford County, near Fredericksburg, Va., March 7, 1805; completed preparatory studies; studied law in Washington, D. C., was admitted to the bar in 1828, and commenced practice in Chillicothe, Ross County, Ohio, in 1829; major general in the State militia for several years; elected as a Whig to the Thirtieth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1855); served as a clerk in the Interior Department from May 1, 1870, until his sudden death at his desk in Washington, D. C., September 6, 1870; interment in the family burying ground on the Taylor ancestral estate, "Mansfield," near Louisa, Louisa County, Va.

TAYLOR, John May, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Lexington, Henderson County, Tenn., May 18, 1838; attended the Male Academy in Lexington and the Union University, Murfreesboro, Tenn.; was graduated from the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1861; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Lexington; during the Civil War enlisted in the Confederate Army; was elected first lieutenant in June, 1861, and promoted to captain; elected major in the Twenty-seventh Tennessee Regiment in 1862; mayor of Lexington in 1869 and 1870; delegate to the State constitutional convention of Tennessee in 1870; attorney general of the eleventh judicial circuit of Tennessee 1870-1878; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1880; member of the State house of representatives in 1881 and 1882; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1887); presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Stevenson in 1892; member of the State senate in 1892; resumed the practice of law; was appointed judge of the criminal court for the eleventh judicial circuit in 1896 and then elected for six years, and served until the court was abolished; elected in August, 1902, as a judge of the court of chancery appeals (name changed to court of civil appeals by the legislature); reelected in 1910 for a period of eight years and served until his death; died in Lexington, Tenn., February 17, 1911; interment in Lexington Cemetery.

TAYLOR, John W., a Representative from New York; born in Charlton, N. Y., March 26, 1784; received his early education at home; was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1803; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1807, and commenced practice in Ballston Spa, N. Y.; organized the Ballston Center Academy; justice of the peace in 1806; member of the State assembly in 1812 and 1813; elected as a Democrat to the Thirteenth and to the nine succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1833); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1832 to the Twenty-third Congress; served as Speaker during the second session of the Sixteenth Congress and during the Nineteenth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Ballston Spa, N. Y.; member of the State senate in 1840 and 1841, but resigned in consequence of a paralytic stroke; moved to Cleveland, Ohio, in 1843, and died there September 8, 1854; interment in the City Cemetery, Ballston Spa, Saratoga County, N. Y.

TAYLOR, Jonathan, a Representative from Ohio; born near Mansfield, Conn., in 1796; moved to Newark, Ohio; completed an academic course; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Newark; appointed by the governor a commissioner to settle the boundary dispute between Ohio and Michigan; brigadier general in the State militia; member of the State house of representatives 1831-1833; served in the State senate 1833-1836; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1841); died in Newark, Licking County, Ohio, in April, 1848; interment in the Old Cemetery; reinterment in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

TAYLOR, Joseph Danner, a Representative from Ohio; born in Goshen Township, Belmont County, Ohio, November 7, 1830; attended the common schools and Madison College at Antrim; taught school 1854-1856, and was principal of the Fairview High School in 1857; studied law in Cincinnati, Ohio, and was admitted to the bar in 1859; was graduated from the Cincinnati Law College in 1860 and commenced practice in Cambridge, Guernsey County, Ohio, the same year; owner of the Guernsey Times 1861-1871; during the Civil War entered the Union Army as a captain in the Eighty-eighth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry; was judge advocate of the Department of Indiana in 1863 and 1864; citizen judge advocate in Indianapolis, Ind., in 1865; prosecuting attorney of Guernsey County, Ohio, 1863-1866; delegate to the Philadelphia Loyalist Convention in 1860; member of the Cambridge School Board 1870-1877; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati in 1876 and at Chicago in 1880; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Jonathan T. Updegrass; reelected to the Forty-eighth Congress, and served from January 2, 1883, to March 3, 1885; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress; elected to the Fiftieth, Fifty-first, and Fifty-second Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1893); died in Cambridge, Ohio, September 19, 1899; interment in the South Cemetery.

TAYLOR, Milos, a Representative from Louisiana; born in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., on July 16, 1805; received a liberal education; moved to Bayou Lafourche, La.; studied medicine, but never practiced; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Donaldsonville, Ascension Parish, La.; moved to New Orleans, La., about 1847; held several local offices; appointed by the governor in 1849 member of a committee to revise the Civil Code, the Code of Procedure, and the Statutes of Louisiana; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, and Thirty-sixth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1855, to February 5, 1861, when he withdrew; chairman of the Douglas National Executive Committee in 1869; resumed the practice of law in New Orleans, La., and was leader of the sugar growers in Louisiana for many years; died in Saratoga Springs, Saratoga County, N. Y., September 23, 1873; interment on the family plantation, "Front Settery," near Belle Alliance, La.

TAYLOR, Nathaniel Green (father of Alfred Alexander Taylor and Robert Love Taylor), a Representative from Tennessee; born in Happy Valley, Carter County, Tenn., December 29, 1819; was educated in private schools and Washington College, near Jonesboro, Tenn.; was graduated from Princeton College in 1840; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1841, and commenced practice in Elizabethton, Carter County, Tenn.; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Scott and Graham in 1852; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Brookins Campbell, who never qualified, and served from March 8, 1854, to March 3, 1855; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1854 to the Thirty-fourth Congress; presidential elector on the Constitutional Union ticket of Bell and Everett in 1860; member of the relief association formed for the aid of war sufferers in east Tennessee and lectured in their behalf throughout the East; upon the readmission of Tennessee to representation was elected to the Thirty-ninth Congress, and served from July 24, 1866, to March 3, 1867; was not a candidate for renomination in 1866; Commissioner of Indian Affairs from March 26, 1867, to April 21, 1869; retired from public life and devoted himself to farming and preaching the Gospel; died in Happy Valley, Carter County, Tenn., April 1, 1887; interment in the old Taylor private cemetery.

TAYLOR, Nelson, a Representative from New York; born in South Norwalk, Conn., June 8, 1821; attended the common schools; enlisted for the Mexican War as a captain in the First Regiment New York Volunteer Infantry August 1, 1846, and was sent to California in 1846 just before the outbreak of the war; was honorably mustered out September 18, 1848; upon the annexation of California he remained there and engaged in business at Stockton; member of the State senate 1850-1856; president of the board of trustees of the State insane asylum 1850-1856; elected sheriff of San Joaquin County in 1855; moved to New York City; was graduated from the law department of Harvard University in 1860, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for election in 1860 to the Thirty-seventh Congress; served in the Union Army during the Civil War; was commissioned colonel of the Seventy-second Regiment New York Volunteer Infantry July 23, 1861; was in command of troops at Harlem during the draft riots in New York City; brigadier general of Volunteers September 7, 1862; resigned from the service January 19, 1863; resumed the practice of law in New York City; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1867); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1866 to the Fortieth Congress; removed to South Norwalk, Conn., in 1869 and continued the practice of law; served several times as city attorney but declined any other public office; died in South Norwalk, Fairfield County, Conn., January 16, 1894; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

TAYLOR, Robert, a Representative from Virginia; born at Orange Court House, Va., April 29, 1763; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1783, and commenced practice at Orange Court House, Va.; held several local offices; member of the State senate 1804-1815, and served as president pro tempore; elected to the Nineteenth Congress (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1827); was not a candidate for renomination in 1826; retired from active political life and devoted his attention to the management of his plantation; died on his estate, "Meadow Farm," in Orange County, Va., July 3, 1845; interment in the family burying ground at "Meadow Farm."

TAYLOR, Robert Love (son of Nathaniel Green Taylor and brother of Alfred Alexander Taylor), a Representative and a Senator from Tennessee; born in Happy Valley, Carter County, Tenn., July 31, 1850; attended Pennington Seminary and Buffalo Institute (now Milligan College), Tennessee; engaged in making bar iron and in tobacco raising; studied law in Jonesboro, Tenn., was admitted to the bar in 1878, and practiced in Elizabethton and Jonesboro; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1881); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1880 to the Forty-seventh Congress and for election in 1882 to the Forty-eighth Congress; practiced law and also engaged in the newspaper business in Johnson City, Washington County, Tenn., in 1880; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Hendricks in 1884; pension agent at Knoxville, Tenn., 1885-1887; was Governor of Tennessee 1887-1891; again presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Stevenson in 1892; resumed the practice of law in Chatanooga, Hamilton County, Tenn.; again served as Governor of Tennessee from 1897 to 1899; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in January, 1907, for the term beginning March 4, 1907, and served until his death in Washington, D. C., on March 31, 1912; interment in the Old Gray Cemetery, Knoxville, Knox County, Tenn.

TAYLOR, Samuel Mitchell (father of Chester William Taylor), a Representative from Arkansas; born near Fulton, Itawamba County, Miss., May 25, 1852; attended the public schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Tupelo, Miss., and commenced practice in 1876; member of the State house of representatives in 1879 and 1880; moved to Pine Bluff, Ark., in 1887, where he continued the practice of law; prosecuting attorney of the eleventh judicial district of Arkansas 1888-1892; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1896; temporary chairman of the Democratic State convention in 1910; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress; subsequently elected to the Sixty-second Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joseph T. Robinson; reelected to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, and Sixty-seventh Congresses, and served from January 15, 1913, until his death in Washington, D. C., September 13, 1921; interment in Bellewood Cemetery, Pine Bluff, Jefferson County, Ark.

TAYLOR, Vincent Albert, a Representative from Ohio; born in Bedford, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, December 6, 1845; attended the common schools; enlisted in Company H, One hundred and fiftieth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry, in May, 1864, and in August of the same year in Company H, One hundred and seventh-seventh Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry, and served until the close of the Civil War; engaged in manufacturing pursuits; member of the Ohio Senate 1888-1890; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1893); was not a candidate for renomination in 1892; president of the Taylor Chair Co., and a resident of Bedford, Ohio, until his death there December 2, 1922; interment in Bedford Cemetery.

TAYLOR, Waller, a Senator from Indiana; born in Lunenburg County, Va., before 1786; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in Virginia; member of the State house of delegates 1800-1802; moved to Vincennes, Ind., in 1804 and continued the practice of law; appointed chancellor of Indiana Territory in 1807; appointed major in the Territorial militia in 1807; served as aide-de-camp to Gen. William H. Harrison in the War of 1812, and was promoted to adjutant general in 1814; upon the admission of Indiana as a State into the Union in 1816 was elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate; reelected, and served from December 11, 1816, to March 3, 1825; died while on a visit to his old home in Lunenburg County, Va., August 26, 1826; interment in the family burial ground near Lunenburg, Lunenburg County, Va.

TAYLOR, William, a Representative from New York; born in Suffield, Hartford County, Conn., October 12, 1791; moved with his parents to Onondaga County, N. Y.; attended the public schools; studied medicine and was admitted to practice; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, and Twenty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1839); resumed the practice of medicine; member of the State assembly in 1841 and 1842; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1846; died in Manlius, N. Y., September 16, 1865; interment in Christ Church Cemetery.

TAYLOR, William, a Representative from Virginia; born in Alexandria (then included in the District of Columbia), Va., April 5, 1788; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Staunton, Va.; moved to Lexington, Va., in 1813; became a member of the bar; Commonwealth attorney for the county court of Rockbridge 1817-1843; Commonwealth attorney for the circuit court of Pocahontas County 1817-1843; member of the house of delegates in 1821; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1843, until his death in Washington, D. C., January 17, 1846; interment in the Congressional Cemetery.

TAYLOR, William P., a Representative from Virginia; born in Fredericksburg, Spotsylvania County, Va.; received a limited schooling; held several local offices; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-third Congress (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1835); was an unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1834 to the Twenty-fourth Congress.

TAYLOR, Zachary, a Representative from Tennessee; born near Brownsville, Haywood County, Tenn., on May 9, 1849; attended J. I. Hall's School near Covington, Tenn., and was graduated from the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington as senior captain July 4, 1872, and from the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in January, 1874; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice in Covington, Tenn., in 1878; served in the State senate in 1880; postmaster of Covington, Tenn., from July 1, 1883, to January 1, 1885, when he resigned; elected as a Republican to the Forty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1887); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1886 to the Fiftieth Congress; moved to Memphis, Tenn., and engaged in general life insurance business; elected delegate to the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in 1896; moved to San Antonio, Tex.; died in Ellendale, Shelby County, Tenn., February 19, 1921; interment in Mount Pisgah Cemetery.

TAZEWELL, Henry (father of Littleton Waller Tazewell), a Senator from Virginia; born near Williamsburg, Brunswick County, Va., November 15, 1753; attended the rural schools; was graduated from William and Mary College at Williamsburg in 1772; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in 1773; member of the provincial house of burgesses in 1775; delegate to the State constitutional convention of 1775 and 1776; judge of the State supreme court 1785-1793 and chief justice from 1789 to 1793; judge of the high court of appeals in 1793; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy which was caused by the resignation of John Taylor, and served from December 29, 1794, until his death; elected President pro tempore of the Senate December 7, 1795; died in Philadelphia, Pa., January 24, 1799; interment in Christ Church Cemetery.

TAZEWELL, Littleton Waller (son of Henry Tazewell), a Representative and a Senator from Virginia; born in Williamsburg, James City County, Va., December 17, 1774; was graduated from William and Mary College at Williamsburg in 1792; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1793, and commenced practice in James City County; member of the State house of delegates 1796-1800; elected as a Democrat to the Sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Marshall, and served from November 26, 1800, to March 8, 1801; moved to Norfolk, Va., in 1802; member of the Virginia House of Delegates in 1816; one of the commissioners of claims under the treaty with Spain ceding Florida in 1820; declined appointment as minister to Great Britain; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John Taylor; reelected, and served from December 7, 1824, to July 16, 1832, when he resigned; delegate to State convention in 1829; elected President pro tempore of the Senate July 9, 1832; Governor of Virginia from 1834 until his resignation in 1836; retired from public life; died in Norfolk, Norfolk County, Va., May 6, 1860; interment on his estate on the Eastern Shore of Virginia; reinterment in 1890 in Elmwood Cemetery, Norfolk, Va.

TEESE, Frederick Halstead, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Newark, N. J., October 21, 1823; was graduated from Princeton College in 1843; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1846, and commenced practice in Newark, N. J.; member of the State house of assembly in 1860 and 1861, and served as speaker in 1861; presiding judge of the court of common pleas of Essex County from 1864 until his resignation in 1872; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); declined the nomination for reelection in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in New York City January 7, 1894; interment in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Newark, N. J.

TELFAIR, Edward (father of Thomas Telfair), a Delegate from Georgia; born in "Town Head," Scotland, in 1735; was graduated from the Kirkcudbright Grammar School and subsequently acquired a thorough commercial training; emigrated to the United States in 1758 as agent of a commercial house and settled in Virginia; moved to Halifax, N. C.; established a commission house in Savannah, Ga., in 1760; also engaged in the sawmill business and agricultural pursuits; active in pre-Revolutionary movements of 1774; member of the council of safety in 1775 and 1776; delegate to the Provincial Congress at Savannah in 1770; member of the committee of intelligence and other important committees in 1776; Member of the Continental Congress 1777-1779 and 1780-1783; again elected to the Continental Congress in 1785, but declined; one of the signers of the Articles of Confederation and a delegate to the convention to ratify the Constitution of the United States; commissioner to treat with the Cherokee Indians in 1783; designated agent on the part of Georgia to settle the northern boundary of the Commonwealth in February, 1788; Governor of Georgia 1786 and 1790-1793; entertained President Washington at his home in Augusta in May, 1791; died in Savannah, Ga., September 17, 1807; interment in Bonaventure Cemetery.

TELFAIR, Thomas (son of Edward Telfair), a Representative from Georgia; born in Savannah, Ga., March 2, 1780; was graduated from Princeton College in 1805; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and began practice in Savannah, Ga.; elected as a Democrat to the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Congresses (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1817); died in Savannah, Ga., February 18, 1818; interment in Bonaventure Cemetery.

TELLER, Henry Moore, a Senator from Colorado; born in Granger, Allegany County, N. Y., May 23, 1830; attended Rushford Academy and Alfred (N. Y.) University; taught school; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in Binghamton, N. Y., in 1858; moved to Illinois in 1858 and to Colorado in 1861; major general of Colorado Militia 1862-1864; upon the admission of Colorado as a State into the Union was elected as a Republican to the United States Senate; reelected, and served from November 15, 1876, until his resignation on April 17, 1882, to accept a Cabinet position; appointed Secretary of the Interior in the Cabinet of President Arthur, and served from April 17, 1882, to March 4, 1885; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1885 and 1891, as an Independent Silver Republican in 1897, and as a Democrat in 1903, and served from March 4, 1885, to March 3, 1909; declined to be a candidate for renomination; member of the United States Monetary Commission in 1908; engaged in the practice of law until his death in Denver, Colo., February 23, 1914; interment in Fairmount Cemetery.

TELLER, Isaac (nephew of Abraham Henry Schenck), a Representative from New York; born in Matteawan, Dutchess County, N. Y., February 7, 1799; completed preparatory studies; held several local offices; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Gilbert Dean, and served from November 7, 1854, to March 3, 1855; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Matteawan (now Beacon), N. Y., April 30, 1888; interment in the Rural Cemetery, Fishkill, Dutchess County, N. Y.

TEMPLE, Henry Willson, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Belle Center, Logan County, Ohio, March 31, 1804; attended the common schools; was graduated from Geneva College, Beaver Falls, Pa., in 1833 and from the Covenant Theological Seminary, Allegheny, Pa., in 1837; pastor of churches at Baxter, Leechburg, and Washington, Pa.; became adjunct professor of political science in 1898 and was professor of history and political science in Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pa., 1905-1913; elected as a Progressive Republican to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful Progressive Republican candidate for reelection to succeed himself in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William M. Brown; reelected to the Sixty-fifth and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from November 2, 1915, to March 4, 1927. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

TEMPLE, William, a Representative from Delaware; born in Queen Anne County, Md., February 28, 1814; completed preparatory studies; moved to Smyrna, Del., and engaged in mercantile pursuits; member of the State house of representatives in 1844 and served as speaker; served in the State senate 1845-1854; Acting Governor of Delaware from May, 1846, to January, 1847; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-eighth Congress and served from March 4, 1863, until his death before the convening of the Congress; died in Smyrna, Del., May 28, 1863; interment in the Episcopal Cemetery.

TEMPLETON, Thomas Weir, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Plymouth, Luzerne County, Pa., November 8, 1807; attended the public schools and was graduated from Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1830, but did not engage in practice; prothonotary of Luzerne County 1904-1907; engaged in business as a florist at Kingston; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1917-March 3, 1919); was not a candidate for renomination in 1918; superintendent of grounds and buildings at the State capitol 1920-1923; resumed the florist business in Kingston and is a resident of Plymouth, Luzerne County, Pa.

TENER, John Kinley, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in County Tyrone, Ireland, July 25, 1803; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1872; attended the public and high schools; was em-played by manufacturing firms and corporations in and about Pittsburgh; engaged as a professional baseball player 1885-1890; entered the banking business in Charleroi, Pa.; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-first Congress, and served from March 4, 1909, to January 16, 1911, when he resigned, having been elected governor; Governor of Pennsylvania 1911-1915; president of the National League of Professional Base Ball Clubs 1914-1918 and also interested in banking; is a resident of Charleroi, Washington County, Pa., and is president of the First National Bank of that city.

TEN EYOK, Egbert, a Representative from New York; born in Schodack, Rensselaer County, N. Y., April 18, 1779; was graduated from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., in 1799; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1807, and commenced practice in Watertown, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1812 and 1813 and served as speaker; supervisor of Jefferson County in 1816; trustee of the village of Watertown in 1816; one of the incorporators of the Jefferson County National Bank; first secretary of the Jefferson County Agricultural Society in 1817; president of the village of Watertown in 1820; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1822; elected to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1825); presented credentials as a Member elect to the Nineteenth Congress, and served from March 4 to December 15, 1825, when he was succeeded by Daniel Hugunin, jr., who contested his election; was judge of the Jefferson County courts for nine years; died in Watertown, Jefferson County, N. Y., April 11, 1844; interment in Brookside Cemetery.

TEN EYOK, John Conover, a Senator from New Jersey; born in Freehold, Monmouth County, N. J., March 12, 1814; completed preparatory studies under private tutors; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1835, and commenced practice in Burlington, N. J.; prosecuting attorney for Burlington County 1839-1849; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1844; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1859, to March 3, 1865; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1860; appointed a member of a commission to revise the New Jersey constitution April 24, 1875, and for a time was president of the commission; died in Mount Holly, Burlington County, N. J., August 24, 1879; interment in St. Andrew's Cemetery.

TEN EYOK, Peter Gansevoort, a Representative from New York; born in Bethlehem, Albany County, N. Y., November 7, 1873; was educated in the common schools in Normansville, the Albany Academy, and the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y.; was engaged in civil and signal engineering for fifteen years; signal engineer of the New York Central Lines; became chief engineer of the Federal Railway Signal Co. in 1903, and later its vice president and general manager; served seven years in the Third Signal Corps, Third Brigade, National Guard of New York; connected with various business enterprises; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco in 1920; elected to the Sixty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1923); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1922; engaged in agricultural pursuits near Albany, N. Y.

TENNEY, Samuel, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Byfield, Mass., November 27, 1748; attended Dummer Academy, Byfield, Mass.; was graduated from Harvard College in 1772; taught school in Andover, Mass.; studied medicine and began practice in Exeter, N. H.; surgeon in the Revolutionary War; returned to Exeter at the close of the War and continued the practice of his profession; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1788; judge of probate for Rockingham County 1798-1800; elected to the Sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William Gordon; reelected to the Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth Congresses, and served from December 8, 1800, to March 3, 1807; pursued literary, historical, and scientific studies; died in Exeter, N. H., February 6, 1816; interment in the Old Cemetery.

TERRELL, Joseph Meriwether, a Senator from Georgia; born in Greenville, Meriwether County, Ga., on June 6, 1861; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1882, and commenced practice in Greenville, Ga.; served in the State house of representatives 1884-1887; member of the State senate in 1890; attorney general of Georgia 1892-1902; Governor of Georgia from October, 1902, to July, 1907; resumed the practice of law in Atlanta, Ga.; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Alexander S. Clay, and served from November 17, 1910, to July 14, 1911, when he resigned; again resumed the practice of his profession in Atlanta, Ga., and died there November 17, 1912; interment in the City Cemetery, Greenville, Ga.

TERRELL, William, a Representative from Georgia; born in Fairfax County, Va., in 1778; moved with his parents to Georgia; pursued classical studies; was graduated from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia and commenced practice in Sparta, Hancock County, Ga.; member of the State house of representatives 1810-1813; held various local offices; elected as a Democrat to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1821); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1820; resumed the practice of medicine; died in Sparta, Ga., July 4, 1855; interment in Sparta Cemetery.

TERRY, Nathaniel, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Enfield, Conn., on January 30, 1768; attended the common schools and Dartmouth College and was graduated from Yale College in 1786; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1790, and commenced practice in Enfield; moved to Hartford in 1796; commander of the Governor's Foot Guard of Hartford 1802-1813; Judge of the Hartford County court from 1807 to 1809, when he resigned; member of the State house of representatives 1804-1815; elected to the Fifteenth Congress (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1819); member of the State constitutional convention in 1818; president of the Hartford Fire Insurance Co. 1810-1835; president of the Hartford Bank 1819-1823; mayor of Hartford 1824-1831; served as general in the State militia; died in New Haven, Conn., June 14, 1844; interment in Old North (Spring Grove) Cemetery, Hartford, Conn.

TERRY, William, a Representative from Virginia; born in Amherst County, Va., August 14, 1824; attended an "old field school" in Amherst County; was graduated from the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1848; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1851, and commenced practice in Wytheville, Va.; was engaged in newspaper work; served in the Confederate Army as a Lieutenant in the Fourth Regiment Virginia Infantry; was promoted to major in 1862, colonel in February, 1864, and was commissioned brigadier general May 20, 1864; was last commander of the famous "Stonewall Jackson" Brigade of the Confederate Army; resumed the practice of law in Wytheville; elected as a Conservative to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1873); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1872; elected to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1876; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1880 which nominated Gen. Winfield S. Hancock for President; resumed the practice of law; drowned while trying to ford Reed Creek, near Wytheville, Va., September 5, 1888; interment in East End Cemetery, Wytheville, Va.

TERRY, William Leake, a Representative from Arkansas; born near Wadesboro, Anson County, N. C., September 27, 1850; moved with his parents to Tipton County, Miss., in 1857 and to Pulaski County, Ark., in 1861; attended Blenheim's Military Academy, North Carolina, and was graduated from Trinity College, North Carolina, in June, 1872; studied law, was admitted to the bar in November, 1873, and practiced; member of the city council 1877-1879; member of the State senate in 1878 and 1879, and served as president of the senate in the session of 1879; city attorney of Little Rock, Ark., 1879-1885; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1886 to the Fiftieth Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1901); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1900; resumed the practice of law in Little Rock, Ark., and died there November 4, 1917; interment in Calvary Cemetery.

TEST, John, a Representative from Indiana; born in Salem, N. J., February 25, 1802; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and began practice in Brookville, Franklin County, Ind.; held several local offices; judge of the third district circuit 1810-1819; elected as a Clay Democrat to the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Congresses (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1827); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1826 to the Twentieth Congress; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-first Congress (March 4, 1829-March 3, 1831); presiding judge of the Indiana circuit court; moved to Mobile, Ala.; resumed the practice of law; died near Cambridge City, Wayne County, Ind., October 9, 1849.

THACHER, George, a Delegate and a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Yarmouth, in the county of Barnstable, Mass., on April 12, 1754; prepared for college by a private instructor; was graduated from Harvard College in 1770; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1778, and commenced practice in York, Me.; moved to Biddeford, Me., in 1782; Member of the Continental Congress in 1787; elected as a Federalist to the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Congresses (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1801); did not seek renomination in 1800, having accepted a judicial appointment; district judge in Maine 1792-1800; associate judge of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts 1800-1820; delegate in 1819 to the constitutional convention of Maine, which until 1820 was a district of Massachusetts; again a judge of the Supreme Court of Maine 1820-1824; died in Biddeford, Me., April 6, 1824; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

THACHER, Thomas Chandler, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Yarmouth, Mass., July 20, 1858; attended the public schools; was graduated from Adams Academy, Quincy, Mass., in 1878 and from Harvard University in 1882; became engaged in the wool business at Boston in 1882; president of the Barnstable (Mass.) Agricultural Society; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1914; declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1916; is a writer on business topics and also engaged in his former business pursuits; is a resident of Yarmouth, Mass.

THATCHER, Maurice Hudson, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Chicago, Ill., August 15, 1870; moved to Butler County, Ky., and settled near Morgantown in 1874; attended public and private schools; engaged in agricultural pursuits; was employed in a newspaper office and in various county offices; elected clerk of the circuit court of Butler County in 1892, and served from January 1, 1893, until his resignation in 1896; studied law in Frankfort, Ky., was admitted to the bar in 1898, and commenced practice in Frankfort; assistant attorney general of Kentucky 1898-1900; moved to Louisville, Ky., in 1900; assistant United States attorney for the western district of Kentucky 1901-1906; State examiner and inspector for Kentucky 1908-1910; member of the Isthmian Canal Commission and head of the department of civil administration of the Canal Zone 1910-1913; resumed the practice of law in Louisville, Ky.; member of the board of public safety 1917-1919 and department counsel 1919-1923 for the city of Louisville; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

THATCHER, Samuel, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Cambridge, Mass., July 1, 1776; was graduated from Harvard University in 1793; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1797, and commenced practice in New Gloucester, Me. (then a district of Massachusetts); moved to Warren in 1800; member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives 1801-1811; was elected as a Democrat to the Seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Silas Lee; reelected to the Eighth Congress, and served from December 6, 1802, to March 3, 1805; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1804 to the Ninth Congress; sheriff of Lincoln County, Me., 1814-1821; member of the Maine House of Representatives in 1824; moved to Bangor, Me., in 1860; and died there July 18, 1872; interment in Mount Hope Cemetery.

THAYER, Andrew Jackson, a Representative from Oregon; born in Lima, Livingston County, N. Y., November 27, 1818; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1849, and commenced practice in Lima; crossed the continent in 1853 and settled on a farm near Corvallis, Benton County, Oreg.; resumed the practice of law and also engaged in agricultural pursuits; appointed by President Buchanan United States attorney for the district of Oregon on March 2, 1859, and resigned after six months' service, having become a candidate for Congress; presented credentials as a Democratic Member elect to the Thirty-seventh Congress, and served from March 4 to July 30, 1861, when he was succeeded by George K. Shiel, who contested his election; district attorney for the second district of Oregon 1862-1864; circuit judge of the second judicial district of Oregon from 1870 until his death in Corvallis, Oreg., April 28, 1873; interment in Crystal Lake Cemetery.

THAYER, Eli (father of John Aiden Thayer), a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Mendon, Worcester County, Mass., June 11, 1819; attended the common schools, the academies in Bellingham and Amherst, Mass., and the Worcester Manual Labor School; taught school in Douglas, Mass., in 1835 and 1836 and in Hopkinton, R. I., in 1842; had charge of the boys' high school in Providence, R. I., in 1844; was graduated from Brown University at Providence in 1845 and was an instructor in Worcester Academy 1845-1849; studied law and was admitted to the bar, but did not practice; founded the Oread Collegiate Institute, a school for young women, in 1848; member of the Worcester School Board in 1852; alderman of the city in 1852 and 1853; member of the State house of representatives in 1853 and 1854; while in the legislature secured a charter, and originated and organized the New England Emigrant Aid Co., which had for its purpose the sending out of an advance colony of antislavery settlers to Kansas, which resulted in that Territory becoming an antislavery State; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1857–March 3, 1861); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1860 to the Thirty-seventh Congress; delegate accredited from Oregon to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1860; engaged in railroad and other business pursuits; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1872 to the Forty-third Congress; died in Worcester, Mass., April 15, 1890; interment in Hope Cemetery.

THAYER, Harry Irving, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Pembroke, Plymouth County, Mass., September 10, 1869; attended the public schools of Hanover, Mass.; engaged in the leather business; organizer and president of the Thayer-Ross Co.; president of the New England Shoe and Leather Association 1916–1921; was president of the Tanners' Council of the United States in 1920 and 1921; during the World War was chairman of the Wakefield Chapter of the American Red Cross and served until 1924, when he resigned; also served as chairman of the Liberty bond sales committee and war chest; was a delegate to the Republican National Convention at Cleveland in 1924; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-ninth Congress, and served from March 4, 1925, until his death in Wakefield, Middlesex County, Mass., March 10, 1926; interment in Lakeside Cemetery.

THAYER, John Alden (son of Eli Thayer), a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Worcester, Mass., December 22, 1857; attended the graded schools and the high schools of Worcester; was graduated from Harvard University in 1879; taught school; studied law at Columbia College of Law at New York City, was admitted to the bar in 1889, and commenced practice in Worcester; clerk of the central district court of Worcester 1892–1897; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second Congress (March 4, 1911–March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1912 to the Sixty-third Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1912; appointed postmaster of Worcester, Mass., by President Wilson in February, 1915, which position he held until his death, which occurred in Worcester, Worcester County, Mass., July 31, 1917; interment in Hope Cemetery.

THAYER, John Milton (uncle of Arthur Laban Bates), a Senator from Nebraska; born in Bellingham, Mass., January 24, 1820; was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1847; moved to Nebraska in 1854 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1855, and commenced practice in Omaha, Nebr.; brigadier general and major general of the Territorial forces operating against the Pawnee Indians 1855–1861; captured the Pawnees and placed them on reservations in 1859; member of the Territorial State senate in 1860; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1860; during the Civil War served in the Union Army; commissioned colonel of the First Regiment Nebraska Volunteer Infantry July 21, 1861; promoted to brigadier general of Volunteers October 4, 1862; appointment expired March 4, 1863; brigadier general of Volunteers March 13, 1863; brevetted major general of Volunteers March 13, 1865, for "gallant and meritorious services during the war"; resigned July 19, 1865; returned to Omaha, Nebr.; member of the State constitutional convention in 1866; upon the admission of Nebraska as a State into the Union was elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 1, 1867, to March 3, 1871; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1871; appointed by President Grant Governor of the Territory of Wyoming, and served from 1875 to 1879; department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic of Nebraska in 1886; Governor of Nebraska 1887–1891; resumed the practice of law in Lincoln, Nebr., and died there March 19, 1906; interment in Wyuka Cemetery.

THAYER, John Randolph, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Douglas, Worcester County, Mass., March 9, 1845; attended the common schools and Nichols Academy in Dudley, Worcester County, and was graduated from Yale College in 1869; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1871, and commenced practice in Worcester, Mass.; served in the city council 1874–1876 and as alderman 1878–1880; was one of the trustees of Nichols Academy for fifteen years; was unsuccessful candidate for district attorney in 1876; member of the State house of representatives in 1880 and 1881; unsuccessful candidate for mayor of Worcester in 1886; served in the State senate in 1890 and 1891; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1892 to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth, Fifty-seventh, and Fifty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1899–March 3, 1905); was not a candidate for renomination in 1904; resumed the practice of law in Worcester, Mass., where he died December 19, 1916; interment in the Rural Cemetery.

THAYER, Martin Russell, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Dinwiddie County, near the city limits of Petersburg, Va., on January 27, 1819; attended the Mount Pleasant Classical Institute in Amherst, Mass., and Amherst College; moved with his father to Philadelphia, Pa., in 1837; was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1840; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1842, and commenced practice in Philadelphia; commissioner to revise the revenue laws of Pennsylvania in 1862; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1863–March 3, 1867; declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1896; resumed the practice of law; judge of the district court of Philadelphia 1867–1874; president judge of the court of common pleas of Philadelphia from 1874 until his resignation in 1896; elected by the judges of the common pleas court prothonotary of Philadelphia in 1896; also engaged in literary pursuits; died in Philadelphia, Pa., October 14, 1906; interment in St. James the Less Church Cemetery.

THEAKER, Thomas Clarke, a Representative from Ohio; born in York County, Pa., on February 1, 1812; attended the common schools; moved to Bridgeport, Belmont County, Ohio, in 1830; became a machinist and wheelwright; was elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1859–March 3, 1861); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1860 to the Thirty-seventh Congress; member of the board of commissioners to investigate the Patent Office in 1864; appointed a member of the board of examiners in chief; served as Commissioner of Patents from August 17, 1865, to January 20, 1868; engaged in the practice of patent law in Washington, D. C., until his death in Oakland, Garrett County, Md., July 16, 1888; interment in the Weeks Cemetery, near Bridgeport, Ohio.

THIBODEAUX, Bannan Goforth, a Representative from Louisiana; born on St. Bridget plantation, near Thibodeaux, in the parish of Terrebonne, La., December 22, 1812; attended the country schools; studied law in Hagerstown, Md., was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in the parishes of Lafourche and Terrebonne, La.; member of the State constitutional conventions in 1845 and 1862; held several local offices; elected to the Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth Congresses (March 4, 1845–March 3, 1849); resumed the practice of law in Terrebonne and Lafourche Parishes, La.; sugar planter and manufacturer; died in the parish of Terrebonne, La., March 5, 1866; interment in the Halfway Cemetery, near Houma, La.

THISTLEWOOD, Napoleon Bonaparte, a Representative from Illinois; born near Harrington, Kent County, Del., March 30, 1837; attended the public schools; moved to Mason, Ill., in 1858 and engaged in mercantile pursuits; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army in 1862; commissioned by Gov. Richard Yates September 24, 1864, as captain of Company C, Ninety-eighth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry; served in the Army of the Cumberland, in Wilder's brigade, and with Wilson's Cavalry Corps, and was wounded at Selma, Ala., April 2, 1865; returned to Mason and resumed business pursuits; moved to Calro, Ill., and engaged in the commission business; mayor of Calro, Ill., 1879-1883 and again 1897-1901; department commander of the Grand Army of the Republic for Illinois in 1901; elected as a Republican to the Sixtieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of George W. Smith; reelected to the Sixty-first and Sixty-second Congresses, and served from February 15, 1908, to March 3, 1913; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1912 to the Sixty-third Congress; retired from public and business life, and was a resident of Calro, Ill., until his death in that city September 15, 1915; interment in Beech Grove Cemetery, Mounds, Ill.

THOMAS, Benjamin Franklin, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Boston, Mass., February 12, 1813; moved with his parents to Worcester in 1819; attended Lancaster Academy, and was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1830; studied law in Cambridge, Mass., was admitted to the bar in 1833, and commenced practice in Worcester, Mass.; held several local offices; member of the State house of representatives in 1842; commissioner of bankruptcy in 1842; judge of probate 1844-1848; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Taylor and Fillmore in 1848; judge of the Massachusetts Supreme Court from 1853 to 1859, when he resigned; continued the practice of law in Boston, Mass.; elected as a Conservative Unionist to the Thirty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Charles F. Adams, and served from June 11, 1861, to March 3, 1863; declined a renomination; again engaged in the practice of law; nominated by Governor Bullock for chief justice of the Supreme Court of Massachusetts in 1868, but the nomination was not confirmed by the council; died at his home in Beverly Farms, Mass., September 27, 1878; interment in Forrest Hill Cemetery, Boston, Mass.

THOMAS, Charles Randolph, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Beaufort, Carteret County, N. C., February 7, 1827; attended a private school in Hillsboro, N. C., and was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1849; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1850, and commenced practice in Beaufort, N. C.; moved to New Bern, N. C., and continued the practice of law; member of the State constitutional convention in 1861; secretary of state of North Carolina in 1864; appointed by the governor president of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad in 1867; judge of the superior court 1868-1870; elected as a Republican to the Forty-second and Forty-third Congresses (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed the practice of law in New Bern, N. C., and died there February 18, 1891; interment in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

THOMAS, Charles Randolph (son of the preceding), a Representative from North Carolina; born in Beaufort, Carteret County, N. C., August 21, 1881; attended New Bern

(N. C.) Academy and Emerson Institute, Washington, D. C.; was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1881; studied law with his father and at the law school of Judges R. P. Dick and John H. Dillard at Greensboro, N. C.; was admitted to the bar in 1882 and commenced practice in New Bern, N. C.; member of the State house of representatives in 1887; attorney for Craven County 1890-1896; elected by the State legislature a trustee of the University of North Carolina in 1893; member of the Democratic State executive committee; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Bryan and Sewall in 1896; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1911); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1910; resumed the practice of law in New Bern, N. C.; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York City in 1924; moved on account of his wife's health to Waynesville, Haywood County, N. C., in 1925 and engaged in the active practice of his profession; appointed in September, 1926, emergency judge of the superior court by the Governor of North Carolina; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Waynesville, N. C.

THOMAS, Charles Spalding, a Senator from Colorado; born in Darlen, McIntosh County, Ga., December 6, 1849; attended private schools in Georgia and Connecticut, and was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1871; was admitted to the bar in April, 1871, and commenced practice in Denver, Colo.; city attorney in 1875 and 1876; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1880 and Chicago in 1896; member of the Democratic National Committee 1884-1896; Governor of Colorado 1899-1901; temporary chairman of the Democratic National Convention at Kansas City, Mo., in 1900; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1913 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles J. Hughes, jr.; reelected in 1914, and served from January 15, 1913, to March 3, 1921; unsuccessful independent candidate on the Nationalist ticket for reelection in 1920; special assistant to the Attorney General of the United States in 1922; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Denver, Colo.

THOMAS, Christopher Yancy, a Representative from Virginia; born in Pittsylvania County, Va., on March 24, 1818; attended the common schools, and was graduated from a private academy in 1838; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1844, and commenced practice in Martinsville, Henry County, Va.; served in the State senate 1860-1864; member of the commission to settle the boundary line between Virginia and North Carolina; treasurer of Henry County; prosecuting attorney for Henry County; member of the State constitutional convention in 1868; elected to the State house of delegates in 1869; successfully contested as a Republican the election of Alexander M. Davis to the Forty-third Congress, and served from March 5, 1874, to March 3, 1875; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in Martinsville, Va., February 11, 1879; interment in the family cemetery at Leatherwood, Henry County, Va.

THOMAS, David, a Representative from New York; born in Pelham, Mass., on June 11, 1762; completed preparatory studies; served as a volunteer in 1777; joined the Fifth Massachusetts Regiment as a corporal in 1781, and later became sergeant in the Third Massachusetts Regiment; moved to Salem, Washington County, N. Y., in 1784, where he conducted a tavern for several years; commissioned captain in the State militia in 1786; rose to the rank of major general of the northern division of the Militia of New York in 1805; engaged in mercantile pursuits; member of the State assembly 1794 and 1798-1800; elected as a Democrat to the Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, and Tenth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1801, to May 1, 1808, when he resigned; treasurer of the State of New York 1808-1812; moved to Providence, R. I., where he died November 27, 1831.

THOMAS, Francis, a Representative from Maryland; born in that part of Frederick County, Md., close to South Mountain, known as Merryland tract, February 3, 1709; attended St. John's College, Annapolis, Md.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1820, and commenced practice in Frankville, Md.; member of the State house of delegates in 1822, 1827, and 1829, and served the last year as speaker; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-second and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1841); president of the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal Co. in 1839 and 1840; Governor of Maryland 1841-1844; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; member of the State constitutional convention in 1850; elected as a Union Republican to the Thirty-seventh and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1869); delegate to the Loyalist Convention at Philadelphia in 1866; collector of internal revenue 1870-1872; United States minister to Peru from March 25, 1872, to July 9, 1875; retired from public and professional life and devoted his time to agricultural pursuits; killed by a locomotive while walking on the railroad tracks near Frankville, Md., January 22, 1876; interment in a vault in Rose Hill Cemetery, Cumberland, Md.

THOMAS, George Morgan, a Representative from Kentucky; born near Poplar Flat, Lewis County, Ky., November 23, 1828; educated in the common schools; taught school two years; was school commissioner from 1850 to 1859; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1851, and practiced; elected prosecuting attorney of Lewis County in 1854 and served for four years; a member of the State house of representatives 1859-1863; Commonwealth attorney for the tenth judicial district 1862-1868; Republican presidential elector in 1864, 1868, and 1872; county judge in 1868; unsuccessful Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky in 1871; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1872 and 1873; circuit judge of the fourteenth judicial district 1874-1880; United States district attorney 1881-1885; elected as a Republican to the Fifteenth Congress (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1889); appointed Solicitor of Internal Revenue by President McKinley on May 20, 1897, and served until May 31, 1901; retired from public life; died in Vancelburg, Lewis County, Ky., January 7, 1914; interment in Greenlawn Cemetery.

THOMAS, Henry Franklin, a Representative from Michigan; born in Tompkins, Jackson County, Mich., December 17, 1843; attended the common schools, and Albion (Mich.) College in 1859; enlisted during the Civil War in the Seventh Regiment Michigan Volunteer Cavalry as a private in 1862; was promoted to first sergeant of Company D, and in July, 1864, to second lieutenant; renewed his studies in the Ypsilanti Normal School; was graduated from the medical department of Michigan University at Ann Arbor in 1868 and commenced practice in Constantine, St. Joseph County, Mich.; moved to Allegan, Mich., in 1870; member of the State house of representatives in 1878 and 1874; served in the State senate in 1875 and 1879; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1884; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1896; surgeon in the Michigan Soldiers' Home in 1907 and 1908; member of the Michigan pardon board in 1906 and 1910; retired from the practice of medicine; died in Allegan, Mich., April 18, 1912; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery, Ann Arbor, Mich.

THOMAS, Isaac, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Sevierville, Tenn., November 4, 1784; after the death of his parents he moved to Winchester, Tenn., in 1800; self-educated; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1808, and practiced in Winchester; elected as a Democrat to the Fourteenth Congress (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1817); moved to Alexandria, Rapides Parish, La., in 1819; resumed the practice of law; purchased vast tracts of land adjoining Alexandria and became one of the largest landowners and slaveholders in Louisiana; was the first man to introduce the cultivation of sugar cane in central Louisiana; also engaged in mercantile pursuits and in the operation of sawmills and steamboats; served as brigadier general of the Louisiana Militia; served in the State senate 1823-1827; moved to California in 1849; returned to Alexandria, La., where he died on February 2, 1859; interment in the Flint lot in Rapides Cemetery, Pineville, La.

THOMAS, James Houston, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Iredell County, N. C., September 22, 1808; attended the rural schools; was graduated from Jackson College, Columbia, Tenn., in 1830; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1831, and commenced practice in Columbia, Tenn.; attorney general of Tennessee 1836-1842; elected as a Democrat to the Thirtieth and Thirty-first Congresses (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1851); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1850 to the Thirty-second Congress; elected to the Thirty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1861); resumed the practice of law in Columbia, Tenn.; died near Fayetteville, Lincoln County, Tenn., on August 4, 1873; interment in St. John's Cemetery, Ashwood, Maury County, Tenn.

THOMAS, Jesse Burgess, a Delegate from Indiana Territory and a Senator from Illinois; born in Elizabethtown (now Hagerstown), Md., in 1777; moved with his parents to Bracken County, Ky., in 1779; attended the common schools; was clerk of Bracken County court 1799-1803; studied law in Mason County, Ky., was admitted to the bar in 1803, and commenced practice in Lawrenceburg, Ind.; appointed deputy attorney general of Indiana Territory August 23, 1805, and the following day was appointed by Gov. William Henry Harrison a captain in the Black Hawk War; member of the Territorial house of representatives 1805-1808, and served as speaker of the house from September 26, 1805, to October 24, 1808; elected as a Delegate from Indiana Territory to the Tenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Benjamin Parke, and served from October 22, 1808, to March 3, 1809; moved to Kaskaskia in 1809, thence to Cahokia, and later to Edwardsville, Ill.; upon the organization of Illinois Territory was appointed judge of the United States court for the northwestern judicial district, and served from 1809 to 1818; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1818, and served as president of that body; upon the admission of Illinois as a State into the Union was elected as a Whig to the United States Senate; reelected in 1823, and served from December 3, 1813, to March 3, 1829; declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1829; moved to Mount Vernon, Ohio, in 1829; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Harrisburg, Pa., in 1839; died in Mount Vernon, Ohio, May 4, 1853; interment in Mound View Cemetery.

THOMAS, John Chew, a Representative from Maryland; born in Perryville, Cecil County, Md., on October 15, 1764; attended private schools; was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1783; moved to "Fairland," in Anne Arundel County, Md., about 1780; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in Philadelphia, Pa., December 15, 1787, but did not engage in extensive practice; elected as a Federalist to the Sixth Congress (March 4, 1799-March 3, 1801); declined to be a candidate for reelection; moved to Pennsylvania; died near Lelperville, Pa., May 10, 1836; interment in the Friends Cemetery, near Chester, Pa.

THOMAS, John Lewis, jr., a Representative from Maryland; born in Baltimore, Md., May 20, 1835; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1853, and commenced practice in Cumberland, Md.; city counselor of Cumberland in 1856 and 1857; moved to Baltimore, Md., in 1857 and continued the practice of law; city solicitor of Baltimore 1860-1862; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1863; State's attorney 1863-1865; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Edwin H. Webster, and served from December 4, 1865, to March 3, 1867; unsuccessful Republican candidate for reelection in 1866 to the Fortieth Congress; collector of the port of Baltimore, Md., from 1869 to 1873, and from 1877 to 1882; died in Baltimore, Md., October 15, 1893; interment in Greenmount Cemetery.

THOMAS, John Robert, a Representative from Illinois; born in Mount Vernon, Jefferson County, Ill., October 11, 1846; attended the common schools and Hunter Collegiate Institute, Princeton, Ind.; served in the Union Army during the Civil War, and rose from the rank of private to that of captain of Company D, One hundred and twentieth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1869, and practiced; city attorney of Metropolis, Ill., 1869 and 1870; served as State's attorney 1871-1874; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1889); was not a candidate for renomination in 1888; resumed the practice of law in Muskogee, Okla.; United States Judge in the Indian Territory from June 30, 1897, to June 30, 1901; nominated for Judge of the supreme court by the first Republican State convention of Oklahoma, but declined the nomination; member of the Oklahoma State Code Commission 1908-1910; resumed the practice of law in Muskogee, Okla.; died in McAlester, Okla., January 19, 1914; interment in Green Hill Cemetery, Muskogee, Okla.; reinterment in Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va.

THOMAS, (John William) Elmer, a Representative from Oklahoma; born near Greencastle, Putnam County, Ind., on September 8, 1878; attended the common schools and Central Normal College, Danville, Ind.; was graduated from De Pauw University, Greencastle, Ind., in 1900; studied law, was admitted to the bar of Indiana in 1907 and to the Oklahoma bar in 1900, and commenced practice in Oklahoma City, Okla.; moved to Lawton, Okla., in 1901 and continued the practice of law; member of the State senate from 1907 until 1920, when he resigned; served as president pro tempore 1910-1913; chairman of the Democratic State convention in 1910; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1920 to the Sixty-seventh Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Elected to the United States Senate in 1926 for the term beginning March 4, 1927, and ending March 3, 1933.

THOMAS, Lot, a Representative from Iowa; born near Markleysburg, Fayette County, Pa., October 17, 1843; attended the public schools and Vermillion Institute, Hayesville, Ohio; moved to Iowa in 1868; taught school in New Virginia, Warren County; attended the law department of the University of Iowa at Iowa City, and was admitted to the bar in 1870; moved to Buena Vista County, settled at Storm Lake in 1870, and practiced law; judge of the fourteenth judicial district of Iowa from 1885 until his resignation August 26, 1898, having become a candidate for Congress; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth, Fifty-seventh, and Fifty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1905); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1904; on account of illness did not engage in active business pursuits; died on a train near Yuma, Ariz., March 17, 1905, while en route to Los Angeles, Calif; interment in Storm Lake Cemetery, Storm Lake, Iowa.

THOMAS, Ormsby Brunson, a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Sandgate, Bennington County, Vt., August 21, 1832; moved with his parents to Wisconsin in 1836; attended the common schools, the Burr Seminary, Manchester, Vt., and was graduated from the National Law School, Poughkeepsie, N. Y., in 1850; was admitted to the bar in Albany, N. Y., in 1850 and commenced practice in Prairie du Chien, Wis.; district attorney of Crawford County, Wis.; served in the Union Army during the Civil War as captain of Company D, Thirty-first Regiment Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry; member of the State assembly in 1862, 1865, and 1867; served in the State senate in 1880 and 1881; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Grant and Wilson in 1872; elected as a Republican to the Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1891); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1890 to the Fifty-second Congress; resumed the practice of law in Prairie du Chien, Wis., and died there October 24, 1904; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

THOMAS, Philemon, a Representative from Louisiana; born in Orange County, Va., February 9, 1763; attended the common schools; served in the Revolutionary War; moved to Kentucky and settled in Mason County; delegate to the convention which framed the constitution of the State of Kentucky; member of the Kentucky House of Representatives 1796-1799; served in the State senate 1800-1803; moved to Louisiana in 1806 and settled on the banks of the lower Mississippi River; member of the Louisiana House of Representatives; leader of an uprising against the Spanish authorities, who exercised authority over what is now Mississippi and Louisiana, and commanded the forces which captured the Spanish fort at Baton Rouge in 1810; major general of Louisiana Militia in 1814 and 1815 and served in that capacity in the War of 1812; moved to Baton Rouge, La.; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Congresses (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1835); died in Baton Rouge, La., November 18, 1847; interment in the Old American Graveyard; reinterment in the National Cemetery at Baton Rouge.

THOMAS, Philip Francis, a Representative from Maryland; born in Easton, Talbot County, Md., September 12, 1810; attended the academy in Easton, and was graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., in 1830; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1831, and commenced practice in Easton, Md.; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1836; member of the State house of delegates in 1838, 1843, and 1845; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1841); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1840; resumed the practice of law; Governor of Maryland 1848-1851; judge of the land office court of eastern Maryland; Comptroller of the United States Treasury 1851-1853; collector of the port of Baltimore, Md., 1853-1860; declined the position of Treasurer of the United States tendered him by President Buchanan; United States Commissioner of Patents from February 16 to December 10, 1860; appointed Secretary of the Treasury in the Cabinet of President Buchanan, and served from December 10, 1860, to January 11, 1861; again a member of the State house of delegates in 1863; presented credentials as a Senator elect to the United States Senate for the term beginning March 4, 1867, but was not seated; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1876; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1878; again elected a member of the State house of delegates in 1878 and 1883; delegate to the Democratic State convention in 1883; resumed the practice of law in Easton, Md.; died in Baltimore, Md., October 2, 1890; interment in Spring Hill Cemetery, Easton, Md.

THOMAS, Richard, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in West Whiteland, Pa., December 30, 1744; educated at home by private teachers; served in the Revolutionary Army as colonel of the First Regiment Chester County Volunteers; elected as a Federalist to the Fourth, Fifth, and Sixth Congresses (March 4, 1795-March 3, 1801); engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Philadelphia, Pa., January 19, 1832; interment in the Friends Western Burial Ground.

THOMAS, Robert Young, Jr., a Representative from Kentucky; born near Russellville, Logan County, Ky., July 13, 1855; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Bethel College, Russellville, Ky., in 1878; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1881, and commenced practice in Central City, Ky.; also engaged in journalism; member of the State house of representatives in 1886 and 1887; elected Commonwealth attorney for the seventh judicial district of Kentucky in 1903 for a term of six years; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-first and to the eight succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1909, until his death at Redboiling Springs, Macon County, Tenn., September 3, 1925; interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Greenville, Ky.

THOMAS, William Aubrey, a Representative from Ohio; born in Y Bynea, near Llanelli, Wales, June 7, 1808; emigrated to the United States in 1808 with his parents, who settled in Niles, Ohio; attended the public schools of Niles, Mount Union College, Alliance, Ohio, and later Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y.; analytical chemist at Niles 1886-1888; engaged in the iron and steel business; president of the Mahoning Steel Co.; secretary and director of the Niles Fire Brick Co.; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Charles W. F. Dick; reelected to the Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, and Sixty-first Congresses, and served from November 8, 1904, to March 3, 1911; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1910 to the Sixty-second Congress; moved to Jenifer, Ala., in 1918; engaged in the manufacture of iron, steel, and fire brick; president of the Jenifer Iron Co.; is a resident of Jenifer, Ala.

THOMASSON, William Polindexter, a Representative from Kentucky; born in New Castle, Henry County, Ky., October 8, 1797; completed preparatory studies; served in Captain Duncan's company in the War of 1812; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Corydon, Ind., before he was twenty-one years of age; member of the State house of representatives 1815-1820; prosecuting attorney of Corydon in 1818; moved to Louisville, Ky., in 1841; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1847); declined to be a candidate for renomination; moved to Chicago, Ill., and resumed the practice of law; during the Civil War served in the Union Army in the Seventy-first Regiment New York Volunteer Infantry; died near La Grange, Oldham County, Ky., December 29, 1882; interment in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville, Ky.

THOMPSON, Albert Clifton, a Representative from Ohio; born in Brookville, Jefferson County, Pa., January 23, 1842; attended the common schools and Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa.; studied law; served in the Union Army during the Civil War as second lieutenant of Company B, One hundred and fifth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry; promoted to captain of Company K in the same regiment November 28, 1861, and served until March 23, 1863, when he was discharged on account of wounds received in the second Battle of Bull Run; resumed the study of law, was admitted to the bar December 13, 1864, and commenced practice in Portsmouth, Ohio, in 1865; elected probate judge of Scioto County, Ohio, in October, 1869; elected common pleas judge of the seventh judicial district of Ohio in October, 1881; elected as a Republican to the Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1891); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1890; resumed the practice of law; appointed by President McKinley chairman of the commission to revise and codify the criminal and penal laws of the United States June 21, 1897; appointed United States judge for the southern district of Ohio September 13, 1898, when he moved to Cincinnati, Ohio, and served until his death in that city on January 26, 1910; interment in Greenlawn Cemetery, Portsmouth, Ohio.

THOMPSON, Benjamin, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Charlestown, Mass., August 5, 1798; attended the public schools; engaged in mercantile pursuits; member of the State house of representatives 1830-1831 and 1833-1836; served in the State senate in 1841; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1847); declined to be a candidate for renomination; elected to the Thirty-second Congress, and served from March 4, 1851, until his death in Charlestown, Mass., September 24, 1852; interment in the Congressional Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

THOMPSON, Charles James, a Representative from Ohio; born in Wapakoneta, Auglaize County, Ohio, January 24, 1862; attended the public schools and the Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio; learned the art of printing and became the owner and publisher of the Defiance Express 1889-1902; member of the Republican State central committee in 1893 and 1894; postmaster of Defiance 1898-1915; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

THOMPSON, Charles Perkins, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Braintree, Norfolk County, Mass., July 30, 1827; attended the public schools, the Hollis Institute of Braintree, and Amherst (Mass.) College; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1854, and commenced practice in Gloucester, Mass., in 1857; United States assistant district attorney from 1855 to 1867; member of the State house of representatives in 1871 and 1872; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1872; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; resumed the practice of law; city solicitor of Gloucester, Mass., in 1874, 1875, 1877, and 1879; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor of Massachusetts in 1880 and again in 1881; served as judge of the Superior Court of Massachusetts from 1885 until his death in Gloucester, Mass., January 19, 1894; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.

THOMPSON, Charles Winston, a Representative from Alabama; born near Tuskegee, Macon County, Ala., December 30, 1880; attended the common schools and Park High School in Tuskegee, Ala.; was graduated from Bryant and Stratton's Business College, Louisville, Ky., in 1878; engaged in mercantile pursuits; appointed in 1896 lieutenant colonel on the staff of Gov. Joseph F. Johnston and served in that capacity until the end of the governor's term; president of the Bank of Tuskegee, Ala.; county superintendent of education for Macon County 1886-1888; member of the State senate in 1898; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-seventh and Fifty-eighth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1901, until his death in Washington, D. C., March 20, 1904; interment in the City Cemetery, Tuskegee, Ala.

THOMPSON, Fountain Land, a Senator from North Dakota; born near Scottsville, Macoupin County, Ill., November 18, 1854; moved to Girard, Macoupin County, Ill., in 1865; attended the grammar and high schools in Girard; studied law and was admitted to the bar, but did not engage in extensive practice; member of the Board of Supervisors of Macoupin County; engaged in mercantile pursuits in 1872; moved to Dakota Territory and settled on a farm near Cando, Towner County, in 1888; delegate to the first Democratic county convention that assembled after statehood and was chosen chairman; judge of the Towner County court 1890-1894; engaged in the real-estate business and banking in Cando and also in agricultural pursuits; school director; member of the Cando Board of Aldermen; mayor of Cando; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Martin N. Johnson, and served from November 10, 1900, to January 31, 1910, when he resigned; resumed his former business activities in Cando, Towner County, N. Dak., where he now resides.

THOMPSON, George Western, a Representative from Virginia; born in St. Clairsville, Ohio, May 14, 1806; was graduated from Jefferson (now Washington and Jefferson) College, Pennsylvania, in 1824; studied law in Richmond, Va., was admitted to the bar in 1826, and commenced practice in St. Clairsville, Ohio, in 1828; moved to western Virginia in 1837; appointed deputy postmaster at Wheeling in 1838; appointed on a commission to settle jurisdiction of the Ohio River between Virginia and Ohio; United States attorney for the western district of Virginia by appointment of President James K. Polk 1848-1850; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-second Congress, and served from March 4, 1851, until his resignation on July 30, 1852; was elected judge of the Circuit Court of Virginia in 1852 and reelected in 1860; was removed from office in 1861 on refusal to take the oath of office to support what he believed unconstitutional action to set up the present State of West Virginia; retired from the practice of his profession and resided on his estate near Wheeling, Ohio County, W. Va., until his death on February 24, 1888; interment in Elm Grove Cemetery, Wheeling, W. Va.

THOMPSON, Hedge, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Salem, N. J., January 28, 1780; pursued an academic course; was graduated from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1802 and practiced his profession in Salem; member of the General Assembly of New Jersey in 1806; served in the State council in 1819; appointed associate judge of Salem County, N. J., in 1815 and again in 1824; served as collector for Salem County from 1826 to 1828; elected to the Twentieth Congress, and served from March 4, 1827, until his death in Salem, N. J., on July 28, 1828; interment in St. John's Protestant Episcopal Churchyard.

THOMPSON, Jacob, a Representative from Mississippi; born in Lenoir, Caswell County, N. C., May 15, 1810; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1831; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1834, and commenced practice in Pontotoc County, Miss., in 1835; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1851); declined to be a candidate for re-nomination; declined an appointment to the United States Senate tendered by Governor Brown in 1845; appointed Secretary of the Interior in the Cabinet of President Buchanan, and served from March 6, 1857, to January 8, 1861, when he resigned; served as inspector general in the Confederate Army during the Civil War; confidential agent of the Confederacy to Canada in 1864 and 1865; died in Memphis, Tenn., March 24, 1885; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

THOMPSON, James, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Middlesex, Butler County, Pa., October 1, 1806; completed preparatory studies; learned the printer's trade; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1829, and commenced practice in Erie, Pa.; member of the State house of representatives 1832-1834 and in 1855, and served as speaker in 1834; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Van Buren and Johnson in 1836; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1838; presiding judge of the sixth judicial district court 1838-1844; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, and Thirty-first Congresses (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1851); was not a candidate for renomination in 1850; resumed the practice of law; associate justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania from 1857 to 1866, and served as chief justice of that court from 1866 to 1872; again engaged in the practice of law; died in Philadelphia, Pa., January 28, 1874; interment in Woodlands Cemetery.

THOMPSON, Joel, a Representative from New York; born in Stanfordsville, Dutchess County, N. Y., October 3, 1758; attended the common schools in Snynra, N. Y.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; member of the State assembly in 1798, 1803, and 1804; served in the Revolutionary War; appointed first judge of Chenango County, and served from June 8, 1807, to March 10, 1814; elected as a Federalist to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1815); died in Brooklyn, N. Y., February 8, 1848.

THOMPSON, John, a Representative from New York; born in Litchfield, Conn., March 20, 1749; attended the common schools; at the age of fourteen moved with his parents to Stillwater, N. Y.; appointed justice of Stillwater Township in 1788; member of the State assembly in 1788 and 1789; elected as a Democrat to the Sixth Congress (March 4, 1799-March 3, 1801); delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1801; appointed by Governor Clinton first judge of Saratoga County in 1791, and held this office until 1809; elected to the Tenth and Eleventh Congresses (March 4, 1807-March 3, 1811); retired to private life; died in Stillwater, Saratoga County, N. Y., in 1823; interment in cemetery at Stillwater, N. Y.

THOMPSON, John, a Representative from New York; born in Rhinebeck, Dutchess County, N. Y., July 4, 1809; was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., and later from Yale College; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1859); resumed the practice of law; died in New Hamburg, Dutchess County, N. Y., June 1, 1890; interment in Poughkeepsie Rural Cemetery, Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

THOMPSON, John Burton, a Representative and a Senator from Kentucky; born near Harrodsburg, Ky., December 14, 1810; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in Harrodsburg, Ky.; Commonwealth attorney; served in the State senate from 1829 to 1833; member of the State house of representatives in 1835 and 1837; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Stimson H. Anderson; reelected to the Twenty-seventh Congress, and served from December 7, 1840, to March 3, 1843; elected to the Thirtieth and Thirty-first Congresses (March 4, 1847–March 3, 1851); Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky in 1852; elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1853, to March 3, 1859; died in Harrodsburg, Mercer County, Ky., January 7, 1874; interment in Spring Hill Cemetery.

THOMPSON, John McCandless (brother of William George Thompson), a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Butler, Butler County, Pa., January 4, 1829; attended the common schools and Witherspoon Institute; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1854, and began practice in Butler, Pa.; member of the State house of representatives in 1859 and 1860 and served one year as speaker; entered the Union Army during the Civil War and served as major and subsequently as lieutenant colonel of the One hundred and thirty-fourth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1868; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Ebenezer McKunkin, and served from December 22, 1874, to March 3, 1875; elected to the Forty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1877–March 3, 1879); was not a candidate for renomination in 1878; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Butler, Pa., September 3, 1903; interment in Butler Cemetery.

THOMPSON, Joseph Bryan, a Representative from Oklahoma; born near Sherman, Grayson County, Tex., April 29, 1871; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Savoy College in Fannin County, Tex., in 1890; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1892, and commenced practice in Purcell, Ind. T.; moved to Ardmore, Ind. T.; appointed commissioner for the United States court in 1893 and returned to Purcell, Ind. T.; resigned in 1897; moved to Pauls Valley and resumed the practice of law; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Kansas City in 1900, at St. Louis in 1904, and at Denver in 1908; member of the Democratic Territorial committee 1890–1904; chairman of the Democratic State committee in 1906 and 1908; served in the State senate 1910–1914; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, and Sixty-sixth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1913, until his death on a train near Martinsburg, W. Va., while en route to his home at Pauls Valley, Okla., September 18, 1919; interment in Mount Olivet Cemetery, Pauls Valley, Okla.

THOMPSON, Philip, a Representative from Kentucky; born on Shawnee Run, near Harrodsburg, Mercer County, Ky., August 20, 1789; received a limited education; served as a lieutenant in the War of 1812; held several local offices; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Hartford, Ohio County, Ky.; moved to Owensboro, Daviess County, Ky.; member of the State house of representatives; elected to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823–March 3, 1825); resumed the practice of law in Owensburg, Ky., where he died November 25, 1836; interment in the Moseley burying ground on Fifth Street; reinterment in Rural Hill (now Elmwood) Cemetery in 1860.

THOMPSON, Philip Burton, Jr., a Representative from Kentucky; born in Harrodsburg, Mercer County, Ky., October 15, 1845; attended the common schools and the University of Kentucky at Lexington; during the Civil War entered the Confederate Army at the age of sixteen and served throughout the war; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1866, and commenced practice in Harrodsburg; was city attorney of Harrodsburg 1867–1869; was appointed in 1869 and subsequently elected Commonwealth attorney for the thirteenth judicial district of Kentucky, serving until 1874; reelected in 1874 and served until 1878, when he resigned, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, and Forty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1879–March 3, 1885); delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1884; moved to New York City and resumed the practice of law; died in Washington, D. C., December 15, 1909; interment in Spring Hill Cemetery, Harrodsburg, Ky.

THOMPSON, Philip Rootes, a Representative from Virginia; born near Fredericksburg, Va., on March 26, 1786; was educated by private tutors; was graduated from William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Fairfax, Va.; member of the State house of delegates 1793–1797; elected as a Democrat to the Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth Congresses (March 4, 1801–March 3, 1807); resumed the practice of law; died in Kanawha County, Va. (now West Virginia), July 27, 1837; interment at Coals Mouth (now St. Albans), W. Va.

THOMPSON, Richard Wigginton, a Representative from Indiana; born near Culpeper Court House, Culpeper County, Va., June 9, 1809; pursued classical studies; moved to Louisville, Ky., in 1831; clerk in a store; moved to Lawrence County, Ind., in 1831; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1834, and began practice in Bedford, Lawrence County, Ind.; member of the State house of representatives 1834–1836; served in the State senate 1836–1838 and for a short time as president pro tempore; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Harrison and Tyler in 1840; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841–March 3, 1843); was not a candidate for renomination in 1842; moved to Terra Haute, Ind., in 1843; city attorney in 1846 and 1847; elected as a Whig to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847–March 3, 1849); declined a renomination; declined the office of Austrian minister which was tendered him by President Taylor, the office of recorder of the General Land Office tendered by President Fillmore, and a seat on the bench of the Court of Claims tendered by President Lincoln; commander of Camp Thompson, Ind., and provost marshal 1861–1865; appointed by President Lincoln collector of internal revenue seventh district of Indiana and served one term; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Lincoln and Johnson in 1864; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1868 and at Cincinnati in 1876; judge of the fifth Indiana circuit court 1867–1869; appointed Secretary of the Navy in the Cabinet of President Hayes, and served from March 12, 1877, until his resignation December 21, 1880; chairman of the American Committee of the Panama Canal Co. in 1881; director of the Panama Rail Road Co. 1881–1888; died in Terre Haute, Ind., February 9, 1900; interment in High Lawn Cemetery.

THOMPSON, Robert Augustine (father of Thomas Larkin Thompson), a Representative from Virginia; born near Culpeper Court House, Culpeper County, Va., February 14, 1805; attended a private school at Gallipolis, Ohio, and the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, Va.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1826, and commenced practice in Charleston, Kanawha County, Va. (now West Virginia); member of the State senate 1839-1846; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Polk and Dallas in 1844; elected as a Democrat to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1849); declined to be a candidate for reelection; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1862; member of the Board of Visitors to the University of Virginia in 1862; moved to San Francisco, Calif., in 1853; appointed in 1853 a member of a commission to settle private land claims in California; appointed by the governor a reporter of the California Supreme Court in 1870; member of the Justices' court of San Francisco from 1870 until his death in San Francisco, Calif., August 31, 1876; interment in Laurel Hill Cemetery.

THOMPSON, Thomas Larkin (son of Robert Augustine Thompson), a Representative from California; born in Charleston, Va. (now West Virginia), May 31, 1838; attended the common schools and Buffalo Academy, Virginia (now West Virginia); moved to California in 1855 and settled in Sonoma County; established the Petaluma Journal the same year; purchased the Sonoma Democrat in 1860 and was the editor of that paper; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1860 and at Chicago in 1862; secretary of state of California 1862-1866; declined to be a candidate for renomination; elected as a Democrat to the Fiftieth Congress (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1889); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1888 to the Fifty-first Congress; appointed on April 4, 1891, commissioner from California to the World's Fair at Chicago; minister to Brazil from April 24, 1893, to May 27, 1897; died in Santa Rosa, Sonoma County, Calif., February 1, 1898; interment in the Rural Cemetery.

THOMPSON, Thomas Weston, a Representative and a Senator from New Hampshire; born in Boston, Mass., March 15, 1766; attended Dummer Academy, Byfield, Mass.; was graduated from Harvard University in 1786; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1791, and practiced in Salisbury, N. H., 1791-1810; postmaster of Salisbury, N. H., 1798-1803; trustee of Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., 1801-1821; moved to Concord, N. H., in 1810 and continued the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives in 1807, 1808, 1813, and 1814, and served as speaker in 1813 and 1814; elected to the Ninth Congress (March 4, 1805-March 3, 1807); State treasurer of New Hampshire 1808-1811; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Nicholas Gilman, and served from June 24, 1814, to March 3, 1817; died in Concord, N. H., October 1, 1821; interment in the Old North Cemetery.

THOMPSON, Waddy, Jr., a Representative from South Carolina; born in Pickensville (now Pickens), Ninety-sixth district, S. C., January 8, 1798; moved to Greenville with his parents in his infancy; received his early education in neighboring schools, and was graduated from South Carolina College (now the University of South Carolina), at Columbia in 1814; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1810, and began practice in Edgefield, S. C.; moved to Greenville, S. C., and continued the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives from 1826 to 1830; elected solicitor of the western circuit in 1830; presidential elector in 1832 and cast his vote for John Floyd for President and Henry Lee for Vice President; brigadier general of militia in 1832; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Warren R. Davis; reelected to the Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth Congresses, and served from September 10, 1835, to March 3, 1841; was not a candidate for renomination in 1840; appointed envoy extraordinary and minister plenipo-tentary to Mexico, and served from February 10, 1842, to March 8, 1844; moved to Madison, Madison County, Fla., and engaged in cotton planting; appointed solicitor general of a circuit in 1868; died while on a visit to Tallahassee, Fla., November 28, 1868; interment in the Episcopal Cemetery.

THOMPSON, Wiley, a Representative from Georgia; born in Amelia County, Va., September 23, 1781; moved to Elberton, Elbert County, Ga.; commissioner of Elbert county academy 1808; served in the State senate 1817-1819; appointed major general of the fourth division of the Georgia militia on November 29, 1817, and served until November, 1824, when he resigned; elected as a Democrat to the Seventeenth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1833); delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1833; murdered by the Seminole Indians at Fort King, Fla., December 28, 1835; interment in the private burial ground on his estate at Elberton, Ga.

THOMPSON, William, a Representative from Iowa; born in Fayette County, Pa., November 10, 1813; attended the common schools; moved to Iowa and settled in Mount Pleasant; member of the Territorial house of representatives in 1843; secretary of the State constitutional convention in 1846; elected as a Democrat to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1849); presented credentials as a Member elect to the Thirty-first Congress, and served from March 4, 1849, to June 29, 1850, when the seat was declared vacant; served in the Union Army during the Civil War; commissioned captain in the First Iowa Volunteer Cavalry on July 31, 1861; promoted to major on May 18, 1863, and colonel on June 20, 1864; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers on March 13, 1865, "for gallant and meritorious services," and was honorably mustered out on March 15, 1866; recommissioned captain in the Seventh Cavalry, Regular Army, on July 28, 1866; brevetted major on March 2, 1867, "for gallant and meritorious service in action at Prairie Grove, Ark."; lieutenant colonel on March 2, 1867, "for gallant and meritorious service in action at Bayou Metee, Ark."; retired from the Army on December 15, 1875, and became editor of the Iowa State Gazette; died in Tacoma, Pierce County, Wash., on October 6, 1897; interment in Tacoma Cemetery.

THOMPSON, William George (brother of John McCandless Thompson), a Representative from Iowa; born near Butler, Butler County, Pa., January 17, 1830; attended the common schools and the Witherspoon Institute in Butler, Pa.; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1853; moved to Iowa the same year and settled in Marion, Linn County, where he commenced the practice of law; prosecuting attorney of Linn County 1854-1856; member of the State senate 1856-1860; served during the Civil War as major of the Twentieth Regiment Iowa Volunteer Infantry in 1862; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Lincoln and Johnson in 1864; district attorney for the eighth judicial district for six years; appointed chief justice of the Territory of Idaho, and served from January 13, 1870, until his resignation in April of that year; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rush Clark; reelected to the Forty-seventh Congress, and served from October 14, 1879, to March 3, 1883; declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1882; served on the city council of Marion; member of the State house of representatives 1885-1887; judge of the eighteenth judicial district of Iowa 1894-1900; moved to Kenwood Park, Linn County, Iowa, in 1896; retired from public life and died in Kenwood Park, Iowa, April 2, 1911; interment in Oak Shade Cemetery, Marion, Iowa.

THOMPSON, William Howard, a Senator from Kansas; born in Crawfordsville, Montgomery County, Ind., October 14, 1871; moved with his parents to Nemaha County, Kans., in 1880; attended the public schools; was graduated from the Seneca Normal School in 1886 and from the Lawrence Business College in 1891; official court reporter of the twenty-second judicial district of Kansas 1891-1894; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1894, and commenced practice in Seneca; clerk of the Kansas Court of Appeals in Topeka and practiced law from 1897 to 1901; moved to Iola, Kans., in 1901 and continued the practice of law; was county attorney of Allen County; moved to Garden City in 1905; judge of the thirty-second judicial district of Kansas from 1906 to 1913, when he resigned, having been elected Senator; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1912, and served from March 4, 1913, to March 3, 1919; unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the United States Senate in 1918; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1916; resumed the practice of law at Kansas City, Kans., in 1919; moved to Tulsa, Okla., in 1923 and practiced law in Kansas City and Tulsa; moved to Washington D. C., in 1927, where he continued the practice of his profession, and died there on February 9, 1928; interment in Glenwood Cemetery.

THOMSON, Alexander, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Franklin County, Pa., January 12, 1788; apprenticed as a sickle maker; moved to Bedford, Pa.; received a limited schooling; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1816, and commenced practice in Chambersburg, Franklin County, Pa.; held several local offices; member of the State house of representatives; elected to the Eighteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Tod; reelected to the Nineteenth Congress, and served from December 6, 1824, to May 1, 1826, when he resigned; mayor of Lancaster, Pa.; president judge of the sixteenth judicial district of Pennsylvania 1827-1841; professor in the law school of Marshall College, Lancaster, Lancaster County, Pa.; died in Chambersburg, Pa., August 2, 1848; interment in Falling Spring Presbyterian Cemetery.

THOMSON, Charles Marsh, a Representative from Illinois; born in Chicago, Ill., February 18, 1877; attended the public schools and the Chicago Manual Training School; was graduated from Washington and Jefferson College, Washington, Pa., in 1899 and from the Northwestern University Law School, Evanston, Ill., in 1902; was admitted to the bar in the latter year and commenced practice in Chicago, Ill.; elected a member of the city council in 1908, 1910, and again in 1912; elected as a Progressive Republican to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; elected judge of the circuit court of Cook County in 1915; reelected in 1921; appointed justice of the Appellate Court of Illinois in 1917; reappointed in 1921, and served until June, 1927; resumed the practice of his profession in Chicago; is a resident of Winnetka, Cook County, Ill.

THOMSON, John, a Representative from Ohio; born in Ireland November 20, 1780; emigrated with his parents to the United States in 1787; completed preparatory studies; studied medicine, and moved to New Lisbon, Ohio, in 1808, where he practiced; served in the State senate 1814, 1815, and 1817-1820; member of the State house of representatives in 1816; elected as a Democrat to the Nineteenth Congress (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1827); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1828 to the Twentieth Congress; elected to the Twenty-first and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1829-March 3, 1837); was not a candidate for renomination in 1836; resumed the practice of medicine; died in New Lisbon (now Lisbon), Columbiana County, Ohio, December 2, 1852; interment in New Lisbon Cemetery.

THOMSON, John Renshaw, a Senator from New Jersey; born in Philadelphia, Pa., on September 25, 1800; attended the common schools in Princeton, N. J., and the College of New Jersey (now Princeton University), but left in the junior year to engage in mercantile pursuits; went to China in 1817 and became a merchant in Canton in 1820; United States consul at that port 1823-1825; returned to the United States and settled in Princeton, N. J.; director and secretary of the Delaware & Raritan Canal Co.; also connected with the Philadelphia & Trenton Railroad Co., first as president and later as treasurer; member of the State constitutional convention in 1844; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor of New Jersey in 1844; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Robert F. Stockton; reelected in 1857, and served from March 4, 1853, until his death in Princeton, N. J., September 12, 1862; interment in the Princeton Cemetery.

THOMSON, Mark, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Norriton Township, near Norristown, Montgomery County, Pa., in 1739; engaged in milling; was justice of the peace of Sussex County in 1773; member of the provincial convention in 1774 and of the Provincial Congress in 1775; was commissioned Lieutenant colonel of the First Regiment Sussex County (N. J.) Militia July 22, 1775; Lieutenant colonel in Col. Charles Stewart's Battalion of Minutemen February 15, 1776; colonel of the First Regiment Sussex County (N. J.) Militia July 10, 1776; colonel of the Battalion of Detached New Jersey Militia July 18, 1776; member of the State general assembly in 1779; served in the State council 1780-1788; appointed Lieutenant colonel and aide-de-camp on the staff of Gov. Richard Howell, of New Jersey, June 10, 1793; elected as a Federalist to the Fourth and Fifth Congresses (March 4, 1795-March 3, 1799); died in Marksboro, Sussex (now Warren) County, N. J., December 14, 1808; interment in the Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

THORINGTON, James, a Representative from Iowa; born in Wilmington, N. C., May 7, 1816; moved with his parents to Montgomery, Ala., in 1827; attended the common schools, the military school in Fayetteville, N. C., 1830-1832, and the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa 1832-1835; studied law in Montgomery, Ala.; engaged in trading and trapping on the upper Missouri and Columbia Rivers 1837-1839; moved to Davenport, Iowa, in 1839; was admitted to the bar in 1844 and commenced practice in Davenport; mayor of Davenport 1843-1847; probate judge of Scott County 1843-1851; clerk of the district court of Scott County 1846-1854; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); was not a candidate for renomination in 1856; affiliated with the Republican Party; sheriff of Scott County 1859-1863; recorder 1864-1868; was appointed consul at Aspinwall, Colombia, January 21, 1873; appointed commercial agent at the same city May 27, 1873, and served in both positions until October 21, 1882; died while on a visit to his daughter at Santa Fe, Santa Fe County, N. Mex., June 13, 1887; interment in Oakdale Cemetery, Davenport, Iowa.

THORNBURGH, Jacob Montgomery, a Representative from Tennessee; born in New Market, Jefferson County, Tenn., July 3, 1837; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1861, and commenced practice in Jefferson County; during the Civil War entered the Union Army as a private and was promoted to Lieutenant colonel of the Fourth Regiment Tennessee Volunteer Cavalry July 11, 1863; returned to Jefferson County, Tenn., and practiced law; moved to Knoxville, Tenn., in 1867; appointed attorney general of the third judicial circuit of Tennessee in 1868, and elected in 1868 and 1870; United States commissioner at the International Exposition held at Vienna, Austria, in 1872; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third, Forty-fourth, and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1879); was not a candidate for renomination in 1878; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1872, at Cincinnati in 1876, and at Chicago in 1880; retired from public life and resumed the practice of law in Knoxville, Tenn., where he died September 19, 1890; interment in the Old Gray Cemetery.

THORNTON, Anthony, a Representative from Illinois; born near Paris, Bourbon County, Ky., November 9, 1814; attended the common schools and Centre College, Danville, Ky.; was graduated from Miami University, Ohio, in 1834; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Shelbyville, Ill., in 1836; major of militia during the war with Mexico; delegate to the State constitutional conventions in 1847 and 1862; member of the State house of representatives in 1850; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1867); was not a candidate for renomination in 1866; resumed the practice of law; justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois from 1870 to 1873, when he resigned; president of the State bar association for four terms; chairman of the State board of arbitration 1895-1897; died in Shelbyville, Shelby County, Ill., September 10, 1904; interment in Glenwood Cemetery.

THORNTON, John Randolph, a Senator from Louisiana; born on Notoway plantation, near Bayou Goula, Iberville Parish, La., August 25, 1846; moved with his parents to Rapides Parish, La., in 1853; attended Parker Seminary, Pineville, La., the McGruder Institute, Baton Rouge, La., and the Louisiana Seminary (afterwards the State university) at Pineville until 1863; enlisted in the Confederate Army and served until the close of the Civil War in Company B, Second Louisiana Cavalry; engaged in agricultural pursuits until 1877; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1877, and commenced practice in Rapides Parish; judge of Rapides Parish 1878-1880; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1898; member of the board of supervisors of the State university 1904-1910; one of the three Louisiana commissioners attending the conference on uniform laws for the United States, and served as vice president of that body 1906-1916; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate on August 27, 1910, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Samuel D. McEnery, but these credentials were never officially presented, because, when the Senate assembled, credentials of election to fill this vacancy were presented; served from December 7, 1910, to March 3, 1915; was not a candidate for reelection to the Senate; appointed by President Wilson a member of the Board of Ordnance and Fortification, and served from 1915 to 1917; resumed the practice of law in Alexandria, Rapides Parish, La., and died there December 28, 1917; interment in Rapides Cemetery, Pineville, La.

THORNTON, Matthew, a Delegate from New Hampshire; born in Ireland in 1714; emigrated to the United States with his father, who settled in Wiscasset, Me., in 1716; moved to Worcester, Mass.; completed preparatory studies; studied medicine, and commenced practice in Londonderry, N. H., in 1740; surgeon of New Hampshire troops in the expedition against Cape Breton; member of the New Hampshire Assembly when it was organized in 1758 and again in 1760 and 1761; justice of the peace; delegate to the first Provincial Congress in 1776 and served as its president; chairman of the committee of safety in 1775; speaker of the general assembly from January 5 to September 12, 1776; colonel of the State militia during the Revolutionary War; Member of the Continental Congress in 1776 and 1778; a signer of the Declaration of Independence; chief justice of the court of common pleas; judge of the Superior Court of New Hampshire 1770-1782; moved to Exeter, N. H., in 1779; member of the general assembly in 1783; served in the State senate in 1784; State councillor in 1785; moved to Merrimack, N. H., in 1789, where he purchased a farm and spent his declining years in literary pursuits; died in Newburyport, Mass., June 24, 1803; interment in Thornton's Ferry Cemetery, Merrimack, N. H.

THORP, Robert Taylor, a Representative from Virginia; born near Oxford, Granville County, N. C., March 12, 1850; attended Horner Academy, Oxford, N. C., and was graduated from the law department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1870; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Boydton, Mecklenburg County, in 1871; Commonwealth attorney for that county 1877-1895; successfully contested as a Republican the election of William B. McKenney to the Fifty-fourth Congress, and served from May 2, 1896, to March 3, 1897; successfully contested the election of Sydney P. Elpes to the Fifty-fifth Congress, and served from March 23, 1898, to March 4, 1899; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1898 to the Fifty-fifth Congress; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Norfolk, Va.

THORPE, Roy Henry, a Representative from Nebraska; born near Greensburg, Decatur County, Ind., December 13, 1874; attended the country schools and the Greensburg (Ind.) High School; studied pharmacy, medicine, and law; engaged in evangelistic work and was known as "The boy tramp orator of 1896"; was employed as a salesman in Duquoin, Ill., 1897-1904, and in Sheandoub, Iowa, 1905-1919; engaged in secret-service work in the State of Iowa in 1917 and 1918; moved to Nebraska in 1919 and settled in Lincoln, where he continued his occupation of salesman; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of C. Frank Reavis, and served from November 7, 1922, to March 3, 1923; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1924 to the Sixty-eighth Congress; travels as a sales organizer, and is a resident of Lincoln, Nebr.

THROCKMORTON, James Webb, a Representative from Texas; born in Sparta, White County, Tenn., February 1, 1825; attended the common schools; moved with his father to Collin County, Tex., in 1841; studied medicine in Princeton, Ky., and practiced in Collin County; served as surgeon during the Mexican War; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in McKinney, Collin County, Tex.; member of the State house of representatives 1851-1856; candidate for presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Scott and Graham in 1852; served in the State senate 1856-1861; member of the secession convention of Texas in 1861; during the Civil War served as captain and major in the Confederate Army from the spring of 1861 until November, 1863; brigadier general of State troops in 1864 and commander on the northwest border of the State; again a member of the State senate in 1865; delegate to the reconstruction convention under President Johnson's proclamation and chosen the presiding officer of that body in 1866; elected Governor of Texas, and was inaugurated August 8, 1866; removed by order of General Sheridan August 9, 1867; resumed the practice of law in Collin County, Tex.; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); was not a candidate for renomination in 1878; resumed the practice of his profession; elected to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1887); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1886; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Hancock and English in 1890; unsuccessful candidate for election as United States Senator in 1891; resumed the practice of law; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1892; died in McKinney, Collin County, Tex., April 21, 1894; interment in Pecan Grove Cemetery.

THROOP, Enos Thompson, a Representative from New York; born in Johnstown, Montgomery County, N. Y., August 21, 1784; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1800, and commenced practice in Auburn, N. Y.; clerk of Cayuga County 1811-1815; elected as a Democrat to the Fourteenth Congress, and served from March 4, 1815, to June 4, 1816, when he resigned; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1816 to the Fifteenth Congress; circuit judge of New York 1823-1827; elected Lieutenant Governor of New York in 1828, and became governor when Martin Van Buren was appointed Secretary of State of the United States March 12, 1829; elected Governor of New York, and served from 1830 to 1833; naval officer of the port of New York 1833-1838; appointed chargé d'affaires to the Two Sicilies on February 6, 1838, and served until January 12, 1842; engaged in the management of his large estate and resided in Kalamazoo, Mich., 1847-1867; returned to his estate, "Willowbrook," near Auburn, Cayuga County, N. Y., and died there November 1, 1874; interment in St. Peter's Churchyard, Auburn, N. Y.

THROPP, Joseph Earliston, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Valley Forge, Chester County, Pa., October 4, 1847; attended the public schools and Friends Central High School, Philadelphia, Pa., and was graduated as a civil engineer from the Polytechnic College of Pennsylvania in 1868; went to the Middle Northwest and engaged in his profession, constructing docks at Duluth and Fond du Lac, Wis., reaching the rank of railroad division engineer; moved to Conshohocken, Pa., in 1870 and engaged in the manufacture of pig iron; subsequently became owner of the Earliston Furnaces, Everett, Pa., in 1888; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1901); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1900 to the Fifty-seventh Congress; retired from active business pursuits and resided in Washington, D. C., and Miami, Fla.; died while on a visit in Quebec, Canada, July 27, 1927; interment in West Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pa.

THRUSTON, Buckner, a Senator from Kentucky; born in Petsoe parish, Gloucester County, Va., February 9, 1764; pursued preparatory studies; was graduated from William and Mary College at Williamsburg, Va., in 1783; studied law; moved to Lexington, Fayette County, Va. (now Kentucky), in 1788, was admitted to the bar, and commenced the practice of law; member of the Virginia Assembly in 1789; after Kentucky was organized as a State was elected clerk of the first State senate in 1792; appointed one of Kentucky's three commissioners to settle the boundary dispute between the States of Kentucky and Virginia; district judge of Kentucky in 1791; judge of the circuit court in 1802 and 1803; appointed United States judge of the court of the Territory of Orleans in 1804, but declined; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1805, to December 18, 1806, when he resigned, having been appointed to a judicial position; appointed judge of the United States Circuit Court for the District of Columbia and served from December 18, 1809, until his death in Washington, D. C., on August 30, 1845; interment in the Congressional Cemetery.

THURMAN, Allen Granberry, a Representative and a Senator from Ohio; born in Lynchburg, Va., November 13, 1813; moved with his father to Chillicothe, Ohio, in 1819; attended the Chillicothe Academy; private secretary to Gov. Robert Lucas in 1834; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1835, and practiced in Ross County, Ohio; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1847); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1846; resumed the practice of law; associate justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio 1851-1854 and chief justice 1854-1856; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio in 1867; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate; reelected in 1874, and served from March 4, 1869, to March 3, 1881; appointed a member of the Electoral Commission created by act of Congress approved January 29, 1877, to decide the contests in various States in the presidential election of 1876; unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the United States Senate in 1881; resumed the practice of law in Columbus, Ohio; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1876, at Cincinnati in 1880, and at Chicago in 1884; declined to be a candidate for the nomination of governor in 1887; unsuccessful candidate for Vice President of the United States on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Thurman in 1888; died in Columbus, Franklin County, Ohio, December 12, 1895; interment in Green Lawn Cemetery.

THURMAN, John Richardson, a Representative from New York; born in New York City October 6, 1814; was graduated from Columbia College in 1835; moved to Warren County, near Chestertown, N. Y., and engaged in agricultural pursuits; held several local offices; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-first Congress (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1851); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1850; devoted his attention to the management of his estate; died at Friends Lake, Chester Township, Warren County, N. Y., July 24, 1854; interment in the family cemetery; reinterment in Oakwood Cemetery, Troy, Rensselaer County, N. Y.

THURSTON, Benjamin Babcock, a Representative from Rhode Island; born in Hopkinton, R. I., on June 29, 1804; attended the common schools; engaged in mercantile pursuits; member of the State house of representatives 1831-1837; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Van Buren and Johnson in 1836; Lieutenant Governor of Rhode Island in 1838; elected as a Democrat to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1849); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1848 to the Thirty-first Congress; elected to the Thirty-second, Thirty-third, and Thirty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1857); was not a candidate for renomination in 1856; after leaving Congress moved to New London, Conn.; member of the board of aldermen in 1862 and 1863; member of the State house of representatives in 1869 and 1870; resumed mercantile pursuits; died in New London, New London County, Conn., May 17, 1886; interment in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

THURSTON, John Mellen, a Senator from Nebraska; born in Montpelier, Vt., August 21, 1847; moved with his parents to Madison, Wis., in 1854 and two years later to Beaver Dam, Wis.; attended the public schools and was graduated from Wayland University, Beaver Dam, Wis.; studied law, was admitted to the bar May 21, 1869, and commenced practice in Omaha, Nebr.; member of the city council 1872-1874; city attorney of Omaha 1874-1877; member of the State house of representatives 1875-1877; appointed assistant attorney of the Union Pacific Railroad in 1877 and general solicitor in 1888; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Garfield and Arthur in 1880; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1884 which nominated Blaine and Logan and in 1888 which nominated Harrison and Morton, and at Philadelphia in 1900 which nominated McKinley and Roosevelt; temporary chairman of the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1888; unsuccessful Republican candidate for United States Senator in 1893; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1895, to March 3, 1901; was not a candidate for reelection; chairman of the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in 1896; appointed United States commissioner to the St. Louis Exposition March 6, 1901; moved to Washington, D. C., and resumed the practice of law; returned to Omaha, Nebr., and practiced law until his death August 9, 1916; remains were cremated at Forest Lawn Cemetery, Omaha, Nebr., and the ashes interred in the Congressional Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

THURSTON, Lloyd, a Representative from Iowa; born in Osceola, Clarke County, Iowa, March 27, 1880; attended the public schools; during the Spanish-American War enlisted as a private in Company I, Fifty-first Regiment Iowa Volunteer Infantry, and served with his company during the Philippine Insurrection; was graduated from the law department of the University of Iowa at Iowa City in 1902, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced legal practice at Osceola, Clarke County, Iowa; captain in the National Guard of Iowa 1902-1906; prosecuting attorney of Clarke County 1906-1910; during the World War served with the rank of captain; member of the State senate 1920-1924; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

THURSTON, Samuel Royal, a Delegate from the Territory of Oregon; born in Monmouth, Kennebec County, Me., April 15, 1816; attended Wesleyan Seminary, Readfield, Me., and Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H.; was graduated from Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., in 1848; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1844, and commenced practice in Brunswick, Cumberland County, Me.; moved to Burlington, Iowa, in 1845 and continued the practice of law; editor of the Iowa Gazette; moved to Oregon City, Ore., in 1849 and engaged in the practice of his profession; when the Territory of Oregon was formed was elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-first Congress (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1851); died at sea on April 9, 1851, while en route to his home from Washington, and was buried in Acapulco, Mexico; reinterment in the Odd Fellows Cemetery, Salem, Marion County, Ore.

TIBBATS, John Wooleston, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Lexington, Ky., June 12, 1802; pursued classical studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1826, and commenced practice in Newport, Campbell County, Ky.; held several local offices; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1847); served as colonel in the Mexican War; resumed the practice of law in Newport, Ky., and died there July 5, 1852; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

TIBBITS, George, a Representative from New York; born in Warwick, R. I., January 14, 1763; pursued classical studies; engaged in business in Lansingburg, N. Y., in 1784; moved to Troy, N. Y., in 1797, and became engaged in extensive mercantile pursuits; member of the State assembly in 1800; elected as a Federalist to the Eighth Congress (March 4, 1803-March 3, 1805); was not a candidate for renomination in 1804; member of the State senate 1815-1818; unsuccessful Federalist candidate for Lieutenant Governor of New York in 1816; was a member of the commission on State prisons which rendered a favorable report on the Auburn Prison system in 1824; member of the commission which had charge of the construction of Sing Sing Prison; mayor of Troy, N. Y., from 1830 to 1836; died in Troy, Rensselaer County, N. Y., July 19, 1849; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

TICHENOR, Isaac, a Senator from Vermont; born in New-ark, N. J., February 8, 1754; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Princeton College in 1775; studied law in Schenectady, N. Y., where he was appointed assistant commissary general in 1777 and was stationed in Bennington, Vt.; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice in Bennington, Vt., at the close of the Revolutionary War; member of the State house of representatives 1781-1784 and served as speaker in 1783; agent of the State to Congress to present Vermont's claim for admission into the Union in 1782; State councilor 1787-1792; one of the commissioners to settle the boundary question with New York in 1789; associate justice of the State supreme court 1790-1794, and its chief justice in 1795 and 1796; was a member of the State board of censors and served from 1792 to 1813; elected as a Federalist to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Moses Robinson; reelected for the term commencing March 4, 1797, and served from October 18, 1796, to October 17, 1797, when he resigned, having been elected governor; Governor of Vermont 1797-1806 and again in 1808; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1809; again elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1815, to March 3, 1821; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Bennington, Bennington County, Vt., December 11, 1838; interment in the Village Cemetery, Old Bennington, Vt.

TIFFIN, Edward, a Senator from Ohio; born in Carlisle, England, June 19, 1706; attended the common schools; studied medicine; emigrated to the United States in 1784 and settled in Charles Town, Va. (now West Virginia); attended lectures in the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1789; entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1790; moved to Chillicothe, Ohio, in 1796 and engaged in preaching and the practice of medicine; member of the Territorial house of representatives in 1799, and served as speaker; president of the convention that formed the constitution of Ohio in 1802; elected as the first governor of the State in 1803 and reelected in 1805; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1807, to March 3, 1809, when he resigned; elected to the State house of representatives in 1809 and served as speaker; resumed the practice of medicine in Chillicothe, Ohio; appointed by President Madison the first Commissioner of the General Land Office, and served from 1812 to 1814; with the consent of the President and the Senate he exchanged offices with Josiah Meigs and became surveyor general of the Northwest Territory, which position he held until removed by President Jackson July 1, 1829; died in Chillicothe, Ross County, Ohio, August 9, 1829; interment in Grand View Cemetery.

TIFT, Nelson, a Representative from Georgia; born in Groton, Conn., July 23, 1810; attended the village school; moved to Charleston, Charleston County, S. C., in 1826 and engaged in the mercantile business; moved to southern Georgia in 1835; founder of the city of Albany, Ga., in 1836; served as justice of the peace; judge of the inferior court 1854-1860; member of the State house of representatives in 1856 and 1857; during the Civil War was connected with the Confederate States Navy Supply Department with the rank of captain; colonel of State militia; upon the readmission of Georgia to representation was elected as a Democrat to the Fortieth Congress, and served from July 25, 1868, to March 3, 1869; presented credentials as a Member elect to the Forty-first Congress, but was not permitted to qualify; contested the subsequent election of Richard H. Whiteley to the Forty-first Congress, but no action was taken thereon; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1877; promoter of railroads and builder; died in Albany, Dougherty County, Ga., November 21, 1891; interment in Oakview Cemetery.

TILDEN, Daniel Rose, a Representative from Ohio; born in Lebanon, Conn., November 5, 1804; attended the public schools; resided several years in Virginia and South Carolina; moved to Garrettsville, Ohio, about 1828, and thence to Warren, Ohio; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1836, and commenced practice in Ravenna, Portage County, Ohio; prosecuting attorney of Portage County 1838-1841; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1847); delegate to the Whig National Convention at Philadelphia in 1848 and at Baltimore in 1852; moved to Cleveland, Ohio, in 1852; elected probate judge of Cuyahoga County, and served from 1855 to 1888; died in Cleveland, Ohio, March 4, 1890; remains were cremated at Buffalo, N. Y., and the ashes deposited in the Buffalo Crematory.

TILGHMAN, Matthew, a Delegate from Maryland; born at the "Hermitage," Centerville, Queen Annes County, Md., February 17, 1718; completed preparatory studies; justice of the peace for Talbot County; member of the Maryland House of Delegates 1751-1777, and served as speaker 1773-1775; president of the Revolutionary convention that directed the affairs of the colony 1774-1777; member of the committee appointed to draw up the protest against the stamp act; chairman of the committee of correspondence in 1774; Member of the Continental Congress 1774-1777; summoned from his seat in Congress to attend the State constitutional convention at Annapolis, Md., in 1776, of which he was president, and it was during his absence that the Declaration of Independence was adopted and signed at Philadelphia; chairman of the committee of safety in 1775; resigned his seat in Congress and was elected a member of the State senate in 1777; reelected, but resigned before the expiration of his term; died at the "Hermitage," Centerville, Queen Annes County, Md., May 4, 1790; interment in the family cemetery.

TILLINGHAST, Joseph Leonard (great-grandfather of Thomas Tillinghast), a Representative from Rhode Island; born in Taunton, Mass., in 1791; moved to Rhode Island and pursued classical studies; published the Providence Gazette in 1809; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1811, and began practice in Providence, R. I.; member of the State house of representatives 1820-1833, and served as speaker 1829-1832; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1843); was not a candidate for renomination; trustee of Brown University at Providence 1833-1844; died in Providence, Providence County, R. I., December 30, 1844; interment in the North Burial Ground.

TILLINGHAST, Thomas (great-grandson of Joseph Leonard Tillinghast), a Representative from Rhode Island; born in East Greenwich, R. I., August 21, 1742; completed preparatory studies; member of the State house of representatives in 1772 and 1773; held several offices under Revolutionary authorities; again a member of the State house of representatives 1778-1780; judge of the court of common pleas in 1779; member of the council of war; associate justice of the State supreme court 1780-1797; elected to the Fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Elisha R. Potter, and served from November 13, 1797, to March 3, 1799; elected to the Seventh Congress (March 4, 1801-March 3, 1803); died in East Greenwich, R. I., August 26, 1821.

TILLMAN, Benjamin Ryan (brother of George Dionysius Tillman), a Senator from South Carolina; born near Trenton, Edgefield County, S. C., August 11, 1847; pursued an academic course; left school in July, 1864, during the Civil War to join the Confederate Army, but was stricken with a severe illness; engaged in agricultural pursuits; delegate to all State and National Democratic conventions from 1890 to 1918; Governor of South Carolina 1890-1894; founded Clemson Agricultural and Mechanical College, Fort Hill, S. C., in 1893; established Winthrop Normal and Industrial College, Rock Hill, S. C., in 1895; member of the State constitutional convention in 1895; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1894, and took his seat March 4, 1895; reelected in 1901, 1907, and 1913, and served from March 4, 1895, until his death; was chairman of the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs during the entire period of the World War; died in Washington, D. C., on July 3, 1918; interment in Ebenezer Cemetery, Trenton, Edgefield County, S. C.

TILLMAN, George Dionysius (brother of Benjamin Ryan Tillman), a Representative from South Carolina; born near Curryton, Edgefield County, S. C., August 21, 1823; pursued an academic course in Penfield, Ga., and in Greenwood, S. C.; attended Harvard University, but did not graduate; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1848, and commenced practice in Edgefield, S. C.; member of the State house of representatives 1854-1860; enlisted during the Civil War and served in the Third Regiment of South Carolina State troops in 1862; shortly after its disbandment entered the Second Regiment of South Carolina Artillery and served until the close of the war; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1864; member of the State constitutional convention in 1865, held under the reconstruction proclamation of President Johnson; served in the State senate in 1865; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1881); presented credentials as a Member elect to the Forty-seventh Congress, and served from March 4, 1881, to June 19, 1882, when he was succeeded by Robert Smalls, who contested the election; elected to the Forty-eighth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1893); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1892; engaged in agricultural pursuits and also as a publicist; member of the State constitutional convention in 1895; unsuccessful candidate for election as Governor of South Carolina in 1898; died in Clarks Hill, McCormick County, S. C., February 2, 1902; interment in the Bethlehem Baptist Church Community Cemetery.

TILLMAN, John Newton, a Representative from Arkansas; born near Springfield, Greene County, Mo., December 13, 1859; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville in 1880; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1883, and commenced the practice of his profession in Fayetteville, Washington County, Ark.; clerk of the circuit court of Washington County 1884-1889; served in the State senate 1888-1892; prosecuting attorney of the fourth judicial circuit 1892-1898; judge of the same circuit court 1900-1905; president of the University of Arkansas 1905-1912; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fourth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1927); one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1926 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against George W. English, judge of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Illinois. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

TILLMAN, Lewis, a Representative from Tennessee; born near Shelbyville, Bedford County, Tenn., on August 18, 1816; attended the common schools and pursued an academic course; served in the Seminole War as a private; clerk of the circuit court of Bedford County 1852-1860; colonel of State militia before the Civil War; editor of a newspaper in Shelbyville, Tenn.; clerk of the chancery court; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); was not a candidate for renomination in 1870; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Shelbyville, Bedford County, Tenn., May 3, 1880; interment in Willow Mount Cemetery.

TILLOTSON, Thomas, a Representative from New York; born in Maryland in 1750; received a thorough education; studied medicine and practiced; during the Revolution was commissioned first lieutenant in the Maryland Militia in 1776; appointed by Congress physician and surgeon general of the Northern Department of the Army in 1780 and served until the close of the war; settled in New York and engaged in the practice of medicine; member of the State assembly from Red Hook, Dutchess County, 1788 and 1789-1790; served in the State senate 1791-1799; member of the council of appointment in 1791; elected to the Seventh Congress, but did not qualify or take his seat and resigned August 10, 1801; secretary of state of New York from August 10, 1801, to March 15, 1806, and from February 10, 1807, to June 31, 1808; retired from public life; died in Rhinebeck, Dutchess County, N. Y., May 5, 1832; interment in the vault in the rear of the Rhinebeck Reformed Dutch Church.

TILSON, John Quillin, a Representative from Connecticut; born at Clearbranch, Unicoi County, Tenn., April 5, 1806; attended public and private schools, Mars Hill, N. C., 1880-1881, Carson College, Tenn., 1886-1888, Yale University, 1888, 1893-1894, and was graduated from the law department of Yale University in 1893; was admitted to the bar in 1897 and commenced practice in New Haven, Conn.; enlisted as a volunteer during the war with Spain and served as second lieutenant in the Sixth Regiment United States Volunteer Infantry; member of the State house of representatives 1904-1906, and served as speaker the last two years; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-first and Sixty-second Congresses (March 4, 1909-March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1912 to the Sixty-third Congress; resumed the practice of law in New Haven; served on the Mexican border as lieutenant colonel of the Second Infantry Connecticut National Guard in 1916; elected to the Sixty-fourth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1927); elected Republican majority leader of the National House of Representatives in the Sixty-ninth Congress. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

TILTON, James, a Delegate from Delaware; born in Kent County, Del., June 1, 1745; attended Nottingham Academy, Maryland; was graduated from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1771 and commenced practice in Dover, Del.; entered the Revolutionary Army as surgeon, and in 1777 was in charge of the military hospital at Princeton, N. J.; after peace was declared he resumed the practice of his profession in Dover, Del.; Member of the Continental Congress 1788-1785; moved to Wilmington, Del.; Government commissioner of loans 1785-1801; served several years as a member of the State house of representatives; Surgeon General of the United States Army 1813-1815; died near Wilmington, Del., May 14, 1822; interment in the Wilmington and Brandywine Cemetery.

TIMBERLAKE, Charles Bateman, a Representative from Colorado; born in Wilmington, Clinton County, Ohio, September 25, 1854; attended the common schools and Earlham College, Richmond, Ind., 1871-1874; taught school; moved to Colorado in 1885, and settled near Holyoke; engaged in agricultural pursuits and stock raising; member of the Republican State committee 1892-1910; superintendent of schools of Phillips County 1889-1895; county clerk 1895-1897; appointed receiver of the United States land office at Sterling, Colo., on July 1, 1897, and served until April 30, 1914; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

TINCHER, Jasper Napoleon, a Representative from Kansas; born near Browning, Sullivan County, Mo., November 2, 1878; moved with his parents to Medicine Lodge, Barber County, Kans., in 1892; attended the common and high schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1899, and commenced practice in Medicine Lodge; also interested in agricultural pursuits and stock raising; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1927); was not a candidate for renomination in 1926; resumed his former business pursuits, and is a resident of Medicine Lodge, Kans.

TINKHAM, George Holden, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Boston, Mass., October 29, 1870; attended public and private schools; was graduated from Harvard University in 1894; member of the Common Council of Boston in 1897 and 1898; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1899, and commenced practice in Boston; member of the board of aldermen 1900-1902; served in the State senate 1910-1912; after the declaration of war by the United States against Austria was the first American to fire a shot against the Austrians at Capo d'Argine, on the Piave River, December 11, 1917; the title of "Chevalier della Corona d'Italia" was conferred upon him by the King of Italy, but was not accepted because of the provision in the Constitution forbidding such acceptance without the consent of Congress; the letters patent and insignia of the title are in the possession of the Department of State; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

TIPTON, John, a Senator from Indiana; born near Sevierville, Sevier County, Tenn., August 14, 1786; received a limited schooling; moved to Harrison County, Ind., in 1807, and engaged in agricultural pursuits; served with the "Yellow Jackets" in the Tippecanoe campaign and subsequently attained the rank of brigadier general of militia; sheriff of Harrison County, Ind., 1815-1819; member of the State house of representatives 1819-1823; one of the commissioners to select a site for a new capital for Indiana in 1820; commissioner to determine the boundary line between Indiana and Illinois; appointed United States Indian agent for the Pottawatamie and Miami Tribes in March, 1823; laid out the city of Logansport, Ind., April 10, 1823; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate on December 9, 1831, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James Noble; reelected in 1832, and served from January 3, 1832, to March 3, 1839; owing to ill health he declined to be a candidate for reelection; died in Logansport, Cass County, Ind., April 5, 1839; interment in Mount Hope Cemetery.

TIPTON, Thomas Foster, a Representative from Illinois; born near Harrisburg, Franklin County, Ohio, August 20, 1833; attended the public schools; moved with his parents to McLean County, Ill., in 1843; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1854, and commenced practice; State attorney for the eighth judicial district of Illinois in 1867 and 1868; elected circuit judge of the eighth judicial circuit in 1870, and on the reorganization of the circuit court under the new constitution was reelected circuit judge of the fourteenth judicial circuit; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1877–March 3, 1879); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1878 to the Forty-sixth Congress; again elected circuit judge, and served from 1891 to 1897; resumed the practice of law; died in Bloomington, McLean County, Ill., February 7, 1904; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

TIPTON, Thomas Warren, a Senator from Nebraska; born in Cadiz, Ohio, August 5, 1817; attended Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa.; pursued classical studies, and was graduated from Madison College, Pennsylvania, in 1840; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1844, and practiced; member of the Ohio State House of Representatives in 1845; appointed to a position in the United States Land Office in 1849, and resigned in 1852; resumed the practice of law in McConnellsville, Ohio, in 1853; was ordained a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1856; moved to Brownsville, Nebr., about 1859 and joined the Congregational Church; member of the Nebraska constitutional convention in 1859; member of the Territorial council in 1860; studied for the ministry and during the Civil War was appointed chaplain of the First Regiment Nebraska Volunteer Infantry 1861–1865; assessor of internal revenue for Nebraska in 1865; member of the State constitutional convention in 1867; upon the admission of Nebraska as a State into the Union was elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate; reelected in 1869, and served from March 1, 1867, to March 3, 1875; resumed the practice of law; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Nebraska in 1880; died in Washington, D. C., November 26, 1890; interment in Rock Creek Cemetery.

TIRRELL, Charles Quincy, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Sharon, Norfolk County, Mass., December 10, 1844; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1866; served as principal of Peacham (Vt.) Academy for one year and of the high school at St. Johnsbury, Vt., for two years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1870, and commenced practice in Boston, Mass.; member of the State house of representatives in 1872; moved to Natick, Mass., in 1873; served in the State senate in 1881 and 1882; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Harrison and Morton in 1888; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-seventh and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1901, until his death in Natick, Mass., July 31, 1910; interment in Dell Park Cemetery.

TITUS, Obadiah, a Representative from New York; born in what is now Millbrook, Dutchess County, N. Y., January 20, 1789; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in the town of Washington, Dutchess County; served as captain of Infantry in the War of 1812; elected county judge; elected sheriff of Dutchess County in 1828; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837–March 3, 1839); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1838 to the Twenty-sixth Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in the town of Washington, Dutchess County, N. Y., September 2, 1854; interment in the Nine Partners (Friends) Burial Ground at Millbrook, N. Y.

TOD, John, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Hartford, Conn., in 1770; attended the common schools and Yale College; moved to Bedford, Pa., in 1800; taught school while studying law; was admitted to the bar in 1803 and commenced practice in Bedford, Pa.; clerk to the county commissioners of Bedford County in 1806 and 1807; member of the State house of representatives 1810–1813, and was twice speaker; served in the State senate and acted as president 1814–1816; elected as a Democrat to the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1821, until his resignation in 1824; president judge of the court of common pleas for the sixteenth judicial district 1824–1827; appointed associate judge of the State supreme court in 1827; died in Bedford, Bedford County, Pa., March, 1830; interment in the Presbyterian Cemetery; reinterment in Bedford Cemetery.

TODD, Albert May, a Representative from Michigan; born near Nottawa, St. Joseph County, Mich., June 3, 1850; attended the district school and was graduated from the Sturgis (Mich.) High School; studied for some time at the Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill.; traveled abroad, studying institutions and governments; moved to Kalamazoo, Mich.; engaged in business as a manufacturing chemist; unsuccessful Prohibition candidate for Governor in 1894; elected as a fusion candidate to the Fifty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1897–March 3, 1899); unsuccessful Democratic candidate for reelection in 1898 to the Fifty-sixth Congress; member of the Society of Chemical Industry, Public Ownership League of America, and other civil and scientific organizations; founded the Museum of Art and a library of 10,000 rare books and illuminated manuscripts; engaged in literary pursuits and also in cultivating aromatic and medicinal plants; president of the A. M. Todd Co., manufacturing chemists; resides in Kalamazoo, Mich.

TODD, John Blair Smith, a Delegate from the Territory of Dakota; born in Lexington, Ky., April 4, 1814; moved with his parents to Illinois in 1827; attended private schools; was graduated from the United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y., in 1837; commissioned second lieutenant in the Sixth Infantry July 1, 1837; first lieutenant December 10, 1837; captain November 8, 1843; served in the Florida War 1837–1842 and in the war with Mexico; resigned from the Army September 16, 1856; became an Indian trader and settled in Fort Randall, Dak.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1861, and commenced the practice of law in Yankton, Dak.; during the Civil War was appointed brigadier general of Volunteers in the Union Army September 19, 1861, which appointment expired July 17, 1862; when the Territory of Dakota was formed was elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-seventh Congress, and served from December 9, 1861, to March 3, 1863; successfully contested the election of William Jayne to the Thirty-eighth Congress, and served from June 17, 1864, to March 3, 1865; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth Congress; engaged in mercantile pursuits and the practice of his profession; served as speaker of the Territorial house of representatives in 1866 and 1867; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1868 to the Forty-first Congress; retired from public life; died in Yankton County, Dak. (now South Dakota), January 5, 1872; interment in Yankton Cemetery.

TODD, Lemuel, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Carlisle, Pa., July 29, 1817; pursued classical studies, and was graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., in 1839; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1841, and commenced practice in Carlisle; elected to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); unsuccessful Union candidate for reelection in 1856 to the Thirty-fifth Congress; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as major of the First Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Reserve Corps; inspector general of Pennsylvania on the governor's staff; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed the practice of law; died in Carlisle, Cumberland County, Pa., May 12, 1891; interment in Ashland Cemetery.

TOLAND, George Washington, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., February 8, 1796; attended the common schools; was graduated from Princeton College in 1816; held several local offices; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1843); died in Philadelphia, Pa., January 30, 1869; interment in Laurel Hill Cemetery.

TOLLEY, Harold Sumner, a Representative from New York; born in Lionesdale, Wayne County, Pa., January 16, 1894; moved with his parents to Binghamton, N. Y., in 1903; attended the public schools; was graduated from Syracuse University, New York, in 1916; studied for the ministry and took a postgraduate course at the Drew Theological Seminary, Madison, N. J.; director of religious education at the Metropolitan (Methodist Episcopal) Temple, New York City, in 1916 and 1917; abandoned the ministry to enlist in the military forces of the United States during the World War, and served from May 13, 1917, to July 25, 1919, attaining the rank of captain of Infantry; participated in the Meuse-Argonne offensive with the First Army, American Expeditionary Forces; was commissioned a captain in the United States Officers' Reserve Corps; engaged in the retail shoe business; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1926; delegate to the Republican State convention in 1926; resumed his former business pursuits, and is a resident of Binghamton, Broome County, N. Y.

TOMLINSON, Gideon, a Representative and a Senator from Connecticut; born in Stratford, Conn., December 31, 1780; completed preparatory studies, and was graduated from Yale College in 1802; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Fairfield, Conn., in 1807; clerk of the State house of representatives in 1817; member of the State house of representatives in 1818 and served as speaker; elected as a Democrat to the Sixteenth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1819-March 3, 1827); Governor of Connecticut from 1827 to 1831, when he resigned; elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1831, to March 3, 1837; trustee of Trinity College 1832-1836; retired to private life; died in Fairfield, Fairfield County, Conn., October 8, 1864; interment in the Old Congregational Cemetery.

TOMLINSON, Thomas Ash, a Representative from New York; born in New York City in March, 1802; attended the schools of Champlain and Plattsburg, Clinton County, N. Y.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Keeseville, Essex County, N. Y., in 1823; mill owner and dealer in lands; served as colonel in the State militia; member of the State assembly in 1835 and 1836; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); resumed the practice of law and also engaged in the real-estate business; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1859; died in Keeseville, N. Y., June 18, 1872; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

TOMPKINS, Arthur Sidney, a Representative from New York; born in Middleburg, Schoharie County, N. Y., August 26, 1865; attended the public schools of Clarkstown and Nyack until 1878; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1886, and commenced practice in Nyack, Rockland County, N. Y.; police justice of Nyack, N. Y., 1887-1889; member of the State assembly in 1890; delegate to every Republican State convention from 1888 to 1896; delegate or alternate to all Republican National Conventions from 1888 to 1900; county judge and surrogate of Rockland County 1893-1898; connected in an official way with various local organizations; member of the Union League Club of New York; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1903); was not a candidate for renomination in 1902; elected justice of the Supreme Court of New York in 1906; re-elected in 1920, and is now serving in this capacity; resides in Nyack, N. Y.

TOMPKINS, Caleb (brother of Daniel D. Tompkins), a Representative from New York; born near Scarsdale, Westchester County, N. Y., December 22, 1759; member of the State assembly 1804-1806; judge of the court of common pleas and county court of Westchester County 1807-1811 and 1820-1824; elected to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1821); died in Scarsdale, Westchester County, N. Y., January 1, 1848; interment in the First Presbyterian Church Cemetery, White Plains, N. Y.

TOMPKINS, Christopher, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Green County, Ky., March 24, 1780; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Glasgow; member of the State house of representatives in 1805; elected to the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Congresses (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1835); again a member of the State house of representatives in 1835 and 1836; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Harrison and Granger in 1837; resumed the practice of law; died in Glasgow, Barren County, Ky., August 9, 1858; interment in the family burying ground at Glasgow.

TOMPKINS, Cydnor Bailey (father of Emmett Tompkins), a Representative from Ohio; born near St. Clairsville, Belmont County, Ohio, November 8, 1810; moved with his parents to Morgan County in 1831 and settled near McConnelsville; completed preparatory studies, and was graduated from the Ohio University at Athens in 1835; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1837, and commenced practice in McConnelsville, Morgan County, Ohio; served as recorder of McConnelsville in 1840; prosecuting attorney of Morgan County 1848-1851; street commissioner of McConnelsville in 1850; member of the Republican State convention in 1855; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1861); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1860; resumed the practice of law; died in McConnelsville, Ohio, July 23, 1862; interment in McConnelsville Cemetery.

TOMPKINS, Daniel D. (brother of Caleb Tompkins), a Vice President of the United States; born in Fox Meadows (now Scarsdale), Westchester County, N. Y., June 21, 1774; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Columbia College, New York City, in 1795; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1797, and began practice in New York City; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1801; member of the State assembly in 1803; elected as a Democrat to the Ninth Congress, but resigned before the beginning of the congressional term to accept an appointment as associate justice of the State supreme court; served in this capacity from 1804 to 1807; Governor of New York 1807-1817; one of the founders of the New York Historical Society; declined the position of Secretary of State of the United States tendered by President Madison; elected Vice President of the United States on the Democratic ticket of Monroe and Tompkins in 1816; reelected on the same ticket in 1820, and served from March 4, 1817, to March 3, 1825; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1821, and served as its president; died in Tompkinsville, Staten Island, N. Y., June 11, 1825; interment in the vault of Mr. Minthorne in St. Mark's Churchyard, New York City.

TOMPKINS, Emmett (son of Cyndor Bailey Tompkins), a Representative from Ohio; born in McConnellsville, Morgan County, Ohio, September 1, 1853; moved to Athens County, Ohio, in 1865; attended the public schools and the Ohio University at Athens; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1875, and commenced practice in Athens, Ohio; city solicitor in 1876 and 1877; mayor of Athens 1877-1879; prosecuting attorney of Athens County in 1879; delegate to the Republican State conventions in 1879, 1881, and 1883; member of the State house of representatives 1886-1890; moved to Columbus, Ohio, in 1889; member of the board of trustees of Ohio University; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1901-March 3, 1903); resumed the practice of law in Columbus, Ohio; appointed trustee of Ohio University in 1908; died in Columbus, Ohio, December 18, 1917; remains were cremated in Cincinnati, Ohio, and the ashes returned to his home in Columbus, Ohio.

TOMPKINS, Patrick Watson, a Representative from Mississippi; born in Kentucky in 1804; received a limited education; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Vicksburg, Warren County, Miss.; judge of the circuit court; elected as a Whig to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1849); moved to California during the gold rush of 1849; died in San Francisco, Calif., May 8, 1853; interment in Yerba Buena Cemetery.

TONGUE, Thomas H., a Representative from Oregon; born in Lincolnshire, England, June 23, 1844; attended the public schools in England; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Washington County, Oreg., November 23, 1859; attended Tualatin (Wash.) Academy, and was graduated from the Pacific University, Forest Grove, Washington County, Oreg., in 1808; moved to Hillsboro, Washington County, Oreg., in 1868; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1870, and commenced practice in Hillsboro; chairman of the Republican State convention in 1890; served in the State senate 1888-1892; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Minneapolis in 1892 which nominated Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana, for President for a second term; again chairman of the Republican State convention in 1894; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh Congresses, and served from March 4, 1897, until his death; had been reelected to the Fifty-eighth Congress; died in Washington, D. C., January 11, 1903; interment in the private family cemetery adjoining the Masonic Cemetery at Hillsboro, Oreg.

TOOLE, Joseph Kemp, a Delegate from the Territory of Montana; born in Savannah, Andrew County, Mo., May 12, 1851; attended the public schools in St. Joseph, Mo., and the Western Military Academy, Newcastle, Ky.; moved to Helena, Mont., in 1870; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1871, and commenced practice in Helena, Mont.; district attorney of the third judicial district of Montana 1872-1876; member of the Territorial house of representatives 1879-1881; member and president of the Territorial Council 1881-1883; delegate to the State constitutional convention at Helena, Mont., in 1884 and 1889; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1889); did not seek renomination in 1888, having become a gubernatorial candidate; elected the first Governor of Montana, and served from November 8, 1889, until January 1, 1893; resumed the practice of law in Helena; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1892 and at St. Louis in 1904; again elected Governor in November, 1900; reelected in 1904 and served from January 7, 1901, until April 1, 1908, when he resigned on account of ill health; discontinued active business pursuits and living in retirement, dividing his time between his home in Helena, Mont., and San Francisco, Calif.

TOOMBS, Robert, a Representative and a Senator from Georgia; born in Wilkes County, Ga., July 2, 1810; attended the University of Georgia at Athens, and was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1828; studied law at the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Washington, Wilkes County, Ga., in 1828; commanded a company in the Creek War in 1836; member of the State house of representatives 1837-1840 and 1841-1844; Whig candidate for speaker of the house in 1842; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1844; elected as a State Rights Democrat to the Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, Thirty-first, and Thirty-second Congresses (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1853); elected to the United States Senate in 1852; reelected in 1858, and served from March 4, 1853, to February 4, 1861, when he withdrew; member of the State sovereignty convention at Milledgeville, Ga., January 16, 1861; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Provisional Congress; Secretary of State of the Confederate States; brigadier general in the Confederate Army; went to Europe after the war; returned to his home in Washington, Ga., in 1867; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1877; died in Washington, Ga., December 15, 1885; interment in Rest Haven Cemetery.

TOUCEY, Isaac, a Representative and a Senator from Connecticut; born in Newtown, Fairfield County, Conn., November 5, 1796; pursued classical studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1818, and began practice in Hartford, Conn.; prosecuting attorney of Hartford County 1822-1835; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1835-March 3, 1839); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1838 to the Twenty-sixth Congress; again prosecuting attorney of Hartford County 1842-1844; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor of Connecticut in 1845; there being no choice by the people at the election held for governor in 1846, he was elected to that office by the legislature; again defeated for governor in 1847; appointed Attorney General of the United States in the Cabinet of President Polk, and served from June 21, 1848, to March 3, 1849; served in the State senate in 1850; member of the State house of representatives in 1852; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate for the term commencing March 4, 1851, and served from May 12, 1852, to March 3, 1857; declined to be a candidate for reelection; appointed Secretary of the Navy in the Cabinet of President James Buchanan, and served from March 6, 1857, to March 3, 1861; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Hartford, Hartford County, Conn., July 30, 1890; interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

TOU VELLE, William Ellsworth, a Representative from Ohio; born in Celina, Mercer County, Ohio, November 23, 1862; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the Celina High School in 1879; appointed postmaster of Celina, Ohio, on May 27, 1885, and served until June 14, 1888, when a successor was appointed; studied law at the Cincinnati Law School, and was graduated from that institution in 1889; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Celina; elected as a Democrat to the Sixtieth and Sixty-first Congresses (March 4, 1907–March 3, 1911); was not a candidate for renomination in 1910; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Celina, Ohio.

TOWNE, Charles Arnette, a Representative and a Senator from Minnesota and a Representative from New York; born near Pontiac, Oakland County, Mich., on November 21, 1858; attended the common schools; was graduated from the Owosso (Mich.) High School, and later, in 1881, from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1886, and commenced practice in Lansing, Mich.; moved to Duluth, Minn., in 1890 and continued the practice of law; judge advocate general of Minnesota 1893–1895; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895–March 3, 1897); unsuccessful Democratic candidate for reelection in 1896 to the Fifty-fifth Congress and for election in 1898 to the Fifty-sixth Congress; declined the nomination for Vice President of the United States by the national conventions of the Populist and Silver Republican Parties in 1900; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1900; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Cushman K. Davis, and served from December 5, 1900, to January 28, 1901, when a successor was elected and qualified; moved to New York City in June, 1901, and resumed the practice of law; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1904; elected as a Democrat from New York to the Fifty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1905–March 3, 1907); resumed the practice of his profession in New York City; died while on a speaking tour on behalf of the Democratic ticket of Smith and Robinson in Tucson, Ariz., October 22, 1928; interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Tucson, Ariz.

TOWNER, Horace Mann, a Representative from Iowa; born in Belvidere, Boone County, Ill., October 23, 1855; attended the public and high schools of Belvidere, the University of Chicago, and Union College of Law; was admitted to the bar in 1877 and commenced practice in Corning, Adams County, Iowa; elected judge of the third judicial district of Iowa in 1890 and served until January 1, 1911; lectured on constitutional law in the University of Iowa 1902–1911; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second and to the six succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1911, to April 1, 1923, when he resigned to become Governor of Porto Rico, in which capacity he is now serving; is a legal resident of Corning, Iowa.

TOWNS, George Washington Bonaparte, a Representative from Georgia; born in Wilkes County, Ga., May 4, 1801; received a limited education; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1824, and began practice in Montgomery, Ala.; returned to Georgia in 1828 and continued the practice of law at Talbotton; member of the State house of representatives in 1829 and 1830; served in the State senate 1832–1834; elected as a Union Democrat to the Twenty-fourth Congress, and served from March 4, 1835 to September 1, 1836, when he resigned; reelected to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837–March 3, 1839); again elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Washington Poe, and served from January 27, 1846, to March 3, 1847; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1846 to the Thirtieth Congress; Governor of Georgia 1847–1851; resumed the practice of law; died in Macon, Ga., July 15, 1854; interment in Rose Hill Cemetery.

TOWNSEND, Amos, a Representative from Ohio; born in Brownsville, Fayette County, Pa., in 1821; attended the common schools of Pittsburgh, Pa.; clerked in a store in Pittsburgh; moved to Mansfield, Ohio, in 1839 and engaged in mercantile pursuits; served as United States marshal during the Kansas troubles; moved to Cleveland, Ohio, in 1858 and engaged in the wholesale grocery business; member of the city council 1866–1876 and served as president of that body for seven years; member of the State constitutional convention in 1873; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1877–March 3, 1883); declined renomination; member of a wholesale food-packing firm; died while on a visit to St. Augustine, Fla., March 17, 1895; interment in Lake View Cemetery, Cleveland, Ohio.

TOWNSEND, Charles Champlain, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Allegheny (now a part of Pittsburgh), Pa., November 24, 1841; attended the common schools and Western University, Pittsburgh, Pa.; manufacturer of wire rivets and wire nails; served two years in the Union Army during the Civil War as a private in Company A, Ninth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Reserve Corps, and afterwards as adjutant of the First Pennsylvania Volunteer Cavalry; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889–March 3, 1891); was not a candidate for renomination in 1890 to the Fifty-second Congress; again engaged in manufacturing; died in New Brighton, Beaver County, Pa., on July 10, 1910; interment in Grove Cemetery.

TOWNSEND, Charles Elroy, a Representative and a Senator from Michigan; born near Concord, Jackson County, Mich., August 15, 1856; attended the common schools in Concord and Jackson and the literary department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1877; taught school at Concord 1881–1886; register of deeds 1886–1897; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1895, and commenced the practice of his profession in Jackson, Mich.; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1905–March 3, 1911); elected to the United States Senate in 1910; reelected in 1916, and served from March 4, 1911, to March 3, 1923; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1922; appointed on April 16, 1923, a member of the International Joint Commission created to prevent disputes regarding the use of the boundary waters between the United States and Canada and served until his death in Jackson, Jackson County, Mich., August 3, 1924; interment in Maple Grove Cemetery, Concord, Mich.

TOWNSEND, Dwight, a Representative from New York; born in New York City September 20, 1826; was educated at the grammar school of Columbia College, New York City; engaged in the sugar business in the early sixties; member of the original board of the Equitable Life Assurance Society from 1859 to 1865; retired from active business pursuits in 1865; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Henry G. Stebbins, and served from December 5, 1864, to March 3, 1865; elected to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871–March 3, 1873); retired from public life; resumed his former business pursuits in 1875; died in New York City October 29, 1899; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

TOWNSEND, Edward Waterman, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Cleveland, Ohio, February 10, 1855; attended private and public schools in that city; went to San Francisco, Calif., in 1875 and began his literary work; moved to New York City in 1893 and continued his literary pursuits; in 1900 became a resident of Montclair, Essex County, N. J.; author of a number of novels, plays, books of short stories, and a textbook on the Constitution of the United States; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second and Sixty-third Congresses (March 4, 1911–March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; resumed literary pursuits; member of the National Institute of Arts and Letters, and resides in Montclair, N. J.

TOWNSEND, George, a Representative from New York; born in Lattingtown, township of Oyster Bay, Queens County, N. Y., in 1769; engaged in agricultural pursuits; elected as a Democrat to the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Congresses (March 4, 1815–March 3, 1819); died in Lattingtown, township of Oyster Bay, Queens County, N. Y., August 17, 1844.

TOWNSEND, Hosea, a Representative from Colorado; born in Greenwich, Huron County, Ohio, June 16, 1840; attended the common schools and Western Reserve College, Cleveland, Ohio, in 1860; left school to enter the Union Army during the Civil War and enlisted in the Second Regiment Ohio Volunteer Cavalry in 1861; promoted to lieutenant, and resigned in 1863 on account of disability; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1864, and commenced practice in Memphis, Tenn., in 1865; member of the State house of representatives in 1869; moved to Colorado in 1879, and settled in Silver Cliff, Custer County, in 1881; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first and Fifty-second Congresses (March 4, 1889–March 3, 1893); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1892; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Minneapolis in 1892 which nominated the presidential ticket of Harrison and Reid; United States Judge for the southern district of the Indian Territory 1897–1907; resumed the practice of law; died in Ardmore, Carter County, Okla., March 4, 1909; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, Norwalk, Huron County, Ohio.

TOWNSEND, Martin Ingham, a Representative from New York; born in Hancock, Mass., February 6, 1810; moved with his parents to Williamstown, Mass., in 1816; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Williams College Williamstown, Mass., in 1833; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1836, and commenced practice in Troy, N. Y.; district attorney of Rensselaer County 1842–1845; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1867 and 1868; regent of the New York University 1873–1903; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875–March 3, 1879); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1878; United States district attorney for the northern district of New York 1879–1887; member of the State constitutional convention in 1890; retired from legal practice in 1901; died in Troy, N. Y., March 8, 1903; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

TOWNSEND, Washington, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in West Chester, Chester County, Pa., January 20, 1813; attended private school, and the West Chester Academy; engaged as a bank teller 1828–1844; studied law; was admitted to the bar in 1844, and commenced practice in West Chester, Pa.; prosecuting attorney of Chester County in 1848; deputy attorney under Attorneys General Darragh and Cooper; cashier of the Bank of Chester County 1849–1857; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Baltimore in 1852; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1860; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1869–March 3, 1877); was not a candidate for renomination in 1876; resumed the practice of law in West Chester, Chester County, Pa.; president of the Bank of Chester County 1879–1894; died in West Chester, Pa., March 18, 1894; interment in Oakland Cemetery, near West Chester.

TOWNSHEND, Norton Strange, a Representative from Ohio; born in Clay-Coaton, Northamptonshire, England, December 25, 1815; emigrated to the United States with his parents in 1830, who settled in Avon, Ohio; educated himself by the use of his father's library; taught a district school for a short time; studied medicine, and was graduated from the University of Physicians and Surgeons in New York in 1840; delegate to the World's Antislavery Convention in London, England, in 1840; studied medicine in the hospitals of London, Paris, Edinburgh, and Dublin; returned to Ohio and resumed the practice of medicine in Avon, Ohio, in 1841; moved to Elyria, Ohio; member of the State house of representatives in 1848 and 1849; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1850; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851–March 3, 1853); member of the State senate in 1854 and 1855; medical inspector of the United States Army with the rank of lieutenant colonel 1863–1865; engaged in agricultural pursuits near Avon, Ohio; director of the State board of agriculture 1858–1860 and 1886–1889; professor of agriculture in Iowa Agricultural College in 1869; appointed in 1870 one of the first trustees of the Ohio Agricultural and Mechanical College; resigned in 1873 to become professor of agriculture in the new State college; resigned in 1892 and was made professor emeritus; died in Columbus, Ohio, July 18, 1895; interment in the Protestant Cemetery, Avon Center, Ohio.

TOWNSHEND, Richard Wellington, a Representative from Illinois; born near Upper Marlboro, Prince Georges County, Md., April 30, 1840; moved to Washington, D. C., in 1846; attended public and private schools; page in the National House of Representatives; moved to Cairo, Alexander County, Ill., in 1858; taught school in Fayette County; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1862, and commenced practice in McLeansboro, Ill.; clerk of the circuit court of Hamilton County 1863–1868; prosecuting attorney for the twelfth judicial circuit of Illinois 1868–1872; member of the Democratic State central committee in 1864, 1865, 1874, and 1875; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1872; moved to Shawneetown, Gallatin County, Ill., in 1873 and resumed the practice of law; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fifth and to the six succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1877, until his death in Washington, D. C., March 9, 1889; interment in Rock Creek Cemetery.

TRACEWELL, Robert John, a Representative from Indiana; born near Front Royal, Warren County, Va., May 7, 1852; moved with his parents to Corydon, Harrison County, Ind., in 1854; attended the public schools of Corydon, and was graduated from Hanover College, Indiana, in 1874; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1875, and commenced practice in Corydon, Ind.; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895–March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1896 to the Fifty-fifth Congress; appointed by President McKinley Comptroller of the Treasury, and served from March 4, 1897, to June 15, 1914, when he resigned; moved to Evansville, Ind., in 1914 and resumed the practice of law; elected judge of the superior court of Vanderburg County, Ind., in 1918; renominated in 1922, but died in Evansville, Ind., July 28, 1922, before the election; interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Corydon, Harrison County, Ind.

TRACEY, Charles, a Representative from New York; born in Albany, N. Y., May 27, 1847; was graduated from the Albany Academy in 1866; served in the Papal Zouaves at Rome, Italy, portions of the years 1867-1870; appointed aide-de-camp to Governor Tilden, of New York, January 1, 1877; appointed manager of the House of Refuge in Hudson, N. Y., by Governor Cleveland and reappointed by Governor Hill in 1886; engaged in the distilling business; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Nicholas T. Kane; reelected to the Fifty-first, Fifty-second, and Fifty-third Congresses, and served from November 8, 1887, to March 3, 1895; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; resumed business activities in Albany and Rochester, N. Y.; died at Watkins Glen, Schuyler County, N. Y., March 24, 1905; interment in St. Agnes Cemetery, Albany, Albany County, N. Y.

TRACEY, John Plank, a Representative from Missouri; born in Wayne County, Ohio, September 18, 1830; attended the public schools of Ohio and Indiana; studied law; taught school; moved to Missouri in 1858; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in the Union Army March 1, 1862, and served until March 10, 1865, when he was mustered out with the rank of first lieutenant; commissioned lieutenant colonel of Missouri Enrolled Militia in April, 1865; was admitted to the bar in May, 1865, and commenced practice in Stockton, Cedar County, Mo.; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Grant and Colfax in 1868; moved to Springfield, Greene County, Mo., in 1874 and engaged in journalism; unsuccessful candidate for railroad commissioner in 1878; commissioned United States marshal for the western district of Missouri February 4, 1890, and served until March 4, 1894; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1896 to the Fifty-fifth Congress; member of the State house of representatives in 1903 and 1904; superintendent of the Soldiers' Home at St. James, Mo., in 1909 and 1910; engaged in newspaper work in Springfield, Mo., where he died July 24, 1910; interment in Hazelwood Cemetery.

TRACY, Albert Haller (brother of Phineas Lyman Tracy), a Representative from New York; born in Norwich, Conn., June 17, 1798; pursued classical studies; studied medicine; moved to New York State in 1811; abandoned medicine and studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Buffalo, N. Y., in 1815; elected as a Democrat to the Sixteenth, Seventeenth, and Eighteenth Congresses (March 4, 1819-March 3, 1825); declined a judgeship tendered by Gov. De Witt Clinton and a Cabinet position offered by President John Q. Adams; member of the State senate 1830-1837; unsuccessful Whig candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1839; tendered a portfolio in the Cabinet of President Tyler, but declined; died in Buffalo, N. Y., September 19, 1859.

TRACY, Andrew, a Representative from Vermont; born in Hartford, Vt., December 15, 1797; attended Royalton and Randolph Academies, and also Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., for two years; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1826, and commenced the practice of his profession in Quechee, Windsor County, Vt.; moved to Woodstock, Vt., in 1838 and continued the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives 1833-1837; served in the State senate in 1839; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1840 to the Twenty-seventh Congress; again a member of the State house of representatives 1843-1845 and served as speaker; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); declined to be a candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Woodstock, Windsor County, Vt., October 28, 1868; interment in the Old Cemetery on River Street.

TRACY, Henry Wells, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Ulster Township, Bradford County, Pa., September 24, 1807; completed preparatory studies; attended Angelica Seminary in Allegany County, N. Y.; studied law; engaged in mercantile pursuits and as a road contractor in Standing Stone, Pa., Havre de Grace, Md., and Towanda, Pa.; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1860 which nominated Abraham Lincoln for President; member of the State house of representatives in 1861 and 1862; elected as an Independent Republican to the Thirty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1865); collector of the port of Philadelphia in 1866; resumed mercantile pursuits; died at Standing Stone, Bradford County, Pa., April 11, 1886; interment in the Brick Church Cemetery, Wysox, Pa.

TRACY, Phineas Lyman (brother of Albert Haller Tracy), a Representative from New York; born in Norwich, Conn., December 25, 1786; was graduated from Yale College in 1806; engaged in teaching for two years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1811, and commenced practice in the village of Madison, Madison County, N. Y.; moved to Batavia, Genesee County, about 1815 and continued the practice of law; elected as a Whig to the Twentieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of David E. Evans; reelected to the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Congresses, and served from November 5, 1827, to March 3, 1833; declined to be a candidate for renomination; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Harrison and Tyler in 1840; appointed presiding judge of Genesee County court in 1841, and continued in that office until 1846, when he retired from public life; died in Batavia, N. Y., December 22, 1876; interment in Batavia Cemetery.

TRACY, Uri, a Representative from New York; born in Norwich, West Farms (now Franklin), Conn., February 8, 1764; was graduated from Yale College in 1789; became a Presbyterian clergyman and missionary to the Indians; moved to Oxford, N. Y., in 1791; first principal of Oxford Academy in 1794; first sheriff of Chenango County, and served from 1798 until his resignation in August, 1801; elected county clerk and served from 1801 to 1815; member of the State assembly in 1803; first postmaster of Oxford 1802-1805; elected as a Democrat to the Ninth Congress (March 4, 1805-March 3, 1807); elected to the Eleventh and Twelfth Congresses (March 4, 1809-March 3, 1813); appointed first judge of Chenango County, July 8, 1819, and served in this capacity until February, 1823; died in Oxford, Chenango County, N. Y., July 21, 1838; interment in Riverview Cemetery.

TRACY, Uriah, a Representative and a Senator from Connecticut; born in Franklin, Conn., February 2, 1755; was graduated from Yale College in 1778; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1781, and commenced practice in Litchfield, Conn.; major general of militia; member of the State house of representatives 1788-1798, and served as speaker in 1793; State's attorney for Litchfield County 1794-1799; elected as a Federalist to the Third and Fourth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1793, until his resignation, effective October 13, 1796; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Jonathan Trumbull; reelected in 1801 and 1807, and served from October 13, 1796, until his death; President pro tempore of the Senate May 14, 1800; died in Washington, D. C., July 19, 1807; interment in the Congressional Cemetery.

TRAFTON, Mark, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Bangor, Me. (then a district of Massachusetts), August 1, 1810; completed preparatory studies; studied theology and was ordained pastor of a church in Westfield, Mass.; elected as the candidate of the American Party to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1858 to the Thirty-fifth Congress; resumed his ministerial duties and was pastor of a church in Mount Wollaston, Norfolk County, Mass.; died in West Somerville, Middlesex County, Mass., March 8, 1901; interment in Peabody Cemetery, Springfield, Mass.

TRAIN, Charles Russell, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Framingham, Mass., October 18, 1817; attended the common schools, Framingham Academy, and was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1837; studied law at Harvard University, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Framingham, Mass., in 1841; member of the State house of representatives in 1847 and 1848; district attorney 1848-1854; declined the appointment of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States in 1852; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1853; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1856; member of the governor's council in 1857 and 1858; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1863); was not a candidate for renomination in 1862; one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1862 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against West H. Humphreys, United States judge for the several districts of Tennessee; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as a volunteer aide-de-camp to General McClellan; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864; moved to Boston, Mass.; again served in the State house of representatives 1868-1871; attorney general of Massachusetts 1871-1878; retired to private life and resumed the practice of law; died while on a visit in Conway, Carroll County, N. H., July 28, 1885; interment in Edgell Grove Cemetery, Framingham, Middlesex County, Mass.

TRAMMELL, Park, a Senator from Florida; born in Macon County, Ala., April 9, 1870; moved with his parents to Polk County, Fla., in his infancy; attended the common schools in Florida; studied law at the Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., and was graduated from Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1899; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Lakeland, Fla.; mayor of Lakeland 1899-1903; served in the State house of representatives in 1902; member of the State senate 1904-1908, and served as president in 1905; attorney general of Florida 1909-1913; Governor of Florida 1913-1917; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1916 for the term commencing March 4, 1917; reelected in 1922 for the term ending March 3, 1929.

TRAPIER, Paul, a Delegate from South Carolina; born in Prince George's parish, Winyah, near Georgetown, S. C., in 1749; educated in England, where he attended Eton College 1768-1765; admitted pensioner, St. John's College, Cambridge, March 20, 1766; admitted to the Middle Temple, London, February 17, 1767; member of the Provincial Congress and the committee of safety for Georgetown, S. C.; member of the South Carolina General Assembly in 1770; justice of the peace in 1776; served in the Revolutionary War as captain of the Georgetown Artillery; Member of the Continental Congress in 1777 and 1778; died at his home near Georgetown, Georgetown County, S. C., July 8, 1778; interment in the churchyard of Prince George, Winyah, S. C.

TREADWAY, Allen Towner, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Stockbridge, Berkshire County, Mass., September 16, 1887; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Amherst (Mass.) College in 1886; engaged in the hotel business; member of the State house of representatives in 1904; member of the State senate 1908-1911, and served as president 1909-1911; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-third and to the six succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

TREADWELL, John, a Delegate from Connecticut; born in Farmington, Hartford County, Conn., November 23, 1745; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Yale College in 1767; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Farmington, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives 1776-1785; clerk of the court of probate 1777-1784; member of the governor's council in 1785; Member of the Continental Congress in 1785 and 1786; member of the State council 1786-1797; judge of the court of common pleas; delegate to the State convention in 1788 which ratified the Federal Constitution; judge of probate and the supreme court of errors 1789-1809; Lieutenant Governor of Connecticut 1798-1809; Governor of Connecticut 1809-1811; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1813; died in Farmington, Conn., August 18, 1823; interment in the Old Cemetery.

TREDWAY, William Marshall, a Representative from Virginia; born near Farnville, Prince Edward County, Va., August 24, 1807; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Hampden-Sidney College, Prince Edward County, Va., in 1827; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1830, and commenced practice in Danville, Va.; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1847); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1846 to the Thirtieth Congress; delegate to the Democratic State convention in 1850; member of the secession convention of Virginia in 1861; judge of the circuit court of Virginia 1870-1879; resumed the practice of law in Chatham, Va., and died there May 1, 1891; interment in Chatham Cemetery.

TREDWELL, Thomas (grandfather of Thomas Treadwell Davis), a Representative from New York; born in Smithtown, Long Island, N. Y., February 6, 1743; was graduated from Princeton College in 1764; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and began practice in Plattsburg, N. Y.; delegate to the Provincial Congress of New York in 1774 and 1775; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1776 and 1777; member of the State assembly 1777-1783; judge of the court of probate 1778-1787; served in the State senate 1786-1789; surrogate of Suffolk County 1787-1791; delegate to the State convention which ratified the Constitution of the United States in 1788; elected to the Second Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James Townsend; reelected to the Third Congress, and served from May, 1791, to March 3, 1795; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1801; again a member of the State senate 1803-1807; surrogate of Clinton County 1807-1831; died in Plattsburg, Clinton County, N. Y., December 30, 1831; interment in the family burial ground on the Salmon River, near Plattsburg, N. Y.

TRELOAR, William Mitchellson, a Representative from Missouri; born near Linden, Iowa County, Wis., September 21, 1850; attended the common schools; moved to Iowa in 1864; attended the high school and the Iowa Wesleyan University at Mount Pleasant, Iowa; moved to Missouri in 1872; taught English and music in Mount Pleasant College, Huntsville, Mo., 1872-1875; moved to Mexico, Audrain County, Mo., in 1875; taught in the Synodical Female College in Fulton, Hardin College, and the public schools of Mexico, Mo.; delegate to the Republican State convention in 1894; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1896 to the Fifty-fifth Congress; appointed by President William McKinley on March 22, 1898, postmaster of Mexico, Mo., and served until March 18, 1904; engaged in the music business at Kansas City, Mo., in 1905; moved to St. Louis, Mo., in 1915, and continued his former business pursuits; served as election judge 1920-1924; engaged in teaching and composing music, and is a resident of St. Louis, Mo.

TREMAIN, Lyman, a Representative from New York; born in Durham, Greene County, N. Y., June 14, 1819; attended the common schools and Kinderhook Academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1840, and commenced practice in Durham, N. Y.; elected supervisor of Durham in 1842; appointed district attorney in 1844; elected surrogate and county judge of Greene County in 1846, and reelected in 1850 but declined to serve; moved to Albany, N. Y., in 1853 and practiced law; elected, as a Democrat, attorney general of New York in 1858; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1860; unsuccessful Republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor of New York in 1862; member of the State assembly 1866-1868, and served as speaker in 1867; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed the practice of his profession in Albany; died in New York City, while on a visit, November 30, 1878; interment in the Rural Cemetery, Albany, N. Y.

TREZVANT, James, a Representative from Virginia; born in Sussex County, Va.; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Jerusalem, Va.; attorney general of Virginia; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1820; served in the State house of delegates; elected to the Nineteenth, Twentieth, and Twenty-first Congresses (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1881); died in Southampton County, Va., September 2, 1841.

TRIBBLE, Samuel Joelah, a Representative from Georgia; born on a farm near Carnesville, Franklin County, Ga., November 15, 1869; attended the common schools and the University of Georgia at Athens; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1891, and commenced practice in Athens, Ga.; solicitor of the city court 1899-1904; solicitor general of the western circuit of Georgia 1904-1908; continued the practice of law in Athens until elected to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second, Sixty-third, and Sixty-fourth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1911, until his death; had been reelected in 1916 to the Sixty-fifth Congress; died in Washington, D. C., December 8, 1916; interment in Oconee Cemetery, Athens, Clarke County, Ga.

TRIGG, Abram (brother of John Trigg), a Representative from Virginia; born on his father's estate, near Old Liberty (now Bedford), Va., in 1750; completed academic studies; studied law and commenced practice in Montgomery County, Va.; lived on his estate, "Buchanan's Bottom," on New River; held local offices, such as clerk and judge, and various other offices in Montgomery County; served in the Revolutionary War as lieutenant colonel of militia in 1782 and later as general of militia in Virginia; delegate to the Virginia convention of 1788 that ratified the Constitution of the United States; elected to the Fifth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1797-March 3, 1809).

TRIGG, Connally Findlay, a Representative from Virginia; born in Abingdon, Washington County, Va., September 18, 1847; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1870, and commenced practice in Abingdon, Va.; during the Civil War was a private in the First Virginia Cavalry and also served in the Confederate States Navy; elected Commonwealth attorney for Washington County in 1872, which position he held until he resigned in 1884 to become a candidate for Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1887); resumed the practice of law; died in Abingdon, Va., April 23, 1907; interment in Sinking Spring Cemetery.

TRIGG, John (brother of Abram Trigg), a Representative from Virginia; born on his father's estate near Old Liberty (now Bedford), Va., in 1740; received a liberal schooling; engaged in agricultural pursuits; raised a company of militia in Bedford County, Va., in 1775; was commissioned captain March 23, 1778; promoted to the rank of major in 1781, and served throughout the Revolution; served under Washington at the siege of Yorktown; member of the State convention which ratified the Federal Constitution in 1788; lieutenant colonel of militia in 1791; major of the Second Battalion, Tenth Regiment of Militia, in 1798; justice of the peace of Bedford County; member of the Virginia House of Delegates 1784-1792; elected to the Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1797, until his death on his estate, near Old Liberty, Bedford County, Va., June 28, 1804.

TRIMBLE, Carey Allen, a Representative from Ohio; born in Hillsboro, Highland County, Ohio, September 13, 1813; attended Pestalottian School in Philadelphia, Pa., and Stubb's Classical School in Newport, Ky.; was graduated from the Ohio University at Athens in 1833 and from the Cincinnati Medical College in 1836; taught for four years; practiced medicine in Chillicothe, Ohio; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1863); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; resumed medical practice; moved to Columbus, Ohio, where he died May 4, 1887; interment in Grand View Cemetery, Chillicothe, Ohio.

TRIMBLE, David, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Frederick County, Va., in June, 1782; was graduated from William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., in 1800; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced legal practice in Mount Sterling, Ky.; served in the War of 1812 as brigade quartermaster of the First Brigade Kentucky Mounted Militia, and later as a private in the Battalion of Kentucky Mounted Infantry Volunteers commanded by Major Dudley; elected as a Democrat to the Fifteenth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1827); unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Nineteenth Congress; died at Trimble's Furnace, Greenup County, Ky., October 20, 1842.

TRIMBLE, John, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Roane County, Tenn., February 7, 1812; pursued classical studies under a private tutor and at the University of Nashville; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and began practice in Nashville, Tenn.; attorney general of Tennessee 1836-1842; member of the State house of representatives in 1843 and 1844; served in the State senate in 1845 and 1846, and again in 1859 and 1861, when he resigned because of the secession of the State; United States attorney from April, 1862, until August, 1864, when he resigned; again served in the State senate from 1865 to 1867, when he resigned; elected as a Republican to the Fortieth Congress (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1869); died in Nashville, Tenn., February 23, 1884.

TRIMBLE, Lawrence Strother, a Representative from Kentucky; born near Flemingsburg, Fleming County, Ky., August 26, 1825; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1847, and commenced practice in Paducah, Ky.; member of the State house of representatives in 1851 and 1852; judge of the equity and criminal court of the first judicial circuit of Kentucky 1855-1860; president of the New Orleans & Ohio Railroad Co. 1860-1865; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1868 to the Thirty-eighth Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-ninth, Fortieth, and Forty-first Congresses (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1871); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1870 to the Forty-second Congress; resumed the practice of law; moved to Albuquerque, N. Mex., in 1879 and continued the practice of law until his death there on August 9, 1904; interment in Fairview Cemetery.

TRIMBLE, South, a Representative from Kentucky; born near Hazel Green, Wolfe County, Ky., April 13, 1864; attended the public schools of Frankfort and Excelsior Institute near that city; engaged in agricultural pursuits near Frankfort, Ky.; member of the State house of representatives 1898-1900, and served as speaker in 1900, holding this office during the memorable Goebel election contest; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-seventh, Fifty-eighth, and Fifty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1901-March 3, 1907); did not seek renomination in 1906, having become a candidate for lieutenant governor; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky in 1906; Clerk of the National House of Representatives during the Sixty-second, Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, and Sixty-fifth Congresses, and served from April 4, 1911, to May 18, 1919; retired from public life; owns and operates a plantation near Selma, Ala., and resides in Washington, D. C.

TRIMBLE, William Allen, a Senator from Ohio; born in Woodford, Ky., April 4, 1786; was graduated from Transylvania College, Lexington, Ky.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1811, and commenced practice in Highland County, Ohio; adjutant in the campaign against the Potawatomi Indians in 1812; major of Ohio Volunteers May 7, 1812; taken prisoner at the capture of Detroit; major of the Twenty-sixth United States Infantry March 18, 1813; brevetted lieutenant colonel September 17, 1814, for gallantry at Fort Erie, where he was severely wounded; lieutenant colonel of the First United States Infantry November 30, 1814; transferred to the Eighth United States Infantry May 17, 1815; resigned March 1, 1819; elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1819, until his death in Washington, D. C., December 13, 1821; interment in the Congressional Cemetery.

TRIPLETT, Philip, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Virginia; moved to Kentucky and settled in Owensboro, Daviess County; member of the State house of representatives in 1824; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Harrison and Granger in 1836; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1843); member of the State constitutional convention in 1849.

TRIPPE, Robert Pleasant, a Representative from Georgia; born near Monticello, Jasper County, Ga., December 21, 1819; moved with his father to Monroe County and settled near Culloden; attended Randolph-Macon College, Ashland, Va., and was graduated from the Old Franklin College (now the University of Georgia) at Athens in 1839; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1840, and commenced practice in Forsyth, Ga.; member of the State house of representatives 1849-1852; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1852 to the Thirty-third Congress; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1859); was not a candidate for renomination in 1858 having become a candidate for State senator; served in the State senate in 1859 and 1860; Member of the First Confederate Congress; served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War 1862-1865; resumed the practice of law in Forsyth, Ga.; associate judge of the State supreme court from 1873 until 1875, when he resigned; again resumed the practice of law in Atlanta, Ga., and died there July 22, 1900; interment in Forsyth Cemetery, Forsyth, Ga.

TROTTER, James Fisher, a Senator from Mississippi; born in Brunswick County, Va., on November 5, 1802; moved with his father to eastern Tennessee; attended private schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1820, and commenced practice in Hamilton, Monroe County, Miss., in 1823; member of the State house of representatives 1827-1829; served in the State senate 1829-1833; judge of the Circuit Court of Mississippi in 1833; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Black, and served from January 22 to July 10, 1838, when he resigned; judge of the Supreme Court of Mississippi from 1839 until his resignation in 1842; moved to Holly Springs, Marshall County, Miss., and resumed the practice of his profession in 1840; vice chancellor of the northern district of Mississippi 1855-1857; professor of law at the University of Mississippi at Oxford 1860-1862; appointed circuit judge in 1866, and served until his death in Holly Springs, Miss., March 9, 1893; interment in Hill Crest Cemetery.

TROTTI, Samuel Wilda, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Barnwell, S. C., July 18, 1810; attended the common schools; was graduated from South Carolina College (now University of South Carolina) at Columbia in 1832; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; served in the Seminole War; member of the State house of representatives; elected to the Twenty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Sampson H. Butler, and served from December 17, 1842, to March 3, 1843; died in Fairfield District, S. C., June 24, 1856.

TROUP, George Michael, a Representative and a Senator from Georgia; born at McIntosh Bluff, on Tombigbee River, Ala. (then a part of Georgia), September 8, 1780; received preliminary education at home and in the schools of Savannah, Ga.; attended Erasmus Hall, Flatbush, N. Y., and was graduated from Princeton College in 1797; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Savannah, Ga., in 1799; member of the State house of representatives 1803-1805; unsuccessful candidate for election to the Ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joseph Bryan; elected as a Democrat to the Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, and Thirteenth Congresses (March 4, 1807-March 3, 1815); was not a candidate for renomination in 1814; retired to his plantation in Laurens County; elected as a State Rights Democrat to the United States Senate for the term beginning March 4, 1817; subsequently elected to fill the vacancy in the term ending March 3, 1817, caused by the resignation of William W. Bibb, and served from November 13, 1816, until September 23, 1818, when he resigned; unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1820; Governor of Georgia 1823-1827; again elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1829, to November 8, 1833, when he resigned; in 1832 declined the nomination of the Southern Rights Party of Alabama for the Presidency; died while on a visit to one of his plantations in Montgomery County, Ga., on April 26, 1856; interment on the Rosemont plantation, Montgomery County, Ga.

TROUT, Michael Carver, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Hickory Township, Mercer County, Pa., September 30, 1810; received a very limited education; employed as a hatter for three years and then became a carpenter and contractor; served as president of the Hickory Township School Board for twenty years; elected Burgess of Sharon in 1841; recorder of Mercer County, Pa., 1842-1845; prothonotary 1846-1851; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; engaged in iron manufacturing, banking, and coal mining; died in Hickory Township, Mercer County, Pa., June 25, 1873; interment in Morefield Cemetery, Hickory Township, near Sharon, Pa.

TROWBRIDGE, Rowland Ebenezer, a Representative from Michigan; born in Horseheads, Chemung County, N. Y., June 18, 1821; moved with his parents to Oakland County, Mich., in 1821; was graduated from Kenyon College, Gambier, Ohio, in 1841; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State senate 1856-1860; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; elected to the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congresses (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1869); unsuccessful candidate for renomination; resumed agricultural pursuits; Commissioner of Indian Affairs in 1880 and 1881; died in Birmingham, Mich., April 20, 1881; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

TRUMBO, Andrew, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Montgomery (now Bath) County, Ky., September 15, 1797; attended the common schools; employed in the county clerk's office; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Owingsville, Ky., in 1824; clerk of Bath County in 1830; Commonwealth attorney for Bath County in 1830; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1847); presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cass and Butler in 1848; resumed the practice of law; moved to Franklin County, Ky.; died in Frankfort, Ky., August 21, 1871; interment in the City Cemetery, Owingsville, Ky.

TRUMBULL, Jonathan (brother of Joseph Trumbull), a Representative and a Senator from Connecticut; born in Lebanon, Conn., March 26, 1740; was graduated from Harvard College in 1759; member of the Colonial Legislature of Connecticut, and served as speaker of the house; served in the Continental Army as a paymaster 1776-1780; appointed secretary and first aide-de-camp to General Washington in 1780; elected as a Federalist to the First, Second, and Third Congresses (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1795), and served as Speaker in the Second Congress; did not seek reelection, having become a candidate for Senator; elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1795, to June 10, 1796, when he resigned to become lieutenant governor; Lieutenant Governor of Connecticut from 1796 until the death of Governor Wolcott on December 1, 1797, when he became acting governor; was reelected for eleven consecutive terms, and served as chief executive of the State from 1797 until his death in Lebanon, Conn., August 7, 1809; interment in the Old Cemetery.

TRUMBULL, Joseph (brother of Jonathan Trumbull), a Delegate from Connecticut; born in Lebanon, Conn., March 11, 1737; was graduated from Harvard College in 1756; Member of the Continental Congress in 1774 and 1775; served in the Continental Army as commissary general with the rank of colonel from July 19, 1775, to August 2, 1777; was commissioner of the board of war from 1777 until his resignation in April, 1778, on account of ill health; died in Lebanon, Conn., July 23, 1778; interment in the Old Cemetery.

TRUMBULL, Joseph, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Lebanon, Conn., December 7, 1782; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Yale College in 1801; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1808 at Windham, Conn., and commenced practice in Hartford, Conn.; in 1828 became president of the Hartford Bank and later of the Providence, Hartford & Fishkill Railroad Co.; member of the State house of representatives in 1832; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William W. Ellsworth, and served from December 1, 1834, to March 3, 1835; resigned the presidency of the bank in November, 1839; elected to the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1843); again a member of the State house of representatives in 1848; Governor of Connecticut in 1849 and 1850; again elected to the State house of representatives in 1851; died in Hartford, Conn., August 4, 1861; interment in the Old North Cemetery.

TRUMBULL, Lyman, a Senator from Illinois; born in Colchester, Conn., October 12, 1813; attended Bacon Academy; taught school in Connecticut 1829-1833; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and began practice in Greenville, Ga.; moved to Belleville, Ill.; member of the State house of representatives in 1840; secretary of state of Illinois in 1841 and 1842; justice of the Supreme Court of Illinois 1848-1853; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fourth Congress in 1854, but before the beginning of the Congress was elected to the United States Senate; reelected in 1861 and again in 1867, and served from March 4, 1865, to March 3, 1873; resumed the practice of law in Chicago, Ill.; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor of Illinois in 1880; died in Chicago June 25, 1896; interment in Oakwoods Cemetery.

TUCK, Amos, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Parsonsfield, Me., August 2, 1810; attended Eppingham and Hampton Academies; was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1835; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1838, and commenced practice in Exeter, N. H.; trustee of Dartmouth College; principal of Hampton Academy 1836-1838; member of the State house of representatives in 1842; elected as an independent to the Thirtieth, Thirty-first, and Thirty-second Congresses (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1853); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1866 and at Chicago in 1860; delegate to the peace convention held in Washington, D. C., in 1861 in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; naval officer of the port of Boston 1861-1865; resumed the practice of law and also engaged in railroad building; died in Exeter, N. H., December 11, 1879; interment in Exeter Cemetery.

TUCKER, Ebenezer, a Representative from New Jersey; born at Tuckers Beach, Burlington County, N. J., November 15, 1758; attended the common schools; served in the Revolution under General Washington at the Battle of Long Island and other engagements; judge of the court of common pleas, justice of the court of quarter sessions, and judge of the orphans' court of Burlington County from 1820 to 1825; moved to what is now Tuckerton, N. J., which was named after him, where he engaged in mercantile pursuits, and shipbuilding; postmaster of Tuckerton from 1806 to 1825, when he resigned to take up his duties in Congress; elected to the Nineteenth and Twentieth Congresses (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1829); was not a candidate for renomination; first collector of revenue of the port of Tuckerton; again postmaster of Tuckerton from 1831 until his death in Tuckerton, N. J., September 5, 1845; interment in the Old Methodist Cemetery.

TUCKER, George (cousin of Henry St. George Tucker), a Representative from Virginia; born in the town of St. Georges, Bermuda, August 20, 1775; emigrated to Virginia about 1790; was graduated from William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., in 1797; studied law with Judge St. George Tucker at William and Mary College; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice in Richmond, Va.; moved to Pittsylvania County, Va., and was elected Commonwealth attorney of the county; member of the State house of delegates in 1815; moved to Lynchburg, Va., in 1818 and continued the practice of law; elected as a Democrat to the Sixteenth, Seventeenth, and Eighteenth Congresses (March 4, 1819–March 3, 1825); was appointed by Thomas Jefferson as the first professor of moral philosophy at the University of Virginia, which chair then embraced finance and economics; resigned as professor in 1845 and moved to Philadelphia; author and prolific writer on finance, economics, banking, and historical subjects; died in Sherwood, Albemarle County, Va., April 10, 1861; interment in the University of Virginia Cemetery, Albemarle County, Va.

TUCKER, Henry St. George (father of John Randolph Tucker, cousin of George Tucker, and nephew of Thomas Tudor Tucker), a Representative from Virginia; born in Williamsburg, Va., December 29, 1780; pursued classical studies; was graduated from William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., in 1798; later studied law under his father, Prof. St. George Tucker, and was graduated in 1801; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice in Winchester, Va.; captain of Cavalry in the War of 1812; elected to the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Congresses (March 4, 1815–March 3, 1819); was not a candidate for renomination in 1818; in 1816 spoke and voted against the bill to increase the salaries of Members of Congress and declined to accept the increase; chancellor of the fourth judicial district of Virginia 1824–1831; during this period he maintained a private law school, from which many of the most distinguished lawyers of the State came; president of the Court of Appeals of Virginia 1831–1841, and was the youngest member of the court when appointed; professor of law at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Va., from 1841 to 1845, and resigned; was the author in 1842 of the honor system for students adopted at the university; declined the portfolio of Attorney General of the United States tendered by President Jackson; author of Tucker's Commentaries, universally used in Virginia and in many of the Southern States, and also of a treatise on natural law and on the formation of the Constitution of the United States, which were textbooks at the University of Virginia; died in Winchester, Va., August 28, 1848; interment in Mount Hebron Cemetery.

TUCKER, Henry St. George (son of John Randolph Tucker and grandson of the preceding), a Representative from Virginia; born in Winchester, Frederick County, Va., April 5, 1853; attended a private school in Richmond, Va., during the Civil War and a private preparatory school at Middleburg, Va., 1865–1871; was graduated from the law department of Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., in 1876; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Staunton, Va.; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-first, Fifty-second, Fifty-third, and Fifty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1889–March 3, 1897); was not a candidate for renomination in 1896; elected professor of constitutional law and equity in Washington and Lee University in 1897 to succeed his father, John Randolph Tucker, dean of the law school of the same university in 1900, and dean of the school of law and diplomacy in George Washington University, Washington, D. C., in 1905; president of the Jamestown Tercentennial Exposition, succeeding Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, in 1904 and 1905; president of the American Bar Association in 1905; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for the nomination of governor in 1908 and again in 1921; edited Tucker on the Constitution; author of Woman Suffrage by Constitutional Amendment and Limitations on the Treaty Making Power; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Henry D. Flood; reelected to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses, and served from March 21, 1922, to March 3, 1927. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

TUCKER, John Randolph (son of Henry St. George Tucker), a Representative from Virginia; born in Winchester, Frederick County, Va., December 24, 1823; attended a private school and Richmond Academy, and was graduated from the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1844; was admitted to the bar in 1845 and commenced practice in Winchester, Va.; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Pierce and King in 1852 and of Buchanan and Breckinridge in 1856; attorney general of Virginia 1857–1865; professor of equity and public law at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., in 1870; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1875–March 3, 1887); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1886; elected professor of constitutional law at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., in 1888, and served until his death; author of Tucker on the Constitution; president of the American Bar Association in 1894; died in Lexington, Rockbridge County, Va., February 13, 1897; interment in Mount Hebron Cemetery, Winchester, Va.

TUCKER, Starling, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Halifax County, N. C., in 1770; moved to Mountain Shoals (now Enoree), S. C.; received a limited education; held several local offices; member of the State house of representatives; elected to the Fifteenth and to the six succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1817–March 3, 1831); died in Mountain Shoals (now Enoree), S. C., January 3, 1834; interment in the private burial ground on the family estate west of Enoree, Laurens (now Spartanburg) County, S. C.

TUCKER, Thomas Tudor (uncle of Henry St. George Tucker), a Delegate and a Representative from South Carolina; born in Port Royal, Bermuda, June 25, 1745; attended the common schools; studied medicine at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland; moved to South Carolina and practiced medicine; served as a surgeon in the Revolutionary War; Member of the Continental Congress in 1787 and 1788; elected as a Federalist to the First and Second Congresses (March 4, 1789–March 3, 1793); appointed United States Treasurer by President Jefferson, and served from December 1, 1801, until his death in Washington, D. C., May 2, 1828.

TUCKER, Tilghman Mayfield, a Representative from Mississippi; born near Lime Stone Springs, N. C., on February 5, 1802; completed preparatory studies; engaged in agricultural pursuits; moved to Hamilton, Miss.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Columbus, Miss.; member of the State house of representatives 1831–1835; served in the State senate 1838–1841; Governor of Mississippi 1841–1843; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843–March 3, 1845); retired to his plantation home, "Cottonwood," in Louisiana; died at the home of his father near Bexar, Marion County, Ala., April 3, 1859.

TUFTS, John Quincy, a Representative from Iowa; born near Aurora, Dearborn County, Ind., July 12, 1840; moved to Iowa with his parents, who settled in Muscatine County in 1852; attended the common schools and Cornell College, Mount Vernon, Iowa; moved to Cedar County, Iowa, in 1858; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives in 1870, 1872, and 1874; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); United States Indian agent of Indian Territory 1879-1887; moved to Los Angeles, Calif.; engaged in the real-estate business; president of the Los Angeles Board of Aldermen 1892-1896; died in Los Angeles, Calif., August 10, 1908; interment in Rosedale Cemetery.

TULLY, Pleasant Britton, a Representative from California; born in Henderson County, Tenn., March 21, 1829; moved to Arkansas with his father, who settled in Phillips County in 1838; attended public and private schools; moved to California in 1853 and engaged in mining; resided in Gilroy, Calif., after 1857; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; delegate at large to the State constitutional convention in 1879; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); resumed the practice of law; died in Gilroy, Santa Clara County, Calif., March 24, 1897; interment in the Masonic Cemetery.

TURLEY, Thomas Battle, a Senator from Tennessee; born in Memphis, Tenn., April 5, 1845; attended the public schools; served through the Civil War as a private in the Confederate Army; was graduated from the law department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1867, was admitted to the bar in 1870, and commenced practice in Memphis, Tenn.; appointed as a Democrat and subsequently elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Isham G. Harris, and served from July 20, 1897, to March 3, 1901; declined to be a candidate for renomination and resumed the practice of law in Memphis, Tenn.; died in Memphis, Tenn., July 1, 1910; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

TURNBULL, Robert, a Representative from Virginia; born in Lawrenceville, Brunswick County, Va., January 11, 1850; attended Rock Spring Academy, and was graduated from the law department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1871; was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in Lawrenceville, Va.; clerk of Brunswick County 1891-1910; member of the State senate 1894-1898; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1901; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1896 and at St. Louis in 1904; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-first Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Francis R. Lassiter; reelected to the Sixty-second Congress, and served from March 8, 1910, to March 3, 1913; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1912; resumed the practice of law in Lawrenceville; clerk of the circuit court of Brunswick County from 1916 until his death, January 22, 1920; interment in Lawrenceville Cemetery, Lawrenceville, Va.

TURNER, Benjamin Sterling, a Representative from Alabama; born near Weldon, Halifax County, N. C., March 17, 1826; was of the Negro race and raised as a slave; received no early education; moved to Alabama in 1830 and by clandestine study obtained a fair education; engaged in mercantile pursuits; elected tax collector of Dallas County in 1867; councilman of the city of Selma in 1869; elected as a Republican to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1873); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1872 to the Forty-third Congress; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1880; engaged in agricultural pursuits in Alabama; died in Selma, Dallas County, Ala., March 21, 1894; interment in Live Oak Cemetery.

TURNER, Charles, jr., a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Duxbury, Mass., June 20, 1700; received a common-school education at Duxbury and Scituate, Mass.; was commissioned an adjutant in the Massachusetts State Militia in 1787; promoted to major in 1790, and held the rank of lieutenant colonel commandant 1798-1812; appointed first postmaster of Scituate, Mass., in 1800; justice of the peace; member of the State house of representatives 1803 and 1805-1808; successfully contested as a War Democrat the election of William Baylies to the Eleventh Congress; reelected to the Twelfth Congress, and served from June 28, 1809, to March 3, 1813; unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Thirteenth Congress; served in the State senate in 1816; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1817, 1819, and 1823; appointed steward of the Marine Hospital at Chelsea, Mass.; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1820; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Scituate, Plymouth County, Mass., May 16, 1839; interment in the burial ground of the First Parish of Norwell (formerly Scituate).

TURNER, Charles Henry, a Representative from New York; born in Wentworth, Grafton County, N. H., May 26, 1861; attended the common schools; moved to New York City in November, 1879; attended Columbia College, New York City, 1886-1888; engaged in the ice business; unsuccessful candidate for State senator in 1888; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-first Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Frank T. Fitzgerald, and served from December 9, 1889, to March 3, 1891; was not a candidate for renomination in 1890; Doorkeeper in the National House of Representatives 1891-1893; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1897, and commenced practice in Washington, D. C.; appointed assistant district attorney for the District of Columbia July 16, 1903, and served until his resignation on September 1, 1911; appointed special assistant to the United States attorney for the District of Columbia November 27, 1911, and served until his death in Wentworth, N. H., August 31, 1913; interment in Wentworth Cemetery.

TURNER, Clarence Wily, a Representative from Tennessee; born on a farm near Clydeton, Humphreys County, Tenn.; attended the public schools, a preparatory school in Edgewood, Dickson County, Tenn., and the National Normal Institute, Lebanon, Ohio; was graduated from the law department of the Northern Indiana Normal College at Valparaiso in 1904; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice at Waverly, Humphreys County, Tenn.; editor of the Waverly Sentinel; chairman of the Democratic committee of Humphreys County for fifteen years; member of the State senate 1900, 1901, and 1909-1912; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco in 1920; mayor of Waverly, Tenn.; city attorney; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lemuel P. Padgett, and served from November 7, 1922, to March 3, 1923; was not a candidate for reelection in 1922 to the Sixty-eighth Congress; president of the Farmers & Merchants' Bank of Waverly; engaged in agricultural pursuits; now serving as county judge of Humphreys County, and resides at Waverly, Tenn.

TURNER, Daniel (son of James Turner), a Representative from North Carolina; born near Warrenton, Warren County, N. C., September 21, 1796; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1814, and commissioned second lieutenant of Artillery the same year; served in the War of 1812 as acting assistant engineer; resigned his commission May 17, 1815; student for two years at William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va.; moved to North Carolina; member of the North Carolina House of Commons 1819-1823; elected as a Democrat to the Twentieth Congress (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1829); was not a candidate for renomination; principal of the Warrenton (N. C.) Female Seminary; superintending engineer of the construction of public works at the Mare Island Navy Yard, Calif., from September 18, 1854, until his death there July 21, 1890; interment in Mare Island Naval Cemetery.

TURNER, Erastus Johnson, a Representative from Kansas; born in Lockport, Erie County, Pa., December 26, 1846; attended college in Henry, Ill., in 1859 and 1860; moved to Bloomfield, Iowa, in 1860; enlisted in Company E, Thirteenth Regiment, Iowa Volunteer Infantry, in 1864, and served until the close of the Civil War; attended Adrian College, Michigan, 1868-1869; was admitted to the bar in 1871 and commenced practice at Bloomfield, Iowa; moved to Hoxie, Sheridan County, Kans., in 1879 and resumed practice; member of the State house of representatives 1881-1885; secretary of the Kansas Board of Railroad Commissioners from April 1, 1883, to August 1, 1886; elected as a Republican to the Fiftieth and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1891); was not a candidate for renomination; practiced law several years in Washington, D. C.; moved to Seattle, Wash., in 1905; moved to California in 1918; retired, and is a resident of Los Angeles.

TURNER, George, a Senator from Washington; born in Edina, Knox County, Mo., February 25, 1850; attended the common schools; served as United States military telegraph operator with the Union forces during the Civil War 1861-1865; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1869, and began practice in Mobile, Ala.; United States marshal for the southern and middle districts of Alabama 1876-1880; associate justice of the Supreme Court for the Territory of Washington from July 4, 1884, to February 15, 1888; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati in 1876 and at Chicago in 1880 and 1884; member of the State constitutional convention in 1889; elected as a Fusionist to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1897, to March 3, 1903; was not a candidate for reelection to the Senate; member of the Alaska Boundary Tribunal in 1903; counsel for the United States at The Hague in the northeastern fisheries arbitration with Great Britain in 1910; appointed by President Taft a member of the International Joint Commission, created to prevent disputes regarding the use of boundary waters between the United States and Canada, and served from December 18, 1911, to February 28, 1914; counsel for the United States before the International Joint Commission 1918-1924; resumed the practice of law, and resides in Spokane, Wash.

TURNER, Henry Gray, a Representative from Georgia; born near Henderson, Franklin County, N. C., March 20, 1839; attended the common schools and the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1857; moved to Brooks County, Ga., in 1859 and taught school; enlisted in the Confederate Army as a private in 1861, and served throughout the Civil War, attaining the rank of captain; severely wounded at the Battle of Gettysburg; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1865, and commenced practice in Quitman, Ga.; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Greeley and Brown in 1872; member of the State house of representatives 1874-1876; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1876; again served in the State house of representatives in 1878 and 1879; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-seventh and to the seven succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1897); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1896; resumed the practice of law in Quitman, Ga.; appointed associate justice of the Supreme Court of Georgia in 1903; died in Raleigh, N. C., June 9, 1904; interment in the West End Cemetery, Quitman, Ga.

TURNER, James, a Representative from Maryland; born near Bel Air, Harford County, Md., November 7, 1783; completed preparatory studies at the Classic Academy of Madonna, Maryland; captain of militia in the War of 1812; moved to Parkton, Baltimore County, in 1811 and established the first large dairy farm at Parkton; collector of State and county taxes in 1817; served as a justice of the peace in 1824; member of the State house of delegates 1824-1833; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1837); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; again served in the State house of delegates in 1837 and 1839; member of the State senate 1855-1859; engaged in farming at Parkton, Md., until his death on March 28, 1861; interment in Bethel Cemetery, near Madonna, Harford County, Md.

TURNER, James (father of Daniel Turner), a Senator from North Carolina; born in Southampton County, Va., December 20, 1786; moved with his father to Warren County, N. C., in 1770; attended the common schools; engaged in planting; served as a private in a company of North Carolina Volunteers during the Revolutionary War; member of the State house of commons 1797-1800; served in the State senate in 1801 and 1802; Governor of North Carolina 1802-1805; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1805; reelected in 1811, and served from March 4, 1805, to November 21, 1816, when he resigned on account of ill health; died on his plantation, "Bloomsbury," near Warrenton, Warren County, N. C., January 15, 1824; interment in Bloomsbury Cemetery.

TURNER, Oscar, a Representative from Kentucky; born in New Orleans, La., February 3, 1825; moved with his parents to Fayette County, Ky., in 1826; completed preparatory studies; moved to Ballard County, Ky., in 1843; was graduated from the law department of Transylvania University, Lexington, Ky., in 1847; Commonwealth attorney 1851-1855; was admitted to the bar and practiced until 1861; served in the State senate 1867-1871; elected as an Independent Democrat to the Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, and Forty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1885); resumed the practice of law; died in Louisville, Ky., January 22, 1896; interment in Cave Hill Cemetery.

TURNER, Oscar (son of the preceding), a Representative from Kentucky; born in Woodlands, Ballard County, Ky., October 19, 1887; attended the public schools of Washington, D. C., and the Louisville (Ky.) Rugby School; studied law at the University of Louisville, Kentucky, and was graduated from the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1886; traveled extensively; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice at Louisville, Ky., in 1891; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1901); declined a renomination; resumed the practice of law; died in Louisville, Ky., July 17, 1902; interment in Cave Hill Cemetery.

TURNER, Smith Spangler, a Representative from Virginia; born in Warren County, Va., November 21, 1842; cadet at the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va., when the Civil War commenced, and was subsequently given an honorary diploma; enlisted in the Confederate Army in 1861; served with Gen. T. J. Jackson as drill officer; an officer of Pickett's division during the remainder of the war; near the close of the war was badly injured and disfigured by an explosion of gunpowder; taught mathematics in a female seminary in Winchester, Va., 1805-1867; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1809, and commenced practice in Front Royal, Va.; member of the State house of delegates 1809-1872; prosecuting attorney for Warren County, Va., 1874-1879; member of the State board of visitors of the Virginia Military Institute for eight years; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Charles T. O'Ferrall; reelected to the Fifty-fourth Congress, and served from January 30, 1894, to March 8, 1897; died in Front Royal, Va., April 8, 1898; interment in Prospect Hill Cemetery.

TURNER, Thomas, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Richmond, Madison County, Ky., September 10, 1821; attended the Richmond Academy, and was graduated from Centre College, Danville, Ky., in September, 1840; studied law at the Transylvania Law School, Lexington, Ky.; was admitted to the bar in 1842, and commenced practice in Richmond, Ky.; Commonwealth attorney in 1845, and resigned in 1846; served in the Mexican War as a private in Captain Stone's company of Col. Roger Hanson's regiment; moved to Mount Sterling, Montgomery County, Ky., in November, 1854, and continued the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives 1861-1863; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1881); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1880 to the Forty-seventh Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in Mount Sterling, Ky., September 11, 1900; interment in Macpelah Cemetery.

TURNER, Thomas Johnston, a Representative from Illinois; born in Trumbull County, Ohio, April 5, 1815; completed preparatory studies; moved with his parents to Butler County, Pa., in 1825; moved to Lake County, Ind., in 1837 and to Freeport, Ill., in 1838; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1840, and commenced practice in Freeport; judge of the probate court of Stephenson County in 1842; postmaster of Freeport in 1844; State district attorney in 1845; established the first weekly newspaper in Stephenson County—the Prairie Democrat; elected as a Democrat to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1849); member of the State house of representatives in 1854, and served as speaker; elected first mayor of Freeport, Ill., in 1855; delegate to the peace convention held in Washington, D. C., in 1861 in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army May 24, 1861, and served as colonel of the Fifteenth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry; resigned on account of ill health in 1862; member of the constitutional convention in 1863; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for United States Senator in 1871; moved to Chicago in 1871 and resumed the practice of law; died at Hot Springs, Ark., April 4, 1874; interment in the City Cemetery, Freeport, Ill.

TURNER, Hopkins Lacy, a Representative and a Senator from Tennessee; born at Dixon Springs, Smith County, Tenn., October 3, 1797; apprenticed to the tailor's trade; served in the Seminole War in 1818; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Jasper, Tenn.; moved to Winchester, Tenn., and continued the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives 1828-1838; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1843); elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1845, to March 3, 1851; resumed the practice of law; died in Winchester, Tenn., August 1, 1867; interment in Winchester Cemetery.

TURNER, Jacob, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Greensburg, Westmoreland County, Pa., February 18, 1825; completed preparatory studies and attended Greensburg Academy; apprenticed as a printer; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1849, and commenced practice in Greensburg, Pa.; district attorney for Westmoreland County 1850-1855; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Buchanan and Breckinridge in 1856; member of the State senate 1858-1860; elected president of that body in 1859; unsuccessful candidate for State senator in 1871; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); resumed the practice of law; died in Greensburg, Pa., October 4, 1891; interment in St. Clair Cemetery.

TURPIN, David, a Senator from Indiana; born in Hamilton County, Ohio, July 8, 1828; was graduated from Kenyon College, Gambler, Ohio, in 1848; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1849, and commenced practice in Logansport, Cass County, Ind.; member of the State house of representatives in 1852 and 1858; appointed by Governor Wright judge of the court of common pleas, and served from 1854 to 1856; judge of the circuit court in 1859; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1863 to fill the vacancy caused by the expulsion of Jesse D. Bright, and served from January 14 to March 3, 1863; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1862; resumed the practice of law; moved to Monticello, Ind., in 1865 and continued the practice of his profession; returned to Logansport in 1868 and practiced until 1872, when he moved to Indianapolis, Ind., and engaged in the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives and served as speaker in 1874 and 1875; one of the three commissioners to revise the laws of Indiana in 1878 and 1881; appointed United States district attorney for Indiana in August, 1886, and served until March 3, 1887; again elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1887; reelected in 1893, and served from March 4, 1887, to March 3, 1899; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1888; withdrew from public life in 1899 and lived in retirement until his death; died in Indianapolis, Ind., April 21, 1909; interment in Crown Hill Cemetery.

TURPIN, Louis Washington, a Representative from Alabama; born in Charlottesville, Albemarle County, Va., February 22, 1849; his parents having died he moved to Alabama with his sister and settled in Perry County in 1858; self-educated; engaged in agricultural pursuits; tax assessor of Hale County 1873-1890; chairman of the Democratic committee of Hale County for six years; unsuccessful candidate for nomination to the Forty-eighth Congress; presented credentials as a Democratic Member elect to the Fifty-first Congress, and served from March 4, 1889, to June 4, 1890, when he was succeeded by John V. McDuffie, who contested his election; elected to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1895); unsuccessful candidate for renomination; retired from politics and engaged in planting; died in Greensboro, Ala., February 3, 1903; interment in the City Cemetery.

TURRILL, Joel, a Representative from New York; born in Shoreham, Vt., February 22, 1794; attended the common school; was graduated from Middlebury College in 1816; studied law in Newburgh, N. Y.; moved to Oswego, N. Y.; was admitted to the bar in 1819 and commenced practice in Oswego; justice of the peace; county judge 1823-1833; member of the State assembly in 1831; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1837); was not a candidate for reelection in 1836; district attorney for Oswego County 1838-1840; surrogate of Oswego County in 1843; United States consul to the Sandwich Islands 1845-1850; died in Oswego, Oswego County, N. Y., December 28, 1859; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

TUTHILL, Joseph Hasbrouck (nephew of Selah Tuthill), a Representative from New York; born in Blooming Grove, Orange County, N. Y., February 25, 1811; attended common and private schools; moved with his parents to Shawangunk, Ulster County, N. Y., in 1824; engaged in mercantile and agricultural pursuits; moved to New York City in 1828, and continued his mercantile pursuits; moved to Ulsterville, N. Y., in 1832, where he engaged in business; moved to Ellenville, N. Y., in 1834; member of the Ulster County Board of Supervisors 1842, 1843, 1861, 1862, 1865-1870; clerk of Ulster County 1848-1847; served as president of the Ellenville Glass Works; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1866 to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1873); retired from public life; died in Ellenville, Ulster County, N. Y., July 27, 1877; interment in Fantinekill Cemetery, near Ellenville, N. Y.

TUTHILL, Selah (uncle of Joseph Hasbrouck Tuthill), a Representative from New York; born in Blooming Grove, Orange County, N. Y., October 26, 1771; attended public and private schools; member of the State assembly from Ulster County in 1805 and from Orange County in 1820; elected to the Seventeenth Congress, and served from March 4, 1821, until death in Goshen, N. Y., September 7, 1821; interment in Riverside Cemetery, Marlboro, Ulster County, N. Y.

TUTTLE, William Edgar, Jr., a Representative from New Jersey; born in Horseheads, Chemung County, N. Y., December 10, 1870; was graduated from Horseheads High School and Elmira Free Academy in 1887 and attended Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., for two years; was engaged in the lumber business in Westfield, N. J.; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Denver in 1908 which nominated Bryan and Kern and at St. Louis in 1916 which nominated Wilson and Marshall; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second and Sixty-third Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; resumed the lumber business; United States commissioner to the Panama Exposition in 1916; president of the State board of conservation and development in 1919; State commissioner of banking and insurance in 1921; died in Westfield, Union County, N. J., February 11, 1923; interment in Maple Grove Cemetery, Horseheads, N. Y.

TWEED, William Marcy, a Representative from New York; born in New York City April 8, 1823; completed preparatory studies; learned the trade of chair maker; alderman in New York City in 1852 and 1853; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1854 to the Thirty-fourth Congress; school commissioner in 1856 and 1857; member of the Board of Supervisors for New York County in 1858; defeated as the peace candidate for sheriff in 1861; deputy street commissioner 1861-1870; elected to the State senate in 1867 and 1869, serving four years; again elected in 1871, but was not permitted to take his seat; commissioner of the department of public works in 1870; tried in 1874 on charges of official embezzlement, found guilty, and sentenced to twelve years' imprisonment; escaped in December, 1875, and was captured in Spain; brought back to the United States on a man-of-war; again confined in prison in New York City from November 23, 1876, until his death, April 12, 1878; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

TWEEDY, John Hubbard, a Delegate from the Territory of Wisconsin; born in Danbury, Conn., November 8, 1814; was graduated from Yale College in 1834 and from the Yale Law School in 1836; was admitted to the bar in July, 1836; moved to Milwaukee, Wis., in October, 1836, and commenced practice; commissioner and receiver of canal lands 1839-1841; member of the Territorial council in 1842; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1846; elected as a Whig to the Thirtieth Congress, and served from March 4, 1847, until that portion of the Territory of Wisconsin in which he resided was admitted as a State into the Union on May 29, 1848; was not a candidate for renomination in 1848; unsuccessful Whig candidate for governor in 1848; member of the State assembly in 1853; engaged in railroad development and served as director of the Milwaukee & Mississippi Railroad and the Milwaukee & Watertown Railroad; died in Milwaukee, Wis., November 12, 1891; interment in Wooster Cemetery, Danbury, Fairfield County, Conn.

TWEEDY, Samuel, a Representative from Connecticut; born at Nine Partners, Dutchess County, N. Y., March 8, 1778; moved to Danbury, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives in 1818, 1820, and 1824; served in the State senate 1826-1828; held many local offices; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-third Congress (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1835); died in Danbury, Fairfield County, Conn., July 1, 1868; interment in Wooster Cemetery.

TWICHELL, Ginery, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Athol, Mass., August 26, 1811; attended the common schools; at the age of nineteen he became interested in stage coaches, was the proprietor of several lines, and in that connection received many important contracts for carrying the mails; in 1848 engaged in railroading; president of the Boston & Worcester Railway in 1857; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864 which nominated Abraham Lincoln for a second term; elected as a Republican to the Fortieth, Forty-first, and Forty-second Congresses (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1873); was not a candidate for renomination in 1872; president of the Atchafalaya, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway Co. 1870-1874; president of the Boston, Barre & Gardner Railroad Co. 1873-1878; died in Brookline, Norfolk County, Mass., July 23, 1883; interment in the Rural Cemetery, Worcester, Mass.

TYDINGS, Millard Evelyn, a Representative and a Senator from Maryland; born in Havre de Grace, Harford County, Md., April 6, 1890; attended the public schools of Harford County; was graduated from Maryland Agricultural College (now the University of Maryland) in 1910; engaged in civil engineering for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad in West Virginia in 1911; studied law at the University of Maryland Law School, Baltimore, Md., was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Havre de Grace in 1913; member of the State house of delegates 1915-1921; speaker of the house 1919-1921; served as a private on the Mexican border at Eagle Pass, Tex., from June to November, 1916; enlisted as a private in the World War on April 6, 1917; was made second lieutenant April 7, 1917, first lieutenant August 6, 1917, and captain January 12, 1918; sailed for France in June, 1918; participated in the defense of the center sector, Haute-Alsace, from July to September, 1918, and Meuse-Argonne from September to signing of the Armistice 1918; promoted to major, One hundred and eleventh Machine Gun Battalion, September 4, 1918, and to lieutenant colonel and division machine-gun officer on November 7, 1918; awarded the distinguished-service medal by the United States and also recommended for the distinguished-service cross, which is now pending; had citations for meritorious and conspicuous service from Generals Pershing, Morton, and Upton; served in Germany with the Army of Occupation; was graduated from the Army Center of Artillery Studies; discharged from the service May 31, 1919; member of the State senate 1921-1923; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Elected to the United States Senate in 1926 for the term beginning March 4, 1927, and ending March 3, 1933.

TYLER, Asher, a Representative from New York; born in Bridgewater, Oneida County, N. Y., May 10, 1798; was graduated from Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., in 1817; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Elliptoville, Cattaraugus County, N. Y., in 1836; agent of the Devereaux Land Co. for a number of years, with headquarters at Elliptoville, and subsequently served in a like capacity for the Erie Co.; held several local offices; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1845); moved to Elmira in 1846 and engaged in railroad operations; one of the incorporators of the Elmira Rolling Mill Co.; died in Elmira, Chemung County, N. Y., August 1, 1875; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

TYLER, David Gardiner (son of John Tyler), a Representative from Virginia; born in East Hampton, Long Island, N. Y., July 12, 1846; completed preparatory studies in a private school in Charles City County, Va., and entered Washington College (now Washington and Lee University), Lexington, Va., in 1862, leaving there in 1863 to join the Confederate Army; served as a private in the Rockbridge Artillery, First Virginia Battalion, Army of Northern Virginia, surrendering at Appomattox; went to Europe in October, 1865, and for two years attended the Polytechnic School at Karlsruhe, Grand Duchy of Baden; returned to the United States in 1867, and was graduated from the law department of Washington College in 1869; was admitted to the bar in 1870 and commenced practice in Richmond, Va.; director of the State lunatic asylum in Williamsburg, Va., 1884-1887; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Thurman in 1888; served in the State senate in 1891 and 1892; member of the board of visitors of William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va.; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1896; resumed the practice of his profession; again served in the State senate 1900-1904; elected judge of the fourteenth judicial circuit of Virginia in 1904; reelected in 1908 and 1912, and was serving in that capacity at the time of his death; died at "Sherwood Forest," Charles City County, Va., on September 5, 1927; interment in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Va.

TYLER, James Manning, a Representative from Vermont; born in Wilmington, Windham County, Vt., April 27, 1835; attended the Brattleboro Academy and was graduated from the Law University of Albany, N. Y.; was admitted to the bar in September, 1860, and commenced practice in Wilmington; member of the State house of representatives in 1863 and 1864; State's attorney in 1866 and 1867; trustee of the Vermont Asylum for the Insane since 1875; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1883); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1882; resumed the practice of his profession in Brattleboro, Vt.; appointed one of the judges of the supreme court of the State in September, 1887; and served until his resignation December 1, 1908; president of the Vermont National Bank 1917-1923; president of the Vermont-Peoples' National Bank in 1923 and 1924; retired from active business pursuits; died in Brattleboro, Windham County, Vt., October 18, 1928; interment in Prospect Hill Cemetery.

TYLER, John (father of David Gardiner Tyler), a Representative and a Senator from Virginia and a Vice President and a President of the United States; born in Charles City County, Va., March 29, 1790; attended private schools, and was graduated from William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., in 1807; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1809, and commenced practice in Charles City County; captain of a military company in 1813; member of the State house of delegates 1811-1816; member of the council of state in 1816; elected as Democratic-Republican to the Fourteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John Cloyton; reelected to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses, and served from December 18, 1817, to March 3, 1821; declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1820 because of impaired health; again a member of the State house of delegates 1823-1825; Governor of Virginia 1825-1827; elected to the United States Senate in 1827; reelected in 1833, and served from March 4, 1827, to February 29, 1836, when he resigned; elected President pro tempore of the Senate March 3, 1835; member of the State constitutional convention in 1829 and 1830; was nominated for Vice President of the United States in 1835; president of the Virginia African Colonization Society in 1838; again a member of the State house of delegates in 1839; elected Vice President of the United States on the Whig ticket of Harrison and Tyler in 1840; was inaugurated March 4, 1841, and served until the death of President Harrison on April 4, 1841; took the oath of office as President of the United States on April 6, 1841, and served until March 3, 1845; chancellor of William and Mary College in 1859; delegate to and president of the peace convention held in Washington, D. C., in 1861 in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; delegate to the Confederate Provisional Congress in 1861; elected to the House of Representatives of the Confederate Congress, but died in Richmond, Va., January 18, 1862, before the assembling of the Congress; interment in Hollywood Cemetery, where a monument has been erected over his remains by the Congress of the United States.

TYNDALL, William Thomas, a Representative from Missouri; born in Sparta, Christian County, Mo., January 16, 1862; attended the public schools, Henderson Academy at Sparta, and Sparta Academy; engaged in teaching at Sparta 1884-1895; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1893, and commenced practice in Sparta; appointed postmaster of Sparta, Mo., by President Harrison, and served from March 23, 1891, to November 14, 1893; again appointed postmaster by President McKinley, and served from December 8, 1897, to January 7, 1905; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1905-March 3, 1907); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1906 to the Sixtieth Congress; resumed the practice of law; moved to Bartlesville, Okla., in 1912 and continued the practice of law; is a resident of Bartlesville, Okla.

TYNER, James Noble, a Representative from Indiana; born in Brookville, Franklin County, Ind., January 17, 1826; pursued an academic course, and was graduated from Brookville Academy in 1844; spent ten years in business; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1857, and commenced practice in Peru, Ind.; secretary of the State senate 1857-1861; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Lincoln and Hamlin in 1860; special agent of the Post Office Department 1861-1866; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Representative elect Daniel D. Pratt; reelected to the Forty-second and Forty-third Congresses, and served from March 4, 1869, to March 3, 1875; appointed by President Grant Governor of Colorado, but declined; appointed Second Assistant Postmaster General, serving from February 26, 1875, to July 12, 1876, and as Postmaster General from July 12, 1876, to March 3, 1877; appointed First Assistant Postmaster General, and served from March 18, 1877, until his resignation on October 29, 1881; delegate to the International Postal Congress at Paris in 1878 and at Washington in 1897; Assistant Attorney General for the Post Office Department from March 21, 1889, to May 27, 1893, and again from May 6, 1897, to April 27, 1903; died in Washington, D. C., December 5, 1904; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

TYSON, Jacob, a Representative from New York; born in Staten Island, N. Y., October 8, 1773; attended the common schools; moved to Richmond, N. Y.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; supervisor of the town of Castletown, Richmond County, 1811-1821; served as judge of Richmond County 1822-1840; elected to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1825); member of the State senate in 1828; died in Staten Island, N. Y., July 16, 1848; interment in the Reformed Protestant Dutch Church Cemetery, Port Richmond, Staten Island, N. Y.

TYSON, Job Roberts, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., February 8, 1808; completed preparatory studies; taught school in Hamburg, Pa.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1827, and commenced practice in Philadelphia, Pa.; also engaged in literary pursuits; held several local offices; served in the State house of representatives; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); retired from active life; died on his estate, "Woodlawn," Montgomery County, Pa., June 27, 1858; interment in the South Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia, Pa.

TYSON, John Russell, a Representative from Alabama; born in Lowndes County, Ala., November 28, 1856; attended the public schools; was graduated from Howard College, Marion, Ala., in 1877 and from Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., in 1879; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1879, and commenced practice in Hayneville, Ala.; member of the State house of representatives in 1880; moved to Montgomery, Ala., in 1884 and resumed the practice of law; elected a member of the city council in May, 1889, and its president in May 1891, resigning in October, 1892, having been appointed to the circuit court; judge of the circuit court 1892-1898; associate justice of the Supreme Court of Alabama 1898-1906, and served as chief justice from November, 1906, to February 28, 1909, when he resigned; resumed the practice of law in Montgomery, Ala.; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-seventh and Sixty-eighth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1921, until his death in a hospital at Rochester, Minn., March 27, 1923; interment in Oakwood Cemetery, Montgomery, Ala.

TYSON, Lawrence Davis, a Senator from Tennessee; born near Greenville, Pitt County, N. C., July 4, 1861; attended the county schools and Greenville Academy, and was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1883; professor of military science and tactics in the University of Tennessee at Knoxville 1891-1895, and was graduated in law from that university in 1894; was admitted to the bar in 1894 and commenced practice in Knoxville; served with the Ninth Regiment United States Infantry until 1895, when he resigned his commission; volunteered in 1898 for service during the Spanish-American War, and was appointed by President McKinley colonel of the Sixth Regiment United States Volunteer Infantry, which he recruited, trained, and took to Porto Rico; was mustered out March 15, 1899; engaged in the practice of law at Knoxville and later in manufacturing, retiring from the practice of law; brigadier general and inspector general of the National Guard of Tennessee 1902-1908; member of the State house of representatives and served as speaker 1903-1905; delegate at large to the Democratic National Convention at Denver in 1908; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1913; volunteered for service at the outbreak of the World War and was commissioned brigadier general in command of all National Guard troops of Tennessee; later commissioned by President Wilson brigadier general and assigned to the Fifty-ninth Brigade, Thirtieth Division; trained troops at Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C.; embarked for France May 10, 1918, in command of the Thirtieth Division, landing at Calais; participated in engagements at the Canal sector, Belgium, July 1 to August 30, 1918; Ypres-Lys offensive, Belgium, August 30 to September 2, 1918; Somme offensive, France, September 5 to October 20, 1918; was honorably discharged on April 16, 1919; awarded the distinguished-service medal for exceptionally meritorious and distinguished service; resumed newspaper pursuits; unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination of Vice President in 1920; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate for the term beginning March 4, 1925, and ending March 3, 1931.

UDREE, Dantel, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., August 5, 1751; attended the common schools; moved to Berks County and engaged in mercantile pursuits; member of the State house of representatives 1799-1805; elected as a Democrat to the Thirteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John M. Hyneman, and served from October 12, 1813, to March 3, 1815; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1814 to the Fourteenth Congress; elected to the Sixteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joseph Hlester, and served from December 26, 1820, to March 3, 1821; elected to the Eighteenth Congress; subsequently elected to the Seventeenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Ludwig Worman, and served from December 10, 1822, to March 3, 1825; was not a candidate for renomination in 1824; resumed mercantile pursuits; died in Reading, Pa., July 15, 1828; interment in Oley Cemetery, Oley, Pa.

UNDERHILL, Charles Lee, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Richmond, Henrico County, Va., July 20, 1867; moved to Massachusetts with his parents, who settled in Somerville in 1872; attended the common schools; was office boy, coal teamster, and blacksmith, and subsequently became engaged in the manufacture and sale of hardware in Somerville, Middlesex County, Mass.; served in the State house of representatives 1902, 1903, 1908-1913, 1917, and 1918; member of the State constitutional convention in 1917 and 1918; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

UNDERHILL, Edwin Stewart, a Representative from New York; born in Bath, Steuben County, N. Y., October 7, 1861; attended the common schools of his native city and Haverling High School at Bath; was graduated from Yale College in 1881; engaged in journalism and became editor of the Steuben Farmers' Advocate; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Thurman in 1888; became editor and publisher of the Corning Daily Democrat (now the Corning Evening Leader) in 1899; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second and Sixty-third Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1915); was not a candidate for renomination in 1914; during the World War served as food administrator for Steuben County; engaged in banking, and is vice president of the Farmers & Mechanics' Trust Co., Bath, N. Y., where he resides.

UNDERHILL, John Quincy, a Representative from New York; born in New Rochelle, Westchester County, N. Y., February 19, 1848; attended private and public schools and the College of the City of New York; engaged in the insurance business; village trustee of New Rochelle in 1877; elected village president in 1878 and reelected in 1880; served as town auditor; member of the board of education for several years; connected with the Westchester Fire Insurance Co. for nineteen years and was serving as president and treasurer at the time of his death; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1899–March 3, 1901); was not a candidate for renomination in 1900; discontinued active business pursuits and lived in retirement; died in New Rochelle, N. Y., May 21, 1907; interment in Beechwoods Cemetery.

UNDERHILL, Walter, a Representative from New York; born in New York City September 12, 1795; completed preparatory studies; trustee of the house of refuge; treasurer of New York City for several years; served on the board of managers of the Society for the Reformation of Juvenile Delinquents in the city of New York 1845–1866, and was treasurer from 1857 to 1866, when he retired; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-first Congress (March 4, 1849–March 3, 1851); was not a candidate for renomination in 1850; president of the Mechanics & Traders' Insurance Co., New York City, from 1853 until his death in Whitestone, Long Island, N. Y., August 17, 1866; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City.

UNDERWOOD, John William Henderson, a Representative from Georgia; born in Ellenton, Ga., November 20, 1816; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1835, and commenced practice in Clarkesville, Ga.; solicitor general of the western judicial circuit of Georgia 1843–1847; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1850; delegate to the Democratic State convention in 1857; member of the State house of representatives 1857–1859 and served as speaker; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-sixth Congress, and served from March 4, 1859, to January 23, 1861, when he withdrew and joined the Confederacy; served as brigade inspector during the Civil War; resumed the practice of law in Rome, Ga.; judge of the Superior Court of Georgia 1867–1869 and 1878–1882; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York City in 1868; appointed by President Arthur in 1884 a member of the first United States Tariff Commission; died in Rome, Floyd County, Ga., July 18, 1888; interment in Myrtle Hill Cemetery.

UNDERWOOD, Joseph Rogers (brother of Warner Lewis Underwood and grandfather of Oscar Wilder Underwood), a Representative and a Senator from Kentucky; born in Goochland County, Va., October 24, 1791; moved to Barren County, Ky., in 1808 and lived with his uncle; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Transylvania College, Lexington, Ky., in 1811; studied law in Lexington; served in the War of 1812 as a Lieutenant in the Thirteenth Regiment Kentucky Infantry; was admitted to the bar in 1813 and commenced the practice of law in Glasgow, Ky.; served as town trustee and county auditor until 1823; member of the State house of representatives 1816–1819; moved to Bowling Green, Ky., in 1823; presidential elector on the Clay ticket in 1824; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1825 and 1826; unsuccessful Whig candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Kentucky in 1828; judge of the court of appeals 1828–1835; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fourth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1835–March 3, 1843); declined to be a candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Clay and Frelinghuysen in 1844; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1846 and served as speaker; elected as a Whig to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1847, to March 3, 1853; was not a candidate for reelection; again served in the State house of representatives in 1861; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1864; resumed the practice of law and also engaged in agricultural pursuits; died near Bowling Green, Ky., August 23, 1870; interment in Fairview Cemetery, Bowling Green, Ky.

UNDERWOOD, Mel Gilbert, a Representative from Ohio; born at Rose Farm, Morgan County, Ohio, January 30, 1892; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the New Lexington High School in 1911; taught in the public schools of New Lexington for several years; pursued a course of lectures on the law at the Ohio State University at Columbus, was admitted to the bar in 1915, and commenced practice in New Lexington, Perry County, Ohio; prosecuting attorney of Perry County 1917–1921; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for election in 1920 to the Sixty-seventh Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923–March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

UNDERWOOD, Oscar Wilder (grandson of Joseph Rogers Underwood), a Representative and a Senator from Alabama; born in Louisville, Jefferson County, Ky., May 6, 1862; attended the common schools, the Rugby School, Louisville, Ky., and the University of Virginia at Charlottesville; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1884, and commenced practice in Birmingham, Ala.; chairman of the Democratic executive committee for the ninth district in 1892; presented credentials as a Democratic Member elect to the Fifty-fourth Congress, and served from March 4, 1895, to June 9, 1896, when he was succeeded by Truman H. Aldrich, who contested his election; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth and to the eight succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1897–March 3, 1915); did not seek renomination in 1914, having become a candidate for Senator; chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means when the tariff act of 1913 was enacted into law; Democratic floor leader of the House of Representatives 1911–1915; elected to the United States Senate in 1914; reelected in 1920, and served from March 4, 1915, to March 3, 1927; declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1926; floor leader of his party in the Senate 1921–1923, and then declined reelection; represented the United States as a member of the Conference on Limitation of Armament in 1921 and 1922; represented the United States as a delegate to the Sixth International Conference of American States at Habana, Cuba, in 1928; retired to his estate, "Woodlawn Mansion," near Acotink, Fairfax County, Va., and engaged in literary pursuits; is a legal resident of Birmingham, Ala.

UNDERWOOD, Warner Lewis (brother of Joseph Rogers Underwood), a Representative from Kentucky; born in Goochland County, Va., August 7, 1808; completed preparatory studies; moved to Kentucky in 1825; was graduated from the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1829; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Bowling Green, Ky., in 1830; moved to Texas in 1834; attorney general for the eastern district of Texas; declined a position in General Houston's Cabinet; returned to Bowling Green, Ky., in 1840; member of the State house of representatives in 1848; served in the State senate 1849–1853; elected as the candidate of the American Party to the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1855–March 3, 1859); was not a candidate for renomination; United States consul to Glasgow, Scotland, from July 17, 1862, until September 30, 1864; returned to the United States and practiced law in San Francisco, Calif.; returned to Kentucky in 1868 and resumed the practice of law; died near Bowling Green, Ky., March 12, 1872; interment in Fairview Cemetery, Bowling Green, Ky.

UPDEGRAFF, Jonathan Taylor, a Representative from Ohio; born near Mount Pleasant, Jefferson County, Ohio, May 13, 1822; attended private schools and Franklin College; studied medicine, and was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1845 and later from medical schools in Edinburgh and Paris; practiced his profession, but devoted a large share of his time to agricultural pursuits; served as a surgeon in the Union Army during the Civil War; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Grant and Wilson in 1872; served in the State senate in 1872 and 1873; delegate to the Republican State convention in 1873 and to the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati in 1876; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh Congresses, and served from March 4, 1879, until his death in Mount Pleasant, Ohio, November 30, 1882; had been reelected to the Forty-eighth Congress; interment in Updegraff Cemetery, near Mount Pleasant, Ohio; reinterment in Short Creek Cemetery, west of Mount Pleasant, in 1923.

UPDEGRAFF, Thomas, a Representative from Iowa; born in Tloga County, Pa., April 8, 1834; attended private schools, the University of Notre Dame, Indiana, and an academy in Binghamton, N. Y.; clerk of the district court of Clayton County, Iowa, 1856-1860; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1860, and commenced practice in McGregor, Iowa; member of the State house of representatives in 1878; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1883); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1882 to the Forty-eighth Congress; member of the board of education and city solicitor of McGregor, Iowa; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1888; elected to the Fifty-third, Fifty-fourth, and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1899); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1898; engaged in the practice of his profession until his death in McGregor, Iowa, October 4, 1910; interment in Pleasant Grove Cemetery.

UPDIKE, Ralph Eugene, a Representative from Indiana; born in Brookville, Franklin County, Ind., May 27, 1894; attended the public schools of Whitcomb and Brookville, and Dodds Army and Navy Academy, at Washington, D. C.; during the World War served overseas as a sergeant with the Seventy-fourth Company, Sixth Regiment, Second Division, United States Marines; was five times wounded in action; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1916; was graduated from the law department of the University of Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1922 and commenced the practice of his profession in Indianapolis, Ind.; member of the State house of representatives 1923-1925; special judge of the city court of Indianapolis in 1923 and 1924; special judge of the superior court of Marion County in 1925 and 1926; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927.) Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

UPHAM, Charles Wentworth (cousin of George Baxter Upham and Jabez Upham), a Representative from Massachusetts; born in St. John, New Brunswick, Canada, May 4, 1802; served as an apothecary's apprentice; worked on a farm in Nova Scotia; emigrated to the United States in 1816 and settled in Boston, Mass.; was graduated from the theological department of Harvard University in 1821; was ordained to the ministry and officiated in Salem, Mass., 1824-1844; member of the State house of representatives 1840-1849; unsuccessful Whig candidate for election to the Thirty-second Congress; mayor of Salem, Mass., in 1832; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1853; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; member of the State senate in 1857 and 1858 and its president; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1859 and 1860; died in Salem, Mass., June 15, 1875; interment in Harmony Grove Cemetery.

UPHAM, George Baxter (brother of Jabez Upham and cousin of Charles Wentworth Upham), a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Brookfield, Mass., December 27, 1788; attended the common schools and Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H.; was graduated from Harvard University in 1789; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1792, and commenced practice in Claremont, N. H.; solicitor for Cheshire County 1796-1804; elected to the Seventh Congress (March 4, 1801-March 3, 1803); declined to be a candidate for reelection to the Eighth Congress; member of the State house of representatives 1804-1813 and again in 1815, and served as speaker of the house in 1809 and 1815; served in the State senate in 1814; resumed the practice of law and also interested in banking; died in Claremont, N. H., February 10, 1848; interment in the Pleasant Street Cemetery.

UPHAM, Jabez (brother of George Baxter Upham and cousin of Charles Wentworth Upham), a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Brookfield, Mass., August 23, 1764; was graduated from Harvard University in 1785; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Sturbridge, Mass.; moved to Claremont, N. H., and thence to Brookfield, Mass., where he continued the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives 1804-1806 and in 1811; elected to the Tenth and Eleventh Congresses, and served from March 4, 1807, until his resignation in 1810; died in Brookfield, Mass., November 8, 1811; interment in the New Cemetery, West Brookfield, Mass.

UPHAM, Nathaniel, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Deerfield, N. H., June 9, 1774; pursued classical studies and attended the Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H., in 1793; engaged in mercantile pursuits at Gilmanton in 1794, at Deerfield in 1796, at Portsmouth in 1801, and at Rochester in 1802 and afterwards; member of the State house of representatives 1807-1809; governor's counselor in 1811 and 1812; elected as a Democrat to the Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth Congresses (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1823); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1822 because of failing health; returned to Rochester, N. H., and became interested in educational work; died in Rochester, N. H., July 10, 1829; interment in the Old Rochester Cemetery.

UPHAM, William, a Senator from Vermont; born in Leicester, Mass., August 5, 1792; moved with his father to Montpelier, Vt., in 1802; attended the district schools, the Montpelier Academy, and was privately tutored; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1811, and commenced practice in Montpelier, Vt., in 1812; served in the State house of representatives in 1827 and 1828; State's attorney for Washington County in 1829; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1830; elected as a Whig to the United States Senate in 1843; reelected in 1849, and served from March 4, 1843, until his death in Washington, D. C., January 14, 1853; interment in the Congressional Cemetery.

UPSHAW, William David, a Representative from Georgia; born in Newnan, Coweta County, Ga., October 15, 1866; attended the country schools, the public schools of Atlanta, Ga., and Mercer University, Macon, Ga.; engaged in agricultural and mercantile pursuits until physically incapacitated by an accident; since then a writer and lecturer; founded the Golden Age at Atlanta, Ga., February 22, 1906; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1919–March 3, 1927); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in the Democratic primary election of 1926; resumed the lecture platform, and resides in Atlanta, Ga.

UPSON, Charles, a Representative from Michigan; born in Southington, Conn., March 19, 1821; attended the district and select schools of Southington; taught school in Farmington, Conn., 1840–1842; studied law at the Yale Law School in 1844; removed to Constantine, St. Joseph County, Mich., in 1845; taught school in 1846 and 1847; deputy county clerk of St. Joseph County in 1847; admitted to the bar in 1847 and commenced practice in Kalamazoo, Mich.; county clerk in 1848 and 1849; prosecuting attorney 1852–1854; member of the State senate in 1855 and 1856; moved to Coldwater, Mich., in 1856 and continued the practice of law; member of the State board of railroad commissioners in 1857; attorney general of Michigan in 1861 and 1862; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, and Fortieth Congresses (March 4, 1863–March 3, 1869); was not a candidate for renomination in 1868; judge of the fifteenth circuit court from 1869 until his resignation December 31, 1872; member of the commission to revise the State constitution in 1873; declined the position of Commissioner of Indian Affairs in 1878; mayor of the city of Coldwater in 1877; again a member of the State senate in 1880; retired from public life and resumed the practice of his profession; died in Coldwater, Mich., September 5, 1885; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.

UPSON, Christopher Columbus, a Representative from Texas; born near Syracuse, Onondaga County, N. Y., October 17, 1829; attended the common schools and Williams College, Williamston, Mass.; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1851, and commenced practice in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1851; moved to San Antonio, Tex., in 1854 and engaged in the practice of law; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army as a volunteer aide, with the rank of colonel, on the staff of Gen. W. H. C. Whiting; appointed by the Confederacy associate justice of Arizona in 1862; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Tilden and Hendricks in 1876; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Gustave Schleicher; reelected to the Forty-seventh Congress, and served from April 15, 1879, to March 3, 1883; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1882; resumed the practice of law in San Antonio, Tex., and died there February 8, 1902; interment in the Confederate Cemetery.

UPSON, William Hanford, a Representative from Ohio; born in Worthington, Franklin County, Ohio, January 11, 1823; attended Tallmadge Academy, pursued classical studies, and was graduated from Western Reserve College, Hudson, Ohio, in 1842; studied law one year in the law department of Yale College and in Painesville, Ohio, was admitted to the bar in 1845, and commenced practice in Akron, Ohio, in 1846; prosecuting attorney of Summit County 1848–1850; member of the State senate 1853–1855; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864 and at Cincinnati in 1876; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first and Forty-second Congresses (March 4, 1869–March 3, 1873); was not a candidate for renomination in 1872; appointed associate justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio in 1883; elected judge of the Circuit Court of Ohio in 1884 and served until 1894; resumed the practice of law; died in Akron, Summit County, Ohio, April 18, 1910; interment in Glendale Cemetery.

UPTON, Charles Horace, a Representative from Virginia; born in Salem, Mass. August 23, 1812; attended the public schools; was graduated from Bowdoin College at Brunswick, Me., in 1834; moved to Falls Church, Va., in 1836, and engaged in agricultural and literary pursuits; held several local offices; presented credentials as a Republican Member elect to the Thirty-seventh Congress under an election held on May 23, 1861, and served until February 27, 1862, when the House declared he was not entitled to the seat; appointed by President Lincoln in 1863 United States consul to Switzerland and served from July 9, 1863, until his death in Geneva, Switzerland, June 17, 1877; interment in Congressional Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

UBNER, Milton George (uncle of James Samuel Simmons), a Representative from Maryland; born in the Liberty district, Frederick County, Md., July 20, 1839; attended the common schools, Freeland Seminary, Montgomery County, Pa., and Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, Pa.; engaged in teaching in his native county 1859–1862; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1863, and commenced practice in Frederick, Md.; State's attorney for Frederick County 1871–1875; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Hayes and Wheeler in 1876; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1879–March 3, 1883); was not a candidate for renomination in 1882; resumed the practice of his profession in Frederick, Md.; became local attorney for the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. in 1887; member of the State senate 1888–1890; appointed naval officer at the port of Baltimore by President Harrison in 1890; engaged in banking and connected with various other business enterprises; trustee of several educational institutions; died in Frederick, Md., February 9, 1926; interment in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

UTTER, George Herbert, a Representative from Rhode Island; born in Plainfield, Union County, N. J., July 24, 1854; moved with his parents to Westerly, R. I., in 1861; attended the public schools of Westerly and Alfred (N. Y.) Academy; was graduated from Amherst College, Massachusetts, in 1877; engaged as a printer and newspaper publisher in Westerly, R. I.; personal aide on the staff of Gov. A. O. Bourn 1883–1885; member of the State house of representatives from 1885 to 1889, and served as speaker the last year; served in the State senate 1889–1891; secretary of state of Rhode Island 1891–1894; lieutenant governor in 1904; Governor of Rhode Island in 1905 and 1906; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second Congress, and served from March 4, 1911, until his death in Westerly, Washington County, R. I., November 8, 1912; interment in Riverbend Cemetery.

VAIL, George, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Morristown, Morris County, N. J., July 21, 1809; completed preparatory studies; attended Morris Academy at Morristown; engaged in the manufacture of telegraph instruments; member of the State general assembly in 1843 and 1844; appointed by the Governor of New Jersey to represent the State at the World's Fair in London, England, in 1851; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1850 to the Thirty-second Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1853–March 3, 1857); appointed on February

2, 1868, by President James Buchanan; United States consul to Glasgow, Scotland, and served until August 10, 1861; returned to the United States and settled in Morristown, N. J., where he engaged in literary pursuits; member of the court of pardons; judge of the New Jersey Court of Errors and Appeals 1865-1871; retired from public life; died in Morristown, N. J., May 23, 1875; interment in the First Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

VAIL, Henry, a Representative from New York; born near Milbrook, Dutchess County, N. Y., in 1782; received a limited schooling; engaged in the retail mercantile business 1806-1815 and in wholesale mercantile pursuits 1815-1882; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1839); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1838 for the Twenty-sixth Congress; resumed his former business pursuits in Troy, Rensselaer County, N. Y., and died there June 25, 1858; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

VAILE, William Newell, a Representative from Colorado; born in Kokomo, Howard County, Ind., June 22, 1876; moved with his parents to Denver, Colo., in 1881; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Yale University in 1898; during the Spanish-American War served as a private in the First Regiment of the Connecticut Volunteer Field Artillery from May 19, 1898, to October 25, 1898; studied law at the University of Colorado and Harvard Law School, was admitted to the bar in 1901, and commenced the practice of law in Denver, Colo.; served on the Mexican border from June 23 to December 1, 1916, as a second lieutenant in the First Separate Battalion, National Guard of Colorado; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1919, until his death in Rocky Mountain National Park, Colo., July 2, 1927; interment in Fairmount Cemetery, Denver, Colo.

VALENTINE, Edward Kimble, a Representative from Nebraska; born in Keosauqua, Van Buren County, Iowa, June 1, 1843; attended the common schools; learned the trade of a printer; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army and served in the Sixty-seventh Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry; promoted to second lieutenant and honorably discharged; in the spring of 1863 reenlisted as a private in the Seventh Iowa Volunteer Cavalry; promoted to adjutant of the regiment and served until June, 1866, having been twice brevetted for "efficient and meritorious services"; settled in Omaha, Nebr., in 1866; appointed register of the United States land office at West Point, Nebr., and served from May 17, 1869, to September 30, 1871; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1869, and commenced practice at West Point, Nebr.; elected judge of the sixth judicial district in 1875; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, and Forty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1885); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1884; Sergeant-at-Arms of the United States Senate from June 30, 1890, to August 6, 1898; resumed the practice of law in West Point, Nebr.; discontinued the practice of his profession in 1908 and moved to Chicago, Ill., and lived in retirement until his death on April 11, 1916; interment in Oakwood Cemetery; reinterment in Union Ridge Cemetery, Norwood Park, Ill.

VALK, William Weightman, a Representative from New York; born in Charleston, S. C., October 12, 1806; attended the local school and was graduated from the University of South Carolina at Columbia in 1830; studied medicine and commenced practice in Bridgeport, Conn.; served as assistant surgeon on the U. S. frigate Constitution; went to California about 1849 during the gold rush; finally settled in Flushing, Long Island, N. Y., and continued the practice of medicine until elected to Congress; elected as a candidate of the American Party to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1856 to the Thirty-fifth Congress; during the Civil War was surgeon in the Second Regiment Maryland Volunteer Infantry; appointed a clerk in the United States Pension Office at Washington, D. C., in 1867 and served until his death in that city September 20, 1879; interment in Flushing Cemetery, Flushing, Queens County, N. Y.

VALLANDIGHAM, Clement Laird (uncle of John A. McMahon), a Representative from Ohio; born in New Lisbon, Columbiana County, Ohio, July 20, 1820; attended a classical school conducted by his father and Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa.; moved to Maryland and for two years was a preceptor in Union Academy at Snow Hill; moved to New Lisbon, Ohio, in 1840; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1842, and commenced practice in Dayton, Ohio; member of the State house of representatives in 1845 and 1846; edited the Western Empire 1847-1849; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1854 to the Thirty-fourth Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1856; successfully contested as a Democrat the election of Lewis D. Campbell to the Thirty-fifth Congress; reelected to the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Congresses, and served from May 25, 1858, to March 3, 1868; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1862 to the Thirty-eighth Congress; arrested by the Union military authorities in 1863 for treasonable utterance and banished to the Confederate States; went from Wilmington, N. C., to Bermuda and thence to Canada, where he remained until June, 1864; during his exile was an unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio in 1863; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1864 which nominated McClellan and Pendleton and at New York City in 1868 which nominated Seymour and Blair; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1868; died in Lebanon, Warren County, Ohio, June 17, 1871; interment in Woodland Cemetery, Dayton, Ohio.

VAN AERNAM, Henry, a Representative from New York; born in Marcellus, Onondaga County, N. Y., March 11, 1819; pursued an academic course; studied medicine at the Geneva and Willoughby Medical Colleges and practiced his profession; member of the State assembly in 1858; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as a surgeon in the One hundred and Fifty-fourth Regiment New York Volunteer Infantry from September 28, 1862, to November 5, 1864; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congresses (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1869); appointed Commissioner of Pensions on May 1, 1869, and served until May 31, 1871, when he resigned; elected to the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1883); resumed the practice of medicine in Franklinville, Cattaraugus County, N. Y., and died there June 1, 1894; interment in Mount Prospect Cemetery.

VAN ALEN, James Isaac (half brother of Martin Van Buren), a Representative from New York; born in Kinderhook, Columbia County, N. Y., in 1776; attended the common schools; city clerk of Kinderhook 1797-1801; member of the State constitutional conventions in 1801 and 1803; justice of the peace 1801-1804; member of the State assembly in 1804; surrogate of Columbia County 1804-1806 and 1815-1822; elected as a Federalist to the Tenth Congress (March 4, 1807-March 3, 1809); died in Newburgh, N. Y., December 23, 1870; interment in Kinderhook Cemetery, Kinderhook, N. Y.

VAN ALEN, John Evert, a Representative from New York; born in Kinderhook, Columbia County, N. Y., in 1749; completed preparatory studies; moved to De Freestville in 1778 and engaged in extensive farming operations; surveyed the town of Greenbush in 1790 and conducted a general store there; engaged in civil engineering and surveying; assistant court justice in Rensselaer County in 1791; elected to the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Congresses and served from March 4, 1793 to March 3, 1799; member of the State assembly in 1800 and 1801; died in March, 1807.

VAN ALSTYNE, Thomas Jefferson, a Representative from New York; born in Richmondville, Schoharie County, N. Y., July 25, 1827; attended the common schools, Moravia (N. Y.) Academy, and Hartwick (N. Y.) Seminary, and was graduated from Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., in 1848; studied law in Albany, N. Y., was admitted to the bar in 1849, and commenced practice in that city; served as judge advocate with the rank of major during the Civil War; judge of Albany County 1871-1882; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress; resumed the practice of law; mayor of Albany, N. Y., 1898-1900; died in that city October 28, 1903; interment in the Rural Cemetery.

VAN AUKEN, Daniel Myers, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Montague, Sussex County, N. J., January 15, 1826; attended the common schools and Deckertown Academy; was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1852; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1855, and commenced practice in Milford, Pa.; prosecuting attorney of Pike County 1855-1859; elected as a Democrat to the Fortieth and Forty-first Congresses (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1871); was not a candidate for reelection in 1870; resumed the practice of law in Milford, Pa.; served as district attorney of Pike County, Pa., 1898-1899 and 1899-1903; continued the practice of law until his death in Milford, Pike County, Pa., November 7, 1908; interment in the Milford Cemetery.

VAN BUREN, John, a Representative from New York; born in Kingston, Ulster County, N. Y., May 13, 1799; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Kingston, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1831; judge of Ulster County 1836-1841; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); resumed the practice of law; district attorney of Ulster County 1846-1850; died in Kingston, N. Y., January 16, 1855; interment in the Old Houghtaling Cemetery.

VAN BUREN, Martin (half brother of James Isaac Van Alen), a Senator from New York and a Vice President and a President of the United States; born in Kinderhook, Columbia County, N. Y., December 5, 1782; attended the district schools and Kinderhook Academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar in New York City, and commenced practice in Kinderhook, N. Y., in 1803; moved to Hudson, N. Y., in 1809; surrogate of Columbia County 1808-1813; member of the State senate 1813-1820; attorney general of New York 1815-1819; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1821; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate; reelected in 1827, and served from March 4, 1821, until December 20, 1828, when he resigned, having been elected governor; served as Governor of New York from January 1 to March 12, 1829, when he resigned to enter the Cabinet; appointed Secretary of State in the Cabinet of President Andrew Jackson, and served from March 28, 1829, until his resignation, effective May 28, 1831, when he was commissioned minister to Great Britain; the Senate rejected his nomination on January 25, 1832, and he returned to the United States; elected, as a Democrat, Vice President of the United States on the ticket with Andrew Jackson, and served from March 4, 1833, to March 8, 1837; elected, as a Democrat, President of the United States, and served from March 4, 1837, to March 3, 1841; unsuccessful candidate for reelection as President on the Democratic ticket in 1840 and on the Free-Soil ticket in 1848; withdrew from political life and retired to his country home, "Lindenwald," in Kinderhook, N. Y., where he died on July 24, 1862; interment in Kinderhook Cemetery.

VANCE, John Luther, a Representative from Ohio; born in Gallipolis, Gallia County, Ohio, July 19, 1839; attended the public schools and Gallia Academy, Ohio; was graduated from the Cincinnati Law School in April, 1861, and was admitted to the bar the same year; during the Civil War enlisted in April, 1861, in the Union Army and served successively as captain, major, and Lieutenant colonel in the Fourth Regiment West Virginia Volunteer Infantry; mustered out in December, 1864; established and published the Gallipolis Bulletin in 1867; commenced the practice of law in Gallipolis, Ohio, in 1870; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1872; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; resumed his former newspaper pursuits; president of the Ohio River Improvement Association from shortly after 1877 until his death; died in Gallipolis, Ohio, June 10, 1921; interment in the Pine Street Cemetery.

VANCE, Joseph, a Representative from Ohio; born in Catfish (now the city of Washington), Washington County, Pa., March 21, 1786; moved with his father to Vanceburg, Ky., in 1788 and thence to Urbana, Ohio in 1805; and engaged in agricultural pursuits; captain of a rifle company in 1811 and 1812; during the War of 1812 served successively as major, colonel, brigadier general, and major general of Ohio Militia; member of the State house of representatives in 1812, 1813, 1815, 1816, 1818, and 1819; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1820; engaged in mercantile pursuits at Urbana and Perrysburg, Ohio; laid out the city of Findlay in Hancock County; elected as a Democrat to the Seventeenth and to the six succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1835); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1834 to the Twenty-fourth Congress; Governor of Ohio 1836-1838; member of the State senate 1840-1841; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1847); was not a candidate for renomination in 1846; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Philadelphia in 1848; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1851; retired from public life and active business pursuits; died near Urbana, Champaign County, Ohio, August 24, 1852; interment in Oak Dale Cemetery.

VANCE, Robert Brank (uncle of Zebulon Baird Vance), a Representative from North Carolina; born on Reems Creek near Asheville, Buncombe County, N. C., in 1793; attended the common schools and Newton Academy, Asheville, N. C.; studied medicine at the medical school of Dr. Charles Harris in Cabarrus County, N. C.; commenced the practice of medicine in Asheville, N. C., in 1818; held several local offices; elected as a Democrat to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1825); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1824 to the Nineteenth Congress and for election in 1826 to the Twentieth Congress; was mortally wounded by Hon. Samuel P. Carson, the successful candidate, who challenged him to a duel, fought at Saluda Gap, N. C., because of a derogatory remark made during the campaign of 1826, to the effect that the latter's father had turned Tory in the Revolutionary War; died the following day near Saluda Gap, N. C., 1827; interment in the family burial ground on Reems Creek, near Asheville, Buncombe County, N. C.

VANCE, Robert Brank (nephew of the preceding and brother of Zebulon Baird Vance), a Representative from North Carolina; born on Reems Creek, near Asheville, Buncombe County, N. C., April 24, 1823; attended the common schools; engaged in mercantile and agricultural pursuits; clerk of the court of pleas and quarter sessions 1848-1856; during the Civil War was elected captain of a company in the Confederate Army; twice elected colonel of the Twenty-ninth North Carolina Regiment; appointed brigadier general in 1863; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress; United States Assistant Commissioner of Patents from April 11, 1885, to April 4, 1889, when he resigned; retired from public life; returned to North Carolina and settled in Alexander; member of the State house of representatives 1894-1896; died in Alexander, near Asheville, N. C., November 28, 1899; interment in Riverside Cemetery, Asheville, N. C.

VANCE, Robert Johnstone, a Representative from Connecticut; born in New York City March 15, 1854; attended the common schools; moved to New Britain, Conn., in 1870; attended the high school; city clerk of New Britain from 1878 until his resignation in 1887, having been elected a Representative; engaged in newspaper work and became editor and publisher of the New Britain Herald in 1881; member of the State house of representatives in 1886; elected as a Democrat to the Fifteenth Congress (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1889); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1888 to the Fifty-first Congress; resumed his former business pursuits; labor commissioner of Connecticut 1893-1895; mayor of New Britain, Conn., in 1896 and 1897; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1902; died in Montreat, Buncombe County, N. C., whither he had gone in search of better health, June 15, 1902; interment in Fairview Cemetery, New Britain, Conn.

VANCE, Zebulon Baird (brother of Robert Brank Vance), a Representative and a Senator from North Carolina; born on Reems Creek, near Asheville, Buncombe County, N. C., May 13, 1830; attended the common schools of Buncombe County, Washington College, Tennessee, and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1852, and commenced practice in Asheville, N. C.; elected prosecuting attorney of Buncombe County in 1852; member of the State house of commons in 1854; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas L. Clingman; reelected to the Thirty-sixth Congress, and served from December 7, 1858, to March 3, 1861; during the Civil War entered the Confederate Army as captain in May, 1861, and was promoted to the rank of colonel in August, 1861; Governor of North Carolina 1862-1866; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York City in 1868 which nominated Seymour and Blair; elected to the United States Senate in November, 1870, but did not present his credentials; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1872; again Governor of North Carolina 1876-1878; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate; reelected in 1884 and 1890, and served from March 4, 1879, until his death in Washington, D. C., April 14, 1894; interment in Riverside Cemetery, Asheville, N. C.

VAN CORTLANDT, Philip (brother of Pierre Van Cortlandt, jr.), a Representative from New York; born in New York City August 21, 1749; pursued classical studies; attended Coldenham Academy and was graduated from King's College (now Columbia University) in 1768; engaged as civil engineer; member of the Provincial Congress in 1775; during the War of the Revolution served as lieutenant colonel and was mustered out of the service with the rank of brigadier general for gallant conduct at the siege of Yorktown under General Lafayette; delegate to the State convention which adopted the Federal Constitution in 1788; served as supervisor of the town of Cortland, and as school commissioner and road master; member of the State assembly 1788-1790; served in the State senate 1791-1798; elected as a Democrat to the Third and to the seven succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1793-March 3, 1809); engaged in agricultural pursuits; accompanied General Lafayette on his tour through the United States in 1831; charter member of the Society of the Cincinnati; died at Van Cortlandt Manor, Croton on Hudson, Westchester County, N. Y., November 1, 1831; interment in Hillside Cemetery, Peekskill, N. Y.

VAN CORTLANDT, Pierre, Jr. (brother of Philip Van Cortlandt), a Representative from New York; born at Van Cortlandt Manor, Croton, Westchester County, N. Y., August 29, 1702; pursued classical studies; was graduated from Queen's College (now Rutgers College), New Brunswick, N. J., in 1788; studied law in the office of Alexander Hamilton, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; retired from his law practice and devoted his time managing his estate in Westchester County; presidential elector on the Jefferson ticket in 1800; member of the State assembly in 1811 and 1812; elected as a Democrat to the Twelfth Congress (March 4, 1811-March 3, 1813); presidential elector on the Harrison ticket in 1840; founded and was president of the Westchester County Bank at Peekskill, N. Y., from 1833 until his death in that city on July 13, 1848; interment in Hillside Cemetery.

VANDERPOEL, Aaron, a Representative from New York; born in Kinderhook, Columbia County, N. Y., February 5, 1799; pursued classical studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1820, and commenced practice in Kinderhook, N. Y.; member of the State assembly 1820-1830; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1837); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1836 to the Twenty-fifth Congress; elected to the Twenty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1841); retired from political life and settled in New York City; judge of the superior court 1842-1850; died in New York City July 18, 1870; interment in the Presbyterian Church Cemetery; reinterment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

VANDERVEER, Abraham, a Representative from New York; born in Kings County, N. Y., in 1781; attended the common schools; county clerk of Kings County 1816-1821 and 1822-1837; upon its organization was elected treasurer of the Brooklyn Savings Bank; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1839); was not a candidate for renomination in 1838; died in Brooklyn, N. Y., July 21, 1839; interment in the Reformed Dutch Cemetery.

VANDEVER, William, a Representative from Iowa and from California; born in Baltimore, Md., March 31, 1817; attended the common schools and pursued an academic course; moved to Illinois in 1839 and to Iowa in 1851; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1852, and commenced practice in Dubuque, Iowa; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Congresses, and served from March 4, 1859, to September 24, 1861, when he was mustered into the Union Army as colonel of the Ninth Regiment Iowa Volunteer Infantry, never having resigned his seat in Congress; promoted to brigadier general of Volunteers in 1862 and brevetted a major general in 1865; member of the peace convention of 1861 held in Washington, D. C., in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; resumed the practice of law in Dubuque, Iowa; appointed United States Indian inspector by President Grant in 1873, and served until 1877; moved to San Buenaventura, Calif., in 1884; elected as a Republican from California to the Fifteenth and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1891); was not a candidate for renomination in 1890; retired from public life; died in Ventura, Ventura County, Calif., July 23, 1893; interment in Ventura Cemetery.

VANDIVER, Willard Duncan, a Representative from Missouri; born near Moorefield, Hardy County, Va. (now West Virginia), March 30, 1854; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Central College, Fayette, Mo., in 1877; studied law; elected professor of natural science in Bellevue Institute, Caledonia, Mo., and later became its president; accepted the chair of science in the State normal school at Cape Girardeau, Mo., in 1880, and became its president in 1893; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1905); was not a candidate for renomination in 1904; chairman State executive committee in 1904; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1904 which nominated Alton B. Parker for President and Henry G. Davis for Vice President; State insurance commissioner of Missouri 1905-1909; delegate to the Democratic State conventions in 1890, 1898, 1918, and 1920 and served as chairman in 1918; vice president of the Central States Life Insurance Co. 1910-1912; Assistant Treasurer of the United States 1913-1921; president of the Missouri Society Sons of the American Revolution 1919-1921; traveled abroad in 1922; engaged in agricultural pursuits and lecturing; is a resident of Columbia, Boone County, Mo.

VAN DUZER, Clarence Dunn, a Representative from Nevada; born near Mountain City, Nev., on May 4, 1866; attended the public schools; was graduated from the State University of Nevada at Reno in 1889, and from the law department of Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., in 1893; was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia in 1893; appointed by the Governor of Nevada in 1892 State land agent with residence in Washington, D. C.; served as private secretary to Senator Francis G. Newlands for five years; returned to Nevada and became interested in mining; elected district attorney of Humboldt County in 1898; member of the State house of representatives in 1900 and served as speaker; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1907); was not a candidate for renomination in 1906; is engaged in newspaper work, and is a resident of Passaic, N. J.

VAN DYKE, Carl Chester, a Representative from Minnesota; born in Alexandria, Douglas County, Minn., February 18, 1881; attended the common and high schools of Alexandria; taught school in Douglas County 1899-1901; during the Spanish-American War served as a private in Company B, Fifteenth Regiment Minnesota Volunteer Infantry; was graduated from the St. Paul Law School; was admitted to the bar at St. Paul in 1916, but did not engage in extensive practice; was elected commander in chief of the United Spanish War Veterans on September 6, 1918, and served until his death; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, and Sixty-sixth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1915, until his death in Washington, D. C., May 20, 1919; interment in a mausoleum in Forest Cemetery, St. Paul, Minn.

VAN DYKE, John, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Lamington, Somerset County, N. J., April 3, 1807; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1836, and commenced practice in New Brunswick, N. J.; prosecuting attorney of Middlesex County in 1841; mayor of New Brunswick in 1846 and 1847; president of the Bank of New Jersey at New Brunswick; elected as a Whig to the Thirtieth and Thirty-first Congresses (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1851); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1850; resumed the practice of law; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1856 which nominated Fremont and Dayton; judge of the New Jersey Supreme Court 1859-1866; moved to Minnesota in 1868 and settled in Wabasha, Wabasha County; member of the State senate in 1872 and 1873; judge of the third judicial district of Minnesota 1873-1878; died in Wabasha, Minn., December 24, 1878; interment in Riverview Cemetery.

VAN DYKE, Nicholas, a Delegate from Delaware; born in New Castle County, Del., September 25, 1788; studied law in Philadelphia, Pa., was admitted to the bar in 1785, and commenced practice in New Castle County; delegate to the State constitutional convention in July, 1778; elected a member of the Council of Delaware in 1777, and served as its speaker in 1779; appointed judge of admiralty February 21, 1777; Member of the Continental Congress 1777-1782; a signer of the Articles of Confederation; served as President of Delaware from February 1, 1788, to October 27, 1788; died in New Castle County, Del., February 19, 1789; interment on his farm in Red Lion Hundred, New Castle County; reinterment in Immanuel Churchyard, New Castle, Del.

VAN DYKE, Nicholas (son of the preceding), a Representative and a Senator from Delaware; born in New Castle, Del., December 20, 1769; was graduated from Princeton College in 1788; studied law, was admitted to the bar in New Castle, Del., in 1792, and practiced; member of the State house of representatives in 1799; elected as a Federalist to the Tenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James M. Broom; reelected to the Eleventh Congress, and served from October 6, 1807, to March 3, 1811; served in the State senate 1815-1817; elected to the United States Senate in 1817; reelected in 1823, and served from March 4, 1817, until his death in New Castle, Del., May 21, 1826; interment in Immanuel Churchyard.

VAN EATON, Henry Smith, a Representative from Mississippi; born in Anderson Township, Hamilton County, Ohio, September 14, 1826; was graduated from Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill., in 1848; moved to Woodville, Miss., in 1848; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1855, and commenced practice in Woodville, Wilkinson County; elected district attorney in 1857; member of the State house of representatives in 1859; enlisted in the Confederate Army and served throughout the Civil War; resumed the practice of law in Woodville, Miss., in 1865; appointed chancellor of the tenth Mississippi district in 1880; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1887); appointed by President Cleveland a member of the Board of Visitors to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis in 1887; member of a commission to examine and report upon the last completed portion of the Northern Pacific Railroad in 1888; died in Woodville, Wilkinson County, Miss., on May 30, 1898; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

VAN GAASBECK, Peter, a Representative from New York; born in Ulster County, N. Y., September 27, 1754; attended the grammar schools of the period and became a man of prominence in the county and State; engaged in mercantile pursuits at Kingston, N. Y.; was a captain and major in the Ulster County Militia during the Revolutionary War; elected as an Anti-Federalist to the Third Congress (March 4, 1798–March 3, 1795); died in Kingston, N. Y., in 1797; interment in the First Reformed Dutch Churchyard.

VAN HORN, Burt, a Representative from New York; born in Newfane, Niagara County, N. Y., October 28, 1823; was raised on a farm; attended the common schools, Yates Academy in Orleans County, Hamilton College (now Colgate University), Hamilton, N. Y.; engaged in agricultural pursuits in Niagara County, and later in the manufacture of cloth; member of the State assembly 1858–1860; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861–March 3, 1863); elected to the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congresses (March 4, 1865–March 3, 1869); was not a candidate for re-nomination in 1868; moved to Lockport, N. Y., in 1867; resumed farming and also engaged in the loaning of money; collector of internal revenue at Rochester, N. Y., 1877–1882; died in Lockport, N. Y., April 1, 1896; interment in Glenwood Cemetery.

VAN HORN, George, a Representative from New York; born in Otsego, Otsego County, N. Y., February 5, 1850; attended the common schools, the Cooperstown Seminary, and the New Berlin Academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar in February, 1871, and practiced in Cooperstown, N. Y.; elected clerk of Otsego County in 1881 and reelected in 1884; elected supervisor of Otsego, and twice reelected; member of the Democratic county committee; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891–March 3, 1893); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress; engaged in banking, and was vice president of the Second National Bank of Cooperstown, N. Y., until his death there on May 3, 1904; interment in Lakewood Cemetery.

VAN HORN, Robert Thompson, a Representative from Missouri; born in East Mahoning, Indiana County, Pa., May 19, 1824; attended the common schools; apprenticed to a printer; moved to Ohio in 1844 and settled in Pomeroy; studied law, was admitted to the bar about 1850, and commenced practice in Pomeroy, Ohio; moved to Kansas City, Mo., in 1855; member of the board of aldermen in 1857; postmaster of Kansas City 1857–1861; established and edited the Kansas City Journal; elected mayor of Kansas City in 1861 and again in 1864; enlisted in the Union Army during the Civil War and served as lieutenant colonel of the Twenty-fifth Regiment Missouri Volunteer Infantry; member of the State senate 1862–1864; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-ninth, Fortieth, and Forty-first Congresses (March 4, 1865–March 3, 1871); was not a candidate for renomination in 1870; chairman of the Republican State central committee 1874–1876; collector of internal revenue for the sixth district of Missouri 1876–1881; delegate to the Republican National Conventions in 1864, 1868, 1872, 1876, 1880, and 1884; member of the Republican National Committee in 1872 and 1884; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1881–March 3, 1883); successfully contested the election of John C. Tarsney to the Fifty-fourth Congress, and served from February 27, 1896, to March 3, 1897; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1896; retired from editorship of the Kansas City Journal in 1897; died on his estate, "Honeywood," at Evanston station, near Kansas City, Mo., January 3, 1916; interment in Mount Washington Cemetery, Kansas City, Mo.

VAN HORNE, Archibald, a Representative from Maryland; appointed adjutant of the Fourteenth Regiment of the Maryland Militia April 18, 1798; commissioned captain May 26, 1802; member of the State house of delegates 1801–1808 and 1805, and served as speaker in the latter year; resigned November 11, 1805; elected to the Tenth and Eleventh Congresses (March 4, 1807–March 3, 1811); again a member of the State house of delegates 1814–1816; elected to the State senate in 1816, and served until his death in Prince Georges County, Md., in 1817.

VAN HORNE, Espy, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Lycoming County, Pa., in 1795; elected as a Democrat to the Nineteenth and Twentieth Congresses (March 4, 1825–March 3, 1829); died in Williamsport, Pa., August 25, 1829.

VAN HORNE, Isaac, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Tollbury Township, Bucks County, Pa., January 18, 1754; apprenticed as a carpenter and cabinetmaker; elected ensign of a company of militia in 1775; appointed ensign in the Continental Army by the committee of safety, and in January, 1776, was assigned to Capt. John Beatty's company in Col. Samuel McGaw's regiment; held as a prisoner of war from November, 1776, to May, 1778, when he was exchanged; served as first lieutenant, captain lieutenant, and captain until the close of the Revolutionary War; justice of the peace for Tollbury Township for several years; coroner of Bucks County four years; member of the State house of representatives in 1790 and 1797; declined to be a candidate for reelection; elected as a Democrat to the Seventh and Eighth Congresses (March 4, 1801–March 3, 1805); moved to Zanesville, Muskingum County, Ohio, in 1805; receiver of the land office at Zanesville from 1805 to December, 1820, when he resigned; died in Zanesville, Ohio, February 2, 1834; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

VAN HOUTEN, Isaac B., a Representative from New York; born in Clarkstown (now New City), Rockland County, N. Y., June 4, 1776; attended the common schools; engaged in milling and agricultural pursuits; member of the State assembly 1833–1835; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-third Congress (March 4, 1833–March 3, 1835); resumed his former business pursuits; died in Clarkstown (now New City), N. Y., August 16, 1850; interment in the family burying ground on his estate near Clarkstown.

VANMETER, John Inskeep, a Representative from Ohio; born near Moorefield, Hardy County, Va. (now West Virginia), in February, 1798; attended William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., and was graduated from Princeton College, New Jersey, in 1821; studied law at the school of Judge Gould in Litchfield, Conn., was admitted to the bar of Virginia in 1822, and commenced practice in Moorefield, Va.; member of the Virginia House of Delegates in 1824; retired from practice; moved to Pike County, Ohio, in 1826 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives in 1836; served in the State senate in 1838; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843–March 3, 1845); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1844 to the Twenty-ninth Congress; affiliated with the Democratic Party in 1856; moved to Chillicothe, Ross County, Ohio, in 1855, and resided there until his death on August 8, 1875; interment in Grand View Cemetery.

VAN NESS, John Peter, a Representative from New York; born in Ghent (formerly Claverly), Columbia County, N. Y., in 1770; completed preparatory studies and attended Columbia College, New York City; studied law and was admitted to the bar, but never practiced; Democratic presidential elector in 1800 and cast his vote for Jefferson and Burr; elected as a Democrat to the Seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Bird, and served from October 6, 1801, to January 17, 1803, when his seat was declared forfeited, as he had accepted and exercised the office of major of militia in the District of Columbia bestowed on him by President Jefferson; he then made Washington his home; president of the second council in 1803; promoted to the rank of Lieutenant colonel commandant of the first legion of militia in 1805, brigadier general in 1811, and major general in 1813; alderman of the city of Washington in 1829; mayor 1830-1834; second vice president of the Washington National Monument Society in 1833; president of the commissioners of the Washington Canal in 1834; president of the branch bank of the United States at Washington, D. C.; first president of the National Metropolitan Bank from 1814 until his death in Washington, D. C., March 7, 1846; interment in a mausoleum at Oak Hill Cemetery.

VAN RENSSELAER, Henry Bell (son of Stephen Van Rensselaer), a Representative from New York; born at the Manor House in Albany, N. Y., May 14, 1810; was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1831; commissioned brevet second Lieutenant of the Fifth Regiment United States Infantry July 1, 1831, and resigned January 27, 1832; engaged in agricultural pursuits near Ogdensburg, N. Y.; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); was associated with mining enterprises; upon the outbreak of the Civil War reentered the military service with the rank of brigadier general in the Union Army and was appointed chief of staff under Gen. Winfield Scott; served as inspector general with the rank of colonel from 1862 until his death; died in Cincinnati, Ohio, March 23, 1864; interment in Grace Episcopal Churchyard, Jamaica, Long Island, N. Y.

VAN RENSSELAER, Jeremiah (father of Solomon Van Vechten Van Rensselaer and cousin of Killian Killian Van Rensselaer), a Representative from New York; born in that State August 27, 1738; completed preparatory studies at the manor house, "Rensselaerswyck," and in private schools in Albany; was graduated from Princeton College in 1758; took an active interest in the Revolutionary War and was a member of the Albany Committee of Safety; elected to the First Congress (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1791); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1790 to the Second Congress; member of the New York State Assembly in 1789; member of the first board of directors of the Bank of Albany in 1792 and president of that bank 1798-1806; Democratic presidential elector in 1800 and cast his vote for Jefferson and Burr; Lieutenant Governor of New York 1801-1804; curator of the Evangelical Lutheran Seminary at Albany in 1804; died in Albany, N. Y., February 19, 1810; interment in the Dutch Reformed Cemetery.

VAN RENSSELAER, Killian Killian (cousin of Jeremiah Van Rensselaer and uncle of Solomon Van Vechten Van Rensselaer), a Representative from New York; born in Greenbush, Rensselaer County, N. Y., June 9, 1763; completed preparatory studies and attended Yale College; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1784, and commenced practice in Claverack, N. Y.; private secretary to Gen. Philip Schuyler; elected as a Democrat to the Seventh and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1801-March 3, 1811); resumed the practice of law; died in Albany, N. Y., June 18, 1846; interment in a private cemetery at Greenbush, N. Y.

VAN RENSSELAER, Solomon Van Vechten (son of Jeremiah Van Rensselaer and nephew of Killian Killian Van Rensselaer), a Representative from New York; born in Greenbush, Rensselaer County, N. Y., August 6, 1774; completed preparatory studies; entered the United States Army; was promoted to captain of a volunteer company, and later, on January 8, 1799, to major; was mustered out in June, 1800; adjutant general of State militia in 1801, 1810, and 1813; served in the War of 1812 as Lieutenant colonel of New York Volunteers; elected as a Federalist to the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1819, to January 14, 1822, when he resigned; postmaster of Albany, N. Y., 1822-1830 and 1841-1843; delegate from New York at the opening of the Erie Canal November 4, 1825; died near Albany, N. Y., April 23, 1852; interment in the North Dutch Church Cemetery, Albany, N. Y.; reinterment in the Albany Rural Cemetery.

VAN RENSSELAER, Stephen (father of Henry Bell Van Rensselaer), a Representative from New York; born in New York City November 1, 1764; completed preparatory studies and attended Princeton College; was graduated from Harvard University in 1782; major of militia in 1786, colonel in 1788, and major general in 1801; member of the State assembly 1789-1791, 1798, and 1818; served in the State senate 1791-1796; elected Lieutenant Governor of New York in 1795; served as major general of Volunteers in the War of 1812; member of the canal commission 1816-1839, and served fourteen years as its president; member of the State constitutional convention in 1821; founded the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy in 1824; was a supporter of John Quincy Adams and was elected to the Seventeenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Solomon Van Vechten Van Rensselaer; reelected to the Eighteenth, Nineteenth, and Twentieth Congresses, and served from February 27, 1822, to March 3, 1829; was not a candidate for reelection; devoted his time to landed interests and to educational and public welfare matters; regent of the University of New York 1819-1839; died in Albany, N. Y., January 26, 1839; interment in the family burying ground; reinterment in the Albany Rural Cemetery.

VAN SANT, Joshua, a Representative from Maryland; born in Millington, Kent County, Md., December 31, 1803; moved with his parents to Wilmington, Del., in 1807 and to Philadelphia, Pa., in 1812; attended the common schools; moved to Baltimore, Md.; engaged in hat making in 1817, became journeyman, and continued at that trade until 1835; unsuccessful candidate as a Jackson Democrat to the State house of delegates in 1833 and 1834; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1836; postmaster of Baltimore 1839-1841; member of the State house of delegates in 1845; commissioner of Baltimore finances March 1, 1846, to March 1, 1855; trustee of the city and county almshouse 1847-1853 and in 1861; commissioner of public schools 1852-1854, and served as president in 1854; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Breckinridge and Lane in 1860; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1867; director of the Maryland State Penitentiary 1867-1869, serving two years as president; member of the board of trustees of the McDonough Educational Fund and Institute 1867-1871, serving as president in 1871; member and president of the board for Bay View Asylum 1868-1870; mayor of Baltimore 1871-1875; declined to be a candidate for renomination; appointed city comptroller of Baltimore in July, 1876, and served until January, 1881; was afterwards elected to that office, and served until his death in Baltimore, Md., April 8, 1884; interment in Greenmount Cemetery.

VAN SCHALCK, Isaac Whitstock (uncle of Aaron Van Schalck Cochran), a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Cossackie, Greene County, N. Y., December 7, 1817; attended the common schools; engaged extensively in the manufacture of glue; moved to Chicago in 1857, and thence to Wisconsin in 1861 and engaged in the flour-milling business in Milwaukee; elected to the Milwaukee Common Council in 1871; member of the State assembly 1873-1875; served in the State senate 1877-1882; elected as a Republican to the Forty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1887); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1886; elected to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1891); was not a candidate for renomination in 1890; unsuccessful candidate for State senator in 1890; moved to Catonsville, Baltimore County, Md., in 1894, where he lived in retirement until his death in that city August 22, 1901; interment in Athens Cemetery, Athens, N. Y.

VAN SWEARINGEN, Thomas, a Representative from Virginia; born near Shepherdstown, Jefferson County, Va. (now West Virginia), May 5, 1784; attended the common schools; member of the State house of delegates 1814-1816; elected to the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1819, until his death in Shepherdstown, Va., August 19, 1822; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

VAN TRUMP, Philadelph, a Representative from Ohio; born in Lancaster, Fairfield County, Ohio, November 15, 1810; attended the public schools; learned the art of printing and subsequently became editor of the Gazette and Enquirer at Lancaster; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Lancaster on May 14, 1838; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Baltimore in 1852; unsuccessful candidate of the American Party for governor in 1856; delegate to the Bell and Everett State convention in 1860 and served as president; judge of the court of common pleas 1862-1867; unsuccessful candidate for supreme judge of Ohio in 1863, 1864, and 1865; elected as a Democrat to the Fortieth, Forty-first, and Forty-second Congresses (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1873); was not a candidate for renomination in 1872; served as president of the Democratic State convention in 1869; resumed the practice of law in Lancaster, Ohio, and died there on July 31, 1874; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

VAN VALKENBURGH, Robert Bruce, a Representative from New York; born in Prattsburg, Steuben County, N. Y., September 4, 1821; attended Franklin Academy, Prattsburg, N. Y.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Bath, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1852 and again in 1857 and 1858; was in command of the recruiting depot in Elmira, N. Y., and organized seventeen regiments for the Civil War; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1865); served as colonel of the One hundred and seventh Regiment New York Volunteer Infantry and was its commander at the Battle of Antietam; Acting Commissioner of Indian Affairs in 1865; appointed minister resident to Japan January 18, 1866, and served until November 11, 1869; settled in Florida; appointed associate justice of the State supreme court on May 20, 1874, and served until his death in Suwanee Springs, near Live Oak, Suwanee County, Fla., August 1, 1888; interment in the Old St. Nicholas Cemetery, Duval County, on the south side of the St. Johns River, south of Jacksonville, Fla.

VAN VOORHIS, Henry Clay, a Representative from Ohio; born in Nashport, Muskingum County, Ohio, May 11, 1852; attended the public schools and Denison University, Granville, Ohio; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1874; was graduated from the Cincinnati Law School in 1875 and commenced practice in Zanesville, Ohio, the same year; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1884 and 1918; president of the Citizens' National Bank of Zanesville 1885-1898; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-third and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1905); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1904 to the Fifty-ninth Congress; in 1905 again became president of the Citizens' National Bank of Zanesville, Ohio, and served until his death; member of the board of trustees of Marietta College, Marietta, Ohio; died in Zanesville, Ohio, December 12, 1927; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

VAN VOORHIS, John, a Representative from New York; born in Decatur, Otsego County, N. Y., October 22, 1826; pursued an academic course; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1851, and commenced practice in Elmira, Chemung County, N. Y.; member of the board of education in 1857; city attorney in 1859; appointed collector of internal revenue for the twenty-eighth district of New York, and served from September 1, 1862, to March 31, 1863; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1883); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1882 to the Forty-eighth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Rochester, N. Y.; elected to the Fifty-third Congress (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1895); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1894; again engaged in the practice of law in Rochester, N. Y., and died there on October 20, 1905; interment in Mount Hope Cemetery.

VAN VORHES, Nelson Holmes, a Representative from Ohio; born in Washington County, Pa., on January 23, 1822; moved to Athens County, Ohio, in 1832 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; apprenticed to a printer for six years; editor and proprietor of the Athens Messenger 1844-1861; member of the State house of representatives 1850-1872 and served four years as speaker; elected probate judge in 1854, but resigned; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1858 to the Thirty-sixth Congress; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1860; entered the Union Army as a private in 1861 and was mustered out as colonel; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1878 to the Forty-sixth Congress; died in Athens, Athens County, Ohio, December 4, 1882; interment in the West Union Street Cemetery.

VAN WINKLE, Marshall, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Jersey City, N. J., September 28, 1869; attended the public schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1890, and commenced practice in Jersey City; appointed counsel to the county tax board in 1895, holding this position until his resignation to accept an appointment as assistant prosecutor of the pleas of Hudson County, N. J.; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1900 to the Fifty-seventh Congress; served as assistant prosecutor of pleas from 1902 to 1905, when he resigned to become a candidate for Congress; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1905-March 3, 1907); was not a candidate for renomination in 1906; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Jersey City.

VAN WINKLE, Peter Godwin, a Senator from West Virginia; born in New York City September 7, 1806; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Parkersburg, Wood County, Va. (now West Virginia), in 1835; president of the town board of trustees 1844-1850; member of the Virginia State constitutional convention in 1850; was treasurer and later president of the Northwestern Virginia Railroad Co. in 1852; member of the Wheeling reorganization convention in 1861; delegate to the State convention which framed the constitution of West Virginia; served in the West Virginia House of Delegates in 1863; upon the admission of West Virginia as a State into the Union was elected as a Unionist to the United States Senate, and served from August 4, 1863, to March 3, 1869; delegate to the Southern Loyalist Convention at Philadelphia, Pa., in 1866; upon the expiration of his term as Senator he resided in Parkersburg, W. Va., where he died April 15, 1872; interment in River View Cemetery.

VAN WYCK, Charles Henry, a Representative from New York and a Senator from Nebraska; born in Poughkeepsie, Dutchess County, N. Y., on November 10, 1824; completed preparatory studies and was graduated from Rutgers College, New Brunswick, N. J.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1847, and practiced; moved to Bloomingburg, Sullivan County, N. Y.; district attorney from 1850 to 1856; elected as a Republican from New York to the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1863); entered the Union Army as colonel of the Tenth Legion, or Fifty-sixth Regiment New York Volunteers, and commanded it during the Civil War; brevetted brigadier general for services during the war; was elected to the Fortieth Congress (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1869); presented credentials as a Member elect to the Forty-first Congress, and served from March 4, 1869, to February 17, 1870, when he was succeeded by George W. Greene, who contested the election; moved to Nebraska in 1871 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1876; member of the State senate 1876-1880; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate from Nebraska, and served from March 4, 1881, to March 3, 1887; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; unsuccessful Populist candidate for Governor of Nebraska in 1892; retired from political life and active business pursuits; died in Washington, D. C., on October 24, 1895; interment in Milford Cemetery, Milford, Pike County, Pa.

VAN WYCK, William William, a Representative from New York; born near Fishkill, Dutchess County, N. Y., August 9, 1777; attended the public schools and Fishkill Academy; engaged in agricultural pursuits; elected as a Democrat to the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Congresses (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1825); moved to Sudley, Fairfax County, Va., and engaged in planting; returned to Dutchess County, N. Y., and died in Fishkill, N. Y., August 27, 1840; interment in the Dutch Reformed Churchyard.

VARDAMAN, James Kimble, a Senator from Mississippi; born near Edna, Jackson County, Tex., July 26, 1861; moved to Mississippi with his parents, who settled in Yalabusha County in 1868; attended the public schools; studied law in Carrollton, Miss., was admitted to the bar in 1881, and commenced practice in Winona, Miss.; became editor of the Winona Advance; moved to Greenwood, Miss., where he continued the practice of law and also engaged in the newspaper business; member of the State house of representatives 1890-1896 and served as speaker of that body in 1894; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Mississippi in 1896 and again in 1899; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Stevenson in 1892 and of Bryan and Sewall in 1896; established the Greenwood Commonwealth in 1896 and was its editor until 1903; during the Spanish-American War served as captain and major in the Fifth United States Volunteer Infantry; Governor of Mississippi from 1904 to 1906; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1907; elected in 1912 as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1913, to March 3, 1919; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1918; resumed his former business pursuits in Jackson, Miss., where he now resides.

VARE, William Scott, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., December 24, 1867; attended the public schools; entered mercantile life at the age of fifteen years, and became a general contractor in 1893; member of the Select Council of Philadelphia 1898-1901; recorder of deeds for Philadelphia 1902-1912; delegate to many Republican State conventions; delegate to the Republican National Conventions in 1906, 1912, 1916, 1920, and 1924; elected as a member of the State senate on April 24, 1912, and on the same day elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Henry H. Bingham; reelected to the Sixty-third and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from April 24, 1912, until January 2, 1923, when he resigned; reelected to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Presented credentials as a Senator elect to the United States Senate for the term beginning March 4, 1927, and ending March 3, 1933.

VARNUM, James Mitchell (brother of Joseph Bradley Varnum), a Delegate from Rhode Island; born in Dracut, Middlesex County, Mass., December 17, 1748; was graduated from the College of Rhode Island, Warren, R. I. (now Brown University, Providence, R. I.), in 1769; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1771, and commenced practice in East Greenwich, R. I.; served in the Revolutionary Army, and was colonel of the "Kentish Guards" in 1774 and of Varnum's Rhode Island Regiment in 1775; commissioned colonel of the Ninth Continental Infantry in 1776; brigadier general of State troops December 12, 1776; brigadier general in the Continental Army February 21, 1777, and was honorably discharged March 5, 1779; appointed major general of State militia in May, 1779; resumed the practice of law in East Greenwich, R. I.; Member of the Continental Congress 1780-1782, 1786, and 1787; appointed a judge of the United States court in the Northwest Territory in 1787; moved to Marietta, Ohio, in 1788, and died there January 10, 1789; interment in the Mound Cemetery.

VARNUM, John, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Dracut, Middlesex County, Mass., June 25, 1778; was graduated from Harvard University in 1798; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Haverhill, Mass., in 1802; was elected as a Federalist to the State senate in 1811; moved to Lowell, Mass.; elected to the Nineteenth, Twentieth, and Twenty-first Congresses (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1831); returned to Lowell, Mass., and later moved to Niles, Berrien County, Mich., where he died July 28, 1836; interment in Silverbrook Cemetery.

VARNUM, Joseph Bradley (brother of James Mitchell Varnum), a Representative and a Senator from Massachusetts; born in Dracut, Middlesex County, Mass., January 29, 1750; completed preparatory studies; served in the Revolutionary Army; member of the State house of representatives 1790-1794; served in the State senate 1796-1798 and in 1799; commissioned colonel of the Seventh Regiment of Massachusetts Militia April 4, 1787, brigadier general November 22, 1802, and major general June 12, 1805; delegate to the State convention that ratified the Federal Constitution in 1788; justice of the court of common pleas; chief justice of the court of general sessions 1811-1815; elected to the Fourth and to the eight succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1796, to June 29, 1811, when he resigned, having been elected Senator; Speaker of the House during the Tenth and Eleventh Congresses; elected to the United States Senate in 1811 to fill the vacancy in the term commencing March 4, 1811, and served from June 8, 1811, to March 3, 1817; elected President pro tempore of the Senate December 6, 1813; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1820; again a member of the State senate 1817-1821; died in Dracut, Mass., September 21, 1821; interment in the Varnum Cemetery.

VAUGHAN, Horace Worth, a Representative from Texas; born near Jefferson, Marion County, Tex., December 2, 1807; attended the common schools of Linden, Cass County, Tex.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1835, and commenced practice in Texarkana, Tex., in 1836; city attorney of Texarkana 1839-1868; prosecuting attorney of Bowie County 1868-1896; district attorney for the fifth judicial district of Texas 1906-1910; member of the State senate in 1910; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; appointed by President Woodrow Wilson United States district attorney at Honolulu, Hawaii, and served from December 22, 1915, to March 22, 1916; United States district judge in Hawaii from May 15, 1916, to April 4, 1922; died in Honolulu, Hawaii, November 10, 1922; interment in Nuuanu Cemetery.

VAUGHAN, William Wirt, a Representative from Tennessee; born in LaGuardo (now Martha), Wilson County, Tenn., July 2, 1831; attended the common schools and was graduated from Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1850, and commenced practice in Brownsville, Tenn.; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1873); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1872 to the Forty-third Congress; resumed the practice of law in Brownsville; one of the prime movers in the building of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad branch from Brownsville to Newbern, and was president of the system at the time of his death; became a candidate for election in 1878 to the Forty-sixth Congress, but died in Crockett Mills, near Alamo, Crockett County, Tenn., on August 19, 1878, while canvassing the district; interment in Oakwood Cemetery, Brownsville, Tenn.

VAUX, Richard, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., December 19, 1818; educated by private tutors at the Friends Select School in Philadelphia and Bolmar's French School, Westchester, Pa.; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in Philadelphia in 1837; secretary of legation under Andrew Stevenson, United States minister to Great Britain, for one year; declined appointment as secretary of legation at St. Petersburg; made a tour of the Continent; returned to Philadelphia in 1839; member of the State house of representatives in 1839; delegate to the Democratic State convention at Harrisburg in 1840; commenced the practice of law in Philadelphia in 1840; recorder of deeds of Philadelphia 1842-1849; appointed by the State supreme court inspector of the State penitentiary for the eastern district of Pennsylvania in 1842, and served as secretary and later as president of the board of inspectors until his death; unsuccessful candidate for mayor of Philadelphia in 1842, 1845, and 1854; elected mayor of Philadelphia in 1856; member of the board of city trusts, which manages Girard College and all trusts conferred on the city of Philadelphia, 1859-1866, and served as president of the board 1863-1866; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-first Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Samuel J.

Randall, and served from May 20, 1890, to March 3, 1891; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1890 to the Fifty-second Congress; retired from public life; died in Philadelphia, Pa., March 22, 1893; interment in Laurel Hill Cemetery.

VEEDER, William Davis, a Representative from New York; born in Guilderland, Albany County, N. Y., May 19, 1835; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced the practice of law in Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1858; served in the State assembly in 1835 and 1836; delegate to the Democratic State conventions in 1875 and 1877; member of the State constitutional convention in 1887 and 1893; surrogate of Kings County, N. Y., 1867-1877; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1879); was not a candidate for renomination in 1878; resumed the practice of his profession in Brooklyn; member of the State constitutional convention in 1887 and 1888; died in Brooklyn, N. Y., December 2, 1910; interment in Voorheesville Cemetery, Voorheesville, N. Y.

VENSLAGE, John Herman George, a Representative from New York; born in New York City on December 20, 1842; attended the public schools; left school to become a clerk in the retail grocery business; engaged in the coal and wood business; joined the Third Cavalry New York National Guard in 1863 and was commissioned captain by Gov. Horatio Seymour on February 15, 1864; was appointed inspector of rifle practice with the rank of captain and continued in service until 1880, when the regiment was mustered out by order of Governor Cornell; remained as supernumerary until November 12, 1883, when he received an honorable discharge from Gov. Grover Cleveland; member of the State assembly 1894-1899; was appointed a presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Bryan and Sewall in 1896, but resigned, having received the Democratic nomination for Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1899); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1898; discontinued active business pursuits, and lived in retirement until his death in New York City on July 21, 1904; interment in the Lutheran Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

VENABLE, Abraham Bedford (uncle of Abraham Watkins Venable), a Representative and a Senator from Virginia; born on "State Hill" farm, near Prince Edward Court House (now Worsham), Prince Edward County, Va., November 20, 1758; attended Hampden-Sidney (Va.) College, and was graduated from Princeton College in 1780; engaged as a planter in his native county; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1784, and commenced practice at Prince Edward Court House, Prince Edward County; elected to the Second, Third, Fourth, and Fifth Congresses (March 4, 1791-March 3, 1799); was not a candidate for renomination in 1798; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Stevens T. Mason, and served from December 7, 1803, to June 7, 1804, when he resigned to become president of the first national bank organized in Virginia; perished at the burning of the theater in Richmond, Va., December 23, 1811; interment of ashes, with those of other fire victims, under a stone in front of the altar in Monumental Church, Richmond.

VENABLE, Abraham Watkins (nephew of Abraham Bedford Venable), a Representative from North Carolina; born in Springfield, Prince Edward County, Va., October 17, 1799; was graduated from Hampden-Sidney (Va.) College in 1816; studied medicine for two years; was graduated from Princeton College in 1819; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1821, and commenced practice in Prince Edward and Mecklenburg Counties, Va.; moved to North Carolina in 1829; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Jackson and Van Buren in 1832 and of Van Buren and Johnson in 1836; elected as a Democrat to the Thirtieth, Thirty-first, and Thirty-second Congresses (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1853); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1852 to the Thirty-third Congress; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Breckinridge and Lane in 1860; delegate from the State of North Carolina to the Provisional Confederate Congress in 1861; member of the House of Representatives of the Confederate Congress 1862-1864; retired from public life and active business pursuits; died in Oxford, Granville County, N. C., February 24, 1876; interment in the Shiloh Presbyterian Churchyard, Granville County, N. C.

VENABLE, Edward Carrington, a Representative from Virginia; born near Farmville, Prince Edward County, Va., January 31, 1853; attended the local school, McCabe's University High School, Petersburg, Va., and the University of Virginia at Charlottesville; taught school for three years; moved to Petersburg, Va., in 1876 and engaged in mercantile pursuits; delegate to the Democratic State convention in 1880; presented credentials as a Democratic Member elect to the Fifty-first Congress, and served from March 4, 1889, to September 23, 1890, when he was succeeded by John M. Langston, who contested his election; resumed his former business pursuits; died in Baltimore, Md., December 8, 1906; interment in Blandford Cemetery, Petersburg, Va.

VENABLE, William Webb, a Representative from Mississippi; born in Clinton, Hinds County, Miss., September 25, 1880; moved with his parents to Memphis, Tenn., where he lived for ten years; returned to Clinton, Miss., in 1891; attended public and private schools; was graduated from Mississippi College at Clinton in 1898, from the University of Mississippi at Oxford in 1899, and from the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1905; was admitted to the bar in 1905 and commenced practice in Meridian, Miss.; prosecuting attorney of Lauderdale County from April to October, 1910, when he was appointed district attorney; served in the latter capacity until January 1, 1915, when he resigned, having been appointed to the bench; served as judge of the tenth judicial district of Mississippi from 1915 until his resignation in December, 1916; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Samuel A. Witherspoon; reelected to the Sixty-fifth and Sixty-sixth Congresses, and served from January 4, 1916, to March 3, 1921; unsuccessful candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Clarksdale, Coahoma County, Miss.

VERPLANCK, Daniel Crommelin (father of Gullian Crommelin Verplanck), a Representative from New York; born in New York City March 19, 1762; was educated under private tutors; was graduated from Columbia College (now Columbia University), New York City, in 1788; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced the practice of law in New York City in 1789; also engaged in banking; elected as a Federalist to the Eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Isaac Bloom; reelected to the Ninth and Tenth Congresses, and served from October 17, 1803, to March 3, 1809; was not a candidate for renomination in 1808 to the Eleventh Congress; resumed the practice of his profession; judge of the court of common pleas of Dutchess County from 1828 to 1830; died at his home, "Mount Gullian," near Fishkill, Dutchess County, N. Y., March 29, 1834; interment in Trinity Church Cemetery, Fishkill, N. Y.

VERPLANCK, Gullian Crommelin (son of Daniel Crommelin Verplanck), a Representative from New York; born in New York City August 6, 1786; pursued classical studies, and was graduated from Columbia College (now Columbia University), New York City, in 1801; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1807; member of the State assembly 1820-1823; professor of the evidences of Christianity at the Protestant Episcopal General Theological Seminary, New York City, 1821-1824; elected as a Democrat to the Nineteenth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1833); was not a candidate for renomination in 1832; unsuccessful Whig candidate for mayor of New York City in 1834; member of the State senate 1838-1841; governor of the city hospital 1823-1835; regent of the State university 1826-1870 and vice chancellor 1858-1870; president of the board of commissioners of immigration 1846-1870; member of the State constitutional convention in 1867 and 1868; member of the New York Historical Society; died in New York City March 18, 1870; interment in Trinity Churchyard, Fishkill, Dutchess County, N. Y.

VERREE, John Paul, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born at "Verree Mills," on the Pennepack Creek, near what is now Fox Chase Station, Philadelphia, Pa., March 9, 1817; completed preparatory studies; engaged in the manufacture of iron and subsequently was a dealer in edged tools and also in iron and steel; member of the select council of Philadelphia 1851-1857, and served as president of the chamber 1853-1857; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth and Thirty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1863); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1862; resumed his former manufacturing pursuits; also interested in life insurance and served as president of a company; president of the Philadelphia Union League in 1875 and 1876; retired from active business pursuits; died at "Verree Mills," Philadelphia, Pa., June 27, 1889; interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Frankford (now a part of Philadelphia), Pa.

VEST, George Graham, a Senator from Missouri; born in Frankfort, Franklin County, Ky., December 6, 1830; was graduated from Centre College, Danville, Ky., in 1848 and from the law department of Transylvania University, Lexington, Ky., in 1853; was admitted to the bar in 1853 and commenced practice in Georgetown, Mo.; moved to Boonville, Mo., in 1856; Democratic presidential elector on the Douglas and Johnson ticket in 1860; member of the State house of representatives in 1860 and 1861; judge advocate in General Price's Confederate forces in Missouri in 1862; served in the House of Representatives of the Confederate Congress from February, 1862, to January 12, 1865, when he resigned, having been appointed to fill a vacancy in the Confederate Senate; resumed the practice of law in Sedalia, Mo., in 1865; moved to Kansas City in 1877; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate; reelected in 1885, 1891, and 1897, and served from March 4, 1879, to March 3, 1903; on account of failing health retired from public life and resided at Sweet Springs, Saline County, Mo., until his death August 9, 1904; interment in Bellefontaine Cemetery, St. Louis, Mo.

VESTAL, Albert Henry, a Representative from Indiana; born near Frankton, Madison County, Ind., January 18, 1875; attended the common schools; worked in steel mills and factories; attended the Indiana State Normal School at Terre Haute; taught school for several years; studied law and was graduated from the law department of the Valparaiso (Ind.) University in 1896, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in Anderson, Ind.; prosecuting attorney ney of the fiftieth judicial circuit 1900-1906; unsuccessful candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in 1908; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fifth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1917-March 3, 1927); elected Republican whip of the National House of Representatives in 1925. Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

VIBBARD, Chauncey, a Representative from New York; born in Galway, Saratoga County, N. Y., on November 11, 1811; attended the common schools and was graduated from Mott's Academy for Boys, Albany, N. Y.; clerk in a wholesale grocery store in Albany, N. Y.; moved to New York City, and in 1834 went to Montgomery, Ala.; returned to New York and settled in Schenectady; was appointed chief clerk of the Utica & Schenectady Railroad Co. in 1836; became a railroad freight and ticket agent in 1848; consolidated the many little railroads of western New York into one system under the name of the New York Central Railroad Co.; was the first general superintendent of the New York Central Railroad in 1853, which office he held until 1865; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1862; during the Civil War served as director and superintendent of military railroads in 1862; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of McClellan and Pendleton in 1864; first president of the Family Fund Insurance Co. 1864-1867; moved to New York City in 1865; became one of the owners of a line of steamers running between New York City and Albany; also a director and stockholder in the original elevated railroad in Greenwich Street, New York City; interested in the development of southern railroads and South and Central American enterprises at the time of his retirement in 1889; died in Macon, Ga., June 5, 1891; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

VICKERS, George, a Senator from Maryland; born in Chestertown, Kent County, Md., November 19, 1801; pursued an academic course; employed in the county clerk's office for several years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1832, and commenced practice in Chestertown, Md.; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Baltimore in 1852; major general of the State militia in 1861; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of McClellan and Pendleton in 1864; vice president of the Union National Convention of Conservatives in Philadelphia in 1866; member of the State senate in 1866 and 1867; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the action of the Senate in declining to permit Philip F. Thomas to qualify, and served from March 7, 1868, to March 3, 1873; resumed the practice of law in Chestertown, Kent County, Md., and died there October 8, 1879; interment in Chester Cemetery.

VIDAL, Michel, a Representative from Louisiana; born in the city of Carcassonne, Languedoc, France, October 1, 1824; attended college; emigrated to the Republic of Texas at the time of the administration of President Anson Jones; moved to Louisiana when Texas was annexed to the United States; engaged in literary and scientific pursuits; engaged as associate editor with several American and French papers of this country and Canada; moved to Opelousas, La., in 1867; founded and became editor of the St. Landry Progress; editor of the New York Courier des États-Unis and the New Orleans Picayune; at the close of the Civil War was appointed by General Sheridan a registrar for the city of New Orleans; delegate to the State constitutional convention of 1867-68; upon the readmission of the State of Louisiana to representation was elected as a Republican to the Fortieth Congress, and served from July 18, 1868, to March 3, 1869; was appointed a United States commissioner under the convention concluded with Peru in 1868 for the adjustment of claims of citizens of either country; appointed by President Grant United States consul at Tripoli and served from April 5, 1870, to October 12, 1876.

VIELE, Egbert Ludovicus, a Representative from New York; born in Waterford, Saratoga County, N. Y., June 17, 1825; attended the Albany Academy, Albany, N. Y.; was graduated from the United States Military Academy, West Point, July 1, 1847; commissioned brevet second lieutenant in the Second United States Infantry; served in the Mexican War in 1847 and 1848; promoted to second lieutenant, First United States Infantry, September 8, 1847; promoted to first lieutenant in 1850; resigned in 1853; became a civil and military engineer; appointed State engineer of New Jersey in 1855; appointed engineer in chief of Central Park, New York City, in 1856; appointed engineer of Prospect Park, Brooklyn, in 1860; appointed captain of the Engineer Corps of the Seventh New York Regiment in 1860; appointed brigadier general of United States Volunteers in 1861; military governor of Norfolk, Va., in 1862; resigned October 20, 1863; engaged in civil engineering; appointed president of the department of public parks in New York City in 1884; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1887); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1888 to the Fiftieth Congress; resumed his former business pursuits and also engaged in literary work; died in New York City April 22, 1902; interment in Post Cemetery, West Point, Orange County, N. Y.

VILAS, William Freeman, a Senator from Wisconsin; born in Chelsea, Orange County, Vt., July 9, 1840; moved with his parents to Madison, Wis., in 1851; attended the common schools and was graduated from the University of Wisconsin at Madison in 1858 and from the law department of the University of Albany, New York, in 1860; was admitted to the bar, and commenced the practice of his profession in Madison, Wis., July 9, 1860; enlisted in the Union Army during the Civil War; captain of Company A, Twenty-third Regiment Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, and afterwards major and lieutenant colonel of the regiment; professor of law at the University of Wisconsin; regent of the university 1880-1885; one of three revisers appointed by the Supreme Court of Wisconsin in 1875 to prepare a revised body of the statute law, and which was adopted in 1878; member of the State assembly in 1885; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1876, at Cincinnati in 1880, at Chicago in 1884, at Chicago in 1892, and again at Chicago in 1896, serving as permanent chairman of the convention in 1884; Postmaster General of the United States in the Cabinet of President Cleveland from March 7, 1885, to January 16, 1888, when he became Secretary of the Interior of the United States, and served until March 6, 1889; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate January 28, 1891, and served from March 4, 1891, to March 3, 1897; was not a candidate for renomination in 1896; regent of the University of Wisconsin 1898-1905; resumed the practice of law; member of the commission to provide for the construction of the State capitol in 1907; died in Madison, Dane County, Wis., August 28, 1908; interment in Forest Hill Cemetery.

VINCENT, Bird J., a Representative from Michigan; born near Clarkston, Oakland County, Mich., March 6, 1880; attended the public schools of Oakland and Midland Counties and Ferris Institute; was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1905; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Saginaw; assistant prosecuting attorney of Saginaw County 1909-1914 and prosecuting attorney from 1915 to 1917, when he resigned to enter the Army; during the World War served ten months in France as first lieutenant of the Sixth Train Headquarters and in the Three hundred and second Train Headquarters; city attorney of Saginaw 1919-1923; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

VINCENT, William Davis, a Representative from Kansas; born near Dresden, Weakley County, Tenn., October 11, 1852; moved with his parents to Riley County, Kans., in 1858, and thence to Manhattan, Kans., in 1864; attended the public schools and the State agricultural college in Manhattan, Kans.; engaged in business in Manhattan 1872-1876; moved to Clay Center, Kans., and engaged in mercantile pursuits in 1878; elected as a member of the city council in 1880; one of the nominees of the Greenback Party for presidential elector in 1894; member of the State board of railroad commissioners in 1893 and 1894; elected as a Populist to the Fifty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1899); engaged in the hardware business in Clay Center, Clay County, Kans., until his death in St. Louis, Mo., February 28, 1922; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Clay Center, Kans.

VINING, John, a Delegate, a Representative, and a Senator from Delaware; born in Dover, Kent County, Del., December 23, 1758; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1782, and commenced practice in New Castle County; Member of the Continental Congress 1784-1786; member of the State house of representatives in 1787 and 1788; elected to the First and Second Congresses (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1793); was not a candidate for renomination in 1792; member of the State senate in 1793; elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1793, to January 19, 1798, when he resigned; died in Dover, Del., in February, 1802; interment in the Episcopal Cemetery.

VINSON, Carl, a Representative from Georgia; born in Milledgeville, Baldwin County, Ga., November 18, 1833; attended the Georgia Military College at Milledgeville, and was graduated from Mercer University Law School at Macon in 1902; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Milledgeville; prosecuting attorney of Baldwin County, Ga., 1906-1909; member of the State house of representatives 1909-1912, and served as speaker pro tempore in 1911 and 1912; appointed judge of the county court of Baldwin County, and served from October 3, 1912, to November 2, 1914, when he resigned, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas W. Hardwick; reelected to the Sixty-fourth and to the five succeeding Congresses, and served from November 3, 1914, to March 3, 1927. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

VINSON, Frederick Moore, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Louisa, Lawrence County, Ky., January 22, 1890; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the law department of Centre College, Danville, Ky., in 1911; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Louisa; city prosecuting attorney of Louisa in 1913; served in the United States Army during the World War as a private at Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky., from August 29, 1918, until his transfer October 24, 1918, to the central officers' training school at Camp Pike, Ark.; was honorably discharged December 6, 1918; Commonwealth attorney for the thirty-second judicial district of Kentucky 1921-1924; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William J. Fields; reelected to the Sixty-ninth Congress, and served from January 12, 1924, to March 3, 1927. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

VINTON, Samuel Finley, a Representative from Ohio; born in South Hadley, Mass., September 25, 1792; was graduated from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., in 1814; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1816, and commenced practice in Gallipolis, Ohio; held several local offices; elected as a Whig to the Eighteenth and to the six succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1837); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1830; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Harrison and Tyler in 1840; elected to the Twenty-eighth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1851); was not a candidate for renomination in 1850; unsuccessful candidate for election as Governor of Ohio in 1851; appointed by President Lincoln in 1862 to appraise the slaves emancipated in the District of Columbia; died in Washington, D. C., May 11, 1862; interment in the Pine Street Cemetery, Gallipolis, Gallia County, Ohio.

VOIGT, Edward, a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Bremen, Germany, December 1, 1873; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Milwaukee, Wis., in 1883; attended the public schools; employed in law and insurance office for several years; was graduated from law department of the University of Wisconsin at Madison in 1899; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Sheboygan, Wis.; district attorney of Sheboygan County 1905-1911; city attorney for Sheboygan 1913-1917; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fifth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1917-March 3, 1927); was not a candidate for reelection; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Cleveland in 1924; resumed the practice of law in Sheboygan, Wis.; elected in April, 1928, a judge of the Fourth Judicial Circuit of Wisconsin for the six-year term beginning the first Monday in January, 1929.

VOLK, Lester David, a Representative from New York; born in Brooklyn, N. Y., September 17, 1884; attended the public and high schools; was graduated from the Long Island Medical School and from the Brooklyn Law School; engaged in the practice of medicine 1906-1914; editor of the Medical Economist; was admitted to the bar in 1913 and engaged in the practice of law; elected as a Progressive to the New York Assembly in 1912; declined to be a candidate for renomination; served as first lieutenant in the Medical Corps with the American Expeditionary Forces during the World War; was largely instrumental in securing the soldiers' bonus granted by the State of New York; judge advocate of the Veterans of Foreign Wars for the State of New York; was a delegate to the Republican State convention in 1920; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Reuben L. Haskell; was reelected to the Sixty-seventh Congress, and served from November 2, 1920, to March 3, 1923; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1922 to the Sixty-eighth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession, and is a resident of Brooklyn, N. Y.

VOLLMER, Henry, a Representative from Iowa; born in Davenport, Iowa, July 28, 1887; attended the public and high schools of Davenport; distributing clerk of the Fiftieth Congress in 1887 and 1888; studied law at the University of Iowa at Iowa City and Georgetown University, Washington, D. C.; was admitted to the bar in 1889, and commenced practice in Davenport, Iowa; member of the board of aldermen of Davenport in 1889; served as mayor of Davenport from 1893 to 1897; member of the board of education 1898-1901; corporation counsel in 1913 and 1914; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Irvin S. Pepper, and served from February 10, 1914, to March 3, 1915; was not a candidate for reelection in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession, and is a resident of Davenport, Iowa.

VOLSTEAD, Andrew John, a Representative from Minnesota; born near Kenyon, Goodhue County, Minn., October 31, 1890; attended the public schools of the district and St. Olaf's College, Northfield, Minn.; was graduated from Decorah Institute, Decorah, Iowa, in 1891; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1893, and commenced practice in Lac qui Parle County, Minn.; moved to Grantsburg, Wis., in 1895, and in the following year to Granite Falls, Yellow Medicine County, Minn.; member of the board of education and served as president; city attorney of Granite Falls; prosecuting attorney of Yellow Medicine County 1898-1902; mayor of Granite Falls 1900-1902; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth and to the nine succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1923); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1922 to the Sixty-eighth Congress; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Granite Falls, Minn.

VOORHEES, Charles Stewart (son of Daniel Wolsey Voorhees), a Delegate from the Territory of Washington; born in Covington, Fountain County, Ind., on June 4, 1853; attended Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Ind., and was graduated from Georgetown College, Washington, D. C., June 26, 1878; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1875, and commenced practice in Terre Haute, Ind.; moved to the Territory of Washington in 1882 and settled in Colfax; prosecuting attorney for Whitman County 1882-1885; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1889); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1888; resumed the practice of law in Colfax, Wash.; moved to Spokane, Wash., and continued the practice of law until his death there December 26, 1909; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

VOORHEES, Daniel Wolsey (father of Charles Stewart Voorhees), a Representative and a Senator from Indiana; born in Liberty Township, Butler County, Ohio, September 26, 1827; moved with his parents to Indiana in early childhood; attended the common schools of Veedersburg, Ind.; was graduated from the Indiana Asbury (now De Pauw) University at Greencastle in 1849; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1851, and commenced practice in Covington, Ind.; moved to Terre Haute and continued the practice of law; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1856 to the Thirty-fifth Congress; United States district attorney for Indiana 1858-1861; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1865); presented credentials as a Member elect to the Thirty-ninth Congress, and served from March 4, 1865, to February 23, 1866, when he was succeeded by Henry D. Washburn, who contested the election; elected to the Forty-first and Forty-second Congresses (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1873); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1872 to the Forty-third Congress; appointed and subsequently elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Oliver H. P. Morton; reelected in 1885 and again in 1891, and served from November 6, 1877, to March 3, 1897; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; died in Washington, D. C., April 9, 1897; interment in Highland Lawn Cemetery, Terre Haute, Vigo County, Ind.

VOORHIS, Charles Henry, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Spring Valley, Bergen County, N. J., March 13, 1833; attended the district schools; was graduated from Rutgers College, New Brunswick, N. J., in 1853; moved to Jersey City; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1856, and commenced practice in Jersey City, N. J.; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864; presiding judge of Bergen County, N. J., in 1868 and 1869; one of the organizers of the Hackensack Improvement Commission in 1869 and also of the Hackensack Academy; organized and served as first president of the Hackensack Water Co. in 1873; became interested in banking; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1881); was not a candidate for reelection in 1880 to the Forty-seventh Congress; resumed his former business pursuits; died in Jersey City, N. J., April 15, 1896; interment in New York Cemetery, Hackensack, Bergen County, N. J.

VOSE, Roger, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Milton, Norfolk County, Mass., February 24, 1763; moved to New Hampshire in 1768 with his parents, who settled near Walpole, Cheshire County; was graduated from Harvard University in 1790; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1793, and commenced practice in Walpole, N. H.; member of the State senate in 1809, 1810, and 1812; elected as a Federalist to the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Congresses (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1817); member of the State house of representatives in 1818; chief justice of the court of common pleas 1818-1820; chief justice of the court of sessions 1820-1825; resumed the practice of law; died in Walpole, Cheshire County, N. H., October 26, 1841; interment in the Village Cemetery.

VREELAND, Edward Butterfield, a Representative from New York; born in Cuba, Allegany County, N. Y., December 7, 1857; was graduated from Friendship Academy in 1877; superintendent of the public schools at Salamanca, N. Y., 1877-1882; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1881, but did not engage in active practice; became president of the Salamanca Trust Co. in 1891; engaged in banking and in the oil and insurance business; was elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Warren B. Hooker; reelected to the Fifty-seventh and to the five succeeding Congresses, and served from November 7, 1899, to March 3, 1913; declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1912; appointed a member of the National Monetary Commission and served as vice chairman from 1909 to 1912; resumed former business pursuits, and resides in Salamanca, N. Y.

VROOM, Peter Dumont, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Hillsboro, Somerset County, N. J., December 12, 1791; attended the common schools and the Somerville (N. J.) Academy; was graduated from Columbia College, New York City, in 1808; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1813, and commenced practice in Hillsboro; moved to Somerville in 1821; member of the State general assembly in 1826, 1827, and 1829; became a sergeant at law in 1828; elected Governor of New Jersey as a Jackson Democrat in 1829, 1830, and 1831; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1832, but again elected in 1833, 1834, 1835, and 1836; on account of ill health declined to become a candidate for renomination; appointed a commissioner to adjust the claims of the Choctaw Indians in 1837; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1841); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1840 to the Twenty-seventh Congress; moved to Trenton, N. J., and resumed the practice of law; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1844; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Pierce and King in 1852; appointed chief justice of the Supreme Court of New Jersey in 1853, but declined; appointed United States minister to Prussia on May 24, 1858, and served until August 10, 1857; again resumed the practice of law; delegate to the peace convention held in Washington, D. C., in 1861 in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; reporter of the Supreme Court of New Jersey 1862-1872; commissioner of the sinking fund of New Jersey from 1864 until his death; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Seymour and Blair in 1868; died in Trenton, N. J., November 18, 1873; interment in the cemetery of the First Reformed Dutch Church, Somerville, N. J.

WACHTER, Frank Charles, a Representative from Maryland; born in Baltimore, Md., September 18, 1861; attended private schools and St. Paul's Evangelical School at Baltimore, Md.; learned the trade of clothing cutter, and afterwards, in 1892, engaged in the cloth-shrinking business; member of the jail board of Baltimore 1890-1898; unsuccessful candidate for police commissioner of Baltimore in 1898; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth, Fifty-seventh, Fifty-eighth, and Fifty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1907); was not a candidate for renomination in 1906; resumed his former business pursuits in Baltimore; member of the board of managers of the Maryland Penitentiary from 1909 until his death in Baltimore, Md., July 1, 1910; interment in Loudon Park Cemetery.

WADDELL, Alfred Moore, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Hillsboro, Orange County, N. C., September 16, 1834; attended Bingham's School and Caldwell Institute in Hillsboro; was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1853; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1855, and began practice in Wilmington, New Hanover County, N. C.; clerk of a court of equity 1858-1861; delegate to the Constitutional Union National Convention at Baltimore in 1860 which nominated Bell and Everett; engaged in newspaper work; edited the Wilmington Daily Herald in 1860 and 1861; served as lieutenant colonel of the Third Cavalry, Forty-first North Carolina Regiment, during the Civil War; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-second, Forty-third, Forty-fourth, and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1879); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1878 to the Forty-sixth Congress; resumed the practice of law and also engaged in literary pursuits; editor of the Charlotte Journal-Observer in 1881 and 1882; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1880 and at Chicago in 1896; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Thurman in 1888; mayor of Wilmington 1893-1904; died in Wilmington, N. C., March 17, 1912; interment in Oakdale Cemetery.

WADDILL, Edmund, jr., a Representative from Virginia; born in Charles City County, Va., May 22, 1855; educated by private tutors and attended Norwood Academy; deputy clerk of the courts of Charles City, New Kent, Hanover, and Henrico Counties and of the circuit court of the city of Richmond; studied law privately and in the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, was admitted to the bar in 1877, and commenced practice in Richmond in 1878; judge of the Henrico County court in 1880; resigned this office in 1883 to accept the position of United States attorney for the eastern district of Virginia, which position he filled until 1885; member of the State house of delegates from 1886 to March 4, 1889, when he resigned; unsuccessful Republican candidate for election in 1886 to the Fiftieth Congress; successfully contested as a Republican the election of George D. Wise to the Fifty-first Congress, and served from April 12, 1890, to March 3, 1891; was not a candidate for renomination in 1890; delegate to the Republican National Convention in Minneapolis in 1892 and at St. Louis in 1896; appointed United States judge for the eastern district of Virginia March 22, 1908, and served until June, 1921, when he was appointed United States judge for the fourth judicial circuit, and is now senior judge of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for that circuit; is a resident of Richmond, Va.

WADDILL, James Richard, a Representative from Missouri; born in Springfield, Greene County, Mo., November 22, 1842; attended private schools and Springfield College; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in the Union Army, and served from 1861 to 1863, when he resigned, having attained the rank of first lieutenant; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1864, and commenced practice in Springfield, Mo.; prosecuting attorney of Greene County 1874-1876; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1881); resumed the practice of law and also engaged in mining operations near Joplin, Mo.; died in Deming, Luna County, N. Mex., June 14, 1917; interment in Mountain View Cemetery.

WADE, Benjamin Franklin (brother of Edward Wade), a Senator from Ohio; born in Feeding Hills, near Springfield, Hampden County, Mass., October 27, 1800; received his early education from his mother; moved with his parents to Andover, Ohio, in 1821; taught school; studied medicine in Albany, N. Y., 1823-1825; returned to Ohio; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1828, and commenced the practice of law in Jefferson, Ashtabula County, Ohio; prosecuting attorney of Ashtabula County 1835-1837; member of the State senate in 1837 and 1838; president judge of the third judicial court of Ohio 1847-1851; elected as a Whig to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy in the term commencing March 4, 1851, caused by the failure of the legislature to elect; reelected as a Republican in 1856 and again in 1868, and served from March 15, 1851, to March 3, 1869; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1868; elected President pro tempore of the Senate March 2, 1867, and served until March 3, 1869; delegate to the Southern Loyalists Convention at Philadelphia in 1866; candidate for Vice President in the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1868; resumed the practice of law in Jefferson, Ohio, in 1869; appointed a Government director of the Pacific Railroad; member of the Santo Domingo Commission in 1871; chairman of the Ohio delegation in the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati in 1876; died in Jefferson, Ashtabula County, Ohio, March 2, 1878; interment in Oakdale Cemetery.

WADE, Edward (brother of Benjamin Franklin Wade), a Representative from Ohio; born in West Springfield, Hampden County, Mass., November 22, 1802; received a limited schooling; moved to Andover, Ashtabula County, Ohio, in 1821; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1827, and began practice in Jefferson, Ashtabula County, Ohio; justice of the peace of Ashtabula County in 1831; moved to Unionville in 1832; prosecuting attorney of Ashtabula County 1833; moved to Cleveland in 1837; elected as a Free-Soil candidate to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); reelected as a Republican to the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1861); retired from public life; died in East Cleveland, Cuyahoga County, Ohio, August 13, 1866; interment in Woodland Cemetery, Cleveland, Ohio.

WADE, Martin Joseph, a Representative from Iowa; born in Burlington, Chittenden County, Vt., October 20, 1861; moved to Iowa at an early age; attended the common schools and St. Joseph's College, Dubuque, Iowa; was graduated from the law department of the University of Iowa at Iowa City in 1886; was admitted to the bar the same year, and practiced in Iowa City, Johnson County, Iowa, 1886-1893; judge of the eighth judicial district of Iowa 1893-1903; lecturer in the law department of the University of Iowa 1891-1903, and professor of medical jurisprudence of the same institution 1895-1905; president of the Iowa State Bar Association in 1897 and 1898; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1905); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1904 to the Fifty-ninth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in Iowa City, Iowa; appointed judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Iowa in 1915, in which capacity he is now serving, and is a resident of Iowa City, Iowa.

WADE, William Henry, a Representative from Missouri; born near Springfield, Clark County, Ohio, November 3, 1835; attended the common schools, Grove Academy, and Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio; engaged in agricultural pursuits; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army April 17, 1861, and was mustered out April 26, 1866; moved to Missouri in May, 1866, and resumed agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives 1881-1884; elected as a Republican to the Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1891); unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Fifty-second Congress; again engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Springfield, Greene County, Mo. January 13, 1911; interment in Maple Park Cemetery.

WADLEIGH, Bainbridge, a Senator from New Hampshire; born in Bradford, Merrimack County, N. H., January 4, 1831; attended the common schools and Kimball Union Academy, Plainfield, N. H.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1850, and commenced practice in Milford, Hillsborough County, N. H.; served six terms as town moderator; member of the State house of representatives 1855, 1856, 1859, 1860, and 1869-1872; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1873, to March 3, 1879; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1878; resumed the practice of law in Boston, Mass., and died there January 24, 1891; interment in the West Street Cemetery, Milford, N. H.

WADSWORTH, James, a Delegate from Connecticut; born in Durham, Middlesex County, Conn., July 8, 1730; received a thorough English training, and was graduated from Yale College in 1748; studied law and was admitted to the bar; town clerk 1756-1786; justice of the peace in 1762; appointed judge of the New Haven County court in 1773, and promoted to presiding judge five years later; member of the committee of safety; served in the Revolutionary Army as a colonel and brigadier general of Connecticut Militia and commissioned second major general in 1777, resigning in 1779; Member of the Continental Congress 1783-1786; member of the State executive council 1785-1789 and State comptroller in 1786 and 1787; member of the State convention in 1788 to ratify the Federal Constitution, which he opposed and to which he refused to take the oath of allegiance; died in Durham, Conn., September 22, 1817; interment in the Old Cemetery.

WADSWORTH, James Wolcott (father of James Wolcott Wadsworth, Jr.), a Representative from New York; born in Philadelphia, Pa., October 12, 1846; attended the Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven, Conn.; served in the Civil War as captain on the staff of Gen. G. K. Warren and was made brevet major for gallant service at Five Forks; after the war settled in Genesee, N. Y., and engaged in agricultural pursuits; supervisor of Genesee 1873-1876, the election occurring each year; member of the State assembly in 1878 and 1879; State comptroller in 1880 and 1881; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Eldridge G. Lapham; reelected to the Forty-eighth Congress, and served from November 8, 1881, to March 3, 1885; elected to the Fifty-second and to the seven succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1907); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1906 to the Sixtieth Congress; elected president of the Board of Managers for the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers; always actively interested in better education; engaged in agricultural pursuits and interested in livestock; member of the State constitutional convention in 1914; for many years president of the Genesee Valley National Bank, but resigned about 1924, due to advanced years; died in Washington, D. C., December 25, 1926; interment in the family plot in Temple Hill Cemetery, Genesee, N. Y.

WADSWORTH, James Wolcott, Jr. (son of James Wolcott Wadsworth), a Senator from New York; born in Genesee, N. Y., August 12, 1877; received preparatory education at St. Mark's School, Southboro, Mass.; was graduated from Yale University in 1898; during the Spanish-American War served with Battery A, Pennsylvania Field Artillery, in the Porto Rican campaign in 1898; engaged in livestock and agricultural pursuits near Genesee, N. Y., and in managing a ranch in Texas; member of the State assembly 1904-1910, and served as speaker from 1906 to 1910; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1914; reelected in 1920, and served from March 4, 1915, to March 3, 1927; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1926; resumed the management of his estate, and is a resident of Groveland, Livingston County, N. Y.

WADSWORTH, Jeremiah, a Delegate and a Representative from Connecticut; born in Hartford, Conn., July 12, 1743; attended the common schools; went to sea in 1761; became first mate of a vessel and subsequently master; prominently identified with pre-Revolutionary movements, and served as deputy and commissary general 1775-1778 during the Revolution; Member of the Continental Congress in 1787 and 1788; member of the Connecticut convention that ratified the Federal Constitution in 1788; elected as a Federalist to the First, Second, and Third Congresses (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1795); was not a candidate for reelection; member of the State house of representatives in 1795 and of the State executive council 1795-1801; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Hartford, Conn., April 30, 1804; interment in the Ancient Burying Ground.

WADSWORTH, Peleg, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Duxbury, Mass., May 6, 1745; attended public and private schools, and was graduated from Harvard College in 1769; engaged in mercantile pursuits in Kingston, Mass.; served in the Revolutionary Army as aide to Gen. Artemas Ward in 1776; engineer under General Thomas in 1776 and 1777; brigadier general of militia in 1777; adjutant general of Massachusetts in 1778; moved to Portland, Me. (then a district of Massachusetts), in 1784 and became a land agent; served in the Massachusetts Senate in 1792; elected to the Third and to the six succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1793-March 3, 1807); moved to Oxford County, Me., in 1807 to survey and improve a large tract of land granted to him by the Government; died in Hiram, Oxford County, Me., November 12, 1829; interment in the family cemetery at Wadsworth Hall.

WADSWORTH, William Henry, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Maysville, Mason County, Ky., July 4, 1821; attended town and county private schools; was graduated from Augusta College, Bracken County, Ky., in 1841; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1844, and commenced practice in Maysville, Ky.; member of the State Senate 1855-1856; presidential elector on the Constitutional Union ticket of Bell and Everett and president of the Electoral College of Kentucky in 1860; elected as a Unionist to the Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1865); was not a candidate for renomination in 1864; during the Civil War served as aide to General Nelson, with the rank of colonel, at the Battle of Ivy Mountain; was tendered the appointment of minister to Austria by President Grant, but declined; appointed United States commissioner to Mexico, under the treaty of Washington for the adjustment of claims, by President Grant in 1869; elected as a Republican to the Forty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1887); was not a candidate for renomination in 1886; resumed the practice of law; died in Maysville, Mason County, Ky., April 2, 1896; interment in Maysville Cemetery.

WAGENER, David Douglas, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Easton, Pa., October 11, 1792; attended the common schools; captain of the Easton Union Guards 1816-1820; engaged in mercantile pursuits; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, and Twenty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1841); established the Easton Bank in 1852 and was its president until his death in Easton, Northampton County, Pa., October 1, 1860; interment in the Easton Cemetery.

WAGGAMAN, George Augustus, a Senator from Louisiana; born at "Fairview," near Cambridge, Dorchester County, Md., in 1790; completed preparatory studies under private tutors; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in Caroline County, Md., in 1811; served in the War of 1812 under General Jackson at New Orleans; settled in Baton Rouge, La., and commenced the practice of law in 1813; attorney general of the third district of Louisiana in 1813; judge of the third judicial circuit court in 1818; assistant judge of the criminal court in New Orleans in 1819; interested in sugar-cane growing; secretary of state of Louisiana 1830-1832; elected as a National-Republican to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Edward Livingston, and served from November 15, 1831, to March 3, 1835; resumed the practice of law in New Orleans and also again engaged in sugar-cane planting; participated as a principal in a duel and received injuries from which he died in New Orleans, La., March 22, 1843; interment in Girod Cemetery.

WAGNER, Peter Joseph, a Representative from New York; born at Fort Plain, N. Y., August 14, 1795; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice at Fort Plain, Montgomery County, N. Y., in 1830; member of the State assembly 1839-1841; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1841); resumed the practice of law at Fort Plain; died at Fort Plain, Montgomery County, N. Y., September 13, 1884; interment in Fort Plain Cemetery.

WAGONER, George Chester Robinson, a Representative from Missouri; born in Cincinnati, Ohio, September 3, 1803; attended the public schools and Beaumont Hospital Medical College, St. Louis, Mo.; president of the Wagoner Undertaking Co. and secretary and treasurer of the H. H. Wagoner Realty Co., St. Louis, Mo.; successfully contested as a Republican the election of James J. Butler to the Fifty-seventh Congress, and served from February 26 to March 3, 1903; declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1904; resumed business activities, and is a resident of St. Louis, Mo.

WAINWRIGHT, Jonathan Mayhew, a Representative from New York; born in New York City December 10, 1804; was graduated from Columbia College and Columbia School of Political Science, New York City, in 1834; was graduated from Columbia Law School in 1836; was admitted to the bar the same year and practiced in New York City and in Westchester County, N. Y.; served in the Twelfth Infantry of the New York National Guard as second lieutenant, first lieutenant, captain, major, and lieutenant colonel 1839-1903; also served in the war with Spain as captain of the Twelfth Regiment New York Volunteers; president of the Westchester County Bar Association 1904-1906; member of the State assembly 1902-1906; served in the State senate 1909-1913; appointed as a member of the first New York State Workmen's Compensation Commission in 1914; served as lieutenant colonel, inspector general's department, New York National Guard, on the Mexican border in 1916; during the World War served as lieutenant colonel, division inspector, in the Twenty-seventh (New York) Division, American Expeditionary Forces, throughout its entire service in this country, France, and Belgium; awarded the distinguished-service medal, the croix de guerre with palm (Belgian), and the decoration of officer of the Legion of Honor (French); Assistant Secretary of War from March 14, 1921, to March 4, 1923, when he resigned; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WAIT, John Turner, a Representative from Connecticut; born in New London, Conn., August 27, 1811; moved with his mother to Norwich, Conn.; attended the common schools and Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., for two years; engaged in mercantile pursuits; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1836, and began practice in Norwich; State's attorney for the county of New London 1842-1844 and 1846-1854; unsuccessful candidate for election as lieutenant governor in 1854, 1855, 1856, and 1857; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Lincoln and Johnson in 1864; served in the State senate in 1865 and 1866, the latter year as president pro tempore; member of the State house of representatives in 1867, 1871, and 1873, serving as speaker the first-named year, and subsequently declined the position; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Henry H. Starkweather; reelected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth, and Forty-ninth Congresses, and served from April 12, 1876, to March 3, 1887; was not a candidate for renomination in 1886; resumed the practice of law; died in Norwich, Conn., April 21, 1890; interment in Yantic Cemetery.

WAKEFIELD, James Beach, a Representative from Minnesota; born in Winsted, Conn., March 21, 1825; attended the public schools at Westfield, Mass., and Jonesville, N. Y.; was graduated from Trinity College, Hartford, Conn., in 1846; studied law in Painesville, Lake County, Ohio, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Delphi, Ind., in 1852; moved to Shakopee, Minn., in 1854; first judge of the probate court of Fairbault County, Minn.; elected a member of the State house of representatives in 1858, 1863, and 1866, serving as speaker in the session of 1866; member of the State senate 1867-1869; resigned in 1869; was appointed receiver of the United States land office at Winnebago City, Minn., June 1, 1869, and served until January 15, 1875, when he resigned; Lieutenant Governor of Minnesota 1875-1877; elected as a Republican to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1887); retired from public life; died at Blue Earth, Fairbault County, Minn., August 26, 1910; interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Painesville, Ohio.

WAKEMAN, Abram, a Representative from New York; born in Greenfield Hill, Fairfield County, Conn., on May 31, 1824; completed preparatory studies and was graduated from Herkimer Academy, New York; studied law at Little Falls, N. Y., was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in New York City in 1847; member of the State assembly in 1850 and 1851; elected as a Whig, supported by the American Party, to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); unsuccessful Republican candidate for reelection in 1856 to the Thirty-fifth Congress; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1856; at the outbreak of the Civil War raised the Eighty-first Pennsylvania Volunteers; postmaster of New York City from March 21, 1862, to September 18, 1864; surveyor of the port of New York City; resumed the practice of law; died in New York City June 29, 1889; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

WAKEMAN, Seth, a Representative from New York; born in Franklin, Vt., on January 15, 1811; attended the common schools; moved to Batavia, N. Y., where he studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; district attorney for Genesee County 1850-1856; member of the State assembly in 1856 and 1857; member of the State constitutional convention of 1867; elected as a Republican to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1873); resumed the practice of law; died in Batavia, Genesee County, N. Y., January 4, 1880; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

WALBRIDGE, David Safford, a Representative from Michigan; born in Bennington, Vt., July 30, 1802; attended the common schools; moved to New York in 1820 and engaged in mercantile and agricultural pursuits at Genesee from 1820 to 1826 and at Jamestown from 1826 to 1842; moved to Kalamazoo, Mich., in 1842; again engaged in mercantile pursuits; became a large landowner and stock raiser; member of the State house of representatives in 1848; served two terms in the State senate; served as permanent chairman of the first Republican State convention held "under the oaks" July 6, 1854, at Jackson, Mich.; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1859); resumed his former pursuits; appointed postmaster of Kalamazoo by President Johnson; died in Kalamazoo, Mich., June 15, 1868; interment in Mountain Home Cemetery.

WALBRIDGE, Henry Sanford (cousin of Hiram Walbridge), a Representative from New York; born in Norwich, Conn., on April 8, 1801; attended school in Bennington, Vt.; moved to Ithaca, Tompkins County, N. Y., in 1820; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Ithaca; clerk of the board of supervisors of Tompkins County in 1824; member of the State assembly in 1829; president of the village council of Ithaca, Tompkins County, in 1829 and again in 1842; again a member of the State assembly in 1846; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); trustee of Ithaca Academy 1858-1868; judge and surrogate of Tompkins County 1859-1868; moved to Leonia, N. J., in 1868 and practiced law in New York City; killed in a railroad accident at the Bergen Tunnel near Hoboken, N. J., January 27, 1869; interment in Ithaca City Cemetery, Ithaca, N. Y.

WALBRIDGE, Hiram (cousin of Henry Sanford Walbridge), a Representative from New York; born in Ithaca, Tompkins County, N. Y., February 2, 1821; moved to Ohio with his parents, who settled in Toledo in 1836; attended the public schools and the University of Ohio at Athens; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1842, and commenced practice in Toledo; appointed brigadier general of the militia in 1843; moved to

New York and engaged in mercantile pursuits at Buffalo; member of the board of aldermen; moved to New York City in 1847 and continued mercantile pursuits; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1854; resumed his former pursuits in New York City; unsuccessful Union candidate for election in 1862 to the Thirty-eighth Congress; president of the International Commercial Convention held in the city of Detroit, Mich., July 11, 1865; elected a delegate to the Southern Loyalist Convention at Philadelphia in 1866; died in New York City December 6, 1870; interment in Glenwood Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

WALDEN, Hiram, a Representative from New York; born in Pawlet, Vt., August 21, 1800; attended the district schools; moved to Berne, Albany County, N. Y., in 1818 and to Waldenville, Schoharie County, N. Y., in 1821; engaged in the manufacture of axes; major general of militia; member of the State assembly in 1836; was one of the supervisors of the town of Wright in 1842; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-first Congress (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1851); was not a candidate for renomination in 1850; resumed his former manufacturing pursuits; was also employed in the customhouse, New York City; discontinued his active business pursuits and lived in retirement until his death in Waldenville, N. Y., July 21, 1880; interment in Pine Grove Cemetery, Berne, Albany County, N. Y.

WALDEN, Madison Miner, a Representative from Iowa; born near Scioto, Brush Creek, Adams County, Ohio, October 6, 1836; moved to Iowa in 1852; attended Denmark Academy, Lee County, Iowa, and the Wesleyan College, Mount Pleasant, Iowa, and was graduated from Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, in 1859; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as captain in the Sixth Regiment Iowa Volunteer Infantry and the Eighth Regiment Iowa Volunteer Cavalry from May, 1861, to May, 1865; taught school; published the Centerville (Iowa) Citizen 1865-1874; member of the State house of representatives in 1866 and 1867; served in the State senate in 1868 and 1869; Lieutenant Governor of Iowa in 1870; elected as a Republican to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1873); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1872; engaged in agricultural pursuits and coal mining in Centerville, Appanoose County, Iowa; was appointed chief clerk in the office of the Solicitor of the Treasury in 1889, and served until his death in Washington, D. C., July 24, 1891; interment in Oakland Cemetery, Centerville, Iowa.

WALDO, George Ernest, a Representative from New York; born in Brooklyn, N. Y., January 11, 1851; attended the public schools of Scotland, Conn., and Brooklyn, N. Y., Doctor Fitch's Academy, South Windham, Conn., Natchaug High School, Williamantic, Conn., and was two years in Cornell University, Ithaca, N. Y., class of 1872; studied law in New York City, was admitted to the bar in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., in 1876, and practiced in New York City 1876-1883 and in Ulysses, Nebr., 1883-1889; village attorney of Ulysses, Nebr., for several years and for four years a member of the board of trustees and school director of Ulysses High School; returned to New York City in 1889; member of New York Assembly in 1890; commissioner of records of Kings County, N. Y., 1899-1904; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1900; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-ninth and Sixtieth Congresses (March 4, 1905-March 3, 1909); was not a candidate for renomination in 1908; resumed the practice of law in New York City; moved to Los Angeles, Calif., in 1913, and subsequently, in 1918, to Pasadena, Calif., and continued the practice of his profession; is now a resident of Pasadena.

WALDO, Loren Pinckney, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Canterbury, Conn., February 2, 1802; attended the common schools; taught school; engaged in agricultural pursuits; moved to Tolland, Conn., in 1823; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1825, and commenced practice in Somers, Conn.; superintendent of schools; postmaster of Somers in 1829 and 1830; returned to Tolland in 1830; member of the State house of representatives 1832-1834 and 1839; clerk of the State house of representatives in 1833; State's attorney 1837-1849; judge of probate for Tolland district in 1842 and 1843; member of the committee to revise the statutes in 1847; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1847 and 1848; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-first Congress (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1851); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1850 to the Thirty-second Congress; commissioner of the school fund of Connecticut; Commissioner of Pensions under President Pierce from March 17, 1853, until January 10, 1856, when he resigned to become judge of the Superior Court of Connecticut 1856-1863; moved to Hartford, Conn., in 1863 and resumed the practice of his profession; again a member of a committee to revise the statutes in 1864; died in Hartford, Conn., September 8, 1881; interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

WALDOW, William Frederick, a Representative from New York; born in Buffalo, N. Y., August 23, 1882; attended the common schools; engaged in the general contracting business; elected member of the Board of Aldermen of Buffalo in 1912 and 1913; member of the New York Republican State committee in 1916; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1917-March 3, 1919); resumed his former business pursuits; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1920; sheriff of Erie County, N. Y., 1921-1923; is a resident of Buffalo, N. Y.

WALDRON, Henry, a Representative from Michigan; born in Albany, N. Y., October 11, 1819; attended Albany Academy, and was graduated from Rutgers College, New Brunswick, N. J., in 1836; moved to Michigan in 1837 and was employed as a civil engineer in railroad work; settled in Hillsdale, Mich., in 1839; member of the State legislature in 1843; built the first warehouse on the line of the Michigan Southern Railroad in 1843; a director of the Michigan Southern Railroad 1846-1848; active in promoting the construction of the Detroit, Hillsdale & Southwestern Railroad and was its first president; president of the Second National Bank of Hillsdale from the date of its organization until 1876; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Taylor and Fillmore in 1848; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1861); was not a candidate for renomination in 1860; elected to the Forty-second, Forty-third, and Forty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1877); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1876; engaged in banking; elected president of the First National Bank of Hillsdale in 1876 and served until his death in Hillsdale, Hillsdale County, Mich., September 13, 1880; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.

WALLES, George Edward, a Representative from Vermont; born in Westminster, Windham County, Vt., May 13, 1792; attended the common schools; studied law in Westminster and Woodstock, Vt., was admitted to the bar in 1812, and commenced practice at Hartford, Vt.; treasurer of the White River Bridge Co. in 1818; member of the State house of representatives 1822-1824 and served as speaker during each session; elected to the Nineteenth and Twentieth Congresses (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1829); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1828 to the Twenty-first Congress; resumed the practice of his profession; town clerk of Hartford, Windsor County, Vt., 1840-1880; served as judge of probate for the Hartford district 1847-1850; died in Hartford, Vt., January 8, 1880; interment in Hartford Cemetery.

WALES, John, a Senator from Delaware; born in New Haven, Conn., July 31, 1783; pursued preparatory studies, and was graduated from Yale College in 1801; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1801 and commenced practice at New Haven, Conn.; moved to Philadelphia, Pa., and continued his practice; removed to Baltimore, Md., in 1813, where he remained until 1815; moved to Wilmington, Del., in 1815 and became president of the National Bank of Wilmington and Brandywine; secretary of state of Delaware 1845-1849; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John M. Clayton, and served from February 3, 1849, to March 3, 1851; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1851 to the United States Senate; was one of the founders of Delaware College, Newark, Del., died in Wilmington, Del., December 3, 1863; interment in the Wilmington and Brandywine Cemetery.

WALKER, Amasa, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in East Woodstock, Conn., May 4, 1790; moved with his parents to North Brookfield, Mass.; attended the district school; in 1814 entered commercial life in North Brookfield; later, in 1825, moved to Boston, where he engaged in mercantile pursuits until 1840; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Buffalo, N. Y., in 1836; delegate to the first international peace conference at London in 1843 and at Paris in 1849; lecturer on political economy at Oberlin College, Ohio, 1842-1848; member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives in 1849; served in the State senate in 1850; secretary of state of Massachusetts in 1851 and 1852; member of the State constitutional convention in 1853; lecturer on political economy at Harvard University 1853-1860; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1860; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Goldsmith F. Bailey, and served from December 1, 1862, to March 3, 1863; was not a candidate for election to the Thirty-eighth Congress; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Lincoln and Hamlin in 1860; lecturer on political economy at Amherst College, Amherst, Mass., 1859-1869; author of several books on political economy; died in North Brookfield, Worcester County, Mass., October 29, 1875; interment in the Maple Street Cemetery.

WALKER, Benjamin, a Representative from New York; born in London, England, in 1753; attended the Blue-coat School; emigrated to the United States and settled in New York City; served in the Revolutionary War as aide-de-camp to General von Steuben and subsequently on the staff of General Washington throughout the war; naval officer of customs at the port of New York from March 21, 1791, to February 20, 1796; moved to Fort Schuyler (now Utica), N. Y., in 1797; agent of the great landed estate of the Earl of Bath; elected as a Democrat to the Seventh Congress (March 4, 1801-March 3, 1803); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1802; died in Utica, N. Y., January 13, 1818; interment in the Old Village Burying Ground on Water Street; reinterment, June 17, 1876, in Forest Hill Cemetery.

WALKER, Charles Christopher Brainard, a Representative from New York; born in Drewsville, near Keene, N. H., June 27, 1824; completed preparatory studies; moved to Corning, Steuben County, N. Y., in 1848; postmaster of Corning 1863-1869; was a contractor and also engaged in the hardware and lumber business; during the Civil War served as brigade quartermaster with the rank of captain in the New York State Militia; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Charleston in 1860 and at Baltimore in 1872; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); resumed former business activities; member of the board of control of the New York Agricultural Experiment Station from June 10, 1885, until his death in Corning, N. Y., January 26, 1888; interment in Palmyra Cemetery, Palmyra, Wayne County, N. Y.

WALKER, David (brother of George Walker and grandfather of James David Walker), a Representative from Kentucky; born in Brunswick County, Va.; attended public and private schools; served in the Revolutionary War as a private under General Lafayette; was at the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown; moved to Logan County, Ky.; clerk of county and circuit courts; member of the State house of representatives 1798-1799; served as major on the staff of Governor Shelby, of Kentucky, in the Battle of the Thames, War of 1812; elected to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1817, until his death in Washington, D. C., March 1, 1820; interment in the Congressional Cemetery.

WALKER, Felix, a Representative from North Carolina; born on the south branch of the Potomac River, in Hampshire County, Va. (now West Virginia), July 18, 1753; attended a country school on the Congaree River, near Columbia, S. C., and in Burke County, N. C.; moved with his father to what became Lincoln County, N. C., and thence, in 1768, to what became Rutherford County, N. C.; was employed as a merchant's clerk at Charleston, S. C., in 1769; also engaged in agricultural pursuits; in company with Daniel Boone and others formed the settlement of Boonsboro, Ky., in 1775; clerk of the court of Washington district (most of which is now in Tennessee) in 1775 and 1776 and of the county court of Washington County (now chiefly in Tennessee) in 1777 and 1778; fought in the Revolutionary and Indian wars; lieutenant in Captain Richardson's company in the rifle regiment commanded by James Stuger, from Mecklenburg County, about 1776; captain of a company of light dragoons on the Nolachucky River about 1778; clerk of court of Rutherford County, N. C., 1779-1787; member of the State house of commons 1792, 1793, 1790-1802, and 1806; resumed agricultural pursuits and was also a trader and land speculator in Haywood County, N. C.; elected as a Democrat to the Fifteenth, Sixteenth, and Seventeenth Congresses (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1823); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1822 to the Eighteenth Congress; moved to Mississippi about 1824 and engaged in agricultural pursuits and trading; died in Clinton, Hinds County, Miss., in 1828; interment probably in a private cemetery.

WALKER, Francis (brother of John Walker), a Representative from Virginia; born at "Castle Hill," near Cobham, Albemarle County, Va., June 22, 1704; magistrate of Albemarle County; colonel of the Eighty-eighth Regiment Virginia Militia; member of the State house of delegates 1788-1791 and 1797-1801; elected to the Third Congress (March 4, 1798-March 3, 1799); died at "Castle Hill," near Cobham, Va., in March, 1806; interment in the family cemetery at "Castle Hill."

WALKER, Freeman, a Senator from Georgia; born in Charles City, Charles City County, Va., October 25, 1780; attended the common schools; moved to Augusta, Ga., in 1797; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1802, and commenced practice in Augusta; member of the State house of representatives 1807-1811; mayor of Augusta in 1818 and 1819; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Forsyth, and served from November 6, 1819, to August 6, 1821, when he resigned; again mayor of Augusta in 1823; died in Augusta, Richmond County, Ga., September 23, 1827; interment in Spring Hill Cemetery.

WALKER, George (brother of David Walker), a Senator from Kentucky; born in Culpeper County, Va., in 1763; attended the common schools; served under Generals Green and Morgan in the Revolutionary War in 1780 and 1781; moved to Jessamine County, Ky., in 1794; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Nicholasville, Ky., in 1799; a commissioner of the Kentucky River Co. in 1801; member of the State senate 1810-1814; appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of George M. Bibb, and served from August 30 to December 16, 1814, when a successor was elected; died in Nicholasville, Ky., in 1819; interment on his estate near Nicholasville.

WALKER, Gilbert Carlton, a Representative from Virginia; born in South Gibson, Susquehanna County, Pa., August 1, 1833; received a thorough English training, and was graduated from Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., in 1854; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1855, and practiced in Owego, Broome County, N. Y., 1855-1859, and in Chicago, Ill., 1859-1864; moved to Norfolk, Va., in 1864 and continued the practice of law; also engaged in banking; Governor of Virginia 1869-1874; elected as a Conservative to the Forty-fourth Congress and as a Democrat to the Forty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); was not a candidate for renomination in 1878; settled in Binghamton, Broome County, N. Y., in 1879 and practiced law for two years; moved to New York City in 1881, and continued the practice of law; served as president of the New York Underground Railroad Co.; died in New York City May 11, 1885; interment in Spring Forest Cemetery, Binghamton, N. Y.

WALKER, Isaac Pigeon, a Senator from Wisconsin; born near Wheeling, Va. (now West Virginia), November 2, 1815; moved to Danville, Ill., in early youth; attended the common schools; was employed as a clerk in a store; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1834, and commenced practice in Springfield; served one term in the State house of representatives; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Van Buren and Johnson in 1840; moved to Wisconsin Territory in 1841 and settled in Milwaukee and continued the practice of law; member of the special session of the fifth legislative assembly October 18 to 27, 1847; member of the Territorial legislature in 1847 and 1848; upon the admission of Wisconsin as a State into the Union was elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate; reelected in 1849, and served from June 8, 1848, to March 3, 1855; engaged in agricultural pursuits in Waukesha County; returned to Milwaukee and resumed the practice of law; died there March 29, 1872; interment in Forest Home Cemetery.

WALKER, James Alexander, a Representative from Virginia; born near Mount Meridian, Augusta County, Va., August 27, 1832; attended private schools, and was graduated from the Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, Va., in 1852; studied law in the University of Virginia at Charlottesville during the sessions of 1854 and 1855, was admitted to the bar in 1856, and commenced practice in Newbern, Pulaski County, Va., in 1856; attorney for the Commonwealth in 1860; during the Civil War entered the Confederate Army in April, 1861, as captain of the Pulaski Guards, afterwards Company C, Fourth Virginia Infantry, Stonewall Brigade; promoted to lieutenant colonel and assigned to the Thirteenth Virginia Infantry in July, 1861; became colonel of the same regiment in March, 1862; was promoted to brigadier general and assigned to command of the Stonewall Brigade in May, 1863; commanded Early's old division at the surrender of Appomattox; severely wounded at Spotsylvania Court House May 12, 1864; member of the House of Delegates of Virginia in 1871 and 1872; elected Lieutenant Governor of Virginia in 1877; until 1893 a member of the Democratic Party; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1899); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1898 to the Fifty-sixth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Wytheville, Wythe County, Va., October 21, 1901; interment in the East End Cemetery.

WALKER, James David (grandson of David Walker and nephew of John McLean, of Illinois), a Senator from Arkansas; born near Russellville, Logan County, Ky., December 13, 1830; attended private schools in Kentucky and Ozark Institute and Arkansas College, Fayetteville, Ark.; moved to Arkansas in 1847; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1850, and commenced practice in Fayetteville, Washington County, Ark.; judge of the circuit court, fourth judicial district; during the Civil War served as colonel of the First Regiment Arkansas Infantry, Confederate Army; captured at Oak Hills, Mo., in 1861, and imprisoned for two years; resumed the practice of law in Fayetteville, Ark., in 1865; solicitor general of the State of Arkansas; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Tilden and Hendricks in 1876; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1879, to March 3, 1885; declined to be a candidate for reelection; resumed the practice of law in Fayetteville, Ark., and died there on October 17, 1906; interment in the Walker family cemetery.

WALKER, James Peter, a Representative from Missouri; born near Memphis, Lauderdale County, Tenn., on March 14, 1851; attended the public schools and the Boys' College at Durhamville, Tenn.; employed in early youth as a clerk in a country store; moved to Missouri in 1867 and settled near Kennett, Dunklin County; engaged in agricultural pursuits; moved to Point Pleasant, New Madrid County, in 1871 and engaged in transportation on the Mississippi River; engaged in the dry-goods business at Dexter, Mo., in 1876, and later, in 1882, in the buying and selling of grain; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1880 which nominated Hancock and English; unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress in 1884; elected as a Democrat to the Fiftieth and Fifty-first Congresses, and served from March 4, 1887, until his death; unanimously nominated as the Democratic candidate for reelection to the Fifty-second Congress on the day he died in Dexter, Stoddard County, Mo., July 19, 1890; interment in Dexter Cemetery.

WALKER, John (brother of Francis Walker), a Senator from Virginia; born at "Castle Hill," near Cobham, Albemarle County, Va., February 13, 1744; was graduated from William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., in 1764; moved to "Belvoir," Albemarle County, and engaged in planting; commissioned with his father to make special terms with the Indians at Fort Pitt, Pa., so as to retain their friendship during the Revolution; served as extra aide, with the rank of colonel, to Gen. George Washington in 1777; commended by George Washington to Patrick Henry for confidential service; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William Grayson, and served from March 31, 1790, to November 9, 1790, when a successor was elected; was not a candidate for reelection; resumed his agricultural pursuits; died near Madison Mills, Orange County, Va., December 2, 1809; interment in the family cemetery on the Belvoir estate, near Clamont, Va.

WALKER, John Randall, a Representative from Georgia; born near Blackshear, Pierce County, Ga., February 23, 1874; attended the public schools; was graduated from the Jasper Normal College, Jasper, Fla., in 1895 and from the law department of the University of Georgia at Athens in 1898; was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Valdosta, Lowndes County, Ga., in 1900; member of the State house of representatives in 1907 and 1908; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, and Sixty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1919); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1918; moved to Arkansas, resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Eldorado, Ark.

WALKER, John Williams (father of Percy Walker), a Senator from Alabama; born in Amelia County, Va., August 12, 1783; attended a private school; was graduated from Princeton College in 1806; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1810, and commenced practice in Huntsville, Ala.; member of the Territorial house of representatives in 1817, and served as speaker; president of the State constitutional convention in 1819; upon the admission of Alabama as a State into the Union was elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from December 14, 1819, to December 12, 1822, when he resigned; died in Huntsville, Madison County, Ala., April 23, 1823; interment in the family burying ground at that place; reinterment in Maple Hill Cemetery.

WALKER, Joseph Henry, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Boston, Mass., December 21, 1829; moved with his parents to Hopkinton in 1830 and to Worcester, Mass., in 1843; attended the public schools; engaged in the manufacture of boots and shoes; established the business of manufacturing leather in Chicago, Ill., in 1868; member of the Common Council of Worcester 1852-1854; served in the State house of representatives in 1870, 1880, and 1887; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1899); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1898 to the Fifty-sixth Congress; resumed his former business pursuits; died in Worcester, Mass., April 3, 1907; interment in the Rural Cemetery.

WALKER, Percy (son of John Williams Walker), a Representative from Alabama; born in Huntsville, Madison County, Ala., in December, 1812; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1835; commenced the practice of medicine in Mobile, Ala.; served in the campaign against the Creek Indians; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in Mobile; State's attorney for the sixth judicial district; member of the State house of representatives in 1839, 1847, and 1853; elected by the American Party to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1856; died in Mobile, Ala., December 31, 1880; interment in Magnolia Cemetery.

WALKER, Robert James, a Senator from Mississippi; born in Northumberland, Pa., July 23, 1801; was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1819; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1821, and commenced practice in Pittsburgh, Pa., the following year; chairman of the Pennsylvania State Democratic committee in 1823; moved to Natchez, Miss., in 1826 and continued the practice of law; elected judge of the State supreme court about 1828, but declined; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate; reelected, and served from March 4, 1835, to March 5, 1845, when he resigned; Secretary of the Treasury in the Cabinet of President James K. Polk, and served from March 6, 1845, until his resignation on March 6, 1849; declined the mission to China tendered by President Pierce in 1853; resumed the practice of law; was appointed Governor of Kansas April 10, 1857, but resigned in December, 1857; United States financial agent to Europe in 1863 and 1864; again engaged in the practice of law at Washington, D. C., and died there November 11, 1869; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

WALKER, Robert Jarvis Cochran, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near West Chester, Chester County, Pa., October 20, 1838; attended school at East Hampton and old Cambridge, Mass.; was graduated from the law department of Harvard University in 1858; was admitted to the bar in 1859 and commenced practice in Philadelphia; director of the first school district of Pennsylvania; twice elected to the Council of Philadelphia; purchased the Saturday Evening Post in 1874 and was its editor for a short time; engaged in the production of oil; moved to Williamsport, Lycoming County, Pa., in 1876 and engaged in land, lumber, and coal developments; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1883); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1882, but his name was presented by his friends; returned to Philadelphia in 1890 and became a manufacturing chemist; died in Philadelphia, Pa., December 19, 1903; interment in Laurel Hill Cemetery.

WALKER, William A., a Representative from New York; born in New Hampshire in 1804; attended the common schools; moved to New York City; held several local offices; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); died in New York City December 18, 1861.

WALL, Garret Dorset (father of James Walter Wall), a Senator from New Jersey; born in Middletown, N. J., March 10, 1783; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was licensed as an attorney in 1804 and as a counselor in 1807, and commenced practice in Burlington, N. J.; served in the War of 1812 and commanded a volunteer regiment from Trenton; clerk of the State supreme court 1812-1817; quartermaster general of the State 1815-1837; member of the State general assembly in 1827; United States district attorney for New Jersey in 1829; elected Governor of New Jersey in 1829, but declined to serve; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1835, to March 3, 1841; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; judge of the Court of Errors and Appeals of New Jersey from 1848 until his death in Burlington, Burlington County, N. J., November 22, 1850; interment in the churchyard of St. Mary's Church.

WALL, James Walter (son of Garret Dorset Wall), a Senator from New Jersey; born in Trenton, N. J., May 26, 1820; tutored privately in Flushing, N. Y., and was graduated from Princeton College in 1838; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1841, and commenced practice in Trenton; served as commissioner in bankruptcy; moved to Burlington, Burlington County, N. J., in 1847; mayor of the city in 1850; was tendered the Democratic nomination for Congress in 1850, but declined; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1854 to the Thirty-fourth Congress; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John R. Thompson, and served from January 14 to March 3, 1863; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; resumed the practice of law in Burlington; also engaged in literary pursuits; moved to Elizabeth, N. J., in 1869, in which city he died on June 9, 1872; interment in the churchyard of St. Mary's Protestant Episcopal Church, Burlington, N. J.

WALL, William, a Representative from New York; born in Philadelphia, Pa., March 20, 1800; received a limited schooling; learned the trade of ropemaking and worked as a journeyman; became a manufacturer of rope; moved to Kings County, Long Island, N. Y., in 1822; trustee, commissioner of highways, supervisor, member of the board of finance, and commissioner of waterworks of Williamsburg (now a part of New York City); mayor of Williamsburg in 1853; was one of the incorporators and for a number of years president of the Williamsburg Savings Bank; also one of the founders of the Williamsburg City Bank (now the First National Bank) and the Williamsburg Dispensary; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1862; delegate to the Loyalist Convention at Philadelphia in 1866; retired to private life; died in Brooklyn, N. Y., April 20, 1872; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

WALLACE, Alexander Stuart, a Representative from South Carolina; born near York, York County, S. C., December 30, 1810; received a limited schooling; engaged in planting in his native county; member of the State house of representatives 1854-1858; successfully contested as a Republican the election of William D. Simpson to the Forty-first Congress; reelected to the Forty-second, Forty-third, and Forty-fourth Congresses, and served from May 27, 1870, to March 3, 1877; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; engaged in agricultural pursuits until his death near York, York County, S. C., June 27, 1893; interment in Rose Hill Cemetery, York, S. C.

WALLACE, Daniel, a Representative from South Carolina; born near Laurens, Laurens County, S. C., May 9, 1801; received a limited schooling; moved to Union County in 1833; major general of State militia; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in Union and Jonesville, Union County, S. C.; also engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives 1844-1848; elected as a Whig to the Thirtieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James A. Black; reelected to the Thirty-first and Thirty-second Congresses, and served from June 12, 1848, to March 3, 1853; resumed agricultural pursuits; died in Jonesville, S. C., May 13, 1859; interment in the Old Presbyterian Cemetery, Union, S. C.

WALLACE, David, a Representative from Indiana; born near Lewistown, Mifflin County, Pa., April 4, 1799; moved with his parents to Brookville, Ind., in 1817; was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point, N. Y., in 1821, and was appointed assistant professor of mathematics in that institution, resigning in 1822; returned to Brookville, Ind.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1824, and practiced; member of the State house of representatives 1828-1830; moved to Covington, Ind., in 1830 and continued the practice of law; Lieutenant Governor of Indiana 1831-1837; governor 1837-1840; settled in Indianapolis and continued the practice of law; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Twenty-eighth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Indianapolis; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1850; judge of the court of common pleas of Marion County from 1856 until his death in Indianapolis, Ind., September 4, 1859; interment in Crown Hill Cemetery.

WALLACE, James M., a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Hanover Township, Lancaster (now Dauphin) County, Pa., in 1760; pursued preparatory studies in Philadelphia; participated in the Revolution as a member of Capt. William Brown's company, and at the close of the war was major of a battalion of associators; commanded a company of rangers in defense of the frontier in 1779; became brigadier general of the State militia; one of the commissioners of the county 1799-1801; member of the State house of representatives 1806-1810; elected to the Fourteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the declination of Amos Ellmaker to serve; reelected to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses, and served from October 10, 1815, to March 3, 1821; declined to be a candidate for renomination and retired to his farm; died in West Hanover Township, Dauphin County, Pa., December 17, 1823; interment in the Old Hanover Church Graveyard, now known as the Old English Graveyard.

WALLACE, John Winfield, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Beaver Falls, Beaver County, Pa., December 20, 1818; attended Darlington (Pa.) Academy, where he afterwards taught; was graduated from the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia in 1846 and first practiced his profession in Darlington; moved to New Castle, Pa., in 1850; held several local offices; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1862 to the Thirty-eighth Congress; during the Civil War served as paymaster in the Union Army; several times a delegate to State and National conventions; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Grant and Wilson in 1872 and of Harrison and Morton in 1888; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); was not a candidate for renomination in 1876; resumed the practice of medicine in New Castle, Lawrence County, Pa., where he died June 24, 1889; interment in Grandview Cemetery, near Beaver Falls, Beaver County, Pa.

WALLACE, Jonathan Hasson, a Representative from Ohio; born in St. Clair Township, Columbiana County, Ohio, October 31, 1824; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Washington College (now Washington and Jefferson University), Washington, Pa., in 1844; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in New Lisbon, Ohio; prosecuting attorney of Columbiana County in 1851 and 1853; successfully contested as a Democrat the election of William McKinley, Jr., to the Forty-eighth Congress, and served from May 27, 1884, to March 3, 1885; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress; appointed judge of the court of common pleas by Governor Hoadley on March 5, 1885, to fill a vacancy and served one year; continued the practice of law until his death in Lisbon, Ohio, October 28, 1892; interment in Lisbon Cemetery.

WALLACE, Nathaniel Dick, a Representative from Louisiana; born in Columbia, Maury County, Tenn., October 27, 1845; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland, in 1865; returned to the United States in 1867, and engaged in the commission business at New Orleans, La., in 1878; twice elected president of the New Orleans Produce Exchange; active in manufacturing enterprises; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Michael Hahn, and served from December 9, 1886, to March 3, 1887; was not a candidate for renomination in 1886; president of the Consumers Ice Co., New Orleans, from 1893 until his death in Kentworth, near Asheville, N. C., July 16, 1894, where he had gone for the summer; interment in Metairie Cemetery, New Orleans, La.

WALLACE, Robert Minor, a Representative from Arkansas; born in New London, Union County, Ark., August 6, 1837; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Arizona Seminary, Arizona, La., in 1876; studied law, was admitted to the bar at Little Rock, Ark., in 1879, and commenced practice in El Dorado, Ark.; member of the State house of representatives in 1881 and 1882; United States post-office inspector 1887-1891; prosecuting attorney for the thirteenth judicial circuit of Arkansas in 1891 and 1892; assistant United States attorney in 1894; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, and Sixty-first Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1911); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1910; resumed the practice of his profession at Hot Springs and Little Rock and also engaged in lecturing for the Chautauque and Anti-Saloon League; is a resident of Hot Springs, Garland County, Ark.

WALLACE, Rodney, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in New Ipswich, Hillsborough County, N. H., December 21, 1823; attended the common schools; engaged in the manufacture of paper; member of the Select Council of Fitchburg, Mass., in 1864, 1865, and 1867; served in the State house of representatives in 1873; member of the governor's council 1880-1882; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1891); was not a candidate for renomination in 1890 to the Fifty-second Congress; again engaged in the manufacture of paper; died in Fitchburg, Worcester County, Mass., February 27, 1903; interment in Laurel Hill Cemetery.

WALLACE, William Andrew, a Senator from Pennsylvania; born in Huntingdon, Huntingdon County, Pa., November 28, 1827; moved with his parents to Clearfield, Clearfield County, Pa., in 1836; attended the local schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar before he was twenty years of age, and commenced practice in Clearfield; also taught school; delegate to the Democratic State convention in 1861; member of the State senate 1863-1875, and served as speaker in 1871; delegate to the Democratic National Conventions in 1864, 1872, 1876, 1880, 1884, and 1892, and was chairman of the Pennsylvania delegation in 1872 and 1876; chairman of the Democratic State central committee 1865-1868; member of the commission to suggest amendments to the constitution of Pennsylvania in 1874; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1875, to March 3, 1881; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1880; again a member of the State senate 1882-1887; became interested in the development of the bituminous coal fields of the Clearfield region and was president of the Beech Creek Railroad; died in New York City May 22, 1896; interment in Hillcrest Cemetery, Clearfield, Pa.

WALLACE, William Copeland, a Representative from New York; born in Brooklyn, N. Y., May 21, 1856; attended the Adelphi Academy, Brooklyn, N. Y., and was graduated from Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., in 1876 and from the law department of Columbia College (now Columbia University), New York City, in 1878 and commenced practice in New York City; assistant United States attorney for the southern district of New York 1880-1883; appointed judge advocate general on the staff of Governor Morton in 1894; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1891); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1890 to the Fifty-second Congress; delegate to several Republican National Conventions; resumed the practice of his profession in Brooklyn, N. Y.; died at his summer home in Warwick, Orange County, N. Y., September 4, 1901; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

WALLACE, William Henson, a Delegate from the Territories of Washington and Idaho; born in Troy, Miami County, Ohio, July 19, 1811; attended the common schools of Indiana; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; moved to Iowa in 1837; appointed colonel of State troops; appointed receiver of public money at Fairfield, Iowa; moved to the Territory of Washington in 1853; member of the Territorial council in 1855 and 1856 and served as president of the council; appointed Governor of the Territory of Washington in 1861, but did not qualify, having been elected as a Republican a Delegate from the Territory of Washington to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); was appointed the first Governor of the Territory of Idaho in 1863; elected as a Republican a Delegate from the Territory of Idaho to the Thirty-eighth Congress, and served from February 1, 1864, to March 3, 1865; died in Stellacoom, Pierce County, Wash., February 7, 1879; interment in Fort Stellacoom Cemetery.

WALLEY, Samuel Hurd, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Boston, Mass., August 31, 1805; attended the common schools and Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass.; attended Yale College in 1822, and was graduated from Harvard University in 1826; studied law, was admitted to the Suffolk bar in 1831, and practiced in Boston and Roxbury; engaged in banking; treasurer of the Vermont Central Railroad; promoter and first treasurer of the Wisconsin Central Railroad; member of the State house of representatives 1836 and 1840-1846, and served as speaker 1844-1846; corporate member of the American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions 1848-1867; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1854 to the Thirty-fourth Congress; unsuccessful Whig candidate for Governor of Massachusetts in 1855; president of the Revere National Bank; died at Nantasket Beach, Plymouth County, Mass., August 27, 1877; interment in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Mass.

WALLIN, Samuel, a Representative from New York; born in Easton, Northampton County, Pa., July 31, 1856; moved with his parents to Amsterdam, Montgomery County, N. Y., in 1864; attended the public schools and Amsterdam Academy; engaged in the manufacture of carpets and rugs and also in banking; served as alderman 1889-1892; mayor of Amsterdam in 1901 and 1902; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); was not a candidate for renomination in 1914; resumed his former business activities in Amsterdam, N. Y., where he died December 1, 1917; interment in Green Hill Cemetery.

WALLING, Ansel Tracy, a Representative from Ohio; born in Otsego County, N. Y., January 10, 1824; moved to Erie County, Pa., where he attended a local academy; studied medicine and practiced a short time; learned the art of printing; moved to Ohio in 1848 and engaged in newspaper work; clerk of the State legislature in 1851 and 1852; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1852, and practiced; moved to Keokuk, Iowa, and was editor of the Daily Times 1855-1856; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1856; returned to Ohio in 1861 and settled in Circleville, Pickaway County, where he resumed the practice of law; member of the State senate in 1865; served in the State house of representatives in 1867 and was elected speaker pro tempore; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for renomination; again engaged in the practice of law; died in Circleville, Ohio, June 22, 1896; interment in Forest Cemetery.

WALLS, Josiah Thomas, a Representative from Florida; born in Winchester, Frederick County, Va., December 30, 1842; was of the Negro race; received a limited schooling; engaged in truck farming; moved to Florida; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1868; served in the State senate 1869-1872; presented credentials as a Member elect to the Forty-second Congress, and served from March 4, 1871, to January 29, 1873, when he was succeeded by Silas L. Niblack, who contested his election; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); presented credentials as a Member elect to the Forty-fourth Congress, and served from March 4, 1875, to April 19, 1878, when he was succeeded by Jesse J. Finley, who contested his election; resumed his occupation as truck farmer; died in Tallahassee, Fla., May 6, 1905; interment in the Negro Cemetery.

WALN, Robert, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., February 22, 1765; received a limited schooling; engaged in mercantile pursuits and in East India and China trade; member of the State legislature for several years; member of the city councils of Philadelphia and served as president of the select council; elected as a Federalist to the Fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John Swanwick; reelected to the Sixth Congress, and served from December 3, 1798, to March 3, 1801; became interested in the operation of ironworks and during the War of 1812 erected a cotton factory in Trenton; served as president of the Philadelphia Insurance Co. and as a trustee of the University of Pennsylvania; died in Philadelphia, Pa., January 24, 1836; interment in the Friends' Arch Street Burial Ground.

WALSH, Allan Bartholomew, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Trenton, N. J., August 20, 1874; attended the Immaculate Conception Parochial School and the public schools of Trenton; employed with an electrical concern in Trenton 1900-1911; member of the State house of assembly in 1910 and 1911; secretary of the Mercer County Board of Taxation in 1912 and 1913; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; engaged in the real-estate brokerage business, and is a resident of Trenton, N. J.

WALSH, David Ignatius, a Senator from Massachusetts; born in Leominster, Worcester County, Mass., November 11, 1872; attended the public schools; was graduated from Holy Cross College, Worcester, Mass., in 1893 and from Boston University Law School in 1897; was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice at Fitchburg, Mass., in 1897; later practiced in Boston; member of the State house of representatives in 1900 and 1901; Lieutenant Governor of Massachusetts in 1913; governor in 1914 and 1915; delegate at large to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1912, at St. Louis in 1916, at San Francisco in 1920, and at New York City in 1924; delegate at large to the Massachusetts constitutional convention in 1917 and 1918; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1919, to March 3, 1925; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1924; resumed the practice of law in Boston; elected to the United States Senate in 1926 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Henry Cabot Lodge, and took his seat December 6, 1926, for the term ending March 3, 1929.

WALSH, James Joseph, a Representative from New York; born in New York City May 22, 1858; attended the public schools and St. James' Parochial School; was graduated from Manhattan College in 1877 and from the law department of Columbia University, both in New York City, in 1879; was admitted to the bar in 1880 and commenced practice in New York City; inspector of common schools 1889-1894; presented credentials as a Democratic Member elect to the Fifty-fourth Congress, and served from March 4, 1895, to June 2, 1896, when he was succeeded by John M. Mitchell, who contested his election; resumed the practice of law in New York City; appointed city magistrate in 1905, which office he held until his death in New York City on May 8, 1909; interment in Calvary Cemetery, Long Island City, N. Y.

WALSH, Joseph, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Boston (Brighton), Mass., December 16, 1875; attended the public schools in Falmouth, Mass., and the Boston University Law School; was admitted to the bar in 1906 and practiced in New Bedford; served as fish-culturist and clerk in the United States Bureau of Fisheries at Woods Hole, Mass., 1900-1905; member of the State house of representatives in 1905; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Taft and Butler in 1912; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, and Sixty-seventh Congresses, and served from March 4, 1915, to August 2, 1922, when he resigned to accept a judicial position; appointed on August 2, 1922, a justice of the Superior Court of Massachusetts, in which capacity he is now serving; is a resident of New Bedford, Mass.

WALSH, Michael, a Representative from New York; born in Youghal, near Cork, Ireland, March 8, 1810; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland; emigrated to the United States and settled in Baltimore, Md.; learned the trade of lithographic printer and moved to New York City; member of the State assembly in 1839; established the Subterranean in 1843, a publication which was stopped after two years by the conviction of its owner for the publication of a libel; elected a member of the State assembly in 1846 and again in 1848; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1854 to the Thirty-fourth Congress; after his term in Congress was employed as a newspaper reporter; died in New York City March 18, 1859; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

WALSH, Patrick, a Senator from Georgia; born in Ballinagarry, County Limerick, Ireland, January 1, 1840; emigrated to the United States in 1852 with his parents, who settled in Charleston, S. C.; became a journeyman printer in 1857; attended night schools, the Charleston High School, and Georgetown University, Washington, D. C., 1859-1861; returned to Charleston and entered the State military service; moved to Augusta, Ga., in 1862 and for thirty-two years was connected with the press of that city, most of the time as manager and editor of the Augusta Chronicle; treasurer and general manager of the Southern Associated Press; member of the City Council of Augusta in 1870; member of the State house of representatives in 1872, 1874, and 1876; delegate at large to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1884 which nominated Grover Cleveland, of New York, for President and Thomas A. Hendricks, of Indiana, for Vice President; four years a member of the Democratic National Executive Committee; member of the World's Columbian Exposition Commission at Chicago in 1893; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Alfred H. Colquitt; subsequently elected, and served from April 2, 1894, to March 3, 1895; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1894; resumed his newspaper interests; mayor of Augusta 1897-1899; died in Augusta, Ga., March 19, 1899; interment in the City Cemetery.

WALSH, Thomas James, a Senator from Montana; born at Two Rivers, Manitowac County, Wis., June 12, 1859; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the law department of the University of Wisconsin at Madison in 1884; taught school; was admitted to the bar in 1884 and commenced practice at Redfield, Spink County, S. Dak.; moved to Helena, Mont., in 1890 and continued the practice of law; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1906 to the Sixtieth Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Denver in 1908, at Baltimore in 1912, at St. Louis in 1916, at San Francisco in 1920, and at New York City in 1924; was the permanent chairman of the Democratic National Convention at New York City in 1924; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1912 for the term commencing March 4, 1913; reelected in 1918, and again in 1924 for the term ending March 3, 1931.

WALSH, Thomas Yates, a Representative from Maryland; born in Baltimore, Md., in 1809; completed preparatory studies, and attended St. Mary's College at Baltimore 1821-1824; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1832, and commenced practice in Baltimore; member of the city council in 1847 and 1848; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1852 to the Thirty-third Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in Baltimore, Md., January 20, 1885; interment in St. Paul's Protestant Episcopal Cemetery.

WALSH, William, a Representative from Maryland; born near Tullamore, County Kings, Ireland, May 11, 1828; attended a local school; emigrated to the United States in 1842 and settled in Virginia; was graduated from Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Md.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Virginia in 1850, and commenced practice in Cumberland, Md., in 1852; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Breckinridge and Lane in 1860 and of Greeley and Brown in 1872; member of the State constitutional convention in 1867; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1878; resumed the practice of law; died in Cumberland, Md., May 17, 1892; interment in St. Patrick's Cemetery.

WALTERS, Anderson Howell, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Johnstown, Cambria County, Pa., May 18, 1862; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Johnstown High School in 1878; employed as a telegrapher and clerk with the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. 1878-1880; entered the service of the Johnstown Water Co. and the Johnstown Gas Co. in 1881 and was assistant superintendent of these companies in 1889 and general manager and secretary 1895-1902; delegate to the Republican State conventions in 1890, 1892, 1898, and 1904; delegate to the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in 1896 which nominated William McKinley, of Ohio, for President, and Garret A. Hobart, of New Jersey, for Vice President; chairman of the Republican city committee 1896-1899; member of the Republican State committee 1898-1902; member of the Johnstown City Council 1900-1904; editor and proprietor of the Johnstown Tribune from 1902 until his death; elected a member of the board of trustees of the Johnstown Savings Bank in 1907; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); was not a candidate for renomination; elected to the Sixty-sixth and Sixty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1923); was not a candidate for renomination; elected to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927); was not a candidate for renomination; died in Johnstown, Pa., December 7, 1927; interment in Grandview Cemetery.

WALTHALL, Edward Cary, a Senator from Mississippi; born in Richmond, Va., April 4, 1831; pursued an academic course and attended St. Thomas Hall, Holly Springs, Miss.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1852, and commenced practice in Coffeeville, Miss.; elected district attorney for the tenth judicial district of Mississippi in 1856 and reelected in 1859; resigned in 1861 and entered the Confederate Army during the Civil War as a lieutenant in the Fifteenth Mississippi Regiment; subsequently elected lieutenant colonel of the regiment; was elected colonel of the Twenty-ninth Mississippi Regiment in the spring of 1862; promoted to brigadier general in December, 1862, and major general in June, 1864; resumed the practice of law in Coffeeville; moved to Grenada, Miss., in 1871, and continued practice there until March, 1885; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Lucius Q. C. Lamar; was subsequently elected to fill the vacancy; reelected in 1889, and served from March 9, 1885, to January 24, 1894, when he resigned; was again elected for the term beginning March 4, 1895, and served from that date until his death in Washington, D. C., April 21, 1898; interment in Holly Springs Cemetery, Holly Springs, Miss.

WALTON, Charles Wesley, a Representative from Maine; born in Mexico, Me., December 9, 1819; attended the common schools and was instructed at home and by private tutors; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Oxford, Me., in 1841, and commenced practice in Mexico, Oxford County, Me., in 1843; also practiced law in Dixfield, Me.; attorney for Oxford County 1847-1851; moved to Auburn, Me., in 1855 and continued the practice of law; attorney for Androscoggin County 1857-1860; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress, and served from March 4, 1861, to May 28, 1862, when he resigned to accept a judicial appointment; associate justice of the State supreme court 1862-1897; was not a candidate for reappointment; retired from public life and resided in Portland, Cumberland County, Me., until his death on January 24, 1900; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

WALTON, Eliakim Persons, a Representative from Vermont; born in Montpelier, Vt., February 17, 1812; attended the common schools; apprenticed to a printer; studied law, but did not practice; engaged in journalism and compiling; editor of Walton's Vermont Register; organizer and first president of the Editors and Publishers' Association, holding the office of president for more than twenty years; after the retirement of his father in 1853 became sole proprietor of the Watchman, which he held until 1868; served in the State house of representatives in 1853; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fifth, Thirty-sixth, and Thirty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1863); declined to be a candidate for reelection and returned to his editorial and literary labors; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864; member of the State constitutional convention in 1870; served in the State senate in 1875 and 1877; trustee of the University of Vermont and State Agricultural College 1875-1887; president of the Vermont Historical Society 1876-1890; died in Montpelier, Washington County, Vt., December 10, 1890; interment in Green Mount Cemetery.

WALTON, George (cousin of Matthew Walton), a Delegate and a Senator from Georgia; born near Farmville, Prince Edward County, Va., in 1741; attended the common schools; moved to Savannah, Ga., in 1769; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1774, and commenced practice in Savannah, Ga.; was secretary of the Provincial Congress in 1775 and a member of the committee of intelligence; member of the council of safety in 1775 and later president of that body; member of the State house of representatives; Member of the Continental Congress 1776-1781; was a signer of the Declaration of Independence and of the Articles of Confederation; served in the Revolutionary War and was captured at Savannah; colonel First Georgia Battalion; Governor of Georgia in 1779; commissioner to treat with the Indians at Easton, Pa., and to negotiate a treaty with the Cherokees in Tennessee in 1783; chief justice of Georgia 1783-1788; member of the Augusta Board of Commissioners in 1784 and 1785; represented Georgia in the settlement of the boundary line between South Carolina and Georgia in 1786; elected a delegate to the convention to frame the Federal Constitution in 1787, but declined; again Governor of Georgia in 1789; was appointed first judge of the superior courts of the eastern judicial circuit in 1790; chairman of the reception committee and delivered the address of welcome upon the occasion of President Washington's visit to Augusta in 1791; again chief justice of Georgia in 1793; appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James Jackson, and served from November 18, 1795, to February 20, 1796, when a successor was elected; trustee of Richmond Academy and the University of Georgia; moved to Augusta; appointed judge of the middle circuit of Georgia and served from 1799 until his death at his home, "Meadow Garden," near Augusta, Richmond County, Ga., February 2, 1804; interment in the Rosney Cemetery; reinterment in 1848 beneath the monument in front of the courthouse on Greene Street, Augusta, Ga.

WALTON, Matthew (cousin of George Walton), a Representative from Kentucky; received a limited schooling; member of the conventions held in Danville in 1785 and 1787; member of the first State constitutional convention in 1792; member of the State house of representatives in 1792, 1795, and 1808; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Madison and Clinton in 1809; elected to the Eighth and Ninth Congresses (March 4, 1803-March 3, 1807); died in Springfield, Ky., January 18, 1819; interment in the Springfield Cemetery.

WALTON, William Bell, a Representative from New Mexico; born in Altoona, Blair County, Pa., January 23, 1871; attended the public schools and the South Jersey Institute, Bridgeton, N. J.; moved to New Mexico in 1891; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1893, and commenced practice at Deming, N. Mex.; member of the State house of representatives in 1901 and 1902; clerk of Grant County 1903-1906; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Denver in 1908; chairman of the State Democratic central committee in 1910; member of the State constitutional convention in 1911; served in the State senate 1912-1916; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1917-March 3, 1919); did not seek a renomination, having become a candidate for Senator; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1918; resumed the practice of his profession; elected district attorney of the sixth judicial district November 2, 1926, in which capacity he is now serving, and is a resident of Silver City, Grant County, N. Mex.

WALWORTH, Reuben Hyde, a Representative from New York; born in Bozrah, Conn., October 20, 1788; moved to New York with his parents, who settled on a farm near Hoosick in 1796; attended the common schools; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1809, and commenced practice in Plattsburg in 1810; master in chancery and circuit judge in 1811; served in the War of 1812; aide-de-camp to Gen. Benjamin Moores and division judge advocate with rank of colonel; elected as a Democrat to the Seventeenth Congress (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1828); was not a candidate for renomination in 1822; judge of the fourth judicial district of New York 1823-1828; moved to Saratoga Springs, Saratoga County, N. Y., in October, 1828; chancellor of the State of New York from 1828 to 1848, when the office of chancellor was abolished; unsuccessful candidate for election as governor in 1848; appointed an associate justice of the United States Supreme Court by President Tyler in 1844, but was not confirmed by the Senate; died in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., November 27, 1867; interment in Greenridge Cemetery.

WANGER, Irving Price, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in North Coventry, Chester County, Pa., March 5, 1852; attended the public schools of North Coventry and Pottstown, and the Hill School in Pottstown; deputy prothonotary of Chester County in 1871; commenced the study of law at Norristown in 1872; deputy prothonotary of Montgomery County 1873-1875; was admitted to the bar December 18, 1875, and commenced practice in Norristown, Pa.; elected Burgess of Norristown in 1878; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1880 which nominated the presidential ticket of Garfield and Arthur; elected district attorney of Montgomery County in 1880 and again in 1886; served as chairman of the Montgomery County Republican Committee in 1888; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1890 to the Fifty-second Congress; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-third and to the eight succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1911); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1910 to the Sixty-second Congress; lived for a short time in Wilmington, Del.; resumed the practice of his profession in Media, Pa., in 1920, where he now resides.

WARBURTON, Stanton, a Representative from Washington; born in Sullivan County, Pa., April 13, 1865; moved to Iowa with his parents, who settled in Cherokee in 1868; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the Cherokee (Iowa) High School in 1884 and from Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, in 1888; moved to Tacoma, Wash., in 1888; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1889, and commenced practice in Tacoma; member of the State senate 1890-1904; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second Congress (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1912 to the Sixty-third Congress; resumed the practice of law in Tacoma, Wash.; died in Boston, Mass., December 24, 1920, while undergoing medical treatment; interment in Mountain View Burial Park, Tacoma, Wash.

WARD, Aaron (uncle of Elijah Ward), a Representative from New York; born in Sing Sing (now Ossining), N. Y., July 5, 1790; completed preparatory studies in Mount Pleasant Academy; served in the War of 1812 as lieutenant and captain in the Twenty-ninth Infantry; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice at Sing Sing; district attorney for Westchester County; served in the State militia as colonel, brigadier general, and major general; elected as a Democrat to the Nineteenth and Twentieth Congresses (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1829); was not a candidate for reelection; elected to the Twenty-second, Twenty-third, and Twenty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1837); was not a candidate for reelection to the Twenty-fifth Congress; elected to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Twenty-eighth Congress; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1846; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for secretary of state in 1855; trustee of Mount Pleasant Academy; died at the home of his son-in-law in Georgetown, D. C., March 2, 1867; interment in Dale Cemetery, Ossining, N. Y.

WARD, Andrew Harrison, a Representative from Kentucky; born near Cynthiana, Harrison County, Ky., January 8, 1815; attended the county schools and Transylvania University, Lexington, Ky.; clerk on a steamboat on the Tombigbee River for several years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1844, and commenced practice in Cynthiana, Ky.; city attorney of Cynthiana in 1860; unsuccessful candidate for election to the State house of representatives in 1861; member of the State house of representatives 1863-1865; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Green Clay Smith, and served from December 3, 1866, to March 3, 1867; was not a candidate for renomination in 1866; resumed the practice of law and subsequently became president of the National Bank of Cynthiana; died in Cynthiana, Ky., April 16, 1904; interment in Battle Grove Cemetery.

WARD, Artemas (father of Artemas Ward, Jr.), a Delegate and a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Shrewsbury, Mass., November 26, 1727; attended the common schools and prepared for college by a private tutor; was graduated from Harvard College in 1748; justice of the peace in 1752; a representative in the general assembly many terms and in the executive council; lieutenant colonel in the provincial army in the French and Indian War; appointed brigadier general by the Provincial Congress of Massachusetts on October 27, 1774, and made commander in chief of the Massachusetts forces on May 19, 1775; appointed by the Continental Congress major general on June 17, 1775, and was in command of the forces besieging Boston until the arrival of General Washington; chief justice of the court of common pleas of Worcester County in 1776 and 1777; president of the Massachusetts Executive Council 1777-1779; member of the State house of representatives 1779-1785 and speaker the last year; Member of the Continental Congress from January, 1780, to May, 1782, when he resigned; elected as a Federalist to the Second and Third Congresses (March 4, 1791-March 3, 1795); his home in Shrewsbury, Mass., is owned by Harvard University and maintained as a permanent memorial to him; died in Shrewsbury, Mass., October 28, 1800; interment in Mountain View Cemetery.

WARD, Artemas, Jr. (son of Artemas Ward), a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Shrewsbury, Mass., January 9, 1762; was graduated from Harvard University in 1783; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1783, and commenced the practice of his profession in Weston; member of the State house of representatives 1790-1800 and again in 1811; moved to Charlestown in 1800; member of the board of overseers of Harvard University 1810-1844; elected as a Federalist to the Thirtieth and Fourteenth Congresses (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1817); served in the State senate in 1818 and 1819; member of the State constitutional convention in 1820; chief justice of the court of common pleas from 1820 to 1830; died in Boston, Mass., October 7, 1847.

WARD, Charles Bonnell, a Representative from New York; born in Newark, N. J., April 27, 1879; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Pennsylvania Military College at Chester in 1899; moved to New York and settled in DeBruce, Sullivan County, in 1903; engaged in agricultural pursuits; became editor and owner of the Liberty Register at Liberty, N. Y., in 1910; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1925); declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1924 to the Sixty-ninth Congress; resumed agricultural pursuits; is a resident of DeBruce, Sullivan County, N. Y.

WARD, Elijah (nephew of Aaron Ward), a Representative from New York; born in Sing Sing (now Ossining), N. Y., September 16, 1816; pursued classical studies; engaged in commercial pursuits in New York City and at the same time attended the law department of New York University; was admitted to the bar in 1843 and commenced practice in New York City; judge advocate general of the State 1853-1855; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1856 which nominated James Buchanan, of Pennsylvania, for President, and John C. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, for Vice President; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1859); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1858 to the Thirty-sixth Congress; elected to the Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1865); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth Congress; traveled in Europe for two years, after which he resumed the practice of law in New York City; elected to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; died in Roslyn, Nassau County, N. Y., February 7, 1882; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City, N. Y.

WARD, Hallett Sydney, a Representative from North Carolina; born near Gatesville, Gates County, N. C., August 31, 1870; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the law department of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1893; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Winton, N. C.; member of the State senate in 1899 and 1901; mayor of Plymouth, N. C., in 1902 and 1903; solicitor of the first judicial district of North Carolina 1904-1910; moved to Washington, N. C., in November, 1904, and engaged in the practice of law; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-seventh and Sixty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1925); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1924; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Washington, Beaufort County, N. C.

WARD, Hamilton, a Representative from New York; born in Salisbury, Herkimer County, N. Y., July 3, 1829; attended the common schools and was privately tutored; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Phillipsville (now Belmont), N. Y., in 1851; district attorney of Allegany County 1856-1859 and 1862-1865; appointed commissioner in 1862 by the governor to raise and equip troops for the Civil War; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-ninth, Fortieth, and Forty-first Congresses (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1871); was not a candidate for renomination in 1870; delegate to nearly all State conventions from 1858 to 1890; attorney general of New York in 1880 and 1881; member of the State constitutional commission in 1890; appointed and subsequently elected justice of the State supreme court, and served from 1891 until his death in Belmont, Allegany County, N. Y., December 23, 1898; interment in Forest Hill Cemetery.

WARD, James Hugh, a Representative from Illinois; born in Chicago, Ill., November 30, 1853; attended the public schools of Chicago, and was graduated from the University of Notre Dame, Indiana, in 1873; attended the Union College of Law in Chicago, and was graduated in 1876; was admitted to the bar in July, 1876, and practiced; was elected supervisor of the town of West Chicago in 1879; was presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Hendricks in 1884; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1887); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1886; resumed the practice of his profession in Chicago, Cook County, Ill., where he died August 15, 1916; interment in Calvary Cemetery.

WARD, Jasper Delos, a Representative from Illinois; born in Java, Wyoming County, N. Y., February 1, 1829; attended Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., in 1849 and 1850; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1852, and commenced practice in Chicago, Ill.; member of the Board of Aldermen of Chicago in 1855, 1856, 1859, and 1860; during the Civil War enlisted in the Western Engineers Regiment in 1861 and served for about eight months; member of the State senate 1862-1870; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; United States attorney for the northern district of Illinois 1875-1877; moved to Colorado in 1877 and settled in Leadville; appointed by Governor Pitkin judge of the fifth judicial district of Colorado, and served from March 5, 1881, to January 3, 1882; declined to be a candidate for election to the same office; moved to Denver, Colo., and resumed the practice of law; died in Denver, Colo., August 6, 1902; interment in Fairmount Cemetery.

WARD, Jonathan, a Representative from New York; born in the town of Eastchester, N. Y., September 21, 1768; received a limited schooling; assessor of Eastchester in 1791; sheriff of Westchester County 1802-1806; served in the State senate in 1807; member of the council of appointment in 1809; elected as a Democrat to the Fourteenth Congress (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1817); member of the State constitutional convention in 1821; surrogate of Westchester County 1828-1840; died in the town of Eastchester, N. Y., September 28, 1842.

WARD, Marcus Lawrence, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Newark, N. J., November 9, 1812; received a limited schooling; engaged in candle manufacturing; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1860 and at Baltimore in 1864; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of New Jersey in 1862; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Lincoln and Johnson in 1864; elected governor in 1865 and served from January 16, 1866, to January 18, 1869; was chairman of the Republican National Committee in 1868; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; died in Newark, N. J., April 25, 1884; interment in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

WARD, Matthias, a Senator from Texas; born in Elbert County, Ga., on October 13, 1805; was reared in Madison County, Ala.; received a college education in Huntsville, Ala.; taught school two years; studied law; moved to the Republic of Texas in 1836 and settled in Bowie, Montague County, and subsequently in Clarksville, Red River County, in 1845; engaged in trading; served a number of years in the Congress of that Republic; moved to Jefferson, Marlon County, Tex.; served in the State senate; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1852 and at Cincinnati in 1856; delegate to the Democratic State convention at Austin in 1856 and served as president; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. Pinckney Henderson, and served from September 27, 1856, to December 5, 1859, when a successor was elected; died at Warm Springs, near Raleigh, N. C., October 5, 1861; interment in the old City Cemetery, Nashville, Tenn.

WARD, Samuel, a Delegate from Rhode Island; born in Newport, R. I., May 27, 1725; was graduated from Cambridge College, Cambridge, Mass., in 1748; settled in Westerly, R. I., in 1745; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the general assembly 1756-1759; member of the council of war at Hartford, Conn., relative to the conduct of the French and Indian War; one of the founders of Rhode Island College (now Brown University), Providence, R. I., in 1786; chief justice of Rhode Island in 1761 and 1762; governor under the royal charter 1762, 1768, and 1765-1767; trustee of Brown University 1764-1778; was an active patriot and a friend and correspondent of Washington and Franklin; Member of the Continental Congress 1774-1778; died in Philadelphia, Pa., March 26, 1778; interment in the churchyard of the First Baptist Church, Philadelphia, Pa.; reinterment in the Old Cemetery, Newport, Newport County, R. I., in 1860.

WARD, Thomas, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Newark, N. J., about 1759; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Newark, N. J.; served as captain and major during the Whisky Insurrection in 1794; sheriff of Essex County, N. J., in 1797; elected one of the judges of Essex County court in 1804 and reelected in 1809; member of the legislative council in 1808 and 1809; elected as a Democrat to the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Congresses (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1817); was senior officer of the New Jersey Cavalry at the time of his death in Newark, N. J., March 4, 1842; interment in the churchyard of the First Presbyterian Church.

WARD, Thomas Bayless, a Representative from Indiana; born in Marysville, Union County, Ohio, April 27, 1835; moved with his parents to La Fayette, Ind., in May, 1866; attended Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Ind., and was graduated from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in June, 1855; clerk of the city of La Fayette in 1855 and 1856; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1857, and commenced the practice of his profession in La Fayette, Ind.; city attorney in 1859 and 1860; mayor of La Fayette 1861-1865; judge of the superior court of Tippecanoe County, Ind., 1875-1880; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1887); was not a candidate for renomination in 1886 to the Fiftieth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in La Fayette, Tippecanoe County, Ind., where he died January 1, 1892; interment in Springvale Cemetery.

WARD, William, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., January 1, 1837; attended Girard College, Philadelphia, Pa.; learned the art of printing in the office of the Delaware County Republican, Chester, Pa.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in August, 1859, and commenced practice in Chester; also engaged in the land business and banking; member of the City Council of Chester and city solicitor; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1888); was not a candidate for renomination in 1882; resumed the practice of his profession and former business pursuits in Chester, Pa., and died there on February 27, 1896; interment in the Rural Cemetery.

WARD, William Lukens, a Representative from New York; born in Greenwich, Conn., September 2, 1856; attended the Friends Seminary, New York City, and afterwards the school of mines of Columbia College, New York City, class of 1878; engaged in the manufacture of bolts, nuts, and rivets in Fort Chester, N. Y.; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of McKinley and Hobart in 1896; delegate to all Republican State and National Conventions since 1896; member of the Republican National Committee 1904-1912; chairman of the Republican State committee for several years; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1899); resumed his former manufacturing pursuits, and is a resident of Fort Chester, Westchester County, N. Y.

WARD, William Thomas, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Amelia County, Va., August 9, 1808; attended the common schools and St. Mary's College, near Lebanon, Ky.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Greensburg, Ky.; served in the Mexican War as major of the Fourth Kentucky Volunteers in 1847 and 1848; member of the State house of representatives in 1850; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); was not a candidate for renomination in 1852; commissioned brigadier general in 1861 and served throughout the Civil War; brevetted major general in 1865; resumed the practice of law in Louisville, Ky., where he died October 12, 1878; interment in Cave Hill Cemetery.

WARDWELL, Daniel, a Representative from New York; born in Bristol, R. I., on May 28, 1791; was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1811; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Rome, N. Y.; moved to Mannsville, N. Y., in 1814; judge of the court of common pleas for Jefferson County, N. Y.; elected member of the State assembly 1825-1828; was elected as a Republican to the Twenty-second, Twenty-third, and Twenty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1837); was not a candidate for renomination in 1836; returned to Rome, N. Y., and resumed the practice of law; died in Rome, Onondaga County, N. Y., March 27, 1878; interment in Maplewood Cemetery, Mannsville, Jefferson County, N. Y.

WARE, Nicholas, a Senator from Georgia; born in Caroline County, Va., in 1769; moved with his parents to Edgefield, S. C., and a few years later to Augusta, Ga.; received a thorough English education; studied medicine for a time; then studied law in Augusta and in the Litchfield (Conn.) Law School; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice in Augusta; member of the State house of representatives 1806-1811, 1814, and 1815; mayor of Augusta 1819-1821; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Freeman Walker, and served from November 10, 1821, until his death in New York City September 7, 1824; interment under the annex of Grace Church.

WARFIELD, Henry Ridgely, a Representative from Maryland; born in Anne Arundel County, Md., on September 14, 1774; completed preparatory studies; held several local offices; settled in Frederick, Md.; elected as a Federalist to the Sixteenth, Seventeenth, and Eighteenth Congresses (March 4, 1819-March 3, 1825); died in Frederick, Frederick County, Md., March 18, 1839.

WARNER, Adoniram Judson, a Representative from Ohio; born in Wales, near Buffalo, N. Y., January 13, 1834; moved with his parents to Wisconsin at the age of eleven; attended school in Beloit, Wis., and the New York Central College, McGrawville, N. Y.; was principal of the Lewistown (Pa.) Academy, superintendent of the public schools of Mifflin County, and principal of Mercer Union School, Pennsylvania, 1856-1861; served in the Civil War; commissioned captain in the Tenth Pennsylvania Reserves July 21, 1861; lieutenant colonel May 14, 1862; colonel April 25, 1863; colonel of the Veteran Reserve Corps November 15, 1863; brevetted brigadier general March 18, 1865, "for gallant and meritorious services during the war"; mustered out November 17, 1865; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Indianapolis, Ind., in 1865, but never practiced; at the conclusion of the war returned to Pennsylvania, and in 1866 moved to Marietta, Ohio; engaged in the oil, coal, and railroad business; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1881); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1890 to the Forty-seventh Congress; elected to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1887); was not a candidate for reelection in 1886; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1896; engaged in street railway construction in the District of Columbia and railroad construction in Ohio; from about 1896 until six months before his death engaged in transportation and power development in Georgia; died in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, August 12, 1910; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.

WARNER, Hiram, a Representative from Georgia; born in Williamsburg, Hampshire County, Mass., October 29, 1802; received a good common-school training and acquired some knowledge of the classics; in 1819 moved to Georgia and taught school for three years; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Knoxville, Crawford County, Ga., in 1825; served in the general assembly 1828-1831; declined reelection; moved to Talbotton in 1830, and continued the practice of his profession; moved to Greenville; elected judge of the State superior court and served from 1833 to 1840; judge of the State supreme court from 1840 to 1853, when he resigned; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1856; appointed by Governor Jenkins judge of the Coweta circuit court, and served from 1865 to 1867, when he was appointed, and subsequently elected, chief justice of the State supreme court, and served until 1880, when he resigned; died in Atlanta, Ga., June 30, 1881; interment in the Town Cemetery, Greenville, Meriwether County, Ga.

WARNER, De Witt, a Representative from New York; born in Reading, Schuylar County, N. Y., October 30, 1851; moved with his parents to Rock Stream, Yates County, N. Y.; completed preparatory studies; attended the district schools and Starkey Seminary, Eddytown, N. Y.; was graduated from Cornell University in 1872; edited the Ithaca Daily Leader for a few months; professor in the Ithaca and Albany Academies for four years; was graduated from the Albany Law School in 1876, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in New York City in 1877; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1895); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1894; resumed the practice of law in New York City; president of the Art Commission of New York City 1902-1905; president of the American Free Trade League 1905-1909; special counsel for the dock department to advise on terminal work in 1911 and 1912; served on the commission to revise the New York banking laws in 1913; also engaged in literary pursuits; engaged in the practice of law until his death in New York City May 27, 1925; interment in Rock Stream Cemetery, Rock Stream, Yates County, N. Y.

WARNER, Levi (brother of Samuel Larkin Warner), a Representative from Connecticut; born in Wethersfield, Hartford County, Conn., October 10, 1831; completed preparatory studies; attended the law department of Yale College, New Haven, Conn., and the Dane Law School, Cambridge, Mass., was admitted to the bar in 1859, and commenced practice in Fairfield County, Conn.; moved to Norwalk, Conn., in 1856, and continued the practice of law; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William H. Barnum; reelected to the Forty-fifth Congress, and served from December 4, 1876, to March 3, 1879; was not a candidate for renomination in 1878; resumed the practice of law; died in Norwalk, Conn., April 12, 1911; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

WARNER, Richard, a Representative from Tennessee; born near Chapel Hill, Marshall County, Tenn., September 19, 1838; attended the public schools and was graduated from the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1863; was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced practice in Lewisburg, Tenn.; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army 1861-1865; returned to Lewisburg, Tenn., and resumed the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives in 1878; delegate to the convention that framed the new constitution of Tennessee in 1870; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-seventh and Forty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1884; resumed the practice of law in Lewisburg, Tenn.; died in Nashville, Tenn., March 4, 1915; interment in the Warner Cemetery, near Chapel Hill, Tenn.

WARNER, Samuel Larkin (brother of Levi Warner), a Representative from Connecticut; born in Wethersfield, Hartford County, Conn., June 14, 1828; attended Wilbraham Academy, Wilbraham, Mass., and the law department of Yale College; was graduated from the law department of Harvard University in 1854; was admitted to the bar in Boston, Mass., in 1854, and commenced practice in Portland, Middlesex County, Conn., in 1855; member of the State house of representatives in 1858; moved to Middletown in 1860; mayor 1862-1866; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864, and served as one of the secretaries of the convention; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1867); was not a candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law; delegate at large to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1888 and at Minneapolis in 1892; died in Middletown, Middlesex County, Conn., February 6, 1893; interment in Indian Hill Cemetery.

WARNER, Vespasian, a Representative from Illinois; born in Mount Pleasant (now Farmer City), De Witt County, Ill., April 23, 1842; moved with his parents to Clinton, Ill., in 1848; attended the common and select schools in Clinton and Lombard University, Galesburg, Ill.; studied law in Clinton; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in Company E, Twentieth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry, June 18, 1861; promoted to sergeant June 23, 1861; second lieutenant February 4, 1862; captain and commissary of subsistence February 10, 1863; brevetted major March 13, 1865, "for meritorious services"; mustered out July 13, 1866; was graduated from the law department of Harvard University in 1868, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced the practice of law in Clinton, Ill.; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Harrison and Morton in 1888; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1905); Commissioner of Pensions from March 4, 1905, to November 25, 1909; engaged in business in Clinton, Ill., as a banker and realty owner and agent; died in Clinton, De Witt County, Ill., March 31, 1925; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

WARNER, Willard, a Senator from Alabama; born in Granville, Licking County, Ohio, September 4, 1826; attended country school near Roseville, Muskingum County, Ohio; was graduated from Marietta College, Ohio, in 1845; engaged in mercantile pursuits at Cincinnati in 1852 and later became manager of the Newark (Ohio) Machine Works; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1860 and 1868; served in the Union Army during the Civil War; commissioned major in the Seventy-sixth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry December 3, 1861; lieutenant colonel December 15, 1863; colonel of the One hundred and eightieth Regiment

Ohio Volunteer Infantry October 27, 1864; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers March 18, 1865, "for gallant and meritorious services in the Georgia, Tennessee, and North Carolina campaigns"; major general March 13, 1865, "for gallant and meritorious conduct during the war"; mustered out July 12, 1865; served two years in the Ohio Senate; moved to Prattville, Autauga County, Ala., in 1867 and engaged in cotton planting; member of the State house of representatives in 1868; held several local offices; upon the readmission of the State of Alabama to representation was elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from July 18, 1868, to March 3, 1871; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; collector of customs of the port of Mobile, Ala., in 1871 and 1872; declined the appointment of Governor of New Mexico in 1872, also that of minister to Argentina; moved to Tecumseh, Ala., in 1873 and organized the Tecumseh Iron Co., and served as general manager; again a delegate to the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati in 1876 and at Chicago in 1880 and 1888; moved to Chattanooga, Tenn., in 1890 and engaged in banking and was a director in a number of corporations; member of the State house of representatives of Tennessee in 1897 and 1898; died in Chattanooga, Tenn., November 23, 1906; interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Newark, Ohio.

WARNER, William, a Representative and a Senator from Missouri; born in Shullsburg, Lafayette County, Wis., June 11, 1840; attended the common schools and the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1861, and commenced practice in Kansas City, Mo.; enlisted in 1862 in the Thirty-third Regiment Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, and was mustered out at the close of the Civil War with the rank of major in the Forty-fourth Regiment Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry; returned to Kansas City, Mo., in 1865 and resumed the practice of law; city attorney in 1867; circuit attorney in 1868; mayor of Kansas City, Mo., in 1872; elected as a Republican to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1889); was not a candidate for renomination in 1888; elected commander in chief of the Grand Army of the Republic in 1888; unsuccessful Republican candidate for governor in 1892; United States district attorney for the western district of Missouri in 1870, 1882, 1896, and 1902; chairman of the Republican State committee in 1884 and 1885; delegate to the Republican National Conventions in 1872, 1884, 1888, 1892, and 1896; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Missouri in 1892; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 18, 1905, to March 3, 1911; was not a candidate for reelection; resumed the practice of law; appointed civilian member of the Board of Ordnance and Fortifications; member of the Board of Managers of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers; died in Kansas City, Mo., October 4, 1916; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

WARNOCK, William Robert, a Representative from Ohio; born in Urbana, Ohio, August 29, 1838; attended the public schools; taught school in Urbana 1856-1868; was graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University, Delaware, Ohio, in 1861; commenced the study of law in 1861; during the Civil War entered the Union Army July 21, 1862, as captain of Company G, Ninety-fifth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry; promoted to major July 26, 1863, "for gallantry at Vicksburg;" and brevetted lieutenant colonel March 15, 1865, "for gallantry at the Battle of Nashville"; chief of staff for the eastern district of Mississippi from April to August, 1865; mustered out August 14, 1865; resumed the study of law, was admitted to the bar in 1866, and commenced practice in Urbana; prosecuting attorney 1868-1872; member of the board of school examiners of Champaign County 1870-1878; served as trustee of Ohio Wesleyan University for twenty-five years; commander of the department of Ohio, Grand Army of the Republic, in 1913 and 1914; member of the State senate in 1876 and 1877; judge of the court of common pleas in the second district of Ohio 1879-1889; president of the National Bank of Urbana; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-seventh and Fifty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1901-March 3, 1905; was not a candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law; United States pension agent at Columbus, Ohio, 1906-1910; died in Urbana, Ohio, July 30, 1918; interment in Oakdale Cemetery.

WARREN, Cornelius, a Representative from New York; born in Phillipstown, Putnam County, N. Y., March 15, 1790; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; appointed judge of the court of common pleas in 1841; elected as a Whig to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1849); died at Cold Spring, Putnam County, N. Y., July 28, 1849; interment in the Old Cemetery.

WARREN, Edward Allen, a Representative from Arkansas; born near Eutaw, Green County, Ala., May 2, 1818; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1843, and commenced the practice of law in Clinton, Miss.; member of the State house of representatives in 1845 and 1846; moved to Arkansas in 1847 and settled in Camden, where he continued the practice of his profession; member of the State house of representatives in 1848 and 1849, and served the last year as speaker; judge of the Circuit Court of the Sixth District of Arkansas; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); elected to the Thirty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1859); resumed the practice of law; died in Prescott, Nevada County, Ark., July 2, 1875; interment in Moscow Cemetery, near Prescott, Ark.

WARREN, Francis Emroy, a Senator from Wyoming; born in Hinsdale, Berkshire County, Mass., June 20, 1844; attended the common schools and Hinsdale Academy; during the Civil War enlisted in the Forty-ninth Regiment Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry and served as a private and non-commissioned officer until he was mustered out of the service; received the congressional medal of honor for gallantry on the battle field at the siege of Fort Hudson; was afterwards captain in the Massachusetts Militia; engaged in farming and stock raising in Massachusetts; moved to Wyoming (then a part of the Territory of Dakota) in 1868; became interested in the real-estate, mercantile, livestock, and lighting businesses in Cheyenne; member of the Territorial senate in 1873 and 1874, and served as president of that body; member of the city council in 1873 and 1874; treasurer of Wyoming in 1876, 1879, 1882, and 1884; again a member of the Territorial senate in 1884 and 1885; mayor of Cheyenne in 1885; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1888; chairman of the Wyoming delegation to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1900 and at Chicago in 1904, 1908, and 1912; chairman of the Republican Territorial central committee; appointed Governor of the Territory of Wyoming by President Arthur in February, 1885, and removed by President Cleveland in November, 1893; again appointed governor by President Harrison in March, 1899, and served until elected the first governor of the State in 1899; resigned as governor on November 24, 1899, having been elected Senator; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate November 18, 1899, and served until March 4, 1903; resumed agricultural pursuits and stock raising; again elected to the United States Senate in 1895 for the term commencing March 4, 1896; reelected in 1901, 1907, 1913, 1918, and again in 1924 for the term commencing March 4, 1925, and ending March 3, 1931.

WARREN, Joseph Mabbett, a Representative from New York; born in Troy, N. Y., January 28, 1813; attended the local schools, and in 1827 entered Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute at Troy; was graduated from the Washington (now Trinity) College, Hartford, Conn., in 1834; worked as a clerk in New York for a year and returned to Troy, N. Y., where he engaged in the wholesale grocery business for several years; entered the wholesale hardware business in 1840; was also engaged in banking, and was one of the directors of the Bank of Troy and of the United National Bank of Troy; president of the Bank of Troy 1853-1855; trustee of the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute; mayor of Troy in 1852; appointed a commissioner of the Troy Water Works Company in 1855, and served until 1867, when he resigned; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1873); was not a candidate for renomination in 1872; resumed his former business activities in Troy, N. Y., and died there on September 9, 1896; interment in the Warren Chapel, Oakwood Cemetery.

WARREN, Lindsay Carter, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Washington, Beaufort County, N. C., December 16, 1889; pursued his preparatory studies at the Bingham School, Asheville, N. C., 1903-1906; attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill 1906-1908; studied law at the same university in 1911 and 1912, was admitted to the bar in 1912, and commenced practice in Washington, N. C.; county attorney of Beaufort County 1912-1925; was chairman of the Democratic executive committee of Beaufort County 1912-1925; member of the State senate in 1917 and 1919, and served as president pro tempore in the latter year; member of the State code commission for compiling the consolidated statutes in 1919; chairman of the legal advisory board and Government appeal agent for Beaufort County during the World War; chairman of the special legislative committee on workmen's compensation acts in 1920; member of the State house of representatives in 1923; member of the board of trustees of the University of North Carolina; director of the First National Bank of Washington, N. C.; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927). Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

WARREN, Lott, a Representative from Georgia; born in Burke County, near Augusta, Richmond County, Ga., October 30, 1797; attended the common schools; moved to Dublin, Laurens County, Ga., in 1816; served as a second lieutenant of Volunteers in the expedition against the Seminoles in 1818; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1821, and commenced practice in Dublin, Laurens County, Ga.; was also a regularly ordained Baptist minister, but never filled any definite charge; moved to Marion in 1825; elected major of the State militia in 1823; member of the State house of representatives in 1824 and 1831; served in the State senate in 1830; solicitor general and judge of the southern circuit of Georgia 1831-1834; moved to Americus, Sumter County, in 1836; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1843); was not a candidate for renomination in 1842; moved to Albany in 1842; was judge of the Superior Court of Georgia 1843-1852; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Albany, Dougherty County, Ga., June 17, 1861; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

WARREN, William Wirt, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Brighton (now a part of Boston), Mass., February 27, 1834; pursued classical studies, and was graduated from Harvard University in 1856; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in 1857; assessor of internal revenue in the seventh Massachusetts district in 1865; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York City in 1868; which nominated Seymour and Blair; member of the State senate in 1870; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; engaged in the practice of law until his death in Boston, Mass., May 2, 1880; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

WARWICK, John George, a Representative from Ohio; born in County Tyrone, Province of Ulster, Ireland, December 23, 1830; attended the common schools of his native land; emigrated with his brother to the United States about 1850 and settled in Philadelphia, Pa., for a short time; moved to Navarre, Stark County, Ohio, and became a bookkeeper in a dry-goods establishment; moved to Massillon, Ohio, and was a clerk in a dry-goods store, and subsequently became interested in flour mills, coal mining, and agricultural pursuits; also a promoter of railroad construction; elected Lieutenant Governor of Ohio and served from 1884 to 1886; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1886; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress, and served from March 4, 1891, until his death in Washington, D. C., August 14, 1892; interment in the Protestant Cemetery, Massillon, Stark County, Ohio.

WASHBURN, Cadwallader Colden (brother of Israel Washburn, jr., Elihu Benjamin Washburne, and William Drew Washburn), a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Livermore, Androscoggin County, Me., on April 22, 1818; completed preparatory studies and taught school in Wiscasset, Me., in 1838 and 1839; moved to Davenport, Iowa, in 1839 and was employed in the geological survey of that State; moved to Rock Island, Ill., and studied law; elected surveyor of Rock Island County, Ill., in 1840; moved to Wisconsin and settled in Mineral Point, Iowa County, in 1842; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice at Mineral Point; founder of the Mineral Point Bank in 1852; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1861); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1860; moved to La Crosse, Wis., in 1861; delegate to the peace convention held in Washington, D. C., in 1861 in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; served in the Union Army during the Civil War; colonel of the Second Regiment Wisconsin Volunteer Cavalry February 6, 1862; brigadier general of Volunteers July 16, 1862; major general November 29, 1862; resigned May 25, 1863, and returned to La Crosse, Wis.; elected to the Fortieth and Forty-first Congresses (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1871); was not a candidate for renomination in 1870; Governor of Wisconsin 1872-1874; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1873; engaged in the manufacture of lumber; owned and operated large flour mills in Minneapolis, Minn.; served as president of the Wisconsin Historical Society; founded the Washburn Observatory at the University of Wisconsin and the public library in La Crosse; died at Eureka Springs, Carroll County, Ark., while on a visit at the springs for his health, on May 15, 1882; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery, La Crosse, La Crosse County, Wis.

WASHBURN, Charles Grenfill, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Worcester, Mass., January 28, 1857; was graduated from the Worcester Polytechnic Institute in 1875 and from Harvard University in 1880; studied law, and was admitted to the Suffolk bar in 1887; connected with various manufacturing enterprises in Worcester; member of the State house of representatives in 1897 and 1898; served in the State senate in 1899 and 1900; member of the committee to revise the corporation laws of Massachusetts in 1902; was a delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1904 and 1916; was elected as a Republican to the Fifty-ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rockwood Hoar; reelected to the Sixtieth and Sixty-first Congresses, and served from December 18, 1906, to March 8, 1911; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1910 to the Sixty-second Congress; director of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston; president of the Washburn Co. of Worcester, Mass., until his death at Lenox, Berkshire County, Mass., May 25, 1928; interment in the Rural Cemetery, Worcester, Mass.

WASHBURN, Henry Dana, a Representative from Indiana; born in Windsor, Windsor County, Vt., March 28, 1832; attended the common schools; became a tanner and a currier; taught school for several years; moved to Vermillion County, Ind., in 1850; was graduated from the New York State and National Law Schools; was admitted to the bar in 1853 and commenced the practice of law in Newport, Vermillion County, Ind.; county auditor 1854-1861; during the Civil War enlisted on August 18, 1861, and served in the Union Army as lieutenant colonel of the Eighteenth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry; promoted to colonel July 15, 1862; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers December 15, 1864; major general July 20, 1865, "for gallant and meritorious services during the war"; mustered out August 26, 1865; successfully contested as a Republican the election of Daniel W. Voorhees to the Thirty-ninth Congress; reelected to the Fortieth Congress, and served from February 23, 1866, to March 3, 1869; was not a candidate for renomination in 1868; appointed surveyor general of Montana in 1868 and served until his death; in 1870 headed an expedition to find the headwaters of the Yellowstone River and discovered what is now known as Yellowstone Park; Mount Washburn, Mont., is named after him; returned to Clinton, Vermillion County, Ind., where he died January 26, 1871; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

WASHBURN, Israel, Jr. (brother of Elihu Benjamin Washburne, Cadwallader Colden Washburn, and William Drew Washburn), a Representative from Maine; born in Livermore, Androscoggin County, Me., June 6, 1813; attended the common schools and was educated by private tutors; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1834, and commenced practice in Orono, Penobscot County, Me.; member of the State house of representatives in 1842 and 1843; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-second and Thirty-third Congresses and as a Republican to the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, and Thirty-sixth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1851, to January 1, 1861, when he resigned, having been elected governor; Governor of Maine in 1861 and 1862; declined to be a candidate for renomination; appointed by President Lincoln collector of customs at Portland, Me., and served from October 31, 1863, until March 16, 1877, when he resigned; served as president of the board of trustees of Tufts College, Medford, Mass.; engaged in literary pursuits; died in Philadelphia, Pa., on May 12, 1883; interment in Mount Hope Cemetery, Bangor, Me.

WASHBURN, William Barrett, a Representative and a Senator from Massachusetts; born in Wicheendon, Worcester County, Mass., January 31, 1820; attended Westminster and Hancock Academies, and was graduated from Yale College in 1844; employed as a clerk in Orange 1844-1847; engaged in manufacturing pursuits in Erving, Franklin County, Mass., 1847-1857; served in the State senate in 1850; member of the State house of representatives 1853-1855; moved to Greenfield in 1858 and engaged in banking; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-eighth and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1865, to December 8, 1871, when he resigned, having been elected governor; Governor of Massachusetts from January, 1872, to May 1, 1874, when he resigned, having been elected a Senator; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles Sumner, and served from April 17, 1874, to March 8, 1875; was not a candidate for reelection; president of the Greenfield National Bank; member of the board of trustees of Smith College at Northampton; director of the Connecticut River Railroad; alumnus trustee of Yale College 1872-1881; member of the board of overseers of Amherst (Mass.) College; died in Springfield, Hampden County, Mass., October 5, 1887; interment in Green River Cemetery, Greenfield, Franklin County, Mass.

WASHBURN, William Drew (brother of Israel Washburn, Jr., Elihu Benjamin Washburne, and Cadwallader Colden Washburn), a Representative and a Senator from Minnesota; born in Livermore, Androscoggin County, Me., on January 14, 1831; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., in 1854; studied law in Bangor, Me., was admitted to the bar in 1857, and commenced the practice of his profession in Minneapolis, Minn., to which city he had moved early in 1857; appointed United States surveyor general of Minnesota by President Lincoln in 1861 and served until 1865, residing in St. Paul while holding that office; returned to Minneapolis and engaged in different manufacturing industries; director and principal owner and for many years managing agent of the Minneapolis Water Power Co.; projector and president of the Minneapolis & St. Louis Railway Co.; member of the State house of representatives 1861-1865, 1871, 1874, 1880, and 1882; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, and Forty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1885); elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1889, to March 3, 1895; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; resumed manufacturing pursuits and also engaged in railroad building; died in Minneapolis, Minn., July 29, 1912; interment in Lakewood Cemetery.

WASHBURN, Elihu Benjamin (brother of Israel Washburn, Jr., Cadwallader Colden Washburn, and William Drew Washburn), a Representative from Illinois; born in Livermore, Androscoggin County, Me., September 23, 1816; attended the common schools; printer's apprentice; assistant editor of the Kennebec Journal, Augusta; studied law at Kents' Hill Seminary in 1836 and at Harvard Law School in 1839; was admitted to the bar in 1840; moved to Galena, Jo Daviess County, Ill., in 1840 and commenced the practice of law; delegate to the Whig National Conventions at Baltimore in 1844 and 1852; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1848 to the Thirty-first Congress; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-third and to the eight succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1833, to March 6, 1869, when he resigned; appointed Secretary of State in the Cabinet of President Grant, but resigned a few days afterwards to accept a diplomatic mission to France; on the declaration of the Franco-Prussian War he protected with the American flag the legations of the various German states in Paris; remained in Paris during the siege and was the only foreign minister that continued at his post during the days of the Commune; protected not only Germans but all the foreigners left by their ministers; served as minister until 1877, when he returned and settled in Chicago, Ill.; engaged in literary pursuits; served as president of the Chicago Historical Society 1884-1887; died in Chicago, Ill., October 22, 1887; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Galena, Ill.

WASHINGTON, George, a Delegate from Virginia and the first President of the United States; born at "Wakefield," near Popes Creek, Westmoreland County, Va., February 22, 1732; early in childhood moved with his parents to an estate in Stafford County, Va., on the east side of the Rappahannock River, opposite Fredericksburg; attended an "old field" school, with Hobby, the sexton of the parish, as his first instructor; after the death of his father in 1748 he returned to Popes Creek to reside with his elder half brother, Augustine Washington, and attended a private school kept by a Mr. Williams; went to the Mount Vernon estate in his seventeenth year to reside with his brother Lawrence and engaged in the surveying of lands; appointed adjutant general of a military district in Virginia with the rank of major in 1761; in November, 1763, was sent by Lieutenant Governor Dinwiddie, of Virginia, to visit the French Army in the Ohio Valley on important business; war followed, and in 1764 he was promoted to the rank of lieutenant colonel and engaged in the war; aide-de-camp to General Braddock in 1755; appointed by the legislature commander in chief of colonial forces, and from 1755 to 1758 engaged in recruiting and organizing troops for colonial defense; commanded a successful expedition to Fort Duquesne in 1758; pursued agriculture and civic employments at Mount Vernon, and was a magistrate and member of the colonial house of burgesses 1758-1774; delegate to the Williamsburg convention of August, 1773; Member of the first and second Continental Congresses in 1774 and 1775; unanimously chosen commander in chief of all the forces raised or to be raised June 15, 1775; commanded the armies throughout the war for independence and received the special thanks and recognition of Congress upon eight separate occasions and by as many acts; resigned his commission December 23, 1783, and returned to private life at Mount Vernon; was delegate to and president of the national convention that framed the Federal Constitution in Philadelphia in 1787; unanimously elected first President of the United States, and inaugurated April 3, 1789, in New York City; unanimously reelected; retired March 3, 1797, after declining a renomination; issued his farewell address to the people of the United States in September, 1796; again appointed lieutenant general and commander of the United States Army July 3, 1798, and served until his death in Mount Vernon, Va., after a short illness, December 14, 1799; interment in the vault at Mount Vernon on December 18, 1799.

WASHINGTON, George Corbin (grandnephew of George Washington), a Representative from Maryland; born on "Haywood Farms," near Oak Grove, Westmoreland County, Va., August 20, 1789; attended Harvard University; studied law, but devoted himself to agricultural pursuits on his plantation in Maryland; resided for the most part on Dumbarton Heights, in Georgetown, D. C.; elected to the Twentieth, Twenty-first, and Twenty-second Congresses (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1833); was not a candidate for renomination in 1832; was elected to the Twenty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1835-March 3, 1837); was not a candidate for renomination on the Whig ticket in 1836; president of the Chesapeake & Ohio Canal Co.; was appointed by President Tyler in 1844 a commissioner to adjust and settle the claims arising under the treaty of 1835 with the Cherokee Indians; died in Georgetown, D. C., July 17, 1854; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

WASHINGTON, Joseph Edwin, a Representative from Tennessee; born on the family homestead, "Wessington," near Cedar Hill, Robertson County, Tenn., on November 10, 1851; received his early instruction at home, and was graduated from Georgetown College, Washington, D. C., June 26, 1878; studied law with the first law class organized in Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., in 1874, and was admitted to the bar, but never practiced; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives in 1876-1878; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Hancock and English in 1890; elected as a Democrat to the Fiftieth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1897); was not a candidate for renomination in 1896; appointed road commissioner and took charge of the road construction work of Robertson County; member of the board of trustees of Vanderbilt University; was director of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis and Nashville & Decatur Railroads; resumed agricultural pursuits upon the family homestead, "Wessington," in Robertson County, Tenn., where he died August 28, 1915; interment in the family burying ground on his estate.

WASHINGTON, William Henry, a Representative from North Carolina; born near Goldsboro, Wayne County, N. C., February 7, 1813; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1835, and commenced practice in New Bern, Craven County, N. C.; was elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1842; served in the State house of commons in 1843 and 1846; member of the State senate in 1848, 1850, and 1852; resumed the practice of law; died in New Bern, N. C., August 12, 1860; interment in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

WASKEY, Frank Hinman, a Delegate from the Territory of Alaska; born in Luko City, Wabasha County, Minn., April 20, 1875; attended the public schools of Minneapolis; moved to Alaska in February, 1898, located in Nome, and engaged in mining; president of a mining company; director of a bank and also of a publishing company, both in Nome, Alaska; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-ninth Congress, the first Delegate from Alaska, and served from August 14, 1906, to March 3, 1907; was not a candidate for renomination in 1906; prospected for minerals in Alaska until 1915; United States commissioner at Fortuna Ledge, Alaska, 1915-1918; during the World War served as registration officer, food commissioner, and chairman of the council of national defense at Fortuna Ledge, Alaska; continued prospecting and exploration work in unexplored sections of western Alaska; is a resident of Dillingham, Alaska.

WASON, Edward Hills, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in New Boston, Hillsborough County, N. H., September 2, 1865; attended public and private schools; was graduated from the New Hampshire College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts at Hanover in 1890 and from the Boston University Law School, Massachusetts, in 1890; was admitted to the bar in 1890 and commenced practice in Nashua, N. H.; sergeant at arms, assistant clerk, and clerk of the State senate; member of the board of aldermen 1891-1895, and served as its president in 1895; city solicitor of Nashua in 1894 and 1895; president of the common council in 1897 and 1898; served in the State house of representatives in 1899, 1900, and 1913; member of the State constitutional conventions of 1902 and 1912; solicitor of Hillsborough County from 1903 to 1907; president of the Citizens' Guaranty Savings Bank of Nashua since 1904, in addition to which, and his law practice in Nashua, has also engaged in agricultural pursuits in Merrimack, N. H., since 1908; alderman of Nashua from 1906 to 1908; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WATERS, Russell Judson, a Representative from California; born in Halifax, Windham County, Vt., June 6, 1843; moved with his parents to Franklin County, Mass., in 1846; attended the district schools; learned the machinist's trade in Sherburne Falls, Mass.; taught school at Charlemont Center, Mass.; was graduated from Franklin Institute (now Anna Academy), Shelburne Falls, Mass., where he was later engaged as professor of Latin and mathematics; moved to Chicago, Ill., in 1887; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1888, and practiced in Chicago until 1889; moved to California and settled in Redlands in 1889; city attorney of Redlands in 1888; moved to Los Angeles in 1894; president of the Pasadena Consolidated Gas Co.; treasurer of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, vice president of the Citizens' Bank, and connected with many other public institutions; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1901); was not a candidate for renomination in 1900; resumed banking as president of the Citizens' National Bank, Los Angeles; president of the California Cattle Co., San Jacinto, Calif., 1908-1911; president of the San Jacinto Water Co. 1910-11; died in Los Angeles, Calif., September 25, 1911; interment in Hollywood Cemetery.

WATKINS, Albert Galiton, a Representative from Tennessee; born near Jefferson City, Jefferson County, Tenn., May 5, 1818; was graduated from Holston College, Tennessee; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and began practice at Panther Springs, Tenn., in 1839; member of the State house of representatives in 1845; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Taylor and Fillmore in 1848; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-first and Thirty-second Congresses (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1853); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1852 to the Thirty-third Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1859); was not a candidate for renomination in 1858; engaged in the ministry; died in Mooresburg, Hawkins County, Tenn., November 9, 1895; interment in Westview Cemetery, Jefferson City, Jefferson County, Tenn.

WATKINS, Elton, a Representative from Oregon; born in Newton, Newton County, Miss., July 6, 1881; attended the common schools; was graduated from Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., the Georgetown Law School and the George Washington Law School, Washington, D. C.; after leaving college was employed in the Department of Justice at Washington, D. C., until 1912, when he moved to Oregon; was admitted to the bar of that State the same year and commenced the practice of law in Portland; prosecutor, Oregon Bar Association, 1914-1922; assistant United States district attorney in 1919; during the World War was engaged in secret-service work for the Government; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cox and Roosevelt in 1920; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1925); did not seek renomination in 1924, having become a candidate for Senator; unsuccessful candidate for the Democratic nomination for United States Senator in 1924; resumed the practice of law in Portland, Oreg., where he now resides.

WATKINS, John Thomas, a Representative from Louisiana; born in Minden, Webster Parish, La., January 15, 1854; attended the common schools and spent three years in Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1878, and commenced practice in Minden; judge of the district court 1892-1904; resumed the practice of law; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-ninth and to the seven succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1905-March 3, 1921); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1920; engaged in the practice of law in Washington, D. C., until his death on April 25, 1925; interment in the Murrell Cemetery, Minden, La.

WATMOUGH, John Goddard, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Wilmington, Del., December 6, 1798; pursued classical studies and was graduated from Princeton College; also pursued postgraduate studies in the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia; served in the War of 1812 as corporal in the Fourth Company, Fourth Detachment, Pennsylvania Militia, May 13 to July 31, 1813; appointed second lieutenant in the Regular Army September 2, 1813, brevetted first lieutenant August 15, 1814, for gallant conduct in the defense of Fort Erie, Canada, and resigned October 1, 1816; elected to the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Congresses (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1835); unsuccessful Whig candidate for reelection in 1834 to the Twenty-fourth Congress; high sheriff of Philadelphia in 1835 and 1836; surveyor of the port of Philadelphia 1841-1845; discontinued active pursuits in 1854 and lived in retirement until his death in Philadelphia, Pa., November 27, 1861; interment in Christ Church Cemetery.

WATRES, Laurence Hawley, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Scranton, Pa., July 18, 1882; attended the public schools and the Hill School, Pottstown, Pa.; was graduated from Princeton University in 1904 and from the law department of Harvard University in 1907; was admitted to the bar in 1907 and commenced the practice of law in Scranton, Pa.; during the World War served as captain in the One hundred and eighth Machine Gun Battalion of the Twenty-eighth Division; was wounded in action near the Vesle River; was promoted to major and was awarded the distinguished-service cross; after the war assisted in reorganizing the One hundred and ninth Infantry Regiment of the Pennsylvania National Guard and served as lieutenant colonel; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

WATSON, Clarence Wayland, a Senator from West Virginia; born in Fairmont, Marion County, W. Va., May 8, 1864; attended the public schools of Marion County; engaged in the coal-mining industry; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Denver in 1908; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Stephen B. Elkins, and served from February 1, 1911, to March 3, 1913; was the caucus nominee of his party, who were in the minority, for reelection; commissioned lieutenant colonel in the Ordnance Department of the Army in March, 1918, and served with the American Expeditionary Forces in France until January, 1919; president of the Consolidation Coal Co. and chairman of the board of directors of the Elk Horn Coal Corporation; is a resident of Fairmont, W. Va.

WATSON, Cooper Kinderdine, a Representative from Ohio; born in Jefferson County, Ky., June 18, 1810; pursued preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Delaware, Delaware County, Ohio; moved to Marion, Marion County; unsuccessful candidate for prosecuting attorney of Marion County, Ohio, in 1839; moved to Tiffin, Ohio, and practiced law for twenty years or more; elected as a Free-Seller to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1856 to the Thirty-fifth Congress; resumed the practice of law; moved to Sandusky, Ohio; member of the State constitutional convention in 1871; appointed judge of the court of common pleas in 1876, and served until his death in Sandusky, Erie County, Ohio, May 20, 1880; interment in Oakland Cemetery; reinterment in Greenlawn Cemetery, Tiffin, Seneca County, Ohio.

WATSON, David Kemper, a Representative from Ohio; born near London, Madison County, Ohio, June 18, 1849; was graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., in 1871 and from the law department of Boston University in 1873; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice; assistant United States district attorney for the southern district of Ohio during the administration of President Arthur; elected attorney general of Ohio in 1887 and reelected in 1889; special counsel for the United States in the suits brought by the Government against the Pacific railroads in 1892; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1896 to the Fifty-fifth Congress; appointed by President McKinley a member of the commission to revise and codify the laws of the United States; resumed the practice of law; died in Columbus, Ohio, September 28, 1918; interment in Greenlawn Cemetery.

WATSON, Henry Winfield, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Bucks County, Pa., June 24, 1856; educated in private schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1881, and commenced practice in Philadelphia; member of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania and the Historical Society of Bucks County; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WATSON, James, a Senator from New York; born in Woodbury, Conn., April 6, 1750; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Yale College in 1776; commissioned lieutenant in a Connecticut regiment in 1776 and captain January 1, 1777; resigned July 15, 1777; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; appointed in 1780 by the assembly a purchasing commissary for the Connecticut Line; moved to New York City in 1786; engaged in mercantile pursuits; member of the State assembly 1791 and 1794-1796, and was speaker in 1794; regent of the New York University 1795-1806; served in the State senate 1796-1798; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Sloss Hobart, and served from August 17, 1798, to March 19, 1800, when he resigned to accept an appointment by President Adams as United States naval officer at New York City; unsuccessful Federalist candidate for lieutenant governor in 1801; member of the Society of the Cincinnati; organizer and first president of the New England Society in the city of New York from 1805 until his death there May 15, 1803.

WATSON, James Eli, a Representative and a Senator from Indiana; born in Winchester, Randolph County, Ind., November 2, 1804; was graduated from the Winchester High School in 1821; entered De Pauw University, Greencastle, Ind., the same year and remained until 1825; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1826, and commenced practice in Winchester; unsuccessful candidate for presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Harrison and Reid in 1829; moved to Rushville, Ind., in 1838 and resumed the practice of law; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1896 to the Fifty-fifth Congress; elected to the Fifty-sixth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1909); was not a candidate for renomination in 1908, having become a candidate for governor; Republican candidate for Governor of Indiana in 1908, but was defeated by the late Thomas R. Marshall, afterwards Vice President of the United States; resumed the practice of his profession in Rushville, Rush County, Ind.; presided over Republican State conventions in 1904, 1906, 1912, 1918, 1920, 1924, and 1926; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1912 and 1920 and at Cleveland in 1924; served as chairman of the committee on resolutions in the convention of 1920; elected to the United States Senate on November 7, 1916, to fill the vacancy in the term ending March 3, 1921, caused by the death of Benjamin F. Shively; reelected for the term ending March 3, 1927. Reelected in 1926 for the term ending March 3, 1933.

WATSON, Lewis Findlay, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Crawford County, Pa., April 14, 1819; attended the common schools; engaged in mercantile pursuits at Titusville in 1832; moved to Warren, Pa., in 1835 and continued his former pursuits until 1837; clerk in the office of the recorder in 1838; studied law at Warren Academy 1839-40; resumed his former mercantile pursuits until 1860; engaged as an operator in lumber and in the production of petroleum 1860-1875; organized and was the first president of the Conewago Valley Railroad Co. in 1861; elected president of the Warren Savings Bank at its organization in 1870; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1879); elected to the Forty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1883); again elected to the Fifty-first Congress, and served from March 4, 1889, until his death in Washington, D. C., August 25, 1890; interment in Oakland Cemetery, Warren, Warren County, Pa.

WATSON, Thomas Edward, a Representative and a Senator from Georgia; born in Thomson, Columbia County, Ga., September 5, 1836; attended the common schools and Mercer University, Macon, Ga.; engaged in teaching for two years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1875, and commenced practice in Thomson, McDuffie County, Ga., in 1876; also engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives in 1882 and 1883; presidential elector for the State at large on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Thurman in 1888; engaged in agricultural pursuits; elected as a Populist to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1893); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1892 to the Fifty-third and in 1894 for election to the Fifty-fourth Congresses; resumed the practice of law in Thomson, Ga.; nominated for Vice President at the Populist National Convention at St. Louis in 1896 and for President by the People's Party in 1904; conducted a magazine for many years and later engaged in the newspaper business; author of several books and numerous sketches; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1921, until his death in Washington, D. C., September 26, 1922; interment in Thomson Cemetery, Thomson, Ga.

WATSON, Walter Allen, a Representative from Virginia; born in Nottoway County, Va., November 25, 1867; attended "old field" school, and was graduated from Hampden-Sidney College, Virginia, in 1887; studied law in the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1888 and 1889, was admitted to the bar in 1893, and commenced practice in Nottoway and adjoining counties of Virginia; member of the State senate 1891-1895; Commonwealth attorney 1895-1904; member of the Democratic State committee in 1901 and 1902; circuit judge of the fourth judicial circuit of Virginia 1904-1912; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, and Sixty-sixth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1913, until his death in Washington, D. C., December 24, 1919; interment in the family cemetery on his estate, "Woodland," Nottoway County, Va.

WATTERSON, Harvey Magee (father of Henry Watterson), a Representative from Tennessee; born at "Beechgrove," the family homestead, in Bedford County, Tenn., November 23, 1811; pursued classical studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Shelbyvile, Bedford County, Tenn.; established and edited a paper in Shelbyville, Tenn., in 1831; member of the State house of representatives in 1835; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1843); declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1842 to the Twenty-eighth Congress; sent by President Tyler on a diplomatic mission to Buenos Aires, where he remained for a year; member of the State senate 1845-1847 and served as speaker; editor and proprietor of the Nashville Union 1847-1851 and editor of the Washington Union in 1851; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1860, and was a presidential elector on the Douglas and Johnson ticket the same year; commissioned by President Johnson one of those to investigate conditions in the States "lately in rebellion"; practiced law in Washington, D. C., for fourteen years; moved to Louisville, Ky.; member of the editorial staff of the Louisville Courier-Journal; died in Louisville, Ky., October 1, 1891; interment in Cave Hill Cemetery.

WATERSON, Henry (son of Harvey Magee Watterson and nephew of Stanley Matthews), a Representative from Kentucky; born in Washington, D. C., on February 16, 1840; completed preparatory studies under private tutors; attended the Academy of the Diocese of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia, Pa.; engaged in newspaper work as correspondent and editorial writer; his first newspaper employment was on the Washington States, a Democratic paper, 1858-1861; became editor of the Republican Banner in Nashville, Tenn., in 1861; during the Civil War entered the Confederate service; aide to Gen. N. B. Forrest; was on the staff of Gen. Leonidas Polk; chief of scouts in Gen. Joseph E. Johnston's army; edited the Chattanooga Rebel in 1862 and 1863; resumed newspaper pursuits in Nashville after the war; moved to Louisville, Ky., in 1867 and purchased the Louisville Journal, which he consolidated with the Courier, and became editor of the Louisville Courier-Journal, acting in that capacity for fifty years; was temporary chairman of the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1876; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Edward Y. Parsons, and served from August 12, 1876, to March 3, 1877; declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1876; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1860, at Chicago in 1884, at St. Louis in 1888, and at Chicago in 1892; died in Jacksonville, Fla., December 22, 1921; interment in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville, Ky.

WATTS, John, a Representative from New York; born in New York City August 27, 1749; completed preparatory studies; studied law; last recorder of New York under the Crown; member of the State assembly 1791-1793, and served as speaker of that body in 1792 and 1793; member of the commission to build Newgate Prison, New York City, 1793-1799; elected to the Third Congress (March 4, 1793-March 3, 1795); judge of Westchester County from 1802 to 1807; founded and endowed the Leake and Watts Orphan House; died in New York City September 3, 1838; interment in a vault in Trinity Churchyard.

WATTS, John Sebrle, a Delegate from the Territory of New Mexico; born in Boone County, Ky., January 19, 1816; moved to Indiana, where he completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Indiana University at Bloomington; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; member of the State house of representatives in 1846 and 1847; associate justice of the United States court in the Territory of New Mexico from 1851 to 1854, when he resigned; resumed the practice of law; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864; took an active part in equipping troops for the Union Army during the Civil War; appointed chief justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico July 11, 1868, by President Johnson, and served in that capacity one year; resumed the practice of law in Santa Fe; returned to Bloomington, Monroe County, Ind., where he died June 11, 1876; interment in Rose Hill Cemetery.

WAUGH, Daniel Webster, a Representative from Indiana; born near Bluffton, Wells County, Ind., March 7, 1842; attended the country schools and the high school in Bluffton; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army in 1861 in Company A, Thirty-fourth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry, and was honorably discharged in September, 1864; taught school; engaged in agricultural pursuits; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1866; settled in Tipton, Ind., in 1867 and practiced; judge of the thirty-sixth judicial circuit 1884-1890; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1895); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1894; resumed the practice of law; died in Tipton, Tipton County, Ind., March 14, 1921; interment in the mausoleum adjoining Green Lawn Cemetery.

WAYNE, Anthony (father of Isaac Wayne), a Representative from Georgia; born in East Town, Chester County, Pa., January 1, 1745; attended the Philadelphia Academy; became a land surveyor and was employed for a time in Nova Scotia; returned to Chester County, Pa.; member of the colonial house of representatives in 1774 and 1775; served in the Revolutionary Army as colonel of the Fourth Regiment of Pennsylvania troops; commissioned brigadier general February 21, 1777; received a gold medal and thanks of Congress and a similar testimonial from the Pennsylvania Assembly for the capture of Stony Point; brevetted major general October 10, 1783; elected a member of the Pennsylvania Assembly in 1784; moved to Georgia and settled upon a tract of land donated him by that State as a recompense for his military service; delegate to the State convention which ratified the Constitution of the United States in 1788; presented credentials as a Member elect to the Second Congress, and served from March 4, 1791, to March 21, 1792, when the seat was declared vacant; declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1792; again entered the service of the United States Army as major general and General in Chief of the Army; concluded a treaty August 3, 1795, with the hostile Indians northwest of the Ohio River; died in Presque Isle (now Erie), Pa., December 15, 1796; remains were removed to his native county in 1800 and interred in St. David's Episcopal Church Cemetery, Radnor, Pa.

WAYNE, Isaac (son of Anthony Wayne), a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Paoli, Chester County, Pa., in 1772; attended the common schools and was graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.; studied law, and was admitted to the Chester County bar in 1795; member of the State house of representatives 1798-1801 and in 1806; served in the State senate in 1810; captain of a troop of Pennsylvania Horse raised and equipped by himself in the War of 1812, and was subsequently colonel of the Second Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry; unsuccessful Federalist candidate for governor in 1814; elected to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1825); engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Chester County, Pa., October 25, 1852; interment in St. David's Episcopal Church Cemetery, Radnor, Pa.

WAYNE, James Moore, a Representative from Georgia; born in Savannah, Ga., in 1790; completed preparatory studies and was graduated from Princeton College in 1808; studied law in New Haven, Conn., was admitted to the bar in 1810, and commenced practice in Savannah, Ga.; entered the military service during the War of 1812, and served as an officer in the Georgia Hussars; member of the State house of representatives 1815-1817; was mayor of Savannah 1817-1819; judge of the superior court from 1824 to 1829; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twenty-first, Twenty-second, and Twenty-third Congresses, and served from March 4, 1829, to January 13, 1835, when he resigned to accept a judicial position; appointed an Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court, and served from 1835 until his death in Washington, D. C., July 5, 1867; interment in Laurel Grove Cemetery, Savannah, Chatham County, Ga.

WEADOCK, Thomas Addis Emmet, a Representative from Michigan; born in Ballygarrett, County Wexford, Ireland, on January 1, 1850; emigrated to the United States in infancy with his parents, who settled in St. Marys, Auglaize County, Ohio; educated in the common schools; taught school in the counties of Auglaize, Shelby, and Miami for five years; was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in March, 1873; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Bay City, Mich., in 1873; assisted in making an abstract of title to the real estate in Bay County; served in the State militia 1874-1877; prosecuting attorney of Bay County in 1877 and 1878; chairman of the Democratic State conventions in 1883 and 1894; mayor of Bay City 1883-1885; member of the Board of Education of Bay City in 1884; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1895); declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1894; was a delegate at large to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1896 which nominated Bryan and Sewall; resumed the practice of his profession in Bay City; subsequently moved to Detroit, Mich., and continued the practice of his profession; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for judge of the Supreme Court of the State of Michigan in 1904; appointed a professor of law in the University of Detroit in 1912, in which capacity he is now serving.

WEAKLEY, Robert, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Halifax County, Va., on July 20, 1764; attended Princeton (N. J.) schools; joined the Revolutionary Army at the age of sixteen, and served in it until the close of the Revolutionary War; moved in 1785 to that part of North Carolina which later became Tennessee and engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the North Carolina convention that ratified the Constitution of the United States in 1789; member of the first State house of representatives in 1790; elected to the Eleventh Congress (March 4, 1809-March 3, 1811); appointed United States commissioner to treat with the Chickasaw Indians in 1819; member of the State senate in 1823 and 1824, and served as president in 1825; member of the State constitutional convention in 1834; died near Nashville, Tenn., February 4, 1845; interment in the family vault at "Lockland," on his estate in the suburbs of Nashville.

WEAVER, Archibald Jerard, a Representative from Nebraska; born in Dundaff, Susquehanna County, Pa., April 15, 1844; attended the common schools; was graduated from Wyoming Seminary, Kingston, Pa., and was one of the faculty from 1864 to 1867; was graduated from the law department of Harvard University in 1869; was admitted to the bar in Boston, Mass., in 1869; moved to Falls City, Nebr., in 1869; member of the State constitutional conventions in 1871 and 1875; district attorney for the first district of Nebraska in 1872; elected judge of the first judicial district of Nebraska in 1875; reelected in 1879 and resigned in 1888; was elected as a Republican to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1888-March 3, 1887); did not seek renomination in 1888, having become a candidate for Senator; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1887; resumed the practice of law; died in Falls City, Richardson County, Nebr., April 18, 1887; interment in the Steele Cemetery.

WEAVER, Claude, a Representative from Oklahoma; born in Gainesville, Cooke County, Tex., March 19, 1867; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the law department of the University of Texas at Austin in 1887; was admitted to the bar the same year and practiced in Gainesville, Tex., 1887-1895; assistant prosecuting attorney of Cooke County, Tex., in 1892; moved to Panis Valley, Ind. T., in 1895 and engaged in the practice of law; moved to Oklahoma City, Okla., in 1908; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1914; was postmaster of Oklahoma City, Okla., by appointment of President Woodrow Wilson from 1915 to 1923; resumed the practice of his profession, and is a resident of Oklahoma City.

WEAVER, James Baird, a Representative from Iowa; born in Dayton, Ohio, June 12, 1833; moved with his parents to Michigan in 1835, and subsequently moved to Iowa and settled on a farm near Bloomfield; attended the common schools; moved to Bloomfield, Iowa; studied law at Bloomfield 1853-1856; was graduated from the Cincinnati Law School in April, 1856, was admitted to the bar in 1856, and commenced practice in Bloomfield; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in the Second Regiment Iowa Volunteer Infantry in April, 1861; commissioned first Lieutenant of Company G of that regiment May 27, 1861; major July 25, 1862; colonel November 10, 1862; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers March 13, 1864, "for gallant and meritorious services"; mustered out May 27, 1864; was elected district attorney for the second judicial district of Iowa in 1866 and served four years; was appointed assessor of internal revenue for the first district of Iowa by President Johnson March 25, 1867, and served until May 20, 1873; elected as a Greenbacker to the Forty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1881); was not a candidate for renomination in 1880, having become a candidate for President of the United States; was nominated at Chicago in 1880 by the National Greenback Party as their candidate for President of the United States and received about 350,000 votes; was elected to the Forty-ninth Congress, and reelected as the Democratic and Greenback-Labor candidate to the Fiftieth Congress (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1889); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1888 to the Fifty-first Congress; People's Party candidate for President in 1892, receiving twenty-two electoral votes; mayor of Colfax, Iowa, 1901-1908; died in Des Moines, Iowa, February 6, 1912; interment in Woodland Cemetery.

WEAVER, Walter Lowrie, a Representative from Ohio; born in Montgomery County, Ohio, April 1, 1851; attended the public schools and Monroe Academy, and was graduated from Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio, in 1870; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1872, and commenced practice in Springfield, Ohio; elected prosecuting attorney of Clark County in 1874, 1880, 1882, and 1885; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1901); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1900; appointed associate justice Choctaw-Chickasaw citizens' court at McAlester, Okla., in 1902; returned to Springfield, Ohio, in 1904 and resumed the practice of law; died in Springfield, Clark County, Ohio, May 26, 1909; interment in Ferncliff Cemetery.

WEAVER, Zebulon, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Weaverville, Buncombe County, N. C., May 12, 1872; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Weaver College at Weaverville in 1889; studied law in the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, was admitted to the bar in 1894, and commenced practice in Asheville, N. C.; member of the State house of representatives 1907-1909; served in the State senate 1913-1915; presented credentials as a Democratic Member elect to the Sixty-fifth Congress, and served from March 4, 1917, to March 1, 1919, when he was succeeded by James J. Britt, who contested his election; elected to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WEBB, Edwin Yates, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Shelby, Cleveland County, N. C., May 23, 1872; attended the Shelby Military Institute, and was graduated from Wake Forest College, North Carolina, in June, 1898; studied law in the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1898 and 1894, was admitted to the bar in the latter year, and commenced practice in Shelby; entered the University of Virginia Law School at Charlottesville in 1896 and completed a postgraduate course; member of the State senate in 1901; appointed a trustee of Wake Forest College in 1896; appointed trustee of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Raleigh by the legislature in 1899 and served two years; chairman of his Democratic senatorial district in 1896; chairman of the Democratic county executive committee 1898-1902; temporary chairman of the Democratic State convention in 1900; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth and to the eight succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1903, to November 10, 1910, when he resigned to accept a judicial position; appointed United States district judge for the western district of North Carolina on November 5, 1919, in which capacity he is now serving; one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1912 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against Robert W. Archbald, Judge of the United States Commerce Court; is a resident of Shelby, N. C.

WEBB, William Robert (grandson of Richard Stanford), a Senator from Tennessee; born near Mount Tirzah, Person County, N. C., November 11, 1842; attended private schools, and was a student in Bingham's School, Oaks, N. C., 1856-1860; served with the Confederate Army in Company H, Fifteenth Regiment North Carolina Infantry, during the Civil War and was wounded at the Battle of Malvern Hill, Virginia, July 1, 1862; returned to his home in North Carolina in July, 1865; was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1868; taught at Horner's School, Oxford, N. C., 1868-1870; founded the first training school west of the Allegheny Mountains at Culleoka, Tenn., in 1870; moved the school to Bellbuckle, Tenn., in 1886; was a State Credit and Gold Democrat in 1896 and a delegate to the convention in Indianapolis in 1896 which nominated Palmer and Buckner for President and Vice President of the United States; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Robert L. Taylor, and served from January 24, 1913, to March 3, 1913; was not a candidate for reelection in 1913; continued the occupation of teaching until his death in Bellbuckle, Bedford County, Tenn., December 19, 1926; interment in Hazelwood Cemetery.

WEBBER, Amos Richard, a Representative from Ohio; born in Hinckley, Medina County, Ohio, January 21, 1852; attended the public schools of Hinckley, and was graduated from Baldwin University, Berea, Ohio, in 1876; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1876, and commenced practice in Elyria, Ohio; prosecuting attorney of Lorain County from 1884 to 1890; judge of the court of common pleas of Lorain County 1900-1903; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William W. Skiles; reelected to the Fifty-ninth Congress, and served from November 8, 1904, to March 3, 1907; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1906; resumed the practice of law in Elyria, Ohio; engaged in literary pursuits; again elected in 1922 judge of the court of common pleas, in which capacity he is now serving; is a resident of Elyria, Ohio.

WEBBER, George Washington, a Representative from Michigan; born in Newbury, Orange County, Vt., November 25, 1825; attended the common schools and the Academy at Alfred, Allegany County, N. Y.; moved to Michigan in 1852 and settled in Manistee County, where he engaged in farming, lumbering, manufacturing, and mercantile pursuits; moved to Ionia, Ionia County, in 1858 and continued the lumber and mercantile business; engaged in the banking business at Ionia in 1870; elected president of the second National Bank of Ionia in 1872, a position which he held until the time of his death; mayor of Ionia in 1874 and 1875; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1883); was not a candidate for renomination in 1882; resumed his former business activities; died in Ionia, Mich., January 15, 1900; interment in Highland Park Cemetery.

WEBER, John Baptiste, a Representative from New York; born in Buffalo, N. Y., September 21, 1842; attended public and private schools and the Central School of Buffalo; enlisted in the Civil War as a private in the Forty-fourth Regiment New York Volunteer Infantry on August 7, 1861, and was rapidly promoted, attaining the rank of colonel of the Eighty-ninth United States Colored Infantry; engaged in the wholesale grocery business; assistant postmaster of Buffalo 1871-1873; sheriff of Erie County 1874-1876; elected as a Republican to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1889); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1888 to the Fifty-first Congress; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1888; grade-crossing commissioner of the city of Buffalo from 1888 to 1906; commissioner of immigration at the port of New York 1890-1893; commissioner general of the Pan American Exposition at Buffalo in 1901; retired from active business pursuits; died in Lackawanna, Erie County, N. Y., December 18, 1926; interment in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Buffalo, N. Y.

WEBSTER, Daniel, a Representative from New Hampshire and a Representative and a Senator from Massachusetts; born in Salisbury (now Franklin), N. H., January 18, 1782; attended district schools and Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H., and was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1801; principal of an academy at Fryeburg, Me., in 1802; studied law, was admitted to the bar in March, 1805, and commenced practice in Boscawon, near Salisbury, N. H.; moved to Portsmouth, N. H., in 1807 and continued the practice of law; elected as a Federalist from New Hampshire to the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Congresses (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1817); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1816 to the Fifteenth Congress; moved to Boston, Mass., in 1816; presidential elector on the Monroe and Tompkins ticket in 1820; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1820; elected from Massachusetts to the Eighteenth, Nineteenth, and Twentieth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1823, to May 30, 1827, when he was elected to the United States Senate for the term beginning March 4, 1827; reelected in 1833 and 1839, and served until his resignation, effective February 22, 1841; nominated by the Massachusetts Legislature for President in 1836 and received the electoral vote of the State; appointed Secretary of State by President Harrison and again by President Tyler, and served from March 5, 1841, to May 9, 1843; again elected, as a Whig, to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1845, to July 22, 1850, when he resigned; appointed Secretary of State by President Fillmore, and served from July 22, 1850, until his death in Marshfield, Mass., October 24, 1852; interment in the Winslow Cemetery.

WEBSTER, Edwin Hanson, a Representative from Maryland; born near Churchville, Harford County, Md., March 31, 1829; received a classical training; attended the Churchville (Md.) Academy and the New London Academy, Chester County, Pa., and was graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., in 1847; taught school; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1851, and commenced practice in Bel Air, Harford County, Md.; member of the State senate 1855-1859; presidential elector on the American Party ticket of Fillmore and Donelson in 1856; during the Civil War was colonel of the Seventh Regiment Maryland Volunteer Infantry and served in 1862 and 1863; was elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth, Thirty-seventh, Thirty-eighth, and Thirty-ninth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1859, until his resignation in July, 1865, when he was appointed collector of customs at the port of Baltimore, and served from July 27, 1865, to April 15, 1869; resumed the practice of his profession in Bel Air; was again appointed, by President Arthur, on February 17, 1882, and served until February 23, 1888; in 1882 he engaged in banking, which he followed until his death; died in Bel Air, Md., April 24, 1893; interment in Calvary Cemetery, near Churchville, Harford County, Md.

WEBSTER, John Stanley, a Representative from Washington; born in Cynthiana, Harrison County, Ky., February 22, 1877; attended the public schools and Smith's Classical School for Boys; studied law at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor 1897-1899; was admitted to the bar in 1899, and commenced practice in Cynthiana, Ky.; prosecuting attorney of Harrison County, Ky., 1902-1906; moved to Spokane, Wash., in May, 1906; chief assistant prosecuting attorney for Spokane County 1907-1909; judge of the Superior Court of Spokane County 1909-1916; lecturer on criminal and elementary law in Gonzaga University, Spokane, Wash.; associate justice of the State supreme court 1916-1918; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, and Sixty-eighth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1919, to May 8, 1923, when he resigned to become United States district judge for the eastern district of Washington, in which capacity he is now serving, with residence in Spokane, Wash.

WEBSTER, Taylor, a Representative from Ohio; born in Pennsylvania October 1, 1800; moved with his parents to Ohio in 1806, where he received a limited schooling; attended Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, for a short time; editor and publisher of the Western Telegraph, Hamilton, Ohio, 1828-1836; clerk of the State house of representatives in 1829; member of the State house of representatives in 1830, and served as speaker; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth, and Twenty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1839); clerk of court of Butler County, Ohio, 1842-1846; died in New Orleans, La., April 27, 1876.

WEDMEYER, William Walter, a Representative from Michigan; born near Lima Township, Washtenaw County, Mich., March 22, 1873; attended the district schools and Ann Arbor High School; was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1896; member of the board of school examiners in 1894 and 1895; was admitted to the bar in 1895; county commissioner of schools 1895-1897; deputy commissioner of railroads for Michigan 1897-1899; commenced the practice of law at Ann Arbor in 1899; chairman of the Republican State convention in 1903; American consul at Georgetown, British Guiana, during the summer of 1905; member of the Republican State central committee 1906-1910; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second Congress, and served from March 4, 1911, until his death; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1912 to the Sixty-third Congress; while on an official visit to Colon, Panama, was accidentally drowned in the harbor of that port on January 2, 1913; remains were never recovered.

WEEKS, Edgar (cousin of John Wingate Weeks), a Representative from Michigan; born at Mount Clemens, Macomb County, Mich., August 3, 1839; attended the public schools; learned the trade of printer; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in January, 1861; during the Civil War served in Company B, Fifth Regiment Michigan Volunteer Infantry, and was first sergeant of the company; first lieutenant and adjutant of the Twenty-second Michigan Infantry in 1862; captain in 1863; appointed assistant inspector general of the Third Brigade, Second Division, Reserve Corps, Army of the Cumberland, in 1863; was mustered out in December, 1863; became one of the proprietors and editor of a Republican newspaper in Mount Clemens, Mich.; commenced the practice of law in Mount Clemens in 1866; prosecuting attorney 1867-1870; appointed judge of probate of Macomb County 1870-1876; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1903); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1902; resumed the practice of law; died in Mount Clemens, Mich., December 17, 1904; interment in Clinton Grove Cemetery.

WEEKS, John Wingate, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Greenland, N. H., March 31, 1781; attended the common schools; learned the carpenter's trade; during the War of 1812 recruited a company for the Eleventh Regiment of United States Infantry and served as its captain; promoted to the rank of major; after the war resided in Coos County, N. H., where he held several local offices; elected to the Twenty-first and Twenty-second Congresses (March 4, 1829-March 3, 1835); died in Lancaster, Coos County, N. H., April 3, 1853; interment in the Old Cemetery.

WEEKS, John Wingate (great nephew of the preceding and cousin of Edgar Weeks), a Representative and a Senator from Massachusetts; born near Lancaster, N. H., April 11, 1860; attended the common schools; taught school; was graduated from the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., in 1881; served in the United States Navy as a midshipman 1881-1883; resigned from the Navy June 26, 1883, and took up the profession of civil engineering; became engaged in the banking and brokerage business in Boston, Mass., 1888-1914; served in the Massachusetts Naval Brigade 1890-1900, acting as commander the last six years; moved to Newton, Mass., in 1898; chairman of the Republican State convention in 1896; member of the Board of Visitors to the United States Naval Academy in 1896; served in the Spanish-American War as a lieutenant in the Volunteer Navy from April 23 to October 28, 1898, later accepting a reserve commission as rear admiral; placed on the Massachusetts Volunteer Militia retired list with rank of rear admiral on April 10, 1900; member of the board of aldermen of Newton, Mass., 1890-1902; city mayor in 1902 and 1906; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-ninth and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1906, to March 4, 1913, when he resigned to become United States Senator; elected to the United States Senate and served from March 4, 1913, to March 3, 1919; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1918; received 105 votes for the presidential nomination in the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1916; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1920; appointed Secretary of War by President Harding March 4, 1921, and again by President Coolidge, and served until October 13, 1925, when he resigned on account of ill health; died in Lancaster, N. H., July 12, 1926; remains were cremated and the ashes interred in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Mass.; reinterment in Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va.

WEEKS, Joseph (grandfather of Joseph Weeks Babcock), a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Warwick, Mass., February 13, 1773; attended the common schools; moved to Richmond, N. H.; engaged in agricultural pursuits; town clerk of Richmond, N. H., 1802-1822; member of the State house of representatives 1807-1809, 1812, 1813 1821-1823, 1830, and 1832-1834; associate judge of the court of common pleas 1823 and 1827; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1835-March 3, 1839); died in Winchester, Cheshire County, N. H., August 4, 1845.

WEEMS, Capell Lane, a Representative from Ohio; born in Whigville, Noble County, Ohio, July 7, 1890; attended the common schools and normal academy, Caldwell, Ohio; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1883, and commenced practice in Caldwell, Ohio; elected prosecuting attorney of Noble County in 1884; member of the State house of representatives in 1888 and 1889; moved to St. Clairsville, Belmont County, in 1890; prosecuting attorney of Belmont County 1890-1896; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joseph J. Gill; reelected to the Fifty-ninth and Sixtieth Congresses, and served from November 3, 1903, to March 3, 1909; resumed the practice of law and subsequently became solicitor for the Pennsylvania Railroad; died in Steubenville, Ohio, January 5, 1913; interment in the Union Cemetery, St. Clairsville, Ohio.

WEEMS, John Crompton, a Representative from Maryland; born in Waterloo, Calvert County, Md., in 1778; attended St. John's College, Annapolis, Md.; engaged in planting; elected as a Democrat to the Nineteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Joseph Kent; reelected to the Twentieth Congress, and served from February 1, 1826, to March 3, 1829; resumed agricultural pursuits; died on his plantation, "Loch Eden," in Anne Arundel County, Md., January 20, 1862; interment in a private cemetery on his estate.

WEFALD, Knud, a Representative from Minnesota; born in Kragero, Norway, November 8, 1869; attended the local schools and high school of his native land; emigrated to the United States in 1887 and in 1896 settled in Hawley, Clay County, Minn.; engaged in agricultural pursuits; also manager and part owner of a lumber business; member of the Village Council of Hawley and served as president in 1907-1912, 1917, and 1918; member of the State house of representatives 1913-1915; elected on the Farmer-Labor ticket to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1926 to the Seventieth Congress; resumed his former business pursuits, and resides in Hawley, Minn.

WEIGHTMAN, Richard Hanson, a Delegate from the Territory of New Mexico; born in Washington, D. C., December 28, 1816; attended private schools in Washington, D. C., and Alexandria, Va.; was graduated from the University of Virginia at Charlottesville; attended the United States Military Academy at West Point 1835-1837; studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1841 in the District of Columbia, but did not practice; served as captain in the Missouri Volunteer Light Artillery in the Mexican War and as additional paymaster in the Army from May 10, 1848, to August 1, 1849; promoted to major; moved to New Mexico in 1851 and edited a newspaper in Santa Fe; appointed agent for Indians in New Mexico and served from July 25, 1851, to July 22, 1852; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); was not a candidate for reelection in 1852; resumed newspaper work; during the Civil War was killed while in command of a Confederate brigade at Wilson Creek, Mo., August 10, 1861; interment on the battle field.

WEISSE, Charles Herman, a Representative from Wisconsin; born near Sheboygan Falls, Sheboygan County, Wis., October 24, 1866; attended the public schools and St. Paul Lutheran School; in 1890 started to work in a tannery and became a partner in 1888; president of the City Council of Sheboygan Falls, Wis., 1893-1896; treasurer of the school board 1897-1900; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1904 and at Denver in 1908; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for election in 1900 to the Fifty-seventh Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, and Sixty-first Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1911); was not a candidate for renomination in 1910 to the Sixty-second Congress; engaged in the manufacture of leather and in various other business enterprises in his native city; accidentally killed in Sheboygan Falls, Wis., October 8, 1919; interment in Falls Cemetery.

WELBORN, John, a Representative from Missouri; born near Aullville, Lafayette County, Mo., November 20, 1857; attended the public schools; studied law at Warrensburg (Mo.) State Normal School, was admitted to the bar in 1880, and practiced in Lexington, Lafayette County, Mo.; city recorder in 1890 and 1891; mayor of Lexington 1896-1920; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1900; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1905-March 3, 1907); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1906 to the Sixtieth Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in Lexington, Mo., October 27, 1907; interment in Machpelah Cemetery.

WELCH, Adonijah Strong, a Senator from Florida; born in East Hampton, Conn., April 12, 1821; attended the public schools; moved to Michigan in 1839 and settled in Jonesville; was graduated from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1846; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1847; principal of the Jonesville (Mich.) High School 1847-1849; principal of the Michigan State Normal School, Ypsilanti, Mich., 1851-1865; trustee of the Michigan Agricultural College at East Lansing; during the Civil War served as a field officer in the Second Regiment Michigan Volunteer Cavalry; moved to Pensacola, Fla., in 1865, and thence to Jacksonville, where he established a lumber mill and also engaged in orange growing; chairman of the Republican State committee in 1868; upon the readmission of the State of Florida to representation was elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from June 25, 1868, to March 3, 1869; declined a renomination to accept the presidency of the Iowa State Agricultural College at Ames, Iowa, and served from 1869 to 1884, when he resigned; commissioner to inspect foreign colleges of agriculture in 1882 and 1883; professor of psychology and history in the Iowa State Agricultural College 1885-1889; was an author and engaged in educational work; died in Pasadena, Los Angeles County, Calif., March 14, 1889; interment in the Iowa State College Cemetery, Ames, Iowa.

WELCH, Frank, a Representative from Nebraska; born at Bunker Hill, Charlestown, Mass., February 10, 1835; moved with his parents to Boston in early childhood; was graduated from the Boston High School; adopted the profession of civil engineering; moved to the Territory of Nebraska in 1857 and engaged in mercantile pursuits at Decatur, Burt County; served as postmaster of Decatur; served in the Territorial council in 1864; member of the Territorial house of representatives in 1865 and 1866, and served as presiding officer of that body in 1865; register of the land office at West Point, Nebr., 1871-1876; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth Congress, and served from March 4, 1877, until his death in Neligh, Antelope County, Nebr., September 4, 1878; interment in Forest Hills Cemetery, Jamaica Plain, Mass.

WELCH, John, a Representative from Ohio; born near New Athens, Harrison County, Ohio, October 28, 1805; received a liberal schooling and was graduated from Franklin College; moved to Athens County in 1828 and settled in Rome Township; engaged in the milling business; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Athens, Ohio, in 1833; prosecuting attorney of Athens County 1841-1843; member of the State senate 1845-1847; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1852; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Baltimore in 1852; resumed the practice of law; member of the Electoral College that cast its vote for John C. Frémont in 1856; judge of the court of common pleas 1862-1865; associate justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio 1865-1878 and was chief justice in 1877 and 1878; died in Athens, Athens County, Ohio, August 5, 1891; interment in the West Union Street Cemetery.

WELCH, Richard Joseph, a Representative from California; attended the public schools; served in the State senate 1901-1913; harbor master for the port of San Francisco 1903-1907; supervisor of the city and county of San Francisco from 1916 until September 30, 1926, when he resigned, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lawrence J. Flaherty, and served from August 31, 1926, to March 3, 1927. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WELCH, William Wickham, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Norfolk, Litchfield County, Conn., December 10, 1818; studied medicine; was graduated from the medical department of Yale College in 1839 and commenced practice in Norfolk; member of the State house of representatives 1848-1850; served in the State senate in 1851 and 1852; elected by the American Party to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); resumed the practice of his profession; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1869 and 1881; died in Norfolk, Litchfield County, Conn., July 30, 1892; interment in Center Cemetery.

WELKER, Martin, a Representative from Ohio; born in Knox County, Ohio, on April 25, 1819; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1840, and commenced practice at Millersburg, Ohio; clerk of the court of common pleas for Holmes County 1846-1851; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1852 to the Thirty-third Congress; judge of the sixth judicial district of Ohio 1852-1857; moved to Wooster, Ohio, in 1857; Lieutenant Governor of Ohio in 1857 and 1858 on the ticket with Salmon P. Chase; declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1858; was appointed aide-de-camp, with rank of colonel, to the Governor of Ohio August 10, 1861; judge advocate general of the State of Ohio in 1861; superintendent of drafting with rank of colonel under Governor Tod August 15, 1862; assistant adjutant general in 1862; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army as a private in Company I, One hundred and eighty-eighth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry, February 16, 1865; mustered out September 21, 1865; assistant adjutant general in 1862; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1862 to the Thirty-eighth Congress; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-ninth, Fortieth, and Forty-first Congresses (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1871); was not a candidate for renomination in 1870; appointed United States judge for the northern district of Ohio by President Grant in 1873 and served until 1889, when he retired; professor of political science and international law at Wooster University 1873-1890; died in Wooster, Wayne County, Ohio, March 15, 1902; interment in Wooster Cemetery.

WELLBORN, Marshall Johnson, a Representative from Georgia; born near Eatonton, Putnam County, Ga., May 29, 1808; attended the University of Georgia at Athens; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1826, and practiced in Columbus, Ga.; held several local offices; member of the State house of representatives in 1833 and 1834; judge of the Superior Court of Georgia 1838-1842; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-first Congress (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1851); studied theology and was ordained as a Baptist minister in 1864 and continued in the ministry until his death in Columbus, Ga., October 16, 1874; interment in Oakland Cemetery, Atlanta, Ga.

WELLBORN, Olin, a Representative from Texas; born in Cumming, Forsyth County, Ga., June 18, 1843; attended the common schools, Emory College, Oxford, Ga., and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; enlisted in the Confederate Army in 1861 and served throughout the Civil War, attaining the rank of captain in Company B, Fourth Georgia Cavalry; at the close of the war settled in Atlanta, Ga.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1866, and commenced the practice of law in Atlanta; moved to Dallas, Tex., in 1871 and continued the practice of his profession; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth, and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1887); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1886; moved to San Diego, Calif., in 1887 and continued the practice of law for six years; moved to Los Angeles, Calif., in 1893; appointed by President Cleveland United States judge of the southern district of California in 1895, which office he held until January 20, 1915, when he retired; died in Los Angeles, Calif., December 6, 1921; interment in Rosedale Cemetery.

WELLER, John B., a Representative from Ohio and a Senator from California; born in Hamilton, Butler County, Ohio, February 22, 1812; attended the public schools and Miami University, Hamilton, Ohio; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in Hamilton, Butler County, Ohio; prosecuting attorney of Butler County 1833-1836; elected as a Democrat from Ohio to the Twenty-sixth, Twenty-seventh, and Twenty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1845); was not a candidate for renomination in 1844; served in the Mexican War as a lieutenant colonel and colonel in 1846 and 1847; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Ohio in 1848; member of the commission to establish the boundary line between Calfornia and Mexico in 1849 and 1850; resigned from the commission in the latter year, moved to California, and engaged in the practice of law; elected as a Union Democrat from California to the United States Senate for the term commencing March 4, 1851, and served from January 30, 1852, to March 3, 1857; Governor of California 1858-1860; appointed minister to Mexico on November 7, 1860, and served until May 14, 1861; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1864; moved to New Orleans, La., in 1867 and continued the practice of law; died in New Orleans, La., August 17, 1875; interment in Lone Mountain Cemetery, San Francisco, Calif.

WELLER, Laman Hamlin, a Representative from Iowa; born in Bridgewater, Litchfield County, Conn., on August 24, 1833; received a common-school and an academic training; attended the State normal school, New Britain, Conn., and the Suffield Literary Institute, Suffield, Conn.; moved to Chickasaw County, Iowa, in 1859 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; justice of the peace in 1865; unsuccessful independent candidate for the State house of representatives in 1867; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1869, and commenced practice in Bradford, Iowa; elected as the candidate of the National Greenback and the Democratic Parties to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress; resumed the practice of law and also engaged in agricultural pursuits near Nashua, Iowa; for twenty years was proprietor and editor of the Farmers' Advocate, a weekly paper, published at Independence, Iowa; upon the organization of the People's Party in 1890 was appointed as a member of its national committee, and served until his death; served as president of the Chosen Farmers of America; twice unsuccessful candidate for judge of the Supreme Court of Iowa; was an unsuccessful candidate of the People's Party for Governor of Iowa in 1901; died in a sanitarium at Minneapolis, Minn., March 2, 1914; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, near Nashua, Chickasaw County, Iowa.

WELLER, Ovington Eugene, a Senator from Maryland; born in Reisterstown, Baltimore County, Md., on January 23, 1832; attended the public schools and was graduated from the Reisterstown High School in 1877; entered the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md., September 22, 1877, and was graduated in 1881; after service of two years in the Navy he was honorably discharged June 30, 1883; employed as a clerk in the Post Office Department, Washington, D. C., 1883-1887; was graduated from the National Law School, Washington, D. C., in 1887, was admitted to the bar in 1888, and practiced law for three years; then engaged in banking and in manufacturing; member of the stock brokerage firm of Hornblower & Weeks, of Boston and New York; retired in 1901 and traveled extensively; chairman of the State Roads Commission of Maryland 1912-1916; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Maryland in 1915; delegate at large and chairman of the Maryland delegation to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1913; treasurer of the Republican National Senatorial Committee 1918-1920; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1920, and served from March 4, 1921, to March 3, 1927; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1926; delegate at large and chairman of the Maryland delegation to the Republican National Convention at Cleveland in 1924; resumed the practice of law and resides in Baltimore, Md.

WELLER, Royal Hariburt, a Representative from New York; born in New York City July 2, 1881; attended the public schools and the College of the City of New York; was graduated from the New York Law School in 1901; was admitted to the bar in 1902 and commenced practice in New York City; assistant district attorney of New York County from 1911 to 1917, when he resigned to reenter the practice of law; counsel for the Allen Property Custodian in 1918 and 1919; member of the American and the New York State Bar Associations; member of the Academy of Political Science and the Seventh Regiment Veterans' Association; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WELLING, Milton Holmes, a Representative from Utah; born in Farmington, Davis County, Utah, January 25, 1870; attended the common schools, the Latter-day Saints' University, and the University of Utah at Salt Lake City; engaged in agricultural and mercantile pursuits and also in banking; was elected a member of the board of trustees of Brigham Young College, Provo, Utah, in 1900; served in the State house of representatives 1911-1915; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fifth and Sixty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1917-March 3, 1921); did not seek renomination, having become a candidate for Senator; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for the United States Senate in 1920; resumed his former pursuits, and is a resident of Fielding, Box Elder County, Utah.

WELLINGTON, George Louis, a Representative and a Senator from Maryland; born in Cumberland, Allegany County, Md., January 28, 1852; attended a German school and received private instructions; served as a clerk in the Second National Bank of Cumberland in 1870, and later was teller; appointed treasurer of Allegany County in 1882 and served until 1888; again appointed treasurer in 1890; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1884 and 1888; unsuccessful candidate of the Republican Party for election as comptroller of Maryland in 1889; assistant treasurer of the United States at Baltimore 1890-1893; unsuccessful candidate for election to the Fifty-third Congress; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1897, to March 3, 1903; was not a candidate for reelection; supported William Jennings Bryan, Democrat, for President in 1900 on the anti-imperialism issue; unsuccessful candidate on the Progressive ticket for reelection to the United States Senate in 1913; engaged in civic activities; was president of two banks and interested in the electric railways and electric lighting companies of Cumberland, Md.; died in that city March 20, 1927; interment in Rose Hill Cemetery.

WELLS, Alfred, a Representative from New York; born in Dagsboro, Sussex County, Del., May 27, 1814; pursued classical studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1837 and commenced practice in Ithaca, Tompkins County, N. Y.; one of the owners of the Ithaca Journal and Advertiser 1839-1853; district attorney of Tompkins County, N. Y., 1845-1847; judge of Tompkins County court from 1847 to 1851; attended the Anti-Nebraska Conventions at Saratoga and Auburn in 1854; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1861); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1860; appointed United States assessor of internal revenue at Ithaca in 1862 and served until his death in Ithaca, N. Y., July 18, 1867; interment in the City Cemetery.

WELLS, Daniel, Jr., a Representative from Wisconsin; born in West Waterville, Me., July 16, 1808; attended the public schools; taught school; engaged in mercantile pursuits at Palmyra, Me.; moved to Milwaukee, Wis., in 1838 and engaged in banking and lumbering pursuits; appointed probate judge of Milwaukee in 1838; member of the Territorial council 1836-1840; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1857); was not a candidate for renomination in 1856; engaged in the development of railroads; a director of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad in 1855 and 1856; president of the La Crosse & Milwaukee Railroad, the Southern Minnesota Railroad, and the St. Paul & Minnesota Valley Railroad; died in Milwaukee, Wis., March 18, 1902; interment in Forest Home Cemetery.

WELLS, Erastus, a Representative from Missouri; born in Sackets Harbor, Jefferson County, N. Y., December 2, 1823; attended the public schools; moved to St. Louis, Mo., in 1842; established the first omnibus line in that city, and subsequently inaugurated the first street railroad company; member of the Board of Aldermen of St. Louis 1853-1867; president of the Missouri Railroad Co. 1859-1883; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-first and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; elected to the Forty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1881); was not a candidate for renomination in 1880; president of the Laclede Gas Light Co. 1880-1883; retired from active business; died in St. Louis, Mo., October 2, 1893; interment in Bellefontaine Cemetery.

WELLS, Guilford Wiley, a Representative from Mississippi; born in Conesus Center, Livingston County, N. Y., on February 14, 1840; attended the Genesee Wesleyan Seminary and College, Lima, N. Y.; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army as a private in the Twenty-seventh New York Infantry May 21, 1861; promoted to second lieutenant in the One hundred and thirtieth New York Infantry in 1862 and subsequently to first lieutenant and captain in the Nineteenth New York Cavalry; wounded in the Battle of Trevillian Station, Virginia, June 12, 1864; mustered out February 10, 1865, as a lieutenant colonel; was graduated from the law department of Columbian College (now George Washington University), Washington, D. C., in 1867; was admitted to the bar in 1867 and commenced practice in Holly Springs, Miss.; United States attorney for the northern district of Mississippi 1870-1875; elected as an administration Republican to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1876; consul general at Shanghai, China, from June 23, 1877, to May 28, 1879; settled in Los Angeles, Calif., in 1879 and resumed the practice of law; died in Santa Monica, Los Angeles County, Calif., March 21, 1909; interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Los Angeles, Calif.

WELLS, John, a Representative from New York; born in Johnstown, Fulton County, N. Y., on July 1, 1817; attended Johnstown Academy, and was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1835; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1839, and commenced practice in Palmyra, N. Y.; shortly thereafter returned to Johnstown, N. Y., and continued the practice of law; elected judge of Fulton County, and served from June, 1847, until his resignation in December, 1851, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1852 to the Thirty-third Congress; resumed the practice of law and also engaged in literary pursuits; died in Johnstown, Fulton County, N. Y., May 30, 1877; interment in Johnstown Cemetery.

WELLS, John Sullivan, a Senator from New Hampshire; born in Durham, Strafford County, N. H., October 18, 1803; attended Pembroke Academy, Pembroke, N. H.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1828, and practiced in Guildhall, Vt., 1828-1835; moved to Lancaster, N. H., in 1836 and continued the practice of law until 1846; solicitor of Coos County 1838-1847; later moved to Exeter, Rockingham County, N. H., and resumed the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives 1839-1841, and served as speaker in 1841; attorney general of New Hampshire in 1847; member and president of the State senate in 1861 and 1862; appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Moses Norris, and served from January 16 to March 3, 1865; died in Exeter, N. H., August 1, 1860.

WELLS, Owen Augustine, a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Catskill, Greene County, N. Y., February 4, 1844; moved when a boy with his parents to Fond du Lac, Wis.; attended public and private schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1870, and commenced practice in Fond du Lac; also engaged in agricultural pursuits and stock raising; appointed by President Cleveland collector of internal revenue for the third Wisconsin district in 1885, and served until 1887, when that district was consolidated with the Milwaukee district; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1888 and to the Gold Democratic National Convention at Indianapolis in 1896, as also to numerous State conventions of his party in Wisconsin; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third Congress (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1895); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; declined to further accept any public office, and resumed the practice of law in Fond du Lac, Fond du Lac County, Wis.; retired from active practice and business in 1901, and resides in Fond du Lac, Wis.

WELLS, William Hill, a Senator from Delaware; born in Burlington, N. J., January 7, 1789; received a liberal schooling; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Georgetown, Del., and practiced; engaged in mercantile pursuits at Dagsboro and Millsboro, Del.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced at Georgetown, Del.; moved to Dover, Del.; member of the General Assembly of Delaware 1794-1798; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Joshua Clayton, and served from January 17, 1799, to November 8, 1804, when he resigned; again elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James A. Bayard, and served from May 23, 1813, to March 8, 1817; was not a candidate for reelection in 1816; resumed the practice of law and was interested in the oil business in Pennsylvania, where the town of Wellsboro was named in his honor; died near Dagsboro, Sussex County, Del., March 11, 1829; interment in Prince Georges Churchyard, near Dagsboro.

WELSH, George Austin, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Bay View, Cecil County, Md., August 9, 1878; attended the country schools and the public schools of Philadelphia, Pa.; pursued a business and academic course, and engaged as a stenographer and reporter from 1895 to 1901; graduated from the law department of Temple University at Philadelphia in 1905; admitted to the bar in April, 1905, and practiced in Philadelphia; secretary to the mayor of Philadelphia in 1905 and 1906; assistant solicitor for Philadelphia in 1906 and 1907; assistant district attorney for Philadelphia County 1907-1922; secretary of Temple University 1914-1925; president of the Republican district executive committee 1914-1925; attended the first Officers' Training Camp at Fort Niagara, N. Y., from May 19 to August 10, 1917; member of the Board of Education of Philadelphia, a position which he still holds; member of the Board of Education of Philadelphia County 1921-1925; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WELTY, Benjamin Franklin, a Representative from Ohio; born near Bluffton, Allen County, Ohio, August 9, 1870; attended the common schools and the Tri-State Normal College of Indiana; was graduated from the Ohio Northern University at Ada in 1894 and from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1896; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1896, and commenced practice in Lima, Allen County, Ohio; city solicitor of Bluffton 1897-1906; served as a private during the Spanish-American War; prosecuting attorney of Allen County 1906-1910; lieutenant colonel in the Ohio National Guard 1908-1913; special counsel to the State attorney general 1911-1913; special assistant in the United States Department of Justice 1913-1915; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fifth and Sixty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1917-March 3, 1921); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1920; resumed the practice of his profession, and is a resident of Lima, Ohio.

WEMPLE, Edward, a Representative from New York; born in Fultonville, Montgomery County, N. Y., October 23, 1843; attended the common schools in Fultonville and Ashland Academy in Green County, and was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1866; studied law for a time and then engaged in the foundry business; served as president of the village of Fultonville in 1873; supervisor of the town of Glen 1874-1876; member of the State assembly in 1877 and 1878; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1884; continued his former business pursuits; was presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Hendricks in 1884 and of Cleveland and Stevenson in 1892; served in the State senate in 1885; elected comptroller of the State of New York in 1887, and served two terms; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; died in Fultonville, N. Y., December 18, 1920; interment in the Maple Avenue Cemetery.

WENDOVER, Peter Hercules, a Representative from New York; born in New York City August 1, 1768; received a liberal schooling; held several local offices; member of the volunteer fire department of New York City in 1796; delegate to the State constitutional conventions in 1801 and 1821; member of the State assembly in 1804; elected as a Democrat to the Fourteenth, Fifteenth, and Sixteenth Congresses (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1821); sheriff of New York County 1822-1825; died in New York City September 24, 1834; interment in the Dutch Reformed Church Cemetery.

WENTWORTH, John (grandson of John Wentworth, jr.), a Representative from Illinois; born in Sandwich, Carroll County, N. H., March 5, 1815; moved with his parents to Dover, N. H., in 1819, where he attended the public schools and an academy; was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1836; moved to Chicago, Ill., and engaged in newspaper work; attended the law department of Harvard University, was admitted to the Illinois bar in 1841, and practiced; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth, Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, and Thirty-first Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1851); elected to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); Republican mayor of Chicago 1857-1863; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1867; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1887); resumed the practice of law; died in Chicago, Ill., October 10, 1888; interment in Rosehill Cemetery.

WENTWORTH, John, jr. (grandfather of John Wentworth), a Delegate from New Hampshire; born at Salmon Falls, Strafford County, N. H., July 17, 1745; prepared for college by private tutors; was graduated from Harvard College in 1768; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Dover, N. H., in 1771; register of probate of Strafford County 1773-1787; appointed on January 10, 1774, a member of the committee of correspondence; member of the State house of representatives 1778-1780; appointed in June, 1777, a member of the State committee of safety; served as moderator 1777-1786; Member of the Continental Congress in 1778 and 1779; one of the signers of the Articles of Confederation; member of the State council 1780-1784; served in the State senate 1784-1786; died in Dover, N. H., January 10, 1787; interment in Pine Hill Cemetery.

WENTWORTH, Tappan, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Dover, N. H., February 24, 1802; received a liberal schooling; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1826, and commenced practice in York County, Me.; moved to Lowell, Mass., in 1833, and continued the practice of law; member of the common council 1838-1841; served in the State house of representatives in 1851, 1856, 1860, 1863, and 1864; member of the State senate in 1848, 1849, 1865, and 1868; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1854 to the Thirty-fourth Congress; engaged in the practice of his profession until his death in Lowell, Middlesex County, Mass., June 12, 1875; interment in Lowell Cemetery.

WERTZ, George M., a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Johnstown, Cambria County, Pa., July 19, 1856; attended the public schools, Edensburg (Pa.) Academy, and the National Normal School, Lebanon, Ohio; taught school 1876-1884; school director 1886-1894; county commissioner from 1893 to 1896; sheriff of Cambria County 1897-1901; member of the State senate 1908-1912, and served as president pro tempore of that body in 1911 and 1912; organized and directed the Johnstown (Pa.) Daily Leader 1911-1917; county comptroller 1914-1916; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1925); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1924; engaged in the real-estate business until his death in Johnstown, Pa., November 10, 1928; interment in Grand View Cemetery.

WEST, George, a Representative from New York; born in Bradninch, Devonshire County, England, February 17, 1823; attended the common schools; emigrated to the United States in February, 1849, and settled at Ballston Spa, N. Y.; engaged in paper manufacturing; member of the State assembly 1872-1876; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1880; president of the First National Bank of Ballston Spa; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1883); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1882 to the Forty-eighth Congress; elected to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1889); was not a candidate for renomination in 1888; again engaged in his former business activities; died at Ballston Spa, Saratoga County, N. Y., September 20, 1901; interment in Ballston Spa Cemetery.

WEST, Joseph Rodman, a Senator from Louisiana; born in New Orleans, La., September 19, 1822; moved with his parents to Philadelphia in 1824; attended private schools and was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1841; moved to New Orleans the same year; captain attached to Maryland and District of Columbia Volunteers in the Mexican War from July 25, 1847, to August 10, 1848; moved to California in 1849 and engaged in newspaper work in San Francisco; proprietor of the San Francisco Price Current; during the Civil War entered the Union Army as lieutenant colonel of the First Regiment California Volunteer Infantry August 5, 1861; promoted to the rank of colonel June 1, 1862; brigadier general of Volunteers October 25, 1862; brevetted major general January 4, 1866, "for faithful and meritorious services"; honorably mustered out at San Antonio, Tex., on January 4, 1866; returned to New Orleans, La.; held several local offices; deputy United States marshal; auditor for customs 1867-1871; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1871, to March 3, 1877; was not a candidate for reelection; appointed on July 17, 1882, a member of the Board of Commissioners of the District of Columbia and served until July 22, 1885, when he resigned, and retired from public life; died in Washington, D. C., on October 31, 1898; interment in Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va.

WEST, William Stanley, a Senator from Georgia; born near Buena Vista, Marion County, Ga., on August 23, 1849; moved with his parents to Lowndes (now Brooks) County, Ga., where he was reared; attended the country schools and preparatory schools at Lookout Mountain, Tenn., and Penfield, Ga.; taught school about four years; was graduated from the law department of Mercer University, Macon, Ga., in 1876 and from the literary department in 1880; was admitted to the bar in 1876 and commenced practice in Statesville, Ga.; moved to Valdosta, Ga.; engaged as a planter and millman; also interested in other enterprises; member of the State house of representatives 1892-1901; served in the State senate 1901-1906, and was president of that body in 1905 and 1906; chairman of the board of trustees of the South Georgia State Normal College at Valdosta and ex officio member of the board of trustees of the University of Georgia at Athens; delegate to many Democratic State conventions; delegate at large to the Democratic National Convention at Denver in 1908 which nominated the presidential ticket of William J. Bryan, of Nebraska, for President and John W. Kern, of Indiana, for Vice President; appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Augustus O. Bacon, and served from March 2 to November 3, 1914, when a successor was elected and qualified; resumed his occupation as planter and lumberman; died in Valdosta, Lowndes County, Ga., December 22, 1914; interment in Sunset Hill Cemetery.

WESTBROOK, John, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Sussex County, N. J., January 9, 1789; moved with his parents to Pike County, Pa., in 1792 and settled near Dingmans Ferry; attended private schools; engaged in lumbering and agricultural pursuits; colonel in the State militia in 1812; sheriff of Pike County in 1817; member of the State house of representatives in 1833; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1842 to the Twenty-eighth Congress; resumed agricultural pursuits; died near Dingmans Ferry, Pike County, Pa., October 8, 1852; interment in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Milford, Pike County, Pa.

WESTBROOK, Theodorice Romeyn, a Representative from New York; born in Fishkill, Dutchess County, N. Y., November 20, 1821; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Rutgers College, New Brunswick, N. J., in 1838; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1843, and commenced practice in Kingston, Ulster County, N. Y.; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1854; resumed the practice of his profession at Kingston, N. Y.; elected a justice of the supreme court in 1873; died while holding court in Troy, Rensselaer County, N. Y., October 6, 1885; interment in Wiltwyck Cemetery, Kingston, N. Y.

WESTCOTT, James Diamant, Jr., a Senator from Florida; born in Alexandria, Va., May 10, 1802; moved to New Jersey, where he received a liberal schooling; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1824, and commenced practice; clerk in the Consular Bureau, Washington, D. C.; secretary of Florida Territory 1830-1834; United States attorney for the middle district of Florida 1834-1836; served in the Territorial house of representatives in 1832; delegate to the constitutional convention in 1838 and 1839 which framed the first constitution of the State; upon the admission of Florida as a State into the Union was elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from July 1, 1845, to March 3, 1849; was not a candidate for reelection in 1848; settled in New York City in 1850 and practiced law; moved to Canada in 1862; died in Montreal, Canada, January 19, 1880; interment in the City Cemetery, Tallahassee, Leon County, Fla.

WESTERLO, Rensselaer, a Representative from New York; born in Albany, N. Y., April 29, 1776; was graduated from Columbia College, New York City, in 1795; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; elected as a Federalist to the Fifteenth Congress (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1819); was not a candidate for reelection; resumed the practice of law; died in Albany, N. Y., April 18, 1851; interment in Albany Rural Cemetery.

WETHERED, John, a Representative from Maryland; born near Wetheredville, Baltimore County, Md., May 8, 1809; completed preparatory studies; held several local offices; engaged in the manufacture of woolen goods; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1845); delegate from Baltimore County to the State convention which framed the constitution of Maryland in 1867; died on his estate, "Ashland," near Catonsville, Md., February 15, 1888; interment in Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore, Md.

WETMORE, George Peabody, a Senator from Rhode Island; born during a visit of his parents abroad, in London, England, August 2, 1846; received his early education at a private school; was graduated from Yale College in 1867 and from the law department of Columbia College, New York City, in 1869; was admitted to the bar of Rhode Island and of New York in 1869, but never practiced; trustee of the Peabody Museum of Natural History in Yale University; trustee of the Peabody Education Fund, president of the Newport Hospital, and a director of other associations; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Garfield and Arthur in 1880 and of Blaine and Logan in 1884; member of the commission that built the new Rhode Island statehouse; Governor of Rhode Island in 1885 and 1886; unsuccessful candidate for a third term; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1889; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1894; reelected in 1900, and served from March 4, 1895, to March 3, 1907; elected on January 22, 1908, to fill the vacancy caused by the failure of the legislature to elect in the term commencing March 4, 1907, and served until March 3, 1913; declined to be a candidate for reelection; died in Boston, Mass., September 11, 1921; interment in Island Cemetery, Newport, Newport County, R. I.

WEVER, John Madison, a Representative from New York; born in Ganges, Allegan County, Mich., February 24, 1847; attended the common schools and Albion (Mich.) College; during the Civil War entered the Union Army at the age of sixteen and served in the Army of the Cumberland and the Army of the Ohio; at the close of the war settled in Plattsburg, Clinton County, N. Y., and engaged in banking; elected county treasurer of Clinton County in 1864 and reelected in 1867; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1895); was not a candidate for renomination in 1894 to the Fifty-fourth Congress; cashier and later president of the Merchants' National Bank of Plattsburg, N. Y.; died in Plattsburg, N. Y., September 27, 1914; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

WEYMOUTH, George Warren, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in West Amesbury (now Merrimac), Mass., August 25, 1850; attended the public schools and the Merrimac High School; moved to Fitchburg, Mass., in 1882 and engaged in the carriage business; later became manager of the Simonds Rolling Machine Co.; trustee of the Fitchburg Savings Bank 1891-1901 and director of the Fitchburg National Bank 1892-1901; director in other corporations; member of the Common Council of Fitchburg in 1886; served in the State house of representatives in 1896; delegate to the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in 1896 which nominated McKinley and Hobart; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1901); was not a candidate for renomination in 1900; moved to Fairhaven; president of the Atlas Tack Corporation of Fairhaven, Mass., 1897-1910; killed in an automobile accident near Bingham, Me., September 7, 1910; interment in Riverside Cemetery, Fairhaven, Bristol County, Mass.

WHALEY, Kellian Van Rensselaer, a Representative from Virginia and from West Virginia; born in Utica, Onondaga County, N. Y., May 6, 1821; moved to Ohio and attended the public schools; moved to Virginia in 1842, settled in Ceredo, and engaged in the lumbering business; elected as a Republican from Virginia to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); during the Civil War recruited several regiments for the Union Army; upon the admission of West Virginia as a State into the Union was elected to the Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth Congresses, and served from December 7, 1863, to March 3, 1867; was not a candidate for renomination in 1866; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864; collector of customs at Brazos de Santiago, Tex., in 1868; returned to West Virginia and settled in Point Pleasant, Mason County, where he died May 20, 1876; interment in Lone Oak Cemetery.

WHALEY, Richard Smith, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Charleston, S. C., July 15, 1874; attended the Episcopal High School, Alexandria, Va., and was graduated from the law department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1897; was admitted to the bar in 1897 and commenced practice in Charleston, S. C.; member of the State house of representatives 1900-1913; served as speaker 1907-1910 and as speaker pro tempore in 1913; presiding officer of the Democratic State convention in 1910 and of the Democratic city convention in 1911; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1912, and at San Francisco in 1920; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of George S. Legare; reelected to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, and Sixty-sixth Congresses, and served from April 29, 1913, to March 3, 1921; was not a candidate for renomination in 1920; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Charleston, S. C., and Washington, D. C.

WHALLON, Reuben, a Representative from New York; born in Bedminster, Somerset County, N. J., on December 7, 1776; attended the common schools; moved to Argyle, Washington County, N. Y.; appointed justice of the peace for the township of Argyle March 18, 1806, and served until 1811; moved to Essex, Essex County, N. Y., in 1814; was a large landowner, farmer, merchant, mill owner, and ironmaster; served as captain and major in the New York State Militia 1803-1814; member of the State assembly in 1806, 1809, and 1811; supervisor of the town of Essex in 1818, 1819, 1827, and 1828; first judge of Essex County court of common pleas 1881-1888; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twenty-third Congress (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1835); again engaged in his former business pursuits; died on his estate at Whallons Bay, town of Essex, N. Y., on April 15, 1843; interment in Whallons Bay Cemetery.

WHARTON, Charles Stuart, a Representative from Illinois; born in Aledo, Mercer County, Ill., April 22, 1875; moved to Chicago with his parents in 1878; attended the public and high schools; was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1890; was admitted to the bar in 1893 and commenced practice in Chicago, Ill.; prosecuting attorney for the town of Lake in 1899; appointed assistant city attorney of Chicago in 1903; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1905-March 3, 1907); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1906 to the Sixtieth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Chicago, Ill.; member of the board of exemption and Government appeal agent at Chicago during the World War; served as an assistant corporation counsel in 1919; appointed assistant State's attorney in 1920, and served in this capacity until December, 1923, when he resigned; again resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Chicago, Ill.

WHARTON, Jesse (grandfather of Wharton Jackson Green), a Representative and a Senator from Tennessee; born in Coopersville, Albemarle County, Va., July 29, 1782; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Albemarle County; moved to Tennessee; elected to the Tenth Congress (March 4, 1807-March 3, 1809); appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of George W. Campbell, and served from March 17, 1814, to October 10, 1815, when a successor was elected; resumed the practice of his profession; member of the Board of Visitors to the United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y., in 1832; died in Nashville, Tenn., July 22, 1833; interment in the family cemetery; reinterment in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

WHARTON, Samuel, a Delegate from Delaware; born in Philadelphia, Pa., May 3, 1732; received a liberal schooling; engaged in mercantile pursuits; Indians destroyed goods of the firm with which he was associated and for indemnification made over a large tract of land bordering on the Ohio River and comprising about one-fourth of the present State of West Virginia; signed the nonimportation resolutions of 1765; while in England to secure a confirmation of the grant some of his correspondence with Benjamin Franklin was discovered and, with Franklin, he was forced to flee to France; returned to Philadelphia in 1790; Member of the Continental Congress from Delaware in 1782 and 1783; justice of the peace for the district of Southwark 1784-1789; judge of the court of common pleas 1790-91 and resigned in the latter year; died at his country seat near Philadelphia, Pa., in March, 1800.

WHEATON, Horace, a Representative from New York; born in New Milford, Litchfield County, Conn., February 24, 1803; moved with his parents to Pompey, Onondaga County, N. Y., in 1810; received a limited schooling; was graduated from Pompey (N. Y.) Academy; engaged in mercantile pursuits; member of the State assembly in 1884; one of the commissioners to build a railroad between Syracuse and Utica; postmaster of Pompey, N. Y., 1840-1842; supervisor of Pompey; city treasurer; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1847); was not a candidate for renomination in 1846; moved to Syracuse, N. Y., in 1846; mayor of Syracuse 1861-1863; city treasurer of Syracuse in 1867 and 1868; engaged in hardware, saddlery, and mercantile pursuits; died in Syracuse, N. Y., June 23, 1882; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

WHEATON, Laban, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Mansfield, Bristol County, Mass., March 13, 1754; attended Wrentham (Mass.) Academy; was graduated from Harvard College in 1774; studied theology under private instructor at Woodstock, Conn.; also studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1788 and commenced practice in Milton, Mass.; judge of the Bristol County court; member of the State house of representatives 1803-1808 and again in 1825; elected as a Federalist to the Eleventh, Twelfth, Thirteenth, and Fourteenth Congresses (March 4, 1809-March 3, 1817); appointed chief justice of the court of common pleas of Bristol County May 18, 1810, which position he held until appointed chief justice of the court of sessions on May 25, 1819, for life; died in Norton, Bristol County, Mass., March 23, 1846; interment in Norton Cemetery.

WHEELER, Burton Kendall, a Senator from Montana; born in Hudson, Middlesex County, Mass., February 27, 1882; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the Hudson High School in 1900; employed as a stenographer in Boston, Mass.; was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1906; was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Butte, Silver Bow County, Mont., in 1905; member of the State house of representatives 1910-1912; United States district attorney for Montana 1913-1918; resumed the practice of law in Butte; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor of Montana in 1920; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate in 1922 for the term commencing March 4, 1923, and ending March 3, 1929; unsuccessful candidate for Vice President of the United States in 1924 on the ticket nominated by the Conference for Progressive Political Action with Robert M. La Follette as the nominee for President.

WHEELER, Charles Kennedy, a Representative from Kentucky; born near Hopkinsville, Christian County, Ky., April 18, 1863; received his early education from a private tutor; was graduated from Southwestern University, Clarksville, Tenn., in 1879 and from the Lebanon Law School, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1880; was admitted to the bar in 1880 and commenced practice in Paducah, McCracken County, Ky.; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Stevenson in 1892; city solicitor of Paducah 1894-1896; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth, and Fifty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1908); was not a candidate for renomination in 1902; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Paducah, Ky.

WHEELER, Ezra, a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Chenango County, N. Y., December 23, 1820; received a liberal preparatory schooling and was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1842; moved to Berlin, Green Lake County, Wis., in 1849; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Berlin, Wis.; member of the State assembly in 1863; judge of Green Lake County 1864-1862; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1865); resumed the practice of law in Berlin, Wis.; on account of ill health, moved to Pueblo, Pueblo County, Colo., in 1870; appointed register of the land office at Pueblo on June 27, 1871, and served until his death in that city on September 19, 1871; interment in Oakwood Cemetery, Berlin, Wis.

WHEELER, Frank Willis, a Representative from Michigan; born in Chaumont, Jefferson County, N. Y., March 2, 1858; attended the common schools; moved to Michigan with his parents, who settled in East Saginaw in 1864; attended the Saginaw High School and the Ypsilanti State Normal School; engaged in boatbuilding; moved to West Bay City, Mich., in 1876; became master of the Saginaw River Tug Association; engaged in shipbuilding at the Bay Cities for many years; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1891); was not a candidate for renomination in 1890; engaged in his former pursuits until 1899, when he moved to Detroit and retired from active business; returned to Saginaw in 1917, organized the Saginaw Shipbuilding Co., and engaged in building boats for the United States Government; died in Saginaw, Mich., August 9, 1921; interment in Elm Lawn Cemetery, Bay City, Mich.

WHEELER, Grattan Henry, a Representative from New York; born near Providence, R. I., August 25, 1783; attended public and preparatory schools; moved to New York with his parents, who settled in Steuben County about 1800; agriculturist and lumberman near Wheeler, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1822, 1824, and 1826; served in the State senate 1826-1830; elected to the Twenty-second Congress (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1833); unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Twenty-third Congress; resumed former pursuits; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Harrison and Tyler in 1840; died in Wheeler, Steuben County, N. Y., March 11, 1862; interment in a private cemetery on the Wheeler homestead.

WHEELER, Hamilton Kinkaid, a Representative from Illinois; born in Ballston Township, Saratoga County, N. Y., August 5, 1848; moved to Illinois in 1852 with his parents, who settled near Grant Park, Kankakee County; attended public and private schools in Kankakee County; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1871, and commenced practice in the city of Kankakee; member of the State senate in 1884; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-third Congress (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1895); was not a candidate for renomination in 1894; resumed the practice of law in Kankakee, Kankakee County, Ill.; delegate to the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in 1896 and at Philadelphia in 1900; died in Kankakee, Ill., July 19, 1918; interment in Mound Grove Cemetery.

WHEELER, Harrison H., a Representative from Michigan; born at Farmers Creek, Lapeer County, Mich., March 22, 1839; attended the common schools; taught school until 1861; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army on November 1, 1861, as a private in Company C, Tenth Regiment Michigan Volunteer Infantry; promoted to second lieutenant in June, 1862; first lieutenant of Company E, same regiment, in April, 1863; captain of Company F, same regiment, in April, 1865; wounded at Buzzards Roost Gap, Kenesaw Mountain, and at Jonesboro, Ga., during the Atlanta campaign; settled in Bay City, Mich., at the close of the war; elected clerk of Bay County in 1866; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1868, and commenced practice in Bay City; member of the State senate in 1870 and 1872; moved to Ladington, Mason County, Mich., in 1873; appointed circuit judge in 1874 and later elected to the office; resigned in June, 1878; appointed postmaster April 16, 1878, and served until his successor was appointed, April 26, 1882; resumed the practice of law in Ludington; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1893); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress; appointed United States pension agent at Detroit February 8, 1894, and served until his death; died at Farmers Creek, near Lapeer, Lapeer County, Mich., while on a visit, July 28, 1896; interment in Lakeview Cemetery, Ludington, Mich.

WHEELER, John, a Representative from New York; born in Humphreysville (now Seymour), New Haven County, Conn., February 11, 1823; attended the common schools at Cheshire, Conn.; moved to New York City in 1843 and was engaged in the hotel business with his father; became a dry-goods clerk; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1857); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1856 to the Thirty-fifth Congress; commissioner and president of the Department of Taxes and Assessments of New York City 1872-1880; member of the Board of Estimates and Apportionments and commissioner of accounts of New York City; was a lawyer, but did not practice; died in New York City April 1, 1906; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

WHEELER, Joseph, a Representative from Alabama; born in Augusta, Ga., September 10, 1836; attended local schools and the Episcopal Academy, Cheshire, Conn.; was graduated from the United States Military Academy at West Point on July 1, 1859; brevetted second lieutenant of First Dragoons; attended the Cavalry School at Carlisle, Pa., from October 1, 1859, to July 18, 1860; transferred to the Mounted Rifles June 26, 1860; second lieutenant September 1, 1860, and served in New Mexico; resigned from the United States Army February 27, 1861; resignation accepted April 22, 1861; during the Civil War was appointed lieutenant of Artillery in the Confederate Army on April 3, 1861; successively promoted to the grade of colonel, brigadier general, and major general, and was commissioned lieutenant general in February, 1865; in 1862 was assigned to the command of the Army Corps of Cavalry of the Western Army, continuing in that position until the war closed; took part in over 400 engagements; was wounded three times, and had sixteen horses shot under him; by joint resolution of the Confederate Congress received the thanks of that body for successful military operations; for the defense of the city of Alken received the thanks of the State of South Carolina; senior Cavalry general of the Confederate Armies May 11, 1864; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and engaged in practice at Wheeler, Ala., and also became a planter; presented credentials as a Democratic Member elect to the Forty-seventh Congress, and served from March 4, 1881, to June 3, 1882, when he was succeeded by William M. Lowe, who contested his election; subsequently elected to the same Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William M. Lowe, and served from January 15 to March 3, 1883; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-ninth and to the seven succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1885, to April 20, 1900, when he resigned; served in the Spanish-American War; commissioned major general of Volunteers May 4, 1898, and assigned to command of a Cavalry division, United States Army; commanded at the Battle of Las Guasimas (first victory of United States Army overseas) June 24, 1898; engaged in all the conflicts in front of Santiago which terminated in the surrender of the Spanish Army; senior member of the commission which negotiated the surrender of Santiago and the Spanish Army in Cuba; during the Philippine insurrection commanded the First Brigade, Second Division, Eighth Army Corps, in the Tarlac campaign and in several other operations in central Luzon from July 8, 1898, to January 24, 1900; commissioned brigadier general in the United States Regular Army June 16, 1900; retired September 10, 1900; author of many books on military and civil matters; retired from active pursuits and traveled in Europe and Mexico; died while visiting his sister in Brooklyn, N. Y., January 25, 1906; interment in Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va.

WHEELER, Loren Edgar, a Representative from Illinois; born in Havana, Mason County, Ill., October 7, 1862; attended the public schools and Graylock Institute, South Williamstown, Mass.; moved to Springfield, Ill., in 1880 and engaged in business; member of the board of aldermen 1886-1897; mayor of Springfield 1897-1901; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1900; postmaster of Springfield 1901-1913; became identified with the advertising business; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, and Sixty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1923); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1922 to the Sixty-eighth Congress; elected to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1926 to the Seventieth Congress; resumed his former business activities and resides in Springfield, Sangamon County, Ill.

WHEELER, Nelson Platt, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Portville, Cattaraugus County, N. Y., November 4, 1841; attended the public schools and academies in Olean and Deposit, N. Y.; became a surveyor and civil engineer; moved to Endeavor, Forest County, Pa.; engaged in the lumber business and also interested in agricultural pursuits and banking; elected county commissioner in 1866; held various township offices; member of the State house of representatives in 1878 and 1879; declined to be a candidate for renomination; elected as a Republican to the Sixtieth and Sixty-first Congresses (March 4, 1907-March 3, 1911); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1910; the primary election being contested, and Mr. Wheeler's opponent withdrawing, Mr. Wheeler was subsequently tendered the congressional nomination, but declined; resumed his former business pursuits in Endeavor, Pa.; owing to ill health, moved to Pasadena, Los Angeles County, Calif., in 1915, and died there on March 3, 1920; interment in Mountain View Cemetery.

WHEELER, William Almon, a Representative from New York and a Vice President of the United States; born in Malone, Franklin County, N. Y., June 19, 1819; completed preparatory studies; attended the Franklin Academy at Malone and the University of Vermont at Burlington; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1845, and practiced in Malone, N. Y.; for several years district attorney for Franklin County, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1850 and 1851; served in the State senate in 1858 and 1859; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); delegate to the State constitutional conventions in 1867 and 1868; elected to the Forty-first and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1877); was not a candidate for reelection, having been nominated in 1876 as the Republican candidate for Vice President; elected Vice President of the United States on the Republican ticket of Hayes and Wheeler in 1876; retired from public life and active business pursuits because of ill health; died in Malone, Franklin County, N. Y., June 4, 1887; interment in Morningside Cemetery.

WHIPPLE, Thomas, Jr., a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Lebanon, Grafton County, N. H., in 1787; completed preparatory studies; moved to Warren, N. H., in 1811; studied medicine at Haverhill and Hanover, N. H., and was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1814; commenced practice in Wentworth, N. H.; member of the State house of representatives 1818-1820; elected to the Seventeenth, Eighteenth, Nineteenth, and Twentieth Congresses (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1829); resumed the practice of medicine; died in Wentworth, Grafton County, N. H., January 28, 1885.

WHIPPLE, William, a Delegate from New Hampshire; born in Kittery, York County, Me., January 14, 1780; became a sailor and engaged in the slave trade; abandoned sailor life, liberated all his slaves, and engaged in mercantile pursuits in Portsmouth, N. H.; delegate to the Provincial Congress at Exeter in 1775; Member of the Continental Congress in 1775, 1776, and 1778; declined to be a candidate for renomination; one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence; commissioned a brigadier general in 1777; member of the State assembly 1780-1784; participated in several battles of the Revolution, and resigned in 1782; appointed judge of the State supreme court in 1782; financial receiver for New Hampshire 1782-1784; died in Portsmouth, N. H., November 28, 1785; interment in the North Cemetery.

WHITACRE, John Jefferson, a Representative from Ohio; born in Decatur, Burt County, Neb., December 28, 1860; attended the public schools, Hiram (Ohio) College, and the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor; engaged as a manufacturer of hollow building tile; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1912; unsuccessful candidate in 1908 to the Sixty-first Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second and Sixty-third Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1915); resumed his former manufacturing pursuits; president of the Whitacre Engineering Co. and the Whitacre-Greer Fireproofing Co., and is a resident of Waynesburg, Stark County, Ohio.

WHITCOMB, James, a Senator from Indiana; born near Windsor, Windsor County, Vt., December 1, 1795; was graduated from Transylvania University, Lexington, Ky., in 1819; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Bloomington, Ind., in 1824; prosecuting attorney for Monroe County in 1826; member of the State senate 1830-1836; appointed by President Jackson Commissioner of the General Land Office October 21, 1836, and served until July 6, 1841; resumed the practice of law in Terre Haute, Ind.; Governor of Indiana 1843-1849; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1849, until his death in New York City October 4, 1852; interment in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis, Ind.

WHITE, Addison (cousin of John White), a Representative from Kentucky; born in Abingdon, Washington County, Va., May 1, 1824; received an academic education; was graduated from Princeton College in 1844; engaged in agricultural pursuits and cotton raising; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army; moved to Huntsville, Ala., and resumed agricultural pursuits; died in Huntsville, Ala., February 4, 1909; interment in Maple Hill Cemetery.

WHITE, Albert Smith, a Representative and a Senator from Indiana; born at "The Clove," near Washingtonville, Orange County, N. Y., October 24, 1803; was graduated from Union College, Schenectady, N. Y., in 1822; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1825, and practiced; moved to La Fayette, Ind., in 1829; assistant clerk of the State house of representatives in 1830 and 1831 and clerk from 1832 to 1835; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1833 to the Twenty-third Congress; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Harrison and Granger in 1836; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1839); was not a candidate for renomination in 1838; president of several railroads; elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1869, to March 3, 1845; declined to be a candidate for reelection; moved to Stockwell, Ind., and resumed the practice of law; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); was not a candidate for renomination in 1862; appointed by President Lincoln one of three commissioners to adjust the claims of citizens of Minnesota and Dakota against the Government for Indian depredations; appointed judge of the United States Court for the District of Indiana on January 18, 1864, and served until his death in Stockwell, Tippecanoe County, Ind., September 24, 1864; interment in Greenbush Cemetery, La Fayette, Ind.

WHITE, Alexander, a Representative from Virginia; born in Frederick County, Va., in 1738; studied law at the Inner Temple, London, in 1762 and attended Gray's Inn in 1768; member of the State house of delegates 1782-1786 and in 1788; delegate to the State convention in 1788; elected as a Federalist to the First and Second Congresses (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1793); again a member of the State house of delegates 1799-1801; appointed by President Washington May 18, 1795, one of the three commissioners to lay out the city of Washington, D. C., and erect the public buildings, and served until May 1, 1802, when the board was abolished; died on his estate, "Woodville," in Frederick County, Va., September 19, 1804.

WHITE, Alexander, a Representative from Alabama; born in Franklin, Williamson County, Tenn., on October 16, 1816; moved with his parents to Courtland, Ala., in 1821; pursued an academic course and attended the University of Tennessee at Knoxville; served in the Seminole War in 1836; moved to Talladega, Ala., in 1837; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1838, and commenced practice in Talladega; elected as a Union Whig to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); moved to Selma, Ala., in 1855 and continued the practice of law; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1865; member of the State house of representatives in 1872; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; appointed an associate justice of the United States Court for the Territory of Utah in 1875, serving only a few months; returned to Talladega, Ala.; then moved to Dallas, Tex., in 1876 and resumed the practice of law; died in Dallas December 13, 1893; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

WHITE, Alexander Colwell, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Kittanning, Armstrong County, Pa., December 12, 1833; attended the public schools; taught school; attended the Jacksonville Institute and the Dayton Union Academy; moved to Jefferson County, Pa., in 1860, where he studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1862, and commenced practice in Punxsutawney, Pa.; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army as a private in Company I, Eighth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry; moved to Brookville, Pa., and continued the practice of his profession; elected district attorney in 1867 and 1870; elected as a Republican to the Forty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1887); was not a candidate for reelection in 1886; resumed the practice of law; justice of the peace for Rose Township; died near Brookville, Jefferson County, Rose Township, Pa., June 11, 1908; interment in Brookville Cemetery.

WHITE, Allison, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Pine Township, near Jersey Shore, Pa., December 21, 1816; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Allegheny College, Meadville, Crawford County, Pa.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Lock Haven, Pa.; was elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1859); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1858 to the Thirty-sixth Congress; engaged in the lumber and coal business at Philadelphia; died in Philadelphia, Pa., on April 5, 1886; interment in Highland Cemetery, Lock Haven, Clinton County, Pa.

WHITE, Bartow, a Representative from New York; born in Yorktown, Westchester County, N. Y., on November 7, 1776; attended the common schools and completed his preparatory studies; studied medicine with his father, Dr. Ebenezer White, and commenced practice in Fishkill, N. Y., in 1800; elected to the Nineteenth Congress (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1827); resumed the practice of medicine; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Harrison and Tyler in 1840; died in Fishkill, Dutchess County, N. Y., December 12, 1862; interment in the Dutch Reformed Church Cemetery.

WHITE, Benjamin, a Representative from Maine; born in Goshen (now Vienna), Me., May 13, 1790; attended the common schools and Farmington Academy; served as a noncommissioned officer in the War of 1812; member of the State house of representatives; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1845); engaged in the milling business, and was interested in agricultural pursuits; died in Montville, Me., on June 7, 1860; interment in Halldale Cemetery, North Montville, Me.

WHITE, Campbell Patrick, a Representative from New York; born in Ireland November 30, 1787; received a limited education; emigrated to the United States in 1816; engaged in mercantile pursuits in New York City; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twenty-first, Twenty-second, Twenty-third, and Twenty-fourth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1829, until his resignation in 1835, which occurred before the convening of the Twenty-fourth Congress; appointed quartermaster general of the State militia on January 24, 1831; retired to private life; died in New York City February 12, 1859; interment in St. Paul's Cemetery.

WHITE, Chilton Allen, a Representative from Ohio; born in Georgetown, Brown County, Ohio, February 6, 1826; attended the public schools; taught school; served in the Mexican War with Company G, First Regiment Ohio Volunteers; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1848, and commenced the practice of law in Georgetown, Ohio; prosecuting attorney of Brown County from 1852 to 1854; member of the State senate in 1859 and 1860; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1865); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in Georgetown; was a delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1873; unsuccessful candidate for secretary of state in 1896; died in Georgetown, Ohio, December 7, 1900; interment in Confidence Cemetery.

WHITE, David, a Representative from Kentucky; born in 1785; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in New Castle, Ky.; member of the State house of representatives in 1826; elected to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1825); died in Franklin County, Ky., October 19, 1884.

WHITE, Edward Douglass (son of James White), a Representative from Louisiana; born in Nashville, Tenn., in March, 1795; moved with his father to what is now St. Martin Parish, La., in 1799; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the University of Nashville, Tenn., in 1815; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Donaldsonville, La.; was appointed judge of the city court of New Orleans and moved there in 1825; elected to the Twenty-first, Twenty-second, and Twenty-third Congresses, and served from March 4, 1829, to November 15, 1834, when he resigned; Governor of Louisiana from 1834 to 1838; moved to Thibodaux; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1843); resumed the practice of his profession; also engaged as a planter; died in New Orleans, La., April 18, 1847; interment in St. Joseph's Catholic Cemetery, Thibodaux, La.

WHITE, Edward Douglass (son of the preceding), a Senator from Louisiana; born near Thibodaux, La Fourche Parish, La., November 3, 1845; attended Mount St. Mary's College, near Emmitsburg, Md., the Jesuit College in New Orleans, La., and Georgetown College, Washington, D. C.; served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in New Orleans, La., in 1868; member of the State senate 1874-1878; upon the death of Justice Egan, was appointed on January 10, 1879, as associate justice of the Supreme Court of Louisiana and served until April 5, 1880; resumed the practice of law; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1891, until his resignation, effective March 12, 1894; appointed Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States by President Cleveland on February 19, 1894, and qualified on March 12, 1894; appointed Chief Justice of the United States December 12, 1910, took the oath of office December 19, 1910, and served until his death in Washington, D. C., May 19, 1921; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

WHITE, Francis, a Representative from Virginia; born near Winchester, Frederick County, Va.; attended the common schools at Winchester; engaged in agricultural pursuits; elected a member of the State house of delegates 1794, 1800-1813, and 1818; elected to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1815); served in the State senate in 1823 and 1824; sheriff of Hampshire County, Va. (now West Virginia), for a number of years; died in Hampshire County, on the Capon River, in November, 1826.

WHITE, Francis (Frank) Shelley, a Senator from Alabama; born in Prairie, Noxubee County, Miss., March 13, 1847; attended the common schools and was tutored at home; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army as a private in Company F, First Mississippi Cavalry, and also with Gen. Nathan B. Forrest; captured near the close of the war at Selma, Ala.; after the war engaged in agricultural pursuits until 1868; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1869, and commenced practice in West Point, Miss.; member of the State house of representatives in 1875, 1882, and 1883; moved to Birmingham, Ala., in 1886 and continued the practice of law; president of the Democratic State convention in 1900; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Kansas City in 1900 and to the State constitutional convention in 1901; chairman of the Democratic State executive committee 1908-1910; president of the State bar association in 1912 and 1913; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Joseph F. Johnston, and served from May 11, 1914, to March 3, 1915; was not a candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law; died in Birmingham, Ala., August 1, 1922; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

WHITE, Frederick Edward, a Representative from Iowa; born in Prussia, Germany, January 19, 1844; emigrated to the United States in 1857 with his mother, who settled on a farm in Keokuk County, Iowa; during the Civil War enlisted in the Eighth Regiment Iowa Volunteer Infantry in 1861 and was rejected on account of age; reenlisted in February, 1862, in the Thirteenth Regiment Iowa Volunteer Infantry, and was mustered out in August, 1865; returned to Keokuk County and engaged in agricultural pursuits and stock raising; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1893); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress; retired from public life and resumed agricultural pursuits; died in Sigourney, Keokuk County, Iowa, January 14, 1920; interment in Sigourney Cemetery.

WHITE, George, a Representative from Ohio; born in Elmira, Chemung County, N. Y., August 21, 1872; moved with his parents to Titusville, Crawford County, Pa., in 1874; attended the common schools; was graduated from the local high school in 1891 and from Princeton College in 1895; taught school for several years; mined in the Klondike 1898-1901; moved to Washington County, Ohio, in 1902 and settled in Marietta; engaged in the production of oil; member of the State house of representatives 1905-1908; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second and Sixty-third Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1915); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; elected to the Sixty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1917-March 3, 1919); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1918 to the Sixty-sixth Congress; chairman of the Democratic National Committee from July, 1920, to November, 1921; resumed his activities in the oil business, and resides in Ohio.

WHITE, George Elon, a Representative from Illinois; born in Millbury, Worcester County, Mass., March 7, 1848; attended the public schools; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in the Fifty-seventh Regiment Massachusetts Veteran Volunteers, in which he served under General Grant, in the Army of the Potomac, from the Battle of the Wilderness until the surrender of General Lee at Appomattox Court House; after the close of the war entered a commercial college in Worcester, Mass.; moved to Chicago, Ill., in 1867 and engaged in the lumber business and also became interested in banking; member of the Board of Aldermen of Chicago; member of the State senate 1878-1886; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1899); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1898 to the Fifty-sixth Congress; resumed his former business pursuits, and is president of the White Lumber Co.; is a resident of Chicago, Ill.

WHITE, George Henry, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Rosindale, Bladen County, N. C., December 18, 1862; was of the Negro race; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Howard University, Washington, D. C., in 1877; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1879, and commenced practice in New Bern, N. C.; principal of the State Normal School of North Carolina; member of the State house of representatives in 1880; served in the State senate in 1884; solicitor and prosecuting attorney for the second judicial district of North Carolina 1886-1894; delegate to the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in 1896 and at Philadelphia in 1900; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1901); was not a candidate for renomination in 1900 to the Fifty-seventh Congress; resumed the practice of law and also engaged in banking; died in Philadelphia, Pa., December 23, 1918; interment in Eden Cemetery.

WHITE, Harry, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Indiana, Indiana County, Pa., January 12, 1834; attended Indiana Academy, Indiana, Pa., and was graduated from Princeton College in 1854; studied law, was admitted to the bar in June, 1855, and commenced practice in Indiana, Pa.; during the Civil War entered the Union Army as major of the Sixty-seventh Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry December 18, 1861; mustered out February 22, 1865; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers March 2, 1865; member of the State senate during his military service and attended its sessions in the winter of 1862-63; reelected to the State senate, and served from 1865 to 1874; was speaker at the close of the last term; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1872; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania in 1872; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1881); was not a candidate for renomination in 1880; elected judge of Indiana County, Pa., in 1884; reelected in 1894 and served until 1904; resumed the practice of law and engaged in banking; died in Indiana, Pa., June 23, 1920; interment in Oakland Cemetery.

WHITE, Hays Baxter, a Representative from Kansas; born near Fairfield, Jefferson County, Iowa, September 21, 1855; attended the common schools of his native city; moved to Mankato, Jewell County, Kans., in 1875 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; taught school at Mankato in 1876; member of the State senate 1888-1905; mayor of Mankato in 1914 and 1915; member of the State tax commission 1915-1918; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WHITE, Hugh, a Representative from New York; born in Whitestown, Oneida County, N. Y., December 25, 1798; attended the common schools; was graduated from Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y., in 1823; studied law, but did not practice; entered business at Chittenango in 1825 and afterwards at Rondout; active in the building of the Michigan Southern & Northern Indiana Railroad; moved to Cohoes, N. Y., in 1830; was interested in the development of the water power from the Mohawk River; organized the Rosendale Cement Works; elected as a Republican to the Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, and Thirty-first Congresses (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1851); resumed his business activities; died in Waterford, N. Y., October 6, 1870; interment in Albany Rural Cemetery.

WHITE, Hugh Lawson, a Senator from Tennessee; born in Iredell County, N. C., October 30, 1778; moved with his parents in 1785 to that part of North Carolina which now is Knox County, Tenn.; participated in the expedition against the Cherokees under General Sevier; pursued classical studies in Philadelphia, Pa., and studied law in Lancaster, Pa.; was admitted to the bar in 1796 and commenced practice in Knoxville, Tenn.; private secretary to Governor Blount; judge of the State supreme court 1801-1807; served in the State senate 1807-1809; appointed United States district attorney in 1808; judge of the supreme court 1809-1815; chosen president of the State bank in 1815; again a member of the State senate 1817-1825; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Andrew Jackson; reelected in 1829 and 1835, and served from October 23, 1825, to January 18, 1840, when he resigned because he could not conscientiously obey the instructions of his constituents; chosen President pro tempore of the Senate December 3, 1832; received the electoral votes of Tennessee and Georgia in 1836 for President of the United States; died in Knoxville, Tenn., April 10, 1840; interment in First Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

WHITE, James (father of Edward Douglass White), a Delegate from North Carolina and from the Territory South of the River Ohio (now the State of Tennessee); born in Philadelphia, Pa., June 16, 1749; attended a Jesuit College in St. Omer, France; returned to the United States and studied medicine in the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia; also studied law; moved to North Carolina and settled in Davidson County; member of the North Carolina General Assembly in 1785; member of the Continental Congress from North Carolina 1786-1788; superintendent of Indian affairs for the southern district in 1786; after the creation of the Territory South of the River Ohio (later the State of Tennessee) in 1790, served in the house of representatives of the first Territorial legislature from Davidson County in 1794; elected as a Delegate to the Third and Fourth Congresses from the Territory South of the River Ohio, and served from September 3, 1794, to June 1, 1796, when the Territory was admitted into the Union as the State of Tennessee; moved to Louisiana in 1799; appointed judge of Attakapas district in 1804 and later of St. Martin Parish; died in Attakapas, La., in October 1809.

WHITE, James Bain, a Representative from Indiana; born in Stirlingshire, Scotland, June 26, 1835; attended the common schools; emigrated to the United States in 1854 and settled in Fort Wayne, Ind.; a calico printer and a tailor until the outbreak of the Civil War; enlisted as a private in Company I, Thirteenth Regiment Indiana Volunteers; elected captain of the company and served until December, 1862, when he resigned; was wounded in the Battle of Shiloh April 7, 1862; elected a member of the Common Council of Fort Wayne, Ind., in 1874; operated a department store and was also engaged in the manufacture of wheels and interested in banking; elected as a Republican to the Fifteenth Congress (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1869); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1888 to the Fifty-first Congress; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Minneapolis in 1892 which nominated Harrison and Reid; commissioner to the World's Columbian Exposition at Chicago in 1893; died in Fort Wayne, Ind., October 9, 1897; interment in Linwood Cemetery.

WHITE, James Bamford, a Representative from Kentucky; born near Winchester, Clark County, Ky., June 6, 1842; attended the common schools and Mount Zion Academy, Macon County, Ill.; entered the Confederate Army in the fall of 1863 and served in the commands of Generals Breckinridge and Morgan until the close of the Civil War, when honorably discharged; engaged in teaching at Irvine, Estill County, Ky.; while teaching studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1867, and commenced the practice of law in Irvine; prosecuting attorney of Estill County 1872-1890; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1901-March 3, 1903); continued the practice of his profession until his retirement in 1919, and is a resident of Irvine, Ky.

WHITE, John (cousin of Addison White and uncle of John Daugherty White), a Representative from Kentucky; born near Cumberland Gap (now Middlesboro), Ky., February 14, 1802; received a limited schooling; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Richmond, Madison County, Ky.; member of the State house of representatives in 1832; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fourth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1835-March 3, 1845); served as Speaker of the House of Representatives in the Twenty-seventh Congress; appointed judge of the nineteenth judicial district of Kentucky, and served from February 8, 1845, until his death in Richmond, Ky., September 23, 1848; interment in the State Cemetery, Frankfort, Franklin County, Ky.

WHITE, John Daugherty (nephew of John White), a Representative from Kentucky; born near Manchester, Clay County, Ky., January 16, 1849; attended a private school until 1866 and Eminence (Ky.) College and the University of Kentucky at Lexington until 1870; was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1872; also attended the medical department of the same institution; declined a nomination for clerk of the Court of Appeals of Kentucky in 1874; was admitted to the bar by the Kentucky Court of Appeals in 1875 and practiced; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); declined to be a candidate for renomination; chairman of the Kentucky Republican State convention at Louisville in 1879; member of the State house of representatives in 1879 and 1880; resigned in 1880; indorsed and reelected without opposition during the sitting of the legislature; chairman of the Kentucky delegation to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1880 which nominated James A. Garfield, of Ohio, for President and Chester A. Arthur, of New York, for Vice President; unsuccessful Republican candidate for the United States Senate in 1881; elected as a Republican to the Forty-seventh and Forty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1885); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1884, and resumed the practice of law in Louisville, Ky.; unsuccessful candidate of the State Prohibition Party for Governor of Kentucky in 1903; unsuccessful candidate of the Progressive Party for judge of the Kentucky Court of Appeals in 1912; died near Manchester, Ky., January 5, 1920; interment in the family burying ground near Manchester, Clay County, Ky.

WHITE, Joseph Livingston, a Representative from Indiana; born in Cherry Valley, Otsego County, N. Y.; completed preparatory studies; studied law in Utica, N. Y., was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Madison, Ind.; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); moved to New York City and resumed the practice of law; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Clay and Frelinghuysen in 1844; while on a business trip to Nicaragua, Central America, he was shot by a Mr. Gavett as he was leaving the ship at Corinto (Punta Yacacos), Nicaragua, January 5, 1861, dying at Corinto on January 12; interment in the cemetery at Corinto (Punta Yacacos), Nicaragua.

WHITE, Joseph M., a Delegate from Florida Territory; born in Franklin County, Ky., May 10, 1781; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; moved to Pensacola, Fla., in 1821; one of the commissioners under the act of Congress of May 8, 1822, "for ascertaining claims and titles to lands within the Territory of Florida"; author of a compilation known as "White's Spanish Law"; elected as a Democrat to the Nineteenth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1837); unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Twenty-fifth Congress; died in St. Louis, Mo., October 19, 1839.

WHITE, Joseph Worthington, a Representative from Ohio; born in Cambridge, Guernsey County, Ohio, October 2, 1822; attended the common schools and Cambridge Academy; engaged in mercantile pursuits; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1844, and commenced practice in Cambridge; prosecuting attorney of Guernsey County 1845-1847; mayor of Cambridge; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1860; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1865); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in Cambridge, Guernsey County, Ohio, August 6, 1892; interment in the South Cemetery.

WHITE, Leonard, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Haverhill, Mass., May 8, 1767; was graduated from Harvard University in 1787; member of the State house of representatives in 1809; held many local offices; elected as a Democrat to the Twelfth Congress (March 4, 1811–March 3, 1813); town clerk of Haverhill; cashier of the Merrimack Bank of Haverhill 1814–1836; died in Haverhill, Essex County, Mass., October 10, 1849; interment in the Pentucket Cemetery.

WHITE, Michael Doherty, a Representative from Indiana; born in Clark County, Ohio, September 8, 1827; moved with his parents to Tippecanoe County, Ind., in 1829; pursued classical studies; moved to Crawfordsville, Crawfordsville County, Ind., in 1848; attended the county seminary and Wabash College, Crawfordsville; clerked in a store for one year; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1854, and commenced the practice of his profession in Crawfordsville; law partner of Gen. Lew Wallace; prosecuting attorney of Montgomery and Boone Counties 1854–1856; member of the State senate 1860–1864; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1877–March 3, 1879); was not a candidate for renomination in 1878; continued the practice of law in Crawfordsville, Ind., until 1911, and died there on February 6, 1917; interment in the Masonic Cemetery.

WHITE, Milo, a Representative from Minnesota; born in Fletcher, Franklin County, Vt., August 17, 1830; attended the common schools and Bakersfield Academy; moved to Chatfield, Fillmore County, Minn., in 1855 and engaged in mercantile pursuits; chairman of the board of supervisors of Chatfield upon its organization in 1858; served in the State senate 1872–1876, 1881, and 1882; elected as a Republican to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883–March 3, 1887); unsuccessful candidate for election in 1898 to the Fifty-sixth Congress; resumed mercantile pursuits; mayor of Chatfield for several terms; member of school board until the time of his death in Chatfield, Minn., May 18, 1913; interment in Chatfield Cemetery.

WHITE, Phillips, a Delegate from New Hampshire; born in Haverhill, Mass., October 28, 1729; completed preparatory studies, attended Harvard College; during the French and Indian War was an officer in the colonial army at Lake George in 1755; moved to New Hampshire; member of the State house of representatives 1775–1782, and served as speaker in 1775 and 1782; probate judge of Rockingham County, N. H., 1778–1790; Member of the Continental Congress in 1782 and 1783; councillor 1792–1794; retired to his farm near South Hampton, N. H.; died in South Hampton June 24, 1811; interment in the Old Cemetery.

WHITE, Phineas, a Representative from Vermont; born in South Hadley, Hampshire County, Mass., October 30, 1770; was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1797; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1800, and commenced practice in Pomfret, Vt.; register of probate for Windsor County 1800–1809; county attorney in 1813; judge of Windham County in 1814, 1815, 1817, and 1820; judge of probate of the district of Westminster in 1814 and 1815; member of the constitutional convention in 1814; served in the State house of representatives 1815–1820; elected as a Democrat to the Seventeenth Congress (March 4, 1821–March 3, 1823); retired from the practice of his profession; member of the State constitutional convention in 1836; served in the State senate in 1836 and 1837; trustee of Middlebury College; died in Putney, Windham County, Vt., on July 6, 1847; interment in Maple Grove Cemetery.

WHITE, Samuel, a Senator from Delaware; born near Dover, Mispillion Hundred, Kent County, Del., in 1770; attended Cokesbury College, Maryland; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1798, and commenced practice in Dover, Del.; served two years as a captain in the United States Army; adjutant general of Delaware in 1803; appointed and subsequently elected as a Federalist to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Henry Latimer; reelected in 1803 and 1809, and served from February 28, 1801, until his death in Wilmington, Del., November 4, 1809; interment in the Old Swede Churchyard.

WHITE, Stephen Mallory, a Senator from California; born in San Francisco, Calif., January 19, 1853; moved with his parents to Santa Cruz County, Calif.; attended private and common schools and St. Ignatius College in San Francisco; was graduated from Santa Clara College, Santa Clara County, Calif., in 1871; studied law, was admitted to the bar April 14, 1874, and commenced practice in Los Angeles, Calif.; district attorney of Los Angeles County in 1882; member of the State senate 1886–1890, serving as president pro tempore both sessions, and in 1888 became, by virtue of his office, Lieutenant governor; member of the board of regents of the University of California; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1888 and at Chicago in 1892; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1890; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1893, to March 3, 1899; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Kansas City in 1900 which nominated Bryan and Stevenson; died in Los Angeles, Calif., February 21, 1901; interment in Calvary Cemetery.

WHITE, Stephen Van Culen, a Representative from New York; born in Chatham County, N. C., August 1, 1831; moved to Illinois with his parents, who settled near Otterville, Jersey County, Ill.; attended the free school founded by Dr. Silas Hamilton in Otterville, Ill., and was graduated from Knox College, Galesburg, Ill., in 1854; entered a mercantile house in St. Louis, Mo.; studied law, and was admitted to the bar November 4, 1856; moved to Des Moines, Iowa, in 1856, and practiced law until January 1, 1865; acting United States district attorney for Iowa in 1864; moved to New York City in 1865 and engaged in banking; member of the New York Stock Exchange; was an astronomer and upon the organization of the American Astronomical Society in 1883 was elected its first president; elected as a Republican to the Fiftyth Congress (March 4, 1887–March 3, 1889); was not a candidate for renomination in 1888 to the Fifty-first Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in Brooklyn, N. Y., January 18, 1913; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

WHITE, Wallace Humphrey, jr. (grandson of William Pierce Frye), a Representative from Maine; born in Lewiston, Androscoggin County, Me., on August 6, 1877; attended the public schools of Lewiston; was graduated from Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., in 1899; assistant clerk to the Committee on Commerce, United States Senate, and secretary to the President pro tempore of the Senate, Senator Frye, of Maine, 1899–1903; studied law, was admitted to the bar of the District of Columbia in 1902 and of Maine in 1903, and commenced practice in Lewiston, Me.; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1917–March 3, 1927); appointed by President Coolidge as a delegate to the Pan American Electrical Communications Conference at Mexico City in 1924; elected a member of the American group of the Inter-parliamentary Union in 1925; selected by the Secretary of State as a delegate to the International Telegraph Conference at Paris, France, in 1825; designated by the Secretary of State as unofficial observer to attend meetings of the International Committee on Wireless Telegraphy held at Geneva in 1927, and elected a member of this committee the same year; appointed by President Coolidge as a delegate of the United States to the International Telegraphic Conference at Washington in 1927; member of the board of overseers of Bowdoin College. Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

WHITE, William John, a Representative from Ohio; born at Rice Lake, Ontario, Canada, October 7, 1850; moved to the United States with his parents, who settled in Cleveland, Ohio, in 1857; attended the district schools; entered business as a candy maker in 1869, and later began the manufacture of chewing gum; mayor of West Cleveland in 1889; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-third Congress (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1895); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1894; became first president of the American Chicle Co. and later of the W. J. White Chicle Co.; died in Cleveland, Ohio, on February 16, 1923; interment in Lake View Cemetery.

WHITEAKER, John, a Representative from Oregon; born in Dearborn County, near Fort Wayne, Ind., May 4, 1820; was self-educated, and early engaged in agricultural pursuits and stock raising; moved to the Pacific coast in 1849, and settled in Lane County, Oreg., in 1852; elected judge of probate for Lane County in 1855; member of the Territorial legislature in 1857; Governor of the State of Oregon 1858-1862; member of the State house of representatives in 1866 and 1868, and served as speaker; again elected to the State house of representatives in 1870; member of the State board of equalization in 1872, and served as chairman; member of the commission to examine, report upon, and receive the locks and canal at the falls of the Willamette River; member of the State senate 1876-1880, and served as president of the sessions of 1876 and 1878; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1881); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1880 to the Forty-seventh Congress; appointed internal-revenue collector for the district of Oregon (with residence in Portland), and served from June 20, 1885, to February 27, 1890; moved to Eugene, Lane County, Oreg., in 1889 and died there October 2, 1902; interment in the Masonic Cemetery.

WHITEHEAD, Joseph, a Representative from Virginia; born near Mount Airy, Pittsylvania County, Va., October 31, 1817; attended the public schools of his native city; was graduated from the academic department of Richmond College (now the University of Richmond), Richmond, Va., in 1839, and from the law department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1842; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced the practice of law in Chatham, Pittsylvania County, Va.; served in the State senate 1899-1904; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927). Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

WHITEHEAD, Thomas, a Representative from Virginia; born in Lovington, Nelson County, Va., December 27, 1825; received a limited schooling; engaged in mercantile pursuits; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1849, and commenced practice in Amherst, Va.; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army as captain of Company E, Second Virginia Cavalry, 1861-1865; elected to the State senate in 1865, but did not qualify; elected prosecuting attorney for Amherst County in 1866 and again in 1869, resigning in November, 1873, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Conservative to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; editor of the Lynchburg News 1876 and the Lynchburg Advance in 1880; resumed the practice of law; elected commissioner of agriculture for the State of Virginia in 1888 and served until his death; died near Lynchburg, Campbell County, Va., July 1, 1901; interment in Spring Hill Cemetery, Lynchburg, Va.

WHITEHILL, James (son of John Whitehill and nephew of Robert Whitehill), a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Strasburg, Lancaster County, Pa., on January 31, 1702; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Strasburg; associate judge of the Lancaster County court from January 3, 1811, to February 1, 1813, when he resigned, having been elected to Congress; served in the War of 1812 as major general of Pennsylvania Militia; elected to the Thirteenth Congress, and served from March 4, 1813, to September 1, 1814, when he resigned; engaged in mercantile pursuits in Strasburg; Burgess of Strasburg in 1816; again associate judge of the county court from October 17, 1820, until his death in Strasburg, Pa., February 28, 1822; interment in the Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Leacock, Lancaster County, Pa.

WHITEHILL, John (father of James Whitehill and brother of Robert Whitehill), a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Salisbury Township, Lancaster County, Pa., on December 11, 1729; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Lancaster County; was appointed justice of the peace and justice of the orphans' court of Lancaster County March 31, 1777; member of the State house of representatives 1780-1782 and 1793; member of the council of censors in 1783; was delegate to the supreme executive council in 1784; member of the State convention for the adoption of the Federal Constitution in 1787; associate judge of Lancaster County in 1791; elected to the Eighth and Ninth Congresses (March 4, 1803-March 3, 1807); died in Salisbury Township, Lancaster County, Pa., September 16, 1815; interment in Pequea Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

WHITEHILL, Robert (brother of John Whitehill and uncle of James Whitehill), a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Pequea, Lancaster County, Pa., July 21, 1738; attended the common schools; purchased a large tract of land in Cumberland County, settled upon it, and erected the first stone house in the county; member of the State constitutional convention in July, 1776, that approved the Declaration of Independence; member of the council of safety in 1777; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1790; member of the State house of representatives 1797-1800; served in the State senate 1801-1804, and was speaker of the senate in 1804 during the impeachment trials of the supreme court judges of Pennsylvania; elected to the Ninth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John A. Hanna; reelected to the Tenth and to the three succeeding Congresses, and served from November 7, 1805, until his death at Lanthier Manor, Cumberland County, Pa., April 8, 1813; interment in the Silver Spring Presbyterian Church Cemetery, Hampden Township, near Camp Hill, Pa.

WHITEHOUSE, John O., a Representative from New York; born in Rochester, Strafford County, N. H., July 19, 1817; received a common-school education; moved to Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1835 and became a merchant and manufacturer; moved to Poughkeepsie, Dutchess County, N. Y.; elected as a Liberal Democrat to the Forty-third and Forty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1877); was not a candidate for reelection in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; resumed business activities; died in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., August 24, 1881; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

WHITELAW, Robert Henry, a Representative from Missouri; born in Essex County, Va., January 30, 1854; moved with his father to Cape Girardeau County, Mo., in 1856; returned to Essex County, Va., in 1896; attended private schools in Tappahannock and Staunton, Va., and the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor; was admitted to the bar in 1873 and commenced practice in Cape Girardeau, Mo.; city attorney in 1873; prosecuting attorney of Cape Girardeau County 1874-1878; member of the State house of representatives in 1883 and 1887; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-first Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James Peter Walker, and served from December 1, 1890, to March 3, 1891; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Cape Girardeau, Mo.

WHITELEY, Richard Henry, a Representative from Georgia; born in County Kildare, Ireland, December 22, 1830; emigrated to the United States in 1836 with his parents, who settled in Georgia; received private instruction in elementary branches; engaged in manufacturing; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1860, and commenced practice in Bainbridge, Ga.; opposed secession, but after the adoption of the ordinance entered the Confederate Army and served throughout the Civil War, attaining the rank of major; member of the State constitutional convention in 1867; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1866 to the Fortieth Congress; presented credentials as a Senator elect to the United States Senate on July 15, 1870, to fill the vacancy in the term beginning March 4, 1865, but as the election took place prior to the readmission of Georgia into the Union was not admitted to a seat; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the House declaring Nelson Tift not entitled to the seat; reelected to the Forty-second and Forty-third Congresses, and served from December 22, 1870, to March 3, 1875; unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Forty-fourth Congress and for election to the Forty-fifth Congress; moved to Boulder, Colo., in 1877 and resumed the practice of his profession; died in Boulder, Colo., September 26, 1890; interment in the Masonic Cemetery.

WHITELEY, William Gustavus, a Representative from Delaware; born near Newark, Del., August 7, 1819; attended Bullock's School at Wilmington, Del., and was graduated from Princeton College in 1838; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1841, and began practice in Wilmington, Del.; prothonotary of New Castle County 1852-1856; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1861); was not a candidate for renomination in 1890; again prothonotary of New Castle County 1862-1867; mayor of Wilmington, Del., 1875-1878; member of commission to settle fishery disputes between New Jersey and Delaware in 1877; census enumerator for Delaware in 1880; associate judge of the Superior Court of Delaware from March 31, 1884, until his death in Wilmington, Del., April 23, 1888; interment in Bridgeton Cemetery, Bridgeton, N. J.

WHITESIDE, Jenkin, a Senator from Tennessee; born in Lancaster, Pa., in 1772; pursued preparatory studies; studied law and was admitted to the bar; moved to Tennessee and commenced practice in Knoxville; one of the commissioners of Knoxville in 1801 and 1802; elected to the United States Senate in 1806 to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Daniel Smith; reelected the same year, and served from April 11, 1806, to October 8, 1811, when he resigned; resumed the practice of law; died in Nashville, Tenn., September 25, 1822; interment was probably in the Old Cemetery west of the Nashville sulphur spring.

WHITESIDE, John, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Lancaster, Pa., in 1778; attended the common schools and Chestnut Level Academy; employed on his father's farm; later engaged in the hotel business and operated a distillery; justice of the peace; member of the State house of representatives in 1810 and 1811; elected as a Democrat to the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Congresses (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1819); resumed the hotel business in Lancaster, Pa.; register of wills; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1825; died in Lancaster, Pa., July 28, 1880; interment in Lancaster Cemetery.

WHITFIELD, John Wilkins, a Delegate from the Territory of Kansas; born in Tennessee; moved to Independence, Mo.; Indian agent to the Pottawatomies at Westport, Mo., in 1853 and to the Arkansas Indians in 1855 and 1856; upon the admission of the Territory of Kansas to representation was elected to the Thirty-third Congress, and served from December 20, 1854, to March 3, 1855; presented credentials as a Delegate elect to the Thirty-fourth Congress, and served from March 4, 1855, to August 1, 1856, when the seat was declared vacant; went to New Orleans, La., in 1856; again elected to the Thirty-fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the action of the House of Representatives in declaring the seat vacant, and served from December 9, 1856, to March 3, 1857; register of the land office at Doniphan, Kans., 1857-1861; began his military career as captain of the Twenty-seventh Texas Cavalry in 1861; promoted to the rank of major in 1862; engaged in the battles of Pea Ridge and Iuka in 1862; cited by General Price for "dashing boldness and steady courage"; promoted to the rank of colonel; engaged in the cavalry battle near Spring Hill in 1863; again cited for "skill and valor"; commissioned brigadier general May 9, 1863; at the close of the war in 1865 he went to Texas and settled in Lavaca County and engaged in agricultural pursuits; died near Hallettsville, Lavaca County, Tex., October 27, 1879; interment in Hallettsville Cemetery.

WHITING, Justin Rice, a Representative from Michigan; born in Bath, Steuben County, N. Y., February 18, 1847; moved to Michigan with his parents, who settled in St. Clair in 1849; attended the public schools and the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor 1863-1865; engaged as a merchant and manufacturer; mayor of St. Clair in 1879; member of the State senate in 1882; elected by the combined votes of Democrats and Greenbackers to the Fiftieth Congress and reelected to the Fifty-first, Fifty-second, and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1895); resumed his former business pursuits in St. Clair; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for governor in 1896 and also for election in 1900 to the Fifty-seventh Congress; chairman of the Democratic State central committee; died in St. Clair, St. Clair County, Mich., January 31, 1908; interment in Hillside Cemetery.

WHITING, Richard Henry (uncle of Ira Clifton Copley), a Representative from Illinois; born in West Hartford, Conn., January 17, 1828; attended the common schools; moved to Altona, Ill., in 1850, thence to Galesburg, Ill., in 1860, where he built a gas works; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as paymaster of Volunteers 1862-1866; appointed assessor of internal revenue for the fifth district of Illinois in February, 1870, and served until May 20, 1873, when the office was abolished; appointed on May 20, 1873, collector of internal revenue for the same district, with office at Peoria, Ill., and served until his resignation on March 4, 1875, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); was not a candidate for renomination in 1878; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1884 which nominated the presidential ticket of James G. Blaine and John A. Logan; died in New York City May 24, 1888; interment in Springdale Cemetery, Peoria, Ill.

WHITING, William, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Concord, Mass., March 3, 1813; attended Concord Academy, and was graduated from Harvard University in 1833; taught school in Plymouth and Concord, Mass.; was graduated from the law department of Harvard University in 1838; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice in Boston; Solicitor of the War Department 1862-1865; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Grant and Colfax in 1868; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress, and served from March 4, 1873, until his death in Boston, Mass., June 29, 1873; interment in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Concord, Mass.

WHITING, William, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Dudley, Worcester County, Mass., May 24, 1841; attended the public schools; was graduated from Amherst College, Amherst, Mass.; engaged in the manufacture of paper in Holyoke, Mass., in 1865; member of the State senate in 1873; city treasurer of Holyoke in 1876 and 1877; mayor of Holyoke in 1878 and 1879; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati in 1870 and at St. Louis in 1890; elected as a Republican to the Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1889); was not a candidate for renomination in 1888; commissioner to the World's Exposition in Paris, France, in 1890; resumed his former manufacturing pursuits; died in Holyoke, Hampden County, Mass., January 9, 1911; interment in Forestdale Cemetery.

WHITMAN, Ezekiel, a Representative from Massachusetts and Maine; born in East Bridgewater, Mass., March 9, 1776; was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1796; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in New Gloucester, Me. (until 1820 a district of Massachusetts), 1799-1807 and in Portland, Me., 1807-1852; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1808 to the Tenth Congress; elected as a Federalist from Massachusetts to the Eleventh Congress (March 4, 1809-March 3, 1811); member of the executive council in 1815 and 1816; elected to the Fifteenth and Sixteenth Congresses (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1821); delegate to the convention in 1819 that framed the first State constitution of Maine; elected to the Seventeenth Congress from Maine, and served from March 4, 1821, to June 1, 1822, when he resigned; judge of the Court of Common Pleas of Maine 1822-1841; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1838 to the Twenty-sixth Congress; chief justice of the State supreme court 1841-1848; retired to private life in 1852 and returned to East Bridgewater, Mass., where he died on August 1, 1868.

WHITMAN, Lemuel, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Farmington, Conn., June 8, 1790; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Yale College in 1800; taught in a seminary in Bermuda in 1801; studied law and was graduated from the Litchfield Law School; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice in Farmington; appointed judge of the superior court in 1818; associate judge of the Hartford County court 1819-1821, and chief judge 1821-1828; one of a committee of three to prepare a revision of the statutes of the State in 1821; member of the State senate in 1823; elected as a Democrat to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1825); resumed the practice of law; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1831 and 1832; died in Farmington, Conn., November 13, 1841.

WHITMORE, Elias, a Representative from New York; born in Pembroke, N. H., March 2, 1772; completed preparatory studies; moved to New York and settled in Windsor; engaged in mercantile pursuits; elected as a Democrat to the Nineteenth Congress (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1827); resumed his former business pursuits in Windsor, N. Y., until his death in that city on December 26, 1853; interment in the Village Cemetery.

WHITMORE, George W., a Representative from Texas; born in McMinn County, Tenn., August 26, 1824; attended the public schools; moved to Texas in 1848; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in Tyler, Smith County, Tex.; member of the State house of representatives in 1862, 1863, and 1868; district attorney for the ninth judicial district in 1866; appointed register in bankruptcy in 1867; upon the readmission of Texas to representation was elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress, and served from March 30, 1870, to March 3, 1871; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1870 to the Forty-second Congress; interment in Oakwood Cemetery, Tyler, Tex.

WHITNEY, Thomas Richard, a Representative from New York; born in New York City May 2, 1807; pursued classical studies and engaged in newspaper work; member of the State assembly in 1854 and 1855; elected as the candidate of the American Party to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); died in New York City April 12, 1868; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

WHITTEMORE, Benjamin Franklin, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Malden, Middlesex County, Mass., May 18, 1824; attended the public schools of Worcester and received an academic education in Amherst; engaged in mercantile pursuits until 1859; studied theology and became a minister in the Methodist Episcopal Church of the New England Conference in 1859; during the Civil War served as chaplain of the Fifty-third Regiment Massachusetts Volunteers, and later with the Thirtieth Regiment Veteran Volunteers; after the war settled in Darlington, S. C.; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1867; elected president of the Republican State executive board in 1867; founded the New Era in Darlington; member of the State senate in 1868; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1868; upon the readmission of South Carolina to representation was elected as a Republican to the Fortieth and Forty-first Congresses, and served from July 18, 1868, to February 24, 1870, when he resigned, pending the investigation of his conduct in connection with certain appointments to the United States Military and Naval Academies; presented credentials of a second election to the same Congress on June 18, 1870, but the House declined to allow him to take his seat; again a member of the State senate in 1877; resigned from the State senate and returned to Massachusetts, settling in Woburn; became a publisher; died in Montvale, a suburb of Woburn, Mass., January 25, 1894; interment in the Salem Street Cemetery, Woburn, Mass.

WHITTHORNE, Washington Curran, a Representative and a Senator from Tennessee; born near Farmington, Marshall County, Tenn., April 19, 1825; attended the common schools, an academy in Arrington, Williamson County, and Campbell Academy, Lebanon, Tenn.; was graduated from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville in 1843; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1845 at Columbia, Maury County, Tenn.; served as auditor's clerk and in other positions in the Government service until 1848, when he commenced the practice of law in Columbia, Tenn.; member of the State senate 1855-1868; member of the State house of representatives and speaker in 1859; presidential elector on the Breckinridge and Lane ticket in 1860; during the Civil War served as assistant adjutant general in the provisional army of Tennessee in 1861 and in the Confederate service as adjutant general of the State 1861-1865; his political disabilities were removed by act of Congress approved July 15, 1870; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-second and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1883); appointed and subsequently elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Howell E. Jackson, and served from April 16, 1886, to March 8, 1887; elected to the Fiftieth and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 8, 1891); died in Columbia, Maury County, Tenn., September 21, 1891; interment in Rose Hill Cemetery.

WHITTINGTON, William Madison, a Representative from Mississippi; born at Little Springs, Franklin County, Miss., May 4, 1878; attended the public schools of Franklin County; was graduated from Mississippi College at Clinton in 1898 and from the law department of the University of Mississippi at Oxford in 1899; was admitted to the bar in the latter year and commenced practice in Roxie, Franklin County, Miss., in 1900; moved to Greenwood, Miss., in January, 1904, where he resumed the practice of law and also engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the city council, Greenwood, Miss., from January 1, 1907, to January 1, 1911; chairman of the local board for selective service for Leflore County during the World War; member of the State senate from January 1, 1918, to January 1, 1920; reelected in 1923 for a four-year term, and served from January 1 until August 15, 1924, when he resigned to accept the Democratic nomination for Representative in Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927). Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

WHITTLESEY, Elisha (uncle of William Augustus Whittlesey and cousin of Frederick Whittlesey and Thomas Tucker Whittlesey), a Representative from Ohio; born in Washington, Conn., October 19, 1783; moved in early youth with his parents to Salisbury, Conn.; attended the common schools at Danbury; studied law in Danbury, was admitted to the bar of Fairfield County, and practiced in Danbury and Fairfield County; also practiced in New Milford, Conn., in 1805; moved to Canfield, Ohio, in 1806; practiced law and taught school; prosecuting attorney of Mahoning County; served as military and private secretary to Gen. William Henry Harrison and as brigade major in the Army of the Northwest in the War of 1812; member of the State house of representatives in 1820 and 1821; elected to the Eighteenth and to the seven succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1823, to July 9, 1838, when he resigned; Sixth Auditor of the Treasury from March 18, 1841, until December 18, 1848, when he resigned and resumed the practice of law in Canfield; was one of the founders of the Whig Party; appointed general agent of the Washington Monument Association in 1847; appointed by President Taylor First Comptroller of the Treasury, and served from May 31, 1849, to March 26, 1857, when he was removed by President Buchanan; was reappointed by President Lincoln April 10, 1861, and served until his death in Washington, D. C., January 7, 1863; interment in the Canfield Village Cemetery, Canfield, Mahoning County, Ohio.

WHITTLESEY, Frederick (cousin of Elisha Whittlesey and Thomas Tucker Whittlesey), a Representative from New York; born in New Preston, Conn., June 12, 1799; pursued academic studies; was graduated from Yale College in 1818; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Utica, N. Y., in 1821, and commenced practice in Cooperstown, N. Y., early in 1822; later in the year moved to Rochester, N. Y.; treasurer of Monroe County in 1829 and 1830; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Congresses (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1835); resumed the practice of law; city attorney of Rochester in 1838; vice chancellor of the eighth judicial district of New York 1839-1847; justice of the State supreme court in 1847 and 1848; professor of law at Genesee College in 1850 and 1851; died in Rochester, N. Y., September 19, 1851; interment in Mount Hope Cemetery.

WHITTLESEY, Thomas Tucker (cousin of Elisha Whittlesey and Frederick Whittlesey), a Representative from Connecticut; born in Danbury, Conn., December 8, 1796; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Yale College in 1817; attended Litchfield Law School; was admitted to the bar in 1818 and commenced practice in Danbury, Conn.; served as probate judge; elected as a Van Buren Democrat to the Twenty-fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Zalmon Wildman; reelected to the Twenty-fifth Congress, and served from April 29, 1836, to March 3, 1839; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1838 to the Twenty-sixth Congress; moved to Pheasant Branch, near Madison, Wis., in 1846; resumed the practice of law and also engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State senate in 1853 and 1854; died at Pheasant Branch, Dane County, Wis., August 20, 1868; interment in Forest Hill Cemetery, Madison, Wis.

WHITTLESEY, William Augustus (nephew of Elisha Whittlesey), a Representative from Ohio; born in Danbury, Conn., July 14, 1796; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Yale College in 1816; taught school; moved to Canfield, Ohio, in 1818; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1821, and commenced practice in Canfield; moved to Marietta, Ohio, in 1821; auditor of Washington County 1825-1837; member of the State house of representatives in 1839 and 1840; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-first Congress (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1851); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1850 and resumed the practice of law; mayor of Marietta in 1856, 1860, and 1862; died in Brooklyn, N. Y., where he had gone for medical treatment, on November 6, 1866; interment in Mound Cemetery, Marietta, Ohio.

WHYTE, William Pinkney, a Senator from Maryland; born in Baltimore, Md., August 9, 1824; was instructed by a private teacher and attended Baltimore College; engaged in banking in Baltimore 1842-1844; studied law in Baltimore, and attended the law school of Harvard University in 1844 and 1845; was admitted to the bar in 1846 and practiced in Baltimore; served in the State house of delegates in 1847 and 1848; judge advocate of a court-martial at the Naval Academy in 1848; comptroller of the treasury of Maryland 1853-1855; declined a reelection; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York in 1868; appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Reverdy Johnson, and served from July 13, 1868, to March 3, 1869; was not a candidate for renomination in 1868; elected Governor of Maryland in 1871, and served from January 10, 1872, to March 4, 1874, when he resigned in order that the legislature might elect his successor, he having been elected Senator; counsel for Maryland before the arbitration board in the boundary dispute between Virginia and Maryland in 1874; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1875, to March 3, 1881; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1880; mayor of Baltimore in 1881 and 1882; attorney general of Maryland 1887-1891; declined appointment as a delegate to the Congress of South American Republics; chairman of a commission to frame a new charter for the city of Baltimore in 1897 and 1898; city solicitor 1900-1908; appointed and subsequently elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Arthur Pue Gorman, and served from June 8, 1906, until his death in Baltimore, Md., March 17, 1908; interment in Greenmount Cemetery.

WICK, William Watson, a Representative from Indiana; born in Canonsburg, Washington County, Pa., February 28, 1798; moved with his parents to Western Reserve in 1800; completed preparatory studies; moved to Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1816; taught school; studied medicine until 1818 and then law; was admitted to the bar in Franklin, Johnson County, Ind., in 1819, and commenced practice in Connorsville, Fayette County, Ind., in 1820; clerk of the State house of representatives 1820; assistant clerk of the State senate 1821; president judge of the fifth judicial State circuit 1822-1825; secretary of state 1825-1829; prosecuting attorney of the fifth judicial circuit 1829-1831; again president judge 1834-1837; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1841); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1840 to the Twenty-seventh Congress; resumed the practice of law in Indianapolis; elected to the Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth Congresses (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1849); was not a candidate for renomination; president judge for a third time, serving from 1850 to 1853; postmaster of Indianapolis, Ind., from April 9, 1853, to April 6, 1857; adjutant general in the State militia; moved to Franklin, Ind., in 1857, where he continued the practice of law, and died there May 10, 1868; interment in Greenlawn Cemetery.

WICKERSHAM, James, a Delegate from the Territory of Alaska; born in Patoka, Marion County, Ill., August 24, 1857; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1880, and commenced practice in Springfield, Sangamon County, Ill.; served in the governor's guards, Springfield Militia; moved to Washington Territory in 1883; probate judge of Pierce County, Wash., 1884-1888; city attorney of Tacoma in 1894; member of the State house of representatives in 1898; appointed United States district judge for the Territory of Alaska in 1900, and served until January, 1908, when he resigned to run for Congress; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-first, Sixty-second, Sixty-third, and Sixty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1909-March 3, 1917); successfully contested the election of Charles A. Sulzer to the Sixty-fifth Congress, and served from January 7 to March 3, 1919; successfully contested the election of Charles A. Sulzer to the Sixty-sixth Congress, and served from March 1 to March 3, 1921, succeeding George B. Grigsby, who had qualified on credentials of a special election called to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Sulzer, which occurred while the contest was pending; was not a candidate for renomination in 1920; resumed the practice of law; writer on ethnological and historical subjects; editor of Alaska Territory Law Reports, and is a resident of Juneau, Alaska.

WICKES, Eliphalet, a Representative from New York; born in Huntington, Long Island, N. Y., April 1, 1789; during the Revolution was employed as an express rider, and at the storming of Stony Point, July 15, 1779, when only ten years of age, bore the news to General Gates at Providence, R. I.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Jamaica, Long Island, N. Y.; elected to the Ninth Congress (March 4, 1805-March 3, 1807); appointed July 1, 1797, the first postmaster of Jamaica, Long Island, N. Y., and served until April 1, 1808; reappointed January 1, 1807, and served until April 27, 1835; district attorney of Queens County 1818-1821; master in chancery; died in Troy, N. Y., June 7, 1850; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

WICKHAM, Charles Preston, a Representative from Ohio; born in Norwalk, Huron County, Ohio, September 15, 1836; attended the public schools and the Norwalk Academy; learned the printer's trade; was graduated from the Cincinnati Law School, was admitted to the bar in 1858, and practiced in Norwalk, Ohio; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in Company D, Fifty-first Regiment Ohio Volunteers, in September, 1861, and was mustered out of the service July 11, 1865; attained the ranks of first lieutenant, captain, major, and lieutenant colonel; was commissioned lieutenant colonel by brevet "for gallant and meritorious services in the Carolinas"; resumed the practice of law in Norwalk in 1866; prosecuting attorney 1866-1870; elected judge of the court of common pleas of the fourth judicial district in 1880 and 1885; resigned in 1886; elected as a Republican to the Fiftieth and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1891); unsuccessful candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law; died in Norwalk, Ohio, March 18, 1925; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

WICKLIFFE, Charles Anderson (grandfather of Robert Charles Wickliffe), a Representative from Kentucky; born near Springfield, Washington County, Ky., June 8, 1788; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1809, and commenced practice in Bardstown; served in the War of 1812; was aide to General Winlock; member of the State house of representatives in 1812 and 1813; again entered the Army as aide to General Caldwell; again a member of the State house of representatives 1822, 1823, and 1833-1835, and served as speaker in 1834; elected as a Democrat to the Eighteenth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1833); was not a candidate for renomination; one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1830 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against James H. Peck, United States judge for the district of Missouri; lieutenant governor in 1836; became governor upon the death of Governor Clark, and served from October 5, 1839, to September, 1840; Postmaster General from October 13, 1841, to March 6, 1845; sent on a secret mission by President Polk to the Republic of Texas in 1845; member of the State constitutional convention in 1849; member of the peace conference held at Washington, D. C., in 1861 in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; elected as a Union Whig to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1863); was not a candidate for renomination; unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1863; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1864; died near Ilchester, Md., October 31, 1869; interment in Bardstown Cemetery, Bardstown, Ky.

WICKLIFFE, Robert Charles (grandson of Charles Anderson Wickliffe), a Representative from Louisiana; born in Bardstown, Ky., May 1, 1874, while his parents were on a visit to relatives in that State; attended the public schools of St. Francisville, La.; was graduated from Centre College, Danville, Ky., in 1895 and from the law department of Tulane University, New Orleans, La., in 1897; was admitted to the bar in 1898 and commenced practice in St. Francisville, La.; member of the State constitutional convention in 1898; enlisted as a private in Company B, First Regiment Louisiana Volunteer Infantry, during the Spanish-American War; was mustered out of the service in October, 1898; returned to West Feliciana Parish and resumed the practice of law; district attorney of the twenty-fourth judicial district of Louisiana 1902-1906; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-first and Sixty-second Congresses, and served from March 4, 1909, until his death; chosen as a delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1912, but was killed, a short time before the convention met, while crossing a railroad bridge in Washington, D. C., June 11, 1912; interment in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville, Ky.

WIDGERY, William, a Representative from Massachusetts; probably born in Devonshire, England, about 1758; emigrated to America with his parents, who settled in Philadelphia; attended the common schools; engaged in shipbuilding; served in the Revolutionary War as a lieutenant on a privateer; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Portland, Me. (until 1820 a district of Massachusetts), about 1790; member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives 1787-1798 and 1795-1797; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1788; served in the State senate in 1794; member of the executive council in 1806 and 1807; elected as a Democrat to the Twelfth Congress (March 4, 1811-March 3, 1813); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1812 to the Thirteenth Congress; judge of the court of common pleas 1813-1821; died in Portland, Me., July 31, 1822; interment in the Eastern Cemetery.

WIGFALL, Louis Tresvant, a Senator from Texas; born near Edgefield, Edgefield District, S. C., April 21, 1816; pursued classical studies; attended South Carolina College (now University of South Carolina) at Columbia; served as a lieutenant of Volunteers in the Seminole War in Florida in 1835; attended the law department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, was admitted to the bar in 1839, and commenced practice in Edgefield, Edgefield County, S. C.; moved to Marshall, Tex., in 1848; member of the State house of representatives in 1849 and 1850; delegate to the State convention in 1857; served in the State senate 1857-1860; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. Pinckney Henderson, and served from December 5, 1859, until March 28, 1861, when he withdrew; served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War; represented the State of Texas in the Confederate Congress; after the war moved to London, England; returned to the United States in 1873 and settled in Baltimore, Md.; died in Galveston, Tex., while on a lecture tour, February 18, 1874; interment in the Episcopal Cemetery.

WIGGINTON, Peter Dinwiddie, a Representative from California; born in Springfield, Sangamon County, Ill., September 6, 1839; moved to Wisconsin with his parents in 1843; completed preparatory studies, and attended the University of Wisconsin at Madison; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1859, and practiced; editor of the Dodgeville (Wis.) Advocate; moved to Snelling, Merced County, Calif., in 1862, and continued the practice of law; district attorney of Merced County 1864-1868; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); successfully contested the election of Romualdo Pocheo to the Forty-ninth Congress, and served from February 7, 1878, to March 3, 1879; settled in San Francisco in 1880 and resumed the practice of law; nominated by the American Party as candidate for Vice President in 1888 in place of James R. Geer; died in Oakland, Calif., July 7, 1890; interment in Mountain View Cemetery.

WIKE, Scott, a Representative from Illinois; born in Meadville, Pa., April 6, 1834; moved with his parents to Quincy, Ill., in 1838 and to Pike County in 1844; was graduated from Lombard University, in Galesburg, in 1857; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1858; was graduated from Harvard Law School, Cambridge, Mass., in 1859, and commenced practice the same year in Pittsfield, Pike County, Ill.; member of the State house of representatives 1863-1867; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1876 to the Forty-fifth Congress; elected to the Fifty-first and Fifty-second Congresses (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1893); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1892; appointed an Assistant Secretary of the Treasury during the second administration of President Cleveland, and served from July 1, 1893, to May 4, 1897; resumed the practice of law in Pittsfield, Ill.; died near Barry, Pike County, Ill., January 15, 1901.

WILBER, David (father of David Forrest Wilber), a Representative from New York; born near Quaker Street, Schenectady County, N. Y., October 5, 1820; moved with his parents to Milford, Otsego County, N. Y.; attended the common schools; engaged in the lumbering trade, hop business, and agricultural pursuits; member of the board of supervisors of Otsego County in 1858, 1859, 1862, 1865, and 1866; director of the Albany & Susquehanna Railroad; was one of the directors of the Second National Bank of Cooperstown, N. Y.; president of the Wilber National Bank of Oneonta 1874-1890; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; elected to the Forty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1881); was not a candidate for renomination in 1880; was delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1880 and 1888; moved to Oneonta, N. Y., in 1886; again elected as a Republican to the Fifteenth Congress; reelected to the Fifty-first Congress, but owing to ill health took the oath of office at his home and never attended a session; served from March 4, 1867, until his death in Oneonta, Otsego County, N. Y., April 1, 1890; interment in Glenwood Cemetery.

WILBER, David Forrest (son of David Wilber), a Representative from New York; born in Milford, Otsego County, N. Y., on December 7, 1859; attended the public schools; was graduated from Cazenovia (N. Y.) Seminary in 1879; engaged in the hop business at Oneonta, N. Y., in 1880; also interested in agricultural pursuits and stock breeding; twice represented Oneonta on the board of supervisors; member of the State tuberculosis commission in 1894; vice president and director of the Wilber National Bank of Oneonta 1883-1896; president of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America and of the American Cheviot Sheep Association of the United States and Canada; was trustee of the Cazenovia Seminary; was elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1899); was not a candidate for renomination in 1898; appointed United States consul to Barbados in 1903; consul general to Singapore, Kobe, Halifax, and then to Vancouver, Zurich, Genoa, and Wellington, New Zealand; retired in June, 1923, and moved to Oneonta, N. Y.; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Coolidge and Dawes in 1924; member of the Republican State committee in 1924-1927; is a resident of Oneonta, Otsego County, N. Y.

WILBOUR, Isaac, a Representative from Rhode Island; born in Little Compton, R. I., April 25, 1793; completed preparatory studies; studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1798, and practiced; was also engaged in agricultural pursuits; held various local offices from 1793 to 1800; member of the State house of representatives in 1805 and 1806, and served as speaker the last year; lieutenant governor in 1806 and 1807 and acting governor in 1806; elected as a Federalist to the Tenth Congress (March 4, 1807-March 3, 1809); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1808 to the Eleventh Congress and for election in 1812 to the Thirteenth Congress; received in 1807 a commission from Governor Fenner, appointing him as his successor to the United States Senate for the remainder of the term ending March 3, 1811, which he declined; again lieutenant governor in 1810 and 1811; associate justice of the Supreme Court of Rhode Island in 1818 and chief justice from 1819 to 1827, when he resigned; died in Little Compton, R. I., October 4, 1837; interment in the Seaconnet Cemetery.

WILCOX, Jeduthan (father of Leonard Wilcox), a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Middletown, Conn., November 18, 1788; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1802, and commenced practice in Orford, N. H.; member of the State house of representatives 1809-1811; elected as a Federalist to the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Congresses (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1817); died in Orford, Grafton County, N. H., July 18, 1838; interment in Orford Cemetery.

WILCOX, John A., a Representative from Mississippi; born in Greene County, N. C., April 18, 1819; moved to Tennessee; attended the common schools; moved to Mississippi and settled in Aberdeen; secretary of the State senate; served in the Mexican War as lieutenant, adjutant, and lieutenant colonel; elected as a Union Whig to the Thirty-second Congress (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1853); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1852 to the Thirty-third Congress; moved to Texas in 1853; member of the Confederate Congress; died in Richmond, Va., February 7, 1864; interment in Hollywood Cemetery.

WILCOX, Leonard (son of Jeduthan Wilcox), a Senator from New Hampshire; born in Hanover, N. H., January 29, 1799; was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1817; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1820, and commenced practice in Orford, Grafton County, N. H.; member of the State house of representatives 1828-1834; judge of the superior court 1838-1840; bank commissioner 1838-1842; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Franklin Pierce; subsequently elected, and served from March 1, 1842, to March 3, 1843; resumed the practice of law; judge of the Court of Common Pleas of New Hampshire in 1847 and 1848; again appointed judge of the superior court June 26, 1848, and served until his death in Orford, N. H., June 18, 1850; interment in the West Congregational Churchyard.

WILCOX, Robert William, a Delegate from the Territory of Hawaii; born in Kahalu, Honuaula, island of Maui, Hawaiian Islands, February 15, 1855; attended the Haleakala Boarding School, Makawao, island of Maui; taught school at Honuaula for several years; elected to the legislature as a representative from Wallukua, island of Maui, in 1880; later pursued an academic course in the Royal Military Academy, Turin, Italy, 1881-1885, and became a sublieutenant of artillery; entered the Royal Application School for Engineer and Artillery Officers in Turin in 1885; recalled by the Hawaiian government in 1887; moved to San Francisco, Calif., in 1887 and engaged in the surveying business; returned to Hawaii in 1889 and became leader of the revolution of 1889; tried for treason but acquitted by a Hawaiian jury; elected to the legislature as a representative from Honolulu in 1890, and from Koolauloa, island of Oahu, in 1892; again a revolutionary leader in 1895 in an effort to restore Liliuokalani to the throne; was court-martialed and sentenced to death, but the sentence was commuted to thirty-five years; pardoned by President Dole in 1896; elected the first Delegate from Hawaii to the Fifty-sixth Congress; reelected to the Fifty-seventh Congress, and served from November 6, 1900, to March 3, 1903; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1902 to the Fifty-eighth Congress; died in Honolulu, Hawaii, October 23, 1903; interment in the Catholic Cemetery.

WILDE, Richard Henry, a Representative from Georgia; born in Dublin, Ireland, September 24, 1789; emigrated to the United States in 1797 with his parents, who settled in Baltimore, Md.; received a limited schooling; moved to Augusta, Ga., in 1802; engaged in mercantile pursuits; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1809, and commenced practice in Augusta; solicitor general of the superior court of Richmond County and by virtue of this office attorney general of Georgia 1811-1813; elected as a Democrat to the Fourteenth Congress (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1817); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1816 to the Fifteenth Congress; elected to the Eighteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas W. Cobb, and served from February 7 to March 8, 1825; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1824 to the Nineteenth Congress and for election in 1826 to the Twentieth Congress; subsequently elected to the Twentieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Forsyth; reelected to the Twenty-first, Twenty-second, and Twenty-third Congresses, and served from November 17, 1827, to March 3, 1835; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1834 to the Twenty-fourth Congress; engaged in literary pursuits while traveling in Europe 1835-1840; moved to New Orleans in 1843; professor of law in the University of Louisiana at Alexandria; died in New Orleans, La., September 10, 1847; interment in a vault at the cemetery in New Orleans; reinterred at Sand Hill family burying ground near Augusta, Ga., in 1854; moved again in 1886 to the City Cemetery, Augusta, Ga.

WILDER, Abel Carter, a Representative from Kansas; born in Mendon, Worcester County, Mass., on March 18, 1828; completed preparatory studies; engaged in mercantile pursuits; moved to Rochester, N. Y., and continued mercantile pursuits; moved to Leavenworth, Kans., in 1857 and again engaged in mercantile pursuits; delegate to the Osawatimie convention in 1859; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1860 and elected its chairman; served as a captain in the Kansas brigade for one year in the Civil War; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1865); delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864, at Chicago in 1868, and at Philadelphia in 1872; returned to Rochester, N. Y., in 1865 and published the Morning and Evening Express until 1868, when he retired from active business pursuits; elected mayor of Rochester in 1872, but resigned in 1873; died in San Francisco, Calif., while on a visit for his health, December 22, 1875; interment in Mount Hope Cemetery, Rochester, N. Y.

WILDER, William Henry, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Belfast, Waldo County, Me., May 14, 1855; moved with his parents to Massachusetts in 1866; attended the common schools; engaged in the mercantile and manufacturing business at Gardner, Mass.; president of the Wilder Industries (Inc.); studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1900; was admitted to practice before the United States Supreme Court in 1909; studied the monetary systems in Europe in 1909, and has written articles and pamphlets on monetary questions; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second and Sixty-third Congresses, and served from March 4, 1911, until his death in Washington, D. C., September 11, 1913; interment in Crystal Lake Cemetery, Gardner, Worcester County, Mass.

WILDMAN, Zalmon, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Danbury, Fairfield County, Conn., February 16, 1775; completed preparatory studies; manufacturer of hats, and established the first hat stores in Charleston, S. C., and Savannah, Ga., in 1802; first president of Danbury National Bank 1824-1826; member of the State house of representatives in 1818 and 1819; appointed postmaster of Danbury, Conn., and served from April 9, 1805, to May 26, 1835; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fourth Congress, and served from March 4, 1835, until his death in Washington, D. C., December 10, 1835; interment in Wooster Cemetery, Danbury, Conn.

WILDRICK, Isaac, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Marksboro, Warren County, N. J., March 3, 1803; attended the common schools; engaged in agricultural pursuits near Blairstown, Warren County, N. J.; constable from 1827 to 1832; coroner 1829-1831; justice of the peace 1834-1839; judge in 1839; sheriff 1839-1841; director of the county poorhouse 1842-1848; member freeholder 1845-1848; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-first and Thirty-second Congresses (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1853); was not a candidate for renomination in 1852; resumed agricultural pursuits; again a freeholder 1856-1859; member of State assembly 1882-1885; died in Blairstown, Warren County, N. J., March 22, 1892; interment in the Presbyterian Cemetery, Marksboro, N. J.

WILEY, Ariosto Appling (brother of Oliver Cicero Wiley), a Representative from Alabama; born in Clayton, Barbour County, Ala., November 6, 1848; moved with his parents to Troy, Pike County, Ala.; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Emory and Henry College, Emory, Va., in 1870; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1871, and commenced practice in Clayton, Ala.; moved to Montgomery, Ala., the same year and continued the practice of law; was captain of a Cavalry troop of the Alabama National Guard, and later a lieutenant colonel commanding the Second Regiment of Infantry of the Alabama National Guard; member of the State house of representatives in 1884, 1885, 1888, 1889, 1896, and 1897; served in the State senate 1890-1893, 1898, and 1899; appointed by President McKinley on June 9, 1898, lieutenant colonel of the Fifth Regiment United States Volunteer Infantry and served during the Spanish-American War; legal adviser and chief of staff of Gen. Henry W. Lawton in Santiago, Cuba, and assisted Gen. Leonard Wood in the establishment of civil government in the eastern Province; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1888; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Thurman in 1888; was elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-seventh, Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, and Sixtieth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1901, until his death at Hot Springs, Bath County, Va., June 17, 1908; interment in Oakwood Cemetery, Montgomery, Montgomery County, Ala.

WILEY, James Sullivan, a Representative from Maine; born in Mercer, Somerset County, Me., on January 22, 1808; moved to Bethel, Oxford County, Me., in 1828; attended Gould's Academy, and was graduated from Colby College, Waterville, Me., in 1836; moved to Dover, Me., and was an instructor in Foxcroft Academy; studied law, was admitted to the Piscataquis County bar in 1839, and commenced practice in Dover; elected as a Democrat to the Thirtieth Congress (March 4, 1847-March 3, 1849); resumed the practice of law in Dover; moved to Fryeburg, Me., in 1849 and continued the practice of law until his death in that city on December 21, 1891; interment in Smart Hill Cemetery.

WILEY, John McClure, a Representative from New York; born in Londonderry, Ireland, August 11, 1846; emigrated to the United States in 1850 with his parents, who settled in Erie County, N. Y.; attended the common schools; engaged in mercantile pursuits and the real-estate business in Colden, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1871 and 1872; delegate to the Democratic National Conventions in 1884, 1888, and 1892; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-first Congress (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1891); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1890; appointed on April 24, 1893, by President Cleveland consul at Bordeaux, France, and served until July 31, 1897; at the close of his term retired from public life, with residence in Jacksonville, Fla., during the winter and Colden, N. Y., during the summer months; died in St. Catharines, Ontario, Canada, August 18, 1912; interment in Crown Hill Cemetery, Indianapolis, Ind.

WILEY, Oliver Cicero (brother of Ariosto Appling Wiley), a Representative from Alabama; born in Troy, Pike County, Ala., January 30, 1851; attended the common schools; member of the town council for five years; chairman of the Democratic executive committee of Pike County 1884-1886; member of the Democratic State executive committee in 1888; alternate delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1888 and at Chicago in 1892; was president of the Alabama Midland Railway during its construction from 1887 to 1892; president of the board of directors of the State normal college at Troy, Ala.; director of the Farmers & Merchants' National Bank at Troy; vice president and general manager of the Standard Chemical & Oil Co. at Troy; elected as a Democrat to the Sixtieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of his brother, Ariosto Appling Wiley, and served from November 3, 1908, to March 3, 1909; died in Troy, Ala., October 18, 1917; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

WILEY, William Halsted, a Representative from New Jersey; born in New York City July 10, 1842; attended private schools; was graduated from the College of the City of New York in 1861; during the Civil War entered the Union Army in 1860 as a member of the Seventh New York Volunteers; was promoted to first lieutenant of Volunteers in 1862; was mustered out with the rank of brevet major in 1864 by the consolidation of his regiment; was graduated from the Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y., in 1866; attended the Columbia College School of Mines in 1868; engaged in civil engineering and also superintendent of a mine for several years; member of the township committee of East Orange, N. J., 1886-1888, and president one year; in 1897 was president of one of the juries at the International Exposition in Brussels and a member of the superior jury; received the decoration of the Order of Leopold from the King of Belgium in 1897; appointed by the Governor of New Jersey a member of the commission for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis, Mo., in 1904; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1907); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1906; again elected to the Sixty-first Congress (March 4, 1909-March 3, 1911); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1910 to the Sixty-second Congress; a publisher in New York City, with residence in East Orange, N. J.; during the World War served as the representative of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers on the National Preparedness Committee and became its chairman; died in East Orange, Essex County, N. J., May 2, 1925; interment in Rosedale Cemetery.

WILFLEY, Xenophon Pierce, a Senator from Missouri; born near Mexico, Audrain County, Mo., on March 18, 1871; attended the country schools; was graduated from Clarksburg College in 1891 and from Central College, Fayette, Mo., in 1894; taught in Central College one year and in Sedalia High School for three years; was graduated from the Washington University Law School at St. Louis, Mo., in 1899, and commenced practice in that city; chairman of the board of election commissioners of St. Louis in 1917 and 1918; appointed as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William J. Stone, and served from April 30 to November 5, 1918, when a successor was elected; unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the United States Senate in 1918; resumed the practice of his profession; president of the Missouri Bar Association in 1925; is a resident of St. Louis, Mo.

WILKIN, James Whitney (father of Samuel Jones Wilkin), a Representative from New York; born in Walldill, Orange (now Ulster) County, N. Y., in 1762; served in the Revolutionary War; was graduated from Princeton College in 1785; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1788, and began practice in Goshen, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1800; entered the State militia and rose through successive grades to the rank of major general; served in the State senate 1801-1804 and 1811-1814; member of the State assembly in 1808 and 1809, and served as speaker in the latter year; member of the council of appointment in 1802, 1811, and 1813; elected as a Democrat to the Fourteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Jonathan Fluk; reelected to the Fifteenth Congress, and served from June 7, 1815, to March 3, 1819; unsuccessful candidate for United States Senator in 1815; county clerk of Orange County 1819-1821; county treasurer for several years; died in Goshen, Orange County, N. Y., February 23, 1845; interment in the Slate Hill Cemetery.

WILKIN, Samuel Jones (son of James Whitney Wilkin), a Representative from New York; born in Goshen, Orange County, N. Y., December 17, 1798; was graduated from Princeton College in 1812; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1815, and began practice in Goshen; member of the State assembly in 1824 and 1825; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-second Congress (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1833); unsuccessful Whig candidate for election in 1844 as Lieutenant Governor of New York; member of the State senate in 1848 and 1849; canal appraiser in 1850; died in Goshen, N. Y., March 11, 1866; interment in Slate Hill Cemetery.

WILKINS, Beriah, a Representative from Ohio; born near Richwood, Union County, Ohio, July 10, 1846; attended the common schools of Marysville, Ohio; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in Company H, One hundred and thirty-sixth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry, May 2, 1864, and served until honorably discharged August 31, 1864; engaged in banking in Uhrichsville, Tuscarawas County, Ohio; member of the State senate 1880 and 1881; member of the Democratic State central committee in 1882; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1889); settled in Washington, D. C.; became majority owner and publisher of the Washington Post in 1889, and later, in 1894, acquired the entire stock ownership of the paper, serving as editor until his death; died in Washington, D. C., June 7, 1905; interment in Rock Creek Cemetery.

WILKINS, William, a Senator and a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Carlisle, Pa., December 20, 1779; attended Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.; studied law, was admitted to the bar December 23, 1801, and commenced practice in Pittsburgh, Pa.; assisted in organizing the Pittsburgh Manufacturing Co. in 1810, and was the first president of the Bank of Pittsburgh; president of the common council 1816-1819; member of the State house of representatives in 1820; resigned December 18, 1820; president judge of the fifth judicial district of Pennsylvania 1821-1824; judge of the United States District Court for Western Pennsylvania 1824-1831; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1828 to the Twentieth Congress; elected to the Twenty-first Congress, but resigned before qualifying; elected as a Democrat and Anti-Mason to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1831, to June 30, 1834, when he resigned; appointed United States minister to Russia, and served from June, 1834, to December, 1835; received the electoral vote of Pennsylvania for Vice President in 1838; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress, and served from March 4, 1848, to February 14, 1844, when he resigned; appointed Secretary of War by President Tyler February 15, 1844; entered upon his duties February 20, 1844, and served until March 6, 1845; member of the State senate 1855-1857; major general of the Pennsylvania Home Guard in 1862; died in "Homewood," near Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, Pa., June 23, 1865; interment in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh, Pa.; reinterment in Homewood Cemetery, Wilkinsburg, Pa.

WILKINSON, Morton Smith, a Representative and a Senator from Minnesota; born in Skaneateles, Onondaga County, N. Y., January 22, 1819; attended the common schools; moved to Illinois in 1837, and was employed in railroad work two years; returned to Skaneateles in 1840; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1842, and commenced practice in Eaton Rapids, Eaton County, Mich., in 1843; moved to Stillwater, Washington County, Minn., in 1847; elected to the first Legislature of Minnesota Territory in 1849; register of deeds of Ramsey County 1851-1853; moved to Mankato in 1858; member of the board of commissioners to prepare a code of laws for the Territory of Minnesota in 1858; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1860, to March 3, 1865; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1870; moved to Wells, Faribault County; member of the State senate 1874-1877; prosecuting attorney of Faribault County 1880-1884; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Wells, Faribault County, Minn., February 4, 1894; interment in Glenwood Cemetery, Mankato, Blue Earth County, Minn.

WILKINSON, Theodore Stark, a Representative from Louisiana; born on Point Celeste plantation in Plaquemines Parish, near New Orleans, La., December 18, 1847; educated by private tutors and attended the common schools; was graduated from Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., in 1870; engaged in sugar planting in 1870; member of the school board of Plaquemines Parish; member and president of the board of levee commissioners for the third levee district; elected as a Democrat to the Fiftieth and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1891); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1890; chairman of the Louisiana antislavery convention in 1892; collector of the port of New Orleans 1893-1898; unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1898; again engaged in sugar planting; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1912; died in New Orleans, La., February 1, 1921; interment in Metairie Cemetery.

WILLARD, Charles Wesley, a Representative from Vermont; born in Lyndon, Caledonia County, Vt., June 18, 1827; was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1851; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Montpelier in 1853; secretary of state of Vermont 1855 and 1858; declined a reelection; member of the State senate 1860 and 1861; became editor and publisher of the Montpelier Freeman in 1861; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first, Forty-second, and Forty-third Congresses (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1874 to the Forty-third Congress; resumed the practice of law in Montpelier; member of the commission to revise the laws of Vermont 1879 and 1880; died in Montpelier, Vt., June 8, 1880; interment in Green Mount Cemetery.

WILLARD, George, a Representative from Michigan; born in Bolton, Vt., March 20, 1824; attended school and received instruction from his father; moved with his parents to Battle Creek, Mich., in 1886; was graduated from Kalamazoo (Mich.) College in 1844; taught school and also studied theology, and was ordained a minister of the Episcopal Church in 1848; rector of churches in Coldwater, Battle Creek, and Kalamazoo, Mich., until 1863; professor of Latin in Kalamazoo (Mich.) College in 1863 and 1864; engaged in newspaper work in Battle Creek, Calhoun County, Mich.; member of the Michigan State Board of Education 1857-1863; regent of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor 1863-1872; member of the State house of representatives in 1866 and 1867; member of the State constitutional convention in 1867; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1872; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third and Forty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1877); was not a candidate for renomination in 1876; resumed newspaper work in Battle Creek, Mich.; editor and owner of the Battle Creek Journal until his death in Battle Creek, Mich., March 26, 1901; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

WILCOX, Washington Frederick, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Killingworth, Middlesex County, Conn., August 22, 1834; prepared for college at a private school, Madison Academy, and Hopkins Grammar School, New Haven, and was graduated from the Yale Law School in 1862; was admitted to the bar in Middlesex County the same year and commenced practice in Deep River, Middlesex County, Conn.; member of the State house of representatives in 1862 and 1863; served in the State senate in 1875 and 1876; State's attorney 1875-1883; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-first and Fifty-second Congresses (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1896); was not a candidate for renomination in 1892; resumed the practice of law in Deep River, Conn., and also engaged in banking; State railroad commissioner 1897-1906; died at his home in Chester, Conn., March 8, 1909; interment in Fountain Hill Cemetery, Deep River, Conn.

WILLETT, William, jr., a Representative from New York; born in Brooklyn, N. Y., November 27, 1869; attended the public schools of his native city, and was graduated from the law department of New York University, New York City, in 1895; was admitted to the bar the following year and commenced the practice of his profession in New York City; elected as a Democrat to the Sixtieth and Sixty-first Congresses (March 4, 1907-March 3, 1911); was not a candidate for renomination in 1910; engaged in the real-estate business in New York City and resides there.

WILLEY, Calvin, a Senator from Connecticut; born in East Haddam, Conn., September 15, 1776; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1798, and commenced practice in Chatham, Conn.; moved to Stafford, Conn., in 1800; member of the State house of representatives in 1805 and 1806; postmaster of Stafford Springs, Conn., 1806-1808; moved to Tolland, Tolland County, Conn., in 1808; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1810, 1812, 1820, and 1821; postmaster of Tolland 1812-1816; probate judge of Stafford district 1818-1825; served in the State senate in 1823 and 1824; presidential elector in 1824 and voted for John Quincy Adams; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate for the term commencing March 4, 1825, and served from May 4, 1825, to March 3, 1831; resumed the practice of law in Tolland, Conn.; died in Stafford, Conn., August 23, 1858; interment in Skungamaug Cemetery, Tolland, Conn.

WILLEY, Waitman Thomas, a Senator from Virginia and from West Virginia; born in Monongalia County, Va., in what is now a part of Marion County, W. Va., October 18, 1811; was graduated from Madison College, Pennsylvania, in 1831; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1833, and commenced practice in Morgantown, Va. (now West Virginia); appointed clerk of the county court of Monongalia County in October, 1841, and later clerk of the circuit superior court, and held both positions until 1852; delegate to the Virginia constitutional convention in 1850 and 1851; delegate to the Constitutional Union National Convention at Baltimore in 1860 which nominated Bell and Everett; elected to the United States Senate from Virginia to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of James M. Mason, and served from July 9, 1861, to March 3, 1863; delegate to the State constitutional convention of West Virginia; upon the admission of West Virginia as a State into the Union was elected to the United States Senate; reelected in 1865, and served from August 4, 1863, to March 3, 1871; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati in 1876 which nominated Hayes and Wheeler; again served as clerk of the county court of Monongalia County 1882-1896; retired from public life; died in Morgantown, W. Va., May 2, 1900; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Abram Pease, a Senator from California; born in New Portland, Somerset County, Me., February 3, 1832; attended the common schools and completed an academic course at North Anson Academy, North Anson, Me., 1846-1848; attended normal school at Farmington, Me., 1848-1853; taught school at North Anson, Somerset County, Me.; moved to Fairfield, Somerset County, Me., in 1853 and engaged in mercantile pursuits; moved to California in 1858 and engaged in mining in Tuolumne County; resumed mercantile pursuits in 1859; moved to San Francisco in 1861 and became an importer, stock raiser, and farmer; one of the founders of the San Francisco Board of Trade and its first president; member of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce; chairman of the finance committee and treasurer of the Republican State committee in 1880; chairman of the latter committee in 1884; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John F. Miller, and served from August 4, 1886, to March 3, 1887; was not a candidate for renomination in 1887; resumed the wholesale mercantile business in San Francisco, Calif., where he died October 17, 1911; interment in Maplewood Cemetery, Fairfield, Me.

WILLIAMS, Alpheus Starkey, a Representative from Michigan; born in Saybrook, Middlesex County, Conn., September 20, 1810; was graduated from Yale College in 1831; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1837, and commenced practice in Detroit, Mich.; judge of probate 1840-1844; editor of the Detroit Daily Advertiser 1843-1847; served in the war with Mexico; commissioned lieutenant colonel of the First Michigan Infantry December 8, 1847; mustered out July 29, 1848; postmaster of Detroit 1849-1853; during the Civil War was commissioned brigadier general of Michigan Volunteers April 24, 1861, and of United States Volunteers May 17, 1861; brevetted major general of Volunteers January 12, 1865, "for marked ability and energy"; mustered out January 15, 1866; minister resident to San Salvador 1866-1869; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1875, until his death in Washington, D. C., December 20, 1878; interment in Elmwood Cemetery, Detroit, Mich.

WILLIAMS, Andrew, a Representative from New York; born in Ormstown, Province of Quebec, Canada, August 27, 1828; received a limited schooling; engaged in mercantile pursuits; emigrated to the United States in 1852 and settled in Plattsburg, N. Y.; engaged in the manufacture of nails 1862-1865, and subsequently in the mining of iron ore, in the lumber trade, and in the manufacture of horseshoe nails and wagons; one of the organizers of the Iron National Bank at Plattsburg in 1881, and served as its president until 1888; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); was not a candidate for re-election in 1878; member of the board of supervisors of Dannemora for two years, and for a number of years represented Plattsburg in a like capacity; superintendent of the Plattsburg waterworks 1889-1902; elected county treasurer in 1890; reelected in 1898, 1899, 1900, 1902, and 1905; member of the board of education; died in Plattsburg, N. Y., October 8, 1907; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Archibald Hunter Arrington (nephew of Archibald Hunter Arrington), a Representative from North Carolina; born near Louisa, Franklin County, N. C., October 22, 1842; attended the common schools and Emory and Henry College, Emory, Va.; enlisted as a private in the Confederate Army during the Civil War; served four years in the Army of Northern Virginia, and at the surrender at Appomattox was captain of his company; severely wounded in the Battle of Gettysburg; after the war engaged in agricultural pursuits and in retail trade in Oxford, Granville County, N. C.; was instrumental in completing and making successful the Oxford & Henderson Railroad, and was for several years its president; member of the State house of representatives 1883-1885; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1893); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress; died in Chase City, Mecklenburg County, Va., September 5, 1895; interment in Elmwood Cemetery, Oxford, N. C.

WILLIAMS, Arthur Bruce, a Representative from Michigan; born in Ashland, Ashland County, Ohio, January 27, 1872; attended the common schools of Eaton County, and was graduated from Olivet College, in that county, in 1892; was admitted to the bar in 1894 and commenced practice at Battle Creek, Mich.; interested in agricultural pursuits at his summer home, Gull Lake, Mich.; director of the Old National Bank, Battle Creek; vice president and general counsel of Postum Cereal Co.; president of the Michigan Manufacturers' Association; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John M. C. Smith; reelected to the Sixty-ninth Congress, and served from June 19, 1923, until his death in Baltimore, Md., May 1, 1925; interment in Maple Hill Cemetery, Charlotte, Eaton County, Mich.

WILLIAMS, Benjamin, a Representative from North Carolina; born near Smithfield, Johnston County, N. C., January 1, 1751; attended the country schools; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the provincial congress in 1774 and 1775; served in the Revolutionary Army as second lieutenant; promoted to captain in the Second Regiment July 19, 1776; promoted to colonel for gallantry at Guilford, N. C., July 12, 1781; member of the State house of commons 1779, 1785, and 1789; member of the State senate 1781, 1784, 1786, and 1788; elected to the Third Congress (March 4, 1788-March 3, 1795); was not a candidate for re-election; Governor of North Carolina 1799-1802, 1807, and 1808; again a member of the State senate in 1809; died in Moore County, N. C., July 20, 1814; interment in the family cemetery in Moore County, near Carabonton, N. C.

WILLIAMS, Charles Grandison, a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Royalton, Niagara County, N. Y., October 18, 1829; pursued an academic course and studied law in Rochester, N. Y.; moved to Wisconsin in 1856 and settled in Janesville; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice in Janesville; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Grant and Colfax in 1868; served in the State senate 1869-1872; twice chosen president pro tempore of that body; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1883); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1882 to the Forty-eighth Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in Watertown, Codington County, S. Dak., on March 30, 1892; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery, Janesville, Rock County, Wis.

WILLIAMS, Christopher Harris (grandfather of John Sharp Williams), a Representative from Tennessee; born near Hillsboro, Orange County, N. C., December 18, 1798; pursued an academic course and attended the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; studied law, was admitted to the bar about 1820, and practiced; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1843); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1842 to the Twenty-eighth Congress; delegate to several State and National conventions; was elected to the Thirty-first and Thirty-second Congresses (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1853); was not a candidate for re-election in 1852; resumed the practice of law in Lexington, Henderson County, Tenn., and died there November 27, 1857; interment in the Lexington Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, David Rogerson, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Robbins Neck, S. C., March 8, 1776; attended school at Wrentham, Mass., and Rhode Island College (now Brown University), Providence, R. I.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1797, and practiced for three years in Providence, R. I.; editor and proprietor of the City Gazette and Weekly Carolina Gazette of Charleston, S. C., 1801-1803; engaged in cotton planting and manufacturing in Darlington County, S. C., from 1803 until his death; built the first cotton-seed-oil mill in South Carolina; elected as a Democrat to the Ninth and Tenth Congresses (March 4, 1805-March 3, 1809); elected to the Twelfth Congress (March 4, 1811-March 3, 1813); brigadier general in the United States Army July 9, 1813, to April 6, 1814, when he resigned; Governor of South Carolina 1814-1816; member of the State senate from 1824 until he was accidentally killed while superintending the construction of a bridge over Lynchs Creek, Witherspoons Ferry, on the road to Georgetown, Georgetown County, S. C., November 17, 1830; interment on his plantation near Society Hill, Darlington County, S. C.

WILLIAMS, Elihu Stephen, a Representative from Ohio; born in New Carlisle, Clark County, Ohio, January 24, 1835; educated in the common schools and attended Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, two years; studied law in Dayton, Ohio, and was admitted to the bar in 1861; during the Civil War enlisted as a private in the Seventy-first Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry in October, 1861; commissioned first lieutenant February 14, 1862; promoted to captain February 10, 1863; detailed to the command of the military post at Carthage, Smith County, Tenn., September, 1863, and remained there until the close of the war; attorney general of the sixth judicial district of Tennessee from April, 1865, to 1867; member of the Tennessee House of Representatives 1867-1869; moved to Troy, Miami County, Ohio, in January, 1875; elected as a Republican to the Fiftieth and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1891); editor of the Buckeye; died in Troy, Ohio, December 1, 1908; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, George Fred, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Dedham, Norfolk County, Mass., July 10, 1852; attended private schools, and was graduated from the Dedham High School in 1868 and from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H. in 1872; member of the Dedham school committee; studied at the Universities of Heidelberg and Berlin; studied law at Boston University, Boston, Mass.; was admitted to the bar in 1875 and practiced in Boston; edited Williams' Citations of Massachusetts Cases in 1878 and volumes 10 to 17 of the Annual Digest of the United States 1880-1887; member of the State house of representatives in 1890; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1893); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress; was unsuccessful Democratic nominee for governor in 1895, 1896, and 1897; resumed the practice of law in Boston, Mass.; delegate to several State conventions; delegate to the Democratic National Conventions in 1896, 1900, 1904, and 1908; United States minister to Greece and Montenegro in 1913 and 1914; is a resident of Boston, Mass.

WILLIAMS, George Henry, a Senator from Oregon; born in New Lebanon, Columbia County, N. Y., March 28, 1823; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1844, and commenced practice at Fort Madison, Lee County, Iowa; judge of the first judicial district of Iowa 1847-1852; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Pierce and King in 1852; was chief justice of the Territory of Oregon 1853-1857; reappointed by President Buchanan but declined; member of the State constitutional convention of Oregon in 1858; elected as a Union Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1865, to March 3, 1871; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; Attorney General of the United States in the Cabinet of President Grant from January 10, 1872, to May 15, 1875; was nominated by President Grant Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, but subsequently the name was withdrawn; mayor of Portland, Oreg., 1902-1905; died in Portland, Oreg., April 4, 1910; interment in Riverview Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, George Howard, a Senator from Missouri; born in California, Monteanu County, Mo., December 1, 1871; attended the public schools; was graduated from the California (Mo.) High School in 1889, from the preparatory department of Drury College, Springfield, Green County, Mo., in 1890, from Princeton University in 1894, and from the Washington University Law School, St. Louis, in 1897; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in St. Louis; judge of the circuit court of the city of St. Louis from 1906 to 1912; delegate at large to the Missouri constitutional convention 1922-23; appointed as a Republican to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Selden P. Spencer, and served from May 25, 1925, to December 5, 1926, when a successor was elected and qualified, having been the unsuccessful candidate for election to fill the vacancy; resumed the practice of his profession in St. Louis, and resides in St. Louis County, Mo.

WILLIAMS, Guinn, a Representative from Texas; born near Benela, Calhoun County, Miss., April 22, 1871; moved with his parents to Texas and settled in Decatur, Wise County, in 1876; attended the public schools; was graduated from the commercial branch of Transylvania College, Lexington, Ky., in 1890; engaged in the livestock business, agricultural pursuits, and banking; county clerk of Wise County, Tex., 1898-1902; member of the State senate from 1920 to May 15, 1922, when he resigned, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Lucian W. Parrish; reelected to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses, and served from May 18, 1922, to March 3, 1927. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WILLIAMS, Henry, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Taunton, Bristol County, Mass., November 30, 1806; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1820, and commenced practice in Taunton, Mass.; member of the State house of representatives in 1834; served in the State senate in 1836 and 1837; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1841); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1840 to the Twenty-seventh Congress; was elected to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1845); resumed the practice of his profession; died in Taunton, Mass., May 8, 1887; interment in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Hezekiah, a Representative from Maine; born near Woodstock, Vt., on July 28, 1798; was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1820; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Castine, Hancock County, Me., in 1825; register of probate for Hancock County 1824-1838; selectman of Castine 1838-1839; trustee of school fund in 1834; member of school committee in 1840; served in the State senate 1839-1841; again a selectman of Castine in 1843 and 1844; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth and Thirtieth Congresses (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1849); resumed the practice of law; died in Castine, Me., October 23, 1856; interment in Castine Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Isaac, Jr., a Representative from New York; born in Goshen, Conn., on April 5, 1777; received a limited schooling; moved with his father to Otsego County, N. Y., in 1793; appointed undersheriff of Otsego County in 1810; afterwards appointed sheriff by the council of appointment 1811-1813; successfully contested as a Democrat the election of John M. Bowers to the Thirteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William Dowse, and served from December 20, 1813, to March 3, 1815; elected to the Fifteenth Congress (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1819); was again elected to the Eighteenth Congress (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1825); unsuccessful Adam's candidate for sheriff in 1828; died in Coopers-town, Otsego County, N. Y., November 9, 1860; interment in the Warren Cemetery, Otsego, N. Y.

WILLIAMS, James, a Representative from Delaware; born in Philadelphia, Pa., August 4, 1825; completed preparatory studies; moved to Kenton, Kent County, Del., in 1844 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives in 1850 and 1862; served in the State senate in 1866 and 1871; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1872; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); was not a candidate for renomination in 1878; resumed agricultural pursuits; moved to Smyrna, Del., in 1891 and continued farming until his death on April 12, 1899; interment in St. Peter's Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, James Douglas, a Representative from Indiana; born in Pickaway County, Ohio, January 16, 1808; moved with his parents to Indiana and settled in Knox County in 1818; received a limited education; engaged in agricultural pursuits; justice of the peace of Vincennes, Ind., 1830-1843; from 1855 he was identified with the State board of agriculture for sixteen years and was for four years its president; member of the State house of representatives in 1843, 1847, 1851, 1856, and 1868; served in the State senate in 1858, 1862, and 1870; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1872; was the caucus nominee of his party, who were in the minority, for United States Senator in 1872; was elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth Congress, and served from March 4, 1875; to December 1, 1876, when he resigned, having been elected governor; Governor of Indiana from 1877 until his death in Indianapolis, Ind., November 20, 1880; interment in Walnut Grove Cemetery, near Monroe City, Knox County, Ind.

WILLIAMS, James Robert, a Representative from Illinois; born in Carmi, White County, Ill., December 27, 1850; attended the common schools; was graduated from the Indiana State University at Bloomington in 1875 and from the Union College of Law, Chicago, Ill., in 1876; was admitted to the bar in the latter year and commenced practice in Carmi, White County, Ill.; master in chancery 1880-1882; county judge of White County 1882-1886; was nominee for elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Thurman in 1888; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-first Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Richard W. Townsend; reelected to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses, and served from December 2, 1889, to March 3, 1895; elected to the Fifty-sixth, Fifty-seventh, and Fifty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1905); resumed the practice of law; died in Loma Linda, San Bernardino County, Calif., November 8, 1923; interment in Maple Ridge Cemetery, Carmi, Ill.

WILLIAMS, James Wray, a Representative from Maryland; born in that State October 8, 1792; completed preparatory studies; member of the State house of delegates; was speaker in 1830; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-seventh Congress, and served from March 4, 1841, until his death on Priesford farm, Deer Creek, Harford County, Md., December 2, 1842; interment in the family cemetery on Priesford farm.

WILLIAMS, Jared, a Representative from Virginia; born in Montgomery County, Md., March 4, 1760; pursued classical studies; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of delegates from 1812 to 1817; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Sixteenth, Seventeenth, and Eighteenth Congresses (March 4, 1819-March 3, 1825); presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Jackson and Calhoun in 1828; died near Newton, Va., January 2, 1831.

WILLIAMS, Jared Warner, a Representative and a Senator from New Hampshire; born in West Woodstock, Conn., December 22, 1796; was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1818; studied law in the Litchfield (Conn.) Law School; was admitted to the bar in 1822 and commenced practice in Lancaster, Coos County, N. H.; member of the State house of representatives in 1830 and 1831; served in the State senate 1832-1834; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1835 and 1836; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1841); was Governor of New Hampshire 1847-1849; appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles G. Atherton, and served from November 29, 1853, to July 15, 1854, when representation under the appointment expired; died in Lancaster, N. H., September 29, 1864; interment in the Summer Street Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Jeremiah Norman, a Representative from Alabama; born near Louisville, Barbour County, Ala., May 29, 1829; attended the preparatory schools of Barbour County, and was graduated from the University of South Carolina at Columbia in 1852; studied law in Montgomery and Tuskegee; was admitted to the bar in 1855 and commenced practice in Clayton, Barbour County, Ala.; volunteered for service in the Confederate Army during the Civil War and was made captain of the Clayton Guards, later becoming major of the First Regiment Alabama Infantry; elected a member of the State house of representatives in 1872, but was not allowed to take his seat; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); chancellor of the third division 1898-1899; resumed the practice of his profession in Clayton, Ala.; member of the State constitutional convention in 1901; died in Clayton, Ala., May 8, 1915; interment in the City Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, John, a Delegate from North Carolina; born in Hanover County, Va., on March 14, 1781; moved to North Carolina in 1745 with his parents, who settled in Granville County; donated the land and laid out the town of Williamsboro, N. C.; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Williamsboro; one of the founders of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; deputy attorney general in 1798; delegate to the Provincial Congress of 1775; member of the State house of commons in 1777 and 1778 and served as speaker; Member of the Continental Congress in 1778 and 1779; Judge of the Supreme Court of North Carolina from 1779 until his death in Montpelier, near Williamsboro, N. C., October 10, 1799; interment in the family cemetery, Montpelier, Vance County, N. C.

WILLIAMS, John, a Representative from New York; born in Barnstable, England, in September, 1732; received a liberal education; studied medicine and surgery in St. Thomas Hospital, London; served for one year as surgeon's mate on an English man-of-war; emigrated to America in 1773 and settled in New Perth, Charlotte County (now Salem, Washington County), N. Y.; engaged in an extensive medical practice; member of the State Provincial Congress in 1775, to which body he was reelected and served until its dissolution in 1777; appointed surgeon of the State forces in 1775; colonel of the Charlotte County Regiment in 1776 and retained command throughout the Revolutionary War; member of the State senate in 1777 and 1778; member of the State assembly in 1781 and 1782; again a member of the State senate 1782-1785; appointed a member of the first board of regents of New York University in 1784; brigadier general of militia in 1790; delegate to the State convention for the ratification of the Federal Constitution in 1788; member of the council of appointment in 1789; elected to the Fourth and Fifth Congresses (March 4, 1795-March 3, 1799); was a large landholder; a promoter and director of a company organized to build the Erie Canal as a private enterprise, the project later being taken over and completed by the State; Judge of the county court; died in Salem, N. Y., July 22, 1806; interment in the Salem Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, John (brother of Lewis Williams and Robert Williams, father of Joseph Lanier Williams, and cousin of Marmaduke Williams), a Senator from Tennessee; born in Surry County, N. C., January 29, 1778; completed preparatory studies; captain in the Sixth Regiment United States Infantry from April, 1799, to June, 1800; studied law in Salisbury, N. C., was admitted to the bar of Knox County, Tenn., in 1803, and commenced practice in Knoxville, Tenn.; captain of regular troops in the War of 1812, and was colonel of a regiment of East Tennessee Mounted Volunteers in the expedition against the Seminoles in Florida in 1812 and 1813; colonel of the Thirty-ninth Regiment United States Infantry June 18, 1813, and subsequently served under General Jackson in the expedition against the Creek Indians in Alabama; participated in the decisive Battle of Horse-Shoe Bend March 27, 1813; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of George W. Campbell; was subsequently appointed to fill the vacancy in the regular term caused by a recess of the legislature; was then elected, and served from October 10, 1815, to March 3, 1822; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; appointed by President John Quincy Adams chargé d'affaires to the Central American Federation and served from December 29, 1823, to December 1, 1826; member of the State senate in 1827 and 1828; declined appointment as justice of the State supreme court; died near Knoxville, Knox County, Tenn., August 10, 1837; interment in the First Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, John, a Representative from New York; born in Utica, N. Y., January 7, 1807; spent his youth and completed preparatory studies in Sackets Harbor, N. Y.; moved to Rochester, N. Y., in 1824, and engaged in mercantile pursuits and the manufacture of flour; member of the board of aldermen in 1844; mayor of Rochester in 1853; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855–March 3, 1857); again engaged in the milling business 1858–1870; was major general of the Seventh Division of the National Guard at the time of his death; excise commissioner and manager of the house of refuge in 1870; city treasurer from 1871 until his death; died in Rochester, N. Y., March 26, 1875; interment in Mount Hope Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, John McKeown Snow, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Richmond, Henrico County, Va., August 13, 1818; moved to Boston, Mass.; attended the public schools; engaged in mercantile pursuits and was also a shipowner; member of the State house of representatives in 1856; served in the State senate in 1858; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Grant and Colfax in 1868; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873–March 3, 1875); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; resumed his former business pursuits; died in Cambridge, Middlesex County, Mass., March 18, 1886; interment in Mount Auburn Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, John Sharp (grandson of Christopher Harris Williams), a Representative and a Senator from Mississippi; born in Memphis, Tenn., on July 30, 1864; after the death of his parents moved to the family homestead of his mother in Yazoo County, Miss.; attended private schools, the Kentucky Military Institute near Frankfort, the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn., the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, and the University of Heidelberg, Baden, Germany; subsequently studied law at the University of Virginia and in Memphis, Tenn.; was admitted to the bar in Shelby County, Tenn., in 1877; moved to Yazoo City, Miss., in December, 1878; was engaged in the practice of law and also interested in cotton planting; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1892; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third and to the seven succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1893–March 3, 1900); was not a candidate for renomination in 1908; was the Democratic minority leader in the Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, and Sixtieth Congresses; served as temporary chairman of the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1904 which nominated Parker and Davis; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1912 which nominated Wilson and Marshall; elected to the United States Senate in 1911; reelected in 1917, and served from March 4, 1911, to March 3, 1923; declined to be a candidate for renomination and withdrew from public life; is living in retirement on his plantation, "Cedar Grove," near Yazoo City, Miss.

WILLIAMS, John Stuart, a Senator from Kentucky; born near Mount Sterling, Montgomery County, Ky., July 10, 1818; attended the common schools; was graduated from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio, in 1839; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1840, and commenced practice in Paris, Bourbon County, Ky.; served in the Mexican War, first as a captain of an independent company attached to the Sixth Regiment United States Infantry and afterwards as a colonel of the Fourth Regiment Kentucky Volunteers; member of the State house of representatives in 1851 and 1853; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army as colonel in 1861; promoted to brigadier general in April, 1862, and surrendered with the army of Gen. Joseph E. Johnston on April 26, 1865; engaged in farming, with residence in Winchester, Ky.; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1873 and 1875; unsuccessful candidate for election as governor in 1875; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Tilden and Hendricks in 1876; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1879, to March 3, 1885; was an unsuccessful candidate for reelection; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Mount Sterling, Montgomery County, Ky., July 17, 1898; interment in Winchester Cemetery, Winchester, Clark County, Ky.

WILLIAMS, Jonathan, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Boston, Mass., May 20, 1750; completed preparatory studies and worked in a bank in Boston; went to France as secretary to Benjamin Franklin in 1770, and served until 1775, part of this time as commercial agent for the United States; studied military science; returned to the United States in 1785 and settled in Philadelphia; was judge of the court of common pleas; entered the United States Army as major of the Second Regiment of Artillerists and Engineers February 16, 1801; inspector of fortifications from December 14, 1801, to June 1, 1802; commanded the post at West Point, N. Y., and was the first Superintendent of the United States Military Academy in 1802; was retained as major of Engineers April 1, 1802; lieutenant colonel and Chief of Engineers July 3, 1802; resigned June 20, 1803, on a question of rank; resumed the rank of lieutenant colonel and Chief of Engineers at President Jefferson's request April 19, 1805; promoted to the rank of colonel February 23, 1808; planned and built the inner forts for the defense of New York Harbor; resigned July 31, 1812; returned to Philadelphia, Pa., and engaged in literary and scientific pursuits; was the author of several military and philosophical papers; elected to the Fourteenth Congress, and served from March 4, 1815, until his death, before the assembling of the Congress, in Philadelphia, Pa., May 16, 1815.

WILLIAMS, Joseph Lanier (son of John Williams, of Tennessee), a Representative from Tennessee; born in Knoxville, Knox County, Tenn., October 23, 1807; completed preparatory studies; attended the University of East Tennessee and the United States Military Academy at West Point; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Knoxville, Tenn.; was elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1837–March 3, 1843); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1842; resumed the practice of his profession in Knoxville; died in Knoxville, Knox County, Tenn., December 14, 1865; interment in the Old Gray Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Lemuel, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Taunton, Mass., June 18, 1747; was graduated from Harvard College in 1765; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in Bristol and Worcester Counties, Mass.; town clerk of New Bedford, Mass., 1792–1800; elected to the Sixth, Seventh, and Eighth Congresses (March 4, 1799–March 3, 1805); member of the State house of representatives in 1806; resumed the practice of law; died in Acushnet, Mass., November 8, 1828; interment in Acushnet Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Lewis (brother of John Williams, of Tennessee, and Robert Williams and cousin of Marmaduke Williams), a Representative from North Carolina; born in Surry County, N. C., February 1, 1786; was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1808; member of the State house of commons in 1813 and 1814; elected to the Fourteenth and to the thirteen succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1815, until his death; received the title of "father of the House"; died in Washington, D. C., February 23, 1842; interment in Panther Creek Cemetery, Surry County, N. C.

WILLIAMS, Marmaduke (cousin of John Williams, of Tennessee, Lewis Williams, and Robert Williams), a Representative from North Carolina; born in Caswell County, N. C., April 6, 1772; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; member of the State senate in 1802; elected as a Democrat to the Eighth, Ninth, and Tenth Congresses (March 4, 1803-March 3, 1809); was not a candidate for renomination; moved to Huntsville, Madison County, Ala., in 1810, and thence to Tuscaloosa, Ala., in 1818; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1819; returned to North Carolina; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of North Carolina in 1819; member of the State house of commons 1821-1839; judge of the Tuscaloosa County Court 1832-1842; died in Tuscaloosa, Tuscaloosa County, Ala., October 29, 1850; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Morgan B., a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Rhondir-Mwyn, parish of Llanfair-ary-Bryn, Carmarthenshire, Wales, September 17, 1831; attended the public schools; went to Australia in 1856; returned to Wales in August, 1861; emigrated to the United States in March, 1862, and settled in Scranton, Pa., where he worked in the coal mines; moved to Wilkes-Barre, Pa., in September, 1865; appointed superintendent for the Lehigh & Wilkes-Barre Coal Co., which position he held for fourteen years; member of the school board and of the city council for twelve years; alternate delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1864; served in the State senate in 1884; member of the Chicago World's Fair Commission; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1899); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1898 to the Fifty-sixth Congress; engaged in coal mining, and was vice president and general manager of the Red Ash Coal Co.; died in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., October 13, 1903; interment in Hollenback Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Nathan, a Representative from New York; born in Williamstown, Mass., December 19, 1773; attended the common schools in Bennington, Vt.; moved with his parents to Troy, N. Y., in 1798; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1796, and commenced practice in Utica, N. Y.; assisted in the establishment of Utica Public Library, of which he was librarian for a number of years; president of the village corporation; president of the Manhattan Bank; district attorney for the sixth district 1801-1818; elected as a Democrat to the Ninth Congress (March 4, 1805-March 3, 1807); served in the War of 1812 under his brother-in-law, Gen. Jacob Brown; member of the State assembly 1816-1818 and in 1819; regent of the University of the State of New York from January 28, 1817, to February 13, 1824; district attorney of Onondaga County 1818-1821; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1821; judge of the circuit court 1823-1833; appointed clerk of the State supreme court in 1834 and moved to Geneva, Ontario County, N. Y., where he died September 26, 1835; interment in the "Burying Ground," Utica, Onondaga County, N. Y.; reinterment in Forest Hill Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Reuel, a Senator from Maine; born in Hallowell, Me., June 2, 1783; attended Hallowell Academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1802, and commenced practice in Augusta, Me.; member of the State house of representatives 1822-1826 and 1829-1832; served in the State senate in 1827 and 1828; commissioner of public buildings in 1831; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Van Buren and Johnson in 1836; elected February 22, 1837, as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Ether Shepley, and served from March 4, 1837, to February 15, 1843, when he resigned; manager of a railroad for twelve years; died in Augusta, Me., July 25, 1862; interment in the family cemetery on the banks of the Kennebec River, Augusta, Me.

WILLIAMS, Richard, a Representative from Oregon; born in Findlay, Hancock County, Ohio, November 15, 1836; attended the common schools; moved to Monroe County, Oreg., in 1851; was educated at the Willamette University, Salem, Oreg.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1857, and commenced practice in Kirbyville, Josephine County, Oreg.; moved to Portland, Oreg., in 1865 and practiced law; unsuccessful Republican candidate for election in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1879); was not a candidate for renomination in 1878; resumed the practice of law in Portland, Oreg.; in 1890 elected a member of the Portland School Board and served in that position for twenty years; died in Portland, Oreg., June 19, 1914; interment in Riverview Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Robert (brother of John Williams, of Tennessee, and Lewis Williams and cousin of Marmaduke Williams), a Representative from North Carolina; born in Prince Edward County, Va., July 12, 1778; moved with his parents to Surry County, N. C.; received a liberal education; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in what is now Rockingham County; member of the State senate 1792-1795; elected to the Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Congresses (March 4, 1797-March 3, 1803); appointed by President Jefferson member of a commission to ascertain the rights of persons claiming lands in Mississippi Territory west of the Pearl River in 1803 and served in this capacity until 1807; Governor of Mississippi Territory from May 10, 1805, to March 3, 1809, when he resigned; subsequently resided in Mississippi and North Carolina, where he practiced law and engaged in planting; adjutant general of North Carolina; moved to Ouachita, Union Parish, La., where he died January 25, 1836; interment on his plantation near Monroe, Ouachita Parish, La.

WILLIAMS, Seward Henry, a Representative from Ohio; born in Amsterdam, Montgomery County, N. Y., November 7, 1870; attended the common schools, the Amsterdam Academy, Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., and Princeton College; was graduated in law from Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., in 1895; was admitted to the bar in 1895 and commenced practice the same year; city solicitor of Lorain, Ohio, 1901-1904; member of the State house of representatives 1910-1913; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1917); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1916 to the Sixty-fifth Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in Lorain, Lorain County, Ohio, September 2, 1922; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Sherrod, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Pulaski County, Ky., in 1804; moved with his parents to Wayne County; received a limited education; learned the trade of brickmaker in Monticello when about fifteen years of age; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; member of the State house of representatives 1829-1834 and in 1846; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fourth, Twenty-fifth, and Twenty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1835-March 3, 1841); was not a candidate for reelection; moved to one of the Southern States, where he died.

WILLIAMS, Thomas, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Greensburg, Westmoreland County, Pa., August 28, 1806; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., in 1825; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1828, and commenced practice in Greensburg, Pa.; moved to Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1832 and continued the practice of law; served in the State senate 1838-1841; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, and Fortieth Congresses (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1869); one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1868 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against Andrew Johnson, President of the United States; was not a candidate for renomination in 1868, and lived in retirement until his death in Allegheny City, Pa., June 6, 1872; interment in Allegheny Cemetery, Pittsburgh, Pa.

WILLIAMS, Thomas, a Representative from Alabama; born near Richmond, Greenville County, Va., August 11, 1825; attended preparatory schools and was graduated from the University of East Tennessee, Knoxville, Tenn.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1852, and commenced practice in Wetumpka, Elmore County, Ala.; justice of the peace; register in chancery; appointed prison inspector in 1872; member of the State house of representatives in 1878; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, and Forty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1885); engaged in agricultural pursuits, and resided in Wetumpka, Ala., until his death, April 13, 1903; interment in the City Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Thomas Hickman, a Senator from Mississippi; born in Williamson County, Tenn., January 20, 1801; attended the common schools; moved to Mississippi and settled in Pontotoc County; engaged in planting; appointed and subsequently elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of James F. Trotter, and served from November 12, 1838, to March 3, 1839; secretary and treasurer of the University of Mississippi at Oxford 1845-1851; known as "father of the State university," being the first to propose it and also aiding to secure it; died on his plantation south of Pontotoc, Pontotoc County, Miss., May 3, 1851; interment in the private cemetery on the family estate.

WILLIAMS, Thomas Hill, a Senator from Mississippi; born in North Carolina in 1790; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; register of the land office for the Territory of Mississippi in 1805; appointed secretary of the Territory June 1, 1805; acting governor from April 22 to June 3, 1806, when he resigned as secretary; reappointed secretary June 1, 1807; again acting governor from March 4 to June, 1809; collector of customs at New Orleans in 1810; delegate to the State constitutional convention; upon the admission of Mississippi as a State into the Union was elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate; reelected in 1823, and served from December 10, 1817, to March 3, 1829; moved to Tennessee, where he died, in Robertson County, in 1840.

WILLIAMS, Thomas Scott, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Wethersfield, Conn., June 26, 1777; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Yale College in 1794; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1799; and commenced the practice of his profession in Mansfield, Conn.; moved to Hartford, Conn., in 1808; appointed attorney of the board of managers of the school fund of Hartford 1809-1810; served in the State house of representatives in 1813, 1815, and 1816; clerk of the house in 1815 and 1816; elected to the Fifteenth Congress (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1819); again a member of the State house of representatives 1819, 1825, and 1827-1829; appointed in 1829 an associate judge of the supreme court of errors and of the superior court, and in May, 1834, appointed chief justice, holding the position until his resignation in May, 1847; mayor of Hartford 1831-1835; resigned from public office; president of the American Tract Society of New York from May, 1848, until his death; died in Hartford, Hartford County, Conn., December 22, 1861; interment in the Old North Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, Thomas Sutler, a Representative from Illinois; born in Louisville, Clay County, Ill., February 14, 1872; attended the Willis district school, Louisville High School, and Austin College, Effingham, Ill.; studied law, was admitted to the bar of Kentucky in 1897, and commenced the practice of his profession in Louisville; city attorney 1897-1899; member of the State house of representatives 1899-1901; mayor of Louisville 1907-1909; prosecuting attorney of Clay County 1908-1915; became the owner and publisher of the Clay County Republican at Louisville in 1920; moved to Harrisburg, Salina County, Ill., in 1926; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WILLIAMS, Thomas Wheeler, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Stonington, Conn., September 28, 1789; attended the public schools; at the age of fifteen he was employed as a clerk in New York City, and before he was twenty-one was employed on a business mission to Norway, Sweden, and Russia; for about eight years was engaged in the shipping business; moved to New London, Conn., in 1818; engaged in the whaling business, in which he became a dominant figure; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-sixth and Twenty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1839-March 3, 1843); member of the State house of representatives in 1846 and 1847; presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Taylor and Fillmore in 1848; president of the New London, Willimantic and Palmer Railroad (now the New London Northern Railroad) in 1847 and for many years thereafter; died in New London, New London County, Conn., December 31, 1874; interment in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, William, a Delegate from Connecticut; born in Lebanon, Conn., April 28, 1731; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Harvard College in 1751; studied theology for a year; engaged in mercantile pursuits; town clerk of Lebanon 1753-1796; went upon a military expedition to Lake George in 1755; was a member of the State house of representatives 1757-1761, 1763-1776, and 1780-1784; served as speaker 1775 and 1781-1783; was a Member of the Continental Congress 1776-1778, 1783, and 1784; a signer of the Declaration of Independence; member of the council of safety during the Revolution; judge of the county court of Windham 1776-1804; judge of probate for the Windham district 1778-1808; became an assistant counselor in 1780 and served as assistant and as counselor for twenty-four years; member of the Connecticut convention in 1787 that ratified the Constitution of the United States; died in Lebanon, New London County, Conn., August 2, 1811; interment in the Old Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, William, a Representative from New York; born in Bolton, Conn., September 6, 1815; received a common-school education; clerk in a bank in Windham, Conn.; moved to Sandusky, Ohio, in 1838, thence to Buffalo, N. Y., in 1839, where he engaged in banking; also served as a railroad manager and president; member of the State assembly in 1866 and 1867; was elected as a Democrat to the Forty-second Congress (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1873); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1872 to the Forty-third Congress; withdrew from public life and active business pursuits, and lived in retirement until his death in Buffalo, N. Y., September 10, 1876; interment in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, William, a Representative from Indiana; born near Carlisle, Cumberland County, Pa., May 11, 1821; attended the common schools and received a very limited education; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1845, and commenced practice in Warsaw, Kosciusko County, Ind.; treasurer of Kosciusko County in 1862; resigned the office of treasurer in order to become a candidate for lieutenant governor; unsuccessful candidate for lieutenant governor in 1863; managed the Bank of Warsaw for several years; director of the Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway 1864-1866; director of the Michigan City prison 1869-1862; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as commandant of Camp Allen, Fort Wayne, Ind., in 1862 and as paymaster of Volunteers, with headquarters at Louisville, Ky., until the close of the war; elected as a Republican to the Fortieth and to the three succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed the practice of law in Warsaw, Ind.; appointed by President Arthur chargé d'affaires to Paraguay and Uruguay April 12, 1882, and served until February 14, 1885, when he resigned; returned to Warsaw, Ind., in 1885 and retired from active business pursuits; died in Warsaw April 22, 1896; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, William Brewster, a Representative from Michigan; born in Pittsford, Monroe County, N. Y., July 28, 1826; attended the common schools and received an academic education; studied law, and was graduated from the State and National Law School, Ballston Spa, N. Y., in 1851; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Rochester, N. Y.; moved to Allegan, Mich., in 1855; judge of probate 1857-1865; member of the State senate 1866-1870 and served as president pro tempore in 1869; member of the State constitutional convention in 1867; appointed by the Governor in 1871 a member of the board for the supervisory control of the charitable, penal, and beneficiary institutions of the State, which position he resigned upon his election to the Congress; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Wilder D. Foster; reelected to the Forty-fourth Congress, and served from December 1, 1873, to March 3, 1877; was not a candidate for renomination in 1876; railroad commissioner of Michigan 1877-1883; resumed the practice of law; died in Allegan, Allegan County, Mich., March 4, 1905; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

WILLIAMS, William Eliza, a Representative from Illinois; born near Detroit, Pike County, Ill., May 5, 1867; attended the public schools and Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1880, and practiced in Detroit and Pittsfield, Pike County, Ill.; State's attorney of Pike County 1886-1892; member of the Board of Aldermen of Pittsfield; member of the board of education; became trial lawyer for the City Railway Co. of Chicago in 1903; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1901); resumed the practice of law in Pittsfield, Ill.; elected to the Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1917); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1916 and 1918 to the Sixty-fifth and Sixty-sixth Congresses, respectively; again continued the practice of his profession until his death in Pittsfield, Ill., September 13, 1921; interment in Pittsfield West Cemetery.

WILLIAMSON, Hugh, a Delegate and a Representative from North Carolina; born in West Nottingham, Pa., December 5, 1735; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia in 1757; studied theology, and was licensed to preach in 1758; resigned, owing to ill health, in 1760; professor of mathematics in the College of Philadelphia; studied medicine in Edinburgh, Scotland, and Utrecht, Holland; returned to Philadelphia and practiced there until 1773; became a member of the American Philosophical Society, and was sent abroad as a member of the commission to observe the transits of Venus and Mercury in 1773; at the time of the "Boston Tea Party" he was examined in England by the privy council regarding it; returned to America and settled in Edenton, N. C., in 1776; engaged in mercantile pursuits; during the Revolutionary War was surgeon general of the North Carolina troops 1779-1782; member of the State house of commons in 1782; Member of the Continental Congress 1782-1785, 1787, and 1788; delegate to the convention which framed the Federal Constitution in 1787 and a member of the State convention which adopted it in 1789; elected as a Federalist to the First and Second Congresses (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1793); moved to New York City in 1793; engaged extensively in literary pursuits until his death in New York City May 22, 1819; interment in Trinity Churchyard.

WILLIAMSON, John Newton, a Representative from Oregon; born near Junction City, Lane County, Oreg., November 8, 1855; attended the country schools; became a student at Willamette University, Salem, Oreg., and pursued a classical course until within three months of graduation, when he was stricken with rheumatism and never returned to graduate; moved to Prineville, Oreg., and engaged in livestock raising; sheriff of Crook County 1886-1888; member of the State house of representatives 1888-1896; served in the State senate 1900-1902; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth and Fifty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1907); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1906 to the Sixtieth Congress; engaged in stock raising and agricultural pursuits; appointed by President Harding postmaster at Prineville, Crook County, Oreg., on March 21, 1922; reappointed on May 18, 1926, in which capacity he is now serving.

WILLIAMSON, William, a Representative from South Dakota; born near New Sharon, Mahaska County, Iowa, on October 7, 1875; moved with his parents to Aurora County, S. Dak., in 1882; attended the public schools and the Wayne Normal School, Nebraska; engaged in agricultural pursuits and also taught school for several years; was graduated from the University of South Dakota at Vermillion in 1903 and from the law department of that university in 1905; while at college was editor of the Coyote, the college annual, and of the Volante, the college weekly newspaper; was admitted to the bar in 1905 and commenced practice at Oncoma, Lyman County, S. Dak.; founder with his brother of the Murdo Coyote and the Prairie Sun; prosecuting attorney of Lyman County 1906-1911; circuit judge of the eleventh judicial district 1911-1921; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1912; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WILLIAMSON, William Durkee, a Representative from Maine; born in Canterbury, Conn., July 31, 1779; moved in boyhood with his father to Amherst, Mass.; attended the common schools and Williams College, Williamstown, Mass.; was graduated from Brown University, Providence, R. I., in 1804; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Bangor, Me. (then a district of Massachusetts), in 1807; State's attorney for Hancock County 1808-1815; postmaster of Bangor, Me., 1810-1821; member of the State Senate of Massachusetts from 1816 until the separation of Maine from Massachusetts in 1820; served in the State Senate of Maine in 1820 and 1821 and was elected its president both years; as president of the senate he became governor upon the resignation of Governor King in 1821; elected as a Democrat to the Seventeenth Congress (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1823); was not a candidate for renomination in 1822; judge of probate for Penobscot County 1824-1840; bank commissioner 1838-1841; an original member of the Maine Historical Society; died in Bangor, Me., May 27, 1846; interment in Mount Hope Cemetery.

WILLIE, Asa Hoxie, a Representative from Texas; born in Washington, Wilkes County, Ga., October 11, 1829; attended private schools and pursued an academic course; moved to Washington County, Tex., in 1846 and settled in Brenham; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1848, and commenced practice in Brenham; district attorney of the third judicial district of Texas 1852-1854; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army under General Gregg with the rank of major; moved to Galveston, Tex., in 1866; elected associate justice of the Texas Supreme Court the same year but was removed in 1867 by the military commander; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Galveston; elected chief justice of the Supreme Court of Texas in November, 1882, and served until his resignation on March 3, 1888; resumed the practice of law; died in Galveston, Tex., March 16, 1899; interment in the Episcopal Cemetery.

WILLING, Thomas, a Delegate from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., December 19, 1731; completed preparatory studies in Bath, England; studied law in London at the Inner Temple; returned to Philadelphia and engaged in mercantile pursuits until 1768; member of the common council in 1755; alderman in 1759; associate justice of the city court October 2, 1759; justice of the court of common pleas February 28, 1761; mayor of Philadelphia in 1763; associate justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania 1767-1777; member of the committee of correspondence in 1774 and of the committee of safety in 1775; served in the colonial house of representatives; Member of the Continental Congress in 1775 and 1776; president of the Bank of North America; first president of the Bank of the United States 1791-1811; resumed mercantile pursuits; died in Philadelphia, Pa., on January 19, 1821; interment in Christ Churchyard.

WILLIS, Albert Shelby, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Shelbyville, Shelby County, Ky., January 22, 1843; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the Louisville (Ky.) Male High School in 1860; taught school for four years; was graduated from the Louisville Law School in 1866; was admitted to the bar and commenced practice in Louisville; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Greeley and Brown in 1872; prosecuting attorney for Jefferson County 1874-1877; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fifth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1877-March 8, 1887); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1886; resumed the practice of law; appointed minister to Hawaii by President Cleveland in 1893, and served until his death in Honolulu, Hawaii, January 6, 1897; interment in Cave Hill Cemetery, Louisville, Ky.

WILLIS, Benjamin Albertson, a Representative from New York; born in Roslyn, Queens County, N. Y., March 24, 1840; was graduated from Union College in 1861; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1862, and commenced practice in New York City; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army in 1862; captain in the One hundred and nineteenth New York Volunteers and subsequently colonel of the Twelfth Regiment of New York State Volunteers; honorably discharged in 1864; resumed the practice of his profession; member of the State assembly 1872-1878; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1878 to the Forty-sixth Congress; engaged in the practice of law and also in the real-estate business; died in New York City October 14, 1896; interment in the Friends Cemetery at Westbury, Long Island; reinterment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

WILLIS, Francis, a Representative from Georgia; born in Frederick County, Va., January 5, 1745; received a liberal education; served as captain and colonel in the Revolutionary War in 1777 and 1778; moved to Wilkes County, Ga., in 1784; elected to the Second Congress (March 4, 1791-March 3, 1793); moved to Maury County, Tenn.; died January 25, 1829.

WILLIS, Frank Bartlett, a Representative and a Senator from Ohio; born in Lewis Center, Delaware County, Ohio, December 28, 1871; attended the common schools and the Galena (Ohio) High School; was graduated from the Ohio Northern University at Ada in 1894; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1906; professor of history and economics at Ohio Northern University 1894-1906; professor of economics and law 1906-1910; member of the State house of representatives 1900-1904; was elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second and Sixty-third Congresses, and served from March 4, 1911, to January 9, 1915, when he resigned, having been elected governor; Governor of Ohio 1915-1917; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1916 and nominated Theodore E. Burton as a candidate for President; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1920 and nominated Warren G. Harding as a candidate for President; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate in 1920 for the term commencing March 4, 1921; subsequently appointed to the United States Senate on January 10, 1921, to fill the vacancy in the term ending March 3, 1921, caused by the resignation of Warren G. Harding; reelected in 1926, and served from January 14, 1921, until his death; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Cleveland in 1924; died in Delaware, Delaware County, Ohio, March 30, 1928; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.

WILLIS, Jonathan Spencer, a Representative from Delaware; born in Oxford, Talbot County, Md., April 5, 1830; attended the district schools and studied under private tutors; taught school seven years and then entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church; served charges in Maryland, Delaware, Philadelphia, New York City, and Stamford, Conn.; retired from the ministry in 1884, settled on a farm near Milford, Del., and engaged in fruit growing; unsuccessful Republican candidate for election in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1896 to the Fifty-fifth Congress; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Milford, Sussex County, Del., November 24, 1903; interment in Barrett's Chapel Cemetery, near Frederica, Kent County, Del.

WILLITS, Edwin, a Representative from Michigan; born at Otto, Cattaraugus County, N. Y., April 24, 1830; moved to Michigan with his parents in September, 1836; was graduated from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in June, 1855; settled in Monroe, Monroe County, Mich., in April, 1856; editor of the Monroe Commercial 1856-1861; studied law, was admitted to the bar in December, 1857, and commenced practice in Monroe; prosecuting attorney of Monroe County 1860-1862; member of the State board of education 1860-1872; appointed postmaster of Monroe January 1, 1863, by President Lincoln, and removed by President Johnson October 15, 1866; member of the commission to revise the constitution of the State in 1873; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1883); was not a candidate for renomination in 1882; principal of the State normal school at Ypsilanti 1883-1885; president of the Michigan Agricultural College 1885-1889; First Assistant Secretary of Agriculture under Secretaries Rusk and Morton, and served from March 23, 1889, to December 31, 1893; continued the practice of his profession in Washington, D. C., until his death in that city on October 22, 1896; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, Monroe, Mich.

WILLOUGHBY, Westel, Jr., a Representative from New York; born in Goshen, Conn., November 20, 1789; moved to Newport, N. Y.; studied medicine and engaged in practice; appointed judge of the court of common pleas of Herkimer County in 1805 and served until 1821; president of the Herkimer County Medical Society 1806-1816 and 1819-1836; served in the State assembly in 1808 and 1809; was president of the College of Physicians and Surgeons for the Western District of New York 1812-1844; member of the medical staff of the militia and served in the War of 1812; successfully contested as a Democrat the election of William S. Smith to the Fourteenth Congress, and served from December 13, 1815, to March 3, 1817; founded the town of Willoughby, Ohio, and also Willoughby College (now a part of Syracuse University); died in Newport, Herkimer County, N. Y., October 8, 1844; interment in the First Baptist Church Cemetery.

WILMOT, David, a Representative and a Senator from Pennsylvania; born in Bethany, Pa., January 20, 1814; completed preparatory studies in the academy at Aurora, N. Y.; studied law, was admitted to the bar of Bradford County, Pa., in 1834, and commenced practice in Towanda, Bradford County, Pa.; delegate to the State Democratic convention at Harrisburg in 1844; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth, Thirtieth, and Thirty-first Congresses (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1851); was not a candidate for renomination in 1850; delegate to the Free-Soll Democratic convention at Herkimer in 1847, State Democratic convention at Harrisburg in 1848, and National Free-Soll Convention at Utica, N. Y., in 1848; was the author of the "Wilmot proviso" relative to slavery in newly annexed territory; supported the Free-Soll ticket in 1848 and took a leading part in the founding of the Republican Party, 1854, being the member of the National executive committee for Pennsylvania; presiding judge of the thirteenth judicial district 1853-1861; delegate to the Republican National (preliminary) Convention at Pittsburgh in 1856, Pennsylvania State Republican convention at Philadelphia in 1856, and the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1856; drafted the first Republican platform in 1856; unsuccessful Republican candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania in 1857; delegate to and temporary chairman of the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1860; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Simon Cameron, and served from March 14, 1861, to March 3, 1863; was not a candidate for reelection in 1862; member of the peace convention of 1861, held in Washington, D. C., in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; appointed by President Lincoln judge of the United States Court of Claims in 1863, and served until his death in Towanda, Pa., March 16, 1868; interment in Riverside Cemetery.

WILSHIRE, William Wallace, a Representative from Arkansas; born in Shawneetown, Gallatin County, Ill., on September 8, 1830; educated in the country schools; spent three years in California in gold mining, from 1852 to 1855, when he returned to his home in Port Byron and engaged in the coal mining and mercantile business; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1859; during the Civil War entered the Union Army as major in the One hundred and twenty-sixth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry, and served from July 16, 1862, to July 16, 1864, when he resigned his commission on account of ill health; after the war located in Little Rock, Ark., and commenced the practice of law; appointed solicitor general of the State in 1867; chief justice of the State supreme court from 1868 to 1871, when he resigned and resumed the practice of law; presented credentials as a Republican Member elect to the Forty-third Congress, and served from March 4, 1873, to June 10, 1874, when he was succeeded by Thomas M. Gunter, who contested his election; was elected as a Conservative to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); was not a candidate for renomination in 1876; again engaged in the practice of law in Washington, D. C., where he died August 19, 1888; interment in Mount Holly Cemetery, Little Rock, Ark.

WILSON, Alexander, a Representative from Virginia; born in that State; completed preparatory studies; member of the State house of delegates in 1803 and in 1804; elected to the Eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Andrew Moore; reelected to the Ninth and Tenth Congresses, and served from December 4, 1804 to March 3, 1809.

WILSON, Benjamin, a Representative from West Virginia; born in Wilsonburg, Harrison County, Va. (now West Virginia), April 30, 1825; attended the Northwestern Virginia Academy at Clarksburg and the law school in Staunton, Va.; was admitted to the bar in 1848 and commenced practice in Clarksburg, Harrison County, Va. (now West Virginia); Commonwealth attorney for Harrison County 1852-1860; member of the State constitutional convention in 1861; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Seymour and Blair in 1868; member of the State constitutional convention of West Virginia in 1871; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1872; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1872 to the Forty-third Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth, Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1883); Assistant Attorney General of the United States 1885-1893; died in Clarksburg, W. Va., April 26, 1901; interment in the Odd Fellows Cemetery.

WILSON, Edgar, a Representative from Idaho; born in Armstrong County, Pa., near the city of Pittsburgh, February 23, 1861; attended the public schools; was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1884 and admitted to the bar; moved to Idaho in 1884, settled in Boise City, and commenced the practice of law; elected city attorney of Boise City in 1887 and district attorney in 1888; member of the constitutional convention that framed the State constitution in 1890; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); was not a candidate for reelection, having been nominated as a candidate for the bench; unsuccessful candidate for justice of the State supreme court in 1896; again elected as a Silver Republican, with the indorsement of the Democratic Party, to the Fifty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1901); resumed the practice of law in Boise, Idaho, where he died on January 3, 1915; interment in Morris Hill Cemetery.

WILSON, Edgar Campbell (son of Thomas Wilson of Virginia and father of Eugene McLanahan Wilson), a Representative from Virginia; born in Morgantown, Monongalia County, Va. (now West Virginia), October 18, 1800; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar June 24, 1832, and commenced practice in Morgantown; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-third Congress (March 4, 1833-March 3, 1835); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1834 to the Twenty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in Morgantown; was appointed prosecuting attorney in the circuit court of Marion County in 1842; died in Morgantown, Va. (now West Virginia), April 24, 1880; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.

WILSON, Emmett, a Representative from Florida; born during the temporary residence of his parents at Belize, British Honduras, Central America, September 17, 1882; moved with his parents to Chipley, Fla.; attended the public schools and Florida State College at Tallahassee; employed as a railroad telegrapher and later as a stenographer; was graduated from the law department of the John B. Stetson University at De Land in 1904; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Marianna, Fla.; moved to Pensacola in 1906 and continued the practice of law; appointed assistant United States attorney for the northern district of Florida February 1, 1907, and United States attorney for the same district October 7, 1907, holding the position until March, 1909; State's attorney for the first judicial circuit of Florida 1911-1913; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third and Sixty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1917); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1916; resumed the practice of law in Pensacola, Fla., and died there May 29, 1918; interment in St. John's Cemetery.

WILSON, Ephraim King, a Representative from Maryland; born near Snow Hill, Somerset (now Worcester) County, Md., on September 15, 1771; received instruction in private schools, and was graduated from Princeton College in 1790; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1792, and commenced practice in Snow Hill, Md.; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Jefferson and Clinton in 1804; elected as a Democrat to the Twentieth and Twenty-first Congresses (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1831); was not a candidate for renomination in 1830; engaged in the practice of his profession until his death in Snow Hill, Md., January 2, 1834; interment in the Makemie Presbyterian Churchyard.

WILSON, Ephraim King (son of the preceding), a Representative and a Senator from Maryland; born in Snow Hill, Worcester County, Md., December 22, 1821; attended Union Academy at Snow Hill and Washington Academy, Princess Anne, Md.; was graduated from Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa., in 1840; taught school for six years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1848, and commenced practice in Snow Hill, Md.; member of the State house of delegates in 1847; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Pierce and King in 1852; on account of impaired health abandoned the practice of law in 1857 and retired to his farm; examiner and treasurer of the School Board of Worcester County in 1868; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1874; judge of the first judicial circuit of Maryland 1878-1884; elected as a Democrat in 1884 to the United States Senate and served from March 4, 1885, until his death; had been reelected in 1890 for the term beginning March 4, 1891; died in Washington, D. C., February 24, 1891; interment in Makemie Presbyterian Churchyard, Snow Hill, Md.

WILSON, Eugene McLanahan (son of Edgar Campbell Wilson, grandson of Thomas Wilson of Virginia, and great-grandson of Isaac Griffin), a Representative from Minnesota; born in Morgantown, Monongalia County, Va. (now West Virginia), December 25, 1833; attended the common schools and Morgantown Academy; was graduated from Jefferson College, Canonsburg, Pa., in 1852; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1855, and commenced practice in Winona, Minn.; United States attorney for the district of Minnesota with residence in Minneapolis 1857-1861; continued the practice of law in Minneapolis; served in the Union Army during the Civil War as captain of Company A, First Minnesota Mounted Rangers; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); was not a candidate for renomination in 1870; resumed the practice of law; elected mayor of Minneapolis in 1872 and 1874; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1874 to the Forty-fourth Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1876; member of the State senate in 1878 and 1879; unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1888; died, while on a visit to regain his health, in Nassau, New Providence Island, British West Indies, April 10, 1890; interment in Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis, Minn.

WILSON, Francis Henry, a Representative from New York; born in Clinton, Oneida County, N. Y., February 11, 1844; lived in Utica, N. Y., until ten years of age, when he moved with his parents to the Westmoreland farm; attended the district school, Dwight's Preparatory School, Clinton, N. Y., and was graduated from Yale College in 1867; taught in a preparatory school four years; was graduated from the Columbia College Law School, New York City, in 1875, was admitted to the bar in 1882 and commenced practice in New York City; one of the founders of the Union League Club and its president in 1888 and 1889; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1895, to September 30, 1897, when he resigned to become postmaster; appointed postmaster of Brooklyn, N. Y., and served from October, 1897, until December, 1901; resumed the practice of law; died in Brooklyn, N. Y., September 25, 1910; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

WILSON, Frank Eugene, a Representative from New York; born in Roxbury, Delaware County, N. Y., December 22, 1857; attended the public schools and the Poughkeepsie Military Academy; was graduated from the Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, Pa., in 1882; practiced his profession in Pleasant Valley, Dutchess County, N. Y., until April, 1888; moved to Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1888 and continued the practice of medicine; senior physician, a director, and member of the board of governors of the Bushwick Hospital and visiting physician to the Swedish Hospital, both of Brooklyn, N. Y.; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth, Fifty-seventh, and Fifty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1905); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1904 to the Fifty-ninth Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Kansas City in 1900; elected to the Sixty-second and Sixty-third Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1915); was not a candidate for renomination in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; resumed the practice of medicine, and is a resident of Brooklyn, N. Y.

WILSON, George Washington, a Representative from Ohio; born in Brighton, Clark County, Ohio, February 22, 1840; attended the common schools and Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio; during the Civil War enlisted in the Ninety-fourth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry August 8, 1862; commissioned second lieutenant and later first lieutenant; first lieutenant in the First Regiment United States Veteran Volunteer Engineers July 2, 1864, and afterwards captain; mustered out October 1, 1865; studied law, was admitted to the bar August 7, 1866, and practiced in London, Ohio; prosecuting attorney of Madison County 1866-1870; member of the State house of representatives 1871-1874; served in the State senate 1877-1881; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1897); resumed the practice of law in London, Madison County, Ohio; delegate to the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in 1896; mayor of New London; prosecuting attorney of Madison County; died in London, Ohio, November 27, 1909; interment in Kirkwood Cemetery.

WILSON, Henry, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Dauphin, Dauphin County, Pa., in 1778; completed preparatory studies; studied law in Harrisburg, Pa., was admitted to the bar in 1812, and commenced practice in Allentown, Pa.; prothonotary and clerk of Lehigh County courts 1815-1821; elected to the Eighteenth and Nineteenth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1823, until his death in Allentown, Pa., August 14, 1826; interment in the Union Cemetery.

WILSON, Henry, a Senator from Massachusetts and a Vice President of the United States; born in Farmington, N. H., February 16, 1812; worked on a farm; attended the common schools; his parents' name was Colbath, and his name was Jeremiah Jones Colbath until he was twenty-one years of age, when he had it changed by the legislature to Henry Wilson; moved to Natick, Mass., in 1838 and learned the shoemaker's trade; traveled in the South in 1836; returned to New Hampshire and attended the Strafford, Wolfboro, and Concord Academies for short periods; taught school in Natick, Mass., where he later engaged in the manufacture of shoes; member of the State house of representatives in 1841 and 1842; served in the State senate 1844-1846 and 1850-1852, and was president of that body in 1851 and 1852; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Philadelphia in 1848, but withdrew from the party on its rejection of the antislavery resolutions; owner and editor of the Boston Republican 1849-1851; delegate to the Free-Soll National Convention at Pittsburgh in 1852 and served as president; unsuccessful candidate on the Free-Soll ticket for election in 1852 to the Thirty-third Congress; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1853; unsuccessful Free-Soll candidate for Governor of Massachusetts in 1853; elected to the United States Senate by a coalition of Free-Sollers, Americans, and Democrats to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Edward Everett; reelected in 1859, 1865, and 1871, and served from January 31, 1855, to March 3, 1873, when he resigned to become Vice President; in 1861 he raised and commanded for a time the Twenty-second Regiment Massachusetts Volunteer Infantry; elected Vice President of the United States on the Republican ticket with President Ulysses S. Grant, and served from March 4, 1873, until his death in the Capitol Building at Washington, D. C., November 22, 1875; interment in Old Dell Park Cemetery, Natick, Mass.

WILSON, Isaac, a Representative from New York; born in Middlebury, Vt., June 25, 1780; served in the War of 1812 as captain of Cavalry; moved to Genesee County, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1816 and 1817; served in the State senate 1818-1821; judge of the Genesee County court from May 9, 1821, to February 10, 1823; presented credentials as a Member elect to the Eighteenth Congress, and served from March 4, 1823, to January 7, 1824, when he was succeeded by Parmenio Adams, who contested his election; again judge of the Genesee County court from February 2, 1830, to January 23, 1836; moved to Batavia, Kane County, Ill.; appointed postmaster of Batavia on February 6, 1841, and served until July 21, 1843, when his successor was appointed; died in Batavia, Ill., October 25, 1848; interment in East Batavia Cemetery.

WILSON, James, a Delegate from Pennsylvania; born in Carakero, near St. Andrews, Scotland, September 14, 1742; attended the Universities of St. Andrews, Glasgow, and Edinburgh; emigrated to the United States in 1765; resided in New York City until 1768, when he moved to Philadelphia, Pa.; tutor in the College of Philadelphia (now the University of Pennsylvania); studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1767; practiced in Reading and Carlisle, Pa., and for a short time, during Howe's occupation of Philadelphia, in Annapolis, Md.; also engaged in literary pursuits; Member of the Continental Congress 1775, 1776, 1782, 1783, and 1785-1787; active in pre-Revolutionary movements; chosen colonel of the Fourth Battalion of Associators in 1775; advocate general for France in America and guided that country's legal relations to the Confederation; member of the board of war; brigadier general of the State militia; a signer of the Declaration of Independence; delegate from Pennsylvania to the convention which framed the Federal Constitution; delegate to the State convention which adopted it; settled in Philadelphia in 1778 and resumed the practice of law; suggested and outlined the first financial system in 1780; Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court 1789-1798; first professor of law in the College of Philadelphia in 1790 and in the University of Pennsylvania when they were united in 1791; died in Edenton, N. C., August 28, 1798; interment in the Johnston burial ground on the Hayes plantation near Edenton, N. C.; reinterment in Christ Church-yard, Philadelphia, Pa., in 1906.

WILSON, James, a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Peterboro, N. H., August 16, 1796; attended Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., and was graduated from Harvard University in 1789; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1792, and commenced the practice of his profession in Peterboro, N. H.; member of the State house of representatives 1803-1808 and 1812-1814; elected as a Federalist to the Eleventh Congress (March 4, 1809-March 3, 1811); was not a candidate for renomination in 1810; resumed the practice of law; moved to Keene, Cheshire County, N. H., in 1815 and continued the practice of law; died in Keene, N. H., January 4, 1839; interment in Woodland Cemetery.

WILSON, James (son of the preceding), a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Peterboro, N. H., March 18, 1797; attended the academies at New Ipswich, Atkinson, and Exeter; moved with his parents to Keene, N. H., in 1815; was graduated from Middlebury College in 1820; member of the State militia 1820-1840 and successively promoted from captain to major general; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1823, and commenced practice in Keene, Cheshire County, N. H.; member of the State house of representatives 1825-1837, 1840, and 1846, and served as speaker in 1828; unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1835 and 1838; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Harrisburg, Pa., in 1840; surveyor general of public lands in the Territories of Wisconsin and Iowa 1841-1845; elected as a Whig to the Thirtieth and Thirty-first Congresses, and served from March 4, 1847, to September 9, 1850, when he resigned; appointed one of the commissioners to settle private land claims in California in 1851 and served until 1853; settled in San Francisco and remained there until 1897, when he returned to Keene, N. H.; offered a brigadier general's commission by President Lincoln during the Civil War, but declined on account of his age; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1871 and 1872; died in Keene, N. H., May 29, 1881; interment in Woodland Cemetery.

WILSON, James, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Millerstown (now Fairfield), Pa., April 28, 1779; attended the common schools; learned the trade of a cabinet-maker; engaged in mercantile pursuits and also interested in the real-estate business; justice of the peace 1811-1822; elected as a Democrat to the Eighteenth, Nineteenth, and Twentieth Congresses (March 4, 1823-March 3, 1829); again a justice of the peace 1830-1850; engaged in the real-estate business; died in Gettysburg, Adams County, Pa., July 19, 1868; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

WILSON, James (father of John Lockwood Wilson), a Representative from Indiana; born in Crawfordsville, Montgomery County, Ind., April 9, 1825; was graduated from Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Ind., in 1842; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1848, and commenced practice in Crawfordsville, Ind., the same year; served in the Mexican War from June 17, 1840, to June 10, 1847; during the Civil War was appointed captain of Volunteers November 26, 1862, and honorably discharged December 6, 1865, as brevet lieutenant colonel; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1861); minister to Venezuela from 1866 until his death in Caracas, Venezuela, August 8, 1867; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery, Crawfordsville, Ind.

WILSON, James, a Representative from Iowa; born on a farm in Ayrshire, Scotland, August 10, 1835; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Norwich, Conn., in 1852; moved to Iowa in 1855 and located in Traer, Tama County; attended the public schools and Grinnell (Iowa) College; engaged in agricultural pursuits; taught school; member of the State house of representatives 1867-1871; served as speaker of the house in 1870 and 1871; regent of the State university 1870-1874; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third and Forty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1877); member of the Iowa Railway Commission 1878-1883; presented credentials as a Member elect to the Forty-eighth Congress, and served from March 4, 1883, until the closing day, March 3, 1885, when he was succeeded by Benjamin T. Frederick, who contested his election; director of the agricultural experiment station and professor of agriculture in the Iowa Agricultural College at Ames 1891-1897; was Secretary of Agriculture in the Cabinets of Presidents McKinley, Roosevelt, and Taft, and served from March 5, 1897, to March 3, 1913; editor of the Agricultural Digest; died in Traer, Iowa, August 26, 1920; interment in Buckingham Cemetery, Traer, Iowa.

WILSON, James Clifton, a Representative from Texas; born in Palo Pinto, Palo Pinto County, Tex., June 21, 1874; attended the public schools and Weatherford College, Weatherford, Tex.; was graduated from the law department of the University of Texas at Austin in 1896; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Weatherford, Tex.; assistant prosecuting attorney of Parker County 1898-1900 and prosecuting attorney for the same county 1902-1908; chairman of the Democratic county executive committee 1908-1912; moved to Fort Worth in November, 1912; United States attorney for the northern district of Texas from July, 1913, to March, 1917; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fifth and Sixty-sixth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1917, to March 13, 1919, when he resigned to accept a judicial position; appointed United States district judge for the northern district of Texas on March 5, 1919, in which capacity he is now serving; is a resident of Fort Worth, Tex.

WILSON, James Falconer, a Representative and a Senator from Iowa; born in Newark, Licking County, Ohio, October 19, 1823; pursued an academic course; apprenticed to the harness maker's trade 1841-1850; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1851, and practiced in Newark, Ohio, 1851-1853; moved to Fairfield, Jefferson County, Iowa, in 1853 and resumed the practice of law; member of the constitutional convention of Iowa in 1856; member of the State house of representatives in 1857 and 1859; served in the State senate 1859-1861 and was president in 1861; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1860; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Samuel R. Curtis; reelected as a Republican to the Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, and Fortieth Congresses, and served from December 2, 1861, to March 3, 1869; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1868; one of the managers appointed by the House of Representatives in 1868 to conduct the impeachment proceedings against Andrew Johnson, President of the United States; was tendered the position of Secretary of State in the Cabinet of President Grant, which he declined, and was subsequently appointed by President Grant as Government director of the Union Pacific Railroad and served eight years; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate on January 10, 1882; reelected in 1889, and served from March 4, 1883, to March 3, 1895; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1895; died in Fairfield, Iowa, April 22, 1895; interment in Fairfield-Evergreen Cemetery.

WILSON, James Jefferson, a Senator from New Jersey; born in Essex County, N. J., in 1775; attended the common schools; editor and publisher of the True American of Trenton 1801-1824; clerk in the State general assembly in 1804; judge advocate and captain, Hunterdon Brigade, New Jersey Militia, in 1806; surrogate of Hunterdon County in 1808; member of the State general assembly 1809-1811; brigadier general and adjutant general of New Jersey in 1810; resigned November 4, 1812; reappointed brigadier general and adjutant general of New Jersey February 12, 1814; captain in the Third Regiment, Hunterdon Brigade, April 15 to May 6, 1814; captain in Maj. Isaac Andrus's detachment, New Jersey Militia, war with Great Britain, August 15, 1814; discharged September 18, 1814; resigned as adjutant general November 22, 1814; brigadier general and quartermaster general of New Jersey 1821-1824; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1815, to January 8, 1821, when he resigned; was unsuccessful candidate for reelection November 8, 1820; appointed postmaster of Trenton, N. J., in 1821, and served until his death in that city July 28, 1824; interment in the First Baptist Church Cemetery.

WILSON, Jeremiah Morrow, a Representative from Indiana; born near Lebanon, Warren County, Ohio, November 25, 1828; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; moved to Indiana and settled in Connersville and continued the practice of law; judge of the court of common pleas 1860-1865; was elected judge of the circuit court in October, 1865, and served until his election to Congress; elected as a Republican to the Forty-second and Forty-third Congresses (March 4, 1871-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for reelection in 1874; resumed the practice of his profession in Washington, D. C., where he died September 24, 1901; interment in Rock Creek Cemetery.

WILSON, John, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Peterboro, N. H., January 10, 1777; was graduated from Harvard University in 1799; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1802 at Peterboro, N. H., and commenced practice in Belfast, Me. (then a district of Massachusetts); served as a captain in the State militia; elected as a Federalist to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1815); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1814 to the Fourteenth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in Belfast; was elected to the Fifteenth Congress (March 4, 1817-March 3, 1819); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1818; engaged in the practice of law until his death in Belfast, Me., August 9, 1848; interment in Grove Cemetery.

WILSON, John, a Representative from South Carolina; born at Wilson's Ferry (now Pelzer), Anderson County, S. C., August 11, 1773; attended the common schools; engaged in agricultural pursuits in Anderson County, near Golden Grove, S. C.; also operated a public ferry across the Saluda River at what is now known as Pelzer; elected to the Seventeenth, Eighteenth, and Nineteenth Congresses (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1827); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1826 to the Twentieth Congress; died at his home near Golden Grove, in Anderson County, S. C., August 13, 1828; interment in the family cemetery on his plantation, which is now a part of the industrial city of Pelzer, Anderson County, S. C.

WILSON, John Frank, a Delegate from the Territory of Arizona; born near Pulasaki, Giles County, Tenn., May 7, 1846; moved with his parents to Alabama, attended the common schools and Rhuham College, Rhuham, Ala.; served in the Confederate Army as an aide on the staff of General Hindman until 1863, after which he served as lieutenant colonel of a regiment; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; moved from Alabama to Fayetteville, Ark., and continued the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives in 1877 and 1878; prosecuting attorney for the fourth judicial district in 1885 and 1886; moved to the Territory of Arizona; settled in Prescott in 1887, and continued the practice of law; member of the constitutional convention in 1891; probate judge of Yavapai County 1893-1896; appointed attorney general of the Territory by Governor Franklin, and served during 1896 and 1897; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1901); elected to the Fifty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1906); was not a candidate for renomination in 1900 and 1904; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Prescott, Ariz., April 7, 1911; interment in Mountain View Cemetery.

WILSON, John Haden, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Nashville, Tenn., August 20, 1867; moved with his parents to Harmony, Butler County, Pa., the same year; attended the public schools; was graduated from Grove City College, Grove City, Pa., in 1891; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in Butler, Pa., in 1893; taught school; commenced the practice of law in Butler in 1896; member of Pennsylvania National Guard for three years and served during the Homestead riots; was solicitor for the city of Butler 1896-1927, except while a Member of Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1916; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Representative-elect Edward E. Robins, and served from March 4, 1919, to March 3, 1921; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1920 to the Sixty-seventh Congress; resumed the practice of his profession, and is a resident of Butler, Pa.

WILSON, John Henry, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Crab Orchard, Lincoln County, Ky., January 30, 1846; pursued preparatory studies; was graduated from Tusculum College, Greeneville, Tenn., in June, 1870; studied law, was admitted to the bar in September, 1871; and commenced practice in Barbourville, Knox County, Ky.; was also greatly interested in agricultural pursuits and the construction of the Dixie Highway; member of the State senate 1883-1887; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first and Fifty-second Congresses (March 4, 1889-March 3, 1893); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in Barbourville, Ky.; died at the home of his daughter in Louisville, Ky., January 14, 1923; interment in Barbourville Cemetery.

WILSON, John Lockwood (son of James Wilson of Indiana), a Representative and a Senator from Washington; born in Crawfordsville, Montgomery County, Ind., August 7, 1850; attended the common schools; messenger on the staff of Col. James Wilson during the Civil War; was graduated from Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Ind., in 1874; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1878, and commenced practice in Crawfordsville; member of the Indiana House of Representatives in 1880; appointed by President Arthur receiver of public moneys at Spokane Falls and Colfax in 1882 and served until 1887; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1888; upon the admission of Washington as a State into the Union was elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first Congress; reelected to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses, and served from November 20, 1889, to February 18, 1895, when he resigned to become Senator; elected to the United States Senate on February 1, 1895, to fill the vacancy in the term commencing March 4, 1893, but did not assume his senatorial duties until February 19, 1895; served until March 3, 1899; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1899; engaged in the publication of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, Seattle, Wash.; died in Washington, D. C., November 6, 1912; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery, Crawfordsville, Ind.

WILSON, John Thomas, a Representative from Ohio; born in Bell, Highland County, Ohio, on April 16, 1811; received a limited schooling; engaged in mercantile and agricultural pursuits; during the Civil War was appointed first lieutenant of Company E, Seventieth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry, November 2, 1861, and was discharged as captain November 27, 1862, on account of age and ill health; member of the State senate 1863-1866; elected as a Republican to the Fortieth, Forty-first, and Forty-second Congresses (March 4, 1867-March 3, 1873); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1872 to the Forty-third Congress; engaged in the handling of loans and mortgages; died in Tranquillity (near what is now known as Seaman), Adams County, Ohio, October 6, 1891; interment in Tranquillity Cemetery.

WILSON, Joseph Gardner (cousin of James Willis Nesmith), a Representative from Oregon; born in Acworth, Sullivan County, N. H., December 13, 1820; moved with his parents to Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1828 and later to a farm near Reading, Hamilton County; attended the district schools until 1840 and Cary's Academy from 1840 to 1842; was graduated from Marietta (Ohio) College in 1846; professor in Farmer's College, near Cincinnati, in 1849; traveled through New England during 1850; was graduated from the Cincinnati Law School in 1852 and was admitted to the bar; moved to Oregon Territory in 1852 and commenced the practice of law in Salem, Oreg.; clerk of the Territorial legislature in 1853; first secretary of the Willamette Woolen Co. when it was established in 1854; prosecuting attorney of Marion County 1860-1862; associate judge of the State supreme court 1864-1866 and 1868-1870; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1870 to the Forty-second Congress; resumed the practice of his profession; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress, and served from March 4, 1873, until his death in Marietta, Washington County, Ohio, July 2, 1873; interment in Mound Cemetery; reinterment in Pioneer Cemetery, The Dalles, Oreg.

WILSON, Nathan, a Representative from New York; born near Greenwich, Hampshire County, Mass., December 23, 1759; attended school at Greenwich; moved to New Perth (now Salem), N. Y.; enlisted as a private in the Sixteenth Regiment Albany County Militia; appointed by Gov. George Clinton in 1791 adjutant in Washington County Militia Regiment; town collector in 1801 and 1802; sheriff of Washington County 1802-1806; elected as a Democrat to the Tenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of David Thomas, and served from June 3, 1808, to March 3, 1809; justice of the peace 1808-1816; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died near Salem, Washington County, N. Y., July 25, 1834; interment on his farm; reinterment in Evergreen Cemetery, Salem, N. Y.

WILSON, Riley Joseph, a Representative from Louisiana; born near Goldonna, Winn Parish, La., on November 12, 1871; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Iuka (Miss.) College in 1894; principal of Harrisonburg High School 1895-1897; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1898, and commenced practice in Harrisonburg, La.; member of the State constitutional convention in 1898; edited the Catahoula News 1898-1904; member of the State house of representatives from 1900 to 1904; district attorney of the eighth judicial district from December 1, 1904, until his resignation on May 1, 1910, to accept a judicial appointment; judge of the eighth judicial district from May 1, 1910, until his resignation on December 1, 1914, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fourth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1927); delegate to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco in 1920. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WILSON, Robert, a Senator from Missouri; born near Staunton, Va., in November, 1803; moved to Howard County, Mo., in 1820; taught school; probate judge of Howard County in 1825; clerk of the circuit and county courts 1829-1840; appointed brigadier general of the State forces in 1837 and served during the so-called Mormon war; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in 1840; moved to Huntsville, Mo.; member of the State house of representatives in 1844; moved to Andrew County, Mo., in 1852; served in the State senate in 1854; chosen as a Union delegate to the State convention called to determine the attitude on secession in 1861 and elected vice president of the convention, later acting as president; appointed as a Unionist to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the expulsion of Waldo P. Johnson, and served from January 17, 1862, to November 18, 1863, when a successor was elected; engaged in agricultural pursuits; died in Marshall, Saline County, Mo., May 10, 1879; interment in Mount Mora Cemetery, St. Joseph, Mo.

WILSON, Robert Patterson Clark, a Representative from Missouri; born in Boonville, Cooper County, Mo., August 8, 1834; moved with his parents to Platte County; attended William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo., and was graduated from Centre College, Danville, Ky., in 1853; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1854, and commenced practice in Seguin, Tex., in 1855; returned to Missouri in 1858; moved to Leavenworth, Kans., in 1860; was a member of the first State House of Representatives of Kansas from March to June 4, 1861; returned to Missouri in 1861; member of the State House of Representatives of Missouri in 1871 and 1872, and served as speaker both years; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Greeley and Brown in 1872; member of the State senate in 1879 and 1880; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1888; president of the school board of Platte City, Mo.; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-first Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James N. Burnes; reelected to the Fifty-second Congress, and served from December 2, 1889, to March 3, 1893; resumed the practice of his profession in Platte City, Platte County, Mo.; died in Kansas City, Mo., December 21, 1916; interment in Marshall Cemetery, Platte City, Mo.

WILSON, Stanyarne, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Yorkville (now York), S. C., January 10, 1860; attended Kings Mountain Military School and Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va.; studied law, and was admitted to the bar by an act of the legislature in 1880, then being a minor; settled in Spartanburg, Spartanburg County, S. C., in 1881; practiced law and was also interested in cotton manufactures, gold mining, iron works, and agriculture; member of the State house of representatives 1884-1886 and 1890-1892; served in the State senate 1892-1895; member State constitutional convention in 1895; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fourth, Fifty-fifth, and Fifty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1901); continued the practice of law in Spartanburg, S. C., and later in Richmond, Va., where he moved in 1913; returned to Spartanburg, S. C., in January, 1928, and died there February 14, 1928; interment in the Church of the Advent Cemetery.

WILSON, Stephen Fowler, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Columbia, Pa., September 4, 1821; received an academic education; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; held several local offices; member of the State senate 1863-1865, and served one session after he had been elected a Representative to Congress; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Baltimore in 1864; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congresses (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1869); appointed additional judge of the fourth judicial district of Pennsylvania in 1871 to fill a vacancy; elected additional judge and served ten years; appointed associate justice of the Supreme Court of the Territory of New Mexico by President Arthur on October 16, 1884; president judge of the fourth judicial district of Pennsylvania from 1887 to 1889; resumed the practice of his profession in Wellsboro, Tioga County, Pa., where he died March 30, 1897; interment in Wellsboro Cemetery.

WILSON, Thomas (father of Edgar Campbell Wilson and grandfather of Eugene McLanahan Wilson), a Representative from Virginia; born in Staunton, Va., September 11, 1765; studied law in Staunton, Va., was admitted to the bar September 21, 1789, and commenced practice in Morgantown, Va. (now West Virginia); member of the State senate 1792-1795; served in the State house of delegates in 1799 and 1800; again a member of the State senate 1800-1804; elected as a Federalist to the Twelfth Congress (March 4, 1811-March 3, 1813); again a member of the State house of delegates in 1816 and 1817; resumed the practice of law; died in Morgantown, Va., January 24, 1826; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.

WILSON, Thomas, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Sunbury, Northumberland County, Pa., in 1772; attended the common schools; had the contract for supplying the western forts of the United States from Niagara to New Orleans; engaged in shipbuilding in Erie, Pa., in 1805; built vessels for commerce on the Great Lakes; Burgess of Erie in 1807; town clerk in 1808; treasurer of Erie County 1809-1812; county commissioner in 1811; justice of the peace; elected as a Democrat to the Thirteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Abner Lacock; reelected to the Fourteenth Congress, and served from May 4, 1813, to March 3, 1817; member of the State house of representatives 1817-1820; prothonotary and clerk of court of Erie County 1819-1824; died in Erie, Pa., October 4, 1824.

WILSON, Thomas, a Representative from Minnesota; born in Dungannon, County Tyrone, Ireland, May 16, 1827; attended the common schools; emigrated to the United States in 1839 with his parents, who settled in Venango County, Pa.; was graduated from Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., in 1852; studied law, was admitted to the bar in February, 1855, and commenced practice in Winona, Minn.; member of the Minnesota Constitutional Convention in 1857; judge of the third judicial district court 1857-1864; associate justice of the Supreme Court of Minnesota in 1864; chief justice from 1864 to July, 1869, when he resigned; resumed the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives 1880-1882; served in the State senate 1882-1885; elected as a Democrat to the Fiftieth Congress (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1889); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1890; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1892; general counsel for the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha Railroad until his death in St. Paul, Minn., April 3, 1910; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, Winona, Minn.

WILSON, Thomas Webber, a Representative from Mississippi; born in Coldwater, Tate County, Miss., January 24, 1833; attended the public schools of his native city; was graduated from the law department of the University of Mississippi at Oxford in 1913; was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced the practice of law in Laurel, Miss.; prosecuting attorney of Jones County 1915-1919; district attorney for the twelfth judicial district of Mississippi 1919-1923; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WILSON, William, a Representative from Pennsylvania; was elected to the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Congresses (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1819).

WILSON, William, a Representative from Ohio; born in New Boston, Hillsboro County, N. H., March 19, 1773; attended the public schools, and was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1797; studied law in Johnstown, N. Y., and was admitted to the bar; moved to Ohio and settled in Chillicothe about 1805; engaged in the practice of law; moved to Newark, Ohio, in 1808, having been appointed chief judge of the court of common pleas, and served until 1823; elected to the Eighteenth, Nineteenth, and Twentieth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1823, until his death in Newark, Licking County, Ohio, June 6, 1827; interment in the Old Cemetery; reinterment on March 23, 1858, in Cedar Hill Cemetery.

WILSON, William Bauchop, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Blantyre, Scotland, April 2, 1862; emigrated to this country with his parents, who settled in Arnot, Tioga County, Pa., in 1870; attended the common schools; engaged in coal mining 1871-1898; international secretary-treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America 1900-1908; elected as a Democrat to the Sixtieth, Sixty-first, and Sixty-second Congresses (March 4, 1907-March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1912 to the Sixty-third Congress and for election in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; appointed Secretary of Labor in the Cabinet of President Wilson, and served from March 5, 1913, to March 5, 1921; member of the Federal Board for Vocational Education 1914-1921 and chairman of the board in 1920 and 1921; appointed on March 4, 1921, a member of the International Joint Commission, created to prevent disputes regarding the use of the boundary waters between the United States and Canada, and served until March 21, 1921, when he resigned; unsuccessful candidate for election to the United States Senate in 1920; engaged in mining and agricultural pursuits; is a resident of Blossburg, Pa.

WILSON, William Edward, a Representative from Indiana; born in Mount Vernon, Posey County, Ind., March 9, 1870; attended the public schools and the Evansville Commercial College; was connected with this college as teacher, principal, and owner from 1888 to 1904; retired from school work and engaged in the insurance business at Evansville, Ind.; deputy auditor of Vanderburg County, Ind., 1910-1912; clerk of the circuit court of Vanderburg County 1912-1920; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1920 to the Sixty-seventh Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1925); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1924 to the Sixty-ninth Congress; became engaged in banking, and is a resident of Evansville, Ind.

WILSON, William Lyne, a Representative from West Virginia; born near Charles Town, Jefferson County, Va. (now West Virginia), May 3, 1843; attended Charles Town Academy, and was graduated from Columbian College (now George Washington University), Washington, D. C., in 1860, and subsequently studied in the University of Virginia at Charlottesville; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army as a private in the Twelfth Virginia Cavalry; for several years professor in Columbian College, during which time he was graduated from its law school; was admitted to the bar in 1869 and commenced practice in Charles Town, W. Va.; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Cincinnati in 1880; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Hancock and English in 1880; chosen president of the West Virginia University at Morgantown and entered upon the office September 4, 1882; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1895); Postmaster General in the Cabinet of President Cleveland, and served from April 4, 1895, to March 5, 1897; president of the Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va.; died in Lexington, Rockbridge County, Va., October 17, 1900; interment in Edgehill Cemetery, Charles Town, W. Va.

WILSON, William Warfield, a Representative from Illinois; born in Ohio, Bureau County, Ill., March 2, 1808; attended the public schools of Ohio, Ill., and the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor; was graduated from the Chicago-Kent College of Law in 1838; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Chicago, Ill.; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for election in 1912 to the Sixty-third Congress; elected to the Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, and Sixty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1921); was not a candidate for renomination in 1920; appointed general counsel of the Alien Property Custodian of the United States in 1922, in which capacity he served until 1927; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Chicago, Ill.

WINANS, Edwin Baruch, a Representative from Michigan; born in Avon, Livingston County, N. Y., May 10, 1826; moved with his parents to Michigan in 1834; attended Albion College, Michigan; went to California and engaged in mining on the North Yuba River, near Placerville, in 1850; worked in different parts of the State until 1857; returned to Michigan in 1858 and settled in Hamburg, Livingston County; engaged in agricultural pursuits in Livingston County; member of the State house of representatives 1861-1865; delegate to the State constitutional convention of May 15, 1867; probate judge of Livingston County 1877-1881; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1887); resumed agricultural pursuits in Livingston County, Mich.; Governor of Michigan 1891-1893; died in Hamburg, Mich., July 4, 1894; interment in Hamburg Cemetery.

WINANS, James January, a Representative from Ohio; born in Mayville, Ky., June 7, 1818; moved with his parents to Greene County, Ohio; attended the common schools and the University of Lexington, Kentucky; studied law, was admitted to the bar in Lexington, Ky., in 1841, and commenced practice in Indiana; moved to Xenia, Ohio, in 1843 and continued the practice of law; clerk of the Greene County courts 1845-1851; served in the State senate in 1857; member of the State house of representatives in 1863; judge of the court of common pleas 1864-1871; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1870 to the Forty-second Congress; resumed the practice of law; died in Xenia, Greene County, Ohio, April 28, 1879; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

WINANS, John, a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Vernon, Sussex County, N. J., September 27, 1831; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in 1855; moved to Janesville, Rock County, Wis., in 1857 and practiced his profession; member of the Board of Aldermen of Janesville in 1861; city attorney 1865-1875; member of the State assembly in 1874, 1882, 1887, and 1891; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1864; served as colonel on the staff of Governor Taylor in 1874 and 1875; mayor of Janesville 1885-1887; elected as an Independent Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); was not a candidate for renomination in 1884; engaged in the practice of law in Janesville, Wis., until his death on January 17, 1907; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

WINCHESTER, Boyd, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Ascension Parish, La., September 23, 1836; pursued preparatory studies; attended Centre College, Danville, Ky., and the University of Virginia at Charlottesville; was graduated from the law department of the University of Louisville, Kentucky, in 1857 and commenced practice in Louisville; member of the State senate in 1867 and 1868, when he resigned; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Seymour and Blair in 1868 and of Cleveland and Hendricks in 1884; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-first and Forty-second Congresses (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1873); was not a candidate for renomination in 1872; resumed the practice of law in Louisville, Ky.; president of an insurance company 1875-1877; president of the Democratic State convention in 1884; appointed minister resident and consul general to Switzerland, and served from 1885 to 1889; writer and lecturer; died in Louisville, Ky., May 18, 1923; interment in Cave Hill Cemetery.

WINDOM, William, a Representative and a Senator from Minnesota; born in Belmont County, Ohio, May 10, 1827; pursued an academic course at Martinburg, Ohio; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1850, and commenced practice in Mount Vernon, Ohio; prosecuting attorney of Knox County in 1852; moved to Winona, Winona County, Minn., in 1855; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1869); appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy in the term ending March 3, 1871; caused by the death of Daniel S. Norton until the legislature could elect a successor and served from July 15, 1870, to January 22, 1871, when a successor was elected to complete the term; elected to the United States Senate in 1871; reelected in 1877, and served from March 4, 1871, to March 7, 1881, when he resigned to accept a Cabinet portfolio; appointed Secretary of the Treasury by President Garfield on March 5, 1881, and served from March 8, 1881, until his resignation, effective November 14, 1881, having been elected Senator; reelected to the United States Senate on October 26, 1881, to fill the vacancy caused by his own resignation, and served from November 15, 1881, to March 3, 1888; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1888; moved to New York City in 1883 and practiced law; appointed Secretary of the Treasury in the Cabinet of President Benjamin Harrison on March 5, 1889, and served from March 7, 1889, until his death in New York City January 29, 1891; interment in Rock Creek Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

WINFIELD, Charles Henry, a Representative from New York; born in Crawford, N. Y., April 22, 1822; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1846, and commenced practice in Goshen, N. Y.; district attorney for Orange County 1850-1856; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-eighth and Thirty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1867); was not a candidate for renomination in 1866; resumed the practice of his profession; died in Walden, Orange County, N. Y., June 10, 1888; interment in Wallkill Valley Cemetery.

WING, Austin Eli, a Delegate from Michigan; born in Conway, Hampshire County, Mass., February 8, 1792; in early youth moved with his parents to Marietta, Ohio; attended the common schools, the academy at Chillicothe, Ohio, and Athens College, Ohio; was graduated from Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., in 1814; moved to Detroit, Mich.; elected as a Whig to the Nineteenth and Twentieth Congresses (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1829); moved to Monroe, Mich.; elected to the Twenty-second Congress (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1833); affiliated with the Whig Party after its formation; member of the State house of representatives in 1842; member of the board of regents of the University of Michigan 1845-1850; appointed United States marshal for the district of Michigan on February 24, 1846, and served until 1849; died in Cleveland, Ohio, August 27, 1849; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, Monroe, Mich.

WINGATE, Joseph F., a Representative from Maine; born in Maine (until 1820 a district of Massachusetts) June 29, 1786; received a limited schooling; engaged in mercantile pursuits in Bath, Me.; member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives in 1818 and 1819; collector of customs at the port of Bath 1820-1824; elected as a Democrat to the Twentieth and Twenty-first Congresses (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1831); moved to Windsor, Me., where he died.

WINGATE, Paine, a Delegate, a Senator, and a Representative from New Hampshire; born in Amesbury, Mass., May 14, 1789; was graduated from Harvard College in 1789; studied theology, and was ordained a minister of the Congregational Church at Hampton Falls, Rockingham County, N. H., December 14, 1793, and held a pastorate in that town until 1770; moved to Stratham, N. H., in 1776 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State constitutional convention in 1781; served in the State house of representatives in 1783; Member of the Continental Congress in 1787 and 1788; elected as a Federalist to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1789, to March 3, 1793; elected to the Third Congress (March 4, 1793-March 3, 1795); again a member of the State house of representatives in 1795; judge of the Superior Court of New Hampshire 1798-1809; withdrew from political life and resumed agricultural pursuits; died in Stratham, Rockingham County, N. H., March 7, 1838; interment in Stratham Cemetery.

WINGO, Otis Theodore, a Representative from Arkansas; born in Weakley County, Tenn., June 18, 1877; attended the public schools, Bethel College at McKenzie, Tenn., McFerrin College at Martin, Tenn., and Valparaiso (Ind.) University; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1900, and commenced practice in De Queen, Sevier County, Ark.; member of the State senate 1907-1909; resumed the practice of his profession in De Queen, Ark.; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-third and to the six succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WINN, Richard, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Fauquier County, Va., in 1750; attended the common schools; moved to Georgia and thence to South Carolina in 1788; served as a clerk in a countinghouse; engaged in cotton buying and other mercantile pursuits, and was a land surveyor; entered the Revolutionary Army as a Lieutenant and attained the rank of colonel of State militia; after the war was promoted to the rank of major general of militia; appointed superintendent of Indian affairs for the Creek Nation in 1788; elected as a Democrat to the Third and Fourth Congresses (March 4, 1793-March 3, 1797); elected to the Seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas Sumter; reelected to the Eighth and to the four succeeding Congresses, and served from January 24, 1803, to March 3, 1813; moved to Tennessee in 1813; became a planter, and continued in the mercantile business until his death on his plantation at Duck River, Maury County, Tenn., December 19, 1818; interment at Willsboro, S. C.

WINN, Thomas Elisha, a Representative from Georgia; born near Athens, Clarke County, Ga., May 21, 1839; attended Carrollton (Ga.) Masonic Institute, and was graduated from Emory and Henry College, Emory, Va., in 1860; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1861, and commenced practice in Alpharetta, Milton County, Ga.; solicitor of the county court of Milton County; during the Civil War entered the Confederate Army as a first lieutenant in 1861; was soon promoted to captain, afterwards major, and finally lieutenant colonel, Twenty-fourth Regiment Georgia Infantry, and served with Lee's army until the close of the Civil War; engaged in agricultural pursuits in 1868; county school commissioner of Gwinnett County from 1876 to 1890, when he resigned; elected as an Alliance Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1893); did not seek renomination in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress because of impaired health; resumed agricultural pursuits in Greene County, Ga.; died in Atlanta, Ga., on June 5, 1925; interment in Ridge Grove Cemetery, near Greensboro, Greene County, Ga.

WINSLOW, Samuel Ellsworth, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Worcester, Worcester County, Mass., April 11, 1862; attended the public schools; was graduated from the Worcester Classical High School in 1880, from the Williston Seminary, Easthampton, Mass., in 1881, and from Harvard University in 1885; engaged in the manufacturing of skates; appointed a colonel on the staff of Governor Brackett in 1890; chairman of the Republican city committee of Worcester 1890-1892; chairman of the Republican State committee in 1893 and 1894; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1908 which nominated William H. Taft, of Ohio, for President and James S. Sherman, of New York, for Vice President; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-third and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1925); was not a candidate for renomination in 1924; appointed by President Coolidge in 1926 a member of the Board of Mediation, for the disposition of disputes between carriers and their employees, and was subsequently chosen chairman thereof, in which capacity he is now serving; is located in Washington, D. C.

WINSLOW, Warren, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Fayetteville, Cumberland County, N. C., January 1, 1810; was graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1827; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Fayetteville; member of the State senate, and served as speaker; Acting Governor of North Carolina in December, 1854; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1891); died in Fayetteville, N. C., August 16, 1862; interment in Cross Creek Cemetery.

WINSTON, Joseph, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Louisa County, Va., June 17, 1740; moved in 1766 to that part of Rowan County which later became Stokes County, N. C.; participated in expeditions against hostile frontier Indians; member of the Hillsboro convention in 1775; member of the commission that concluded a treaty with the Cherokees in 1777; appointed entry taker for Surry County in 1778; chief ranger of Surry County; served as major in the Revolutionary Army; commanded the right wing at the Battle of Kings Mountain in October, 1780, and was presented with a sword by the Legislature of North Carolina for his gallantry there; member of the State senate in 1790, 1791, 1802, 1807, and 1812; elected to the Third Congress (March 4, 1793-March 3, 1795); presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Jefferson and Burr in 1800; reelected to the Eighth and Ninth Congresses (March 4, 1803-March 3, 1807); died near Germanton, Stokes County, N. C., April 21, 1815; interment in the family burial ground near Germanton; reinterment on Guilford Battle Grounds, N. C.

WINTER, Charles Edwin, a Representative from Wyoming; born in Muscatine, Muscatine County, Iowa, September 13, 1870; attended the public schools and Iowa Wesleyan University at Mount Pleasant; was graduated from the Nebraska Wesleyan University at Lincoln in 1892; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1896, and commenced practice in Omaha, Nebr., the same year; moved to Encampment, Carbon County, Wyo., in 1902, and to Casper, Natrona County, Wyo., in 1903; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1908; judge of the sixth judicial district of Wyoming 1913-1919; chairman of the Liberty Loan Committee and Council of National Defense of Natrona County during the World War; resigned from the bench and resumed the practice of law at Casper, Wyo.; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

WINTER, Elsha I., a Representative from New York; born in New York City, July 15, 1781; moved about 1806 to that portion of the township of Peru, Clinton County, which is now included in the township of Ansable; was elected as a Federalist to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1813–March 3, 1815); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1814 to the Fourteenth Congress; moved to Kentucky, where he was instrumental in building the first railroad in that locality, and subsequently became president of the Lexington & Ohio Railroad; died in Lexington, Fayette County, Ky., June 30, 1849; interment in Lexington Cemetery.

WINTHROP, Robert Charles, a Representative and a Senator from Massachusetts; born in Boston, Mass., on May 12, 1809; attended Roxbury High School, and was graduated from Harvard University in 1828; studied law with Daniel Webster, was admitted to the bar in 1831, and practiced in Boston; member of the State house of representatives 1835–1840, and served as speaker 1838–1840; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Abbott Lawrence; reelected to the Twenty-seventh Congress, and served from November 9, 1840, to May 25, 1842, when he resigned; subsequently reelected to the Twenty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of his successor, Nathan Appleton; reelected to the Twenty-eighth and to the three succeeding Congresses, and served from November 29, 1842, to July 30, 1850, when he again resigned to become Senator; was Speaker of the House of Representatives during the Thirtieth Congress and a portion of the Thirty-first; appointed to the United States Senate on July 27, 1850, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Daniel Webster, and served from July 30, 1850, to February 1, 1851, when a successor was elected; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1851; was an unsuccessful candidate for Governor of Massachusetts the same year; was presidential elector on the Whig ticket of Scott and Graham in 1852; engaged in literary, historical, and philanthropic pursuits; died in Boston, Mass., November 13, 1894; interment in Mount Auburn Cemetery, Cambridge, Middlesex County, Mass.

WISE, George Douglas (cousin of John Sergeant Wise and Richard Alsop Wise and nephew of Henry Alexander Wise), a Representative from Virginia; born at "Deep Creek," the Wise estate in Accomac County, near Onancock, Va., June 4, 1831; was graduated from Indiana University at Bloomington; studied law in William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Richmond, Henrico County, Va.; captain in the Confederate Army during the Civil War; Commonwealth attorney of the city of Richmond from 1870 to 1889, when he resigned; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth, and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1881–March 3, 1889); presented credentials as a Member elect to the Fifty-first Congress, and served from March 4, 1889, to April 10, 1890, when he was succeeded by Edmund Waddill, Jr., who contested his election; elected to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891–March 3, 1895); died in Richmond, Va., February 4, 1898; interment in Hollywood Cemetery.

WISE, Henry Alexander (father of John Sergeant Wise and Richard Alsop Wise and uncle of George Douglas Wise), a Representative from Virginia; born in Drummondtown, Accomac County, Va., December 3, 1806; was privately tutored until his twelfth year and then entered Margaret Academy, near Pungoteague, Accomac County; was graduated from Washington College, Pennsylvania, in 1825; studied law in Winchester, Va., was admitted to the bar in 1828, and commenced practice in Nashville, Davidson County, Tenn.; returned to Virginia in 1830; held several local offices; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Congresses, as a Whig to the Twenty-fifth, Twenty-sixth, and Twenty-seventh Congresses, and as a Tyler Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress, and served from March 4, 1833, until his resignation on February 12, 1844; declined the portfolio of the Navy in the Cabinet of President Tyler in 1841; was appointed minister to France in 1843, but was not confirmed; minister to Brazil 1844–1847; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cass and Butler in 1848; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1850; was presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Pierce and King in 1852; Governor of Virginia 1856–1860; served in the Confederate Army during the Civil War; resumed the practice of law in Richmond, Henrico County, Va.; served on the commission to fix the boundary line between Virginia and Maryland; died in Richmond, Va., September 12, 1876; interment in Hollywood Cemetery.

WISE, James Walter, a Representative from Georgia; born near McDonough, Henry County, Ga., March 8, 1868; attended the common schools; studied law at Emory College, Oxford, Ga., was admitted to the bar in 1892, and commenced practice in Fayetteville, Fayette County, Ga., in January, 1893; member of the State house of representatives 1902–1908; was mayor of Fayetteville 1904–1906; solicitor general of the Flint judicial circuit 1908–1912; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fourth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1915–March 3, 1925); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1924; owing to prolonged illness was unable to qualify in or attend during the Sixty-eighth Congress; died in Atlanta, Fulton County, Ga., on September 8, 1925; interment in McDonough Cemetery, McDonough, Ga.

WISE, John Sergeant (son of Henry Alexander Wise, grandson of John Sergeant, brother of Richard Alsop Wise, and cousin of George Douglas Wise), a Representative from Virginia; born in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, on December 27, 1846, while his father was United States minister to that country; attended preparatory schools in Goochland and Princess Anne Counties, Va., and the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington in 1862; participated with the institute cadets in the Battle of New Market during the Civil War and was slightly wounded; subsequently became lieutenant in the Confederate Army; was graduated from the law department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1867; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Richmond, in Henrico County, Va.; United States attorney for the eastern district of Virginia from May, 1882, to March, 1888, when he resigned, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Readjuster to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883–March 3, 1885); was not a candidate for renomination in 1884; unsuccessful Republican candidate for Governor of Virginia in 1885; moved to New York City and engaged in the practice of his profession; died at the summer home of his son, near Princess Anne, Somerset County, Md., May 12, 1913; interment in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Va.

WISE, Morgan Ringland, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in West Bethlehem, Washington County, Pa., June 7, 1825; attended the public schools; taught school; crossed the plains and engaged in gold mining in California in 1850; while there volunteered, under Major Stammins, to defend the miners against the depredations of the Indians; returned to Pennsylvania, and was graduated from Waynesburg College, Pennsylvania, in 1856; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives from 1874 to 1878; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1883); was not a candidate for re-election in 1882; moved to Arizona and engaged in cattle raising; consular agent at Nogales, Mexico, from February 20, 1888, to May 31, 1900; died in Coraopolis, Allegheny County, Pa., April 13, 1903; interment in Greenmount Cemetery, Waynesburg, Greene County, Pa.

WISE, Richard Alsop (son of Henry Alexander Wise, grandson of John Sergeant, brother of John Sergeant Wise, and cousin of George Douglas Wise), a Representative from Virginia; born in Philadelphia, Pa., September 2, 1843; attended private schools in Richmond, Va., Harrison's Academy, Albemarle County, Va., and William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va., for two years; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army as a private in Stuart's cavalry and as assistant inspector general of Wise's brigade, Army of Northern Virginia; was graduated in medicine from the Medical College of Virginia in 1867 and practiced; professor in William and Mary College 1869-1881; delegate to all the Republican State conventions from 1879 to 1900; superintendent of the Eastern Lunatic Asylum of Virginia 1882-1885; member of the State house of delegates 1885-1887; clerk of the circuit and county courts of the city of Williamsburg and county of James City 1888-1894; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Minneapolis in 1892, at St. Louis in 1896, and at Philadelphia in 1900; successfully contested as a Republican the election of William A. Young to the Fifty-fifth Congress, and served from April 28, 1898, to March 3, 1899; was again successful in contesting the election of William A. Young to the Fifty-sixth Congress, and served from March 12, 1900, until his death in Williamsburg, James City County, Va., on December 21, 1900; interment in Hollywood Cemetery, Richmond, Henrico County, Va.

WISNER, Henry, a Delegate from New York; born near Florida, Orange County, N. Y., in 1720; completed academic studies; invested in real estate and built a gristmill near Goshen, N. Y.; assistant justice of the court of common pleas; member of the colonial assembly 1759-1769; delegate to the New York provincial convention in 1775; Member of the Continental Congress 1774-1776; voted for the Declaration of Independence, but was absent in New York at the time it was signed attending the Provincial Congress, to which he had just been elected; member of the Provincial Congress in 1776 and 1777; erected three powder mills in the vicinity of Goshen, N. Y., and supplied powder to the Continental Army during the Revolution; one of the committee that framed the first constitution of New York in 1777; member of the commission to provide for fortifying the Hudson River, in the construction of forts at West Point and placing the chain across the river in 1777 and 1778; served in the State senate 1777-1782; established an academy at Goshen in 1784; member of the first board of regents of the University of the State of New York and served from 1784 to 1787; member of the State convention that ratified the Federal Constitution in 1788; died in Goshen, Orange County, N. Y., March 4, 1790; interment in the Old Wallkill Cemetery, Phillipsburg, N. Y.

WITCHER, John Seashoal, a Representative from West Virginia; born in Cabell County, Va. (now West Virginia), July 15, 1839; attended the public schools; elected clerk of the circuit court of Cabell County in 1861; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as a first lieutenant, Third Regiment West Virginia Volunteer Cavalry, December 13, 1862; promoted to captain September 8, 1863; major May 23, 1864; lieutenant colonel May 6, 1865; brevetted colonel of Volunteers

March 13, 1865, for "gallant and meritorious services during the Shenandoah campaign of 1864 and the final campaign around Richmond and Petersburg, Va., in the spring of 1865, and especially at the Battle of Fords Station, Virginia"; brigadier general of Volunteers March 3, 1865, "for like services"; honorably mustered out June 30, 1865; member of the State house of delegates in 1865; secretary of state of West Virginia 1866-1869; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress (March 4, 1869-March 3, 1871); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1870 to the Forty-second Congress; appointed by President Grant collector of internal revenue for the third district of West Virginia and served from April 1, 1871, to October 1, 1876; served as United States pension agent at Washington, D. C., from July 7, 1878, to October 3, 1880; major and paymaster, United States Army, from October 5, 1880, until he retired September 8, 1890; moved to Salt Lake City, Utah, in 1891, and died there on July 8, 1903; interment in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

WITHERELL, James, a Representative from Vermont; born in Mansfield, Mass., June 16, 1759; completed preparatory studies; served in the Revolutionary Army as a member of the Eleventh Massachusetts Regiment 1775-1783; studied medicine, and was licensed to practice in 1788; moved to Hampton, Vt., in 1788 and to Fair Haven, Vt., in 1789 and continued the practice of his profession; member of the State house of representatives 1798-1802; associate county judge 1801-1803; Judge of Rutland County 1803-1806; executive councillor 1802-1806; elected as a Democrat to the Tenth Congress, and served from March 4, 1807, to May 1, 1808, when he resigned; appointed United States judge for the Territory of Michigan in 1808, and served until 1828, when he resigned to become secretary of the Territory; during the War of 1812 was in command of the troops at Detroit in the absence of General Hull, and was taken prisoner when the latter surrendered; lived in Fair Haven, Vt., while on parole; was exchanged and returned to his duties in Detroit; secretary of Michigan Territory by appointment of President John Quincy Adams 1828-1830; died in Detroit, Mich., January 9, 1838; interment in the Russell Street Cemetery; reinterment in Elmwood Cemetery.

WITHERS, Robert Enoch, a Senator from Virginia; born near Lynchburg, Campbell County, Va., September 18, 1821; attended private schools, was graduated from the medical department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1841 and commenced practice in Campbell County; moved to Danville, Pittsylvania County, Va., in 1858; during the Civil War entered the Confederate Army as major of Infantry in April, 1861, and was promoted to colonel of the Eighteenth Virginia Infantry, which he commanded until retired in consequence of numerous disabling wounds; appointed to command the post at Danville, Va., which position he held until the close of the war; moved to Lynchburg, Va., in January, 1863, and established the Lynchburg News, a daily paper, devoted to the interests of the Conservative Party; nominated for governor by that party, but withdrew in favor of the nominee of the Liberal Republicans; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Greeley and Brown in 1872; elected Lieutenant governor in 1873; elected as a Conservative to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1875, to March 3, 1881; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1881; appointed by President Cleveland United States consul at Hong Kong, China, on April 28, 1885, and served until March 31, 1889, when he resigned; returned to Wytheville, Wythe County, Va.; died at "Ingleside," Wytheville, Va., September 21, 1907; interment in the East End Cemetery.

WITHERSPOON, John, a Delegate from New Jersey; born in Gifford, Haddingtonshire, Scotland, February 5, 1723; completed preparatory studies; was graduated from Edinburgh University in 1739; studied theology at Edinburgh, was licensed in 1743, and ordained minister of the parish of Belth in 1745; was the author of various pamphlets dealing with controversial religious subjects; installed pastor at Paisley June 16, 1757; moderator of the synod of Glasgow and Ayr in 1758; declined calls to Rotterdam in 1759, Dundee in 1762, and Dublin in 1766; also declined the presidency of the College of New Jersey (now Princeton University) in 1766, but accepted the second invitation of that institution, and was inaugurated as president August 17, 1768; became a leader of Presbyterians in America; member of the committee on correspondence from Somerset County July 28, 1775; member of the Provincial Congress of New Jersey from June 10 to June 22, 1776; Member of the Continental Congress from June 22, 1776, to December 1, 1779, from December 1, 1780, to December 1, 1781, and from May 20 to November 5, 1782; a signer of the Declaration of Independence; member of the secret committee of the Congress on the conduct of the war and member of the board of war in 1778; member of the State council in 1780; drafted the instructions of June, 1781, to the American peace commissioners; served in the State general assembly in 1783 and 1789; member of the State convention to ratify the Federal Constitution in 1787; after the war returned to Princeton, where he continued his duties as president, although retiring later to his farm, "Tusculum," near Princeton, N. J.; continued his interest in public affairs until the close of his life; throughout his life was a prolific writer, and after his death his works were collected and published; became blind in 1792; died on his farm near Princeton, N. J., November 15, 1794; interment in the presidents' lot in the Witherspoon Street Graveyard, Princeton, N. J.

WITHERSPOON, Robert, a Representative from South Carolina; born near Kingstree, Williamsburg County, S. C., on January 29, 1767; attended the best schools of the community; elected State treasurer in 1800 and served one term; was a member of the State house of representatives 1800-1808; elected as a Democrat to the Eleventh Congress (March 4, 1809-March 3, 1811); declined to be a candidate for reelection; had large planting interests in Sumter County, S. C.; opposed the nullification act in 1832; died near Mayesville, Sumter County, S. C., October 11, 1837; interment in Salem Brick Church Cemetery.

WITHERSPOON, Samuel Andrew, a Representative from Mississippi; born near Columbus, Lowndes County, Miss., May 4, 1855; attended the public schools; moved with his mother to Oxford, Miss., in 1872; was graduated from the University of Mississippi at Oxford in 1870; professor in the University of Mississippi 1870-1879; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1879, and commenced practice in Meridian, Lauderdale County, Miss., the same year; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second, Sixty-third, and Sixty-fourth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1911, until his death in Meridian, Miss., November 24, 1915; interment in Rose Hill Cemetery.

WITTE, William Henry, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Columbia, Morris County, N. J., October 4, 1817; moved to Springtown, Bucks County, Pa., and attended the common schools; moved to Philadelphia in 1840; engaged in mercantile pursuits and the real-estate business; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); engaged in newspaper work and resumed real-estate interests; died in Philadelphia, Pa., November 24, 1878; interment in Durham Cemetery, Durham, Bucks County, Pa.

WOLOOTT, Edward Oliver, a Senator from Colorado; born in Long Meadow, Hampden County, Mass., March 23, 1848; attended the common schools, Yale College, and Norwich (Conn.) Academy; served in the One hundred and fiftieth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry during the Civil War; was graduated from the law department of Harvard University in 1871; moved to Blackhawk, Gilpin County, Colo., in September 1871, and taught school; moved to Georgetown, Clear Creek County, Colo., in December, 1871, and was admitted to the practice of law; elected district attorney in 1876; moved to Denver in 1879; member of the State senate 1879-1882; elected in 1889 as a Republican to the United States Senate; reelected in 1895, and served from March 4, 1899, to March 3, 1901; resumed the practice of his profession in Denver, Colo.; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Minneapolis in 1892 and at Philadelphia in 1900; died in Monte Carlo, Principality of Monaco, March 1, 1905; remains were cremated in Paris, France, and the ashes interred in Woodlawn Cemetery, New York City.

WOLOOTT, Josiah Oliver, a Senator from Delaware; born in Dover, Del., October 31, 1877; attended the public schools and Wilmington Conference Academy, Dover, Del., and was graduated from Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn., in 1901; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1904, and commenced practice in Wilmington, Del.; member of the American Bar Association; deputy attorney general of Delaware 1909-1913; attorney general of Delaware 1913-1917; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1917, to July 2, 1921, when he resigned to accept a judicial position; appointed chancellor of Delaware in 1921, in which capacity he is now serving; is a resident of Dover, Del.

WOLOOTT, Oliver, a Delegate from Connecticut; born in Windsor, Conn., December 1, 1726; was graduated from Yale College in 1747; commissioned a captain by the Governor of New York in 1747; raised a company of Volunteers and served on the northwestern frontier until the peace of Aix-la-Chapelle; returned to Connecticut and settled in Litchfield; studied medicine, but did not practice; elected sheriff of the newly organized county of Litchfield, Conn., in 1751; member of the State council 1774-1786 and at the same time judge of the county court of common pleas; judge of probate for the Litchfield district many years; major general of militia; appointed by the Continental Congress in 1775 one of the commissioners of Indian affairs for the northern department, intrusted with the task of inducing the Iroquois Indians to remain neutral; Member of the Continental Congress 1775-1778 and 1780-1784; a signer of the Declaration of Independence; commander of the fourteen Connecticut regiments sent for the defense of New York in 1776, and divided his time between Army service and service in Congress; commanded a brigade of militia which took part in the defeat of General Burgoyne in 1777; Lieutenant Governor of Connecticut 1786-1796; elected governor in 1796, and served until his death in Litchfield, Conn., December 1, 1797; interment in the East Cemetery.

WOLF, George, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Allen Township, Northampton County, Pa., August 12, 1777; pursued preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1799, and commenced practice in Easton, Pa.; postmaster of Easton in 1802 and 1803; clerk of the orphans' court of Northampton County 1808-1809; member of the State house of representatives in 1814; elected as a Democrat to the Eighteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Thomas J. Rogers; reelected to the Nineteenth, Twentieth, and Twenty-first Congresses, and served from December 9, 1824, until his resignation in 1829 before the convening of the Twenty-first Congress; Governor of Pennsylvania 1829-1835; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1834; First Comptroller of the Treasury of the United States June 18, 1836, to February 23, 1838; appointed collector of customs of the port of Philadelphia in 1838, and served until his death in Philadelphia, Pa., March 11, 1840; interment in Harrisburg Cemetery, Harrisburg, Pa.

WOLF, Harry Benjamin, a Representative from Maryland; born in Baltimore, Md., June 16, 1880; attended the public schools of Baltimore, and was graduated from the law department of the University of Maryland at Baltimore in 1901, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced the practice of law in Baltimore; member of the State house of delegates 1906-1908; elected as a Democrat to the Sixtieth Congress (March 4, 1907-March 3, 1909); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1908 to the Sixty-first Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in Baltimore, Md., and is a resident of that city.

WOLF, William Penn, a Representative from Iowa; born in Harrisburg, Stark County, Ohio, December 1, 1833; attended the public schools and Holbrook Seminary; moved to Cedar County, Iowa, in 1856; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1858, and commenced practice in Tipton, Cedar County, Iowa; superintendent of public schools; member of the State house of representatives in 1863 and 1864; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as captain of Company I, Forty-sixth Regiment Iowa Volunteer Infantry; wounded in action July 24, 1864; appointed assistant assessor of internal revenue in 1865; member of the State senate 1867-1869; elected as a Republican to the Forty-first Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of William Smyth, and served from December 6, 1870, to March 3, 1871; resumed the practice of law in Tipton, Iowa; again a member of the State house of representatives 1881-1885, and was chosen speaker in 1884; elected judge of the eighteenth judicial district in the fall of 1894 and continued in this capacity until his death in Tipton, Iowa, September 19, 1896; interment in the Masonic Cemetery, Tipton, Iowa.

WOLFE, Simeon Kalfus, a Representative from Indiana; born near Georgetown, Floyd County, Ind., February 14, 1824; attended Floyd County schools, and was graduated from the law department of the University of Indiana at Bloomington in 1850; was admitted to the bar in 1851 and commenced practice in Corydon, Harrison County, Ind.; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Buchanan and Breckinridge in 1856; edited and published the Corydon Democrat from 1857 to 1865; member of the State senate 1860-1864; delegate to the Democratic National Conventions at Charleston and Baltimore in 1860; moved to New Albany in 1870 and continued the practice of law; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed the practice of law; judge of the Floyd and Clark circuit court 1880-1884; died in New Albany, Floyd County, Ind., November 18, 1888; interment in Fairview Cemetery.

WOLFF, Joseph Scott, a Representative from Missouri; born in Westmoreland County, Pa., June 14, 1878; attended the public schools; served with the Fourth United States Cavalry in the Philippine Islands during the Spanish-American War 1899-1901; moved to St. Louis, Mo., in 1901; was graduated from the dental department of Washington University, St. Louis, Mo., in 1905 and practiced his profession in St. Louis and Festus, Mo.; mayor of Festus, Jefferson County, Mo., 1907-1911 and 1915-1917; member of the State house of representatives 1918-1919; was graduated from the St. Louis College of Law and Finance in 1923; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Festus, Mo.; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1925); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1924 to the Sixty-ninth Congress; engaged in the practice of dentistry and law at Kansas City, Mo.

WOLFORD, Frank Lane, a Representative from Kentucky; born near Columbia, Adair County, Ky., September 2, 1817; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Liberty, Casey County, Ky.; member of the State house of representatives in 1847, 1848, 1865, and 1866; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of McClellan and Pendleton in 1864 and of Seymour and Blair in 1868; during the Civil War served as colonel of the First Kentucky Volunteer Cavalry 1861-1864; adjutant general of the State of Kentucky in 1867 and 1868; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1887); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1886 to the Fiftieth Congress; continued the practice of law in Columbia, Ky., until his death on August 2, 1895; interment in Columbia Cemetery.

WOLVERTON, John Marshall, a Representative from West Virginia; born in Big Bend, Calhoun County, W. Va., January 31, 1872; attended the country schools, Glenville and Fairmont State Normal Schools, and the West Virginia University at Morgantown; was graduated from the law department of the last-named institution in 1901; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice at Grantsville, Calhoun County, W. Va.; moved to Richwood in 1904; mayor of Richwood in 1918 and 1919; prosecuting attorney of Nicholas County 1918-1917 and 1921-1925; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1926 to the Seventieth Congress; resumed the practice of his profession in Richwood, W. Va.

WOLVERTON, Simon Peter, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Rush Township, Northumberland County, Pa., January 28, 1837; attended the common schools and Danville (Pa.) Academy, and was graduated from Lewisburg University (now Bucknell University), Lewisburg, Pa., in 1860; principal of Sunbury (Pa.) Academy 1860-1862; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1862, and commenced practice in Sunbury; during the Civil War raised a company of emergency men, of which he was made captain in 1862, and served in the Eighteenth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers; chosen captain of Company F, Thirty-sixth Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, in June, 1863; member of the State senate in 1878, 1880, and 1884; Democratic nominee for the United States Senate in the joint convention of 1884; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second and Fifty-third Congresses (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1895); was not a candidate for renomination in 1894; continued the practice of law; died in Sunbury, Northumberland County, Pa., October 25, 1910; interment in Pomfret-Manor Cemetery.

WOOD, Abiel, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Wiscasset, Me. (then a district of Massachusetts), July 22, 1772; attended the common schools; engaged in mercantile pursuits; member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives 1807-1811, and again in 1816; presidential elector on the Federalist ticket of Clinton and Ingersoll in 1812; elected as a Federalist to the Thirteenth Congress (March 4, 1812-March 3, 1815); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1814 to the Fourteenth Congress; delegate to the constitutional convention of Maine in 1819; State counselor of Maine in 1820 and 1821; resumed mercantile pursuits and also engaged in shipping; bank commissioner for Maine until his death in Belfast, Waldo County, Me., October 26, 1834, while on an official visit; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery, Wiscasset, Lincoln County, Me.

WOOD, Alan, Jr., a Representative from Pennsylvania, born in Philadelphia, Pa., July 6, 1834; attended private schools; employed in his father's mill at Delaware Iron Works, near Wilmington, Del.; moved to Conshohocken, Montgomery County, Pa., in 1857; engaged in iron manufacturing and banking; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); resumed his former business activities and also engaged in agricultural pursuits; president of the Alan Wood Iron & Steel Co.; died in Philadelphia, Pa., October 31, 1902; interment in Woodland Cemetery.

WOOD, Amos Eastman, a Representative from Ohio; born in Ellensburg, N. Y., January 2, 1810; attended the common schools; moved to Sandusky County, Ohio, in 1833 and engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the State house of representatives 1840-1842; served in the State senate in 1845; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-first Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Rudolphus Dickinson, and served from December 3, 1849, until his death in Fort Wayne, Ind., November 19, 1850; interment in Woodville Cemetery, Woodville, Sandusky County, Ohio.

WOOD, Benjamin (brother of Fernando Wood), a Representative from New York; born in Shelbyville, Shelby County, Ky., October 13, 1820; moved to New York City with his parents; attended the public schools; entered the shipping business; purchased the Daily News in 1860 and was its editor and publisher until his death; chairman of the Democratic editors of 1860; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-seventh and Thirty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1865); member of the State senate in 1866 and 1867; elected to the Forty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1881-March 3, 1883); died in New York City February 21, 1900; interment in Calvary Cemetery, Long Island City, N. Y.

WOOD, Benson, a Representative from Illinois; born near Bridgewater, Susquehanna County, Pa., on March 31, 1830; attended the common schools, Montrose (Pa.) Academy, and Wyoming (Pa.) Seminary; moved to Illinois in 1859 and for two years was principal of a village school in Lee County; during the Civil War enlisted as first lieutenant of Company C, Thirty-fourth Regiment Illinois Volunteer Infantry, September 7, 1861; promoted to captain May 1, 1862; honorably discharged January 29, 1863; was graduated from the law department of the University of Chicago in 1864; was admitted to the bar the same year and engaged in the practice of law in Effingham, in Effingham County, Ill.; member of the State house of representatives in 1872; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Cincinnati in 1876 and at Chicago in 1888; mayor of Effingham 1881-1883; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1896 to the Fifty-fifth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Effingham, Ill.; president of the Illinois Bar Association in 1899 and 1900; president of the Effingham State Bank 1903-1912, and chairman of the board of directors 1912-1915; died in Effingham, Ill., August 27, 1915; interment in Oakridge Cemetery.

WOOD, Bradford Ripley, a Representative from New York; born in Westport, Conn., on September 3, 1800; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Union College at Schenectady, N. Y., in 1824; was engaged in teaching and lecturing; studied law at the Litchfield (Conn.) Law School, was admitted to the bar in 1827, and commenced practice in Albany, N. Y.; on May 29, 1827, was made solicitor in the Court of Chancery of New York State, and on June 6, 1830, rose to the position of chancellor of the same court; became counselor in the New York Supreme Court in 1835 and in the United States Supreme Court in 1845; member of the Albany County board of supervisors in 1844; was elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1847); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1846 to the Thirtieth Congress; was a member of the board of trustees of Union College 1848-1872; president of the Young Men's Temperance Society in 1851; trustee of Williams College, Williamstown, Mass., and the Albany Law School; vice president of the Albany Medical College; one of the founders of the Republican Party in New York State in 1856; vice president of the American Home Missionary Society; founder of the First Congregational Church in Albany; United States minister to Denmark from 1861 to 1865; died in Albany, N. Y., September 26, 1889; interment in Albany Rural Cemetery, Albany County, N. Y.

WOOD, Ernest Edward, a Representative from Missouri; born in Chico, Butte County, Calif., on August 24, 1875; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the Stockton (Calif.) High School in 1892; appointed as a cadet to the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1893 and remained two years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1898, and commenced practice in St. Louis, Mo.; presented credentials as a Democratic Member elect to the Fifty-ninth Congress, and served from March 4, 1905, to June 23, 1906, when he was succeeded by Harry M. Coudrey, who contested his election; moved to Los Angeles, Calif., in 1907 and resumed the practice of his profession.

WOOD, Fernando (brother of Benjamin Wood), a Representative from New York; born in Philadelphia, Pa., June 14, 1812; attended the public schools; moved with his father to New York City in 1820; was engaged in business as a shipping merchant in 1831; was elected as a Tammany Democrat to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1842 to the Twenty-eighth Congress; appointed by Secretary of State John C. Calhoun dispatch agent for the State Department at the port of New York, reappointed by Secretary of State James Buchanan, and served from 1844 to 1847; unsuccessful candidate for mayor of New York in 1850 and in 1867; retired as a shipping merchant in 1880; mayor of New York City in 1856-1858, 1861, and 1862; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1865); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth Congress; elected to the Fortieth, Forty-first, Forty-second, Forty-third, Forty-fourth, Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, and Forty-seventh Congresses, and served from March 4, 1867, until his death at Hot Springs, Ark., February 13, 1881, before the beginning of the Forty-seventh Congress, to which he had been reelected; interment in Trinity Cemetery, New York City.

WOOD, Ira Wells, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., on June 19, 1856; was graduated from Princeton College in 1877; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1880, and commenced practice in Trenton, N. J.; was a member of the city board of education 1894-1896; served in the city council 1898-1900; president of the Board of Trade of Trenton 1896-1900; member of the State assembly in 1899 and 1900; commissioner for New Jersey to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition held in St. Louis, Mo., in 1904; delegate to the Interparliamentary Peace Union at Brussels, Belgium, in 1905; president of the Republican Club at Trenton; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William M. Lanning; reelected to the Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, Sixty-first, and Sixty-second Congresses, and served from November 8, 1904, to March 3, 1913; declined to be a candidate for reelection; retired from active pursuits and is a resident of Trenton, N. J.

WOOD, John, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., September 6, 1816; attended the common schools; engaged in mercantile pursuits and in the manufacture of iron and steel; first Burgess of Conshohocken, Montgomery County, Pa.; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1861); resumed his former manufacturing pursuits; died in Conshohocken, Pa., May 28, 1898; interment in Montgomery Cemetery, Norristown, Montgomery County, Pa.

WOOD, John J., a Representative from New York; born in Rockland County, N. Y.; resided in Clarkstown (now New City), N. Y.; town clerk of Clarkstown 1809-1812; Inspector of schools 1815, 1823; elected as a Jackson Democrat to the Twentieth Congress (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1829); again Inspector of schools 1829-1831, 1835-1837; surrogate of Rockland County in 1837; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1846.

WOOD, John M., a Representative from Maine; born in Minisink, N. Y., November 17, 1813; attended the common schools; engaged in railroad construction in New Jersey; moved to Portland, Me., in 1848; was one of the contractors in the construction of the Atlantic & St. Lawrence Railroad; member of the State house of representatives; owner and publisher of the Portland Daily Advertiser 1853-1857; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fourth and Thirty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1859); contractor for building the Air Line Railroad between Woonsocket and New Haven, Conn.; died in Boston, Mass., December 24, 1864; interment in Greenwood Cemetery, Brooklyn, N. Y.

WOOD, Joseph, a Delegate from Georgia; born in Pennsylvania in 1712; moved to Sunbury, St. John's parish (afterwards Liberty County), Ga., about 1774; served in the Revolutionary War as major, lieutenant colonel, and colonel of the Second Pennsylvania Regiment and was on duty in Canada in 1776; returned to Georgia and engaged in planting; member of the State council of safety; Member of the Continental Congress 1777-1779; died on his plantation near Sunbury, Ga., in September, 1791.

WOOD, Silas, a Representative from New York; born in West Hills, near Huntington, Suffolk County, N. Y., September 14, 1789; pursued classical studies; was graduated from Princeton College in 1789 and during the five succeeding years was a teacher at that institution; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Huntington, N. Y.; was appointed district attorney of Suffolk County in 1818 and 1821; was elected as a Democrat to the Sixteenth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1819-March 3, 1829); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1828 to the Twenty-first Congress; retired from all business and political activities; died in Huntington, Suffolk County, N. Y., March 2, 1847; interment in the Old Public Cemetery on Main Street.

WOOD, Thomas Jefferson, a Representative from Indiana; born in Athens County, Ohio, September 30, 1844; moved with his parents to Vigo County, Ind., in 1853; attended the common schools; taught school two years; studied law in Terre Haute, Ind., and was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1867; moved to Crown Point, Ind., in November, 1867, and practiced law; corporation treasurer 1870-1872; prosecuting attorney of Lake County 1872-1876; member of the State senate 1878-1882; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for reelection; resumed the practice of law; died in Crown Point, Lake County, Ind., October 18, 1908; interment in Maplewood Cemetery.

WOOD, Walter Abbott, a Representative from New York; born in Mason, N. H., October 23, 1815; moved to New York in 1818 with his parents, who settled in Rensselaerville; attended the common schools; moved to Hoosick Falls in 1835; became an inventor and manufacturer of reapers, mowers, and binders; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1883); was not a candidate for renomination; returned to Hoosick Falls, N. Y., and resumed his former pursuits; died in Hoosick Falls, N. Y., January 15, 1892; interment in Maple Grove Cemetery.

WOOD, William Robert, a Representative from Indiana; born in Oxford, Benton County, Ind., on January 5, 1861; attended the public schools of Oxford, and was graduated from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1882; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in La Fayette, Tippecanoe County; prosecuting attorney of Tippecanoe County 1890-1894; member of the State senate 1896-1914, and served as president pro tempore 1899-1907; Republican floor leader of the State senate, four sessions; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1912, 1916, and 1920, and that at Cleveland in 1924; chairman of the Republican National Congressional Committee since 1920; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fourth and to the five succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1915-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WOODARD, Frederick Augustus, a Representative from North Carolina; born near Wilson, Wilson County, N. C., on February 12, 1854; attended private schools in Wilson County; studied law at the law school of Chief Justice Richmond Mumford Pearson, was admitted to the bar in 1873, and commenced practice in Wilson, N. C.; vice president of the First National Bank of Wilson; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for reelection to the Fifty-fifth Congress; resumed the practice of law in Wilson, N. C., and died there May 8, 1915; interment in Maplewood Cemetery.

WOODBIDGE, Frederick Enoch, a Representative from Vermont; born in Vergennes, Addison County, Vt., August 29, 1818; was graduated from the University of Vermont at Burlington in 1840; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1843, and commenced practice in Vergennes; member of the State house of representatives in 1849, 1857, and 1858; mayor of Vergennes for five years; State auditor 1860-1862; prosecuting attorney 1854-1858; engaged in the construction of railroads; member of the State senate in 1860 and 1861 and served as president pro tempore in the latter year; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-eighth, Thirty-ninth, and Fortieth Congresses (March 4, 1863-March 3, 1869); resumed the practice of his profession; died in Vergennes, Vt., April 26, 1888; interment in Prospect Cemetery.

WOODBIDGE, William, a Delegate and a Senator from Michigan; born in Norwich, Conn., on August 20, 1780; moved with his father to Marietta, Ohio, in 1781, but in a few years returned to Litchfield, Conn., and studied law; returned to Ohio in 1799; was admitted to the bar in 1806 in Ohio, and commenced the practice of law in Marietta; member of the State house of representatives in 1807; prosecuting attorney for New London (now Washington) County, Ohio, 1808-1814; served in the State senate 1808-1814; moved to Detroit, Mich.; collector of customs at Detroit, Mich., from January 24, 1814, to June 12, 1829; appointed secretary of Michigan Territory on October 5, 1814, and served until appointed judge of the Territory on January 15, 1828; elected as a Delegate to the Sixteenth Congress, and served from March 4, 1819, to August 9, 1820, when he resigned; was judge of the Supreme Court of Michigan Territory from 1828 to 1832; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1835; member of the State senate in 1837; Governor of Michigan in 1840 and 1841; elected by a combination of Whigs and Democrats to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1841, to March 3, 1847; retired from public life and devoted his time to horticulture; died in Detroit, Wayne County, Mich., October 20, 1861; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

WOODBURN, William, a Representative from Nevada; born in County Wicklow, Ireland, on April 14, 1838; emigrated with his parents to the United States in 1849; attended St. Charles College, Maryland; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1866, and commenced the practice of law in Virginia City, Nev.; district attorney of Storey County, Nev., in 1871 and 1872; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1877); elected to the Forty-ninth and Fiftieth Congresses (March 4, 1885-March 3, 1889); resumed the practice of his profession in Virginia City, Storey County, Nev.; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress; died in Carson City, Nev., January 15, 1915; interment in St. Theresa Cemetery.

WOODBURY, Levi, a Senator from New Hampshire; born in Francetown, N. H., December 22, 1789; was graduated from Dartmouth College, Hanover, N. H., in 1809; studied law in Litchfield, Conn., Boston, Mass., and Exeter, N. H.; was admitted to the bar in 1812 and practiced in Francetown, N. H., 1813-1816; appointed judge of the Superior Court of New Hampshire in 1816; moved to Portsmouth, N. H., in 1819; Governor of New Hampshire in 1823 and 1824; member of the State house of representatives in 1825, and served as speaker; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate for the term beginning March 4, 1825, and served from March 13, 1825, to March 3, 1831; was nominated for the State senate in 1831, but declined; was Secretary of the Navy in the Cabinet of President Jackson from May 23, 1831, to June 30, 1834, when he was appointed Secretary of the Treasury, and served until March 3, 1841; was appointed chief justice of the Superior Court of New Hampshire, but declined to serve; again elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1841, to November 20, 1845, when he resigned; declined the British mission; appointed an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Joseph Story, and served from November 20, 1845, until his death in Portsmouth, N. H., September 4, 1851; interment in Harmony Grove Cemetery.

WOODCOCK, David, a Representative from New York; born in Williamstown, Berkshire County, Mass., in 1785; attended the public schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; moved to Ithaca, Seneca (now Tompkins)

County, N. Y.; commissioned postmaster of Ithaca November 19, 1806; appointed master of the court of chancery in 1806; member of the State assembly in 1814 and 1815; appointed district attorney of Tompkins County in April, 1817; surrogate and assistant attorney general of the State in 1817; became president of the Cayuga Steamboat Co. in 1819; elected as a Democrat to the Seventeenth Congress (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1823); president and trustee of the village of Ithaca in 1823, 1824, and 1826; resumed the practice of law; again a member of the State assembly in 1826; took a prominent part in the Anti-Masonic Crusade and State Convention at Utica, N. Y., in 1827; elected to the Twentieth Congress (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1829); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1828 to the Twenty-first Congress; again resumed the practice of his profession; died in Ithaca, N. Y., September 18, 1835; interment in the City Cemetery.

WOODFORD, Stewart Lyndon, a Representative from New York; born in New York City September 3, 1835; was graduated from Columbia College (now Columbia University), New York City, in 1854; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1857, and commenced practice in New York City; delegate to the Republican National Convention held at Chicago in 1860; assistant attorney for the United States in New York City in 1861 and in 1862; during the Civil War served in the Union Army; was lieutenant colonel of the One hundred and twenty-seventh New York Volunteers September 8, 1862; colonel of the One hundred and third United States Colored Infantry March 3, 1865; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers May 12, 1865, "for zealous, efficient, and generally meritorious conduct in the discharge of duties"; resigned August 23, 1865; was first Union military commander of Charleston, S. C., and of Savannah, Ga.; Lieutenant Governor of New York 1867-1869; unsuccessful candidate for governor in 1870; delegate to the Republican National Convention held at Philadelphia in 1872; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Grant and Wilson in 1872 and president of the Electoral College; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third Congress, and served from March 4, 1873, to July 1, 1874, when he resigned; United States attorney for the southern district of New York from 1877 to 1883; appointed United States envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Spain on June 19, 1897, and served until September 20, 1898, when he resigned; resumed the practice of law in New York City, and died there February 14, 1913; interment in Woodland Cemetery, Stamford, Conn.

WOODMAN, Charles Walhart, a Representative from Illinois; born in Aalborg, Denmark, March 11, 1844; was educated in the schools of his native country; followed the sea 1860-1863; arrived in Philadelphia, Pa., in 1863 and immediately enlisted in the Gulf Squadron of the United States Navy; moved to Chicago, Ill., in 1865; studied law, and was graduated from the law department of Chicago University in 1871; was admitted to the Illinois bar the same year and commenced practice in Chicago; appointed prosecuting attorney of the lower courts in 1877; appointed justice of the peace by the judges of Cook County in 1881; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1896 to the Fifty-fifth Congress; engaged in the practice of his profession until his death; died in Elgin, Ill., March 18, 1898; interment in Rose Hill Cemetery, Chicago, Ill.

WOODBUFF, George Catlin, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Litchfield, Conn., on December 1, 1805; was graduated from Yale College in 1825; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1827, and began practice in Litchfield; postmaster of Litchfield from January 4, 1832, to January 27, 1842, and from September 2, 1842, to September 28, 1846; member of the State house of representatives in 1851, 1866, and 1874; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1861-March 3, 1868); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1862 to the Thirty-eighth Congress; continued the practice of law until his death in Litchfield, Conn., November 21, 1885; interment in East Cemetery.

WOODRUFF, John, a Representative from Connecticut; born in West Hartford, Hartford County, Conn., February 12, 1826; received a limited schooling; moved to Catskill, Greene County, N. Y., in 1836; returned to Connecticut in 1841 and settled in Bristol, where he worked in a clock factory until 1845; moved to New Haven in 1845, where he began his public career; elected a member of the common council in 1848 and served several terms; member of the general assembly in 1852; elected by the American Party to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1856 to the Thirty-fifth Congress; elected to the Thirty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1859-March 3, 1861); upon the establishment of the office was appointed collector of internal revenue for the second district of Connecticut, and served from 1862 until his death in New Haven, Conn., May 20, 1888; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

WOODRUFF, Roy Orchard, a Representative from Michigan; born at Eaton Rapids, Eaton County, Mich., March 14, 1876; attended the common schools and the high school of Eaton Rapids; apprenticed to the printing business 1891-1899; enlisted as a corporal in Company G, Thirty-third Regiment Michigan Volunteer Infantry, during the Spanish-American War; saw active service and was mustered out; was graduated from the dental department of the College of Medicine, Detroit, Mich., in 1902 and practiced dentistry in Bay City, Bay County, 1902-1911; mayor of Bay City 1911-1913; elected as a Progressive Republican to the Sixty-third Congress (March 4, 1913-March 3, 1915); was not a candidate for renomination in 1914; served for two years in the World War as an Infantry officer, acquiring the rank of major during his service in France; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WOODRUFF, Thomas M., a Representative from New York; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1847); engaged in the furniture business in New York City, where he died about 1854 or 1855.

WOODRUM, Clifton Alexander, a Representative from Virginia; born in Roanoke, Roanoke County, Va., April 27, 1887; attended the public schools of his native city and the University College of Medicine (now combined with the Medical College of Virginia), Richmond, Va.; became a registered pharmacist and engaged in his profession in Roanoke; studied law at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., was admitted to the bar in 1908, and commenced practice in Roanoke, Va.; Commonwealth attorney of Roanoke in 1917 and 1918; judge of the hustings court of Roanoke 1919-1922; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-eighth and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1923-March 3, 1927). Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WOODS, Frank Plowman, a Representative from Iowa; born near Sharon, Waiworth County, Wis., December 11, 1868; attended the public schools and the Northern Indiana Normal School, Valparaiso, Ind.; moved to Estherville, Emmett County, Iowa, in 1887 and worked in a newspaper office for two years; engaged in the mortgage-loan business and private banking; chairman of the Republican State central committee in 1906 and 1907; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-first, Sixty-second, Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, and Sixty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1909-March 3, 1919); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1918; chairman of the Republican National Congressional Committee 1913-1918; engaged in literary pursuits, and is a resident of Altadena, Calif.

WOODS, Henry (brother of John Woods), a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Bedford, Bedford County, Pa., in 1764; received a limited schooling; attended the subscription schools of Bedford County, Pa.; took an active part in pre-Revolutionary affairs; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1792, and commenced practice in Bedford, Pa.; elected to the Sixth and Seventh Congresses (March 4, 1799-March 3, 1803); engaged as a land speculator; died in Bedford in 1820.

WOODS, James Pleasant, a Representative from Virginia; born near Roanoke, Roanoke County, Va., February 4, 1868; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Roanoke College in 1892; studied law at the University of Virginia at Charlottesville in 1892 and 1893, was admitted to the bar in the latter year, and commenced practice in Roanoke, Va.; mayor of Roanoke 1898-1900; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fifth and Sixty-sixth Congresses to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of Carter Glass; reelected to the Sixty-seventh Congress, and served from February 25, 1919, to March 3, 1923; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1922; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at San Francisco in 1920; president of the board of trustees of Roanoke College; member of the board of trustees of the Randolph-Macon system of colleges; resumed the practice of law, and is a resident of Roanoke, Va.

WOODS, John (brother of Henry Woods), a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Bedford, Bedford County, Pa.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1791, and commenced the practice of law in Fayette County the same year; member of the State senate in 1797; elected to the Fourteenth Congress (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1817), but never attended or qualified; died in Pittsburgh, Pa., in 1817; interment in the First Presbyterian Church Cemetery.

WOODS, John, a Representative from Ohio; born in Johnstown, Dauphin County, Pa., October 18, 1794; moved with his parents to Ohio, where he attended the common schools; served in the War of 1812; after the war, opened a school near Springborough which he ran for two years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1819, and commenced the practice of his profession in Hamilton, Butler County, Ohio; prosecuting attorney of Butler County 1820-1825; elected as a Whig to the Nineteenth and Twentieth Congresses (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1829); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1828 to the Twenty-first Congress; became editor and publisher of the Hamilton Intelligencer in 1829; State auditor of Ohio from 1845 to 1851; president of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Indianapolis Railroad; died in Hamilton, Ohio, on July 30, 1855; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

WOODS, Samuel Davis, a Representative from California; born in Mount Pleasant, Maury County, Tenn., September 19, 1845; moved with his parents to Stockton, Calif., in February, 1850; attended the public schools; studied law, was admitted to the California bar in April, 1876, and engaged in practice in Stockton and in the city and county of San Francisco; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Marlon De Vries; reelected to the Fifty-seventh Congress, and served from December 8, 1900, to March 8, 1903; was not a candidate for reelection in 1902 to the Fifty-eighth Congress; resumed the practice of law in San Francisco, Calif., and died there December 24, 1915; interment in Mount Olivet Cemetery, San Mateo County, Calif.

WOODS, William, a Representative from New York; born in Washington County, N. Y., in 1790; received a limited schooling; moved to Bath, Steuben County, N. Y., in 1813; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced in Bath, N. Y.; member of the State assembly 1823-1825; elected as a Democrat to the Eighteenth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William B. Rochester, and served from November 8, 1823, to March 3, 1825; resumed the practice of his profession; surrogate of Steuben County 1827-1835; died in Bath, N. Y., August 7, 1837; interment in Grove Cemetery.

WOODSON, Samuel Hughes, a Representative from Kentucky; born near Charlottesville, Albemarle County, Va., September 15, 1777; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1802, and commenced practice in Nicholasville, Jessamine County, Ky.; first clerk of Jessamine County circuit court 1808-1819 after the admission of Kentucky as a State into the Union; elected to the Seventeenth Congress (March 4, 1821-March 3, 1823); resumed the practice of his profession in Nicholasville; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1822 to the Eighteenth Congress; member of the State house of representatives in 1825 and 1826; died at "Chaumiere," Jessamine County, Ky., July 28, 1827; interment in the Crocket Burying Ground.

WOODSON, Samuel Hughes (son of the preceding), a Representative from Missouri; born near Nicholasville, Jessamine County, Ky., October 24, 1815; attended the public schools; was graduated from Centre College, Danville, Ky., and the law department of Transylvania University, Lexington, Ky.; was admitted to the bar in 1838 and commenced the practice of law in Independence, Jackson County, Mo., in 1840; member of the State house of representatives in 1853 and 1854; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1855; elected on the American Party ticket to the Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1861); was not a candidate for renomination in 1860; resumed the practice of his profession in Independence; became affiliated with the Democratic Party; was judge of the twenty-fourth judicial circuit of Missouri from March, 1875, until his death in Independence, Mo., June 23, 1881; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

WOODWARD, George Washington, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Bethany, Wayne County, Pa., March 26, 1809; attended Geneva Seminary (now Hobart College), Geneva, N. Y., and Wilkes-Barre (Pa.) Academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1830, and commenced practice in Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1837; president judge of the fourth judicial district 1841-1851; unsuccessful candidate for United States Senator in 1845; nominated in 1845 by President Polk a justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, but was not confirmed by the Senate; associate judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania 1852-1893 and chief justice 1863-1867; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for governor in 1863; elected as a Democrat to the Fortieth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles Denison; reelected to the Forty-first Congress, and served from November 21, 1867, to March 3, 1871; was not a candidate for renomination in 1870; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York City in 1868; unsuccessful candidate for president judge of the eleventh judicial district in 1870; moved to Philadelphia in 1871 and continued the practice of his profession; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1873; traveled abroad in 1874 and died in Rome, Italy, May 10, 1875; interment in Hollenback Cemetery, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

WOODWARD, Gilbert Motier, a Representative from Wisconsin; born in Washington, D. C., on December 25, 1833; educated in the common schools; studied law; was admitted to the bar in 1861, and commenced practice in La Crosse, Wis., in February, 1860; served a little over three years, in the Union Army during the Civil War and in that time was private, first sergeant, second lieutenant, first lieutenant, and adjutant in the Second Regiment Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry; district attorney of La Crosse County 1866-1873; mayor of the city of La Crosse in 1874 and 1875; city attorney 1870-1882; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress; resumed the practice of law in La Crosse, Wis.; unsuccessful Democratic candidate for Governor of Wisconsin in 1886; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1888; died in La Crosse, Wis., March 13, 1913; interment in Oak Grove Cemetery.

WOODWARD, Joseph Addison, a Representative from South Carolina; born in Winnsboro, Fairfield County, S. C., April 11, 1806; received an academic training and was graduated from the University of South Carolina at Columbia; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and practiced; member of the State house of representatives 1837-1843; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1853); declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1852 to the Thirty-third Congress; moved to Alabama and resumed the practice of his profession; died in Talladega, Talladega County, Ala., August 8, 1885; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery.

WOODWARD, William, a Representative from South Carolina; elected to the Fourteenth Congress (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1817).

WOODWORTH, James Hutchinson, a Representative from Illinois; born in Greenwich, N. Y., December 4, 1804; received a limited schooling; moved to Fubius, Onondago County, N. Y., and taught school; engaged in mercantile pursuits in 1823; inspector of the common schools in 1826; moved to Erie, Pa., in 1827; justice of the peace 1829-1832; moved to Chicago, Ill., in 1833 and engaged in the dry-goods business; served in the State senate 1839-1842; member of the State house of representatives 1842-1847; was owner and manager of the Chicago Hydraulic Flouring Mills for ten years; member of the Chicago City Council 1845-1848; mayor of Chicago 1848-1850; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1855-March 3, 1857); retired to private life until appointed by Governor Yates to serve on the board of auditors on war claims; served as president of the Merchants & Mechanics' Bank of Chicago, and was president of the Treasury Bank of Chicago at the time of his death; one of the founders of Chicago University; died in Highland Park, Ill., March 26, 1869; interment in Oakland Cemetery, Chicago, Ill.

WOODWORTH, Laura Dewey, a Representative from Ohio; born in Windham, Portage County, Ohio, September 10, 1837; attended the common schools, Windham (Ohio) Academy, Hiram (Ohio) College, and the Ohio State University at Columbus; studied law at Union Law College, Cleveland, Ohio, was admitted to the bar in 1859, and commenced practice in Ravenna, Ohio; member of the Portage County Board of School Examiners; during the Civil War served in the Union Army as major of the One hundred and fourth Ohio Volunteer Infantry from July, 1862, to December, 1862; moved to Youngstown, Mahoning County, Ohio, in 1864 and resumed the practice of law; elected to the State senate in 1867; reelected in 1869 and served as president pro tempore; elected as a Republican to the Forty-third and Forty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1877); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1878; continued the practice of law in Youngstown, Ohio, until his death there, March 13, 1897; interment in Windham Cemetery, Windham, Portage County, Ohio.

WOODWORTH, William W., a Representative from New York; born in New London, Conn., March 16, 1807; moved to Hyde Park, Dutchess County, N. Y., in 1834; received a limited schooling; supervisor of Hyde Park in 1838, 1841, and 1843; appointed judge of Dutchess County in 1838 and reappointed in 1843; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1842 to the Twenty-eighth Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1847); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1846; held interests in Cuba, and formed a stock company of the Hudson River State Co. at Clinton, N. Y.; contractor for building a section of the Hudson River Railroad; moved to Yonkers, N. Y., December 1, 1849, and engaged in the real-estate business and banking; elected president of Yonkers in 1857 and 1858; elected receiver of taxes in 1870; died in Yonkers, N. Y., February 13, 1873; interment in Oakland Cemetery.

WOODYARD, Harry Chapman, a Representative from West Virginia; born in Spencer, Roane County, W. Va., November 13, 1807; attended the common schools; engaged in the wholesale grocery and lumber business; member of the State senate in 1898; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth, Fifty-ninth, Sixtieth, and Sixty-first Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1911); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1910 to the Sixty-second Congress; elected to the Sixty-fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hunter H. Moss, jr.; reelected to the Sixty-fifth, Sixty-sixth, and Sixty-seventh Congresses, and served from November 7, 1918, to March 3, 1923; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1922 to the Sixty-eighth Congress; elected to the Sixty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1925-March 3, 1927); was not a candidate for reelection to the Seventieth Congress; resumed his former business pursuits and resides in Spencer, W. Va.

WOOMER, Ephraim Milton, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Jonestown, Lebanon County, Pa., January 14, 1844; attended the common schools; during the Civil War enlisted in Company A, Ninety-third Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, in September, 1861; promoted to sergeant; wounded twice at Salem Heights, and lost a leg in the Battle of the Wilderness May 5, 1864; discharged from the hospital September 9, 1865; taught school until 1899; engaged in mercantile pursuits; clerk of the orphans' court of Lebanon County 1860-1872; cashier of the People's Bank of Lebanon; member of the councils of the borough of Lebanon 1884-1886; president of the select council of the city of Lebanon 1886-1890; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1888; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1893-March 3, 1897); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1896; again engaged in banking; died in Lebanon, Pa., November 29, 1897; interment in Mount Lebanon Cemetery.

WOOTEN, Dudley Goodall, a Representative from Texas; born near Springfield, Greene County, Mo., June 19, 1860; moved in infancy with his parents to Texas during the Civil War; attended private schools in Paris, Tex., and was graduated from Princeton College in 1875; attended Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md., and was graduated from the law department of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville; was admitted to the bar in 1880 and practiced in Austin, Tex.; prosecuting attorney of Austin 1884-1886; moved to Dallas, Tex., in 1888; judge of the Dallas County district court 1890-1892; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Cleveland and Stevenson in 1892; member of the State house of representatives in 1898 and 1899; delegate to the National Antitrust Conference at Chicago in 1899; member of the executive council of the National Civic Federation in 1900; delegate to the National Tax Conference at Buffalo in 1901; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Robert E. Burke, and served from July 13, 1901, to March 3, 1903; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1902; continued the practice of law in Seattle, Wash.; served as special judge of the superior court at various times; delegate to the National Rivers and Harbors Congress in 1912; delegate to the National Conservation Congress in 1913; appointed a member of the State board of higher curricula by the governor in 1919; author of several historical works and numerous articles in literary and law periodicals; tendered the position of professor of law at the University of Notre Dame, Notre Dame, Ind., in 1924, and is now serving in that capacity.

WORCESTER, Samuel Thomas, a Representative from Ohio; born in Hollis, Hillsborough County, N. H., August 30, 1804; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Harvard University in 1830; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1835, and began practice in Norwalk, Huron County, Ohio; member of the State senate in 1849 and 1850; judge of the court of common pleas in 1859 and 1860; elected as a Republican to the Thirty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of John Sherman, and served from July 4, 1861, to March 3, 1863; resumed the practice of law and engaged in literary pursuits; died in Nashua, N. H., December 6, 1882; interment in the South Cemetery, Hollis, N. H.

WORD, Thomas J., a Representative from Mississippi; born in Surry County, N. C.; member of the State house of commons in 1832; moved to Mississippi and settled in Pontotoc, Pontotoc County; contested the election of Samuel J. Gholson to the Twenty-fifth Congress, and the election was set aside by the House; subsequently elected as a Whig to fill the vacancy caused by this action, and served from May 30, 1838, to March 3, 1839.

WORKS, John Downey, a Senator from California; born near Rising Sun, Ohio County, Ind., March 29, 1847; attended private schools; during the Civil War served in the Tenth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Cavalry of the Union Army; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1868, and commenced practice in Vevay, Ind.; member of the State house of representatives 1878-1880; moved to San Diego, Calif., in 1883 and continued the practice of law; judge of the superior court of San Diego County in 1886 and 1887; associate justice of the Supreme Court of California 1888-1891; moved to Los Angeles in 1896; president of the City Council of Los Angeles in 1910; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1911, to March 3, 1917; was not a candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law for a short time; died in Los Angeles, Calif., June 6, 1928; remains were cremated and ashes deposited in Inglewood Cemetery.

WORMAN, Ludwig, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Tinticum Township, Bucks County, Pa., in 1761; received a limited schooling; learned the tanning business; moved to Earl Township, Berks County, Pa., in 1784 and established a tannery; elected as a Federalist to the Seventeenth Congress, and served from March 4, 1821, until his death; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1822 to the Eighteenth Congress; died in Earl Township, Berks County, Pa., October 17, 1822; interment in Earl Township Cemetery.

WORTENDYKE, Jacob Reynier, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Chestnut Ridge, near Hackensack, Bergen County, N. J., November 27, 1818; completed preparatory studies under a private tutor; was graduated from Rutgers College, New Brunswick, N. J., in 1839; taught school for ten years; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1853, and commenced practice in Jersey City, N. J.; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1859); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1858 to the Thirty-sixth Congress; resumed the practice of law; trustee of Rutgers College 1862-1868; president of the water board, Jersey City, 1860-1868; president of the Riparian Commission of New Jersey 1865-1868; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at New York City in 1868; died in Jersey City, N. J., November 7, 1868; interment in the Dutch Reformed Church Cemetery, Park Ridge, Bergen County, N. J.

WORTHINGTON, Henry Gaither, a Representative from Nevada; born in Cumberland, Md., February 9, 1828; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Tuolumne County, Calif.; traveled in Central America and Mexico and finally settled in San Francisco, Calif.; member of the State house of representatives in 1861; moved to Nevada in 1862 and settled in Austin; upon the admission of Nevada as a State into the Union was elected as a Republican to the Thirty-eighth Congress, and served from October 31, 1864, to March 3, 1865; collector of the port of Charleston, S. C.; United States minister to Uruguay and the Argentine Republic in 1868 and 1869 by appointment of President Johnson; United States district judge; major general of militia; defeated by two votes for election to the United States Senate; pallbearer at the funeral of President Abraham Lincoln; died in Washington, D. C., July 29, 1909; interment in the Congressional Cemetery.

WORTHINGTON, John Tolley Hood, a Representative from Maryland; born at "Shewan," near Baltimore, in Baltimore County, Md., November 1, 1788; received a limited schooling; engaged in agricultural pursuits; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-second Congress (March 4, 1831-March 3, 1833); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1832 to the Twenty-third Congress and for election in 1834 to the Twenty-fourth Congress; elected to the Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1841); resumed agricultural pursuits; died at "Shewan," Baltimore County, Md., April 27, 1849; interment in a private cemetery on his farm; reinterment in St. John's Episcopal Churchyard Worthington Valley, Baltimore County, Md.

WORTHINGTON, Nicholas Ellsworth, a Representative from Illinois; born in Brooke County, Va. (now West Virginia), March 30, 1836; was graduated from Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1860, and commenced practice in Peoria, Ill.; superintendent of schools of Peoria County 1865-1872; member of the State board of education 1869-1872; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1887); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1886 to the Fiftieth Congress and for election in 1888 to the Fifty-first Congress; resumed the practice of law; elected circuit judge of the tenth judicial district of Illinois in 1891; reelected in 1897, and served until his retirement on June 15, 1915; appointed by President Cleveland a member of the commission to investigate labor strikes in 1894; died in Peoria, Ill., March 4, 1916; interment in Springdale Cemetery.

WORTHINGTON, Thomas, a Senator from Ohio; born in Jefferson County, Va. (now West Virginia), July 16, 1773; completed preparatory studies; moved to Ross County, Ohio, in 1796; member of the first and second Territorial legislatures 1799-1801; delegate to the State constitutional convention in 1803; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from April 1, 1803, to March 3, 1807; member of the State house of representatives in 1807; again elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Return J. Meigs, Jr., and served from December 15, 1810, until December 1, 1814, when he resigned, having been elected governor; Governor of Ohio 1814-1818; canal commissioner from 1818 until his death; again a member of the State house of representatives in 1821 and 1822; died in New York City June 20, 1827; interment in Grandview Cemetery, Chillicothe, Ross County, Ohio.

WORTHINGTON, Thomas Contee (nephew of Benjamin Contee), a Representative from Maryland; born near Annapolis, Anne Arundel County, Md., November 25, 1782; received a limited schooling; served as a captain in the War of 1812; brigadier general of the Ninth Brigade Maryland Militia 1818-1847; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1817, and commenced practice in Annapolis, Md.; member of the executive council in 1830 under the first State constitution; moved to Frederick, Frederick County, Md., in 1818 and continued the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives in 1818; elected as a Democrat to the Nineteenth Congress (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1827); resumed the practice of law in Frederick, Md., and died there April 12, 1847; interment in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

WREN, Thomas, a Representative from Nevada; born in McArthurstown, Ohio, January 2, 1826; received a common-school education; moved with his parents to Illinois; crossed the plains to California in 1850; engaged in mining for three years; deputy clerk of Eldorado County, Calif., 1855-1857; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Downeyville, Calif.; moved to Nevada in 1863, where he resided successively in Austin, Hamilton, Pioche, Eureka, and Reno, being engaged in the practice of law at each place; city attorney of Austin 1874-1876; president and attorney for the Richmond Mining Co. in Eureka; member of the State house of representatives in 1875; elected as a Republican to the Forty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1879); resumed the practice of law; died in Reno, Nev., February 5, 1904; interment in the Masonic Cemetery.

WRIGHT, Ashley Bascom, a Representative from Massachusetts; born in Hinsdale, Berkshire County, Mass., May 25, 1841; attended the public schools and Lincoln Academy at Hinsdale; moved to North Adams, Mass., in 1861; appointed chief deputy collector of internal revenue for the tenth district of Massachusetts in 1861; resigned in 1865 and engaged in mercantile pursuits; elected selectman; commissioner for the county of Berkshire 1884-1887 and chairman for one year; member of the State executive council in 1890 and 1891; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-third, Fifty-fourth, and Fifty-fifth Congresses, and served from March 4, 1898, until his death in North Adams, Berkshire County, Mass., August 14, 1897; interment in Hinesdale Cemetery.

WRIGHT, Augustus Romaldus, a Representative from Georgia; born in Wrightsboro, Ga., June 16, 1813; completed his preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Rome, Floyd County, Ga.; elected circuit judge in 1842; was reelected, but resigned; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1857-March 3, 1859); served as major general in the Confederate Army during the Civil War; died in Glenwood, near Rome, Ga., March 31, 1891; interment in Myrtle Hill Cemetery.

WRIGHT, Charles Frederick (brother of Myron Benjamin Wright), a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Forest Lake Township, Susquehanna County, Pa., on May 3, 1856; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the Montrose (Pa.) Academy in 1874; teller of the First National Bank of Montrose, Pa., 1875-1881; was assistant cashier, cashier, and president of the First National Bank of Susquehanna Depot 1882-1899; delegate to the Republican National Convention at St. Louis in 1896; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-sixth, Fifty-seventh, and Fifty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1905); was not a candidate for renomination in 1904; delegate to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago which nominated Roosevelt and Fairbanks in 1904 and Taft and Sherman in 1908; State treasurer 1911-1913; commissioner of public service in 1915 and 1916; resumed banking pursuits; died in Susquehanna, Susquehanna County, Pa., November 10, 1925; interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

WRIGHT, Daniel B., a Representative from Mississippi; born in Tennessee; moved to Salem (now Hudsonville), Marshall County, Miss.; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth Congresses (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1857).

WRIGHT, Edwin Ruthven Vincent, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Hoboken, N. J., January 2, 1812; completed preparatory studies; engaged in newspaper work in 1835; editor of the Jersey Blue in 1836, a newspaper published in Hoboken, N. J.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1839, and commenced practice in Jersey City; subsequently settled in Hudson City and continued the practice of law; member of the State council in 1843; district attorney for Hudson County 1851-1855; mayor of Hudson, N. J., in 1855; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of New Jersey in 1859; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1865-March 3, 1867); owing to ill health, was not a candidate for renomination in 1866; retired from public and business life; died in Jersey City, N. J., January 19, 1876; interment in Hoboken Cemetery, New Durham, Hudson County, N. J.

WRIGHT, George Grover (brother of Joseph Albert Wright), a Senator from Iowa; born in Bloomington, Monroe County, Ind., March 24, 1820; attended private schools and was graduated from the Indiana University at Bloomington in 1839; studied law in Rockville, Ind., was admitted to the bar in 1840, and commenced practice in Keosauqua, Van Buren County, Iowa; prosecuting attorney of Van Buren County in 1847 and 1848; member of the State senate 1849-1851; justice of the State supreme court 1854-1870; served as president of the Iowa Agricultural Society from 1860 to 1865; removed to Des Moines, Iowa, in 1865; one of the founders of the College of Law, University of Iowa; professor in the law department of the State university 1865-1871; elected as a Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1871, to March 3, 1877; was not a candidate for reelection; resumed the practice of his profession in Des Moines and also engaged in banking; president of the American Bar Association in 1887 and 1888; died in Des Moines, Iowa, January 11, 1896; interment in Woodland Cemetery.

WRIGHT, George Washington, a Representative from California; born in Concord, Mass., June 4, 1816; attended the public schools; employed in the business department of the Boston Courier in 1835 and later engaged in mercantile pursuits in Boston; moved to California and settled in San Francisco in 1849; again engaged in mercantile pursuits and also became interested in banking and mining; one of the founders of the banking house of Palmer, Cook & Co. in San Francisco; upon the admission of California as a State into the Union was elected as an Independent to the Thirty-first Congress, and served from September 11, 1850, to March 3, 1851; declined to be a candidate for renomination; affiliated with the Republican Party and was an ardent supporter of John C. Fremont for President of the United States in 1856; moved to Washington, D. C.; toward the close of the Civil War he built, at Buffalo, N. Y., the Commodore Perry, a steam revenue vessel with side screw propellers; returned to Washington, D. C., and served as attorney of the Choctaw Indians; declined the portfolio of Secretary of the Interior in the Cabinet of President Johnson; retired from political life and engaged in private scientific work; was also interested in the prosecution of certain claims pending before Congress; moved to Dorchester, Mass., in 1880 and retired from active pursuits; died in Dorchester, Mass., April 7, 1885; interment in Sleepy Hollow Cemetery, Concord, Middlesex County, Mass.

WRIGHT, Hendrick Bradley, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Plymouth, Luzerne County, Pa., April 24, 1808; attended the Wilkes-Barre Grammar School, and was graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., in 1829; studied law, was admitted to the bar November 8, 1831, and commenced practice in Wilkes-Barre; appointed district attorney for Luzerne County in 1834; member of the State house of representatives 1841-1843 and served the last year as speaker; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1844 which nominated Polk and Dallas, and served as temporary and permanent chairman; delegate to the subsequent Democratic National Conventions which nominated Cass and Butler at Baltimore in 1848, Pierce and King at Baltimore in 1852, Buchanan and Breckinridge at Cincinnati in 1856, Douglas and Johnson at Baltimore in 1860, Seymour and Blair at New York City in 1868, and Tilden and Hendricks at St. Louis in 1876; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-third Congress (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1854 to the Thirty-fourth Congress; elected to the Thirty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of George W. Scranton, and served from July 4, 1861, to March 3, 1863; resumed the practice of his profession; elected to the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1877-March 3, 1881); although declining to be a candidate for reelection in 1880, he received over four thousand votes for Congress; died in Wilkes-Barre, Luzerne County, Pa., September 2, 1881; interment in Hollenback Cemetery.

WRIGHT, John Crafts, a Representative from Ohio; born in Wethersfield, Conn., August 17, 1783; completed preparatory studies; learned the trade of printer; moved to Troy, N. Y., and edited the Troy Gazette for several years; studied law in Litchfield, Conn., was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Steubenville, Ohio, in 1809; United States district attorney in 1817; was elected as an Adams Democrat to the Seventeenth Congress, but resigned on March 3, 1821, before the beginning of the congressional term; reelected to the Eighteenth, Nineteenth, and Twentieth Congresses (March 4, 1823–March 3, 1829); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1828 to the Twenty-first Congress; elected to the Ohio Supreme Court in 1831 and served until February 2, 1835, when he resigned; moved to Cincinnati in 1835 and engaged in newspaper work, and for thirteen years published the Cincinnati Gazette; director of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railway Co.; delegate to and honorary president of the peace congress held in Washington, D. C., in 1861 in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war, and died while serving in that capacity at Washington, D. C., February 13, 1861; interment in Spring Grove Cemetery, Cincinnati, Ohio.

WRIGHT, John Vines, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Purdy, McNairy County, Tenn., June 28, 1828; completed preparatory studies; attended the University of Tennessee at Knoxville, where he pursued courses in medicine and law, graduating from the law department; was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Purdy, Tenn.; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-fourth, Thirty-fifth, and Thirty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1855–March 3, 1861); during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army as colonel of the Thirteenth Regiment Tennessee Infantry in 1861; elected to the First and Second Confederate Congresses; judge of the Circuit Court of Tennessee; chancellor and judge of the State supreme court; practiced law in Nashville, Tenn., 1865–1886; unsuccessful candidate as an Anti-Repudiation Democrat for Governor of Tennessee in 1880; was chairman of the Northwest Indian Commission in 1888 and member of the commission to treat with the Great Sioux Nation in Dakota; appointed to the law division of the General Land Office in 1887, and served until his death in Washington, D. C., June 11, 1908; interment in Rock Creek Cemetery.

WRIGHT, Joseph Albert (brother of George Grover Wright), a Representative and a Senator from Indiana; born in Washington, Pa., April 17, 1810; moved to Indiana about 1820 with his parents, who settled in Bloomington, Monroe County; attended the common schools; was graduated from Indiana University at Bloomington in 1825; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1829, and commenced practice in Rockville, Parke County, Ind.; member of the State house of representatives in 1833; served in the State senate in 1840; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1843–March 3, 1845); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1844 to the Twenty-ninth Congress; Governor of Indiana 1849–1857; appointed by President Buchanan envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Prussia on June 1, 1857, and served until July 1, 1861; appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the expulsion of Jesse D. Bright, and served from February 24, 1862, to January 14, 1863; was not a candidate for the succeeding term; appointed United States commissioner to the Hamburg Exhibition in 1863; again appointed envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Prussia on June 30, 1865, and served until his death in Berlin, Germany, May 11, 1867; interment in New York City.

WRIGHT, Myron Benjamin (brother of Charles Frederick Wright), a Representative from Pennsylvania; born at Forest Lake, Susquehanna County, Pa., June 12, 1847; attended the common schools and pursued an academic course; taught school; clerk in the First National Bank of Susquehanna in 1865 and 1866; elected assistant cashier of the bank in 1867 and cashier in 1869; interested in several financial, business, and manufacturing enterprises; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-first, Fifty-second, and Fifty-third Congresses, and served from March 4, 1889, until his death before the close of the Fifty-third Congress; had been reelected to the Fifty-fourth Congress; died while on a trip for the benefit of his health in Trenton, Canada, November 13, 1894; interment in the Grand Street Cemetery, Susquehanna, Pa.

WRIGHT, Robert (cousin of Turbutt Wright), a Senator and a Representative from Maryland; born at "Narborough," near Chestertown, Queen Annes County, Md., November 20, 1752; attended the common schools and Washington College, Chestertown, Md.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1773, and commenced practice in Chestertown; served in the Revolutionary War as private, lieutenant, and captain; member of the State house of delegates in 1776 and 1784; served in the State senate in 1787; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate on November 19, 1801, for the term commencing March 4, 1801, and served until his resignation in 1806, having been elected governor; delegate to the Farmers' National Convention in 1803; Governor of Maryland 1806–1809; clerk of Queen Annes County in 1810; elected to the Eleventh and Twelfth Congresses to fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of John Brown; reelected to the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Congresses, and served from November 29, 1810, to March 3, 1817; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1816 to the Fifteenth Congress; elected to the Seventeenth Congress (March 4, 1821–March 3, 1823); was not a candidate for re-nomination in 1822; district judge of the lower Eastern Shore district of Maryland from 1823 until his death at "Blakeford," Queen Annes County, Md., September 7, 1826; interment in the private burying ground of the DeCourcy family at "Cheston-on-Wye," Queen Annes County, Md.

WRIGHT, Samuel Gardiner, a Representative from New Jersey; born in Wrightstown, N. J., November 18, 1781; was mainly self-educated; engaged in mercantile pursuits in Philadelphia, Pa., with a country place near Imlaystown, N. J.; owned several iron furnaces in New Jersey and Delaware; was elected as a Whig to the Twenty-ninth Congress, and served from March 4, 1845, until his death near Imlaystown, Monmouth County, N. J., July 30, 1845, before the assembling of Congress; interment in the East Branch Cemetery, near Imlaystown, N. J.

WRIGHT, Silas, Jr., a Representative and a Senator from New York; born in Amherst, Mass., May 24, 1795; moved with his father to Weybridge, Vt., in 1796; was graduated from Middlebury College, Vermont, in 1815; moved to Sandy Hill, Washington County, N. Y., in 1816; studied law, was admitted to the bar in January, 1819, and commenced practice in Canton, St. Lawrence County, N. Y.; surrogate of St. Lawrence County 1821–1824; member of the State senate 1824–1827; appointed brigadier general of State militia in 1827; elected as a Democrat to the Twentieth Congress, and served from March 4, 1827, to February 10, 1829, when he resigned; successfully contested the election of George Fisher to the Twenty-first Congress, but declined to qualify; appointed comptroller of the State of New York in 1829, and served until 1833; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1832 which nominated Andrew Jackson for President and Martin Van Buren for Vice President; elected to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William L. Marcy; reelected in 1837, and served from January 4, 1838, to December 1, 1844, when he resigned, having been elected governor; Governor of New York 1844–1846; unsuccessful candidate for reelection; died in Canton, N. Y., August 27, 1847; interment in Old Canton Cemetery.

WRIGHT, Turbutt (cousin of Robert Wright), a Delegate from Maryland; born at "White Marsh," near Chester Mills (now Centerville), Queen Annes County, Md., February 5, 1741; engaged in agricultural pursuits; member of the General Assembly of Maryland in 1778 and 1774; one of the signers of the Association of the Freemen of Maryland July 20, 1775; member of the Maryland constitutional convention in 1776; appointed February 3, 1777, by the Council of Maryland as a member of the council of safety to fill the place of James Lloyd Chamberlaine, resigned, and served until the dissolution of the council on March 21, 1777; commissioned a Justice of Queen Annes County in 1779; register of wills of Queen Annes County in 1779 and 1780; Member of the Continental Congress in 1781 and 1782; again served in the State general assembly in 1781 and 1782; subscribed (with others, including George Washington) in 1783 to a fund for the purpose of establishing Washington College at Chestertown, Kent County, Md.; died on his estate, "White Marsh," near Centerville, Md., in 1783; interment in the family burial plot.

WRIGHT, William, a Representative and a Senator from New Jersey; born in Clarkstown, Rockland County, N. Y., November 13, 1794; attended the public schools; was a volunteer for the defense of Stonington, Conn., in the War of 1812; learned the saddler's trade and engaged in business in Bridgeport, Conn., in 1815; moved to Newark, N. J., in 1821; mayor of Newark 1840-1843; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Philadelphia in 1848; elected as a Clay Whig to the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1847); unsuccessful candidate for Governor of New Jersey in 1847; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1853, to March 3, 1859; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1858; again elected to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1863, until his death in Newark, N. J., November 1, 1868; interment in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

WRIGHT, William Carter, a Representative from Georgia; born in Carroll County, Ga., January 6, 1806; moved with his parents to Newnan, Coweta County, Ga., in 1809; attended the common and high schools of Newnan; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1836, and commenced practice in Newnan, Ga.; city attorney for Newnan 1892-1895; solicitor of the city court of Newnan 1894-1903; member of the board of education 1910-1918; chairman of the Democratic State executive committee in 1910 and 1911; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William C. Adamson; was reelected to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses, and served from January 24, 1918, to March 3, 1927. Reelected to the Seventieth Congress.

WURTS, John, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Flanders, Morris County, N. J., August 13, 1792; after his father's death in 1793 the family resided in Montville, Morris County, and subsequently moved to Philadelphia, Pa.; was graduated from Princeton College in 1813; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1816, and commenced practice in Philadelphia, Pa.; member of the State house of representatives in 1817; served in the State senate in 1820; elected as a National-Republican to the Nineteenth Congress (March 4, 1825-March 3, 1827); was not a candidate for renomination; United States district attorney 1827-1831; member of the City Council of Philadelphia; president of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Co. 1831-1856; in 1859 he went abroad for his health, and died in Rome, Italy, April 23, 1861; interment in the family cemetery at Pleasant Mills, near Batsto, Atlantic County, N. J.

WURZBACH, Harry McLeary, a Representative from Texas; born in San Antonio, Tex., May 19, 1874; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the law department of Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., in 1896; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced the practice of law in San Antonio, Tex.; during the Spanish-American War volunteered as a private in Company F, First Regiment Texas Volunteer Infantry; after the war moved to Seguin, Tex., in 1900 and continued the practice of law; prosecuting attorney of Guadalupe County 1900-1902; judge of the same county 1904-1910; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1927); delegate at large from Texas to the Republican National Convention at Cleveland in 1924. Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

WYANT, Adam Martin, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born near Kittanning, Armstrong County, Pa., September 15, 1869; attended the public schools, Mount Pleasant Institute, and Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa.; was graduated from the University of Chicago in 1895; moved to Greensburg, Westmoreland County, Pa., in 1896; studied law, was admitted to the Westmoreland County bar in 1902, and commenced practice in Greensburg; interested in various business enterprises; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1921-March 3, 1927). Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

WYNKOOP, Henry, a Delegate and a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Northampton Township, Bucks County, Pa., March 2, 1737; completed English and classical studies; member of the Pennsylvania Assembly in 1760 and 1761; associate justice of Bucks County courts 1764-1777 and president judge 1777-1789; member of the committee of observation in 1774; delegate to the provincial conferences of July 15, 1774, and June 18, 1775; major of Bucks County Associated Battalions; member of the general committee of safety in 1776 and 1777; Member of the Continental Congress from 1779 to 1783; justice of the high court of errors and appeals from 1783 to 1789; elected to the First Congress (March 4, 1789-March 3, 1791); appointed associate justice of Bucks County, Pa., and served until his death in that county on March 25, 1816; interment in the graveyard of the Low Dutch Reformed Church, Richboro, Pa.

WYNN, William Joseph, a Representative from California; born in San Francisco, Calif., June 12, 1860; attended the public schools of San Francisco; learned the machinist's trade; member of the board of supervisors of the city and county of San Francisco from January 8, 1902, to March 4, 1903; elected by a fusion of the Union Labor and Democratic Parties to the Fifty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1905); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1904 to the Fifty-ninth Congress; engaged in the insurance business, and resides in San Francisco, Calif.

WYNNS, Thomas, a Representative from North Carolina; born near Barfields, Hertford County, N. C., in 1764; received his education in England; captured at sea on a vessel called the Fair American in 1780, and with several other colonists was carried to London; returned to North Carolina and settled as a planter in Hertford County; one of the first trustees of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill; member of the State house of commons in 1787; delegate to the State convention for the ratification of the Federal Constitution 1788-89; served in the State senate 1790-1802 and 1807-1817; presidential elector on the Federalist ticket of Adams and Pinckney in 1800 and of Pinckney and King in 1808; elected as a Federalist to the Seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles Johnston; reelected to the Eighth and Ninth Congresses, and served from December 7, 1802, to March 3, 1807; resumed planting in Hertford County; member of the State executive council 1818-1824; brigadier general of militia; died near Winton, Hertford County, N. C., June 3, 1825; interment in Maney's Cemetery, near Maney's Ferry, N. C.

WYTHE, George, a Delegate from Virginia; born near Back River, Elizabeth City County, Va., in 1726; privately instructed by his mother and attended William and Mary College, Williamsburg, Va.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1746, and commenced practice in Elizabeth City County in 1755; moved to Williamsburg about 1755; member of the house of burgesses 1758-1768; appointed a member of the committee of correspondence in 1759; moved to his estate in Elizabeth City County in 1768; clerk of the house of burgesses 1768-1775; returned to Williamsburg in 1768; Member of the Continental Congress 1775-1777; a signer of the Declaration of Independence; speaker of the house of delegates in 1777; judge of the Chancery Court of Virginia in 1777; appointed sole chancellor of Virginia in 1778; professor of law in William and Mary College from 1779 to 1791, when he resigned and moved to Richmond, Va.; conducted a private school in Richmond and continued teaching until his death; member of the Federal Constitutional Convention at Philadelphia, Pa., in 1787 which adopted the Constitution and of the State constitutional convention in 1788 which ratified it; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Jefferson and Burr in 1800 and of Jefferson and Clinton in 1804; emancipated his slaves, furnishing them with means of support until they learned to care for themselves; died in Richmond, Va., June 8, 1806; interment in St. John's Churchyard.

YANCEY, Bartlett (cousin of John Kerr), a Representative from North Carolina; born near Yanceyville, Caswell County, N. C., February 19, 1785; attended a private school and Hyc Academy in Caswell County; was a student at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill 1804-1806; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1807, and practiced; elected to the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Congresses (March 4, 1813-March 3, 1817); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1816; member of the State senate and served as its presiding officer 1817-1827; declined the appointment of minister to Peru tendered by President John Quincy Adams in 1826, and also declined an appointment to the Supreme Court of North Carolina; died near Yanceyville, Caswell County, N. C., August 30, 1828; interment in the family cemetery upon the homestead.

YANCEY, Joel, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Albemarle County, Va., October 21, 1773; member of the State house of representatives 1809-1811; served in the State senate 1816-1820 and 1824-1827; elected as a Democrat to the Twentieth and Twenty-first Congresses (March 4, 1827-March 3, 1831); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1830 to the Twenty-second Congress; died in Barren County, Ky., in April, 1838; interment in that county.

YANCEY, William Lowndes (uncle of Joseph Haynsworth Earle), a Representative from Alabama; born at the Falls of the Ogeechee, Warren County, Ga., August 10, 1814; attended preparatory school and Williams College, Williamstown, Mass.; studied law in Sparta, Ga., was admitted to the bar in 1834, and commenced practice in Greenville, S. C.; moved to Cahawba, Ala., in 1836; temporarily abandoned the practice of law and became a cotton planter; editor of the Cahawba Democrat and the Cahawba Gazette; moved to Wetumpka, Ala., in 1839, and resumed the practice of law; member of the State house of representatives in 1841; served in the State senate in 1843; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dixon H. Lewis; reelected to the Twenty-ninth Congress, and served from December 2, 1844, to September 1, 1848, when he resigned; moved to Montgomery, Ala., in 1846; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1848, at Cincinnati in 1856, and at Charleston in 1860; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Buchanan and Breckinridge in 1860; member of the State constitutional convention which convened in Montgomery January 7, 1861; appointed chairman of the commission sent to Europe in 1861 to present the Confederate cause to the Governments of England and France; elected to the first Confederate States Senate February 21, 1862; died at his plantation home, near Montgomery, Ala., July 28, 1863; interment in Oakwood Cemetery.

YANGCOO, Teodoro Rafael, a Resident Commissioner from the Philippine Islands; born in San Antonio, Province of Zambales, P. I., November 9, 1861; attended the Ateneo de Manila (Jesuit College), and was graduated from the University of St. Thomas in 1881; pursued a commercial course in London, England, 1882-1886; engaged in the construction and repair of vessels, in the operation of a line of ferries, and also in mercantile pursuits; director of a life insurance company and interested in various commercial and charitable organizations in Manila; elected as a Nationalist a Resident Commissioner to the United States, and served from March 4, 1917, to March 3, 1920; was not a candidate for renomination in 1920; resumed his former business activities in Manila, P. I., and resides there.

YAPLE, George Lewis, a Representative from Michigan; born in Leondias, St. Joseph County, Mich., February 20, 1851; moved with his parents to Mendon, Mich., in 1857; attended the common schools and was graduated from the Northwestern University, Evanston, Ill., in 1871 and completed a postgraduate course in 1874; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1872, but immediately engaged in agricultural pursuits until 1877 when he commenced the practice of law at Mendon, Mich.; unsuccessful Greenback candidate for election in 1880 to the Forty-seventh Congress; elected on the Union ticket to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at St. Louis in 1888 which nominated Grover Cleveland, of New York, for President, and Allen G. Thurman, of Ohio, for Vice President; resumed the practice of law in Mendon, Mich.; circuit judge of the fifteenth circuit of Michigan 1894-1911; member of the Republican Party since 1916; retired, and is a resident of Mendon, Mich.

YARDLEY, Robert Morris, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Yardley, Bucks County, Pa., October 9, 1850; attended public and private schools in Yardley and Doylestown; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1872, and commenced practice in Doylestown, Pa.; district attorney of Bucks County 1880-1884; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1884; elected as a Republican to the Fiftieth and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1891); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1890; resumed the practice of law in Bucks County; member of the Doylestown School Board; director of several financial and public service corporations; died in Doylestown, Bucks County, Pa., December 8, 1902; interment in Doylestown Cemetery.

YATES, Abraham (uncle to Peter Waldron Yates), a Delegate from New York; born in Albany, N. Y., August 23, 1724; completed preparatory studies; sheriff of Albany County 1755-1759; deputy to the Provincial Convention in 1775; delegate to the Provincial Congress 1775-1777, and served as president pro tempore of that body November 2, 1775, August 10, 1776, and as president August 28, 1776; member of the first and second Councils of Safety May 3, 1777, to January 7, 1778; served in the State senate 1778-1790; member of the Council of Appointment 1777; receiver of Albany in 1778 and 1779; first postmaster of Albany in 1783; Member of the Continental Congress in 1787 and 1788; mayor of Albany 1790-1796; presidential elector on the Washington and Adams ticket in 1792; died in Albany, Albany County, N. Y., June 30, 1796; interment in Albany Rural Cemetery.

YATES, John Barentse, a Representative from New York; born in Schenectady, N. Y., February 1, 1784; completed preparatory studies, and was graduated from Union College at Schenectady in 1802; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1805, and commenced practice in Schenectady; served in the War of 1812 under Gen. Wade Hampton on the northern frontier and was subsequently appointed aide-de-camp to Gov. Daniel D. Tompkins; elected as a Democrat to the Fourteenth Congress (March 4, 1815-March 3, 1817); was not a candidate for renomination in 1816; aided materially in the construction of the Welland Canal; founded the Yates Polytechnic Institute in 1825; moved to Chittenango, Madison County, in 1816; judge of Madison County in 1835 and 1836; elected a member of the State assembly in 1838 and served until his death in Chittenango, N. Y., July 10, 1838; interment in Walnut Grove Cemetery, near Chittenango, N. Y.

YATES, Peter Waldron (nephew of Abraham Yates), a Delegate from New York; born in Albany, N. Y., August 23, 1747; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Albany; member of the committee on correspondence in 1775; resigned and was reelected, but declined to serve; regent of the University of the State of New York in 1784; served in the State assembly in 1784 and 1785; Member of the Continental Congress 1785-1787; resumed the practice of law; died in Caughnawaga, N. Y., March 9, 1826.

YATES, Richard (father of Richard Yates), a Representative and a Senator from Illinois; born in Warsaw, Gallatin County, Ky., January 18, 1818; attended the common schools; moved with his father to Springfield, Ill., in 1831, and subsequently settled in Berlin (now New Berlin), Sangamon County; was graduated from Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill., in 1835; studied law at Transylvania University, Lexington, Ky., was admitted to the bar in 1837, and commenced practice in Jacksonville, Ill.; member of the State house of representatives 1842-1845, 1848, and 1849; elected as a Whig to the Thirty-second and Thirty-third Congresses (March 4, 1851-March 3, 1855); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1854 to the Thirty-fourth Congress; delegate to the Republican State convention in 1854 and to the Republican National Conventions at Chicago in 1860 which nominated Lincoln and 1868 which nominated Grant; Governor of Illinois 1861-1865; was the caucus nominee of his party, who were in the minority, for Senator in 1863; elected as a Union Republican to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1865, to March 3, 1871; was not a candidate for reelection; died suddenly in St. Louis, Mo., November 27, 1873, while returning from Arkansas, whither he had gone as a United States commissioner, by appointment of President Grant, to inspect a land subsidy railroad; interment in Diamond Grove Cemetery, Jacksonville, Ill.

YATES, Richard (son of the preceding), a Representative from Illinois; born in Jacksonville, Morgan County, Ill., December 12, 1860; attended the public schools; Illinois Woman's College, Jacksonville, Ill., 1870-1874; city editor Daily Courier, 1878-79, and for the Daily Journal 1881-1883; was graduated from the Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill., in 1880 and from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor in 1884; commenced practice in Jacksonville, Ill.; city attorney of Jacksonville 1885-1890; private of Company I, Fifth Infantry, Illinois National Guard 1885-1890; county judge of Morgan County 1894-1897; United States collector of internal revenue for the eighth internal revenue district 1897-1900; Governor of Illinois 1901-1904; member of the State public utilities commission 1914-1917; assistant attorney general of the State of Illinois in 1917 and 1918; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-sixth, Sixty-seventh, Sixty-eighth, and Sixty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1919-March 3, 1927). Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

YEAMAN, George Helm, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Hardin County, Ky., November 1, 1829; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1852, and began practice in Owensboro, Ky.; judge of Davis County in 1854; member of the State house of representatives in 1861; elected as a Unionist to the Thirty-seventh Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of James S. Jackson; reelected to the Thirty-eighth Congress, and served from December 1, 1862, to March 3, 1865; unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth Congress; United States minister to Denmark 1865-1870; resigned in 1870 and settled in New York City; lecturer on constitutional law at Columbia College; president of the Medico-Legal Society of New York; author of several books, articles, and pamphlets on various subjects; died in Jersey City, N. J., February 23, 1908; interment in Webb Memorial Chapel, Madison, N. J.

YEATES, Jesse Johnson, a Representative from North Carolina; born near Murfreesboro, Hertford County, N. C., May 29, 1829; attended private schools and Emory and Henry College, Emory, Va.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1855, and commenced practice in Murfreesboro; prosecuting attorney of Hertford County 1855-1860; member of the State house of commons 1860-1862; solicitor of the first judicial district 1860-1866; served in the Confederate Army as captain and major of the Thirty-first North Carolina Infantry during the Civil War; member of the governor's council during Governor Worth's administration; declined appointment by Governor Holden as judge of the first judicial district in 1868; delegate to the Democratic State convention in 1871; member of the State constitutional convention in 1871; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth and Forty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1879); successfully contested the election of Joseph J. Martin to the Forty-sixth Congress, and served from January 29 to March 3, 1881; declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1880; resumed the practice of law in Washington, D. C., and died there September 5, 1892; interment in Glenwood Cemetery.

YELL, Archibald, a Representative from Arkansas; born in North Carolina in 1797; moved to Tennessee in youth and settled in Bedford County; took part in the Creek campaign; participated in the War of 1812 and served under General Jackson at the Battle of New Orleans; studied law, was admitted to the bar of Tennessee; commenced practice in Fayetteville, Lincoln County, Tenn., and continued until 1832; declined the governorship of the Territory of Florida; appointed judge of the Territory of Arkansas by President Jackson in 1832, with residence at Fayetteville, Ark., and served until 1835; upon the admission of Arkansas as a State into the Union was elected as a Van Buren Democrat to the Twenty-fourth Congress; reelected to the Twenty-fifth Congress, and served from August 1, 1836, to March 3, 1839; Governor of Arkansas 1840-1844; resigned in 1844; elected to the Twenty-ninth Congress, and served from March 4, 1845, to July 1, 1846, when he resigned to take part in the Mexican War; served as colonel of the First Regiment Arkansas Volunteer Cavalry, and was killed in the Battle of Buena Vista February 23, 1847; interment in Fayetteville Cemetery, Fayetteville, Ark.

YOAKUM, Charles Henderson, a Representative from Texas; born near Tehuacana, Lincoln (now Limestone) County, Tex., July 10, 1849; attended Larissa College in Cherokee County and Cumberland College; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1874, and commenced practice in Emory, Rains County, Tex.; prosecuting attorney for Rains County in 1876; moved to Hunt County in 1883 and practiced law in Greenville; district attorney for the eighth judicial district from 1886 to 1890; member of the State senate from 1892 to 1896; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fourth Congress (March 4, 1895-March 3, 1897); continued the practice of law in Greenville, Tex., until 1900, when he moved to Los Angeles, Calif.; returned to Texas in 1904; died in Fort Worth, Tex., January 1, 1909; interment in Myrtle Cemetery, Ennis, Tex.

YOCUM, Seth Hartman, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Catawissa, Columbia County, Pa., August 2, 1834; attended the rural schools; went to Philadelphia in 1850 and learned the printer's trade; taught school for several years; was graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa., in 1860; during the Civil War entered the Union Army as a private and was promoted to first lieutenant of the Fifth Pennsylvania Cavalry; studied law, was admitted to the Schuylkill County bar in 1865, and commenced practice in Ashland, Pa.; moved to Bellefonte, Center County, in 1873 and continued the practice of law; district attorney of Center County 1875-1879; elected as Republican to the Forty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1881); was not a candidate for renomination in 1880; moved to Johnson City, Tenn., and engaged in the tanning business; mayor of Johnson City, Tenn., in 1885; moved to Pasadena, Calif., and became engaged in the orange-growing business; died in Santa Monica, Calif., April 19, 1895; interment in Mountain View Cemetery, Pasadena, Calif.

YODER, Samuel S., a Representative from Ohio; born in Berlin, Holmes County, Ohio, August 16, 1841; attended the common schools and Wooster (Ohio) University, and was graduated from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army in the One hundred and twenty-eighth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry April 19, 1862; rose to the rank of Lieutenant, and served until the end of the war; studied medicine and practiced in Bluffton, Ohio; mayor of Bluffton 1868-1878; moved to Lima, Ohio, in 1878; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1880, and commenced practice in Lima; member of the Democratic State executive committee 1883-1885; judge of the probate court of Allen County from February, 1882, to October, 1886, when he resigned, having been elected to Congress; elected as a Democrat to the Fiftieth and Fifty-first Congresses (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1891); was not a candidate for renomination in 1890; Sergeant at Arms of the National House of Representatives during the Fifty-second Congress; continued the practice of law and also engaged in the real-estate business in Washington, D. C., until his death, May 11, 1921; interment in Arlington National Cemetery, Fort Myer, Va.

YORK, Tyra, a Representative from North Carolina; born in Rockford, Surry County, N. C., May 4, 1836; attended the common schools; studied medicine at the Charleston (S. C.) Medical College and commenced practice in Traphill, Wilkes County, N. C., in 1859; also engaged in agricultural pursuits; served during the latter part of the Civil War as surgeon of the Wilkes County Home Guards; was a member of the State house of representatives in 1855, 1866, 1879, and 1887; served in the State senate in 1878 and 1881; elected as a Liberal Democrat to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); did not seek renomination in 1884, having become a gubernatorial candidate; unsuccessful candidate for Governor of North Carolina in 1884; resumed agricultural pursuits; died in Traphill, Wilkes County, N. C., January 23, 1916; interment in Traphill Cemetery.

YORKE, Thomas Jones, a Representative from New Jersey; born at Hancock's Bridge, Salem County, N. J., March 25, 1801; attended the common schools and the Salem Academy; during the War of 1812 served as a scout for the United States forces; studied law, but did not practice; engaged in mercantile pursuits at Salem; county collector of Salem County in 1830; judge of the Salem County court of common pleas 1833, 1834, and 1845-1854 and for a portion of the latter term was presiding judge; member of the State general assembly in 1835; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1837-March 3, 1839); presented credentials as a Member elect to the Twenty-sixth Congress, but the House declined to seat him; elected to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); director of the West Jersey Railroad Co., of which he was secretary and treasurer in 1853 and president 1866-1875; also president of the Cape May & Millville Railroad Co.; served as director at various times of the Swedesborough Railroad Co., Salem Railroad Co., Camden & Philadelphia Ferry Co., and West Jersey Mail & Transportation Co.; died in Salem, N. J., April 4, 1882; interment in St. John's Episcopal Cemetery.

YOST, Jacob, a Representative from Virginia; born in Staunton, Augusta County, Va., April 1, 1853; received a primary schooling; learned the trade of printer, but never pursued it as a calling; engaged in civil engineering; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Garfield and Arthur in 1880; unsuccessful Republican candidate for election in 1884 to the Forty-ninth Congress; elected mayor of Staunton in May, 1886, and served until January, 1887, when he resigned, having been elected to Congress; was elected as a Republican to the Fiftieth Congress (March 4, 1887-March 3, 1889); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1888 to the Fifty-first Congress; elected to the Fifty-fifth Congress (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1899); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1898; engaged in the management and development of iron ore and coal lands; discontinued active business pursuits in 1924, and moved to California the following year; is living in retirement in Palo Alto, Santa Clara County, Calif.

YOST, Jacob Senewell, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Pottstown, Pottsgrove Township, Montgomery County, Pa., July 29, 1801; attended the common schools and Fourth Street Academy, Philadelphia, Pa.; publisher and editor of the La Fayette (Pa.) Aurora; member of the State house of representatives 1838-1839; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-eighth and Twenty-ninth Congresses (March 4, 1843-March 3, 1847); United States marshal for the eastern district of Pennsylvania by appointment of President James Buchanan and served from 1857 to 1861; died in Pottstown, Pa., March 7, 1872; interment in Edgewood Cemetery.

YOUMANS, Henry Melville, a Representative from Michigan; born in Otego, Otsego County, N. Y., on May 15, 1832; attended the common schools; was in the employ of the York & Erie Railroad Co., Susquehanna division, for ten years; moved to East Saginaw, Mich., in 1862; engaged in the manufacture of lumber and salt 1863-1878; mayor of East Saginaw in 1886 and 1887; served four terms as alderman; held all the positions of honor under the municipal government of East Saginaw; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-second Congress (March 4, 1891-March 3, 1896); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1892 to the Fifty-third Congress; member of the State senate in 1896 and 1897; engaged in agricultural pursuits at Bridgeport, Mich., until his death in Saginaw, Mich., July 8, 1920; interment in Brady Hill Cemetery.

YOUNG, Augustus, a Representative from Vermont; born in Arlington, Bennington County, Vt., March 20, 1784; completed preparatory studies; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1810, and commenced practice in Stowe, Vt.; moved to Craftsbury, Vt., in 1812; member of the State house of representatives 1821-1824, 1826, 1828-1830, and 1832; State's attorney for Orleans County 1824-1828; judge of probate in 1830 and 1831; served in the State senate 1836-1838; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1842; resumed the practice of law and engaged in literary pursuits; moved to St. Albans in 1847; assistant judge of the Franklin County court 1851-1854; died in St. Albans, Vt., June 17, 1857; interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

YOUNG, Bryan Rust (brother of William Singleton Young and uncle of John Young Brown), a Representative from Kentucky; born near Bardistown, Nelson County, Ky., January 14, 1800; attended the common schools, and was graduated from the University of Louisville, Louisville, Ky.; studied medicine and practiced his profession in Nelson County, Ky.; member of the State house of representatives 1830, 1861-1863, and 1865-1867; elected as a Democrat to the Twenty-ninth Congress (March 4, 1845-March 3, 1847); resumed the practice of medicine; presidential elector on the Democratic ticket of Fillmore and Butler in 1848; died in Elizabethtown, Hardin County, Ky., May 14, 1882; interment in Elizabethtown Cemetery.

YOUNG, Ebenezer, a Representative from Connecticut; born in Killingly, Windham County, Conn., on December 25, 1783; was graduated from Yale College in 1806; studied law, was admitted to the bar, and commenced practice in Westfield (now Danielson), Conn.; engaged in the manufacture of cloth at East Killingly, Conn.; elected as a Federalist a member of the State house of representatives in 1810, 1811, 1816, and 1817; served in the State senate 1823-1825; again a member of the State house of representatives 1826-1828, and served as speaker in 1827 and 1828; elected to the Twenty-first, Twenty-second, and Twenty-third Congresses (March 4, 1829-March 3, 1835); died in West Killingly, Conn., August 18, 1851; interment in Westfield Cemetery, Danielson, Conn.

YOUNG, George Morley, a Representative from North Dakota; born in Lakelet, Huron County, Ontario, Canada, December 11, 1870; when a boy moved to the United States and settled in St. Charles, Mich.; attended the public schools, and was graduated from the law department of the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis in 1894; was admitted to the bar the same year and commenced practice in Valley City, N. Dak.; member of the board of aldermen 1898-99; member of the State house of representatives 1900-1902; served in the State senate 1904-1908 and was president pro tempore of the senate during the entire term; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-third and to the five succeeding Congresses, and served from March 4, 1913, to September 2, 1924, when he resigned to accept a judicial position; appointed as a member of the United States Customs Court at New York in 1924, in which capacity he is now serving, and resides in New York City.

YOUNG, Hiram Casey, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Tuscaloosa, Tuscaloosa County, Ala., December 14, 1828; moved with his parents to Ryhalla, Marshall County, Miss., when a small child; was educated by his father and attended Marshall Institute in Marshall County, Miss.; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1850, and commenced practice in Memphis, Tenn.; served in the Civil War 1861-1865 as lieutenant colonel of Cavalry and on the brigade staff; Assistant Inspector General, first division of Cavalry, 1864; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fourth, Forty-fifth, and Forty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1875-March 3, 1881); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1880; elected to the Forty-eighth Congress (March 4, 1883-March 3, 1885); was not a candidate for renomination; resumed the practice of law; died in Memphis, Tenn., August 17, 1899; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

YOUNG, Horace Olin, a Representative from Michigan; born in New Albion, Cattaraugus County, N. Y., August 4, 1850; attended the common schools and high school of Albion, N. Y., and Randolph Institute, New York; moved to Ishpeming, Mich.; engaged in accounting; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1879, and commenced practice in Ishpeming, Mich.; member of the State house of representatives in 1879; prosecuting attorney of Marquette County 1880-1890; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-eighth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1903-March 3, 1913); presented credentials as a Member elect to the Sixty-third Congress, and served from March 4, 1913, until his resignation, effective May 10, 1913, while a contest for the seat was pending; president of the Miners' National Bank in Ishpeming; died in Ishpeming, Mich., August 5, 1917; interment in the City Cemetery.

YOUNG, Isaac Daniel, a Representative from Kansas; born near Pleasantville, Marion County, Iowa, on March 20, 1840; attended high school and Oskaloosa College in Iowa; began teaching at the age of fifteen and continued in that profession for ten years; moved to Mitchell County, Kans., in 1874 and settled on a homestead in Turkey Creek Township; engaged in agricultural pursuits for eleven years; superintendent of public instruction of Mitchell County, Kans., 1876-1880; member of the State senate 1884-1888; moved to Beloit, Kans., in 1885; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1889, and commenced practice in Beloit, Kans.; again a member of the State senate 1904-1908; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-second Congress (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1913); unsuccessful candidate for reelection in 1912; delegate to nearly all Republican conventions; resumed the practice of law in Beloit until he died December 10, 1927; interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

YOUNG, James, a Representative from Texas; born in Henderson, Rusk County, Tex., July 18, 1866; attended the public schools; was graduated from the law department of the University of Texas at Austin in July, 1891, was admitted to the bar the same year, and commenced the practice of law in Kaufman, Kaufman County, Tex.; elected as a Democrat to the Sixty-second, Sixty-third, Sixty-fourth, Sixty-fifth, and Sixty-sixth Congresses (March 4, 1911-March 3, 1921); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1920; again engaged in the practice of his chosen profession, and is a resident of Kaufman, Tex.

YOUNG, James Rankin, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Philadelphia, Pa., March 10, 1847; attended the common schools and Philadelphia High School; during the Civil War enlisted in the Union Army in June, 1863, in the Thirty-second Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry and served during the Gettysburg campaign; one of the founders of the Philadelphia Evening Star in 1869; attended all the Republican National Conventions from 1864 to 1908; served as chief of the Washington bureau of the New York Tribune from June, 1866, to December, 1870; chief executive clerk of the United States Senate from December, 1873, to March, 1879; chief clerk of the Department of Justice from September, 1882, to December, 1883; again chief executive clerk of the United States Senate from December, 1883, to April, 1892; elected as a Republican to the Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth, and Fifty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1903); appointed superintendent of the Dead Letter Office of the Post Office Department and served from 1903 to 1913; superintendent of the postal savings depository in Philadelphia until 1915; retired, and was a resident of Washington, D. C., until his death on December 13, 1924; interment in Glenwood Cemetery.

YOUNG, John, a Representative from New York; born in Chelsea, Orange County, N. Y., June 12, 1802; moved to New York State in 1806 with his parents, who settled in Conesus, Livingston County, where he attended the public schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1829, and commenced practice in Genesee, N. Y.; member of the State assembly in 1833, 1844, and 1845; elected as a Whig to the Twenty-fourth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Philo C. Fuller, and served from November 9, 1836, to March 3, 1837; declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1836; elected to the Twenty-seventh Congress (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1843); was not a candidate for reelection in 1842; Governor of New York 1847-1849; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Philadelphia in 1848; appointed assistant treasurer of the United States at New York June 28, 1849, and served until his death in New York City April 23, 1852; interment in Temple Hill Cemetery, Genesee, N. Y.

YOUNG, John Duncan, a Representative from Kentucky; born in Owingsville, Bath County, Ky., September 22, 1823; attended the common schools; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1854, and practiced in Owingsville, Ky., and later engaged in agricultural pursuits; acting marshal of Kentucky during the administration of President Pierce; elected judge of the quarterly court of Bath County in 1858 and served four years; again elected in 1866 and served until 1867 when he resigned having been elected to Congress; presented credentials as a Member elect to the Fortieth Congress in 1867, but was not permitted to qualify; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-third Congress (March 4, 1873-March 3, 1875); was not a candidate for renomination in 1874; resumed agricultural pursuits; State railroad commissioner of Kentucky 1884-1889; again served as judge of the quarterly court of Bath County 1890-1895; died in Mount Sterling, Ky., December 26, 1910; interment in Machpelah Cemetery.

YOUNG, John Smith, a Representative from Louisiana; born near Raleigh, Wake County, N. C., November 4, 1834; moved with his father to Fayette County, Tenn., in 1836, and thence to Columbia County, Ark., in 1848; was graduated from Centenary College, Jackson, La., in 1855; moved to Homer, Claiborne Parish, La., in September, 1855; studied law, was admitted to the bar in 1860, and practiced in Homer; during the Civil War enlisted in the Confederate Army as a private May 3, 1861, and was successively promoted until he attained the rank of lieutenant colonel; returned to Homer at the close of the war and resumed the practice of law; judge of Claiborne Parish court 1870-1872; member of the State house of representatives 1872-1876; judge of the eleventh judicial district of Louisiana 1876-1878; elected as a Democrat to the Forty-fifth Congress to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John E. Leonard, and served from November 5, 1878, to March 3, 1879; was not a candidate for renomination in 1878; resumed the practice of law in Homer, La.; moved to Monroe, La., in 1880, thence to Shreveport, Caddo Parish, in 1880, where he continued the practice of his profession; sheriff of Caddo Parish 1892-1900; died in Shreveport, La., October 11, 1916; interment in Oakland Cemetery.

YOUNG, Lafayette, a Senator from Iowa; born near Eddyville, Monroe County, Iowa, May 10, 1848; attended country schools and night school in St. Louis, in which city he learned the printing trade; founded and published the Atlantic (Iowa) Telegraph 1871-1890; member of the State senate 1874-1896; established the Des Moines Capital March 30, 1890, and was editor at the time of his death; was with General Shafter's expedition in Cuba as a war correspondent in 1898; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Philadelphia in 1900 and at Chicago in 1908; at the former convention nominated Theodore Roosevelt for Vice President of the United States; presidential elector on the Republican ticket of Taft and Sherman in 1908; appointed to the United States Senate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Jonathan P. Dolliver, and served from November 12, 1910, to April 11, 1911, when a successor was elected; unsuccessful candidate for election to fill this vacancy; war correspondent for four months in Europe in 1915; Chautauqua lecturer in 1915; established the Sunday Capital on April 6, 1919; chairman of the State council for defense for Iowa during the World War; was made a knight of the Order of Leopold II of Belgium in recognition of his work in raising funds in Iowa for the children of Belgium; died in Des Moines, Polk County, Iowa, November 15, 1926; interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

YOUNG, Pierce Manning Butler, a Representative from Georgia; born in Spartanburg, Spartanburg County, S. C., November 15, 1836; moved with his parents to Georgia in 1839; studied under private tutors, and was graduated from Georgia Military Institute, Marietta, Ga., in 1856; studied law; entered the United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y., in 1857 and resigned two months before graduation to enter the Confederate Army as a second lieutenant; served throughout the Civil War, attaining the rank of major general; settled in Cartersville, Ga., after the war and engaged in agricultural pursuits; upon the readmission of the State of Georgia to representation was elected as a Democrat to the Fortieth Congress, and served from July 25, 1868, to March 3, 1869; presented credentials as a Member elect to the Forty-first Congress, but the House decided he was not entitled to the seat; subsequently elected to fill the vacancy thus caused; reelected to the Forty-second and Forty-third Congresses, and served from December 22, 1870, to March 3, 1875; unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1874; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Baltimore in 1872, at St. Louis in 1876, and at Cincinnati in 1880; resumed agricultural pursuits; appointed United States commissioner to the Paris Exposition in 1878; consul general at St. Petersburg (now Leningrad), Russia, 1885-1887; envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to Guatemala and Honduras by appointment of President Grover Cleveland 1898-1899; died in the Presbyterian Hospital, New York City, July 6, 1896; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery, Cartersville, Bartow County, Ga.

YOUNG, Richard, a Representative from New York; born in Londonderry, Ireland, on August 6, 1846; emigrated to the United States with his parents, who settled in Philadelphia, Pa., in 1851; attended the public schools and was graduated from Crittenden's Commercial College in Philadelphia; moved to New York City in 1866 and engaged in the leather trade; was a member of the board of school commissioners of Brooklyn 1896-1902; park commissioner for the Boroughs of Brooklyn and Queens in 1902 and 1903; interested in numerous corporations and business enterprises; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-first Congress (March 4, 1909-March 3, 1911); declined to be a candidate for reelection in 1910; engaged in leather manufacturing and mercantile pursuits; is a resident of Flatbush, Brooklyn, N. Y.

YOUNG, Richard Montgomery, a Senator from Illinois; born in Fayette County, Ky., February 20, 1798; attended the country schools and Forest Hill Academy, Jessamine County, Ky.; studied law, and was admitted to the bar in Kentucky in 1816; member of the Kentucky Militia; moved to Illinois in 1817 and commenced the practice of law in Jonesboro; appointed captain in the Illinois Militia; member of the State house of representatives 1820-1822; served as circuit judge of fifth circuit from 1825 to January 2, 1837, when he resigned on his election to the United States Senate; elected as a Democrat to the United States Senate, and served from March 4, 1837, to March 3, 1848; member of the mission to England to negotiate a loan for the State of Illinois in 1839; associate justice of the State supreme court from 1843 to 1847, when he resigned; was appointed by President Polk Commissioner of the General Land Office, and served from 1847 to 1849; Clerk of the National House of Representatives from April 17, 1850, to March 4, 1851, during the Thirty-first Congress; resumed the practice of law in Washington, D. C., where he died November 28, 1901; interment in the Congressional Cemetery.

YOUNG, Thomas Lowry, a Representative from Ohio; born in Killyleagh, County Down, Ireland, December 14, 1832; emigrated to the United States with his parents in 1847; enlisted in the United States Army as musician, private, corporal, sergeant, and first sergeant of Company A, Third Artillery, from March 25, 1848, to January 28, 1858; settled in Cincinnati, and was instructor in the State reform school; during the Civil War was captain of Benton Cadets, Missouri Volunteers, September 6, 1861; resigned December 10, 1861; commissioned major of the One hundred and eighteenth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry September 17, 1862; lieutenant colonel April 17, 1863; colonel April 11, 1864; brevetted brigadier general of Volunteers March 13, 1865, "for gallant and meritorious services in the Battle of Resaca, Ga."; resigned September 14, 1864; was graduated from the Cincinnati Law School; was admitted to the bar in 1865 and commenced practice in Cincinnati, Ohio; assistant city auditor of Cincinnati in 1865; member of the State house of representatives 1866-1868; elected recorder of Hamilton County in 1867; appointed supervisor of internal revenue in 1868; delegate to the Republican National Convention at Chicago in 1868; member of the State senate 1871-1873; lieutenant governor in 1875; Acting Governor of Ohio in 1877; elected as a Republican to the Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh Congresses (March 4, 1879-March 3, 1883); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1882; resumed the practice of law; member of the Board of Public Affairs of Cincinnati 1880-1888; died in Cincinnati, Ohio, July 20, 1888; interment in Spring Grove Cemetery.

YOUNG, Timothy Roberts, a Representative from Illinois; born in Dover, N. H., November 19, 1811; completed preparatory studies; attended Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, N. H., and was graduated from Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Me., in 1835; studied law in Dover, N. H., and was admitted to the bar; moved to Marshall, Ill., in the spring of 1838 and practiced law for ten years; elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-first Congress (March 4, 1849-March 3, 1851); moved to Mattoon, Ill., and became interested in the manufacture of plug tobacco, in which he continued for ten years; engaged in agricultural pursuits near Casey, Clark County, Ill.; died at Oilfield, near Casey, Ill., May 12, 1898; interment in Marshall Cemetery, Marshall, Ill.

YOUNG, William Albion, a Representative from Virginia; born in Norfolk, Va., May 17, 1860; attended the public schools and St. Mary's Academy at Norfolk; studied law, but abandoned it before obtaining a license and devoted himself to mercantile pursuits; clerk of the circuit and corporation courts of the city of Norfolk for six years; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1892; presented credentials as a Member elect to the Fifty-fifth Congress, and served from March 4, 1897, to April 28, 1898, when he was succeeded by Richard A. Wise, who contested his election; presented credentials as a Member elect to the Fifty-sixth Congress, and served from March 4, 1899, to March 12, 1900, when he was again succeeded by Richard A. Wise, who contested his election; engaged in the real-estate business at Norfolk, Va., where he died March 12, 1928; interment in St. Mary's Cemetery.

YOUNG, William Singleton (brother of Bryan Rust Young and uncle of John Young Brown), a Representative from Kentucky; born near Bardstown, Nelson County, Ky., April 10, 1790; studied medicine with Doctor Bemiss, of Bloomfield, and was graduated from the University of Louisville, Louisville, Ky.; commenced practice in Bloomfield, Nelson County, Ky.; moved to Elizabethtown, Hardin County, Ky., in 1814 and continued the practice of his chosen profession; elected as a Democrat to the Nineteenth Congress; reelected to the Twentieth Congress, and served from March 4, 1825, until his death in Elizabethtown, Hardin County, Ky., September 20, 1827, before the assembling of the Twentieth Congress; interment in Elizabethtown Cemetery.

YULEE, David Levy (formerly David Levy), a Delegate and a Senator from Florida; born in St. Thomas, West Indies, June 12, 1810; emigrated to the United States with his father, who settled in Norfolk, Va.; attended a private school in Norfolk, Va.; studied law in St. Augustine, Fla., where he went as a lad to his father's plantation in 1824; was admitted to the bar in 1836 and practiced in St. Augustine, Fla.; clerk to the Territorial legislature in 1841; elected as a Republican a Delegate to the Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth Congresses (March 4, 1841-March 3, 1845); did not seek renomination, having become a candidate for the Senate; delegate to the first State constitutional convention in 1845; upon the admission of Florida as a State into the Union was elected to the United States Senate, and served from July 1, 1845, to March 3, 1851; by an act of the Florida Legislature and at his request his name was changed to David Levy Yulee, and the United States Senate on January 12, 1846, ordered his name changed upon its rolls and journals in conformity with the act; again elected in January, 1855, and served from March 4, 1855, until his withdrawal January 21, 1861; president of the Atlantic & Gulf Railroad; served in the Confederate Congress throughout the Civil War; was a prisoner of state at Fort Pulaski in 1865; moved to Washington, D. C., in 1880; died at the Clarendon Hotel, New York City, October 10, 1886, while en route to his home in Washington, D. C., after a visit to Bermuda; interment in Oak Hill Cemetery, Washington, D. C.

ZENOR, William Taylor, a Representative from Indiana; born near Corydon, Harrison County, Ind., April 30, 1846; attended the common schools and the seminary of James G. May; studied law in New Albany, Ind., was admitted to the bar in 1870, and commenced practice in Corydon; moved to Leavenworth, Crawford County, Ind., in 1871, and continued the practice of law; prosecuting attorney of Crawford and Harrison Counties 1879-1885; judge of the third judicial circuit 1885-1897; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-fifth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1897-March 3, 1907); resumed the practice of law in Corydon, Ind.; moved to New Albany, Ind., in 1910 and continued the practice of law until his death there, June 2, 1916; interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Corydon, Ind.

ZIEGLER, Edward Danner, a Representative from Pennsylvania; born in Bedford, Bedford County, Pa., March 3, 1844; attended the common schools, and was graduated from Pennsylvania College, Gettysburg, Pa., in 1865; engaged in teaching in the York County Academy; studied law, was admitted to the bar on November 4, 1868, and commenced practice in York, Pa.; commissioner's clerk in 1871 and 1872; counsel to the board of commissioners; district attorney of York County 1881-1883; delegate to the Democratic National Convention at Chicago in 1884; elected as a Democrat to the Fifty-sixth Congress (March 4, 1899-March 3, 1901); unsuccessful candidate for renomination in 1900; resumed the practice of his profession; appointed by the judge of the court of common pleas of York County auditor of the offices of prothonotary, register of wills, clerk of the court, treasurer, and recorder of York County and served from 1923 to 1925; resumed the practice of law and is a resident of York, Pa.

ZIELMAN, Frederick Nicholas, a Representative from Maryland; born in Carnegie, Allegheny County, Pa., October 2, 1879; moved to Maryland with his parents, who settled in Cumberland in 1882; attended the public schools; entered a glass factory in 1890 and apprenticed as a glass blower; president of the local flint-glass workers' union 1904-1909 and became a member of the national executive board in 1905 and 1906; president of the Allegany Trades Council 1904-1909; president of the State federation of labor in 1906 and 1907; member of the State senate 1909-1917, and served as Republican floor leader in 1914 and 1916; engaged in the real-estate and insurance business in Cumberland, Md., in 1912; unsuccessful candidate for election in 1914 to the Sixty-fourth Congress; elected as a Republican to the Sixty-fifth and to the four succeeding Congresses (March 4, 1917-March 3, 1927). Re-elected to the Seventieth Congress.

ZOLLICOFFER, Felix Kirk, a Representative from Tennessee; born in Bigbyville, Maury County, Tenn., May 19, 1812; attended the "old field" schools and Jackson College, Columbia, Tenn.; became a printer; engaged in newspaper work in Paris, Tenn., 1828-1830, Knoxville, Tenn., in 1831 and 1832, and Huntsville, Ala., 1835-1843; elected State printer of Tennessee in 1835; served as lieutenant in the war against the Seminoles in Florida in 1836; editor and owner of the Columbia Observer and the Southern Agriculturist in 1837; editor of the Republican Banner, the State organ of the Whig Party, in 1843; comptroller of the State treasury 1845-1849; served in the State senate 1849-1852; delegate to the Whig National Convention at Baltimore in 1852; elected as a State Rights Whig to the Thirty-third, Thirty-fourth, and Thirty-fifth Congresses (March 4, 1853-March 3, 1859); declined to be a candidate for renomination in 1858; member of the peace convention of 1861 held in Washington, D. C., in an effort to devise means to prevent the impending war; during the Civil War served in the Confederate Army as brigadier general; commanded ten thousand troops in east Tennessee; one of the Tennessee generals whose figure is carved on Stone Mountain, Atlanta, Ga.; died from wounds received near Mill Springs, Ky., January 19, 1862; interment in the Old City Cemetery Nashville, Tenn.

ZUBLY, John Joachim, a Delegate from Georgia; born in St. Gall, Switzerland, August 27, 1724; emigrated to America and settled in South Carolina; was engaged as a clerk in Wando Neck; ordained to the ministry in 1744; was the first pastor of the Presbyterian Church in Savannah (now the Independent Presbyterian Church) in 1760; prominent in early Revolutionary movements; served in the Provincial Congress of Georgia in 1775; Member of the Continental Congress from 1775 to 1777 and opposed the adoption of the Declaration of Independence; was a member of several important committees; denounced as a traitor by Judge Samuel Chase and resigned; returned to Georgia and was accused of having furnished information to Sir James Wright, the royal governor, and narrowly escaped severe punishment; was banished from the State and one-half of his property was confiscated; resided in South Carolina 1777-1779; returned and resumed pastoral duties in Savannah, Ga., where he died July 23, 1781; interment in what is now known as Colonial Park.

W

3391